The pressures on South Korea begin with the constant threat by the Communists, now so heavily armed and equipped, simply to sweep down across the 38th Parallel again and overrun the South at any time. Seoul itself is only seven minutes away, for jet bombers from the newest Communist airfields. All of South Korea lives and exists under the dark shadow of murderous invasion by Communist hordes. This threat is a powerful factor in enabling Communist agents and sympathizers within South Korea to take a more brazen course, and to intimidate their opposition. Not only do infiltrators from the North make all of the trouble they can, and not only do their allies and agents carry that trouble right into the high levels of the South Korean government, but what is even worse, the Communists are visibly gaining support from some of the more opportunistic South Koreans, whose patriotic courage is gradually failing them under all of the pressures for the present and dangers for the future.

Because of the greatly stepped-up campaign of infiltration and subversion which the Communists have been carrying on for the past several months, a much needed National Security Law was brought forward in the Korean Assembly. Whereupon the so-called Democratic Party of Korea embarked on a program of obstructionism and villification which for a while bogged down all normal and necessary government procedures. If the left-wingers in our own country, who are now promoting the Communist "Operation Abolition" to get rid of the FBI and our internal-security committees, should stage a week's sit-down strike on our Senate floor, the situation would be comparable to what Syngman Rhee has had to face in Seoul.

Although every election held in the Republic of Korea in the eleven years of its existence has been under United Nations observation, and the essential honesty and impartiality of these elections have been certified to the United Nations by its own committees or commissions (which were certainly hostile to Syngman Rhee), the Korean Democratic Party has been casting slurs on the elections — and going much further. On February 4 of this year a leading member of the Korean Democratic Party wrote, in an editorial in his "opposition" newspaper:

"A true majority is not, of course, expressed solely by elections. If elections are not capable of determining a true majority, there may be another way of doing it. This way is that in which a true majority is decided by force, and that is what we call a revolution . . . The general understanding of the political crisis that Korea faces today may have to start from this point."

This, as the Korean Foreign Policy Association has stated, comes very close to open advocacy of revolution. It is clearly the purpose of leading elements within the Korean Democratic Party to supplant the truly republican government of Syngman Rhee, and his approximately two-thirds majority in the National Assembly, with a pro-Communist clique. This would, of course, be only a forerunner to the eventual "unification" of North Korea and South Korea under a Communist dictatorship, with the full terror of Communist vengeance and suppression let loose on millions of South Koreans — after the unsurpassable bravery and suffering which they have gone through over the past decade to save their country.

To bring about this increasing Communist influence within South Korea, and ultimate absorption of South Korea by the total Communist tyranny, the Korean Democratic Party has and uses many tricks, many methods, and many pressures. The threat of civil war and its resulting chaos and misery is a powerful lever. It is made more powerful by the certainty that Communist troops and tanks and planes would pour across the border to take part in that civil war.

These threats, however, are kept in the psychological background, always understood but seldom stated. While in the foreground of the Korean Democratic Party's effort to persuade, frighten, and coerce more and more of the South Koreans into a resigned acceptance of its program, is a trump card which the Party leadership keeps sticking just slightly out of its sleeve for everybody to catch a glimpse of, and keep in mind. This trump card is American support. For the Korean Democratic Party, in its efforts to overthrow that determined anti-Communist and our great friend and ally, Syngman Rhee, is convincing more and more of the people of South Korea that it has the backing of the United States Government. And, on this score, the Party does not have to convince us. We would find any other course, on the part of Moscow's agent along the Potomac, to be utterly incredible in the light of what they are doing everywhere else in the world.

As the revolutionary pronouncement of February 4, 1959, quoted above, frankly confessed, the Communists knew they had no chance of taking over Korea by free and honest elections within the foreseeable future, or as long as Syngman Rhee lived and was able to serve as President. In every election since the Republic was founded, including the most recent one of only a couple of months ago (and despite the fact that these elections had all been supervised by agencies of the United Nations, bitterly hostile to Rhee), a preponderant majority of South Koreans had shown that they were completely loyal to Syngman Rhee and determinedly anti-Communist. The only possible chance the Communists and their dupes and allies had for taking over the Republic of Korea was through some typically Communist combination of pressure and terror for by-passing those very "democratic processes" to which they give such monotonous lip service.

Under these circumstances, with Syngman Rhee already eighty-five years old, it is entirely possible that the Communists, while continuing their infiltration and trouble-making in the meantime, would have waited until Rhee was no longer present to oppose them, but for two reasons. The first was their fear, apparently, that in Lee Ki-poong, elected as Vice-President in March, Rhee had at last found and started training a worthy and younger anti-Communist leader to succeed him. For the first time the Communists saw fading away their longstanding expectation of the whole South Korean government falling apart under their pressures, ready for them to pick up the pieces, whenever Rhee died or had to give up the struggle. And a second reason may well have been the desire of Khrushchev, and of his agents in Washington, to have a whole series of anti-Communist governments toppling over, or facing serious troubles, just before the Summit Conference began and as a psychological build-up for the American surrender to be subtly initiated there. (As he had hoped.) This kind of precise timing is one of the most professionally operated and effective techniques of the Communist advance.

At any rate, and for whatever reason, the time seemed ripe. And the Communist-dominated students and trouble-makers, with the so-called Korean Democratic Party in the forefront, went to work on their final putsch. Their attempt to make political capital out of the fact that Syngman Rhee's opponent for the presidency had died before the election gradually evaporated when it became widely known that this opponent had died in a hospital in Washington, D. C., for causes and under circumstances for which Rhee could not possibly have had any responsibility. So the Communists and their dupes and allies then, after themselves making all of the trouble in connection with the election that they could, fell back on claims of widespread corruption and ballot-stuffing. It is almost certain that, except for the dishonest acts of the Communists themselves, there was less corruption and "irregularity" in the Korean elections of this March than in any American presidential election held since 1936. The vicious Communists claims of corruption consisted almost entirely of noise without evidence, in typical Communist fashion. But none of this mattered. What really counted was that Christian A. Herter and his State Department were all set and primed to come to their aid with the whole prestige and power of the United States Government.

If there is any one thing absolutely necessary for any government, when beset by a Communist-inspired uprising, it is for that government to show firmness in dealing with such terrorist rioting. And this is the one thing, above all others, that Rhee was not allowed to do. When he finally made a serious attempt to suppress the lawless actions of a small but vicious minority, bring to book the murderers and destroyers, and restore order, he was met with a sanctimonious rebuke from Christian A. Herter that the South Korean Government was adopting "repressive measures unsuited to a free democracy." And the Secretary of State of the United States was not just throwing at Rhee words which could not hurt him. The Secretary had within his reach sticks and stones to break the bones of Rhee's government, as Rhee was well aware.

So, from then on, practically anything went for the Communist gorillas and their misled dupes. Their mayhem on persons and demolition of property became merely evidence of the "grievances" of the Koreans which Syngman Rhee ought to redress. And the grand old fighter, hemmed in on every side by malicious forces utterly beyond his power to control or subdue, gave ground and made the concessions they seemed to want until finally, with all power to fight back insidiously embezzled from him, he gave up the one thing they really wanted, which was himself.

That "front man for traitors," General George Catlett Marshall, once boasted, correctly, that he had disarmed thirty-nine of Chiang Kai-shek's divisions with a stroke of his pen. And the embargo put into effect, by that stroke of Marshall's pen, which prevented Chiang from getting even ammunition for his troops, coupled with the appeasement-truces with Mao Tse-tung's Communists which Marshall used all the power of the United States Government to force on Chiang (to give Mao's hordes the time to recuperate and arm), was probably the decisive factor in eventually turning all of the mainland of China over to the Communists. (As this writer, at least, has always believed Marshall fully intended.) In the future, we feel sure, Mr. Christian A. Herter will be able to boast that with just one sentence of criticism of Syngman Rhee he broke the back of Syngman Rhee's government. And we further believe that, again, this one statement will be considered by honest historians of the future as having been the decisive factor in eventually making of South Korea another province of the Kremlin. (As this writer, at least, believes that Herter fully intended.)

There was one sad difference, however, in the result of the two betrayals. The takeover of the mainland of China was of tremendous importance to the Kremlin, in the strategy for conquest of the world that Communists have carefully followed since the days of Lenin. And it was a tragedy of immeasurable import to the half a billion human beings who were thus brought under the most cruel despotism in the history of the human race. Chiang, however, was able not only to survive, but to keep on fighting. And he may still live to see the day when he can turn the tables on the hideous monsters who now rule his country and mass-murder his countrymen.

But for Syngman Rhee it is almost inconceivable that there will be any comeback. For him this is the end. And it is worth while to pause for a paragraph, in considering the Communist malice as it affects nations and millions, to think about just one man who was so tragically overwhelmed by their lies and ruthlessness. It is doubtful if there has ever been a human being, of such transcendent greatness, for whom a deep and sincere humility was more completely the very core of his character. And it is certain that, except for Chiang Kai-shek, no other Asiatic has ever been as dedicated to the truly republican form of government, or has given so much of himself (while working under the very handicaps imposed by his ideal) to try to establish such a government for his countrymen. A direct descendant of the earlier kings of Korea, Syngman Rhee endured one year of torture and then spent more than half a century of unceasing work and struggle studded with cruel disappointments, to try to make of Korea the kind of republic which the United States had been in its better days.

Yet the Communist reversal of all truth is now so great, and the propagation of Communist lies by the American press so extensive and unwitting or unashamed, that a long editorial in the Boston Traveler began with such paragraphs as these:

"No one has ever accused South Korea's President Syngman Rhee of being a humble or a modest man.

"But even long-term critics of his arrogance and high-handed leadership got a shock from his reaction to the popular revolt that challenged his government this week . . . . . .

"Seldom has a national leader—however vain—displayed an attitude of such personal pique in the face of public repudiation . . . . . .

"But those among South Korea's twenty-three million citizens who believe in free government and honest elections don't intend to be overlooked."

Of course nobody, at least in the memory of this writer, has ever accused the editorials in the Boston Traveler of making sense. But almost every line and word in the above, and in the whole editorial that followed, was either the exact opposite of the truth, was badly distorted, or showed a complete misunderstanding of the forces at work in Korea. (As complete a misunderstanding as shown by the same paper when the Communist Mao Tse-tung was taking over China, when Communist Achmed Sukarno was taking over Indonesia, and when the Communist Fidel Castro was taking over Cuba.) But this kind of idiotic nonsense was typical of what was being fed its readers by ninety percent of the whole American press. And back in Kyung Mu Dai, the Korean "White House" on a hillside in Seoul, an old man with a broken heart was coming to the end of his resistance against the lies and pressures and attacks of his enemies—and the betrayals of his "friends."

Syngman Rhee has seen the truth he has always spoken now "twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools," and the things he gave his life to now broken beyond repair by jackals seeking scraps of favor from the Kremlin. But the foremost waves of civilization still move inexorably westward. And humanity, for all its passing phases of folly and of crime, still climbs gropingly upward, especially in the lands irrigated by those waves, towards its age-old goal of a truly humane existence. Out of the graveyard of all decency and hope which the Communists are now making of all Korea, in a few decades—or a few centuries—there will arise a new Korea, as bright and glorious as that happy republic of which Syngman Rhee dreamed so long. And in that reborn nation its spiritual founder, Syngman Rhee, will finally receive the honor he deserves, as one of the very greatest men—in every worthwhile sense—that our whole race has yet produced.

And How Christian Is Herter?

The catastrophe in Korea, however, had one incidental result of considerable importance. This was the forcing on informed American patriots of the reluctant conviction that they had better stop taking for granted the widely advertised stupidity of Christian Herter. It finally became necessary to start seeking a more plausible explanation for his incredible string of successful failures. For in the first place, to paraphrase James Forrestal once more, the law of probability with regard to the toss of a coin simply will not stretch far enough to make the results of stupidity point so invariably in the same direction. And in the second place, nobody going through even the motions of international diplomacy, at so high a level, could possibly be as stupid as Herter's friends and supporters insistently proclaim to be, in a visible effort to fend off more sinister accusations.

We discussed Mr. Herter at some length in the June, 1959 issue of this magazine. But that was a year ago. And during those twelve months the anti-Communist team, with our State Department so largely calling the signals, has not only lost a lot of ground, and suffered a terrific demoralization of many of its members, but has caused the betting odds against our side to reach an all-time high. So it seems to be in order to take another and longer look at our Secretary of State.

Of course we do not have room for any comprehensive or well-balanced biography of Mr. Herter. But, at the expense of repeating some of the exhibits from our parade of a year ago, we can assemble and string together for you, right out of the public press, a series of well-known incidents in his public career which become most revealing when laid end to end. As to what they reveal, that depends quite a bit on the eye of the beholder—and on how objectively the beholder can look at the whole nightmarish scene in which we find ourselves today.

The first entries in this selective record must begin with foreign aid. Next to Earl Browder, probably no other American has supported our foreign-aid program earlier, more enthusiastically, or with more extravagant and ambitious proposals. As Coronet Magazine reported in August, 1957 (on the same page where it praised Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., so effusively for representing the United States so well at the Bandung Conference), "nothing, perhaps, helped as much to put across the Marshall Plan after World War II as the junket of a House Committee headed by studious Representative (now Under Secretary of State) Christian Herter of Massachusetts."

The truth about the Marshall Plan is not yet popular even with many good Americanists, who still are not willing to admit that—despite whatever comparatively small amount of good it may have accomplished—it was basically a brilliant scheme of the Communists to get the United States to do exactly what the Communists wanted us to do, but to do it under the guise of fighting Communism. Even in the very earliest days of "foreign aid," UNRRA money was used primarily to enable Madame Sun Yat-sen in China, Menshikov in Poland, Tito in Yugoslavia, and other Kremlin agents elsewhere, to herd the Communist sheep into corrals supplied with food, and to starve the anti-Communist goats, in their respective countries. Since then, among the half dozen major advantages accruing to the Communists from the American foreign-aid program, perhaps the most important has been the use of government billions to keep socialist governments in power and to enable them to become more socialistic. Actually, it was the most effective force in bringing about that continued and steady advance towards socialism, in most countries on this side of the Iron Curtain, instead of a reversion to the "normalcy" of conservatism which is to be expected after the turmoil of any great war.

The Communists are now fully two-thirds of the way on their long road to total conquest of the whole world. During most of their progress so far they have had nothing to work with but cunning and terror, and the cunning always had to be successful to some extent before the terror could even be utilized. So the cunning had to be brilliant, professional, and painstakingly developed at every turn. But when the Communists asked themselves how on earth the American people could be beguiled into allowing billions on billions of American taxpayers' money, in the postwar decades, to do exactly those things which the Communists wanted to have done, the answer was comparatively easy, and strictly logical from their point of view. For it involved that exact and complete reversal of the truth which is the key to Communist planning. All that was required was to present and "sell" the whole program to the American people as a means of fighting Communism. The American taxpayer would be willing to make more sacrifices, and to accept more profligacy on the part of his government, for that purpose than any other. Such a program once firmly established in the American mind as being for that purpose would become more sacrosanct, and more invulnerable to criticism or impervious to truth, than anything else that could be offered the electorate.

So American foreign aid was inaugurated during the Truman administration; largely by soft-on-Communism Democrats led by Dean Acheson, with the able assistance of Christian A. Herter. For propaganda reasons they affixed to it the name of that idol of the Left, George Catlett Marshall—who had nothing to do with the whole scheme except for being assigned the job of delivering one speech about it at Harvard. And a case history of what the Marshall Plan did to the economics and the political developments in, for instance, Belgium or England, will clearly demonstrate that the Communists accomplished, with regard to promoting socialism, exactly what they had planned with this colossal deception in the first place.

None of these facts or developments bothered Christian Herter. Instead, they helped his career. For even in those days when Earl Browder, Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, and their closest collaborators and worst dupes, were sowing the seeds of American foreign aid and nourishing the earliest plants, Herter well knew the side of the fence on which it was most promising to graze. He was the most "modern" of "modern Republicans" before the term had even been invented, and long before the Left was in as complete control of our government as it is today. And by helping mightily to push the Marshall Plan through the House of Representatives, of which he was then a member, he established himself as a lasting favorite of the superliberals.

Then the Marshall Plan, which had been presented to the American people by Acheson, Herter and Company as a strictly temporary measure, was metamorphosed into the permanent and more ambitious program that is now called Mutual Security (unless they change the label again before we can get into print). And this metamorphosis had the full blessing of Mr. Herter. In fact, on March 15, 1956, while he was still Governor of Massachusetts but visibly looking ahead to acting on a larger stage, he made a most revealing speech before the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations. He not only insisted that all of our foreign-aid billions should be handed out without any strings attached whatsoever, and that "we should not demand any quid pro quo for our assistance." But he then went on to propose that we should team up with the Soviet Union in helping the underdeveloped countries; that "we should offer to coordinate our aid with whatever assistance the Soviet Union is able to provide . . . We should . . . be willing to work out both with the Soviet and with the recipient country a program to which both the Soviet and ourselves can each contribute."

On Page 55 of Earl Browder's Teheran, in the midst of a long discussion setting forth the glories of American foreign aid, Mr. Browder had written: "Here also a broad regional program of economic development is called for, capable of reconciling national rivalries through international collaboration. Here, further, there is raised the whole question of the possibility of economic participation by the Soviet Union in such a program together with the capitalist lands."

On April 1, 1957, in a guest article written for the super-liberal columnist, Thomas L. Stokes, Mr. Herter defended our foreign aid program—past, present, and future—with all of the usual sophistries. Typical of his approach was the statement: "About twenty billion dollars of this has been in the form of loans. We have every reason to believe this twenty billion dollars will be repaid." If Mr. Herter could have believed that idiocy, then the claims of apologists as to his stupidity would be justified. But we wonder how much money Mr. Herter personally would have been willing to lend these same debtors, out of his own pocket instead of his country's pocket, on the strength of that expectation.

We'll not take the time or space for as full a review of Mr. Herter's manifestations of "liberalism" in fields other than foreign aid. We shall try to hit a larger number of high spots instead. And simply to plunge ahead, let's note that he was one of the founders, in 1950, of "Republican Advance." This outfit, which later was more or less swallowed up in the "Citizens For Eisenhower," you may remember, was intended to be, not an opposing force to, but a teammate of, Americans For Democratic Action—pulling both parties down exactly the same path, and with certain interlocking superliberals serving on both. On December 11, 1956, Mr. Herter was publicly praised by the Americans For Democratic Action, as we are sure he should have been. For the sad truth is that, ideologically, Christian Herter belongs in the same group with, or slightly left of, Hubert Humphrey, John Kennedy, Estes Kefauver, and Eleanor Roosevelt. The sadder truth is that, otherwise, he could not possibly have been appointed to his present job by the forces which now control the Eisenhower administration. And saddest truth of all is that his unanimous confirmation, by the Senators present and voting, showed how far all opposition to the smooth-running superliberal juggernaut had already been browbeaten into a resigned acquiescence.

As the new Secretary of State, Christian Herter could hardly get to Washington fast enough to give a luncheon for that Communist archenemy of the United States, Fidel Castro. As National Review pointed out, he then "opened his secretaryship with a miserable and dangerous capitulation," in agreeing to the Soviet demand that the United States would not fly planes at an altitude of more than ten thousand feet over the corridor to Berlin. And in the early foothills of the "summit conference"—a year ago, when that conference was first tentatively scheduled for July, 1959—it was Herter who refused to support the firmly anti-Communist stand of Adenauer and de Gaulle, and who used the weight of the United States as an "intermediary" on behalf of the "flexible" views of Macmillan.

A photograph of Christian Herter practically straining a gut in his exuberant haste to shake hands with Gromyko was one of the first useful pieces of Soviet propaganda to come out of the Foreign Ministers' show in Geneva last spring. That meeting had hardly got under way before the United Press announced that "Secretary of State Christian Herter will hold a man-to-man session tomorrow with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. Herter will be Gromyko's guest at luncheon in the Soviet headquarters on the Rue de la Paix." When Herter became a party to the arrangement whereby the East German delegates as well as the West German delegates were allowed to sit as "advisers," at small tables adjoining the main table of the Foreign Ministers, he had already given the East German puppet regime the de facto recognition which was all the Soviets wanted to accomplish at the conference. And when he made clear that we should deal with the Soviets in this whole circus by "offering concession for concession," he was talking exactly the line which the Kremlin had written for the occasion. Out of an almost infinite number of such tiny straws of "appeasement" have been built all the bricks of Soviet prestige, in that parapet of pretended might from which the Soviets have enslaved a billion people.

It has frequently been remarked that there was only one real difference between the adminstrations of Roosevelt, Truman, and Eisenhower. This was that they got steadily worse. Something not as generally noted is that there has been absolutely no change in the fundamentals of our so-called "foreign policy" since Dean Acheson established its course immediately following World War II. For all practical purposes Acheson could have stayed right on as Secretary of State throughout all of the years since he left the office. His protégé and former assistant, John Foster Dulles, frequently talked a good brand of anti-Communism, because that obviously fitted the role assigned to him. But under his Secretaryship the Communists went right on winning the world, always with the help of the U. S. Department of State, just the same as before. With Christian Herter in the Secretary's chair, the old Acheson line has merely become more visible again—and considerably more brazen, because of the increased Communist power and influence.

In September, 1958, for instance, at a speech in Atlantic City, Mr. Herter as Under Secretary of State advocated abandonment of the Chinese offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu as "not strategically defensible." His opposition to the anti-Communist government of Chiang Kai-shek (as well as to the government of Syngman Rhee) has remained as clear as was that of Dean Acheson—or of Owen Lattimore. And as a part of that opposition he has succeeded in completely ousting Walter S. Robertson, the one man of high rank within the State Department who always fought for support of the Nationalist Chinese Government. And of course he has insisted on bringing back to active duty, in a top policy-making position as the Secretary's own adviser, the notorious Charles Bohlen—the "expert" who had advised Roosevelt on Eastern European questions at both Teheran and Yalta. Senators Bridges and Dirksen, who had publicly opposed this appointment and thought they had it stopped, reminded Mr. Herter, when they found him going through with the appointment anyway, that his stubbornness on this issue was not going to be liked by many Senators. Mr. Herter reminded Messrs. Bridges and Dirksen in turn that this particular appointment did not require Senate confirmation; metaphorically but quite pointedly thumbed his nose at the two Senators and the Senate; and brought Mr. Bohlen right into the inner circle of the State Department.

It is in his disingenuous spouting of the then current Communist line on any and all practicable occasions, however, perhaps more than in any other activity, that Christian Herter reveals the real nature of his purpose—and, by the subtlety with which that purpose is advanced, makes the charitable assertions concerning his stupidity seem grossly exaggerated. Of course he goes through all of the proper motions, at the proper times, of expressing doubt as to the intentions of the Soviets or as to the dependability of their agreements. Which doesn't bother the Kremlin butchers in the slightest degree. They themselves tell us, and the rest of the world, over and over, that any agreements into which they enter are made by them only to be broken when it suits their convenience. And they don't care how much Mr. Herter gravely wrinkles his brow in public over his worries that the Soviets will not negotiate in good faith, so long as he still rushes pell mell to negotiate with them every time they blow the whistle for him to come a-running.

But in between, and frequently as background preparation for these interminable "tension-relaxing flops," Mr. Herter uses the full prestige of his great office to spread the clever refrains of Communist propaganda. At the official meeting of the Organization of American States in Santiago, Chile, last year for instance, Mr. Herter went far out of his way to express the dislike of our government for dictators. The occasion and the context made it entirely clear, as Mr. Herter visibly intended, that he was referring to such "dictators" as Stroessner of Paraguay, Luis Somoza of Nicaragua, and Trujillo of the Dominican Republic. The increasingly feverish and vicious effort of the Soviets, and of their stooges like Romulo Betancourt and Fidel Castro, to overthrow these only three remaining firmly anti-Communist governments in all Latin America, is built around this phoney psychological attack on dictatorships, and around movements in behalf of "freedom and democracy." Mr. Herter was actually telling all of the Communist agitators in Latin America that their efforts to undermine our best real friends in the whole hemisphere, and to "liberate" their peoples into the hands of Communist dictators instead, would have the full blessing and encouragement of the U. S. State Department. And how little he and his fellow agitators are really disturbed by dictators—if only they are Communist instead of anti-Communist dictators—was shown by the fact that Nikita Khrushchev was practically on his way at that very time to visit America as an honored guest, on an invitation to which Mr. Herter had given his most enthusiastic approval.

Or note the Secretary's speech before the National Foreign Trade Council, this past November. He announced that a "common language" was beginning to emerge, in which the leaders of "East and West" could profitably exchange ideas. (Not the free world and the slave world, please remark, nor even the Soviets and the United States, but "East and West"; the latter being a euphemism now vigorously promoted by Soviet propaganda, helped along of course by Mr. Herter.) He then proceeded to explain: "We can find a common language because we have a common interest. That interest lies simply in the basic will to survive, shared by free men and communists alike. I think (continued Mr. Herter) the Soviet leadership is reaching a conclusion similar to our own—that unless the course of events is changed and changed soon, both sides face unacceptable risks of general nuclear war, which would approximate mutual suicide."

No, gentle reader, the above statement was not written by Cyrus Eaton, nor by Bertrand Russell, nor—as far as we know—by any ghost writer in the Kremlin. It was written by—or for—the American Secretary of State. It is, as you will have recognized, the exact propaganda line of the Committee For A Sane Nuclear Policy and for other clans of the "let's surrender" tribe. The game is basically very simple. The Soviets unceasingly make ever new demands and create ever new "tensions"; unceasingly we are told that we must give in, and our "leaders" see that we do give in, because that is preferable to the only other alternative, general nuclear war and a destruction of the planet, or of all human life on the planet. After each new partial surrender the Soviets merely make still new demands. So we give in further, again to preserve "peace," because nuclear war is unthinkable. Until eventually there is nothing left to surrender, the Soviets have been conceded the whole earth—and the use of nuclear weapons can be confined to the annihilation of their enemies only, without any corresponding danger to themselves. The planet will then have been saved for Communism, for at least that part of the human race willing to accept Communism,—and presumably for Mr. Christian Herter.

Finally, and omitting many other words and deeds that are more than passing strange in the career of Christian Herter, we should recognize the extreme brand of his internationalism. This conspicuous facet of his character, notable throughout his whole career, has been particularly radiant in the glow of the long and heated drive to establish a World Court, with supreme authority over a no-longer-independent America.

In November, 1945 a resolution was introduced into the United State Senate, by Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, giving consent to our government's acceptance of the jurisdiction of the World Court over our nation, except with regard to purely domestic affairs. A similar joint resolution was introduced in the House in December, 1945 by the then Congressman Christian A. Herter. (And there is nothing exceptional about Christian Herter and Wayne Morse being in agreement on any issue.) The vital question, of course, was as to who should decide what were purely domestic affairs. Our national independence was saved at that time, from the Morse-Herter attack, by an amendment consisting of six words, so that the resolution as passed accepted this World Court jurisdiction except with regard to domestic affairs "as determined by the United States." This was the now famous Connally Reservation. Messrs. Herter, Morse, and their fellow internationalists were halted for a while, but by no means stopped.

Of course if Mr. Herter cannot have one world complete, he would be glad to accept any reasonable division thereof, so long as it subordinated the United States to some international body and wiped out the independence for which our forefathers fought and died. When he was Congressman he signed the Atlantic Union resolution, which called for sinking our sovereignty into a union of the British empire and other European countries. One of Mr. Herter's speeches was recently printed and distributed by the United World Federalists—for good reasons, from their point of view. The dinner given in his honor by the International Friendship League was appropriate and deserved. He is busily involved, on the best of terms, with practically anybody and everybody promoting one-worldism. His greatest esteem, and moral support, is reserved for those who would subordinate the United States to a position of equality with Indonesia or Cuba or Poland or Iraq, in any grouping, under some superior overall authority of whatever form or nature.

But the World Court still holds first place, as a means of wiping out American independence, in the hearts of Christian A. Herter, Hubert Humphrey, Charles O. Porter, Henry Luce, Estes Kefauver, Erwin Griswold, and all their weird clique of ideological fellow travelers. And now that we have the renewed drive for "World Peace Through World Law" (as Dean Manion says, "What Law?"), to begin with repeal of the Connally Reservation, you will find Christian Herter busily supporting that drive wherever he can find an opening. On January 27, 1960, for instance, the New York Times reported: "The Administration, in a sudden change of tactics, sent its first team to the Capitol today to urge the repeal of a restriction on United States participation in the International Court of Justice. (The restriction, as the Times condescended to explain further in the article, was the Connally Reservation). Christian A. Herter, Secretary of State, and William P. Rogers, Attorney General, assured the Senate Foreign Relations Committee of the Administration's support for repeal." And you can be sure that Christian Herter will keep voicing the support by any administration, and also his own support, for any measure to destroy American sovereignty, piece by piece or all at once, until that destruction is achieved.

Does all of this mean that we think Christian Herter is a Communist. Heavens to Betsy, no. We doubt if Mr. Herter has ever even seen a Communist Party card in his life, much less carried one. And if Mr. Herter had ever even stumbled accidentally into a Communist cell meeting, we feel sure the Communists themselves would hurriedly have yanked him out, to save from any possible contamination a man who was so useful to them as a non-Communist.

What Mr. Herter is and wants is entirely clear. He is an extreme internationalist, who wishes to see a one-world government established with enforceable power over all the nations of the earth—with all of these nations socialized and equalized and denationalized, so that a one-world administration would be practicable. If it happened to turn out, through the accidents of history and the fortuitous concatenation of present forces at work, that the seat of that one-world government was in Moscow; that the world-wide armies enforcing universal peace were under control of the Kremlin and using the Kremlin's highly efficient police-state methods; that the necessary mechanics for making socialism work gave the Kremlin's agencies and viceroys complete control over all the raw materials, farm production, and industrial output of the whole world, to move around and distribute as they saw fit; and that in the making of the world-wide omelet of peoples a few tens of millions of human heads unavoidably got busted and a few hundred million of other human beings lived out their whole span of years as miserable slaves; if the achievement of the glorious, beautiful, egalitarian, socialized, and peaceful one world, ruled by world law, should just happen to evolve in that manner, this would be a most unfortunate coincidence, which we are sure Mr. Herter would consider regrettable. But not too regrettable, of course, if there were no other way to bring about so desirable an end.

Et Sequitur

The Roman Emperor Galerius once said to a soldier: "Allow me to offer my congratulations on the admirable skill you have shown in missing the mark. Not to have hit once in so many trials argues the most splendid talents for missing."

And the American Statesman tells us about the Western Union boy who happened to be sent to the State Department to deliver a message. The next morning he was on his way to Iran as a Communications Expert—with a car, chauffeur, and two assistants.

EUROPEAN SURVEY

by

WILLIAM S. SCHLAMM

Mailed from Zurich, May 30, 1960

William Schlamm has now become the Joe McCarthy of West Germany. The analogy is supported even more by the opposition he has aroused than by the success he has achieved. The whole pack of Communist wolves and liberal hyenas is now in full cry to destroy him. And the only consolation for anti-Communists, everywhere, is that it was still possible for so aggressive a fighter against the Communist-socialist machine to get such a tremendous hearing, and following, in West Germany, years after the vile tactics and vicious smears that liquidated McCarthy had also paralyzed that fighter's possible successors.

Mr. Schlamm's book, published in English as Germany And The East-West Crisis, has sold only a few thousand copies in America. The "liberal" blanket which smothers such anti-Communist volumes was already too powerful here. But under its German title, Die Grenzen Des Wunders (which translates as The Limits Of The Miracle*), it has become the largest-selling non-fiction book in Germany since the war, and probably—as we believe to be the case—in all German publishing history. His success as a speaker has risen to the same level. His basic theme—which we also must surely face, but not with the same at-once-ness as the German citizenry—is simply that the West Germans must make up their minds either to stand up to the Soviets, at whatever cost, or to surrender; and that the surrender should not be by indecision and gradual default.*

This clear-cut decision is the last thing the Communists want to allow, in any country. So they and their dupes and sympathizers are now out to silence Schlamm, discredit him, and then erase all he has had to say from the public mind. And Der Spiegel will serve to illustrate the nature and extensiveness of the attack. This news weekly, of the same format as Time and corresponding roughly to it, filled the front cover of its May 11 issue with a close-up picture of our Associate Editor, with the only caption under the picture reading: Demagog Schlamm. (Remember when Time did exactly the same thing to McCarthy?)

Page 14 of this number consists of a vicious editorial attack on Schlamm. Then Pages 28 through 42 (fifteen full pages, with dozens of pictures of Schlamm, out of a magazine of ninety pages altogether, including advertising) is given over entirely to exposing Schlamm, his supporters, and the mischief they are creating. In a large picture on the last page, Schlamm the pied piper is luring behind him an unending line of young men in uniform, roughly four abreast. The caption under the picture reads ". . . . the Germans followed him, and he led them to the East. They never came back." Obviously this going out to the East to meet the Soviet enemy is absurd, when you could simply stay home and surrender to them instead.

In the last column on the last page of this grand slam against Schlamm, it is very solemnly charged that the unscrupulous villain has produced, on sophomoric youth and senile old gentlemen alike, the following effect:

→ A total friend-or-enemy psychology. (This uncivilized attitude would keep you from regarding a Communist as your friend even long enough for him to get into position to cut your throat, or to send you to a "reform-through-labor" camp. Ed.)
→ The myth of eternal war. (Not to be confused with the highly trustworthy Communist myth of eternal "peace." Ed.)
→ A lack of comprehension of moral and ethical categories. (Apparently Mr. Schlamm has not yet grasped that loyalty or patriotism is unethical—except for the Communists. Ed.)
→ A desire for risk-taking. (Encouraging either young patriots or elder statesmen to want to take any risks to save their country from the Communists is certainly reprehensible. How oldfashioned can a man be? Ed.)
→ A susceptibility to superficial confusion. (This is terrible. Especially since, if the Germans are unfortunate enough to have any counterpart to Walter Lippmann, a deep and profound confusion is so readily available. Ed.)
→ A contempt for progressives; that is, liberals and socialists. (And this is serious. The idea could even spread to intelligent middle-aged people, as well as the young and the old. Then where would the editors of the large-circulation magazines be—in America or West Germany? Ed.)

