On May 13, 1970, Agent [redacted], Liaison Division, United States Secret Service, 1800 G Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., made available an envelope addressed to Pig Ted Kennedy, Boston, Massachusetts, with return address [redacted], Williminton, which was received May 6, 1970, by Senator Kennedy's Office. Contained in this envelope were nine unidentified newspaper clippings with pencil printing containing threats to the Senator. Copies of this letter and results of examinations conducted by the FBI Laboratory and Identification Division are attached.

The United States Secret Service made a check of their name files and visual files of previously submitted letters which indicated that this was another in a series from the same individual who has been submitting similar letters since 1965 to prominent individuals. All attempts to identify this individual have been negative to date. The United States Capitol Police and the Intelligence Division of the Metropolitan Police Department were advised of the receipt of this material.

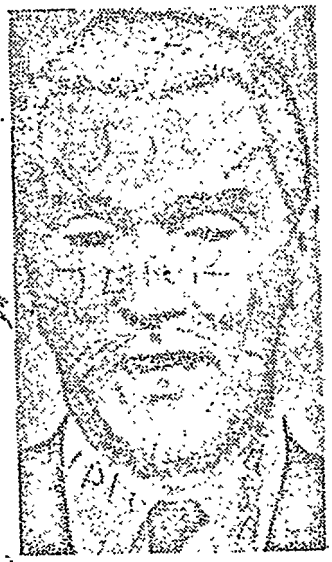
By MIKE BEATRICE

O'Donnell aims campaign guns

Kenneth P. O'Donnell, at a press conference Wednesday, became the first of the gubernatorial candidates to announce specifically what his campaign strategy will be, both for the September primary and, if successful in that political war, the November election.

Although regarded as a liberal, progressive leader, one who gave himself the label "the anti-establishment candidate," O'Donnell has chosen a traditional theme of party versus party, Democrat against Republican, as the foundation of his strategy.



KENNETH P. O'DONNELL

O'Donnell doesn't say that the Democrats need revitalizing, only an attractive candidate that can win. He says the lack of desirable options in the past has forfeited victory to the Republicans.

And, of course he identifies himself as the only contending Democrat who can tip over Gov. Francis W. Sargent come election day.

Republican control of government doesn't work in the executive branch of a state in which the legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic, says O'Donnell. And this is not because the legislature becomes obstructionist, he adds.

O'Donnell contends that, historically, his party, has led the way for all liberal and progressive programs, and that the Republicans have conceded their support only when forced to do so.

He considers Sargent highly vulnerable because of lack of accomplishment. He denounces him as an "Autumn liberal," indicating that the governor comes in with late support for programs only after they have been proven popular.

O'Donnell intends to "make Sargent a Republican, a Nixon Republican, a man who carries out Republican policy."

He says Sargent, in the spirit of the regime of former Gov. John A. Volpe, blames resistance from the Democratic legislature for failure to get things done. Behind the O'Donnell strategy is his conviction that the majority of Bay Staters prefer to vote Democratic; that the 40 percent of the voters who are registered Democrats represent a decisive base for a Democratic candidate of

The weapons are of Chinese Communist manufacture, the Times quoted the informants as saying, and presumably could be transferred at some point along the border between Cambodia and South Vietnam.

The message said the United States did not have any ammunition for the arms and suggested that Indonesia be queried as a possible source, the Times said.

"STUDENT POWER" flexed its muscles Wednesday at Boston College when the University Academic Senate voted 41-4 to end classes for the semester three weeks early. The three weeks will be used as a "reading period" to be followed by the regularly-scheduled final exams.

The action was taken as part of the students' continuing protest against a proposed hike in tuition. The students had been on strike for 10 days when the vote was taken.

ALTHOUGH THE ACCIDENT occurred last July, the trial last September and the inquest last January, the story of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and the Chappaquiddick Bridge continues to drag on.

Sen. Kennedy on Thursday asked the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court to order the release of the original transcript and report of the Mary Jo Kopechne inquest for public examination.

THE RELEASE OF THE TRANSCRIPT has been delayed by a suit filed by the court stenographers who compiled the transcript. They claim that they have the right to sell and distribute copies of the 764-page document now impounded in the office of Edward V. Keating, clerk of Suffolk Superior Criminal Court.