The truth is that William Schlamm has become a terrific force for strengthening the backbone of West German resistance to Communist blackmail, blandishments, and ultimate purposes. And just at a time when the brainwashing of the citizens of the Federal Republic was proceeding so well that the Social Democrats—with the Communists acting as their pied pipers—had a feeling that everything was going their way.

It's no wonder the whole liberal establishment of West Germany is now in an uproar over Mr. Schlamm. He is speaking some very penetrating truth, as you will see from the article that follows. We are glad to learn that Adenauer had even more to do, than the considerable we had suspected, with getting the summit sell-out postponed. We are sure that Willi Schlamm, in turn, will be glad to learn that the vigorous protests of patriotic Americans, registered in hundreds of thousands of letters, telegrams, and postcards, played a more important part in this happy accomplishment than he had suspected. But any such mutual support, between Adenauer and a strong body of American anti-Communists, is enough to give acute shivers to all of the superliberals on both sides of the Atlantic. And the liberals in West Germany don't care whether this Yank goes home or not—just so he goes away.

As for ourselves, having been mainly responsible for keeping William Schlamm in Europe all of 1958, when he wrote the book that made all of his present influence possible, we are very pleased at the near-miracle which Willi himself has performed, and proud of the performer. So much so that we can almost forgive him for causing this magazine to be late—by our waiting just for his article. Provided, of course, that he never does it again.

KHRUSHCHEV is getting all the credit for sparing us the ultimate "summit" calamities. But the man who, for the time being, saved the West is Konrad Adenauer. It was his firmness, his sagacity, his courage, that made the Soviets realize how little maneuvering the semi-retired Mr. Eisenhower was allowed in Paris. And so, never a humble man, Khrushchev cursed a little— and went home.

Adenauer's Opposition . . .

The critical moment of "summit" history had been reached, and passed, several weeks before the absurd "U-2" incident — when Adenauer suddenly popped up in Washington. He came, not exactly invited by the State Department, to tell Eisenhower a few exciting bits of news: That the German Government was not going to underwrite any Berlin "compromise"; that it was not going to participate in a "de facto" recognition of the Ulbricht regime, no matter what the American President might be prepared to concede; and, finally, that he, Adenauer, was determined to support the "haughty" policy of his friend, Charles de Gaulle.

It is quite possible that Mr. Herter didn't even then recognize the historical meaning of Adenauer's intervention. But the Soviets who, of course, were getting the news from Washington without delay, lost no time in evaluating the decisive change in the western climate: As Adenauer, after a heart-to-heart talk with de Gaulle, had finally assumed a posture of non-cooperation with any State Department appeasement, the United States would either have to go it alone, or submit to German firmness. And Khrushchev, who suffers from a healthy respect for German strength, didn't hesitate long in foreseeing the likely course the United States would have to take in such a dilemma; Germany remains the decisive American partner on the Continent, and there can't be an American continental policy that is opposed by a friendly German Government. Thus, the Soviets concluded, there can be no point in holding a "summit" meeting that had been vetoed in advance by Germany and France. And so the whole thing was called off.

These are the facts—but you won't find them mentioned in the meditations of America's certified commentators on world affairs. Consider Walter Lippmann. He is, these days, the American most quoted by the Soviet press and the "neutralist" journals of all Europe. And it's not just his remarkable determination to put all the blame for the collapse in Paris on poor Eisenhower that makes Mr. Lippmann the main witness for the prosecution of America. More important is his indefatigable contribution to the smoke screen Khrushchev is throwing around the shambles of his defeat.

Despite The Nonsense Of The "Experts" . . .

The American "experts" on foreign policy (or, anyhow, those who advise the Establishment and the metropolitan press) have lately been giving birth to the most fabulous speculations concerning the Parisian events. Leaving aside the inanities advanced by the speechwriters for Messrs. Kennedy and Stevenson (to wit: that "summit"-peace could have been restored, if only Mr. Eisenhower had politely apologized for America being alive), there are two schools of thoughtlessness. One proposes that Khrushchev has lost out to a "neo-Stalinist" Party faction which, in alliance with the Soviet Army, wants a return to the "cold war." And the other suggests that Red China is assuming the leadership of the Communist Empire; and thus, an agreeable Khrushchev must now obey the signals of a disagreeable Mao. Both speculations, in addition to being fallacious, and advanced without a shred of factual evidence, are a deadly danger to the West.

How many more blows of life experience will it take to beat the fact into the western mind that the Soviets have never stopped the "cold war" — and never can? The "summit" was conceived, not as a kind of peace conference to end the "cold war," and to establish "co-existence," but as a decisive move in the "cold war." For what we call "cold war" is nothing but the inevitable consequence of the fact that, to the Communists, policy is the continuation of war by other means. To stop the "cold war," the Communists would have to stop being Communists.

In particular, the Paris "summit" conference blew up because, unlike the United States, Communists do not participate in conferences without some certainty of success. And there was, this time, no chance — because Germany would not permit Macmillan and Eisenhower to sell her down the river. But there was nothing else that could be sold. For the Soviets, any settlement in the "cold war" means Soviet progress. They neither can, nor do they wish to, call off the "cold war." They merely mean to win it. And as there was to be no surrender of the West in Paris (thanks to Adenauer), they withdrew to regroup their forces for the next battle.

When and where it will take place, no one can tell, not even Khrushchev. The next few months will be a time of probing. And on their search for our most exposed flanks the Soviets might jump at Formosa, or at South Korea (where we have just intervened to destroy one of the few reliable Asian allies of the West), or at Turkey, or at Italy. Or they won't jump at all but merely wait for the Lippmanns and Kennedys and Stevensons to panic the West into a new and even more reckless readiness for "summitry" — a "summitry" that, next time, might be allowed by a German Government no longer presided over by Konrad Adenauer. At which point I'd like to ponder a remark by Khrushchev that has been universally interpreted as a reference to the forthcoming American elections, but which, in my opinion, was addressed to Germany. I mean, of course, his parting statement in Paris that a next "summit" meeting might take place "in six or eight months."

True, in six or eight months a new President will speak for the United States. But (whether it will be Kennedy or Symington or Nixon) the next American President is most certainly not going to be an easier pushover for Khrushchev than was Mr. Eisenhower —for the simple reason that any future American President will be a politician, and not a famous general, and will therefore have to persuade the electorate, at least at the beginning of his term, that he is no appeasing stooge for the Soviets. For Khrushchev to anticipate a more successful "summit" meeting "in six or eight months," just because of the change of guards in America, would have been a delusion. But Khrushchev is not known for optimistic delusions. He figures in realistic terms. And the realistic hope for him is to expect, not exactly in six or eight months, but in about a year, a change in the leadership of West Germany.

And here is another key to the comprehension of recent events: The Soviets think they have reasons to anticipate a Social-Democratic victory in next year's German elections; and so they postponed the showdown on Berlin for another year. This Soviet anticipation, I am afraid, is entirely realistic. The Social Democrats have won, in recent months, in a few regional elections (Bavaria, Wurtemberg-Baden) so decisively that, even if Adenauer is then still alive, they might win the general elections in 1961. And Willy Brandt (whom the same State Department that has destroyed Syngman Rhee keeps building up throughout the United States) would indubitably lose what Adenauer has gained—Germany's strategic role in the "cold war."

Prevented Disaster At The Summit . . .

This, indeed, is the essential meaning of the Paris "collapse": Under Mr. Eisenhower's leadership the United States has lost even its power to surrender — and Germany, under Adenauer, has grown into the decisive factor of the western alliance. By the same token, the Soviets are resolved now to concentrate on undermining the German position. It can be softened, to the point of dissolution, by Willy Brandt's ascendancy to power. And while the Soviets, for the next year or so, may have less chances to influence domestic American politics, their prospects of interfering in German domestic affairs are much brighter.

In the first place, Adenauer's courage in torpedoing the surrender-conference at the "summit" showed against the very background of a frighteningly feeble, absurdly "appeasement"-minded German public opinion. It so happens that I myself have become a test case. For the last few months, I was engaged in a truly national discussion with Germany: my lectures in dozens of German cities were mass meetings (in about forty lectures I have talked to more than 100,000 Germans); my book, Die Grenzen des Wunders (Title of the American edition: "Germany and the East-West Crisis"), is still arousing a storm of controversy; and the synthetic German "public opinion" erupts in an unprecedented flood of attacks against my "war-mongering" (my scrap-books contain about 2,500 clippings collected in eight months).

Actually I served (and I was happy to do so) merely as a scapegoat for Adenauer. The "neutralist" German press (and there is hardly any other) no longer dares attack the venerable Old Man directly; and so it seems determined to slaughter him by proxy. True, no one will deny that the popular response to this strange debate proves the German press to be a thoroughly synthetic "public opinion": millions of Germans, for the first time since 1945 are actively taking sides, and by no means only the wrong side. But, also for the first time since 1945, organized "public opinion" in Germany is demonstrating its capacities as an instrument to be masterfully played by the Soviet virtuosos of brainwashing.

For Adenauer, to have ignored that monolithic "public opinion" in Germany was a measure of his guts. No such guts can be expected from Willy Brandt who, on the contrary, is betting on the support of the "neutralist" German press. But even if he were not—he would be merely the front-man for a Social Democratic Party that is being bossed by a tough Herbert Wehner who, though he left the German Communist Party in the forties, remains the German counterpart of Tito: a Revolutionary Socialist who desires a German, not a Russian, version of Revolutionary Socialism. And Tito, by definition, is a Revolutionary Socialist who in all crucial moments must line up with the Soviets.

But We Still Have Lippmann's Line . . .

Which gets us to that other wild speculation: That Khrushchev has become Mao's junior partner. Of course, it's entirely possible that Chinese and Russian Communists are engaged in some internal brawls for position. Communists always are. In no political movement is there, quite naturally, so much catty intrigue as in the Communist Party. This is precisely because the wages of being on the top are the privileges of unparalleled power. The likelihood of infights grows with the incentive. But, to repeat, such fights have nothing to do with the health, the effectiveness, the undiluted zeal of the Party. In the Communist Party, it never matters who the top dog is—whoever he is, the Party proceeds according to unchangeable plan.

So even if there were any evidence of a clash between Mao and Khrushchev (there is none), it would have no bearing on goals and strategies of World Communism. Chinese, of course, are Chinese, and Russians are Russians; but Chinese and Russian Communists are first and last Communists. A western policy that permits itself to be determined by rumors of a Chinese-Soviet feud will explode in the face of the western world. The conveyor belts for the fabrication of such rumors are made in Moscow. And at any decisive moment Chinese, Russian, Yugoslav, and German Communism will most fraternally cooperate—and lick a western world thoroughly confused by its "sophistication."

Walter Lippmann, who even for the past forty years hasn't been exactly a blessing, is now reaching his pinnacle of mischief. Every bit of his "reasoning" is an invaluable asset for Khrushchev who, thanks to our Lippmania, may yet handsomely dig himself out from under the Parisian debris. Hypnotized by fata morganas of internal Communist feuds and rifts, the West may allow the German "Left" to conquer power in Bonn—and thus, with one stroke, undo the present balance of power in the whole world. No doubt, every point along the West's perimeter is important; but the West must not for a second lose sight of the elementary fact that Germany remains the strategic area in which the fate of the entire free world is being determined—for good.

While In Turkey . . .

All around that German center, precisely because Adenauer has made it firm and unyielding, the Soviets keep nibbling away. The military putsch in Turkey, to be sure, has been interpreted on the whole as a patriotic undertaking without any inherent political ambition one way or another; and, indeed, the General in charge of the country seems to be a man of a disarmingly virginal mind. But this, precisely, is the danger. The fine art of Communist strategy has always been to pick in the "underdeveloped" and semi-"underdeveloped" areas such virginal minds—and to activate them by magnificently effective operators who, for the time being, remain backstage. The dethroned Turkish Prime Minister Menderes, whatever else he was, was most certainly no naive "progressive." He also was a proven friend of the West. His naive successor, whatever else he will turn out to be, is bound to act as a "progressive" and, to put it cautiously, a friend of "both sides." This is the inexorable consequence of a military putsch that has no clear-cut political ambition: Naive soldiers, anxious to get "popular approval," tend to fall for a clever Left that knows how to simulate mass applause. The inescapable political style of a military junta is "dynamism"—and in that field, trained Communist operators remain undisputed masters.

In Japan, In Italy, And Everywhere . . .

Before these comments can be published, Japan may have passed its point of no return. A few years after General MacArthur resigned from his unforgettable consulate in the Far East, Japan, at any rate, is demonstrating the shortsightedness of the political myth that stays at the bottom of our foreign policy; that the type of parliamentary democracy that has become America's organically grown tradition is the only correct democratic system anywhere else in the world; and that, therefore, American support of a foreign regime must depend on that regime's readiness to imitate American rules of the political game. That is what the Kishi government, out of necessity rather than for indigenous reasons, has been doing all the time — with fatal consequences. Under the conditions of postwar Japan (and the greater part of Asia and Africa), a necessarily superficial imitation of American-style democracy must result in mob rule — and, before our eyes, Japan is learning this dreadful lesson. We shall be extremely lucky if this proves not to be the last lesson Japan will be allowed to learn.

At the moment, the Japanese mob opposition against the Kishi regime centers on anti-American demagoguery, not yet on an openly pro-Soviet basis. But anti-Americanism is — and not just in Japan — all that the Soviets need to advance their own policy. Basically, developments in Japan are bound to resemble those of Cuba: Atomized and morally disarmed by a mechanical application of "majority-rules," a people unprepared for the delicate workings of parliamentary democracy is first aroused by a violent envy of rich Uncle Sam and then becomes an easy prey for Soviet operators. This trick works all around the world — in Italy as well as in Cuba and Japan.

For the permanent governmental crisis in Italy that is moving towards a final solution (most likely in October or November) is basically a crisis of a "parliamentary" democratic concept not quite suited for Italy's political and historic reality. Not unlike the Weimar Republic of the late twenties, contemporary Italy simply cannot produce a governmental parliamentary majority of the center: Between them, the extreme forces of the Left and the Right make a middle-of-the-road government unfeasible. So what can be done? Should the essence of freedom be saved and protected, even if that were to mean a violation of the rules of the game? Or must the rules of the game be obeyed, even if that were to mean the loss of freedom? In practical political terms: Should a workable parliamentary majority be attained with the support of pro-Communist Nenni (as there is no other reliable way of attaining it) — or should Italy, to protect freedom against Communists as well as Fascists, embark upon a course that is not "parliamentary" in the Anglo-Saxon sense of the word? This, in a nutshell, is the essence of the decision Italy must face without much further delay.

The Communists Fight The Cold War . . .

Which choice it will take is, unfortunately, quite obvious. Italy's Christian Democrats will choose Nenni. His friend Fanfani is already in full control of the Christian Democratic party, and Italy's current Prime Minister, Tambroni, seems resigned to serving as Fanfani's stand-in for the summer months of profitable "Olympic" tourism. The dice will be cast by November. We are witnessing another human sacrifice for the greater glory of "parliamentary democracy;" to preserve the formalities of the game, another civilized nation is willing to lose the game. And the same American commentators, who would sputter contempt and poisonous ire against an Italian leadership willing to save the integrity of Italian (and western) freedom, will applaud Nenni's ascendancy to power — the end of freedom in Italy, and the end of western control of the Meditterenean.

France, in 1958, has refused to be trapped by a democratic "logic" that, with appalling directness, keeps serving Communist goals all around the world: By entrusting General de Gaulle with almost royal powers, it has gained a new lease on life. Had de Gaulle failed in 1958, France would today be ruled by a regime of the "popular front" — which, I am afraid, would be its fate in a moment if the General were to die.

Germany is being driven towards the same storm center — and it will be engulfed in that storm by the autumn of 1961, at the latest. For even if Der Alte should perform for another year as vitally as he has been performing in recent months, Germany's general elections of October, 1961 may be the first to go against him. In revealing truth, Adenauer has won all his electoral victories, not with his foreign policy, but with the miracle of German domestic prosperity. But, after ten years of uninterrupted well-being, "prosperity" is no longer an issue; everybody in Germany takes it simply for granted. Thus, I am afraid, "prosperity" is no longer Adenauer's winning trump. The satiated German Buerger may next time respond to other stimuli — for instance, the fear of trouble with the Soviets, unless Germany was willing to "negotiate" through a Social-Democratic Government.

With "Peace" And "Democracy" As Their Weapons . . .

Fear, it seems to me, is the whole frame of reference the Soviets are building for the near future all over the world; and in Germany especially. Not for a moment will the world be allowed "serenity." Twenty-four hours a day will the world tremble with the nervous anticipation of a major conflict; this is the strategic purpose of the alleged shift in Soviet policy that has brought about an alleged return to the "cold war." The objective, quite simply, is to achieve one nervous collapse after another. And, as a result of such nervous collapses, one surrender after another. The most important surrender, of course, would be that of Germany. Out of the synthetic "public opinion" in Germany there emerges, with ever increasing clarity, the slogan; "If Communism can win without a war, may it win." The only cure for this paralysis of fear is an American policy that would turn the tables on the Soviets and, for a change, make them pay for the avoidance of conflict. There is just no other policy.

A FOOTNOTE TO THE AIR FORCE MANUAL

by

D. HAYES MURPHY

Mr. Murphy is a very successful manufacturer and highly regarded citizen of Hartford, Connecticut. He is also a good friend of your editor. And some time ago he sent us a copy of a speech which he had made on March 25, 1960 to a service club in Hartford.

This excellent speech contained one small but quite interesting item, recovered from the pigeon holes of history, which became even more interesting when the storm of controversy recently broke over an Air Force Manual which dared to tell the truth about Communist infiltration into our churches. With Mr. Murphy's permission, and with the minor editing required because of pulling these pages out of context, we present below that part of the speech which had stuck so forcefully in our memory.

IN 1933 I attended a Babson Conference at Wellesley Hills. The Program was featured by three speakers. One explained Fascism, the second Socialism, and the third Communism. When the Communist got up to speak, he said that he agreed with the Socialist so far as objectives were concerned, but that Communists did not have the patience to wait for the world change to be brought about by peaceful parliamentary procedure. "We believe," said the Communist, Mr. X [in substance, and as nearly verbatim as my recollection can make it, in this and the following quotations], "that our cause is so essential to the welfare of the human race that we will employ any means — including force — to accomplish our purpose."

Communist X then turned to a Babson chart which was hanging on the wall behind him. It was the regulation Babson chart, with its X-Y line, showing the average upward trend of production. Areas in black above that line indicated periods of prosperity, and areas in red below the line indicated periods of depression. It was a long chart, extending back to the 1870's. Communist X, pointing to the areas below the line, said: "These are depression periods, and you will notice they are in red. That's our color — red. And those red patches are getting bigger and bigger as the years go by. Some day there will come a depression so big that unemployment and discontent will be general throughout the land. That will be the day when we start our revolution and take over the United States for Communism."

It was a bloodcurdling speech. And at that point a little lady in the audience just couldn't take any more. She jumped to her feet and gave Communist X the beautiful tongue-lashing he so well deserved. She told him that we didn't want him in this country and that if he thought the Russian system was so good he should go there where he belonged. He listened with cold and cynical politeness. When she had finished he said: "Madam, I presume you are an American citizen. I am an American citizen — born right here in Boston. I like it here and have no intention of accepting your invitation to go to Russia. In fact, when the revolution comes I wouldn't miss it for anything because I will be one of the leaders."

At the time this Communist was speaking we were still in the biggest of all depressions, the great depression of the '30's. I often wondered why they did not take advantage of that situation to start their revolution. Eventually I learned the reason. They simply did not have the strength and numbers then, as they were well aware. In 1931, one of their own, Dimitry Z. Manuilsky, had made a revealing speech at the Lenin School of Political Warfare in Moscow. I believe the report of what he said, though much argued-about now as to documentation, to be substantially correct. And I believe it deserves repetition today. Here it was — in 1931:

"War to the hilt between Communism and capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in twenty or thirty years.

"To win, we shall need the element of surprise. The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist."

THAT IS THE STORY OF THE 1933 Babson Conference and Communist X, as I knew it when I incorporated it into a speech I made here in Hartford in September, 1958. After that meeting I determined to renew my efforts to find out who Communist X was and what he had been doing since 1933. So I wrote Babson's again, repeating an earlier request, and urging that they make another search of their old files. They did. And this time they came up with the answer. So here is the rest of the story.

The name of Communist X is Professor Harry F. Ward and his address, Union Theological Seminary, New York. I wrote to Professor Ward, asking what he said at the 1933 Conference and how he felt about it now. Here is his reply, dated October 17, 1959:

"Because of being retired and without a secretary, and two deadlines for an article and a pamphlet to meet, I have been unable until now to answer your request.

"I regret that I have no recollection of what I said at the Babson 1933 Conference. However, since that was the year that Scribner's published my study of social incentives in the Soviet Union, which I made there during the academic year of 1931-2, under the title, In Place Of Profit, it is safe to say that what is in that book was the foundation of what I said. If your city library does not have a copy, your state library may, and should have an extension mail service.

"As to the second part of your request, another deadline denies me time to say anything except that I have kept informed up to date on my special interest in the Soviet Union and what I said in my book still stands up."

Sure enough, his book was in our Hartford Library and the card showed that it had been withdrawn forty-five times in the years 1935 to 1959 inclusive. And two brief quotations from this book, In Place Of Profit, will give you a general idea of its nature:

"The suppression of the minority of exploiters . . . will cost far less bloodshed than the suppression of the slaves, serfs, or wage laborers, and will cost the human race far less. So today Communists say, 'We are a hard, a cruel people, even to ourselves. We keep our eyes on the goal.'"

"For the compensating aspects of religion the Communists have no need, since theirs is a world-conquering faith."

As to what the Professor has been doing since 1933, when I met him at Babson's, I shall read to you from a Government document and you may draw your own conclusions. This is from the sworn testimony of Manning Johnson before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, July 7, 8, 13 and 14, 1953, Page 278. At the end of his testimony Mr. Johnson was asked to summarize the over-all manner in which the Communists have attempted to infiltrate and poison the religious organizations of America. Mr. Johnson, a former top-level member of the Communist Party, who had become converted from the error of his ways, complied conscientiously with this request. And the following is quoted from his summary:

"Once the tactic of infiltrating religious organizations was set by the Kremlin, the actual mechanics of implementing the 'new line' was a question of following the general experiences of the living church movement in Russia, where the Communists discovered that the destruction of religion could proceed much faster through infiltration of the church by Communist agents operating within the church itself.

"The Communist leadership in the United States realized that a small force of Communist agents concentrated in seminaries and divinity schools could influence the ideology of future clergymen in the paths most conducive to Communist purposes.

"The Communists had small forces in the seminaries under the leadership of Harry F. Ward. These forces were quickly augmented by additional recruits and siphoned into the divinity institutions by manipulations of Communist cells in the seminaries. This infiltration into seminaries was further expedited by the use of considerable forces the Communists had in educational institutions which were eligible for hire by divinity organizations.

"The plan was to make the seminaries the neck of a funnel through which thousands of potential clergymen would issue forth, carrying with them, in varying degrees, an ideology and slant which would aid in neutralizing the anti-Communist character of the church and also to use the clergy to spearhead important Communist projects.

"The policy was successful beyond even the Communists' expectations."

So now we have answer to a question which had been worrying me for over a quarter of a century. We know who Communist X of the 1933 Babson Conference was. We know what he has been doing and can guess what he still is doing. But why on earth our Government allows such long continued treachery is still a bigger question, to which there seems to be no answer.

A REVIEW OF REVIEWS

by

REVILO P. OLIVER

Barry Goldwater is the most conspicuous conservative in the Republican Party today. He was returned to the Senate in 1958 despite the best efforts of an extremely efficient gang of political assassins. Recently the Republicans of South Carolina instructed their delegates to vote for his nomination at the coming Republican convention. Everywhere that one goes in this country, one hears staunch Republicans hope that their party will choose Senator Goldwater as its presidential candidate, but they speak, for the most part, in the wistful tones that men use when they hope that a wastrel son may mend his ways. Indeed, the amphisbænic "experts," who knew that Taft could not win in 1952, seem now to have convinced almost everyone that the Republican convention will be in the control of forces that will brook no interference from non-professionals. But this is not yet certain.

If a rumor which comes to us from two fairly good sources is correct, the spectacular defeat of Robert Morris in New Jersey was at least partly procured by a thunderous cracking of whips in the Republican machine organizations during the last week before the primaries, and the whips were cracked in response to orders from Mr. Nixon transmitted through Attorney General Rogers. Mr. Nixon's motive is said to have been, not personal antipathy, but a need to contrive a vicarious demonstration that Senator Goldwater, if nominated, could not be elected. This would suggest, at least, that the convention's chickens, so confidently counted by the "experts," have not all been hatched.

Senator Goldwater has written a clear and forthright statement of his principles, THE CONSCIENCE OF A CONSERVATIVE (Victor, Shepherdsville, Kentucky; 123 pages, $3.00). No one can complain that he has not been explicit. He uses words that have become indecorous in our fashionable finishing schools, and if this little book should fall into the hands of our more innocent Liberals, who have been raised on the Elsie Dinsmore stories approved by Aunties Adlai and Eleanor, the emotions excited in their tightly corseted minds may call for restoratives more potent than smelling salts.

The principles stated in this book sound like a consensus of the conservative meetings that I have attended in recent years. Senator Goldwater, disdaining the ambiguities and self-contradictions that are now regarded as being as indispensable to a politician as is a good blind to a duck hunter, proposes a return to Constitutional government by (a) fully repudiating the totalitarian concept of the Welfare State, (b) abolishing the unconstitutional usurpations of power, such as the present system of agricultural serfdom, which corrupted courts have granted to bureaucrats, (c) liquidating, immediately or, in a few instances, over a period of ten years, all the subsidies, "welfare" schemes, and socialistic agencies devised by "New Dealers" to corrupt the electorate, (d) repealing all grants of special rights to gangsters operating in the guise of labor unions, (e) eliminating a graduated income tax, and (f) recognizing the rights guaranteed to states by the Constitution, including, of course, complete control over their educational systems, which means that they have a right to segregate pupils on any basis they deem proper or, if they should so desire, abolish public education. (In an excursus the author shows that he is aware of the extent to which all public education has been poisoned by the cheap sophistries of John Dewey, but remedies must be found on the local level.) On foreign policy Senator Goldwater is equally unequivocal: we must stop the idiotic system of "foreign aid," and we must recognize that Communism is our implacable enemy, which, if we are to survive, we must destroy by all necessary means, including, if others fail, war.

The most rigorous conservative critic will find little in this book to which he can take exception. He will note that Senator Goldwater has chosen not to discuss (1) the restoration of a sound currency, (2) immigration, (3) the removal of traitors now holding positions of authority in government and the armed services, and a number of minor matters. At only one point can it fairly be argued that the Senator has hedged. After explicitly recommending that we "withdraw diplomatic recognition from all Communist governments including that of the Soviet Union," and recognizing both the extent of Communist control of the "United Nations" and the use of that weird device to induce "an unconstitutional surrender of American sovereignty," he cautiously says that "withdrawal from the United Nations is probably not the answer to these problems." Now the reserved meaning may be one of which most of us would approve. But many conservatives feel, as I do, that the "United Nations" poses numerous problems, all of which could be solved in thirty minutes by one company of U. S. Marines.

In October, 1958, the Pioche Record, a newspaper in southeastern Nevada, began publication of a series of nine editorials on the Constitution. Since that time the newspaper has had to do without the advertising that various corporations, including all of the resort hotels in the region, had normally placed in its pages. Our inquiries by telephone have not enabled us to determine the relation between these two events, for discordant explanations are offered by persons who should be in a position to know. One is that the withdrawal of advertising was contrived by the malice of a discharged employé, and therefore merely coincidental. The other is that the advertisers were made indignant by the newspaper's temerity in reminding Americans that they have rights under a document that had best be forgotten.

The editorials have been published, with an introduction by Congressman Dale Alford, under the title, THE CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS (Speller & Sons, New York; 63 pages, $2.00 cloth). Expounding the indisputable meaning of the Constitution with a vigor and clarity that reminds one of Mr. Holmes Alexander's articles, "How to Read the Federalist," in AMERICAN OPINION (see especially the issues of October and November, 1958, and September, 1959), the author of these essays shows that the decision of the Supreme Court concerning the segregation of races in Southern schools is nothing less than a revolutionary usurpation of power, a disguised coup d'état carried out by a "conspiracy to destroy the Constitution."

These articles were timely when they were written, before the governor of Virginia began to display the strange tergiversation that did much to confuse the South, and they are even more timely today, when the citizens of all states must understand the totalitarian forces that are capturing them. The author has merely stated what must be obvious to everyone who has read and understood the Constitution. Of course, no amount of lucidity and logic will convince sentimentalists whose thinking is done in their viscera, and these qualities will merely exasperate our "intellectuals," who believe themselves appointed by some unnamed divinity to trick Americans into doing anything that is "socially desirable" because it enables uneducated educators to feel important.

The present crisis, of course, is possible only because Americans, confused by glib and vapid sophistries, have almost ceased to think in terms of principles, and hence fail to understand the implications of governmental acts. What if the Supreme Court, which based its infamous decision in part on a Communist-inspired scribbling which stated that "the American Constitution is in many respects impractical and ill suited for modern conditions," should simply decree that the Constitution is therefore unconstitutional? What if Eisenhower, in the event that the Senate should refuse to accept some deal made at the "Summit," should please some of his advisers by sending in the paratroopers? Such acts would doubtless be politically inexpedient at this time, but precedents for them have been set by actions which differ from them legally only in the way that the theft of a lamb differs from the theft of a sheep.

A much more complete and philosophic discussion of the same question is Felix Morley's FREEDOM AND FEDERALISM (Regnery, Chicago; 281 pages, $5.00). The author has given us a singularly perspicuous analysis of the federal government established by the Constitution, and a summary of the historical process by which the structure of American government was distorted and broken down in favor of an alien and inherently preposterous form of government called "democracy"—a political disease against which the means of prophylaxis adopted by the founders of our Republic unfortunately proved inadequate.

If we are to understand a situation, we must understand its causes, and Mr. Morley's historical account will suffice to warn us against optimistic oversimplifications. It is true that our imminent peril is the work of the great Communist conspiracy, which has been operating on a constantly expanding scale in our country since 1872. It is also true that the success of this conspiracy was largely made possible by our foolhardy failure to prevent the immigration of actual and potential members of the conspiracy. But it is well to remember that the seeds of totalitarian tyranny were present in our very origin, when our population was both culturally and racially comparatively homogeneous. Mr. Morley points out that the concept of federalism was obscured and weakened before the Civil War, which could not otherwise have occurred.

The framers of the Constitution, as Hamilton assured the legislature of New York, thought it impossible that one state would ever be so foolish as to be a party to coercion of another state. The Civil War proved them wrong, but the real subversion of the Constitution came with the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments. These amendments, conceived in the diseased and malignant soul of Thaddeus Stevens as part of a policy that no American can now contemplate without shame and remorse, were not only as repugnant to the intent of the Constitution as would have been an amendment establishing a monarchy, but they were never legally ratified. Of this there can be no possible doubt, and so long as we go on pretending that these amendments are legally valid and part of the Constitution, we shall as a nation be in the moral position of a man who holds possession of a farm or building under deeds which he knows to have been forged. He may resolve to use honestly the proceeds of theft, but the moral paradox will taint his every act.

Like so many of our other ills, the general misunderstanding of the basic principle of our federal system has been the result of slovenly language and blurred thinking. There is a form of government, which has much to recommend it, that is properly called democracy, but as Aristotle and every subsequent political thinker (including Madison and other framers of the Constitution) has clearly seen, it is possible only in a political unit small enough to form a single community whose citizens can have personal knowledge of one another, and carefully exclude from citizenship persons who do not share the community's traditions. But it is a characteristic of untutored minds to ignore the necessary relationship of form to size. It is, for example, a biological fact that the human organism is viable only within narrow limits of size, and that men whose height exceeds seven feet are invariably weak, short-lived, and sterile. But children and primitives imagine that an increase in size is an increase in strength, and so believe in giants forty feet tall, although such a being, if it existed, would be so unwieldly that it could not move a step without fracturing its limbs. The same kind of uncontrolled imagination leads people to believe, against all the evidence, in the possibility of a big democracy.

The absurdity of this notion was partly concealed by the myth of the "general will" that was devised by the muddled mind of Jean Jacques Rousseau, a vain, pretentious, and ignorant adventurer gifted with a capacity for vivid and rhythmical prose, who wandered about Europe abandoning his illegitimate children and perpetually snivelling about the supernal purity of his heart. Rousseau's romantic nonsense has a strange fascination for sentimental and uncritical minds, and should be studied in detail by anyone who wishes to understand the political disasters of the Nineteenth Century and its aftermath.

As Mr. Morley points out, the myth of a "general will" provided a theory whereby centralization of our national government could be described as "democratic," although it necessarily destroys the local form of democracy, which alone is possible, and also destroys the federal principle by which the framers of the Constitution sought to preserve the sovereignty of the states and the liberties of individuals. Now the shabby sham that is based on the notion of a "general will" and currently called "democracy" is a social process comparable to a chemical reaction and can have only one product: a totalitarian dictatorship that is a mere regression to the despotism and slave-morality of the Orient. That, of course, is what is now happening.

We could save ourselves from serfdom by returning to the federal form of government embodied in the Constitution and the first twelve amendments —and making ourselves and the holders of franchise morally equal to the responsibilities of free men. But there is one difficulty, one real impediment to the attainment of full liberty, both political and economic. Mr. Morley, unlike Mr. Chodorov in his excellent RISE AND FALL OF SOCIETY (see AMERICAN OPINION, Sept. 1959, p. 49), does face this problem.

There is one, and only one, valid reason for a strong central government: war. Mr. Morley notes that our wars have always promoted centralization; and "democracy," despite its cant about the beauties of peace, seems instinctively to seek war. (But the "instinct" may be the conscious choice of governors. Certainly one reason why Roosevelt was so eager to get a war started in Europe was to further his plans for a personal absolutism, and it is clear that the reason why even non-Communist bureaucrats in Washington were eager to see the Soviet equipped with atomic bombs was a realization that if Americans were not frightened by a strong and terrible enemy, they would not long tolerate a great mass of parasites to which they are now in economic and political subjection.) Our federal system was based on the assumption that our wars would be limited to repelling invaders, and Mr. Morley believes that foreign wars, or the threat of them, always impel nations to the centralization that culminates in a dictatorship.

All this we may grant. But nothing is more certain than that we are now engaged in a war which we are losing by folly and treason; that unless Russia and China are destroyed by internal explosions, we must win that war or perish; and that if we win, we shall emerge as a great imperial power. Like Rome after the Second Punic War, we shall have passed the point of no return, and like Rome we shall find ourselves compelled to shoulder unwillingly the burden of empire. But the empire in turn was the doom of the Roman Republic. Is it possible that we could, as England did with fair success for a century, combine freedom at home with imperialism abroad?

Mr. Morley sees this grim prospect, but he can only offer us the hope that somehow, somehow, the war will abate, rather than increase, in intensity.

The framers of our Constitution were wise men, but they were not omniscient. As may be seen from such devices as the electoral college, they did not anticipate the true horrors of the two-party system, universal suffrage, and an increasingly corrupted electorate. Indeed, if they had had even a moment's prevision of a ward organization in a modern city, they would have been tempted to throw down their pens in disgust and despair.

John S. Norris in THE CONNIVERS (Vantage, New York; 353 pages, $3.95) gives under the guise of a novel a tepidly realistic and pedestrian account of the workings of a ward machine in Chicago. From this book you can learn much about a dirty little business and the dirty little men who run it, and you will wonder whether any nation can long survive the unlimited suffrage that makes them possible.

Among the millions of soldiers and civilians whom the Anglo-American armies under the command of General Eisenhower drove to death or slavery in Russia in 1945 was the late Nikolai N. Krasnov, Jr., author of THE HIDDEN RUSSIA (Holt, New York; 347 pages, $5.00). An interpreter assigned to General Vassiliev of the Free Russian army, he witnessed the treachery by which English officers, pledging the honor of Great Britain, cozened the general, disarmed his troops, ambushed his officers on their way to a "conference" to which they had been invited by the Allied commanders, bludgeoned them, loaded them into trucks, and delivered them to the Communists, as planned by Roosevelt and Stalin at Yalta.

With the exception of a few who found means of committing suicide, the leaders of the men whom we thus betrayed were eventually executed, and the rest were distributed among the various slave-labor camps, partly, perhaps, because the Soviets needed beasts of burden, but primarily, as Mr. Krasnov perceived, so that they would bear witness to the infamy of the Western powers and assure the Russian people that the British and Americans were as perfidious and inhuman as the Communists with whom they so cordially cooperated.

Mr. Krasnov, who was a slave for a little more than ten years and then released, almost by chance, when the Kremlin thought it expedient to quell general unrest with simulated reforms, describes the Russian people in terms that, on the whole, correspond to the thesis of Eugene Lyons' Our Secret Allies. He reports that they regard Communism as an international conspiracy and resent references to the Soviet regime as "Russian." They bear Communism with fortitude, being held in check partly by the terrorism of the MVD and partly by the discouragement and confusion produced by apparently coordinated propaganda from the Kremlin and the West which gives the impression that the West hates Russia but, whether from fear or inclination, does not oppose the Soviet. Mr. Krasnov, who died at the age of 41, three years after he was released, did not live to comment on the effect of the photographs, recently distributed throughout Russia, which show the Butcher and Eisenhower grinning at one another in a spirit of cordial cooperation. Even more effective, of course, will be the current news that the Americans, in preparation for the Communist occupation of South Korea, have forced Dr. Syngman Rhee out of office, thus proving once again that the United States government will always stab in the back anyone who seriously resists the Communist conspiracy.

Since the procedures of the MVD (=NKVD) are evidently standardized, the almost incredible torture and brutality inflicted on Mr. Krasnov conformed in general to the patterns described in John Noble's I Was a Slave in Russia (Devin-Adair, $3.75), Elinor Lipper's Eleven Years in Soviet Prison Camps (Regnery, $3.50), and Joseph Scholmer's Vorkuta (Holt, $3.75). Even more appalling than the ingenious cruelty is the fact that it cannot conceivably have served a rational purpose; in these nightmarish books we seem to witness, not the excesses of men, however passionate or ruthless, but the blind malignancy of unhuman things — zombies, energumens, ghouls — come to replace mankind. You will read Mr. Krasnov's story with horror blunted only by the callosity that our minds acquire from the incredible accumulation of horrors in the modern world. But you will do well to remember that this book will also be read by many nominal Americans, pompous little men who are now preaching "peace" and "brotherhood," and swelling with indignation over the congressional investigating committees' "violation of basic civil liberties" — sleek little men who will read it with little shivers of delight as they imagine the fun they are going to have when they put on their MVD uniforms.

A REVIEW OF THE NEWS

This is a magazine of opinion. But opinion should be based on facts. Here are the facts for

MARCH, 1960

Tuesday, March 1

→ President Eisenhower says that the United States "repudiates dictatorships in any form."

→ For the second time within a month, Soviet Premier Khrushchev visits India for talks with Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru.

→ Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, praises a Soviet plan to open a Moscow university for students from Asia, Africa and Latin America; and, in the same column, McGill denounces United States Senators because they filibuster to preserve states' rights.

Wednesday, March 2

→ Dr. B. T. Shaw of the United States Agricultural Department, the man who instigated the cranberry crisis last November, now believes that the weed killer, in question at that time, is not dangerous.

→ An American-British-French unified force armed with nuclear weapons will be created within the framework of NATO, says General Lauris Norstad, Supreme Allied Commander of NATO in Europe.

→ H. J. Anslinger, United States Commissioner of Narcotics, says that there is probably more cocaine traffic in Castro's Cuba than in the rest of the world.

Thursday, March 3

→ Representative Donald J. Jackson of California, a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, says that the material in the withdrawn Air Force Manual, concerning Communist infiltration of churches, "is absolutely correct."

→ In Kabul, Afghanistan Soviet Premier Khrushchev threatens Pakistan, which is currently in a dispute with Afghanistan over tribesmen living in Pakistan.

→ Pope John XXIII designates for the Sacred College of Cardinals two Italians, a Japanese, an African Negro, a Filipino, a Frenchman, and a Dutchman. Their elevation will make a total of eighty-five in the College, the largest number in history.

Friday, March 4

→ Tass announces that Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Liberian President William V. S. Tubman have agreed to exchange visits.

→ A French freighter, La Coubre, carrying arms and munitions to Cuba from Belgium, explodes in Havana harbor, with at least fifty-four persons killed and more than two hundred wounded.

→ The French Government begins sending eastern European refugees to Corsica and other islands in an effort to protect Soviet Premier Khrushchev from possible violence on his coming visit to France.

Saturday, March 5

→ President Sékou Touré of Guinea extends diplomatic recognition to Communist East Germany.

→ French President de Gaulle predicts that Algerian voters will eventually choose "an Algerian Algeria tied to France."

→ Fidel Castro and other Cuban Communists accuse the United States of causing last night's explosion of the French freighter, La Coubre, which was carrying arms and munitions to Cuba from Belgium.

Sunday, March 6

→ Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson rejects the wisdom of balancing the federal budget year-by-year, and says that average balanced budgets over a period of years is sufficient.

→ The United States Senate has a respite in the midst of a civil rights filibuster which began last Monday noon.

→ President Eisenhower prolongs his stay in Puerto Rico where he arrived Thursday for rest and golf after his ten-day South American junket.

Monday, March 7

→ The West German Government considers Guinea's diplomatic recognition of East Germany to be a "very unfriendly act."

→ New Hampshire's Governor Wesley Powell charges that Senator John F. Kennedy is "soft on Communism," a charge repudiated by Vice President Nixon, and repeated by Governor Powell.

→ In London a former Royal Air Force flying officer, Arthur M. Wraight, at a pre-trial hearing, is accused of giving Soviet Union officials information on American and British military operations.

Tuesday, March 8

→ After four days of intensely bitter anti-American denunciations by Castro and other Cuban Communists, Secretary of State Herter says that the United States "finds itself increasingly obliged to question the good faith" of the Castro regime.

→ Belgium's Foreign Minister Pierre Eigny rejects French claims to the Belgian Congo after it becomes independent on June 30, 1960.

→ The de Gaulle government threatens to crush the Communist-led F.N.L. by force in Algeria because of the Communists' refusal to negotiate for a cease-fire in the five-year rebellion.

Wednesday, March 9

→ President Eisenhower gives in to Soviet pressure and rules out all high-altitude flights from the West into Berlin for the time being.

→ One of Sukarno's own air force MIG-17 fighters strafes the Indonesian President's palace.

→ Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and United States Rubber Company announce that they have no present intention of suspending their Cuban operations.

Thursday, March 10

→ The New York State Commission Against Discrimination orders Capital Airlines to employ Patricia Banks, a Negro, as a stewardess.

→ Castro's government moves to take over more than one hundred million dollars in industrial properties controlled by American interests, including Moa Bay Mining Company.

→ Senator Jacob Javits introduces a bill to create a federal travel agency which will "sell" America to foreign tourists. He proposes a budget of about ten million dollars for the agency next year.

Friday, March 11

→ Pioneer V, an artificial planetoid weighing 94.8 pounds, was launched by a Thor-Able rocket from Cape Canaveral for a trip around the Sun between the planetary paths of Earth and Venus.

→ Castro's government seizes three American-owned sugar mills worth an estimated ten million dollars. The mills are owned by the Guantanamo Sugar Company of New York.

→ In Massachusetts, Bernard Goldfine is indicted by a Federal Grand Jury for evasion of $791,745 in income taxes.

Saturday, March 12

→ At Alamogordo, New Mexico, the Aerial Phenomena Research Organization notifies Air Force officials that pieces of a "form of metal unknown anywhere in the world" are actual physical evidence that flying saucers are extra-terrestrial in origin.

→ Continentale, an Italian news agency, reports that Czechoslovakia has offered to sell Cuba several hundred Soviet-designed MIG-17 jet fighters.

→ It is announced that ten thousand Frenchmen will guard Soviet Premier Khrushchev when he visits Paris next week.

Sunday, March 13

→ Frederick H. Boland, Ireland's permanent delegate to the United Nations, describes the duty of the United Nations "to be the watch-dog of the moral conscience of mankind."

→ Reportedly ill with the grippe, Soviet Premier Khrushchev postpones his scheduled state visit to France for another week to ten days.

→ It is reported that violent fighting for political supremacy between members of the Conakat and Balubakat-Fedeka parties is taking place in the Belgian Congo, which is preparing for its independence on June 30, 1960.

Monday, March 14

→ Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona charges that the Eisenhower administration's foreign policy is leading to a surrender to Communism.

→ Photographs of the moon, allegedly made by the Soviet rocket, Lunik III, are described as hoaxes by William J. Young of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and Lloyd Mallan, space photography specialist.

→ Castro urges Cubans to work with their rifles beside them so as to be ready for defense against American enemies; and Jose Pardo Llada, a Cuban radio commentator, accuses the United States of blowing up its own battleship, Maine, in 1898.

Tuesday, March 15

→ Republican congressional leaders announce that President Eisenhower plans to ask Congress for legislation which would approximately double the 154,000 immigrants allowed to enter the country annually; and that Eisenhower also wants discretionary powers to raise or lower sugar import quotas.

→ West German Chancellor Adenauer urges President Eisenhower to resist any and all concessions on Berlin at the proposed summit conference in May.

→ At the opening session of a ten-nation disarmament conference in Geneva, the United States proposes an international police force within the United Nations to preserve world peace after national arms and armies are reduced. Besides the United States, other participants are France, Italy, Canada, Britain, Poland, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and the Soviet Union.

Wednesday, March 16

→ West German Chancellor Adenauer suggests that a plebiscite in West Berlin on the status quo, held before the proposed summit meeting, would be the best answer to Khrushchev's demand that Allied occupation of West Berlin should end immediately.

→ American Ambassador to the United Nations, Henry Cabot Lodge, receives the Sylvanus Thayer Award at the United States Military Academy, as an American citizen who exemplifies the West Point motto, "Duty, Honor, Country."

→ As he endorses the presidental candidacy of Vice President Nixon, President Eisenhower says, "There has never been, between Mr. Nixon and myself . . . a specific difference . . . on any important problem in seven years."

Thursday, March 17

→ The legislature of the Southern Cameroons, a United Nations trusteeship, votes to request Great Britain to establish a military force to police the border with the new Cameroon Republic which is being terrorized by Communist insurgents.

→ In the tenth major air tragedy of 1960, a Northwest Airlines Electra explodes in midair near Tell City, Indiana, killing all sixty-three aboard.

→ Sentences ranging from five years to life are decreed for fourteen Chinese Catholics by Chinese Communists on charges of counter-revolutionary plotting. Bishop Ignatius Kung Pin-mei is sentenced to life imprisonment for treason.

Friday, March 18

→ Chinese Communists sentence Roman Catholic Bishop, James Edward Walsh, to twenty years imprisonment on charges that the Maryknoll missionary was an American imperialist spy.

→ The State Department announces that American Ambassador Bonsal will return to his Cuban post since Castro's government assures the State Department that no conspiracy charges are held against Bonsal.

→ In the face of contrary evidence, the National Council of Churches denies categorically that its organization has ever been infiltrated by a Communist Party member or sympathizer among its high-level officials.

Saturday, March 19

→ It is reported that a letter sent from Khrushchev to Eisenhower on March 8 hints that the Soviets may be forced to give nuclear weapons to Red China, if the United States supplies such arms to its NATO allies.

MAY GOD FORGIVE US

Originally brought out in 1952 by the Henry Regnery Company, this small book — in the hardbound and paperbound editions together — sold approximately 200,000 copies in one year. Since the same formula of betrayal of other nations to the Communists, by the treason in our government, is being followed today without any appreciable change, May God Forgive Us is just as timely now as when it was written nine years ago. So it was reprinted in full as the March, 1960 issue of American Opinion.

THE BANG-JENSEN TRAGEDY

by

JULIUS EPSTEIN

This is a complete review of the whole case, based on the official records, many of which had never been published, or quoted in print, before. The infamous steps within the United Nations, which led to Bang-Jensen's dismissal and ultimate death, are outlined in detail, with full documentation. For reading, or for reference, this monograph is the most authoritative study of the cause celebre that has yet appeared. It was published as the May, 1960 issue of American Opinion.

A Statesman Speaks Up for America

This great book sets out the finest declaration of Constitutional Government since the Federalist papers. Senator Goldwater sweeps away all political double talk on such subjects as

- ★ THE MENACE OF THE COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY
- ★ STATE RIGHTS' AND CIVIL RIGHTS
- ★ FREEDOM FOR LABOR AND FARMERS
- ★ TAXES AND SPENDING
- ★ THE PERILS OF POWER IN THE WELFARE STATE

Here is a bolt of political lightning that will put real fire into the campaign debate.

This book by the Senator for Arizona comes as a hurricane of truth out of the gulf of Socialism sweeping over the United States. Whether you are Republican or Democrat, it will stop you in your mental tracks. It will revive memories of the days when this Nation stood out as the hope of Mankind, instead of sinking to the minor role it is now playing in the sordid mess of international "One-Worldism."

If you have been complacent and wishy-washy about your country—after reading Senator Goldwater's book, you will never be the same again.

Revealing! ☆ Historical! ☆ Sensational!

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter dated June 29, 1960, has been received, and the interest which prompted you to write is appreciated.

Although I would like to be of service, it is not within the scope of this Bureau's authority to make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual since we are strictly a fact-gathering agency. For this reason I am unable to answer your inquiry, and I hope you will not infer in this connection either that we do or do not have the related data in our files. Enclosed is some material concerning the general subject of communism which may be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

Letter to Mr. [redacted]

John Birch Society

NOTE: Bufiles not searched due to common name of correspondent. The group, headed by Robert Welch wealthy candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts, is subject of Paragraph F of SAC Letter 59-13. In January, 1959, Welch met with a group of leading industrialists in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, lecturing on communism and presented his plan to establish ostensibly communist front groups which, in reality, would be anti-communist groups. Above SAC Letter alerted the field to these plans and instructed the field to promptly advise the Bureau of any information concerning Welch's activities in this regard. He wrote a book entitled "The Politician" which came to the Bureau's attention in March, 1959. Only a limited number of copies printed which he has distributed to friends and certain individuals who he believes would be interested in its contents. This book attacks the reputation of the President of the United States, particularly Chapter 9 which is a violent attack upon President Eisenhower. Information regarding this book forwarded to Special Assistant to the President Gordan Gray by Bulet 3-6-59. (62-104401)

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Recently I was invited to join a group of citizens who are members in what is called The John Birch Society.

Being a loyal American citizen and a Reserve Army officer I am keenly aware of the many Communist front organizations in existence today, and have withheld becoming a member of any organization whose background and history I do not know.

I have checked Department of Defense Form 98, and do not find the Society listed thereon, but as this form is dated 1 September 1956, and The John Birch Society claims to have been formed in December 1958, it is of course not listed.

Realizing that you are not in a position to recommend one group or another, I would appreciate your comments on The John Birch Society.

Your early reply will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

NOTE TO CINCINNATI, CONTINUED

Welch and the John Birch Society have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent stated that he and several friends were invited to join the John Birch Society and prompted by emotion rather than sound judgment they "rashly joined." Several questions have now arisen in their minds as to the integrity of the organization and he, therefore, requests the Bureau furnish him information concerning this group.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Recently several friends of mine and I were invited to attend a meeting of an organization which proportedly is dedicated to anti-communist activities. The name of the organization is the John Birch Society, headed by Mr. Robert Welch.

Prompted by emotion rather than sound judgment and finding the obvious stated principles of the organization quite sound and in keeping with our moral sentiments, we rashly joined. However, in retrospect, several questions have arisen in our minds as to the integrity of this organization knowing full well that many communist organizations use patriotic principles to serve as fronts for their various nefarious activities. It is with this in mind that I request information concerning this organization.

Thanking you in advance for any enlightenment on this subject, I remain

Mrs. [redacted] Bureau files contain no identifiable data concerning Mrs. [redacted] described by Mrs. [redacted] as the local representative of the John Birch Society. b6 b7C

Robert Welch and the John Birch Society have not been the subjects of investigation by the Bureau. Information concerning this individual and organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5.

The Bureau has had numerous cordial contacts with Congressman King.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Congressman Cecil R. King, 17th District of California, furnished the Bureau, by letter dated June 24, 1960, a lengthy letter received by him from a constituent. He submitted this letter for the Director's attention and did not request action of any kind. Correspondent's letter concerns the John Birch Society, and expresses the belief that this organization should be investigated because of its "authoritarian internal structure" which she compares with the Nazi Party of Germany. Correspondent furnished her observations concerning the John Birch Society in the belief that they might be of interest to the Congressman.

The John Birch Society was founded by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., of Belmont, Massachusetts, in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly anticommunist having branches in various parts of the country. It has never been investigated by the Bureau. Welch has been critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. SAC Letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs thatany information received concerning its activities should be promptly furnished to the Bureau.

Hon. Cecil R. King
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Mr. King:

Two days ago my husband and I were invited to a presentation by some republican and so-called "conservative" friends of ours. It left us quite worried and we believe it might be of interest to you and similar minded members of Congress to hear about this and perhaps cast a critical eye in the direction of a certain budding organization.

It was a presentation made by the "John Birch Society" hich is headed by a Robert Welch, retired former President of he Welch Candy Company. It is in form of a motion picture in hich Mr. Welch gives a 2 hour lecture on the aims and structure f his organization in an effort to win members.

The basic overt aims are very admirable indeed. The Society is supposedly engaged in a crusade for the fight against communism and the influence thereof within the United States. Mr. Welch claims the support of many fine known patriots and quotes from legitimate and worthy publications. His presentation is backed by a tremendous detailed knowledge on the subject of communism, by some irrefutable facts and statistics, and by the undeniable need of doing what he proposes to do, namely to combat communism and to educate the American Public as to it's dangers.

However, neatly sandwiched inbetween facts and figures, Mr. Welch comes out with blatant half-truths and un-truths in an effort to prepare his audience for his final coup: to get them to sign up enthusiastically as members of his organization, as ambitious fighters against communism, as patriotic defenders of their country, and as providers of a secure future for their children. Nobody could possibly want to abstain from such noble ambitions!!!!

But, ----and here is where official investigation into his organization becomes greatly desirable: just what are these good people all signing up for??? An organization with an authoritarian internal structure (for the sake of expedience, they say), not unlike cells. It has a platform that recommends extreme isolationism, exclusion of all types of debate and seeks to eliminate such institutions as the United Nations, as well as all social advances, any efforts toward international understanding, and even suggests the eventual abolition of the Republican Form of Government. Anything that disagrees with extreme rightest views is labled: aiding and abetting the red cause, etc. For example, Mr. Welch claims that practically everyone in authorotative position in the U. S. Government during the last 30 years has been participating in the "World-wide Communist Conspiracy". His slogan is: "Less Government, more responsibility, and a better World!"

Now I, a naturalized American Citizen, have lived under Nazi rule during my formative and young adult years. If anyone can smell the rat of fascist agitation, it is I. For years the principles of Naziism have been drummed into me, I have been forced to hear every speech of Hitler's and Goebbels'. I was forced into Nazi Youth organizations. And I have felt the results of such a loathsome type of Government in my life and on my body. I do not want my children to go through the same experiences.

Mr. Welch employs the same insidious tactics that made Goebbels famous. I am afraid he is luring many an innocent do-gooder into being a card carrying nucleus of a vicious organization. The Nazi Party at first claimed it was only trying to "combat communism and create a better life." I have heard the pleas of former Nazi Party members that all they wanted was to do good. I have known the characters of some of these and I would vouch that they are telling the truth. I also would vouch for some of Mr. Welch's new deciples that that was all they too want. When will enough of them be caught in the web that might become dangerous to the rest of us U. S. Citizens??

I also want to mention that both my husband and I are decidedly anti-communist. My husband is an ex-Military Intelligence officer now engaged in space research and I escaped with the Russians at my heels from now communist dominated areas in East Germany. I left there property and friends, I have seen Communism in action. This, I believe, will vouch for my feelings in the matter. Also, after the end of the war in the American Zone of Occupation I went on record and officially signed statements pointing out to U. S. Military Authorities places of communist agitation. If nothing else, this surely got me on the communists' black lists.

These lectures of the John Birch Society are held to small groups of under 50 people. They can be attended by invitation only, and those attending must be previously screened as being "conservatives". My husband and I, who make no bones about being democrats got in there by mistake through invitation by our republican "sparring partners"----who'll do anything to bring about stimulating discussions (that they got !!) ---- The Society does not want the Press to be notified or receive any publicity. If that isn't undercover, I don't know what is!?

I am not sure, Mr. King, just HOW you will be able to see that lecture, unless it is via disguise or incognito, but it would be worth all kinds of trouble to try. That is, if you are not already familiar with it. There is a publication called "American Opinion" published by Mr. Welch, that I have studied briefly. It gives the appearance of being more aboveboard, allbeit expressing extremely rightist views. It is mainly the structure and character of the John Birch Society that leaves one to wonder, as well as the fact that many of the things they are vehemently against have nothing to do with communism.

Below I will write the name and address of the local representative. I would rather not be quoted by name to this fellow, since I would not like to embarrass my friends. The meeting was held in the building of the Westchester Women's Club --- no connection with it. Neither have I. So much of this for all it might be worth to you.

Respectfully yours,

Re SAC Letter 60-5, dated 1/26/60.

On 7/7/60 Mrs. ELSA O. KESSEL, aka Mrs. W. E. KESSEL, residence 1207 E. Henry St., Savannah, Ga., an employee of the Southern States Phosphate and Fertilizer Co., Savannah, Ga., appeared in the Savannah Office with the following literature:

(1) Pamphlet entitled "The John Birch Society Inc., Belmont, Massachusetts", bulletin for 6/1/60.

(2) Pamphlet entitled "American Opinion", June, 1960, edition, headed "European Survey", a publication of ROBERT WELCH Inc., Belmont, Mass.

(3) Postcard entitled "Let's End Foreign Aid" with cartoon of President Eisenhower watering "native grass of foreign aid", which postcard is in the form of a petition to Congress to discontinue foreign aid, and which was printed by "American Opinion", Belmont, Mass.

Mrs. KESSEL advised that for some time she had been reading a publication entitled "Georgia Farmer", which is published by TOM ANDERSON, who lives somewhere in Tennessee. She stated that ANDERSON in one of his articles had recommended the John Birch Society and its publications, therefore she, about 3 months ago, paid a $2.00 fee and since then has received 3 monthly editions of "American Opinion" as well as the pamphlets of the John Birch Society. She stated that these pamphlets have suggestions for recipients in regard to promoting the views of the society and in regard to enlargement of the activities and membership of the society. She stated that the cost for subscription is $1.00 per month. She advised that she has exhibited the literature to various fellow employees and has tried to invoke their interest in it and in joining the society. She stated that some of her fellow employees had suggested that she consult with the FBI before proceeding further. She stated that she had also learned that there is a local chapter of the John Birch Society in Atlanta, Ga., which is active.

Mrs. KESSEL was advised that no comment would be made by the FBI concerning the organization in question. She voluntarily left copies of the 3 pamphlets listed above, which are being maintained in the Savannah files.

A check of the Savannah indices reflects that Mrs. ELSA KESSEL in 1941 was an applicant for a stenographer with the Bureau. At that time it was determined that she was born 8/17/94 of former German citizens who were naturalized. She was formerly a stenographer at the FHA in Savannah, Ga. There is nothing in the Savannah files of a derogatory nature regarding her.

This information is being furnished to you pursuant to instructions set out in referenced letter and a copy of this letter is being furnished to the Atlanta Division for information inasmuch as it has been alleged that an active chapter is in Atlanta.

On June 29, 1960, [redacted] former Special Agent, [redacted] American Security Council, 205 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois, furnished this office a copy of "The Blue Book" of the John Birch Society and of "The Politician," together with one photostat copy each of a four page pamphlet explaining the John Birch Society, and a report dated April 18, 1960, entitled "Santa Barbara Activities of the John Birch Society."

At [redacted] request, "The Blue Book" and "The Politician" were returned to him. One copy each of the report of Santa Barbara activities are being furnished herewith as an enclosure to the Bureau and Los Angeles for information.

According to information available to [redacted] there apparently are three Chicago chapters of the John Birch Society, one of which has been meeting at Glenview, Illinois. The meetings at Glenview are held every other Monday night. Three such meetings have been held which have been attended by approximately 200 people. Mrs. [redacted] Street, Glenview, on expressing doubts about the society at one of the above meetings, was given a copy of "The Politician" and told that that book is given out only when a member of the society is "qualified." After reading the book and expressing her disgust with the material, Mrs. [redacted] was told by STILLWELL J. CONNORS, leader of the meeting, that if she quoted any part of the book at the meeting he would completely deny existence of the book and would discredit her. According to [redacted] after the next Glenview meeting, the chapter is to be broken up into anti-Communist "cells" composed of 10 to 20 people, and that the society aims at a million members nationally.

SUBJECT: Santa Barbara Activites of the John Birch Society and Presentation Film by Robert Welch

1. The local attendance at the meeting was in the vicinity of 70 persons (35 husbands and wives).

The meeting was held on the evening of April 15, 1960 at the home of Dr. Horace F. Pierce of Vista del Mundo Ranch, 3800 block Foothill, Santa Barbara.

The local charge-d'affairs appears to be Dr. Granville F. Knight of 755 Rockbridge Road, Montecito, who is listed in the Society's books as a Council member.

The duties of the Council are stated as three:

(1) To show the stature and standing of the leadership of the Society;

(2) To give (the founder, Robert Welch) the benefit of the Council's advice and guidance, both in procedural or organizational matters, and in substantive matters of policy;

(3) To select, with absolute and final authority, a successor to (R. Welch) as head of the John Birch Society, if and when an accident, "Suicide" or anything sufficiently fatal is arranged for me by the Communists --- or I simply die in bed of old age and a cantankerous disposition.

2. The attendees were approximately two-thirds composed of the type known as "First Families", that is, mature to elderly people whose position in society is relatively secure, either because of money or family or both. The balance, about one third, were of younger persons, who could be described as probable "Comers", that is, young people who will probably attain in later years that position in society now held by the First Families. It was interesting to note that the only "Comers" present, who were identifiable as non-scions of present first families were in positions dealing with mass media communications.[1/]

It is fair and accurate to say that all the persons present who were engaged in conversation were of the political beliefs inaccurately labeled extreme conservatism, and more accurately describable as historic constitutionalists or or republican, as distinguishable from Republican as an existing political party.

3. The objective of this meeting was to hear a three hour presentation, a condensation of a two day presentation, by Mr. Robert Welch of Indianapolis, Indiana, the founder of the John Birch Society, and after the presentation to sell literature describing the works and aims of the Society, and to sign up new members.

The talk by Mr. Welch was excellent, accurate, forceful and, in my estimation, very effective.

1/ This may well be a totally unfair and inaccurate analysis. I knew almost no one, and this statement depends upon hearsay as to who was who, and what he did.

Basically, Mr. Welch recites the actual history of the growth of Communism, and extrapolates this background to show the

(1) present danger to the U. S., and

(2) the rapidly increasing future danger to the U. S.

Just a few words about the talk:

a. Mr. Welch's historical data, to the limit of my knowledge, was accurate and exact. He did cite data that I had not previously been aware of, but at least two-thirds of his presented data is capable of being checked in any library.

b. The added data cited did support a somewhat more alarmed response than that response normal from the common-knowledge data. This added data is certainly capable of being responsibly checked -- perhaps not easily outside of Government intelligence circles, but easily and certainly within such circles. The data is of a nature that denial of its existence by those charged with the safety and security of the National existence of the U.S.A. must be taken as an indication that something is terribly wrong.

c. Mr. Welch extrapolates from this fact-supported position to the present and future danger of the U. S. He believes--

(1) The Soviets will not try to conquer the United States by military means.

(2) That the Soviets have a useable, though not preferred plan, to foment civil strife within the U.S. to weaken our country to enable a Communist-lead group to take over the Government from within, that this plan is in operation today and methods and plans for its ultimate implementation exist and that this is indicated by the actions occurring in the civil rights questions and in Communist control of unions absolutely vital to communications and control, and transportation and mobility.

(3) That the preferred Soviet plan, also being implemented, is to so control the U.S. from within and without, that the U.S. will no longer be interested in resisting the world wide advances of Communism.

This plan has two modes of implementation:

(a) Induce gradual surrender of U.S. sovereignty, piece-by-piece, to various international organizations, while the Communists take over those international organizations.

(b) Convert the U.S.A. into a socialistic nation of similar outlook to that of the USSR in order to lessen the U.S. need to respond to Communistic advances throughout the world.

4. An analysis of the talk by Mr. Welch must conclude:

A. The talk appears factually accurate, and the data is susceptible of proof.

B. The extrapolation covering present and future danger to the continued national existence of the United States, in an historic constitutional republican sense, is not unrealistic. It is a far more "alarmed" extrapolation than the published official views of the present administration.2/

C Mr. Welch's balancing of the position of Russian military power as an effective weapon of foreign policy is faulty. This in turn leads to a dangerous disregard of the military force threat to the United States

D. Mr Welch is apparently a truly dedicate man of impeccable background, and unquestionable patriotism A well-educated man who has been quite successful in the American business world, he has resigned from most of his business interests, at considerable monetary sacrifice, to conduct a crusade against the threat of enveloping Communism.3/

E. No reasonable basis appears for differing violently with either the facts or the engendered alarm presented in the talk.

5 At the conclusion of the talk several pieces of literature were offered for sale which were reported to make more clear the position of Mr. Welch and of the John Birch Society with respect to the threat to the United States described in the talk and with respect to the aims and objectives of the group's plan to combat this threat.

This literature included

The Blue Book of the John Birch Society, 181 pgs , copyrighted 1959 by Robert Welch. Publisher undesignated

The John Birch Society Bulletin for February, 1960 by Robert Welch. Publisher undesignated Society address -- Belmont 78, Massachusetts.

The Scoreboard, a 4 page reprint from July-August, 1959 American Opinion, with updating footnotes to the present (?), showing the estimates of "Communist Influence as a Percentage of Total Control" of 105 national governments throughout the world Two examples (11) Britain, 40-60%, and (100) United States, 30-50%.

American Opinion, January, 1959, by Robert Welch, One Hundred Steps to the Truth, a special feature reviewing 100 books setting out facts in detail cover- the present and future danger from Communist actions, infiltrations and plans. An order blank on The Book Maker, Box 101, Murrary Hill Station, New York 16, New York, is suppl.ed for 96 of the listed books; the other four are Governmental publications.

2/ If I must personally choose as to which view of National danger is more accurate, I would choose Mr Welch's extrapolated view Furthermore, this view appears to me to represent a SAFER position for U S. policy planning against all danger

3/ Born and educated in North Carolina of Baptist early American pioneer Welch stock (1720). Education includes four years University of North Carolina, two years U.S. Naval Academy, and two years Harvard School of Law. Became Vice President, Sales and Advertising of Welch Candy Company, was a member of Board of Directors of the National Association of Manufacturers for seven years, served three years as Regional Vice President NAM, and two years as Chairman, Educational Advisory Committee of NAM. Has served as Director or on Boards of several U S. corporations

American Opinion, March, 1960, by Robert Welch, a reprint of The Life of John Birch (Robert Welch), publicshed by the Henry Regnery Company, Chicago, 1954. The published original reviews of the manuscript of the Life of John Birch include: "This book is a strong publication pointing to the evils of Communism both within and without our Country. It should be read by all Americans who love our Country and want to preserve it." - George E. Stratemeyer, Lt. General, USA, Retired

"I wish your books could be placed in every library in the United States. As a matter of fact, they should be required reading in grade school, high school and college." - Claire Lee Chennault, Major General, U.S.A.F., Retired.

and,

"Amazingly, there were in Washington responsible officials who were willing to suppress news of the murder of an American officer, apparently to prevent the American people from rising in their wrath and vetoing further appeasement of Communism Not a great deal can be said for the judgment, discretion and reliability of those responsible for suppressing the tragic and revealing story of Capt. John Birch" - Saturday Evening Post Ideitorial, January 22, 1955, based on this book

Why People Become Communists, a 34 page reprint from February, 1958 American Opinion, by the editor of American Opinion (Robert Welch), available from American Opinion, Belmont 78, Massachusetts

This document appears to be an incisive, realistic and pragmatic analysis of some general bases of motivation and motivation-compulsion reaction It is well worth including as a reference addendum to texts on applied psychology.