Miss Kopechne died when a car driven by Sen. Kennedy plunged off a narrow bridge into a salt pond on Chappaquiddick Island.

EVENTS OF A DECADE AGO are being rehashed in the trial of 63-year-old George L. Brady, former chairman of the Massachusetts Parking Authority. He is charged with conspiring to extract a $405,000 "kickback" during the construction of the $7.5 million garage under Boston Common.

KENNEDY QUIZZES THE VOTERS—Sen. Edward Kennedy skipped the pollsters and went right to the voters in Sharon last night in a question and answer session in the community center. He prefaced the session by terming it "conponical" then proceeded to field questions from the audience and ask them questions in return on a wide range of subjects, including women's rights and marijuana.

Truman Accepts Jap Unconditional Surrender Ending Bloody Pacific War—Gen MacArthur to Receive Nippon's Capitulation for Allies; Joyous Hysteria Sweeps the United Nations

By ERNEST BARCELLA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (UP)—Peace came to the world tonight when President Truman announced that Japan has accepted unconditional surrender and Allied forces have been ordered to cease firing.

Gen Douglas MacArthur, "the man who came back," was named Supreme Allied Commander to receive the formal Japanese surrender.

World War II—bloodiest conflict in all of human history—was at an end, except for the formality of signing surrender documents.

[illegible] will not be [illegible] after the instruments of surrender are signed.

The three Allies in the Pacific War—Great Britain, Russia and China will be represented at the signing by high ranking officers.

Mr. Truman proclaimed the glad tidings at 7 p. m. (EWT), shortly after he received Tokyo's formal reply to the Allied surrender terms.

Summoning reporters to his office, he read a statement which said:

"I deem this reply a full acceptance of the Potsdam Declaration which specified the unconditional surrender of Japan.

"In the reply there is no qualification."

Dublin's IRA provisional

By Tony Geraghty
Special to The Globe

BELFAST — The Irish Republican Army (IRA) provisionals issued a brief announcement last night in Dublin that after the failure of truce negotiations with British administrator William Whitelaw, similar talks had been resumed by the IRA with former British prime minister Harold Wilson.

The statement was remarkable in that none of the IRA top brass in Ulster, who are effectively running the guerrilla campaign to unite the province with the Irish Republic, had any knowledge of the talks — in sharp contrast to the situation when Whitelaw met IRA leaders in a London house just before the truce breakdown over a week ago.

The woman who issued the statement declined to say who was in the IRA delegation that conferred five hours with Wilson at an undisclosed location in England.

Wilson will make a full report on the talks to Whitelaw, political sources said.

While the Dublin IRA was issuing its statement, a young Catholic priest, Fr. Jack Fitzsimmonds, was telling a press conference in Belfast's Andersonstown district that the British had not responded to the IRA's "little truce" in nearby Lenadoon, where the exclusion of Catholic refugee families from homes legally allocated to them led to four days of sustained gun battle last week.

Whitelaw had promised situation, the British army would withdraw to its former positions by vacating apartments it had occupied since Thursday as firing perches in the area. As a result of this occupation, 3000 people have fled their homes.

By late last night, the army had not moved from its positions.

(Reuter reported, however, that the troops had begun to withdraw from Lenadon.

(It was not clear whether the troops were evacuating all the Lenadoon flats and houses they had taken over, or how many of the 7000 soldiers would be moved out of the area.)

Fitzsimmonds said he hoped that the IRA ceasefire peldge in Lenadoon would continue. But while he spoke long-range sniper shots by the IRA on the edge of Lenadoon were answered by heavy army fire

"The fact that I was considered is recognition enough," explained the mayor, who had endorsed Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine in the Massachusetts primary election in April.

"It was flattering to me and a heck of a tribute to Boston. It was also important and significant because it showed Sen. McGovern was willing to make that kind of a commitment to the American cities."

White added that he told McGovern that Eagleton was a "very good choice."

"Tom Eagleton is one of the few senators I know enough about to make such a judgment," he said.