An analysis of the general content of this literature strongly supports the same analysis as presented in Section 4 Covering the talk by Mr. Welch -- with one very important and major exception --

That exception covers Mr. Welch's plan to combat the Communist threat as the plan is set out in Sections 4 through 8 of The Blue Book of the John Birch Society.

Mr. Welch proposes to become "The Founder" of the John Birch Society, which Society is to be a monolithic body which will operate under completely authoritative control at all levels 4/

Now Mr. Welch discusses briefly and discards as inconsequential the proper fear of tyrannical oppression of individuals by such an authoritarian organization, since he states the Society is to be a voluntary organization. However, it is realistic to point out that

(1) An organization, voluntary in the first instance and of an authoritarian nature may easily become non-voluntary as regards the rights and liberties of an individual

4/ Page 158, the Blue Book of the John Birch Society, and see page 117 where the need for leadership is reputed to authorize the assumption of leadership by one man, who thereafter authorizes force as one of the methods of furthering his own plans, for the group

5/ I am sure most "good Germans" of the Weimar Republic agreed with what they understood of Hitler's position when he was named Chancellor in 1933(?), and I expect that Hitler's Brown Shirt organization was a voluntary organization in its incept on

(2) The John Birch Society is organized specifically to exert effective influence on the U S political scene, in which case every citizen of the U.S. will be effected to one extent or another by such Society. That the Society should represent one man's views so completely by its organizat onal structure represents a very real danger to the future liberty of all Americans 5/

Now these observations should not be construed as derogation either of Mr. Welch nor of the John Birch Society The are, in fact, simple observations of a possible danger in any authoritarian organization Examples of the excesses of authoritarian organizations range from the Holy Roman Church, through innumerable kingdoms, through the dictatorships of our days and include many, many business organizations It is in this context that all authoritative organizations are suspect -- including the John Birch Society, which has as its avowed aims and slogan "Less Government and More Responsibility".

Now Mr. Welch advances some persuasive arguments as to why the structure of the Society was chosen to be based upon an authoritarian model. These arguments obviously have persuaded many serious minded people -- namely present members of his organization I will not belabour the point but merely state that in spite of the fact that the aims of the Society seem honorable, and the facts presented indicate a terrifying urgency, and the position of Mr. Welch appears justifiable under certain special circumstances, I am not persuaded that such an organization as Mr Welch proposes is in turn without danger, though I desire to move in the same general political direction that he and his organization tend toward

Dear Mr. Hoover:

An invitation has been extended to me to join the John Birch Society.

It is my understanding that the purpose of this Society is to fight Communism by becoming better informed on world affairs.

According to what one reads and hears today, there are so many Communistic front organizations that one can never be sure of what he is joining. By joining the wrong organization, a person could help destroy the Government he wishes to protect.

Won't you tell me what you know about the John Birch Society and about its founder and present head, Robert Welch.

Your help will be appreciated.

REC- 56

Re SAC letter #60-5 dated 1/26/60, Section C, which contains information and Bureau instructions re captioned organization.

On 7/21/60, Mr. ERNEST L. HICKS, N. C. State representative of Mecklenburg Co., Charlotte, N. C., personally appeared at the Charlotte Office, at which time he advised that his purpose in calling at the office was to ascertain if captioned organization was subversive. He went on to state that on the night of 7/20/60, he had attended a meeting of the JOHN BIRCH Society which was held in downtown Charlotte Public Library, and attended by approximately 12 persons. One [redacted] [redacted] from Sevierville, Tenn., was the main speaker. NC

Mr. HICKS advised that [redacted] stated that the purpose of the Society was to fight Communism and during the meeting [redacted] advised that they had Chapters of the Society in 30 states and that they desired to obtain one million members. Mr. HICKS stated that [redacted] did not indicate that there were other Chapters of the Society in North Carolina. He further stated that [redacted] criticized the Supreme Court and also government officials in Washington, D. C.

For the additional information of the Bureau, on 7/12/60 Reverend [redacted] N. C., telephonically contacted the office to ascertain if the FBI could furnish him any information as to whether a group or society known as the "JOHN BUNCH Society or Group" was subversive. DATE: 7/27/60

FROM : SAC, Charlotte (100-9548)

SUBJECT: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
INFORMATION CONCERNING - INTERNAL SECURITY

Re Charlotte airtel 7/21/60.

On 7/27/60, Reverend [redacted] N. C., advised SA [redacted] that he had not attended any meetings of the organization which he had previously called the Charlotte Office about but had learned that the group was meeting in the public library in downtown Charlotte. Rev. [redacted] stated that he intended to attend some of the meetings and that if he observed anything of a suspicious nature or received any literature of a questionable nature about the organization, he would contact the Charlotte Office.

b7C

Since the organization Rev. [redacted] referred to is apparently identical with John Birch Society which is meeting in the public library in Charlotte, no further action is being taken in this matter by the Charlotte Office but any pertinent information received will be forwarded to the Bureau.

ReSAClet No. 60-5, dated 1/26/60.

On 7/28/60, [redacted], former PSI of WFO, advised SA [redacted], that on Tuesday evening 7/26/60, he and his wife were invited to an initial meeting of captioned organization held in the hall of a Catholic Church somewhere on the outskirts of the town of Fairfax, Fairfax County, Virginia. [redacted] does not know the name of the church. Present at the above meeting were about thirty people. [redacted] was invited to attend the function by a friend named [redacted], Arlington, Va.

The meeting, apparently the first held in the Washington, D. C. area, was for the purpose of introducing the Society, explaining its aims and objectives and forming a new chapter. The activity of instant meeting was under the supervision of a male individual from Tennessee, name unknown to [redacted]. This person displayed three rolls of film which consisted entirely of a speech given by the Society's founder, ROBERT WELCH, a wealthy candy manufacturer. The speech outlined the history of the communist movement starting with the Russian revolution and explained in detail the objectives, dangers, and evils of communism. [redacted] stated he was quite impressed with the Society's objectives and thought some good could come of it, provided it did not develope a leadership of extremists. He stated there was no evidence of this at this meeting. He was favorably impressed also by the class of people present at the meeting.

[redacted] stated that the purpose of the Society as far as he can determine is to alert people through a coordinated system of letterwriting directed at the sources

He stated the Society has a monthly magazine in which it sets forth such things as the identity of magazines, news correspondents, and commentators which consistently espouse "leftist" causes. Each chapter of the society during their periodic meetings will choose from the magazine a topic on which to concentrate their campaign.

[redacted] stated it was mentioned during the meeting that plans are being laid to form another chapter of The John Birch Society, in Arlington County, Virginia, sometime in August, 1960. He believes this may be placed under the leadership of [redacted], mentioned previously.

[redacted] stated he filled out an application for membership in the organization, which requires he pay two dollars a month dues. He paid in cash and gave the application to the man from Tennessee. At this time [redacted] was unable to furnish further details on the Society's membership or location in the Washington, D. C. area.

It was explained to [redacted] that the Bureau is conducting no investigation of The John Birch Society. It is to be noted that [redacted] first approached WFO telephonically on 7/26/60, relative to the Society as he was interested in knowing whether it was a legitimate organization. He was given no information and it was arranged to see him on 7/28/60.

Re SAC Letter No. 59-13 (F), dated 3/10/59 and SAC Letter No. 60-5 (C), dated 1/26/60.

On 7/12/60, Mr. [redacted] Wichita, Kansas, advised SA ELMER R. FLETCHER that he had been approached to join the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY by Mr. [redacted] of Wichita. Mr [redacted] was requested to attend an organization meeting at [redacted] home on 7/19/60. Mr. [redacted] volunteered that Mr. [redacted] a highly regarded citizen and engineer at Boeing Airplane Company, had shown an interest in organization of a chapter of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY in Wichita.

Mr. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had supplied a copy of J. EDGAR HOOVER's testimony before the Congress relative to the current convention of the CP USA. Mr. [redacted] desired to know if the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY was connected with the FBI.

Having always admired and respected your capabilities of handling subversive disturbances as well as other forms of criminology, I would like to ask you a question.

A neighbor of mine who is in charge of our precinct work in the Republican Campaign wanted me to join a John Birch club being formed. I went to see one of the films regarding the Communist infiltration in South America and last night attended a meeting of the club as a guest and we listened to a tape recording by Mr. Arens of the Un-American activities Committee.

My question is whether or not this John Birch Organization is a worthwhile group to help stamp out communism in our country is impossibly (or part of it) a "front" organization.

I joined the WAC in 1951 and later was in the WMSC as an occupational therapy student. I was a Lieutenant and naturally we had considerable briefings on Communist activities then. Naturally the subject matter and the dangers we learned about have not been forgotten in my mind.

Personally, as I listened to the activities and directions given as points for the month at this recent meeting I found myself very apprehensive of its tactics. It simply did not appear to be the right approach to our problem. The other members all are most sincere in wishing to stamp out Communism but I would like to have your advice as to whether or not you approve of this society.

May I thank you for mailing to me your two recent statements on the subject of communism. I found them to be most interesting and extremely enlightening. I have been passing them around to some of my friends, and they have been very impressed by your comments. We are interested in actively fighting the Communist menace in our government and nation. To effectively do this, we feel that we must be properly advised, educated and organized. Though I realize your hands are tied in commenting on some matters, I do hope that you can help us, at least, to some degree.

Some of my friends have joined an organization they believe to be anti-communistic. They have asked me to join, but I have wanted to ask your advice on this matter before doing anything. The name of the organization is "The John Birch Society", Belmont 78, Massachusetts. The founder and leader of this organization is Robert Welch. He was formerly Vice President of Welch Candy Co. of Belmont and Editor of American Opinion Magazine. Do you believe that I can do the most good for my country fighting Communism through this organization or a similar one than I can do on my own. I don't want to join an organization that is actually against the constitution and welfare of the country. I do not know anyone else who can answer these questions, and I hate to sit around talking about the growth of Communism and not doing anything about it. Your comments will be highly beneficial to me and will be held confidential at your request.

In one instance [redacted] reported that [redacted] St. Louis, Missouri, who was in Phoenix as a representative of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, contacted [redacted] in June, 1955, in an effort to interest him in the SOBELL case, but came away dismayed when [redacted] put communism and fascism in the same category.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to the 4/15/60 issue of the "Arizona Republic", a newspaper of general circularization in Phoenix, Arizona, FRANK BROPHY, former president of the Bank of Douglas, Phoenix, reported that JOHN BIRCH CLUBS were planned for Arizona. The paper reported that "John Birch Clubs are dedicated to fighting domestic and international communism". This article also reported that ROBERT WELCH of Massachusetts, founder of the JOHN BIRCH CLUBS, would also be in Phoenix and would address a meeting of Arizonans for America on 4/23/60. BROPHY was stated to be a leading member of the Arizonans for America.

To date there has been no report that any subversive elements are attempting to take over the JOHN BIRCH CLUBS. A number of persons have called recently to inquire whether the JOHN BIRCH CLUBS are actually subversive or whether they are on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations. FRANK CULLEN BROPHY is rather widely read on communism and has spoken out against communism on many occasions in speeches.

The Bureau will be kept advised of the activities of the JOHN BIRCH CLUBS in the Phoenix area. No investigation, however, will be conducted.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 5/4/84 BY SP6 BDH/mlc

Remylets 7/7/60 and 7/21/60.

In the Red Streak edition of the "Chicago Daily News", a daily newspaper, dated July 25, 1960, columnist JACK MABLEY in his column entitled "Jack Mabley's Story" reported on the John Birch Society. In his story MABLEY reported that the John Birch Society is an organization of ultra-conservatives banded together under ROBERT WELCH to fight Communism in America.

He stated that the Society has members in every state and active chapters in half the states, with a goal of one million active members. MABLEY quoted parts of "The Politician" in which President EISENHOWER and his top aides are accused of being a part of a Communist conspiracy to take over this nation.

He also reported that because of the circumstances of WELCH's position and influence, his writings in "The Politician" cannot be dismissed as the work of a crackpot. MABLEY stated that when he telephoned WELCH in Boston and asked about "The Politician", WELCH stated "that cannot be mentioned". When informed by MABLEY that he had read the book and asked if it accurately reflected his views, he declined to comment.

MABLEY noted that there presently are ten active chapters of the John Birch Society in the Chicago area. He stated he has seen the appeal of that Society in his own suburban community (Glenview, Illinois), in that there are four active units in that village and more than 200 persons turned out at a meeting two weeks earlier.

The Bureau will be advised of any additional information received in this regard.

I have been invited to join the John Birch Society, Inc., Belmont 78, Massachusetts, which was founded in 1958 by Mr. Robert Welch. This organization has been represented as being opposed to communism and dedicated to fight its spread within our nation.

As there are many subversive organizations masquerading as anti-communist, I would like your approval of this organization before I lend my support to it. I will sincerely appreciate any remarks you care to make regarding its integrity and activities.

May I extend my kindest personal regards to you and your men for the excellent service you are rendering our country.

I have received your letter dated July 28, 1960, and the interest which prompted your communication is indeed appreciated.

I can well appreciate your concern over the serious menace of communism to this country. Over the years I have expressed my views relative to this matter in numerous articles and speeches as well as in my book, "Masters of Deceit," which was published in 1958. It is imperative that all true Americans learn the nature of this evil conspiracy to enable themselves to effectively resist its influence.

The FBI as you know is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and it is not within our jurisdiction and responsibilities to furnish evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. Dear Mr. Hoover:

About two months ago I was given a short monograph to read entitled The Bluebook and authored by a Robert Welch of Belmont, Massachusetts. In this book, which to say the least is very alarming, the events of history since the Bolshevik Revolution are unfurled thus dramatizing the amazing and terrifying progress of international Communist conspiracy during the past forty or so years. Mr. Welch further points out how the communists influenced if not dictated our foreign policy in the Far East both during and after World War II. This book has prompted myself and several of my friends to explore this matter further and when you come to recognize what we regard to be the Communist line, it is almost too fantastic to comprehend.

I suppose deep down in the hearts of all of us we are hoping you will dispell our fears and tell us that the threat of communism is either non-existent or is so impotent as not to be worthy of concern; however, it is obvious to all of us that the international Communist conspiracy is a very serious threat to our security and we want to do something about it!

The only avenue opened to us now is the course of action suggested by Mr. Welch. He offers as a resistance to this conspiracy the John Birch Society which has for its motto: "Less government, more individual responsibility and a better world." This society takes the name of a young Baptist missionary who was murdered by the Chinese Communists (agrarian reformers) approximately twelve days after Japan's surrender. Mr. Welch's political philosophy is that of an ultra-conservative and as head of this society he is rather dogmatic in that he asks the members of the society not to deviate from the particular coursesof action he prescribes for the chapters in his monthly letters. When a chapter is first organized, the first step is to educate the members as quickly as possible by furnishing both pro-communist and anti-communist literature. Welch will then have the chapter establish a public reading room which will contain only anti-communist literature. From this small beginning, Welch aspires to shaking the American public out of their present apathy toward communism.

Ack. Savannah office 4-66 DSpw

One of the primary functions is that of writing legislators and other public officials urging a conservative stand on particular matters that he brings to the Society members' attention. I have read several of his bulletins and to date have agreed whole-heartedly with practically everything Welch has said and prescribed. While this is the only method I know of at the present time to fight communism, it is repugnant to me to place blind faith in an individual about whom I know very little. I fully understand that the findings of the Federal Bureau of Investigation with respect to individuals or groups are confidential, but unless we are shown it would be unwise to affiliate with such an organization, we see no alternative but to join Welch's cause.

We are completely swept with the idea of fighting socialism and communism and offer ourselves and any resources we might have to offer toward this end. There are many other friends who have become extremely interested and concerned with this matter but I can only commit the following two individuals in addition to myself at the present time.

Dear Sir:

At this time in Phoenix several chapters have been organized of the "John Birch Society", Belmont, 78, Massachusetts. It's founder is Robert Welch. The Society is dedicated to fighting the communist conspiracy, particularly its infiltration into every aspect of human life as we know it. It was founded approximately two years ago but has just recently come to this city. Because of so many seemingly good organizations, that later have proved to be mere communist "fronts", I would appreciate any or all information about the John Birch Society, as many who would be willing to work have wanted to know directly from you whether this is a subversive group or not.

I called our local F.B.I. office and they said they had no information at all but advised that by writing to you it could be obtained. Of course the sooner I receive this information the sooner these particular people that are interested can be effective in an effort to wake up a very sleepy and complacement America.

I wish to thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.

Washington, 7, D.C.
July 26th, 1960

The Honorable
J. Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Your office will be in position, undoubtedly, to clarify the status of THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY to my complete satisfaction. Right now I am confused.

Is this organization, as it so extravagantly claims, a bonafide anti-communist group or is there a possibility (and this seems remote) that the ultimate hoped for result may be of a sinister and subversive character?

I attended a meeting of the organization, in Fairfax, this past Monday evening. We listened for three hours to a 5-reel film lecture, followed by a further talk by the chairman of the meeting, in the employ of the organization.
Numerous facts were set forth of Russian strategy, infiltration, aggression and final control of country after country. It was most alarming. The U. S. was warned and admonished vehemently.

Now, what confused me was the fact that implications were made that men, in high positions in our own Government, were responsible to some degree in many cases. Also, books and authors were mentioned. Many of them have been suppressed; facts withheld from the public. During the course of the evening the Connally Amendment was discussed; during the question period some gentleman asked whether or not the "men in high places in our Government who favored repeal of the Amendment were guilty of treason". The answer was to the effect that "in my opinion.. not that of the organization .. they would be". Something was said about this being contrary to our Constitution. We would be left somewhat to the mercy of an International World Court.

I am an elderly person; I hope a good American. While the Hall was darkened for the film showing, a list was passed and we who attended were asked to sign name and address...an attendance record. I signed. Now I'm concerned.

AUG 5 1960

Please let me know. Is this organization a loyal, patriotic group. Is there any reason an American citizen should not belong?

Thank you for a reply.

STANDARD FORM NO. 64

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

DATE: August 3, 1960

FROM : SAC, Milwaukee (100-13570)

SUBJECT: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN
IS - MISCELLANEOUS

Considerable public interest is being shown in Milwaukee in the John Birch Society. In its issue of Sunday, July 31, 1960, The Milwaukee Journal carried a front page story concerning the organization of ten chapters of this society throughout Wisconsin. A copy of this article is enclosed. Also enclosed is a cartoon which appeared August 2, 1960, in the same newspaper.

Following publication of the Journal story, BOB SIEGRIST, a local news caster, invited ROBERT WELCH, JR., founder of the society, to appear on his program "Talk of the Town" last night. WELCH came to Milwaukee for this purpose and was interviewed. The broadcast was monitored by this office, and the results are set forth in the enclosed memorandum of this date prepared by SA [redacted] [redacted] b6 b7C

FOUNDER OF JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
MASS. WISCONSIN

SIEGRIST telephoned this office yesterday to inquire whether the FBI would make any comment regarding the John Birch Society. He was told we would not. During the conversation he said his office had been besieged with telephone calls during the day because of his interview the previous evening with Mrs. JOHN RUEBER, who is listed in the Journal article as "coordinator" for the Milwaukee area. SIEGRIST said there was general disapproval of the extreme statements attributed to WELCH in the Journal article.

The Bureau has previously been advised concerning reported organization of a branch of the John Birch Society at Green Bay, Wis. The Bureau will be further advised concerning the other organizations reported to have come into existence.

JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN
IS - MISCELLANEOUS

ROBERT WELCH, founder of captioned organization, was interviewed on August 3, 1960 by ROBERT SIEGRIST on the latter's radio program over Station WRIT. The interview initiated at 12:01 a.m. and terminated at 1:00 a.m.

SIEGRIST in his introduction of ROBERT WELCH stated that he was a Belmont, Massachusetts, citizen who founded the John Birch Society, which Society was openly criticized by the Milwaukee Journal in its July 31, 1960 edition. The Journal quoted WELCH as stating that President EISENHOWER was a Communist, and that the Federal Government was loaded with Communist sympathizers. He telephonically contacted WELCH on August 1, 1960, at which time WELCH agreed to fly to Milwaukee and appear on his program.

SIEGRIST asked WELCH if he had ever made a statement that "Eisenhower was a Red" and whether or not this was a doctrine of the John Birch Society? WELCH replied that the statement was false and was erroneously reported by the Milwaukee Journal. No books, records, recordings or manuscripts edited and published by the John Birch Society make any allegation that President EISENHOWER is a red agent or a Communist.

WELCH was then asked to furnish information about his publication the "Politician." WELCH stated that the so-called book was not a dogma of the John Birch Society. It was written by him between 1954 and 1958 in the nature of a letter to a friend. This manuscript does not try to prove anything. It merely reflects the personal beliefs of WELCH and certainly could not stand up in a court of law. In support of his statement that the John Birch Society had nothing to do with the "Politician," WELCH pointed out that the John Birch Society was founded after the completion of the manuscript.

In answer to the question "Do you think Eisenhower is a Communist?" WELCH stated that he would never make a public statement of that kind. He felt that his answer would be strictly a personal belief, not necessarily supported by fact, and he would be foolish to make a statement which would be subject to cross-examination. He pointed out, however, that his manuscript shows that EISENHOWER is helping the Communists and may be a Communist. These are his personal beliefs which were set forth in his manuscript and his statements are not documented. His manuscript was prepared not for publication, but merely for circulation among his friends.

WELCH admitted that his manuscript accused EISENHOWER of actions which were, in fact, treason against the United States, but he had no intention of giving reasons for this statement during his radio interview. He also stated that he refuses at this time to make any public remarks relative to the contents of the book which were set out in part in the Milwaukee Journal article. He did admit, however, over the radio, that certain things that EISENHOWER did or permitted to take place aided the Communists. WELCH stated that he was unable to determine at this time whether EISENHOWER performed these actions willingly and knowingly or because of pure ignorance.

WELCH cited a "treasonable act" on the part of President EISENHOWER as KHRUSHCHEV's visit to the United States at the President's request. He said this visit was a big boost to the Communists and did nothing to advance democracy. WELCH stated that the Soviet's biggest weapon was treason in other governments. The United States has treason among its officials. He considered it treason on the part of certain officials in the government because Poland, China, Yugoslavia and a number of other countries were lost to the Communists. He refused to name the officials responsible and refused to cite proof that the United States Government by its actions had lost the aforementioned countries.

At this time WELCH again brought up the "cardinal point" that the John Birch Society is not governed or directed by the contents of his manuscript. He did venture to guess that four-fifths of the John Birch Group have never heard of this manuscript and that the one-fifth who have are not necessarily in agreement. He pointed out that Mrs. JOHN RUEBER, a Milwaukee member of his organization, when interviewed by ROBERT SIEGRIST on a previous day, openly stated that she did not consider EISENHOWER a Communist.

WELCH stated that a true democracy can only operate in a very small community or group. When the group grows in size the errors of the people and the organization are multiplied until the whole idea of true democracy is lost. He stated that our democracy is truly a "mobology."

SIEGRIST specifically asked WELCH if the John Birch Society was ruled as a dictatorship by WELCH. WELCH stated that all members are at liberty to accept or reject his suggestions without losing their membership. Periodic instructions are mailed out to all members of his organization and at that time suggestions are made on how they should act and what they should do to further their organization. These suggestions are not mandatory and the members may act as their conscience guides them.

Two questions were directed to WELCH from the audience: Is NIXON a Communist? and the other, How do I become a member of the John Birch Society? WELCH stated he did not feel NIXON was a Communist and stated membership in his organization could be obtained by writing to the John Birch Society, Belmont, Massachusetts, or by contacting local representatives of the John Birch Society.

WELCH stated that he and his organization were fighting Communism by sending out large quantities of letters, by exposing such treasonable acts as KHRUSHCHEV's visit to the United States. They also send letters to Congressmen recommending or suggesting certain actions they should take relative to legislation.

In conclusion WELCH pointed out that to his knowledge no law enforcement agency is interested in his organization and none has initiated investigation of him or his members. His organization is not a secret society. All literature published by the Society is available to the public.

Group Branding Ike as Red Has 10 Wisconsin Chapters

John Birch Society Numbers 150 to 200 Members; Growth Disturbs Officials

By ALEX P. DOBISH
Of The Journal Staff

Ten chapters of the John Birch society, founded by a man who believes that President Eisenhower is a dedicated Communist, have formed in Wisconsin in the last year.

The ostensible purpose of the society is to fight communism and influence American politics. Its members include such leading citizens as William J. Grede, Milwaukee industrialist.

Four branches have been formed in Milwaukee and one each in Wauwatosa, Green Bay, De Pere, Oshkosh, Appleton and Eagle River.

Retired Manufacturer

Mrs. John Rueber, 3014 S. Delaware av., the wife of a medical technician, is the Milwaukee area "co-ordinator." Richard Johnson, Green Bay, an accountant, is in charge of upstate activities.

The founder of the society is a wealthy, retired candy manufacturer, who lives in Belmont, Mass. He is Robert H. W. Welch, jr., 61, a persuasive speaker, conservative and the author of "The Politician."

"The Politician" is a manuscript of 302 pages which has been privately reproduced in book form by the photo-offset process. Leaders of the society have received copies from Welch with the admonition that the contents are "strictly confidential and for your eyes only."

The book tries to prove that Mr. Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscientious agent of the Communist party.

It claims that Mr. Eisenhower's brother, Milton, is the president's superior in the party and that a dozen other highly placed government men are either outright Communists or tools of the party.

Claims Presidents "Used"

Former President Roosevelt, the book says, was unknowingly used by the party. Ex-President Truman was knowingly used, it continues. As for President Eisenhower, page 268 reads:

"In my own opinion, the Communists have one of their own actually in the presidency. For this third man, Eisenhower, there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

Welch, Johnson and Mrs. Rueber deny that the book is used at meetings. Group leaders like Johnson and Mrs. Rueber have copies, however.

Neither Johnson nor Mrs. Rueber would disavow the contents of "The Politician." Mrs. Rueber said she had not reached a conclusion, adding: "I am not obligated to explain my personal conclusion, if I have reached one, to anybody."

Curious About Book

She wanted to know where The Milwaukee Journal had obtained a copy since the book was not supposed to be seen by "ordinary" society members or outsiders.

"Someone," she said, "broke a confidence."

Johnson said he shared the bulk of Welch's views, but shied away from hanging a Communist label on the president.

He said at first that he "had no idea" if Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist.

"I only know that if he is not, he might as well be," he said. "It is a moot question. The results of his administration are the same."

Later he added: "I don't think Eisenhower is bright enough to be permitted to be one of the party."

Welch's goal is a million members. He declined to say how many members were in the society nationally or in what states chapters had been organized. He said organization was going "nicely in Wisconsin," adding that Wisconsin was a "good, conservative state."

Asked if he still held the views expressed in "The Politician," he said he would not comment.

On his letterhead inviting selected persons to join, Welch lists two other Wisconsin industrialists, besides Grede, as members of the society's national council.

They are E. P. Hamilton, Two Rivers, president of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., maker of washing machines, dryers and office and drafting equipment, and Cola B. Parker, Neenah, former chairman of the board of Kimberly-Clark Corp., paper manufacturer. Both were out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Membership Confirmed

Grede confirmed that he was a council member. He said he didn't think Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist and said he had no comment about the book.

Welch describes the society in the "Blue Book," which he also wrote and which is distributed more widely among members than "The Politician."

"The men who join the John Birch society . . . are going to be doing so primarily because they believe in me and what I am doing and are willing to accept my leadership anyway," he wrote.

"We are going to use that loyalty, like every other resource, to the fullest possible advantage that we can. Whenever and wherever, either through infiltration by the enemy or honest differences of opinion, that loyalty ceases to be sufficient to keep some fragment in line, we are not going to be in the position of having the society's work weakened by raging debates."

Opposes Factions

"We are not going to have factions developing on the two-sides-to-every question theme. Those members who cease to feel the necessary degree of loyalty can either resign or will be put out."

In the same book, Welch outlines his philosophy.

"Democracy, of course, in government or organization, as the Greeks and Romans found out, and as I believe . . . democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagogery, and a perennial fraud."

The society is named after John Birch, an American army captain and fundamentalist Baptist minister, who allegedly was murdered by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J day. The society was founded by Welch on Dec. 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, with the support of a small group of businessmen.

Started in 1959

In Milwaukee the society began late in 1959 after Welch gave a privately attended talk here.

Mrs. Rueber's reason for organizing the first branch, she said, was:

"I couldn't sit back and wait for someone else to do it. Communism had been winning for some time."

She wrote to Welch saying that she was interested, and received instructions on how to organize and other necessary material. She knows Welch personally.

"I consider him a fine man," she said.

Mrs. Rueber said two chapters were on the east side, two on the south side and a fifth in Wauwatosa. Meetings usually were in private homes. She declined to say where meetings were held or when the next one will be. She said the press could not attend.

Under the Welch program, each chapter gets a monthly "John Birch Bulletin," which Welch edits. This usually gives the "assignment" for the month and lists suggested reading matter. Frequently there are suggestions for a letter writing campaign to congressmen on legislation.

Dues are $24 a year for men and $12 for women.

Although only high leaders know membership figures, the society is growing fast, according to law enforcement sources. Wisconsin has between 150 and 200 members, according to Johnson and Mrs. Rueber. They were enrolled in less than a year. This factor, plus the high level of influence and intelligence of members, disturbs law enforcement officials.

Movies Are Utilized

Welch writes skillfully and uses movies effectively of himself speaking in making his points.

He was born in Chowan county, North Carolina. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina, attended the United States Naval academy for two years and, finally, Harvard law school. He was in charge of sales and advertising of the firm that bears his name. He was vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee and, in 1950, a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing thermafax copies of editorials which came out recently in the Chicago Daily News.

This type of thing disturbs me to no end and I am not one to "let George do it". I personally want to do all I can to call a halt to this type of viscious propaganda.

Although Welch's book, "The Politician" seems not to be available to the general public, it seems dangerous in any respect that key people — those of considerable position — who head his movement, should, by so doing, endorse his treasonous statements.

I sincerely and wholeheartedly hope that the Federal Bureau of Investigation will do all that is humanly possible to stop this madman. His goal is 1,000,000 members — and he probably can find that many gullible people in our country. And that many is dangerous.

If he has found these things to say about Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower, he certainly may be expected to write similar things about our next group of leaders and to promote the belief of his ideas among our citizens.

Tell me what I, as a dedicated citizen, can do...

Bares Secrets Of 'Red-Haters'

They Think Ike Is a Communist

BY JACK MABLEY

THE John Birch Society is an organization of ultra-conservatives, banded together to fight communism in America.

It is not a secret society in the normal sense of the word, but it tries to avoid publicity. Until this moment, it has been successful.

Jack Mabley's Story

The head — and absolute head—of the John Birch Society is Robert Welch, of Boston. The society has members in every state and active chapters in half the states. There are 10 chapters in the Chicago area.

The goal is a million active members.

WITH ITS [illegible] program of fight by communism, the society has attracted thousands of [illegible] conscientious men and women throughout the country.

It was founded Dec. 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, and named for John Birch, a captain in the U.S. Army, allegedly murdered in cold blood by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J Day.

Welch gave up his career as a candy company executive to lead the society.

He was educated for four years at the University of North Carolina, two years at the U.S. Naval Academy and two years at Harvard Law school. He was a director of the National Association of Manufacturers for seven years.

Rich Businessmen Support the Society

The society has [illegible] of wealthy conservative businessmen. Three former presidents of the National Association of Manufacturers are listed by Welch as members of the "council" of the society.

I have seen the appeal of this society in my own suburban community of 15,000. There are four active units in the village. At a meeting two weeks ago tonight, more than 200 persons turned out.

The organization is monolithic, or, to use another word which Welch himself introduced, dictatorial. He is the absolute and unquestioned head, the "hard-boiled, dictatorial and dynamic boss" needed to run such an organization. The quotes are his.

* * *

THE ABOVE fits relate closely to the following. I have obtained a copy of a book written by Welch intended for secret distribution only to the leaders of the society.

It is a 302-page, black paperbound book, reproduced by the photo-offset process, with loose-leaf binders. The title is "The Politician." The book accuses President Eisenhower of treason.

It flatly calls him a Communist, and for 302 pages attempts to document the charge.

It accuses most of his aides — John Foster Dulles and his brother Allen, Chief Justice Earl Warren, former Defense Secretary Neil McElroy and dozens of others, of being part of a Communist conspiracy to take over the nation.

Attacks Ike As 'Dedicated Red'

Here is an exact quote from the book:

"While I too think that Milton Eisenhower is a Communist, and has been for 30 years, this opinion is based largely on general circumstances of his conduct. But my firm belief that Dwight Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscious agent of the Communist conspiracy is based on an accumulation of detailed evidence so extensive and so probable that it seems to me to put this conviction beyond any reasonable doubt."

He also says of the President: ". . . there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

The immediate reaction on [illegible] this writing [illegible] the work of a crackpot. However, the circumstances of Welch's position and influence dictate further examination.

* * *

WHEN I phoned Welch [illegible] to talk and asked him about "The Politician," he [illegible] Tom cannot be mentioned." I told him I had read the book. I asked if it accurately reflected his views.

"I have absolutely no comment," he replied.

This will be discussed further tomorrow.

To Our Subscribers

This pamphlet is sent you as a "dividend" on your subscription, with our compliments. It does not replace any regular issue of the magazine.

As our older subscribers know, we publish eleven months in the year, always combining the July-August issues into one. That issue for 1960 will appear the latter part of August and will, we believe, be the most important number -- and the most useful for reference -- that we have ever published.

AMERICAN OPINION

TO PREVENT A THIRD PARTY

A speech by Robert Welch, delivered at the unauthorized rally in support of Senator Barry Goldwater, at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, Sunday night, July 24, 1960. Copyright 1960 by AMERICAN OPINION, Belmont 78, Massachusetts.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Please bear with me while I clear our decks and align our batteries for action.

This process begins with the confession that my target is the Republican Convention itself, and I am using you as stand-ins for that body. I shall be speaking directly to and for the delegates and alternates. Since only a fraction of them are with us this evening, we shall have to count on reaching the others through printed copies of this message, which will soon be available.

In the meantime I am delighted to have so large and enthusiastic a gathering, which I have known in advance would contain so many of my friends from so many different parts of the country, as a live audience to "sit in" on what I have to say.

Next, since I shall herewith be urging the nomination of Senator Barry Goldwater for the Presidency, let me emphasize that nothing I am saying has been cleared with the Senator. Barry Goldwater, so far as I am aware, does not even know that I am making this speech, much less anything about its contents. What's more, I was quite relieved to read in the newspapers that he has disowned this whole rally. For that means he does not have to take any slightest responsibility for anything we do here, nor even to accept our support. He can't very well prevent it, because frankly we are for Goldwater on our own initiative, primarily for the sake of ourselves, our children, and our country. And like most of the huge, spontaneous, nationwide, rapidly growing sentiment for the Senator, this support demands nothing in return, not even recognition of its existence.

As a parallel to that last point, let me also emphasize that I am speaking for nobody but myself. As some of you know, I am the founder of a rapidly growing patriotic and educational organization which now has several thousand members. We are such a tightly-knit group of hardworking and dedicated Americanists that I have been accused of all kinds of manifestations of dictatorship, even to the exercising of thought control. Our current actions must make these charges seem a bit ridiculous. For not only are many of our members working for Nixon for the nomination, but we have been glad to supply them the names and addresses of you delegates and alternates in order to make it easier for them to do so.

Our membership is comprised of men and women of good conscience and strong patriotic purpose. Our objective in the political field is to give them honest information -- which is not too easy to come by today -- and to help them to obtain a more complete understanding of the issues to be decided and of the dangers which we face. So we expect every member to use that knowledge and understanding to determine the political cause or candidate which his own intelligence tells him he should support. Political decisions are definitely a matter for each individual's conscience. And I certainly want no responsibility for anybody else's conscience -- I have trouble enough with my own.

What I have to say to you delegates and alternates, therefore, is important only because there may be millions of voters who feel the same way I do today. How many, you don't know, and neither do I. But for that very reason it would be unwise and perhaps undutiful for you to ignore the plain facts, carefully considered opinions, and firm conclusions which I shall try to bring to your attention.

II

The first fact is that all of you -- some hopefully, most of you fearfully -- are concerned about a third party arising, perhaps this very fall. And with good reason. For the seeds to produce that very rare crop are visibly sprouting all over the landscape.

Now don't be alarmed. I am aware that the term Third Party is a naughty word for this occasion. I feel sure that Senator Goldwater's disassociating himself from this rally was due to his fear that it might have Third Party implications. But the objective of this rally, as I understand it, and certainly the purport of what I have to say, is to prevent a Third Party, not to encourage one. And to be realistic in that effort we had better take a brief but honest look at why some sensible steps of prevention may be badly -- and imminently -- needed.

In the first place the American people are disgusted with the whole convention-primary system. They have just seen the arrogant railroading through the Democratic Convention of the wishes of some of the political bosses, as in the two-thirds voice vote on behalf of Lyndon Johnson, which nobody could be sure was even a majority. They thoroughly expect the same kind of steamroller tactics to be utilized at various stages of your convention. Just as speech, according to Talleyrand, was given to man to disguise thought, the party conventions have been developed to enable the politicians, not to carry out the wishes of the American people, but to circumvent those wishes. I don't believe there are five men in this room who now doubt that, if the American people had simply been allowed to go to the polls in 1952 and vote for anybody they wished for President, Taft would have been overwhelmingly elected. But a coterie of clever politicians, with their hocus pocus in the 1952 convention, managed to deprive the American people of having any chance even to vote for Taft.

Actually the Lefties discovered decades ago that the convention-primary apparatus was the Achilles heel in the anatomy of our whole political body. This system was not planned by our forefathers, and is not controlled by the Constitution. Having been developed mainly by political custom, with its rules defined largely by tradition rather than by law, it is subject to ruthless manipulation by unscrupulous politicians. And the socialist-internationalist schemers seized on it as the means of determining -- no matter how venal the bribery or despicable the trickery they had to use -- that the American people would never have anybody to vote for except candidates approved by themselves.

The whole operation has now acquired a noticeably unpleasant odor. That odor has been getting steadily worse since 1940. If you good people want to preserve this exciting method of playing kingmaker every four years, you had better start setting the moral thermostats that turn on your indignation at much more reachable levels. Because the revulsion of the American people against the constant chicanery of these conventions is going to make itself felt, either through you or by other means. I can assure you that this revulsion is one of the pressures generating a third party. For the feeling is strong that such a new party would force a reform in the convention-primary methods, or might even bring about a fundamental change in the whole procedure.

There are, however, several much more important pressures which make the threat of a Third Party now so imminent. The basic pressure, of course, is caused by the lack of difference between the two old parties, in principles or policies or purpose. And the main body of this speech will constitute an effort to take the steam out of that pressure by widening the gap and increasing the distinguishability between Democrat and Republican. But there is one particular pressure for a new party, that has built up a surprising head of steam over just the past few months, and which certainly cannot be ignored at this particular rally. That pressure comes from a rising conviction that the potential leader of such a Third Party has at last appeared on the horizon; and that he has already been recognized by millions as qualified to be the Abraham Lincoln of the new movement. His name, of course, is Barry Goldwater.

Now Goldwater himself has given no slightest encouragement to any such views. In fact, just the opposite. He has made it brutally clear to those who have tried to approach him on the subject that he is, and expects to remain, a completely loyal and hardworking member of the Republican Party. I was not one of the approachers, because I have been anything but a promoter of the Third Party idea. Many of you know that I refused to speak at the rally here in Chicago last fall unless I were allowed to explain to the audience that I was not thereby endorsing a Third Party. And Goldwater has told me personally, within recent months, that his greatest political concern was with helping to maintain enough conservative support for the Republican nominee to insure a Republican election this fall.

So the Senator will undoubtedly be embarrassed, and probably angry, at my even bringing the mention of Third Party into this discussion tonight. But man sometimes proposes, while God disposes, frequently through irresistible tides in the affairs of men. Nobody can be sure -- not even the Senator himself -- whether or not this rising tide of Americanist purpose, now so visible throughout the land, will eventually sweep Goldwater into the leadership of a new party; or whether, as we hope, it can be shunted and directed into making the Republican Party truly Americanist once again -- instead of collectivist and internationalist -- and hence stronger than ever before.

And this question of leadership is all important. For one reason so many of us have been so cold to the whole project of a new party over the past several years is that we have felt the advocates of that project were going about it backwards. They were trying to establish principles and platforms first, rally an organization behind those platforms, and then find a standard-bearer of the organization. And maybe that's the way human nature ought to work, Ladies and Gentlemen, but it's not the way it does work. Building political organization around and behind abstractions is as difficult as herding a bunch of rabbits into one small section of a huge briar patch. But when some able and trusted leader personifies those same principles in which millions believe, those millions will sever their ties with organizations which have abandoned those principles, and go to work enthusiastically, in organizational harness, for the man who speaks their language. Goldwater so eminently qualifies for that position as to raise the prospects for a third party to an entirely new level.

So the prospect of a new party rises correspondingly. If and when it comes I believe its name -- as I have said for years -- will be the American Party. Psychologically, the name is of tremendous importance. When the Republican Party came into existence just slightly over a hundred years ago, you will remember, many names were suggested. But a lawyer named Alvan E. Bovay, from Ripon, Wisconsin, insisted that the word "Democratic" had such appeal that "Republican" was the only other word with enough significance to match it. Horace Greeley believed the reasoning was sound, and used his influence to give the Republican Party its name. I believe that the word "American" is the only one that is comprehensive enough as to the principles advocated, and with sufficient immediate magnetism and understandable significance, to outweigh both the words "Republican" and "Democrat" in its popular appeal. And the trend of events over the past few years certainly makes the word a "natural" for conservative and patriotic citizens who are determined to reverse that fatal trend.

The specter of a new American Party, therefore, with Goldwater drafted by overwhelming demand and moved by our march towards disaster to become its leader, is too serious and too real to be ignored by the Republican High Command, by you delegates and alternates, by Goldwater, or even by ourselves who are supporting him for nomination as the Republican candidate for the Presidency. So now let's give consideration to the possibility of eliminating that specter.

III

Obviously any third party worth looking at would largely be made up of people who felt that they had been pushed out of the other two parties. Constructively conservative and deeply patriotic with regard to domestic affairs, firmly nationalist and aggressively anti-Communist with regard to international affairs, they are the good people whom I call Americanists. I hope that I can qualify for that definition myself. I also hope to remain a Republican, as I have been all of my adult life, and certainly am tonight. But if a sad and final separation is eventually forced upon us, it will not be because we have left our party. It will be because what is then called the Republican Party will have completely ignored and discarded us -- exactly as the Democratic Party has now already ignored and made helpless its Jeffersonian Democrats.

So we are not threatening, but pleading. We are begging you not to destroy the Republican Party, as a majority of you seem to us to be on the verge of doing. We beg of you not to make the final conversion of the Republican Party into a cynical mockery of its former self, as it seems to us you have been slated by the manipulators to do at their bidding. We ask you not to go through with your expected submission to a sheepherding act -- as the Democratic Convention did -- even for the sake of the hollow political victory which you assume such compliance will bring you. For the Republican Party cannot survive another Pyrrhic victory like those of 1952 and 1956.

What is disturbing and frightening us, of course, is the likelihood that you are going to give Richard Nixon a blank check on the future of this country. And we do not think the country can stand any such increasing drain on both its spiritual and material credit as has been taking place since 1954. We fear that you are going to nominate Richard Nixon for the Presidency, without putting any brakes on his toboggan slide downhill to the left, or exacting any guarantee from him of even giving consideration to Americanist views.

This means that the deliberate snubbing of conservative leaders, by the Nixon-Herter-Eisenhower clique -- to which several such leaders, including Goldwater, have been repeatedly and visibly subjected -- would become steadily worse. It means that millions of us ordinary citizens would be deprived of our political privileges, and hence of our chance to do anything politically to save our country, if we remained within the Republican Party. We are not willing to accept such treatment, and we will no longer consent to being disfranchised. Even without any new party, most of us will refuse to vote for Nixon under such conditions. There are other ways of giving at least some weight to our votes, instead of letting them be completely wasted. This decision is by no means due to unreasonableness on our part. It does call for some very plain speaking, which we think is both necessary and long overdue.

In 1952, against our better judgment and in order to be loyal to the Republican Party, we worked and voted for Nixon's prototype, Dwight David Eisenhower. In the eight years since then we have seen the International Communist Conspiracy make almost incredible gains everywhere in the world. In the transformation of our American Republic, with its free-enterprise economy, into a socialist democracy with a welfare-state economy, those eight years have been disastrous beyond all reckoning. In the loss of American prestige and influence throughout the world, and in the parallel increase in the prestige and power of our Communist enemy dedicated to our destruction, those eight years have been a period of unbelievable infamy.

To the people of Indochina, of Indonesia, of Egypt, of Syria, of Lebanon, of Ghana, of Guinea, of Algeria, of Bolivia, of Venezuela, of Cuba, of South Korea, and of a dozen other nations throughout the world, who have seen our government constantly making concessions, offering gifts, and lending moral support, to the Communist forces engaged in enslaving them, these past eight years have been a nightmare of betrayal and surrender. To the people of Hungary, of Poland, of East Germany, of China, and of other countries which were already behind the Iron Curtain in 1952, and who looked to the Eisenhower Administration and its platform promises for serious help towards their liberation, the past eight years have been a long tragic experience in disillusionment and despair. While right here at home the flood of Communist influence has risen, in every segment of our national life, to levels that would not have been considered possible in 1952.

Mr. Eisenhower has stated that, during the eight years when these things were happening, never once was Mr. Nixon in serious disagreement with anything the President had decided. Mr. Nixon has stated that he intends to base his campaign on the achievements of the Eisenhower Administration and to continue its policies. In other words we are not only to have more of the same, but we are to like it and applaud it. We are to pretend that black is white, that war is peace, that defeat is victory, that inflation is prosperity, that surrender of American independence is patriotism, and that our approaching enslavement by the imperial Communist conspiracy will be a glorious liberation from the shackles of nationalism. You may close your eyes, swallow hard, and accept such brazen sophistry and such dangerous self-deception without protest if you wish. I cannot accept them at all.

"But," it is hopefully whispered around among conservative Republicans, "Nixon is just acting. He is a smart politician. He has had to go along with the Administration whether he wanted to do so or not. He has had to make all of the concessions to the Left and all of the gestures of appeasement to the Communists in order to have any chance of being nominated and elected. But just wait until the campaign is all over, and he is actually the President. Then you will see the real Nixon emerge, the anti-Communist Nixon we knew and liked so well in the exposure of Alger Hiss." Then, we are to believe, Richard Nixon, having fooled the liberals and modern Republicans and even the Communist wire-pullers behind the scenes, until all together they have raised him to the most important and most powerful political position in the world -- then Richard Nixon will turn against all of these people who made him, stand forth in his true colors as a conservative patriotic Americanist, and save our country from being absorbed into a one-world collectivist tyranny.

We can save ourselves the trouble, Ladies and Gentlemen, of digging into Richard Nixon's record enough to show the utter folly of any such expectation. For there is a very simple short cut which will serve just as well. That is the question: Do you believe it? Do you know anybody who does?

All of history, from the time of the Greek city states and the earliest days of the Roman republic, to the present hour, is full of demagogues who built up a political following as conservatives, ran for office as conservatives on conservative platforms and promises, got elected, and then proved themselves to be the most profligate of liberals. Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Dwight David Eisenhower are two outstanding examples of very recent vintage. But nowhere in the pages of history have I discovered one conservative who built up his political following as a liberal, ran for office as a liberal and was elected by liberal support, and then proved, by inaugurating an era of conservatism in government, that he had been deceiving his followers. Your true conservative simply is not built that way, for one thing; and the liberals, being themselves experts in demagoguery, simply cannot be fooled that way, for another.

To avoid any confusion about terms in this connection, let me say that I do not see the least difficulty in defining the word liberal as it is generally used today. A liberal is simply a man who is, or wants to be, liberal with other people's money and other people's freedom; who considers both completely expendable for the sake of increasing the political power of himself or of the clique he supports. Mr. Richard Nixon has gone to tremendous lengths over the past several years to prove to all other liberals that he is a liberal too. And he has not only convinced them; he has also thoroughly convinced conservatives like myself.

There are still conservatives who, trying to find encouragement for themselves, wishfully pass on to others the suggestion that Mr. Nixon, as soon as he has the ball, will reverse his field, and start running in the other direction. But they don't believe it, nor do those to whom they make the suggestion. The liberals, who now know Mr. Nixon best, obviously don't believe it -- and they would be much harder to fool. I personally don't believe it for a minute, but in my particular case that hardly matters. Because I would not vote for Mr. Nixon under such circumstances and on such grounds anyway, for more fundamental reasons which I shall come to in due course.

In the meantime let's look at an objection I know many of you wish to raise. It has two legs. One is that this criticism of Nixon, if widely distributed in printed form, will put campaign ammunition in the hands of the Democrats, which they can and will use to help to elect Kennedy. Let me assure you that the worry is unfounded. Mr. Nixon would be very glad to have the Democrats play him up as a liberal, and stress those general characteristics and tendencies which I have been holding against him. In fact, his worry is entirely as to the extent to which his Democratic opponents deny that he is a "liberal" like themselves.

There is only one point made or implied, in anything I have said about Mr. Nixon, which could be and in fact should be used by the Democrats against him. And that is the charge of his now having become "soft on Communism," as clearly demonstrated by so many of his actions over the last few years. And that issue, Ladies and Gentlemen, is one you can be certain Mr. Kennedy will never raise -- nor allow any of his supporters to raise except over his dead body. There is already visible and in operation a tacit understanding between Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy that neither one will accuse the other of being soft on Communism, or allow his supporters to do so. In fact, when Nixon's campaign manager in New Hampshire, Governor Wesley Powell, quite correctly accused Senator Kennedy of having been consistently soft on Communism, Nixon immediately and emphatically repudiated his own campaign manager. Neither of these candidates, Nixon and Kennedy, could possibly withstand any really painstaking scrutiny and widespread exposure of the actions he has taken in this area. Each has had to do too many things to appease the Communist opposition to himself, which otherwise would have been expected. So both of them are determined to keep the whole question out of the campaign at any cost.

In 1940 you saw a campaign conducted between the so-called Republican candidate, Wendell Willkie, and the Democratic candidate, Franklin Roosevelt, in which the one really vital issue, that should have been thoroughly aired before the American people and on which they should have had a chance to vote, was completely eliminated from the contest by mutual consent. This was the matter of America's pro-Communist foreign policy. In the forthcoming campaign, if Nixon is nominated, you can be absolutely certain that -- once again -- you will not hear a word from either candidate on the one really important issue at stake. This issue is the soft-on-Communism attitude and policy of the inner-circle left-wing core that now completely controls both political parties. For both Kennedy and Nixon are a part of that core in their respective circles.

If a man like Strom Thurmond could have been nominated by the Democrats, he could have presented to the American people a shocking analysis of Richard Nixon's behind-the-scenes maneuvers to placate the Communists. If Barry Goldwater can be nominated by the Republicans, he can lay wide open a devastating study of Senator Kennedy's equally disturbing role. But Nixon and Kennedy are both completely estopped from using any such campaign ammunition by their own respective records.

As a matter of fact the remarkable similarity between Nixon and Kennedy, in so many other ways, is worth a brief mention at this point. Not only have the two major political parties become simply Tweedledum and Tweedledee, with no basic difference between them in policies or principles. But their respective candidates for the Presidency in this forthcoming campaign -- if Nixon is nominated -- could readily be described as the "political Siamese twins." So far as politics is concerned, they are as alike as two peas in a pod. The late Senator Taft's description of Richard Nixon as "a little man in a big hurry" could be applied with equal accuracy to both. They are both brilliant "young men on the make," determined to ride the huge wave now running so strongly to the left, just as far and just as high as its crest will take them. Both have so visibly and so completely substituted opportunism and political smartness for principles and convictions that it is doubtful just how much bedrock of character you would find in either one after winnowing the chaff of their personalities. And each one now has so many ideological skeletons in his own closets that he wouldn't dream of starting to open any closet doors in the career of his opponent.

If Richard Nixon, for instance, should start to taunt John Kennedy about all of the interference Kennedy ran for Walter Reuther in the hearings of the Select Committee on Labor-Management Relations (which you can be sure Mr. Nixon would not), Kennedy could immediately come back at Nixon for forcing on the steel industry a strike settlement so unfair to management and so damaging to the freedom of individual workers as to be almost unbelievable. In fact, Richard Nixon's action in settling the steel strike was easily the most pusillanimous use of governmental coercion to increase the arrogant power of labor bosses since the days when Franklin Roosevelt was subserviently paying his debts to John L. Lewis. But you can be sure Mr. Kennedy will never bring the subject up.

Or if Richard Nixon should begin to disclose the huge part John Kennedy has played -- almost entirely unknown to the American people -- in repeatedly bolstering the morale of the FLN Communist terrorists in Algeria, and in putting brakes on efforts of the French government to subdue these murderous guerillas (which you can be sure Mr. Nixon will not), then Kennedy could embarrass Nixon equally with Nixon's glowing moral support of Achmed Sukarno, whom Mr. Nixon once called the George Washington of Indonesia. But you can be certain that Mr. Kennedy will avoid that line of attack like the plague.

This antiphonal list could be continued throughout a whole volume, for both men have been very busy feathering their political nests with pink and red-tinted plumes.

And there is not the slightest chance that either one will point a finger at the color of the other one's collection. But this whole part of the story can be pretty well summarized as follows. Mr. Nixon is for all foreign aid, economic and military, even to neutral and communist nations. He is all for more and bigger and wider cultural exchange programs. He is wholeheartedly for the United Nations. He is for repeal of the Connally Amendment, for seeking "world peace through world law," for extending the jurisdiction and increasing the power of the World Court, and for all other practicable steps that lead to a one-world government. Senator Kennedy, of course, is also for every one of these policies and proposals.

These are all very serious matters. They involve the solvency, the safety, and the future independence of our country. It is disturbing, though no longer surprising, to find both Kennedy and Nixon on the same side of all of these issues. But what is disturbing, frightening, and should be surprising, is to reflect that every Communist in America is also on that same side, and supports every one of these proposals and policies as enthusiastically as do the two men from whom we are supposed to select the next President of the United States.

The question is not "Where are we going?" It is, instead: "At what point have we already arrived?" in this gradual submission to pro-Communist influences and in this rapid acceptance of Communist plans as our own. And that question is now entirely too serious to be brushed aside for the sake of political expediency. I am positive that neither Richard Nixon nor John Kennedy is a Communist, a fellow traveler, nor even in sympathy with Communist purposes. But what good does that fact do us, if each is completely willing to go along with Communist purposes, and to make himself irrevocably a party to those Communist purposes, for the sake of the power and glory of political success.

Ladies and Gentlemen, it is certainly no pleasure for me to be saying these things, nor for you to be hearing them. As I have just indicated, it seems almost certain now that one of the two men about whom we are talking will be the next President of the United States. Although I am not in politics and have no intention of being in politics in any way, I obviously have nothing to gain by thus earning the enmity of whoever will be in the White House in another six months. What's more, aside from personal or even national interests that may be involved, it is a very unhappy duty to be so critical of two of the most prominent men in our public life.

With regard to Richard Nixon, in particular, I am just as sad about the disappointing developments in his character and career as any of you can be. For here is a young man in whom we all had great hope. He was to be the consistent, determined, courageous anti-Communist young Lochinvar from out of the West. We all wish that we could feel the same warm admiration for him today that we did in 1950. It is not that we have wanted to change our minds about Richard Nixon, but that slowly, unbelieving, with great reluctance, most of us have been compelled to do so by the inescapable import of his actions. And we simply cannot afford any longer the same wishful thinking about Nixon that has been carrying us down the drain under the leadership of a Wendell Willkie, a Thomas Dewey, or a Dwight Eisenhower, for twenty years.

It is clear today that Richard Nixon now is, and for a long time has been, entirely acceptable to the Liberal Establishment that runs our government, as the "crown prince" of the Eisenhower Regime. It is now confessed by some, and boasted by others, that during the whole Eisenhower Administration Richard Nixon has played a far more important part in making the decisions and determining the policies of that administration than was generally recognized. Thus much of the responsibility for the record of that administration would have to rest on him, even if he did not eagerly endorse its record. And the record itself, Ladies and Gentlemen, can be sadly and succinctly summarized in a paragraph.

In 1952, despite all the perfidy of the Truman Administration, the United States still held a position of worldwide pre-eminence, as to its stability, its military power, its economic power, its self-confidence, and its spiritual leadership. Now consider honestly and objectively the loss of respect, loss of friends, loss of moral courage, loss of stability, loss of confidence in our own destiny, and loss of relative position with regard to a powerful enemy, that have brought us into our present morass of domestic confusion and international disgrace. These are perfectly visible, incontrovertible facts, however tragic they may be. I submit that never before in all human history has any great nation fallen so far and so fast, as the United States during the eight years that Eisenhower has been President.

Now whether Richard Nixon's reasons for going along with the decisions and policies that caused this descent were due to shortcomings of his judgment, of his integrity, or both, the results are the same. We have now reached the point where our national independence, our way of life, our personal freedoms, and our very lives, are all in great and imminent danger. That danger stems from the very same evil forces that have so seriously scuttled our Ship of State while Richard Nixon was second in command. And I say to you delegates and alternates, who now have perhaps the greatest single responsibility of your lives, that you simply must not trust our future to those who -- for whatever reasons -- have so disastrously betrayed the past.

IV

Which brings me at last to the main theme of this speech. About all we can safely say of Richard Nixon, as a candidate for the presidency, is that he would be better than Nelson Rockefeller. Frankly, I don't know a single person in America, even calling himself a Republican, who wouldn't. So that is very faint praise indeed. Just as about the best I could say of John Kennedy as the nominee of the Democrats is that he is at least better than Eleanor Roosevelt.

I know that a very large number of you delegates and alternates have no enthusiasm whatsoever for the nomination of Richard Nixon. You have been cleverly maneuvered into a position where you appear to have no other course. You are willing to accept Nixon as your nominee simply as the lesser of two evils. You will then try to get him elected, instead of Kennedy, again as the lesser of two evils. You will have the help in that endeavor, for entirely different reasons from your own, of a whole army of extreme liberals and Lefties with whom you should be ashamed to associate.

For there is nothing the Lefties want more than a continuation of the present set-up, and Nixon has convinced them that it will be continued. This is a situation in which at least twenty-five percent of all the effective opposition to their "socialistic progress" will be paralyzed, because the opposition's own man in the White House is giving their socialist measures his blessing. With the mercurial but massive support of these clever realists of the Left -- even more than through regular Republican Party effort -- you will get your man elected. You will then spend the next eight years crying -- if our nation survives so long -- over the way you have been deceived. While the results may be what some of you deserve, they will not be what our country deserves.

And now rather than later is the time to give the fate of your country first consideration.

James Russell Lowell said: "Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide." It is not quite true. A kind Providence keeps offering us over and over another occasion to make those firm decisions which will save our country from destruction. But these opportunities will not last forever. And this may well be what our lawyer friends call "the last clear chance" to avoid incredible disaster. So I am hereby urging you, with all of the solemn earnestness I can offer, to forget political expediency, to accept this unequalled responsibility for the future of your country, to stand on your own feet in a scene that history will never forget -- because it may be one of the great turning points of history -- and to nominate Senator Barry Goldwater as the Republican candidate for the Presidency of the United States. History may give our nation other moments to decide, but it is doubtful if you as an individual will ever have such a moment again.

Fortunately, you do not have to worry about where Goldwater stands, on anything. His position with regard to every issue of importance has been clearly set forth in his small book, The Conscience Of A Conservative. But it is worth while to repeat at this point the brief summary of the most important of those positions, as prepared and published by Kent Courtney's newspaper, The Independent American. So here they are.

ON INCOME TAXES: Goldwater believes that the present graduated income tax is confiscatory, and that it punishes success. He points out that high taxes, in effect, confiscate or expropriate private property, thereby denying a man the fruit of his labors.

ON GOVERNMENT COMPETITION WITH PRIVATE

ENTERPRISE: Goldwater believes that one of the reasons for unnecessary Big Spending is that the Federal Government is engaged in all sorts of activities (such as education, public power, agriculture, public housing, urban renewal, etc.) which could and should be handled at the State level of government, or by private companies or individuals.

ON THE FARM PROGRAM: Barry Goldwater believes that farm production should be governed by supply and demand, just as private enterprise operates. For example, he is opposed to the Soil Bank Program which, using taxpayers' dollars, subsidizes non-production.

ON STATES RIGHTS: Barry Goldwater believes that States' Rights is a bulwark against the encroachment of Federal Tyranny. He further says that in spite of the Supreme Court ruling, the Constitution does not give the Federal Government any authority to interfere in the field of education.

ON RIGHT-TO-WORK LAWS: Barry Goldwater believes in the right of choice by all Americans to belong or not to belong to a labor union. He believes that concentration of power in any form, such as Big Government or Big Labor Bossism, leads to dictatorship.

ON ATOMIC-BOMB TESTS: Goldwater is for resuming atom tests in order that the U. S. can protect itself and maintain superiority over Communist Russia.

ON CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS: Goldwater is against such programs because they are a built-in Red spy transmission line.

ON THE UNITED NATIONS: Goldwater is opposed to "submitting major policy decisions to a forum (the United Nations) where the opinions of the Sultan of Yemen count equally with ours." Goldwater further states: "I fear that our involvement in the United Nations may be leading to unconstitutional surrender of American sovereignty."

ON THE WORLD COURT: Goldwater has denounced repealing the Connally Amendment and stated that it would place Americans "at the mercy of the World Court" -- where the U. S. is outnumbered 14 — 1, and where the Soviet Union exerts tremendous influence.

ON FOREIGN POLICY: Senator Barry Goldwater opposes the "soft-on-Communism," "appeasement-at-any-price" Foreign Policy as advocated by all other candidates of both major parties.

Here are brief excerpts from a speech regarding Foreign Policy, by Senator Barry Goldwater on the floor of the U. S. Senate on March 15, 1960.

(1) Our Goal Must Be Victory Over Communism. ". . . . It is not to wage a struggle against Communism, but to win it. Our goal must be victory."

(2) Go On The Offensive! "Our strategy must be primarily offensive in nature . . . We cannot win merely by trying to hold our own . . ."

(3) Achieve Military Superiority. "Mere parity will not do. Since we can never match the Communists in manpower, our equipment and weapons must more than offset their advantage in numbers."

(4) Strengthen Our Economy. "We must make America economically strong . . . America's maximum economic power will be forged, not under bureaucratic direction, but in freedom."

(5) Gain The World's Respect. "In all of our dealings with foreign nations, we must behave like a great power. Our national posture must reflect strength and confidence and purpose, as well as good will . . . Respect is the stuff of which enduring friendships and firm alliances are made."

(6) Foreign Aid Is Unconstitutional. "The American government does not have the right, much less the obligation, to try to promote the economic and social welfare of foreign peoples . . . The Constitution does not empower our government to undertake that job in foreign countries . . . Increasingly our Foreign Aid goes not to our friends, but to professed neutrals -- and even to professed enemies . . . Our present Foreign Aid program, in sum, is not only ill-administered, but ill-conceived. It has not, in the majority of cases, made the free world stronger; it has made America weaker."

(7) Withdraw Recognition Of Soviet Union. "We should declare the World Communist movement an outlaw in the community of civilized nations . . . We should withdraw diplomatic recognition from all Communist governments including that of the Soviet Union, thereby serving notice . . . on the world that we regard such governments as neither legitimate nor permanent."

(8) Encourage The Red Slave Nations To Revolt. "We should encourage the captive peoples to revolt against their Communist rulers. This policy must be pursued with caution and prudence as well as courage. . . . To this end we should establish close liaison with underground leaders behind the Iron Curtain, furnishing them with printing presses, radios, weapons, instructors; the paraphernalia of a full-fledged resistance."

AND ON THERE BEING NO SUBSTITUTE FOR VICTORY: ". . . The future, as I see it, will unfold along one of two paths. Either the Communists will retain the offensive; will lay down one challenge after another; will invite us in local crisis after local crisis to choose between all-out war and limited retreat; and will force us, ultimately, to surrender or accept war under the most disadvantageous circumstances. Or we will summon the will and the means for taking the initiative, and wage a war of attrition against them -- and hope, thereby, to bring about the internal disintegration of the Communist empire. One course runs the risk of war, and leads, in any case, to probable defeat. The other runs the risk of war, and holds forth the promise of victory. For Americans who cherish their lives, but their freedom more, the choice cannot be difficult."

There, Ladies and Gentlemen, is a platform that says something. The above paragraphs define Senator Goldwater's position on almost every issue that is important today. And these are the solid positions, the Americanist positions, the positions based on the very principles of individual independence and of national independence which have made our country great. These are the positions that a huge majority of the American people would like to see taken by our government -- as is well known to the Lefties and the liberals, for that is why they have taken such pains and gone to such lengths to keep the American people from having any chance to vote on these issues.

What is more, you know that Goldwater's platform means what it says. He has already proved under fire that he will stand by his convictions and will not yield to the pressures of political expediency. Here is one politician whom you, and the American people, know that you can believe, and can trust. You should acclaim him and support him while you can.

Just imagine what an electrifying flash it would be if the news suddenly went out to every community in the United States that this convention had nominated Goldwater for the Presidency. There were millions of patriotic and deep-rooted Americans who did not even vote in 1956. There are now these and many millions more who have lost all interest in the tired flummery of a meaningless contest that you were planning to put before them. They would come to life, after this news, with the same energy and enthusiasm and determination that elected Taft in Ohio in 1950 and Goldwater in Arizona in 1958 despite every ounce of power the Lefties could muster and every dirty trick they could contrive to prevent it. You would see such a resurgence of hope and interest and purpose, throughout the Republican Party and throughout the nation, as would make you proud to have been its cause.

Now that would be an excellent place at which to end this speech. If I were a politician, or if my concern were with the career of Senator Goldwater, that is certainly where I would stop. But neither is the case. My primary concern is entirely with what happens to our country. And that being true there are other considerations here which simply must be brought into open view. One important consideration is that there are now increasing millions of Americans, like myself, who are for Goldwater, whether you nominate him or not. And the most important consideration is the reason why. Let me try to make both as crystal clear as I can. For while history is full of dramatic reversals, against what appeared to be hopeless odds, and we know therefore that you may nominate Goldwater, we also know that you may not. And our urging that nomination on you is simply one part of a long-range solid purpose that takes both possibilities, and many less decisive possibilities, firmly in stride.

For the real point, Ladies and Gentlemen -- and it was really to make this point that I accepted this invitation to speak -- is that there is a fast-growing body of us in this country who are completely through with political expediency, and who will no longer pay any attention to so-called political smartness, whether exercised for us or against us. We intend to decide all questions, as to candidates or issues, on fundamental principles of government and of morality. And we intend then simply to stand on those principles and those decisions, win or lose, and regardless of the political outcome in the foreseeable future.

This doesn't mean that we think we have a monopoly on all truth, or cannot work with others despite reasonable degrees of disagreement. Let Richard Nixon offer any convincing promises and proof that he intends to represent the whole Republican Party, not just its "modern" left-wing element, and we could support the ticket even if Goldwater is not nominated. Nor does this mean that we expect Nixon to announce that, as soon as elected, he will throw James Mitchell out of the Cabinet, Allen Dulles out of the CIA, and Milton Eisenhower out of Washington -- although it would be a most welcome assurance. It does mean offering solid evidence of intending a sharp turn back from this administration's policy of appeasing the Communists, at home and abroad. It especially means making irrevocable commitments to giving more appointments, and to paying more attention, to what we believe can now fairly be called the Goldwater wing of the Party. Many of us will still fight within the Party, for the policies which seem to us wise and against those which seem to us disastrous, if you give us any reasonable chance to do so. That is what this rally and this whole argument is really about. But we will not be kidded, imposed upon, or slowly strangled any longer.