White looked out the window again at the torrential rain, sighed, and confessed he was happy the excitement was all over.

Gov. Sargent and Boston Mayor White locked horns before a legislative committee yesterday over White's proposal to eliminate the need for state approval of the planned $260 million Park Plaza urban renewal project.

The White proposal, Sargent warned the joint Committee on Local Affairs, 'would give the Boston Redevelopment Authority a license to grab any piece of property in the city' without having to account to higher authority.

He termed the measure a "step backward" in urban renewal.

White criticized the Sargent administration and State Dept. of Community Affairs Commr. Miles Mahoney for having vetoed the Park Plaza plan earlier. He said community groups favored the project and that it would be protected with adequate safeguards against abuses.

"Boston is no longer a crippled city," the mayor told the committee, "but it is lacking in federal funds. The company involved in the project put up a million dollar bond and there was nothing devious about the plan.

Q—Will you kindly give me some information on the "Dearos?" I understand the term refers to a group of North-enders born at the turn of the century. — F.T., Chelsea.

A—John F. Fitzgerald, grandfather of the late President Kennedy, was a "Dearo." Fitzgerald was born in the North End in 1863 and first ran for office from Ward 6. Known as a great talker, his conversation was filled with references to the "dear old North End." At political rallies, a supporter planted in the audience, would first call for "three cheers for Johnny Fitz" and then "three cheers for the dear old North End."

KENNEDYS ALL

Fitzgerald sponsored the first reunion of "Dearos" back in the '30s. Fewer in number, the "Dearos" still meet for a memorial service each year on Columbus Day at St. Mary's Church in the even years and St. Stephen's Church in the odd. After the Mass there is a reunion and memories of the "dear old North End."

A—According to J. Edward Keefe, Boston's assistant corporation counsel, recovery from the city for injury to person or property due to negligence in maintenance of public streets is provided by Chapter 84 of the Massachusetts General Laws. However, two decision by the Massachusetts Supreme Court (Jones vs. Boston 1909 and Dakin vs. Somerville 1924) have decreed public parkways, created by municipal park boards, exempt from the statute. Commonwealth avenue from Arlington street to Kenmore square was created as a parkway by Boston Park Commission in 1894.

The Game's daily lottery plan

★LOTTERY

Your pocket is filled with quarters. Two at a time, you feed them into a vending machine electronically hooked up to The Game's computer at headquarters in Newton. The vending machine prints the tickets as you pay for them and then pops them out to you. You examine the tickets, light up a cigar, and wait — nervously, of course.

At a few minutes after 4 word of the results of the drawing comes through off-track horse race betting network, not to mention a system for betting on the results of professional sporting events! Don't think the lottery people aren't looking into these matters, too, because they are. But this is for the long-term future. The daily drawings, according to good authority, could become a reality by late next winter or early next spring.

Lottery officials have made no survey to determine how many tickets the daily lottery could be expected to sell and how from the present rate of $1.35 million to about $950,000. The net gain in weekly revenue should thus be between $600,000 and $1.1 million. That amounts to between $31.2 million and $57.2 million a year.

Meanwhile, the lottery has already:

—Raised about $17 million for distribution to the Commonwealth's 351 cities and towns at the end of this year, with $2.9 million of this amount earmarked for the City of Boston.

—Distributed prize money of nearly $18 million to some 100,000 win-

State Police emphasized there was no certain connection between the car and its occupants and the abandoned baby.

The man was described as appearing to be in his mid-20s with long sideburns, a moustache and a beard. The woman seemed to be partly slouched on the passenger side.

THE WITNESS said the car may be dark or Navy blue with considerable body rust.

The rear registration plate was wired on and the left rear fender was damaged, she said. She also said there appeared to be no front registration plate.

U.S. Checks Jane Fonda's Hanoi Talk

CRAZY LIKE MOM

By ISABELLE HALL

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In the face of heavy mail from Congress and the public, the Justice Department's Internal Security Division is "looking into" antiwar statements made by actress Jane Fonda in Hanoi. It wants to determine if she violated the 1940 Sedition Act.