In line with our basic determination, we shall of course work hard for Senator Goldwater, for his election to any office for which he is nominated or for which he chooses to run. But if he is not nominated by this convention, and if we do not receive the completely satisfactory reasons indicated above for changing plans already informally announced, many of us are going to vote for Goldwater anyway -- even if it has to be on a write-in basis, and even though many such votes will never be legally counted. We shall do so simply as a contribution to the Senator's political stature and influence. This is because we feel the vital need of a trusted political leader and a rallying point for the Americanists, in their continuing struggle against the socialists, the Communists, and the collectivists of whatever hue. We need the same kind of standard bearer for conservatives as was the late Senator Taft, before he was so ruthlessly destroyed by the very same gang of so-called modern Republicans that is in control of this circus at which you are expected to perform according to cue. And Goldwater is visibly the overwhelming choice for that leadership.

"But," some of you will protest in entire good faith, "any such splintering away of conservative votes that might otherwise go to Nixon is likely to give the election to Kennedy." In the first place, we doubt it. Because there are more conservatives in the South today than anywhere else in the country. And any conservative Southerner who let's himself be swayed into voting for Kennedy, by the Lyndon Johnson breeze, ought to have his head examined. There is simply no telling what the results of a mammoth write-in vote for Goldwater in the southern states might be.

In the second place, from the point of view of the safety and welfare of our country, the election of Kennedy would not be an unmitigated catastrophe. For the whole patriotic opposition could and would then unify against the sell-out of our americanist system to the collectivists at home and abroad. Just imagine, for instance, what would have happened if Adlai Stevenson had been elected President in 1952. You would not now have any Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, sprawling with Communists and fellow travelers. There would never have been any "summit conference" of 1955, with all of the increased prestige it gave the Soviet tyrants, and all of its shattering effect on the morale of anti-Communists everywhere. You would never have had the visit of the champion murderer of all history, Nikita Khrushchev, to our country as an honored guest. For the Communist influences within our government and press simply would not have been able in some cases, and would not have dared in others, to bring about these massive gains for the Left if Adlai Stevenson had been President. The opposition would have been too united, too determined, and too strong.

And the same situation would develop under Kennedy as it did under Truman. Without the paralyzing effect on an appreciable percentage of conservatives, of having liberal measures promoted by "our man," the revulsion against the whole unceasing push of the United States into the collectivist camp might become great enough to stop it. Certainly there would be more brakes put on, to slow down the process until the positive leadership to reverse it could be established. There are few men I would less like to see President of the United States than Adlai Stevenson. But there is no slightest question in the minds of a great many of us that our country would be far better off today, for the reasons indicated, if Stevenson had been elected in 1952. So we seriously doubt if the election of Kennedy in 1960 would ultimately work out to be as much of a tragedy as the election of an unreformed Richard Nixon.

And our third answer is that we intend to maintain an unwavering Americanist stand, regardless of the temporary consequences. It has been suggested, for instance, that the "smartest" thing for us to do would be to work for the election of Kennedy. Maybe it would be. Who knows? But conservatives couldn't do that, even if sure of the desired results, because conservatives are not made that way. At least not the conservatives I am talking about, and whom I usually call Americanists.

To do so would be to try to outsmart the Communists and their liberal dupes and allies. Just as many good citizens feel or hope that Nixon is trying to outsmart the same gang by presenting himself as increasingly liberal in order to show later that he is an Americanist at heart. Just as the choice or the support of the lesser of two evils is always sold to doubters as a form of political smartness. And to us, trying to outsmart the collectivists by using some of their own devious tricks is not only doomed to inevitable failure -- because the Americanists simply could not match them in trickery and deception -- but it is also morally wrong and clearly contrary to the principles on which we take our stand.

Somebody has said that the value of complete honesty in politics is utterly unknown, because nobody has ever tried it. Undoubtedly it is time somebody did, and we propose to do so. If it turns out, by a general coincidence of nature, or merely by an accident of the particular times, to be politically smart even for the near future -- as well it might -- so much the better. But that is not our reason for adopting such a course. Our reason is simply the unshakable conviction that this is the right course; and therefore is the one which in the long run is bound to prevail. We shall continue to ask ourselves, about any political action, not "Is it smart?" but "Is it morally the right thing to do?" We shall have no dealings with foul means, nor even tricky means, to achieve good ends. We shall simply stand on sound principles, and behind good men, with firmness and with patience, until enough others understand our reasons and rally to the same standards with us. And we shall not be dissuaded or frightened, by prospects of unhappy intermediate consequences which we consider of ephemeral importance.

For America, Ladies and Gentlemen, is sick unto death of political smartness. It is tired of deception and pretenses and of a cunningly selective opportunism masquerading as leadership. So tired in fact, and so disposed at long last to revolt completely, that I think a lot of the "smart boys" are due for some sharp surprises. I think the American people are ready -- now -- to begin rallying behind a leader who approaches our problems in straightforward fashion, with truth and honor as his guides. And I think you are going to be amazed at the ascent of the Goldwater star during the next few days, months, and years.

In the world-wide struggle which divides mankind today, some of us are giving our lives to fighting the evil forces of collectivism on all fronts -- that is, by educational means, economic means, political means, and all other honorable means that can be found. But on the political front, some of that "some" are simply adding what strength and energy we have to the army gathering under Goldwater's banner. That is the best argument we can give for asking you to do the same. That rising army is rapidly drafting Barry Goldwater himself into a level and type of personal leadership which I am sure he had not planned. The needs of the times will have brought forth the man.

In the poem from Lowell, already quoted once, he also said: "They enslave their children's children who make compromise with sin." There is entirely too much of that compromise going on today, Ladies and Gentlemen, even for our own protection from slavery, much less that of our descendants. Barry Goldwater can and does offer you the most important of all assets for our present needs -- an utter unwillingness and inability to compromise with evil. Under his leadership, instead of letting our children become enslaved, we can still save for them some semblance of the glorious country and humane civilization which we ourselves inherited. Let me urge you once more to seize your opportunity and make Senator Barry Goldwater the next President of the United States.

BARRY MORRIS GOLDWATER

Born Phoenix, Arizona, January 1, 1909. Son of Baron Goldwater and Josephine Williams Goldwater. His pioneer grandfather had emigrated from England and settled in Arizona in 1860. The Goldwaters have been merchants ever since, and Goldwater's, Inc. now has several stores in different cities of Arizona.

Educated public schools, Staunton Military Academy, one year University of Arizona. Because of father's death in 1929, Barry left school to work for the family firm. Became President, 1937, Chairman of the Board, 1953.

Married, September 22, 1934, Miss Margaret Johnson of Muncie, Indiana. Four children; Joanne, Barry, Michael, Margaret. Already an experienced amateur pilot, joined United States Air Force in July, 1941. Served as gunnery instructor for fighter planes, pilot, and then Chief Pilot of various Air Transport Commands. Is both Colonel in Air Force Reserves and Chief of Staff of Arizona National Guard; has flown every type of plane, including jets; and still flies his own plane for pleasure.

Was active in Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Industrial Council, Better Business Bureau, Episcopal Church, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Boy Scouts, and every other worthwhile community enterprise. Joined other community leaders in 1949 in movement to improve city government of Phoenix. Elected a councilman. Helped to establish such a good city government that, among other splendid results, there has been no increase in tax rate since 1949.

In 1951 reelected to City Council, became Vice-Mayor. In 1952 ran for United States Senate against entrenched incumbent, who was Senate Majority Leader, and was elected. Reelected United States Senator, 1958, over powerful nationally supported left-wing and labor-boss opposition.

Is a hunter, deep-sea fisherman, explorer, golfer, expert photographer, and author, with remarkable powers of concentration at either work or play. Made a notable record during even his first term as a Senator, because of thoroughness with which he handled every duty or assignment. Is an outstandingly able, patriotic, conservative American statesman who can be trusted not to change.

DATE: August 10, 1960

SUBJECT: ATTITUDE OF THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY RE SAN FRANCISCO HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES HEARING DEMONSTRATIONS, MAY, 1960

In the last two days six letters have been received from widely scattered members of The John Birch Society commending the Director on his report of the San Francisco demonstrations at the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) hearings last May. Two of the letters were from Ohio, two from Massachusetts, one each from Louisiana and Wisconsin. The Wisconsin correspondent, Donald A. Rueber, Midwest Major Coordinator for the Society, revealed that the Society's latest monthly bulletin requested all members to write the Director expressing their congratulations on his report. It is probable that numerous letters will be received in the near future.

The John Birch Society was organized by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., aged 61, in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. According to a newspaper article from the Milwaukee Journal dated 7-31-60 submitted by Mr. Rueber, Welch reproduced his manuscript of 302 pages entitled "The Politician" and furnished copies to leaders of the Society throughout the country. Reportedly the book tries to prove that President Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscientious agent of the Communist Party. In his letter, Mr. Rueber disclaimed any responsibility on behalf of himself and the membership for the manuscript and stated that the Society has never promoted Welch's personal opinion. SAC Letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau. This SAC Letter was sent to the field about the time that the Society was considering a proposal that they form local organizations which have the appearance of communist front groups in order that they might attract communist sympathizers into their midst and thus identify them and perhaps set them straight. 62-104401-160

ATTENTION: SAC, MILWAUKEE:

Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

Enclosed with correspondent's letter was a newspaper clipping from the "Milwaukee Journal" concerning the John Birch Society. This article indicates that there are ten chapters of this Society in the State of Wisconsin and that the Society has branded President Eisenhower as a communist.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent states that she is a member of the John Birch Society but states that she has been concerned since reading the enclosed newspaper clipping which indicates that President Eisenhower is a communist. She asks if the Bureau has any information in our files concerning Mr. Welch, the founder of the John Birch Society. She also requests any information concerning the John Birch Society.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Enclosed is an article which appeared in our last Sunday's edition of the Milwaukee Journal. Since I have just become a member of this society, I am alarmed at what this article discribes as Mr. Welch's philosophy. I believe democracy is the best kind of government and joined his group thinking we were working for it's strengthening. Times and pressures may have led President Eisenhower to make questionable decisions but I do not feel or could I believe he was a communist or even a knowing instrument of the party. We were not told of Mr. Welch's beliefs except that we were to work for less government control, more individual responsibility in a better world. We were definitely told we were not a political group.

Do you have anything in your records on Mr. Welch? What exactly are his true motives and objectives? Why should our growth disturb law enforcement agencies if we are only working to protect our native American freedoms? Is our fighting communism just a calling card used by Mr. Welch as a ralling point now to be discarded later for something worse? We were all contacted by our group leader and told to make no reply to this article after Mrs. [redacted] called him personally and told him it was being printed. Mr. Welch said to lay low and remain quiet because they were trying to flush us out.

Any information you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you!

Why should our growth disturb law enforcement agencies if we are only working to protect our native American freedoms? Is our fighting communism just a calling card used by Mr. Welch as a rallying point now to be discarded later for something worse? We were all contacted by our group leader and told to make no reply to this article after Mrs. [redacted] called him personally and told him it was being printed. Mr. Welch said to lay low and remain quiet because they were trying to flush us out.

Any information you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you!

Group Branding Ike as Red Has 10 Wisconsin Chapters

John Birch Society Numbers 150 to 200 Members; Growth Disturbs Officials

By ALEX P. DOBISH
Of The Journal Staff

Ten chapters of the John Birch society, founded by a man who believes that President Eisenhower is a dedicated Communist, have formed in Wisconsin in the last year.

The ostensible purpose of the society is to fight communism and influence American politics. Its members include such leading citizens as William J. Grede, Milwaukee industrialist.

Four branches have been formed in Milwaukee and one each in Wauwatosa, Green Bay, De Pere, Oshkosh, Appleton and Eagle River.

Retired Manufacturer

Mrs. John Rueber, 3014 S. Delaware av., the wife of a medical technician, is the Milwaukee area "co-ordinator." Richard Johnson, Green Bay, an accountant, is in charge of upstate activities.

The founder of the society is a wealthy, retired candy manufacturer, who lives in Belmont, Mass. He is Robert H. W. Welch, jr., 61, a persuasive speaker, conservative and the author of "The Politician."

"The Politician" is a manuscript of 302 pages which has been privately reproduced in book form by the photo-offset process. Leaders of the society have received copies from Welch with the admonition that the contents are "strictly confidential and for your eyes only."

The book tries to prove that Mr. Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscientious agent of the Communist party.

It claims that Mr. Eisenhower's brother, Milton, is the president's superior in the party and that a dozen other highly placed government men are either outright Communists or tools of the party.

Claims Presidents "Used"

Former President Roosevelt, the book says, was unknowingly used by the party. Ex-President Truman was knowingly used, it continues. As for President Eisenhower, page 268 reads:

"In my own opinion, the Communists have one of their own actually in the presidency. For this third man, Eisenhower, there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

Welch, Johnson and Mrs. Rueber deny that the book is used at meetings. Group leaders like Johnson and Mrs. Rueber have copies, however.

Neither Johnson nor Mrs. Rueber would disavow the contents of "The Politician." Mrs. Rueber said she had not reached a conclusion, adding: "I am not obligated to explain my personal conclusion, if I have reached one, to anybody."

Curious About Book

She wanted to know where The Milwaukee Journal had obtained a copy since the book was not supposed to be seen by "ordinary" society members or outsiders.

"Someone," she said, "broke a confidence."

Johnson said he shared the bulk of Welch's views, but shied away from hanging a Communist label on the president.

He said at first that he "had no idea" if Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist.

"I only know that if he is not, he might as well be," he said. "It is a moot question. The results of his administration are the same."

Later he added: "I don't think Eisenhower is bright enough to be permitted to be one of the party."

Welch's goal is a million members. He declined to say how many members were in the society nationally or in what states chapters had been organized. He said organization was going "nicely in Wisconsin," adding that Wisconsin was a "good, conservative state."

Asked if he still held the views expressed in "The Politician," he said he would not comment.

On his letterhead inviting selected persons to join, Welch lists two other Wisconsin industrialists, besides Grede, as members of the society's national council.

They are E. P. Hamilton, Two Rivers, president of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., maker of washing machines, dryers and office and drafting equipment, and Cola B. Parker, Neenah, former chairman of the board of Kimberly-Clark Corp., paper manufacturer. Both were out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Membership Confirmed

Grede confirmed that he was a council member. He said he didn't think Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist and said he had no comment about the book.

Welch describes the society in the "Blue Book," which he also wrote and which is distributed more widely among members than "The Politician."

"The men who join the John Birch society . . . are going to be doing so primarily because they believe in me and what I am doing and are willing to accept my leadership anyway," he wrote.

"We are going to use that loyalty, like every other resource, to the fullest possible advantage that we can. Whenever and wherever, either through infiltration by the enemy or honest differences of opinion, that loyalty ceases to be sufficient to keep some fragment in line, we are not going to be in the position of having the society's work weakened by raging debates.

Opposes Factions

"We are not going to have factions developing on the two-sides-to-every question theme. Those members who cease to feel the necessary degree of loyalty can either resign or will be put out."

In the same book, Welch outlines his philosophy.

"Democracy, of course, in government or organization, as the Greeks and Romans found out, and as I believe . . . democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud."

The society is named after John Birch, an American army captain and fundamentalist Baptist minister, who allegedly was murdered by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J day. The society was founded by Welch on Dec. 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, with the support of a small group of businessmen.

Started in 1959

In Milwaukee the society began late in 1959 after Welch gave a privately attended talk here.

Mrs. Rueber's reason for organizing the first branch, she said, was:

"I couldn't sit back and wait for someone else to do it. Communism had been winning for some time."

She wrote to Welch saying that she was interested, and received instructions on how to organize and other necessary material. She knows Welch personally.

"I consider him a fine man," she said.

Mrs. Rueber said two chapters were on the east side, two on the south side and a fifth in Wauwatosa. Meetings usually were in private homes. She declined to say where meetings were held or when the next one will be. She said the press could not attend.

Under the Welch program, each chapter gets a monthly "John Birch Bulletin," which Welch edits. This usually gives the "assignment" for the month and lists suggested reading matter. Frequently there are suggestions for a letter writing campaign to congressmen on legislation.

Dues are $24 a year for men and $12 for women.

Although only high leaders know membership figures, the society is growing fast, according to law enforcement sources. Wisconsin has between 150 and 200 members, according to Johnson and Mrs. Rueber. They were enrolled in less than a year. This factor, plus the high level of influence and intelligence of members, disturbs law enforcement officials.

Movies Are Utilized

Welch writes skillfully and uses movies effectively of himself speaking in making his points.

He was born in Chowan county, North Carolina. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina; attended the United States Naval academy for two years and, finally, Harvard law school. He was in charge of sales and advertising of the firm that bears his name. He was vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee and, in 1950, a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket.

Dear Sir:

The House Un-American Activities Committee bulletin, entitled "Communist Target -- Youth" was reviewed by Robert Welch, in our John Birch Society bulletin for August. I understand the bulk of this pamphlet is your report with pictures on the San Francisco riots, which makes it too clear for controversy that these were inspired by the Communists. I have asked Chairman Francis E. Walter, House Un-American Activities Committee to send me a copy so I can share it with my friends.

I have just received a copy of "An Analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA" released January 17, 1960, which accompanied your letter to all law enforcement officials, under date of March 1, 1960.

I want to congratulate you on the excellent work you are doing, andwish you could get more cooperation from our State department, and Congress. Do not feel you need to acknowledge this note, your continuance in exposing Communism is all I desire.

On 8/3/60, ADOLPH MENJOU, well-known motion picture, radio and TV personality, appeared as a guest on the TOM DUGGAN show which is viewed nightly by residents of Southern California over Channel 13, station KCOP, Los Angeles. TOM DUGGAN is well-known to viewers in Chicago, Illinois, and Los Angeles, California, and is considered to be a controversial television personality.

MENJOU, during the course of his interview with DUGGAN, ranged far and wide on matters of current interest to the American public. He is an avowed anti-communist and spent a considerable portion of his talk on communism. [redacted] advised MENJOU told the TV audience that he could not get a job in the motion picture studios because he is an avowed anti-communist. He stated most of the studios are controlled by communists, noting that the studios have a black list that is working in reverse, i.e., against those people who have denounced communism. He recalled that when the "Hollywood Ten" were convicted "they" should have convicted the entire "Hollywood Nineteen" but someone in Washington, who was highly-placed, interceded and would not let the additional nine be convicted. He indicated he had gone to Washington at his own expense to fight this move, but to no avail.

He told DUGGAN and the TV audience that communism would be wiped out of the studios in two days if the American Legion would bring economic pressures to bear against the theatres. However, even the American Legion is subject to economic pressures, and for this reason cannot take effective action against those studios who hire communists. He alleged that communism in California is stronger than most people think and he fears for his children and their children. He cautioned the American people to wake up before it is too late. He once again attested to his great admiration for the late Senator JOSEPH McCARTHY and the fine work accomplished by him in the field of communism. MENJOU spoke highly of Director HOOVER and mentioned that he had been in correspondence with Mr. HOOVER on many occasions. He did not mention the FBI by name, however.

MENJOU stated his statements could be "backed up" and on occasion mentioned "Counter Attack" and "Red Channels." He was particularly critical of the communist influence in New York Theatre circles. He mentioned but a few names as individuals who had communist connections. Among these names were the names of DALTON TRUMBO and EDWARD DMYTRYK, both members of the "Hollywood Ten."

MENJOU, in addition to discussing communism, was critical of the World Court, noting that two of its members were communists. He was vociferous in his opposition to the income tax and stated he was in complete agreement with BRACKEN LEE, of Utah, in his refusal to pay an income tax. He stated he was opposed to the Government of the United States engaging in private enterprise, and thought the Government should divest itself of some 19,000 private enterprises, including TVA. He is against a welfare state and is a staunch advocate of private enterprise.

MENJOU, at the conclusion of his guest stint, urged all those who were opposed to communism to join the John Birch Society and gave DUGGAN and the TV audience the Society's address of Belmont, Massachusetts, as the place to write for information. It should be noted that numerous calls were received by DUGGAN before the conclusion of his show from listeners interested in joining the Society, and the address of the Society was given to the audience on several different occasions prior to the closing of the show at 12 Midnight. MENJOU expressed his admiration for Mr. WELCH, founder of the Society, and explained the Society got its name from a soldier by the name of JOHN BIRCH who was killed by the Chinese Communists following the cessation of hostilities in Korea.

Dear Mr. Hoover -

This letter is to say thanks to you for the many good works you have done to preserve our American way of life. My emphasis, at the moment, is on your pamphlet, "Communist Target--Youth"

I have written to a Congress woman to supply me with copies for distribution.

Since I write this letter as a member of The John Birch Society, and since Im sure you will receive so many more, I shan't be disappointed if I do not receive an answer.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

This is in the form of a congratulatory letter, that needs no reply , for your splendid work in the publication of the House Committee on Un-American Activities "Communist Target --- Youth". For years I have implored my Congressmen personally, and also through the "John Birch Society"-as a member, to aid the enlargement of that Committee and your department . The threat has increased, not diminished, and so many are castigating- instead of promoting more security measures.

My thanks- and the nations- for the report,

Sincerly,

Dear Mrs. [redacted]

It was indeed thoughtful of you and Mr. [redacted] to express the kind sentiments in your letter postmarked on August 3.

"Communist Target--Youth" was prepared for the purpose of alerting Americans and particularly American youth to the danger of communist tactics through a factual account of one instance in which young people had been duped into unthinking and unlawful action by communist zealots. Your comments regarding the publication are most reassuring.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. [redacted]

Your letter was received on August 9, 1960.

I am glad to know that you found my comments relative to the recent riots in San Francisco of interest, and it is vitally important that intelligent citizens accept the responsibility of becoming fully informed as to the exact nature of the communist menace.

Although I would like to be of assistance, I must inform you that information in our files is confidential and available for official use only. I regret that I am unable to answer your specific questions, and I hope you will not infer in this connection either that we do or that we do not have information relating to the group you named. Enclosed are publications available for general distribution by this Bureau which you may find of interest.

To secure lists of groups and periodicals which have been cited by various state and Federal agencies, it is suggested that you submit requests to the Subversive Organizations Section, Internal Security Division, U. S. Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., and to the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Corner of North Capitol and H Streets, Northwest, Washington 25, D. C. From the latter can be purchased, for 35 cents, a copy of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation,

After reading your article on Student riots in San Francisco in the July 25, issue of U.S. News & World Report. And after seeing films of the riots, I am very worried. As are many of my friends.

What I want to know is, what can each of us do to help fight the communist threat in America?

I have heard that many communists are working in Hollywood. Is this true? If so, can I get a list of known communists, so that I would know which pictures not to see?

I would also like to know what we can do, to prevent communism in our schools? And every place else?

I have heard of a John Birch Society, in Belmont, Mass., which is being formed to preserve the constitution and fight communism. Are organizations such as this listed with the F.B.I.? If so is the John Birch Society listed?

Any information you can give me on the John Birch Society and on what I can do to help keep America free will be welcome.

ATTENTION: SAC, HOUSTON

Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's letter. Bufiles contain no identifiable information concerning the correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. "Communist Target - Youth."
2. "Communist Party, USA," Reprint from "Ave Maria," April, 1960.
3. "Faith or Fear."
4. Reprint from "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," March, 1960, with Analysis of the 17th National Convention, Communist Party, USA.
5. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent advises he has read many of the Director's reports on communists in the United States and is in complete agreement with them and is heartened that someone will take the opportunity to enlighten the public. He states he has recently heard of a report concerning the San Francisco hearings but has not had an opportunity to read it. He states he has read material issued by the John Birch Society and is in agreement with its views. He has joined the Society but in view of recent smear attacks feels that he needs the Director's advice as to whether or not it can be labeled a subversive organization or if its leaders are communists.

Mr. Hoover

I have read many of your reports on communists in these United States and I am in complete agreement with all of them and am heartened that someone will take the opportunity to enlighten the public on these matters. Recently I heard of a report that was issued by your office pertaining to the San Francisco riots. I have not read this report but from what I understand is in it I would like to take this opportunity to thank and to congratulate you for bringing into the open more facts about communist infiltration in this country.

I would also like to take this opportunity to ask you a question. I have read the "Blue Book" published by and for The John Birch Society as well as the Societies monthly phamplets and reports and have found that I am in agreement with them on almost all of their views.

I joined the society after learning what I could of it and I still feel that it has a very good purpose and that an organization such as this is needed in this country. But in view of the recent smear attacks on this organization I feel that I heed your advice as to whether or not it can now be labeled a subversive organization or if any of its leaders are known communists.

I am writing this letter as a loyal American citizen and I do not want, unknowingly, to help the communist conspirators in any way nor do I want to be labeled a communist for being in a subversive organization. I reliaze that you must be very busy but I would appreciate it very much if you would, when time permits, answer this letter.

Dear Mr Hoover,

As an American truly alarmed by the general apathy about the dangers of Communism within our country, I want to thank you for the wonderful report "Red Target-Youth". I wish every newspaper in the country would carry it and keep right on reminding us of this danger to our freedoms.

I am a member of the John Birch Society here. I have never before joined any such group for I had heard that so many appearing to be patriotic were really subversive, and I certainly did not want to be open to suspicion. But with our own Judge Marlin Phelps now on the national council, I feel this is a bona fide patriotic organization. I feel that at last I have found an outlet for the frustrations I have long felt at being almost impotent to stop the drive of the Communists. Now at least, I feel I can do something! If only your department would suggest to our council ways in which we can be helpful to you.

I hope you will continue to make similar reports public instead of just in governement pamphlets that might be overlooked, no matter what groups must be exposed, so that every citizen can keep informed. You have made the FBI the greatest safeguard we have-I hope we can serve you in some special way as we keep on plugging away.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

As a staunch believer in our Constitution and a member of the John Birch Society I would like to congratulate you on your efforts to try to keep America free from corruption and destruction. I want to especially mention the pamphlet your bureau recently released entitled "Communist Target -- Youth" which I feel would be excellent reading for Americans who are not completly aware of some of the things the communists are doing. I only hope that when you eventually leave the bureau that someone at least as capable as you will take over. Our country right now could greatly benefit from leadership comparable to yours.

No reply is necessary to this letter. Keep up the good work and if possible try to obtain a larger force and the necessary laws to help with the prevention of un-American activities.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr Hoover,

As a father of 4 children, and as an officer of the US Army interested in the welfare of my family and my country let me congratulate you on the superb report prepared by you and released by the House Un-American Activities Committee on the recent student riots in San Francisco.

The John Birch Society of which I am a member called my attention to this revealing...and shocking document. My wife and I both agree that we need more men of your calibre who are not afraid to speak the truth and who furthermore are aggressive enough to do so.

I know how busy you are and therefore I do not request an acknowledgement of this letter but I feel that it is my duty to let you know that your work is appreciated by private citizens who are enemies of Communism and who see in this evil movement a direct and imminent threat to our security and to our way of living

Dear Mr. Hoover,

We would like to congratulate you on the superb report of the House Un-American Activities Committee. It is understood that they recieved the bulk of their material for this report from material which you obtained. Please keep up this good work, for it is heartening to average citizens like ourselves to know that their are a few of our national leaders that are god fearing enough to realize that their isn't any room for compromise with something as godless as Communism. When we witness the left wing thoughts and deeds of our leading politicians we shudder at the thought of any one but you directing the activities of such a great organization as the F.B.I. A letter like this comes hard for us, but through the inspiring efforts and works of our colleagues in the John Birch society we have been made to realize the urgency of action. We were never complacent or uninformed about the menace that Communism posed for this country, but the John Birch organization showed us a way to help combat it.

Dear Sir:

I would like to extend my sincere congratulations on your excellent report titled "Communist Target-Youth". Since the Communists have been so active publicising there rather distorted version of what happened in San Francisco, it is all the more important that this report be given the widest possible circulation. I am making certain that the limited number of copies I have been able to obtain are kept moving.

In spite of the activeness of the Communists and their friends, and the apparent passiveness of the majority of American people, it might be encouraging to know that organizations are beginning to spring up to try to offset the gains of the Communists. The John Birch Society, of which I am a member and Chapter Leader, is very solidly behind the F.B.I., the H.C.U.A., the S.I.S.S., and all other government agencies which are actively exposing and combatting Communism.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr Hoover

One of my fellow members of the John Birch Society has just told me about the excellence of your report contained in a pamphlet just published under the title of "Communist Target-Youth" by the House Un-American Activities Committee. Even though I haven't had the opportunity of reading the report as I mean to do as quickly as I can get a copy, I want you to know that I as a crusader for American principles since the sad day (For America) Franklin D Roosevelt stepped into the White House, deeply appreciate your disclosure in this report as well as in your book and other reports.

The tragic part of todays situation is that America is truly committing suicide because its people are smothering to death from the love of comfort and the desire not to be bothered by bad news. Business leaders who are the rightful trustees of American freedom and who should be informing themselves and continue to plan ahead for "business as usual" when in truth, they will have no future unless they help stop the Communist - Socialist tide.

As a member of the John Birch Society I should like to commend you on the excellent pamphlet Communist Target - Youth for it very amptly portrays what is happening by picture and word as evidenced at the HUAC hearings in San Francisco which I attended!

If we could get that pamphlet into the hands of every thinking American especially parents I believe we could do away with some of the apathy which prevails today as regards Communism.

You are to be congratulated for the wonderful job you are doing with the FBI to try and save our country and this note is just a very small token word of appreciation for which I do not expect a reply.

Dear Mr. Rueber:

Your letter of August 7, 1960, with enclosures, has been received, and I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing.

It was good of you to give me the benefit of your observations concerning the menace of communism. Certainly, I believe it is necessary to constantly alert our people to the manner in which communism is seeking to undermine and subvert democracy. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for your kind remarks concerning the efforts of the FBI to combat communism, and I am pleased that you have found our publications on this subject interesting as well as helpful.

In response to your inquiry, may I suggest that you contact the House Committee on Un-American Activities relative to your desire for additional copies of my article, "Communist Target--Youth." As you are aware, the Committee was responsible for reprinting this article and our supply of it is limited. I am sorry that I cannot be of service to you in this instance, but I hope you will understand the difficulties involved.

However, yesterday I received my copy of the Monthly Bulletin of The John Birch Society in which all members are requested to write to you expressing our congratulations on your report of the San Francisco rioting. It is certainly a pleasure to do this. My wife and I are fortunate in being on the mailing list of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and, of course, received a copy of the pamphlet "Communist Target - Youth." We feel that this publication should become mandatory reading for all High School and University students, civic groups, Church organizations and all P.T.A. and similar groups.

I am certain that The John Birch Society will create a great demand for this publication, and I fear that for me to ask for the quantity I would need to insure adequate distribution by our members here could not be filled by the Committee. It is my understanding that your office has printed copies of your report. My most conservative estimate is that we will need 1,000 copies in this area. Unfortunately, I am not in a position to underwrite the cost of so great a number, but I am sure that our members would gladly combine to defray at least a fair amount of that cost. Nevertheless, we would be most grateful for whatever number of copies you might be able to supply.

Secondly, you might be interested to note that my wife and I have purchased a dozen paperback editions of MASTERS OF DECEIT which are in constant circulation, and we have persuaded other friends to do the same. As a matter of fact, it was your book which aroused me from my lethargy and made me determined to learn everything possible about the Communist Conspiracy and hence, to contribute what small part I can to prevent it from taking over this nation.

As a means to this end, I joined the John Birch Society in December, 1959 and am, at this time, the Midwest Major Coordinator. This is done on a voluntary and "spare time" basis as I am employed on a full time basis by the Wisconsin Air National Guard as a medical technician.

One week ago, and subsequent to an article which appeared in the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL printed an article (enclosed) apparently designed to discredit the Society because of an opinion expressed by its founder, Mr. Robert Welch Jr., relative to President Eisenhower, in a manuscript written by Mr. Welch in 1954 entitled THE POLITICIAN. I am aware of this manuscript and its contents, as is the F.B.I.

Although I do not personally subscribe to this particular opinion, I also do not consider myself or our members responsible for it in any way. The headline of THE JOURNAL'S article is in itself fallacious, as at no time has "this group", as the JOURNAL calls it, ever promoted either directly or indirectly its founder's personal opinion. Nor has Mr. Welch either overtly or covertly by means of personal communication, the Society's printed Bulletins or through other literature of his own or of the Society, ever suggested that any member accept his view on this subject, nor has he ever even mentioned that he ever held such a view.

However, many Milwaukeeans are cognizant of the position assumed by THE JOURNAL in matters relative to socialism, welfare state-ism and anti-communism. If he were here, I am sure that Senator McCarthy would vouch for that.

Yet, there are many others here who are most anxious for me to show them something in the way of an official "clearance" before they join our Society. This is naturally of considerable importance in these times. The mere fact that we are not on anyone's "subversive list" is hardly a recommendation.

While I fully realize that neither you, as an individual, nor the F.B.I. as an agency of the government will give us an outright recommendation, perhaps you would be so kind as to give me a letter which would state that the F.B.I. would have no objection to an individual joining our Society? In view of recent developments, the 128th Fighter Group, Wisconsin Air National Guard, conducted a check, this past week, through the legal section of the National Guard Bureau. I happened to be in the office yesterday morning when the Bureau called to say that it had checked with the Department of Defense and that the Society had a clean bill of health. This is good to know, but I have nothing to this effect in writing.

I am sorry to have inflicted upon you so lengthy a letter, but I am very much concerned by the apathy of so many of our people in this country at the very time that the creeping, debilitating disease of socialism is gathering impetus and while powerful influences are being exerted by such organizations as The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee which is constantly seeking to reduce the effectiveness of the F.B.I. and to abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee and The Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy which, incidently, met here in Milwaukee yesterday promoting its appeasement policy through fear.

Recently, my wife and I have instituted an educational program in Wisconsin and Illinois which is being implemented by all of our Chapter Leaders. (Copy enclosed)

May I close by stating that we are most grateful for the many wonderful articles and pamphlets you have written to awaken, enlighten and protect our people. You may always rest assured of not only our complete support but our continued prayers for your inspirational leadership.

Most sincerely yours,

Donald A. Rueber

PROGRAM OF PRIMARY ANTI-COMMUNIST EDUCATION

1. "COMMUNISM ON THE MAP" - A film strip in color which traces the progress made by International Communism in its drive to conquer the world. Complete documentation with a taped narration by Mr. Glenn Green, former wire service journalist, now Executive Vice-President of The National Education Program, Searcy, Arkansas. Running time: 1 hour.

2. "THE NAKED COMMUNIST" - A tape recorded address by Mr. W. Cleon Skousen, Chief of Police of Salt Lake City, and former Agent of the F.B.I. An excellent, informative lecture on many aspects of the Communist Conspiracy. Running time: 1 hour 15 minutes.

3. "COMMUNIST INFILTRATION IN GOVERNMENT" - Tape recorded address by Mr. Richard Arens, dynamic Staff Director of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Running time: 1 hour 10 minutes.

4. "HISTORY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY" and "THE CAUSE AND COURSE OF COMMUNISM" - Two tape recorded lectures by Dr. Fred Schwarz, an Australian physician and surgeon, who is recognized internationally as one of the leading diagnosticians of the disease of communism. Running time: 1 hour.

5. "BRAINWASHING AMERICAN KOREAN WAR PRISONERS IN CHINA" - Is the American civilization well on the way down the Western slope? Each listener can examine his own conscience as Major William Mayer, U.S. Army Neuropsychiatrist, outlines the underlying weaknesses which led to the "Brainwashing" of many of our American Korean prisoners of war. Running time: 1 hour 25 minutes.

6. "COMMUNIST TAKE-OVER IN CHINA" - A tape recorded eye-witness account of life under the Communists in China by a Protestant Minister, Rev. Leslie Millen, who spent several years there prior to, and 2½ years after, the Communist take-over. Running time: 1 hour 7 minutes.

8. "THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY" - A 2½ hour film presentation of the background, purpose and mechanics of action of the Society narrated by its Founder and Director, Mr. Robert Welch. Mr. Welch outlines a well organized, cohesive plan by which Communism can be stopped and ultimately defeated if lethargic Americans can be stirred to action in time.

One Milwaukee business will obtain for us a copy of the new film "Operation Abolition" which will become a part of this program.

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL 31 JULY 1960

Group Branding Ike as Red Has 10 Wisconsin Chapters

John Birch Society Numbers 150 to 200 Members; Growth Disturbs Officials

By ALEX P. DOBISH
Of The Journal Staff

Ten chapters of the John Birch society, founded by a man who believes that President Eisenhower is a dedicated Communist, have formed in Wisconsin in the last year.

The ostensible purpose of the society is to fight communism and influence American politics. Its members include such leading citizens as William J. Grede, Milwaukee industrialist.

Four branches have been formed in Milwaukee and one each in Wauwatosa, Green Bay, De Pere, Oshkosh, Appleton and Eagle River.

Retired Manufacturer

Mrs. John Rueber, 3014 S. Delaware av., the wife of a medical technician, is the Milwaukee area "co-ordinator." Richard Johnson, Green Bay, an accountant, is in charge of upstate activities.

The founder of the society is a wealthy, retired candy manufacturer, who lives in Belmont, Mass. He is Robert H. W. Welch, jr., 61, a persuasive speaker, conservative and the author of "The Politician."

"The Politician" is a manuscript of 302 pages which has been privately reproduced in book form by the photo-offset process. Leaders of the society have received copies from Welch with the admonition that the contents are "strictly confidential and for your eyes only."

The book tries to prove that Mr. Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscientious agent of the Communist party.

It claims that Mr. Eisenhower's brother, Milton, is the president's superior in the party and that a dozen other highly placed government men are either outright Communists or tools of the party.

Claims Presidents "Used"

Former President Roosevelt, the book says, was unknowingly used by the party. Ex-President Truman was knowingly used, it continues. As for President Eisenhower, page 268 reads:

"In my own opinion, the Communists have one of their own actually in the presidency. For this third man, Eisenhower, there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

Welch, Johnson and Mrs. Rueber deny that the book is used at meetings. Group leaders like Johnson and Mrs. Rueber have copies, however.

Neither Johnson nor Mrs. Rueber would disavow the contents of "The Politician." Mrs. Rueber said she had not reached a conclusion, adding: "I am not obligated to explain my personal conclusion, if I have reached one, to anybody."

Curious About Book

She wanted to know where The Milwaukee Journal had obtained a copy since the book was not supposed to be seen by "ordinary" society members or outsiders.

"Someone," she said, "broke a confidence."

Johnson said he shared the bulk of Welch's views, but shied away from hanging a Communist label on the president.

He said at first that he "had no idea" if Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist.

"I only know that if he is not, he might as well be," he said. "It is a moot question. The results of his administration are the same."

Later he added: "I don't think Eisenhower is bright enough to be permitted to be one of the party."

Welch's goal is a million members. He declined to say how many members were in the

My dear Sir :

We are writing as members of the John Birch Society. Are we happy about the movie on the San Fransisco riots which have been shown twice, to our knowledge, on TV; and are scheduled to be shown again!

We are writing (under separate cover) for a copy of your pamphlet COMMUNIST TARGET - YOUTH. With this to give out, after so many persons have seen the TV movie, we think that we can impress many who were not impressed up to now with the seriousness of your fight. "It can happen here."

And I am so happy to be writing to you. I feel the same way an acquaintance appeared to have felt after my one semi-famous friend had 'phoned her to accept a speaking engagement. She said, "I almost dropped dead. It never occurred to me that she really existed." So I keep sitting here and thinking, "I'm writing to J. Edgar Hoover. He really exists, you know." Life would be a different matter for all of us were you just a good fairy-tale character, and not really a living force. Thank God for such as you, and your dedication to our cause, and our country.

society nationally or in what states chapters had been organized. He said organization was going "nicely in Wisconsin," adding that Wisconsin was a "good, conservative state."

Asked if he still held the views expressed in "The Politician," he said he would not comment.

On his letterhead inviting selected persons to join, Welch lists two other Wisconsin industrialists, besides Grede, as members of the society's national council.

They are E. P. Hamilton, Two Rivers, president of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., maker of washing machines, dryers and office and drafting equipment, and Cola B. Parker, Neenah, former chairman of the board of Kimberly-Clark Corp., paper manufacturer. Both were out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Membership Confirmed

Grede confirmed that he was a council member. He said he didn't think Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist and said he had no comment about the book.

Welch describes the society in the "Blue Book," which he also wrote and which is distributed more widely among members than "The Politician."

"The men who join the John Birch society . . . are going to be doing so primarily because they believe in me and what I am doing and are willing to accept my leadership anyway," he wrote.

"We are going to use that loyalty, like every other resource, to the fullest possible advantage that we can. Whenever and wherever, either through infiltration by the enemy or honest differences of opinion, that loyalty ceases to be sufficient to keep some fragment in line, we are not going to be in the position of having the society's work weakened by raging debates.

Opposes Factions

"We are not going to have factions developing on the two-sides-to-every question theme. Those members who cease to feel the necessary degree of loyalty can either resign or will be put out."

In the same book, Welch outlines his philosophy.

"Democracy, of course, in government or organization, as the Greeks and Romans found out, and as I believe . . . democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud."

The society is named after John Birch, an American army captain and fundamentalist Baptist minister, who allegedly was murdered by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J day. The society was founded by Welch on Dec. 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, with the support of a small group of businessmen.

Started in 1959

In Milwaukee the society began late in 1959 after Welch gave a privately attended talk here.

Mrs. Rueber's reason for organizing the first branch, she said, was:

"I couldn't sit back and wait for someone else to do it. Communism had been winning for some time."

She wrote to Welch saying that she was interested, and received instructions on how to organize and other necessary material. She knows Welch personally.

"I consider him a fine man," she said.

Mrs. Rueber said two chapters were on the east side, two on the south side and a fifth in Wauwatosa. Meetings usually were in private homes. She declined to say where meetings were held or when the next one will be. She said the press could not attend.

Under the Welch program, each chapter gets a monthly "John Birch Bulletin," which Welch edits. This usually gives the "assignment" for the month and lists suggested reading matter. Frequently there are suggestions for a letter writing campaign to congressmen on legislation.

Dues are $24 a year for men and $12 for women.

Although only high leaders know membership figures, the society is growing fast, according to law enforcement sources. Wisconsin has between 150 and 200 members, according to Johnson and Mrs. Rueber. They were enrolled in less than a year. This factor, plus the high level of influence and intelligence of members, disturbs law enforcement officials.

Movies Are Utilized

Welch writes skillfully and uses movies effectively of himself speaking in making his points.

He was born in Chowan county, North Carolina. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina; attended the United States Naval academy for two years and, finally, Harvard law school. He was in charge of sales and advertising of the firm that bears his name. He was vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee and, in 1950, a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As a member of the John Birch Society fighting the communist conspiracy at every opportunity, I wish to congratulate you on the article your prepared and which is being distributed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and which relates to the San Francisco riots occuring during the committee hearings in that city in May.

You may be interested to know that the former governor of our State, the Honorable Goodwin Knight has done an outstanding job in publicising this affair on our local station KMPC, Channel 13.

There is no necessity for you to acknowledge this letter.

Dear Mr Hoover,

It was a happy thought for the John Birch Society to suggest that its members send you a word of commendation for your fine report on the San Francisco riots, for it provides an opportunity for us to put into words some of the admiration we have long felt for you and your work. The report, "Communist Target--Youth", is very revealing and I am sending for more copies to distribute where there is a chance of their doing some real good. Your "Masters of Deceit" is outstanding, and I bought three paper-back copies to circulate, to try to arouse people to the menace we are facing.

I do not expect an answer to this. Humanity is quick to blame and slow to praise, but a pat on the back feels wonderful when one is fighting for the right with his back to the wall and the clouds are dark overhead, and I doubt if anyone ever had more brickbats and stabs in the back aimed his way than you, and this is merely an enthusiastic "Well done!"

However it is doubtful if there is any person whom the general public holds in higher esteem in their inmost hearts, and your name has become a symbol of uncompromising integrity in a "civilization" that is becoming so permeated with evil in its many forms that our claim to be a "Christian nation", seems to have a hollow sound. Therefore, I am glad of this chance to add my word of praise and commendation, and to wish you the best of everything

Most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Again congratulations. Your report on the San Francisco Riots is a fine job and the pictures in the House Report are a clincher for those people here who are trying still to deny the communist hookup.

You can imagine my satisfaction in becoming a member of Bob Welch's John Birch Society--after working and spending a lot to work against enemies of our Republic.

I feel more encouraged than in the past 30 years. The showing of the conservatives in both conventions was not intended, and should help all of us who sometimes feel that the work is not as resultful as it should be.

Dear Sir:

I am sixteen, disheartened and scared. I am in this sad state of affairs because I know the extent and effectiveness of the Communist Conspiracy in this country.

However, even though it is hard to muster, I do have hope. I am an almost-member of the John Birch Society--sort of John Birch, Jr. (if you'll pardon the pun). And I am very much encouraged when I see men such as yourself, who know much more about Communism and must be much more discouraged, carrying on such a valiant battle to save the United States from World Communism.

I am writing this letter mostly to encourage you and tell you that you are not working in vain as there is a growing number of "card-carrying Americans", as one candidate put it, squarely behind you and the cause of individual freedom. Also, I am not expecting an answer to this letter.

Hopefully yours,

Dear Sir:

I have today made a request of my Congressman, Mr. Bob Casey and of the House Un-American Activties Committee for copies of the recent publication, Communist Target -- Youth.

I do not have to read it in advance to know that your portion of it will be factual and excellent in its context.

As a member of the rapidly growing John Birch Society it is with great heart that we are thankful for people of your stripe and caliber in the increasing fight against the communist conspiracy.

Please do not take time to answer this letter as there are those of us that would not like to take your time for needless things, but rather to have it spent upon the important things that keep you alert to the common danger. There are many people with you in this effort.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Just a word of congratulations on your recent pamphlet "Communist Target -- Youth". This is a superb report and I just wanted to pass on to you my comment about what a fine job you and your staff are doing in this area. I have used your pamphlet in a number of places to jar loose some complacent friends of mine and I am certain that some of them realize that something is seriously wrong.

I think you probably already know of the John Birch Society and I just wanted to let you know that we have formed several new chapters out here in the so-called "Conservative Mid-West" and are anxiously pursuing our Anti-Communist endeavors, We certainly hope that our energy and our efforts can be concentrated in such a manner that the wave of Anti-Communism will spread throughout the United States.

Please don't take any of your valuable time to reply to this letter. I just merely wanted to let you know that I personally thought you are doing a tremendous job and that we love and respect all the information that comes to us from your tremendous organization.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

May I congratulate you on the excellence of your report which appears in the pamphlet Communist Target--Youth , published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. My only regret is that there will be millions of Americans who, through ignorance or indifference, will never read this report.

I expect no reply to this letter, because your job is certainly so important in these days that I wouldn't want to add to your burden. However, may I say this. God is on our side in the fight against the Godless force of Communism! MayHe bless you in your work.

ReBulet to Mr. [redacted] 6-9-60, copy of which was designated for the Milwaukee office, and Bulet to Milwaukee 8-5-60. b6 b7C

On 8-11-60, SA JOSEPH S. WALKER personally contacted Mr. [redacted] at his residence, [redacted] Eagle River, Wis. Mr. [redacted] was very friendly, and explained that he appreciated being contacted in person. He volunteered that he is a member of and active in the John Birch Society movement in the area of Eagle River. He said he became affiliated with this society after about ten years of extensive reading, because he felt that it probably was doing more than any other organization to promote loyalty toward the United States. He said at the present time politicians and legislators receive hundreds of letters from members of "front organizations," which are not loyal to the United States, and one of the goals of the John Birch Society, which is headed by ROBERT WELCH, is to obtain a million members and encourage correspondence to proper officials to off-set the correspondence received from the members of "front organizations." Mr. [redacted] estimated that the John Birch Society in Wisconsin has approximately 312 members. b6 b7C

REC-31

He said that recently he was interviewed by a member of the Vilas County News-Review, a weekly newspaper, Eagle River, Wis., concerning the John Birch Society chapter in the Eagle River area, and he was asked whether he thought President EISENHOWER was a Communist. [redacted] said he advised the newspaper representative he did not believe President EISENHOWER was a Communist and did not believe it was proper to find him guilty due only to association with people who may be suspected of being Communists. He said the local newspaper printed the interview with him, but failed to state that from his studies and readings of various books and brochures during the past years, he still feels there are persons within the State Department who could stand investigation. He said he is of the opinion this interview was prompted by an article which appeared in The Milwaukee Journal Sunday edition, July 31, 1960, entitled, "Group Branding Ike as Red Has 10 Chapters in Wisconsin." (A copy of this article, as clipped from The Milwaukee Journal, is submitted as an enclosure in this letter for ready reference. A copy has previously been sent to the Bureau.) b6 b7C

Mr. [redacted] made available a copy of the Vilas County News-Review dated August 11, 1960, which reflected an article on page 1, continued on page 4, entitled, "John Birch Society, Whose Leader Brands Ike Red Agent, Has Eagle River Chapter." This article was clipped and is attached. b6 b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated he had no specific information that would be a matter within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction, and after he directed a letter to Mr. Hoover, he understood that it would not be proper to be furnished names and results of the FBI investigations. He said his letter of inquiry to Mr. Hoover was prompted by hearsay over the period of years that it was rumored there were 75 Communists in the area of Eagle River and Vilas County. He said he had no specific information regarding this rumor.

He further advised his activities in connection with the John Birch Society are to see that the right pamphlets, publications and brochures of patriotic interest are made available to the members of the John Birch Society. As an example of some of the types of pamphlets he has been making available to society members so they are kept aware of existing conditions, he furnished SA Walker a copy of "The War We Are In--View 1," which is a publication by the Champion Paper and Fibre Co., Hamilton, Ohio. He said that this copy need not be returned; that he purchased several of these pamphlets and will be forwarding them to members of the John Birch Society. (The copy of this booklet is also enclosed with this letter.)

It was noted by SA Walker during this interview that there must be a very limited number of members in the Eagle River area, inasmuch as Mr. [redacted] said he had just received these booklets and had not read the articles, and as yet had not distributed them. SA Walker observed there were approximately one dozen of these booklets. b6 b7C

Mr. [redacted] was furnished information as to how he can readily contact the Milwaukee office of the FBI or the Resident Agency at Wausau, Wis., so that matters of interest to the FBI coming to his attention will be called to the Bureau's attention immediately.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Would like to extend thanks for your report in "Communist Target - Youth". When I heard this publication was available from HUAC I immediately requested 40 copies for our Cardinal Mindszenty Discussion group.

Another of your texts is your "Masters of Deceit" which we circulate from our C.M.D.G. library.

Thanks again and best wishes.

SUBJECT: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
Eagle River, Wisconsin
IS - MISCELLANEOUS

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 5/10/84

By letter dated May 26, 1960, [redacted] Eagle River, Wisconsin, directed a letter to the Director of the FBI in which he advised in part that it is rumored there are approximately 70 registered Communists in the County of Vilas, and if this was true, he would like to be informed of their names, not for the idea of running them down, but rather to guide the work that he [redacted] was actively engaged in with the John Birch Society. b6 b7C

The Bureau, by letter dated August 5, 1960, instructed that Mr. [redacted] be contacted, and the results of the contact be furnished to the Bureau by 8/17/60, which information has been forwarded by separate letter in Milwaukee case entitled [redacted], INFORMATION CONCERNING (Internal Security)." b6 b7C

On 8/11/60, Mr. [redacted] volunteered the following information to SA JOSEPH S. WALKER when he was contacted to acknowledge his letter to the Bureau: b6 b7C

He said he is an active member in the John Birch Society movement in the area of Eagle River and became affiliated with this Society after about ten years of extensive reading because he felt that it probably was doing more than any other organization to promote loyalty toward the United States.

He said at the present time, politicians and legislators receive hundreds of letters from members of "front organizations," which are not loyal to the United States, and one of the goals of the John Birch Society, which is headed by ROBERT WELCH, is to obtain a million members and encourage correspondence to proper officials to offset the correspondence received from the members of "front organizations." Mr. [redacted] estimated that the John Birch Society in Wisconsin has approximately 312 members. b6 b7C

ENCLOSURE

He said that recently he was interviewed by a member of the Vilas County News-Review, a weekly newspaper, Eagle River, Wisconsin, concerning the John Birch Society Chapter in the Eagle River area, and he was asked whether he thought President EISENHOWER was a Communist Agent. [redacted] said he advised the newspaper representative he did not believe President EISENHOWER was a Communist Agent and did not believe it was proper to find him guilty due only to association with people who may be suspected of being Communists. He said the local newspaper printed the interview with him but failed to state that from his studies and readings of various books and brochures during the past years, he still feels there are persons within the State Department that could stand investigation. He said he is of the opinion this interview was prompted by an article which appeared in The Milwaukee Journal Sunday edition dated July 31, 1960, entitled "Group Branding IKE as Red Has 10 Chapters in Wisconsin." A copy of this article was submitted by Milwaukee letter 8/3/60 captioned "John Birch Society, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, IS-Miscellaneous." b6 b7C

[redacted] made available a copy of the Vilas County News-Review dated August 11, 1960, which reflected an article on page 1, continued on page 4, entitled, "John Birch Society, Whose Leader Brands Ike Red Agent, Has Eagle River Chapter." (This article was clipped and is attached hereto.) b6 b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated he had no specific information that would be a matter within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction. He said that in regard to his letter to the Director of the FBI, it was prompted by hearsay over the period of years and that he thought in his work with the John Birch Society, it would be well to know the identities of Communists in the area. He said he now understands it would not be proper to be furnished names and results of FBI investigations. He further advised his activities in connection with the John Birch Society are to see that the right pamphlets, publications and brochures of patriotic interest are made available to the members of the John Birch Society. As an example of some of the types of pamphlets he has been making available to Society members so they are kept aware of existing conditions, he furnished SA JOSEPH S. WALKER a copy of "The War We Are In--View 1," which is a publication by the Champion Paper and Fibre Company, Hamilton, Ohio. A cursory review of this booklet reflected articles entitled as follows:

"The War We Are In"	Page 1
"The Protected Path to Power"	" 3
"Mao Tse-Tung's Own Words"	" 4
"The Anatony of Peril"	" 8
"Psychological Warfare: A Weapon That is Winning"	" 11
"The War in Words"	" 12
"Encirclement" (Between pages 13 & 16)
"The Economic Balance Sheet"	" 16
"The Political Balance Sheet"	" 18
"Sensitive Sectors"	" 19
"All Is Peace - And War Is Its Prophet"	" 20
"Strategy for the Protracted Conflict"	" 22

This pamphlet was forwarded to the Bureau in the matter entitled, [redacted], INFORMATION CONCERNING (INTERNAL SECURITY)." b6 b7C

It was noted that during this interview Mr. [redacted] said he had just received these booklets and had purchased them for members of the Eagle River John Birch Society Chapter. It appeared that there were not more than one dozen of these booklets which would indicate there are not very many members of this Society at Eagle River.

On August 13, 1960, SA JOSEPH S. WALKER received an envelope postmarked Eagle River, Wisconsin, August 12, 1960, which enclosed a pamphlet entitled, "John Birch Society, Inc., Belmont 78, Massachusetts," which was dated August 1, 1960, from [redacted] Eagle River, Wisconsin. This pamphlet on page 12 reflects that a representative of the FBI is taking part in the Anti-Communist Schools at the United States Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, beginning August 29, 1960. On page 20, item No. 8, a reference is made to the superb report by J. EDGAR HOOVER in the pamphlet entitled, "Communist Target--Youth," regarding the San Francisco riots, which pamphlet was released July 18, 1960, by the House Un-American Activities Committe.. On page 21, the first paragraph encourages members of the John Birch Society to write J. EDGAR HOOVER a short letter congratulating him on the excellence of b6 b7C his report in "Communist Target--Youth." A copy of the pamphlet entitled "John Birch Society, Inc.," is being forwarded as an enclosure to this letter. b6 b7C

The Milwaukee Office files contain no prior information concerning Mr. [redacted] or the John Birch Society, Eagle River, Wisconsin, Chapter.

No investigation is being conducted UACB.

John Birch Society, Whose Leader Brands "Ike" Red Agent, Has Eagle River Chapter

Ten chapters of the John Birch society (including a chapter in Eagle River), founded by a man who believes that President Eisenhower is a dedicated Communist, have formed in Wisconsin in the last year.

This was reported in a recent story in the Milwaukee Journal written by Alex P. Dobish, who is a member of the Journal staff.

The apparent purpose of the society is to fight communism and influence American politics, Dobish reported and its members include leading citizens and industrialists in Wisconsin.

Dobish further reported that four branches have been formed in Milwaukee and one each in Wauwatosa, Green Bay, De Pere, Oshkosh, Appleton and Eagle River.

Mrs. John Rueber, 3014 S. Delaware ave., the wife of a medical technician, is the Milwaukee area "co-ordinator" and spoke in Eagle River, helping set-up the chapter here.

The founder of the society is a wealthy, retired candy manufacturer, who lives in Bemont, Mass., Robert H. W. Welch, jr., 61, who is the author of "The Politician."

* * *

THE MILWAUKEE Journal has obtained a copy of "The Politician", which is a manuscript of 302 pages, reproduced in book form. Leaders of the society have received copies from Welch with the admonition that the contents are "strictly confidential and for your eyes only."

The book tries to prove that Mr. Eisenhower is a dedicated conscientious agent of the Communist party.

It claims that Mr. Eisenhower's brother, Milton, is the president's superior in the party and that a dozen other highly placed government men are either outright Communists or tools of the party.

Former President Roosevelt, the book says, was unknowingly used by the party. Ex-President Truman was knowingly used, it continues. As for President Eisenhower, page 268 reads:

"In my own opinion the Communists have one of their own actually in the presidency. For this third man, Eisenhower, there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

The Journal writer in his story said that neither Mrs. Rueber or Richard Johnson of Green Bay, who is in charge of upstate activities, would disavow the contents of "The Politician."

Mrs. Rueber said she had not reached a conclusion, adding: "I am not obligated to explain my personal conclusion, if I had reached one, to anybody."

THIS NEWSPAPER contacted H. S. Tuttle of Eagle River, who is a member and leader of the John Birch society movement in this community. Tuttle has been the Republican party chairman for Vilas county for several years, but recently submitted a letter of resignation.

Tuttle said he had not seen the book "The Politician", and that even if Mr. Welch had written the things he is now credited with, that he understood it dated back six years ago and was not current. Tuttle said he did not believe that President Eisenhower was a communist agent, and did not believe it was proper to find him guilty only due to association with people who may be suspected of being communists.

By coincidence Milton Eisenhower is staying at Land o' Lakes this week on vacation. This newspaper also contacted him and informed him of the statements by the leader of the John Birch society.

Eisenhower said he had never heard of the society and did express a surprised "migosh" when he was informed of the statements. He said he would not comment on it as he had a policy of never making political statements. He said if he had an opportunity to see and read "The Politician" he might say something about it.

Tuttle said he thought the current reference about various presidents being called communist was related to a letter, rather than a manuscript or book—and this letter was written about 1954.

* * *

MRS. RUEBER WANTED to know where the Milwaukee Journal had obtained a copy since the book was not supposed to be seen by "ordinary" society members or outsiders.

"Someone," she said, "broke a confidence."

Johnson said he shared the bulk of Welch's views, but shied away from hanging a Communist label on the President.

He said at first that he "had no idea" if Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist.

"I only know that if he is not, he might as well be," he said. "It is a moot question. The results of his administration are the same."

Later he added: "I don't think Eisenhower is bright enough to be permitted to be one of the party."

Welch's goal is a million members. He declined to say how many members were in the society nationally or in what states chapters had been organized. He said organization was going "nicely in Wisconsin," adding that Wisconsin was a "good, conservative state."

Asked if he still held the views expressed in "The Politician," he said he would not comment.

Welch describes the society in the "Blue Book," which he also wrote and which is distributed more widely among members than "The Politician."

"The men who join the John Birch society . . . are going to be doing so primarily because they believe in me and what I am doing and are willing to accept my leadership anyway," he wrote.

"We are going to use that loyalty, like every other resource, to the fullest possible advantage that we can. Whenever and wherever, either through infiltration by the enemy or honest differences of opinion, that loyalty ceases to be sufficient to keep some fragment in line, we are not going to be in the position of having the society's work weakened raging debates.

* * *

"WE ARE NOT going to have factions developing on the two-sides-to-every question theme. Those members who cease to feel the necessary degree of loyalty can either resign or will be put out."

In the same book, Welch outlines his philosophy.

"Democracy, of course, in government or organization, as the Greeks and Romans found out, and as I believe .... democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud."

The society is named after John Birch, an American army captain and fundamentalist Baptist minister, who allegedly was murdered by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J Day. The society was founded by Welch on December 9, 1958, in Indianapolis with the support of a small group of businessmen.

Under the Welch program, each chapter gets a monthly "John Birch Bulletin," which Welch edits. This usually gives the "assignment" for the month and lists suggested reading matter. Frequently there are suggestions for a letter writing campaign to congressmen on legislation.

Dues are $24 a year for men and $12 for women.

Although only high leaders know membership figures, the society is growing fast, according to law enforcement sources. Wisconsin has between 150 and 200 members, according to Johnson and Mrs. Rueber. They were enrolled in less than a year. This factor, plus the high level of influence and intelligence of members, disturbs law enforcement officials.

Welch writes skillfully and uses movies effectively of himself speaking in making his points.

He was born in Chowan county, North Carolina. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina; attended the United States Naval academy for two years and, finally, Harvard law school. He was in charge of sales and advertising of the firm that bears his name. He was vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee and, in 1950, a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket.

Member's Monthly Message

Home Chapter Members:

Fill out any of the spaces you may wish, on the inside of this sheet. Sign both your name and address at the bottom. Refold the sheet, put it in the addressed envelope we have provided, and mail it to us in Belmont.

Local Chapter Members:

Fill out any of the spaces you may wish, on the inside of this sheet. Sign both your name and address at the bottom. Refold the sheet, put it in the addressed envelope we have provided, seal the envelope, and deliver it to your Chapter Leader at the next meeting of your chapter. Do not mail the envelope yourself, as your Chapter Leader will expect to collect an envelope from every member.

These envelopes, still sealed, will be mailed by your Chapter Leader to the Home Office. If your envelope contains a contribution, a routine but grateful acknowledgment will, in due course, be mailed from the Home Office directly to yourself.

To All Members:

Whatever we have been able to accomplish so far has been primarily due to the fact that we are a very closely knit group. It is our intention to keep The John Birch Society equally closely knit even when we grow into a much larger body.

This monthly message from each individual member—in a standardized form which will make it far more practicable for us to process than would be diversified correspondence from so large a number—will serve to maintain closer ties and more complete understanding throughout our constantly growing membership.

With Regard To Finances—Reprinted From The Bulletin For July, 1960

We have always run the business affairs of the Society on as sound a basis as we could. We have expanded our efforts only when we could clearly see where the money was coming from to cover the additional costs. For this reason The John Birch Society has never been short of money, in the usual sense; that is, to meet payrolls or to pay its bills. But in another sense we have been drastically short of money at all times. For the opportunities just waiting for us, as fast as we could finance further growth, have been almost unlimited. And the need for growth has seemed very urgent.

We have now reached the stage where that problem will be increasingly acute. For our organization is not just one of those collections of names, to which leaflets are sent out now and then in the hope that the "members" are still interested—and are still members. Ours is a pulsating machine, tightly assembled, with hundreds of wheels turning at the ends of shafts that are activated in unison. The whole throbbing apparatus requires plenty of fuel, oil, and supervisory attention. The operating costs, therefore, are more than twice the dues available for that purpose.

This is something that many of our members do not realize. And, for obvious reasons, we shall not go into any detailed accounting. But any member with business experience, a sharp pencil, and a little patient study can readily verify for himself the conservatism of the following estimates. In a "fully developed" area, where a Coordinator already has from twenty-five to thirty chapters established and functioning properly (the maximum a Coordinator can manage, even without devoting any time or effort to forming new chapters), the monthly dues received will pay just about one-half of the costs involved. In the more usual situation, where a full-time salaried Coordinator has some ten or twelve chapters already formed, but is devoting most of his time and energy (and traveling expenses) to establishing new chapters, the dues received will pay for only one-fourth to one-third of the costs of the area.

In both cases these costs include: The salary and expenses of the Coordinator, whose regular attendance at chapter meetings is imperative if we are to grow in morale and effectiveness as well as numbers; the printing, mailing, and postage charges for our bulletins; the books, pamphlets, tape recordings, and films supplied; and the correspondence, supervision, miscellaneous expenses, and overhead at the home office. They do not include any pay for "top management," for your Founder has never drawn a penny of remuneration from either the Society or the magazine. And they still make no provision for new film production, or new projectors and tape recorders and equipment—at the Home Office and in the field—which are the prerequisites of further expansion.

While the Society was small we have been able to make up the indicated deficit by dues from Life Memberships, and by sizable contributions from a comparatively few individuals. But with the deficit per chapter now being multiplied by an ever larger number of chapters, the total deficit becomes entirely too large for meeting in any such manner. We would soon be obliged to hold back the Society's growth—instead of seeking expansion, to refuse even to allow it to expand—unless there were some way to make up the difference between dues and costs. And while some increase in minimum dues may become inevitable in time, we desperately wish to avoid any such increase over the next few months.

We are, therefore, taking all proper steps we can devise towards obtaining sufficient income, besides that from dues, to enable us to keep on pushing ahead as aggressively as sound organizational development will permit. There are various such steps that we shall not discuss here. But the one that we hope will prove to be most productive—the one to which these paragraphs have been leading—is this appeal for strictly voluntary but regular monthly contributions, from all of our individual members who can afford such contributions in addition to their dues.

We are aware that a routine procedure, whereby our Chapter Leaders consistently follow through on this appeal for us, is necessary to its continuing success. We are, therefore, taking advantage of the system of Member's Monthly Messages, which we are inaugurating this month, to enable every Chapter Leader to collect from every member whatever contribution that member may be willing to make, without the slightest embarassment to anybody. For each such contribution will be enclosed in advance, with the member's message, in the sealed envelope to be taken up at the Chapter Meeting. All envelopes will be forwarded together to headquarters, by the Chapter Leader, along with the regular dues separately collected, and his report of the meeting. A routine but grateful acknowledgment will go from the Home Office directly to each contributing member. And nobody except myself and one or more assistants in Belmont will know who is not making a contribution, who is, or how much is the contribution of any member.

The last point is significant. For we wish to emphasize again something we have said many times in the past; that we do not want anybody to make any contribution to The John Birch Society unless he or she really wishes to do so. We know that some of our very best, most dedicated and most helpful members cannot afford any payments beyond their dues. The monthly messages from such members will be just as welcome and just as important as those from others who may contribute anywhere from two dollars to a hundred dollars each per month. But if all of us do all that we can, in every way that we can, we shall make The John Birch Society a mighty factor in saving and restoring, for our children and their children, the glorious country and humane civilization which we ourselves inherited. Time, energy, and money are all "of the essence" in our great undertaking.

Foreword

One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.
Alfred Tennyson

The John Birch Society is growing -- in numbers, in strength, and in effectiveness.

We are but one newly formed regiment on the world-wide field where great armies fight. Within that regiment we have soldiers who have taken too casually their recruitment and their duties. We have others who are not yet sufficiently armed with the weapons of fact and understanding. We have not been able to finance or to train lieutenants, captains, and majors in this regiment as fast as they have been needed, to supply as much of the guidance, the encouragement, and the inspiration at local levels as we would have liked. We are still young, and with all of the growing pains and problems of any healthy body that is rapidly gaining stature.

Also, many of our regiments' ablest soldiers are warriors who have been in this fight for a long time. Frequently at great cost to their individual careers and happiness -- and with all the frustration of voices crying in the wilderness -- they have helped to hold back our collectivist enemies during disheartening years,

I am writing today to my Congressman, Allen Smith, 20th District, California, asking him to send me a copy or tell me where I can buy a p copy of the pamphlet, COMMUNIST TARGET - YOUTH, including your report of the San Francisco riots.

I congratulate you on this report. I am a member of the John Birch Society, and we are back of you 100%.

I teach in a private school, and I am the author of a textbook in American History, published by The John C. Winston Co. of Philadelphi and taken out of print mysteriously. Less than three weeks ago, after a hard-fought legal battle for over a year, I finally got my contract cancelled with the John C. Winston Co. Now, I am revising the book for another publisher who will sell it to independent schools, since a text with American History unslanted can't be sold to public schools, apparen nor can a publisher list such a book in his catalog, apparently, if he wants to keep his business on other texts in other subjects with public schools.

Enclosed is copy of a program on which I spoke on Communist infiltration in textbooks in Portland, Oregon, recently.