Asst. Atty. Gen. A. William Olson, chief of the division, told UPI in an interview, "We don't have any plans to investigate her but we are looking at transcripts of her broadcasts where she is supposed to have said things like, 'lay down your arms' to U.S. troops." TOKYO ROSE

"Treason is not involved in the technical sense." Olson explained, reading from notes on the actual language of the law that might be involved. He chose to describe the division's handling of the matter as more of an inquiry than an investigation. PIG

Women heretofore were allowed to fill only 139 of the 484 Army jobs, but now only 48 are restricted for women and they all involve carrying a rifle.

The opening of new job opportunities to women followed a report last month by a House Armed Services subcommittee which accused the Defense Department of "mere tokenism in the utilization of women in the armed services."

AND AS THE ARMY grows in woman power, additional training battalions and training facilities will be established at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Two years ago WAC director Elizabeth P. Hoisengton became the first woman in U.S. history to be promoted brigadier general. In September, the ROTC program is being opened to women, who will be trained alongside the men.

However, federal law still prohibits women from attending the service academies. Asked how she feels about WACs at West Point, Gen. Bailey replied:

"It would be a nice thing to have there, but I would not expend my time and energy to actively seek it."

Other government troops to the South flushed out an enemy battalion from the last of five hamlets recaptured near Hue. They also fought off two attacks around Fire Base Checkmate in the jungled hills southwest of the former imperial capital.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops made concerted predawn attacks Sunday against three government outposts in Quang Ngai Province, 65 miles south of Da Nang, the Saigon command reported.

THE DEFENDERS called in tactical air and artillery support and drove off waves of enemy infantry in nine hours of fighting. They claimed 86 North Vietnamese troops were killed at a cost of four South Vietnamese dead and a handful of wounded.

Some of the bloodiest fighting of the day was in Cambodia where elements of two North Vietnamese divisions, backed for the first time by tanks, were on the offensive.

Enemy assaults were concentrated against the town of Kompong Trabeb and the outpost of Neak Luong, an

US ships raid near Haipho

Reuter

SAIGON — Four American warships steamed to within 10 miles of Haiphong, North Vietnam's main port, to shell coastal fuel dumps and gun batteries, then sank two torpedo boats which chased after them, the US Command said yesterday.

The heavy cruiser Newport News, the light guided missile cruiser Providence, and the destroyers Robinson and Rowan hit the Cat Bi fuel storage depot two miles southeast of the Haiphong city limits and also hit shore batteries and a barracks about 10 miles farther south along the coast on Sunday.

Observers said only six secondary explosions resulted from the shelling by the warships, and their mission was seen as a defiant show of strength.

Radio Hanoi claimed yesterday that shore batteries at Haiphong set two US warships ablaze.

A Navy spokesman said shrapnel from shells fell on the signal bridge of the Robison, but there were no injuries or damage. The shells landed about 30 feet from the ship.

craft carrier Midway swooped down to finish off the crippled boat as it headed for the beach, the command said.

It was the second raid of its kind during the current communist offensive and the first since US jets mined Haiphong and all other North Vietnamese ports early last May.

A US Command spokesman said the nearest the US ships came to the shore was between 9 and 10 miles. He added that the torpedo boats had not run through the minefields but had come from an island off Haiphong.

Vice Adm. J. L. Holloway 3d; the US 7th Fleet Commander, went along aboard the Newport News.

The announcement of the raid followed first official reports that a Chinese minesweeper had been detected lying at anchor in Haiphong Harbor, but the Command spokesman said he saw no connection between the two events and there was still no indication that the minesweeper had attempted to clear the mines.

In Washington, Defense Department sources said the 20-year-old wooden-built minesweeper can do nothing useful without reinforcements — "except perhaps get sunk by American aircraft."

"There is no sign that any more are on the way. Unless others arrive to help out, the vessel will be quite incapable of clearing the mines outside Haiphong," they said.

"Frankly, we do not know why it is there, but we are watching it very closely."

United Press International reported on ground action:

—Government troops fought their way to a Communist-held hilltop overlooking the district capital on Que Son and held the position long enough to allow a South Vietnamese supply convoy to enter and leave the town. The Communists hold about two-thirds of the town.