A record of problems involved in writing the textbook in American History - QUEST OF A HEMISPHERE - was reported to the F.B.I. office in Los Angeles from time to time. I will report the latest move to this of

This Anti-Communism School is the third conducted by Freedom Crusade here in Portland--But the 1st of this national magnitude. Very few schools have been conducted similar to this in America. But it is believed that as more people learn of the far reaching results that derive from this kind of school-there will be an ever increasing attempt to sponsor such an activity. The basic requirements that lead to a school of this kind are:

1. Vision of the NEED of a school
2. Belief in its effectiveness
3. Courage to attempt it
4. Understanding and leadership to operate it
5. Financial and operational program

AWAKE, AMERICA

Dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huss, Directors of FREEDOM CRUSADE
by Mr. Cliffort Baltzell

AWAKE, AMERICA, AWAKE! For a Foe is in our nation;
Awake, America, and pray, For a foes is in our land,
Thro' guile, with malice and cruel hate,
He plots us to ensnare;

AWAKE, AMERICA, AND WATCH AND PRAY!
GOD WILL HEAR AND WILL ANSWER PRAYER.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'r the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming:
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

Chorus:
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on!

Cho. Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah Glory, glory, Hallelujah! His truth is marching on!

America

My country, 'tis of thees, Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing: Land where my fathers died
Land of the pilgrims' pride, From every mountain side, Let Freedom Ring!

Dear Miss [redacted]

Your letter of August 9, 1960, has been received, and I am glad to know of your interest in "Communist Target--Youth."

To meet the increasing threat of subversive elements in our society today, it certainly is the responsibility of all citizens to become fully informed on the general nature of the communist menace, and I am enclosing some other publications which you may find of interest. Your thoughtful message is encouraging.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have learned of your report on the communist target - our youth and have sent for 2 copies. I want to thank you in advance for your unceasing fight against communist. I shall be doing everything in my power to assist you by bringing the message to my friends, relatives, business acquaintances - and to my enemies too, if possible.

I also want to express my sincere admiration for your steadfastness in view of the malicious lies, attacks, tactics that the commies employ against anyone treading on their toes. Your courage has given me courage to fight, in spite of the possible reprisals I may experience from my efforts to warn Americans of the danger.

Naturally I do not expect a reply to this letter - I would much prefer you spend your time in the far more important business of exposing commies. I hope we conservatives may be able to provide you the means for expelling commies after you have ferreted them out. Certainly our present set-up, especially the Supreme Court, destroys everything you are trying to do.

ATTENTION: SAC, MINNEAPOLIS

Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent requests the following information concerning the John Birch Society:

1. "Are Mr. Robert Welch and other leaders of the John Birch Society beyond suspicion as to their allegiance to the United States of America?"
2. "Is there the slightest possibility that the John Birch Society is subversive or communist front?"
3. "In your opinion is the true purpose of the organization the same as that stated in the Blue Book?"

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I realize that you are an exceedingly busy man and will, therefore, attempt to get to the point in as few words as possible.

A short time ago a friend from Dallas, Texas, introduced my wife and I to "The John Birch Society" through the loan of a Blue Book of the John Birch Society. After reading the book we were both so enthusiastic that we have now interested some thirty others in joining the society. None of us have actually joined the society as yet, since we must admit we know very little about the organization, other than through literature printed by them. As a group we have varying degrees of reservation regarding this organization, but have agreed that a clean bill of health from you is essential to our continued interest.

We certainly realize that neither the Federal Bureau of Investigation, nor yourself personally, can endorse the John Birch Society. However, if at all possible, we will sincerely appreciate answers to the following questions:

1. Are Mr. Robert Welch and other leaders of the John Birch Society beyond suspicion as to their allegiance to the United States of America?

2. Is there the slightest possibility that the John Birch Society is subversive or communist front?

3. In your opinion is the true purpose of the organization the same as that stated in the Blue Book?

As members of the John Birch Society we are studying world affairs, engaging in political races, and trying to help stem the onrushing Communist tide.

Why don't we "brainwash" our young children with some of your pamphlets, speeches, tape recordings? Are any available to present to junior high school students?

Do you have any suggestions to give us grown-ups on what to do to keep our Country from being taken over by Communists in the not-to-distant future?

I am writing this letter in order to encourage you to carry on your work against communism in the same courageous fashion as you have done in the past. I know that this fight is a hard and discouraging one, but I believe that there is still hope.

As a member of the John Birch Society, which, incase you are not familiar with it, is a nation-wide group dedicated to fighting socialism and communism in the United States, I wish to assure that there is a movement however small, to awake, inform, and uphold America and its principles.

Again, let me offer encouragement to you and your Bureau. I am not expecting an answer to this letter.

I want to thank you for the wonderful job you are doing. The F.B.I. and our House and Senate Investigating Committees are the only reliable source of information the people of this nation have. Thank you especially for the work on your recent pamphlet Communist Target - Youth.

Our John Birch Society Chapter viewed the Operation Abolition film last Tues. night. If this doesn't awaken some of sleeping nation nothing will.

Sir,

Just a line to congratulate you on the fine work you are doing to preserve our patriotic patrimony, the latest example of which is embodied in the HUAC bulletin on the Communist infiltration of our youth. I am writing to Representative Davis for a copy of this report.

You are no doubt aware of our organization. We, in our own small way are trying to buffer your work. We look to you as a sterling example and a leader in this struggle against these traitors in our midst. Keep up the good work. May you never falter.

No answer is required to this letter. It is written to let you know that we patriots appreciate what you are doing.

Yours very sincerely,

Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent, in a lengthy letter, requests information concerning the John Birch Society. He states that he has considered joining this organization and would appreciate any guidance which can be given to him. Correspondent states, "It is because of my great faith in you as the most outstanding American that I request this information."

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Sir:

Recently I have been approached and asked to join an organization about which I know nothing, except that which a Doctor Pavey, Chas. W. has told me or which has been given to me in the printed form. This organization is "The John Birch Society" and its founder is Robert Welch of Belmont, Mass.

Being a man of almost seventy years of age I have long been aware of the existence and activities and aims of the Communist Party thru out the world and within our own borders. My first knowledge began in the year of 1919 which is said to be the year that the Communist Party of the United States was formed. I have never been a member of the Communits Party nor have I believed in any thing the claim to stand for. I have, however, been greatly concerned about the rapid progress that the Communist have made in the past twenty five years toward its ultimate goal of world domination. I have also been greatly disturbed by the extent that they have infiltrated our own country and government and it is for this reason that I accept an invitation to attend a meeting held by the John Birch Society last night at Doctor [redacted]'s home.

Being well aware of the Communist tatics of forming well sounding organization as Communist Fronts I am not about to join any organization unless I can satisfy myself that the organization is not, in any degree, supported by Communists and , further that the organization is a legal one and stands for things and principles that I, as an American, can support whole heartedly and unshamefully.

I understand that the Federal Bureau of Investigation does not give out information relating to any individual but that it keeps a complete record of every communist front organization within our borders. Can you, therefore, give me any information about the John Birch Society that would enable me to judge for myself, if not thru your advice, the exact status of this organization and/or it founder or founders.

In order that you may have some information of my own status as an American I will say that I am willing to take an oath at anytime that I have never been a Communist and have never knowingly aided them in anyway nor have I ever accepted any of the teachings and theorys that the organization stands upon. Further I am a World War I veteran, a past Commander of a Legion (American) post and now a member of that organization. My two sons were a part of WorldWar II and the Korean War. During the year of my Commandership of the Leslie Kreps Post, American Legion, of Salina, Kansas I had contact with one of the fore runners of Communism in our land. This organization was know as the I.W.W's. I am also a retired Architect. August 1st 1945 my Company transferred my office to Los Angeles where we lived until 1959. While at Los Angeles I had an ocassion to go to the Federal Bureau of Investigation to convey to them some information relating to the activities of an individual whom I deemed to be a Communist.

During recent years I have been greatly disturbed by the acts of our Supreme Court and law makers (Congress) and the apparent infiltration of Communists within our government and the ineffectivemess with which they have met this Communistic threat. I am concerned about the infiltration of Communist within labor organization, business, churches politics and every other phase of our National life. Therefore, I, and I believe many millions of other Americans would be willing to put forth every effort to combat these evil influences, if they had a leader and/or organization in which they could place absolute faith and trust.

It is for these reasons that I am writing you to request that you provide me with what ever information and guidance you can offer me in respect to the John Birch Society. It is because of my great faith in you as the most outstanding American that I request this information.

Sincerely and Repsectfully yours,

By: Myron E. Johnson

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I write you this letter of thanks and congratulations upon the fine report entitled "Communist Target -- Youth" released last month by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Since I am the parent of two teen-age boys, I am doubly aware of the influences placed upon them in these difficult days. As valedictorian of his class last June, my youngest son was told he could not mention the S.F. riots on the HUAC because they were too "controversial".

The S.F. riot film and Dr. George Benson's "Communism on the Map" could do a great deal to awaken students to the situation we face with the Communist conspiracy. Do you have any suggestion as to how we could have these shown in our schools?

Our John Birch Society is doing everything in its power to educate the people. We thank you for all that you are doing.

Sincerely,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just written for your report, released by the House Committee on Un-American Activities in a pamphlet entitled "Communist Target--Youth".

A fervent "thank you" is all I can offer you. Except that I dedicate myself to your support and renew my faith in the United States and our American way.

Members of the John Birch Society throughout our land are supporting your efforts to drive home to the American people the dangers we all face.

May God bless you and continue to give you strength sufficient for you task.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Thank you very much for your letter of August 11, 1960, regarding my comments concerning the demonstrations which took place recently at the hearings of the Committee on Un-American Activities of the House of Representatives in San Francisco.

It was indeed thoughtful of you to write me about this, and in view of your interest in combating communism, I am enclosing some other material which you may like to read. If you secure any information which you believe involves a matter within our jurisdiction, please feel free to contact representatives of our Portland Office located at 402 U. S. Dear Mr. Hoover:

Your report to the House Un-American Activities Committee is concise and to the point. It supplies the facts which should wake people up to the serious presence of communists in our midst, as in SanFrancisco.

I am writing to you as a member of the John Birch Society and shortly hope to have information to pass on to you or your office in Seattle that maybe of interest.

No answer to my letter is expected, just use all your time in your work where you are doing a wonderful job.

Dear Mr Hoover:

I have just completed your article "Communist Target - Youth," published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Also I have recently viewed the film of the activities that went on during the hearings in San Francisco May 12-14, 1960.

Approximately one month ago I wrote our Editor of the Columbus Dispatch concerning the terrible display of left wing Communist agitation and student rioting in San Francisco on our HCUA and fortunately enough it was published in that paper.

I have read several of your articles and am trying to keep abreast of this thing as best I can. We citizens must have the sword of knowledge in order to fight back properly.

Wanted to let you know we certainly appreciate your courage that you so nobly display and want you to continue. The John Birch Society is in back of you 100% - and our membership is growing rapidly.

Your letter dated August 12, 1960, has been received, and the interest which prompted your communication is indeed appreciated.

In response to your inquiry, I must advise that the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the FBI do not extend to furnishing evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. The FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not issue clearances or nonclearances.

The Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, has prepared and released a pamphlet entitled "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" which may be of interest to you. This pamphlet may be obtained for thirty-five cents per copy by communicating with the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Corner North Capitol and H Streets, Northwest, Washington 25, D. Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

The Cinema Educational Guild, whose Director is Myron C. Fagan, is allegedly an anticommunist group which has been responsible for the distribution of anti-communist, anti-Negro and anti-Semitic pamphlets. Fagan in the past has attempted to use the Director's name in furtherance of his programs and it has been necessary on several occasions to contact him and request that he refrain from mentioning the FBI in any way. (62-87267)

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. "Communist Target - Youth."
2. "Communist Party, USA," reprint from the April 30, 1960, issue of "Ave Maria."
3. Reprint from the "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," March, 1960, with analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA.
4. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."
5. "God and Country or Communism?"
6. "How to Beat Communism."
7. "Communism: The Bitter Enemy of Religion."
8. "Communist 'New Look.'"

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent states that she is writing to the Bureau for a group of people who are alarmed at the threat of communism to our country. She asked whether or not the John Birch Society and the Cinema Educational Guild, Incorporated, are subversive organizations. Correspondent asked "Are any pamphlets available on subversive people, organizations and activities? Are any available on how to combat these things? Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am writing this letter for a group of people who are increasingly alarmed about the threat of communism to our country. We have become interested in The John Birch Society and in the information given out by the Cinema Educational Guild, Inc. as to subversives in the entertainment field.

Is it possible to ascertain whether or not these organizations are subversive? There are millions of citizens who are concerned but who need some person or some informed group to lead the way to correcting our laws and correcting our national disinterest.

Has the FBI any direct approach to our problems as individuals interested in action? Are any pamphlets available on subversive people, organizations and activities? Are any available on how to combat these things? Please send me any information you have available.

NOTE: Correspondent is not identifiable in Bufiles. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watching its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, has indicated that his group may attempt to take on the appearance of a front organization in an effort to attract true subversives.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I read with interest in the August bulletin of The John Birch Society of the pamphlet COMMUNIST TARGET -- YOUTH. I have written the House Committee on Un-American Activities requesting a copy. Do hope they are available, but assure you that if our chapter receives only a few copies they will be passed around.

I value Mr. Robert Welch's opinion so highly that I'd like to congratulate you on this report in advance of reading it!

No answer is expected - am sure that you will receive many letters from other members of the John Birch Society.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

It is all too seldom that we take the time to express appreciation to one to whom we owe so much. But I do want to do so now for your excellent report for the Un American Activites Committee report on the spring San Francisco riots. I sincerely hope that it will help people to realize that "it can happen here" and who and what is the motivatting force behind them.

The American people owe you and your men so much more than they seem to comprehend - and we pray they will not have to learn too late.

As an individual and as a member of the John Birch Society I want to thank you and assure you that you have and will continue to have my whole hearted admiration, respect and thanks for your work in helping to save America from her enemies within. They are our greatest danger as you know so much better than I.

Please do not feel that any answer to this little note of appreciation is expected. It is enough to know that you couldn't possibly answer the letters you get and still devote your time to the work you are doing, so again, thank you.

Most Sincerely

Dear Mr. Hoover

I would like to offer you my congratulations and thanks for your testimony before the HUAC on the San Francisco riots. I am a member of the John Birch Society, and because I make it my business to be informed on Communism, I can appreciate the work of the FBI as well as that of the HUAC. These two groups and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee are about the only remaining bastions in our government of active resistance to the horror that threatens to engulf us. As a member of a group which is fighting very hard to stop this tragedy which would be one of the most ironic and sorrowful in all history, I can say that what you have done means much to me personally. With best wishes I remain,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have read and re-read your bulletin "COMMUNIST TARGET - YOUTH as published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to you as a fellow American for this frightening information. This should certainly arouse apathetic American citizens out of their complacency. I shall do everything in my power to circulate this bulletin as widely as is possible for me to do so, with the hope that many more people will become aware that the time is now to arise and fight for what our fore-fathers gave their lives for.

I thank my Lord for Americans such as you. This comes from the very depths of my heart. Keep up your fine work - there are many that honor and respect you for what your influence means to this country.

Dear Mrs. [redacted]

I have received your letter of August 17, 1960, with enclosure, extending congratulations on my report entitled "Communist Target--Youth."

Your generous comments concerning this pamphlet and my book, "Masters of Deceit," are indeed appreciated, and I want to thank you for writing me in this regard. In response to your request, I am forwarding, under separate cover, ten copies each of the reprints you mentioned. There is no charge for this material, and the check you enclosed is being returned.

NOTE: Correspondent wrote to the Bureau July, 1960, inquiring about the background of the John Birch Society. She was advised of the confidential nature of our files by letter of 8-10-60, and she was sent the reprints she now requests. The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director of FBI

Dear Mr. Hoover,

First accept my congratulations on your excellent pamphlet entitled "Communist Target-Youth." It is a superb report and I wish it could be printed in every newspaper of the land. Perhaps through its message & medium every individual in the United States could be reached. I also wish you could write more pamphlets on different aspics of the same vital question or topic - "Communism." I write the above paragraph as a member of The John Birch Society of which I am a recent member.

Your wonderful book "Masters of Deceit" should be a must on every reading list in every school in our land and should be on every bookshelf in every home. If we could somehow get people to read more of this type of book & your pamphlets perhaps some of the apathy and indifference we encounter every day would be alleviated.

Now I want to express my appreciation and thanks for your very considerate answer to my letter and the pamphlets you sent me. And now I have a request. I am so anxious for others to read these reports, please send me posthaste copies of the papers you sent me as listed below:

10 - "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality Dec. 1959.
10 - A reprint for the FBI law Enforcement Bulletin, March, 1960. "An Analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA".
10 - "Communist Target-Youth"
10 - "God and Country or Communism?"

and anything more you have that might help to awaken people to our dangerous enemy. I enclose $5.00 . If this is not enough

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It is indeed a great pleasure to write to you today and tell you how much my husband and I have always admired you for your courageous stand against the communists and their subversive activities in the United States. We have read most of your books and have passed them out among our friends and acquaintances. We know too what great difficulties you must face each and every day.

We wish especially to thank you for the superb report you made in the pamphlet, entitled Communist Target -- Youth. We intend to order as many copies as possible for distribution in our community.

We learned of this pamphlet from Mr. Robert Welsh of the John Birch Society of which we are very proud to be members. As members of this excellent society we know we are not just sitting still so to speak waiting for the enemy to take us unawares, but we are fighting now and we intend to continue to do so until our last breath.

As we know you are a very busy person we expect no answer to this letter, but we did want you to know we are with you 100 per-cent.

Sincerely yours,

The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958 at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

Members of the Society were instructed in their monthly publication to write the Director these letters of congratulations.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover;

We want to thank you for your excellent work for America and particularly for your testimony in COMMUNIST TARGET --YOUTH. We are sometimes troubled by the thought that sometime another person might be called to carry on your work and we seriously doubt that such a person is available.

If you should find yourself wondering at times whether your work is worth the effort let us assure you that we appreciate it. We saw the film of the riot against the House Un-American Activities Committee and are convinced that without the work of this Committee and the F. B. I. our nation would not exist today. It is our prayer that the Lord with bless you with strength and wisdom to carry on this work.

We are doing our best to help alert our friends but without much success. However, we will continue. We are members of The John Birch Society and believe this may help to organize our efforts.

You need not take time to answer this letter.

May I heartily commend you on your statement made to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, released on January 17th, 1960; also for the data you supplied to House Committee on Un-American Activities covered by its pamphlet "Communist Target—Youth", published July 18th, 1960.

It is inconceivable that facts such as these can be published year after year and completely ignored by most of Congress and most of the public. I am a member of the John Birch Society to do what little it can to awaken people generally and to encourage those leading the fight, such as you.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I would like for you to know how sincerely we appreciate your efforts. How I wish a man of your abilities and convictions was in the office of President today. And how I wish that that office strived as hard at trying to do the right thing as your's does.

As a student at the University of Texas, and a member of the John Birch Society chapter here, I work to keep myself informed, and to inform others of the threats against our great nation. Last meeting we saw the film, Operation Abolition. I feel sure it will have the desired effects on the students this fall. I will do everything in my power to get as many of them to see it as possible.

Several of us have been working most of the summer to create a group effective enough to counteract the A.D.A.'s which are quite strong here. Our avowed purpose is to re-educate the average student. We are endeavoring to show him that there is nothing vulgar and bourgeoise about patriotism, and that our country became the greatest nation on earth under its present constitution without any sweeping "liberal" reforms or world government.

My best wishes and sincere thanks.

NOTE: Bufiles contain no references to Mrs. [redacted] In view of the difficulties that we experienced earlier this year with the Constitution Party of Texas with regard to their persistent efforts to have the Director run for the presidency on their ticket, no response is being given to her remarks concerning it. For the same reason our reply is being addressed to her apparent home address as opposed to the Constitution Party return address which is stamped on the envelope.

She points out in her letter that she is a member of The John (Birch) Society. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Congratulations on the fine work that you are doing. The pamphlet entitled COMMUNIST TARGET -- YOUTH is a fine report. I wish that it were possible for every citizen in this country to read it carefully.

Because I know that you are an extremely busy and important person, I do not expect an answer to this letter.

I am doing all that I can to help save our beloved country, and I know that you are doing the same. I am an active member of The John Society.

Looks like we just might have a new face in Congress from our 16th district. Many may be greatly surprised that we in the Constitution Party of TEXAS mean business. Our candidate will be another Bruce Alger running on a ticket that leaves no one wondering what our platform is.

Keep up the excellent work. My prayers are with you.

Sincerely yours,

INFORMATION CONCERNING (INTERNAL SECURITY)

For information of the Bureau, on August 18, 1960, Mrs. [redacted], Midland, Texas, who has requested that her name remain strictly confidential, advised SA ROY C. DAHL that she had attended a meeting of a chapter of the John Birch Society which was being organized in Midland, Texas. She said that the meeting was held in [redacted], Midland, Texas, and was attended by approximately 20 people. She said that Mr. [redacted]. She said the program opened with prayer, and after that a discussion was had concerning MAT CVETIC and his book. The Blue Book of the John Birch Society was offered for sale as was the book of MAT CVETIC. She said that there was a discussion of the DAN SMOOT reports, and a collection was taken up so that the chapter could subscribe to these reports. She said that the program proceeded by the playing of a tape made by Mr. EHRENS, Co-Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, which tape was on the subject of the growth of Communism, and took about one and one-half hours. She said there was some discussion about the growth of Communism in this and other countries, and a pamphlet from Human Events entitled "Growth-The Latest Socialistic Pitch" which was published July 14, 1960, was passed out to each person.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am a member of the "John Birch Society," founded by Robert Welch Jr. One of our assignments this month is directed to you to congratulate you on your report to the, House Committee on Un-American Activities." (Communist Target--Youth)

I was fortunate to have recieved three hundred copies of this report through our wonderful Congressman, Jack Westland. I am turning these over to the John Birch Chapter in this area. Our project is too try to obtain enough copies for each high school student in this area, mainly, Burlington, Sedro Wooley and Mount Vernon, Washington

We have also ordered the 16m. m. film taken at the San Francisco student riot and hope to show it in the schools. We can raise the money to pay for the film, but perhaps we will not be able to finance the distrituition of the pamphlet, but we are going to try. If you, Mr. Hoover can give us any help or advise it would be deeply appreciated.

We of this chapter are so fortunate to have as our chapter leader the Principal of Burlington High School, Mr. Rex Willard. He is a dedicated man in every sense of the word.

I sometimes wonder if we, who care so much, about are beloved country, are too late. In any case we must continue to work for Christian ideals and the continued freedom of this beloved country.

You, Mr. Hoover, supply us all with the inspired will to "do or die" for these ideals, and no attack upon you or the F. B. I. will ever change us, and I know I write this sentiment as an expression of all John Birch Society members. Thank you are going to try. If you, Mr. Hoover can give us any help or advise it would be deeply appreciated.

We of this chapter are so fortunate to have as our chapter leader the Principal of Burlington High School, Mr. Ben Willard. He is a dedicated man in every sense of the word.

I sometimes wonder if we, ~~we do care~~ so much, about our beloved country, are too late. In any case we must continue to work for Christian ideals and the continued freedom of this beloved country.

You, Mr. Hoover supply us all with the inspired will to "do or die" for these ideals, and no attack upon you or the F.B.I. will ever change us, and I know I write this sentiment as an expression of all John Birch Society members. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mrs [redacted]

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have several copies of one of your latest pamphets, "Communist Target-Youth", and I think it is excellent. I have given most of my copies away and urged others to write for more as well as other publications you have out.

Your article which the Texas Bar published was also top notch. You are to be commended ~~for your~~ fine endeavors in keeping the American people alerted to the dangers of the communist conspiracy in this country. I am doing my level best to see that these publications reach the right people - those who will also go out and publicize the danger of the conspiracy to the United States.

I am a Chapter Leader of the John Birch Society and this is the most effective organization that I have seen or belonged to. It is really catching hold in West Texas (and other places I am sure) and we intend to back you up every step of the way. Also, we intend to first educate our members and then aid them in taking effective action under the direction of our very able President, Robert Welch.

R

Keep up the good work, it surely is appreciated by all freedom-loving Americans.

ATTENTION: SAC, LOS ANGELES

Enclosed is a copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent. Adolph Menjou and Tom Duggan, mentioned by the correspondent, are well known to your office.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent states that Adolph Menjou, on the Tom Duggan television show, discussed politics and communism and urged the listeners to join the John Birch Society. She has written to this society, and is interested in joining, but desires to check on the organization before doing so. She states she would appreciate knowing if it is all it is supposed to be. b7D

Duggan is a television personality in Los Angeles, and is a controversial figure. He received unfavorable publicity several years ago when his wife shot at him for going out with another woman. (94-45641)

Dear Sir:

In re: The John Birch Society
Belmont 78, Mass.

Recently I saw Mr. Adolph Menjou on the Tom Duggan television show and he made many statements regarding politics and communism in Hollywood, most of which I agreed with. He is also a strong supporter of Senator Barry Goldwater, whom I also greatly admire. Mr. Menjou said anyone wishing to support the Constitution & help rid our country of Communists, etc., should join the John Birch Society, & gave the address.

The next day Tom Duggan was suspended from his TV program, supposedly because of an anti-Catholic joke his wife had previously told on his program. I noticed in the Times a few days later that the American Legion (composed of 200 members) was calling on the station manager to determine the real reason of his suspension, & then the next day, the paper stated that Tom Duggan had been re-instated & would appear again at his usual time.

I wrote the John Birch Society for literature and am interested in joining. However, my husband says that now days so many patriotic sounding organizations are just Communist fronts and for me not to join anything without checking with you first. So I would certainly appreciate knowing if it is all that it's supposed to be. I think everything possible should be done to awaken people to the Communist threat and I want to help support an organization such as this one, if it is bona fide.

I will certainly appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible. Many thanks in advance.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for recent literature sent to me, which included a copy of the above phamphlet. This has no form number; is stapled-22 pages; is "adopted from an article by Mr Hoover which was prepared for Members of the National Strategic Seminar held in Wash., D.C. during July, 1959."

If it is possible, I would like to request 50 to 100 copies of this phamphlet for distribution to a Mailing list of interested adults. I would also like to give some to a friend of Mine who teaches in a local neighborhood high school.

I have received your letter of August 23, 1960, regarding the John Birch Society.

Although I deeply appreciate your interest in writing, information in FBI files is confidential and available for official use only. For this reason, I am unable to help you, and I hope that you will not infer in this connection either that we do or do not have in our files material relating to this organization.

It was very kind of you to comment as you did about my statement, "Communist Target--Youth." In view of your concern regarding communism, I am enclosing some material which may be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In the past several weeks, I have become aware of "The John Birch Society" and desire to join this organization. Could you please inform me, if this Society is above board, and not a Communist front organization.

I would also take this opportunity to commend you and your organization for the fine dedicated work that you are doing to combat communism. I read with great interest your report on communism published last month by the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Dear Mr. Hoover -

Thank you so much for your answer to my last letter and for the literature you sent to me. I am writing again about a matter that has begun to concern me greatly just recently.

Several months ago I joined the John Birch Society feeling I wanted to do my part in helping to fight communism in this country. Membership in this society has been a good thing for me. I have read more and have become much better informed about what is going on in the world. While I think what he is trying to do is basically good, I am beginning to wonder about Robert Welch. He seems to be a little too much of a fanatic to suit me. I recently read an article by Jack Mabley in the Chicago Daily News which quoted Welch as claiming in a letter that Eisenhower and most of his aides - John Foster and Allen Dulles, Earl Warren, Neil McElroy - are communists. Either this is a mis-quote (which I don't believe a Columnist, no matter how liberal, would do) - or I have mis-read the article - or Welch is a complete "crackpot." I find myself wondering which side the communists are on. On of their aims certainly is to undermine the confidence of the American people in their government - and Welch seems to be doing an awful lost of just that.

I would appreciate very much having the F. B. I.'s opinion of Robert Welch and his John Birch Society.

This is a difficult battle we are engaged in. The enemy takes so many different forms - I do want to be sure we are following the right leader -

Thank you for your help and interest.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Please accept this expression of gratitude for the many years of devoted, unflinching duty to the preservation of our freedom.

Without your efforts, we could not presently be engaged in our battle for America.

This letter is prompted by the very lucid account of the "student" riots which occurred at the San Francisco hearings of the House Unamerican Activities Committee.

This report, along with more quiet demonstrations of communist infiltration have prompted me to join with the John Birch Society.

If my all too inadequate abilities are ever needed, I will do whatever is asked.

No acknowledgement is required.

With sincere best wishes for you and your compatriots, I remain,

August 20, 1960

Dear Sir:

Your excellent account entitled Communists Target Youth--, dealt a real blow to many complacent people. So many are waking up to the fact that a real crisis is here. Anytime any of your material is available it is passed around many times. Even the complacent preachers cannot deny your findings, which we find is a real measuring stick, as they continue to discount any reliable source by inferring it is taken out of context ect. Due to the John Birch Society and other groups the ranks of loyal Americans are swelling. As a mother of five children, I must continue to expose and fight this in any way I can. I shall be looking forward to much more of your material.

ATTENTION: SAC, DALLAS

The correspondent advised that the John Birch Society has been recommended as an organization to fight communism. He, therefore, wrote to the Bureau to determine if we had any information regarding the organization or if we could refer him to some individual or agency which has such information. He stated he did not desire to join the John Birch Society without a thorough investigation. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. DEAR MR. HOOVER:

THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY HAS BEEN STRONGLY RECOMMENDED TO ME AS AN ORGANIZATION FOUNDED SPECIFICALLY TO FIGHT THE EVILS OF SOCIALIZATION AND COMMUNISM.

I FEEL THAT IT IS MY DUTY TO FIGHT THESE TWO EVILS WHICH THREATEN OUR DEMOCRACY. IN THAT CONNECTION, I AM WRITING TO YOU SPECIFICALLY TO FIND OUT IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION REGARDING THIS ORGANIZATION, OR IF YOU CAN REFER ME TO SOME RESPONSIBLE INDIVIDUAL OR AGENCY WHO DOES. I AM QUITE COGNIZANT OF THE FACT THAT THERE ARE SOME ORGANIZATIONS WHICH APPEAR TO BE ANTI-COMMUNIST, BUT WHICH ARE ACTUALLY COMMUNIST FRONTS. I DO NOT WANT TO JOIN THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY WITHOUT A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION.

I SHALL APPRECIATE YOUR ATTENTION TO THIS MATTER, AND IF IT IS NECESSARY FOR YOU TO FORWARD THIS TO SOME OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR AGENCY FOR SPECIFIC ANSWER, I SHALL FURTHER APPRECIATE YOUR DOING THAT RATHER THAN RETURNING THE INQUIRY TO ME DIRECTLY. OF COURSE, IN THE EVENT SUCH ACTION IS NECESSARY, I SHALL APPRECIATE A CARBON COPY OF YOUR LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL. b6 b7C

It is noted that the case covered the period 2-21-58 to 4-22-58, and at the time Miss [redacted] was a 12-year-old juvenile residing in Fort Worth. USA, Fort Worth, declined prosecution and case was closed. The salutation "Miss" is used inasmuch as the spelling '[redacted]' is typical for a female.

Letter to Miss [redacted]

NOTE: cont....

The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization which was founded by Robert Welch in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them to furnish any information regarding their activities to the Bureau.

A monthly publication of this organization instructed all members to write to the Director regarding his pamphlet, "Communist Target--Youth."

KC 62-CITIZENS AGAINST COMMUNISM
Wichita, Kansas

The August 1960 issue of "The Kay Cee Kay", which has just been released, contained as a feature cartoon, the item which is described as enclosure #1. In view of the favorable light in which the FBI is presented in this cartoon, inquiry was made of Mr. MAURICE TUDOR, Editor, to determine whether the cartoon was original or syndicated. Mr. TUDOR advised that this cartoon was furnished his paper by captioned organization. He said they expected to receive further cartoons of an anti-Communist nature for publication in subsequent monthly editions.

Referenced Kansas City letter advised of the formation of captioned organization for the purpose of purchasing and distributing 1,000 copies of the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit". In referenced letter, three prominent and wealthy individuals were identified as sponsoring the organization, including Mr. FRED KOCH, President of the Wood River Oil Company.

Kansas City letter dated July 31, 1957 captioned FRED C. KOCH, 321 West Douglas, Wichita 2, Kansas, furnished background information concerning KOCH, including information concerning a trip by KOCH to the USSR in 1956. This information was furnished the Bureau in connection with a letter from KOCH to the Director dated July 19, 1957.

Kansas City letter dated January 7, 1960 furnished information concerning the reproduction in the Wichita evening Eagle at Wichita, Kansas of an unfavorable editorial which appeared originally in the Louisville, Kentucky Courier-Journal. Also set out was information concerning a petition signed by 44 individuals who vigorously protested to the Wichita Eagle, publication of the Courier-Journal article. By letter to the Director dated January 5, 1960, Mr. KOCH called attention to this matter and indications are that he sponsored the petition in support of the Bureau.

Kansas City letter dated June 2, 1960, captioned ROBERT H. WELCH, JR., INFORMATION CONCERNING, (INTERNAL SECURITY). This letter further identifies KOCH as having business interests throughout the world and to be connected with numerous oil companies. KOCH's support of the formation of a John Birch Society in Wichita was set out. KOCH is described as supporting ROBERT H. WELCH financially in the formation of the John Birch Society in the Wichita area.

KC 62-CITIZENS AGAINST COMMUNISM
Wichita, Kansas

Kansas City files further reflect that on June 6, 1960, Captain [redacted] U. S. Marine Corps, Wichita, Kansas, furnished information concerning the John Birch Society, the Marine Corps League and captioned organization. Captain [redacted] was concerned because of the association between the Marine Corps League and captioned organization. He explained that the League had no official connection with the Marine Corps but because of the name "Marine", the League's action would reflect on the Marine Corps. Captain [redacted] furnished five post cards, which are described above as enclosures 2 through 6. He stated these cards were "so rabid they might cause lack of faith in Government leaders". b6 b7C

A memorandum dated August 1, 1960, reflects information received from [redacted] Mrs. [redacted] identified herself as a [redacted] for the Kansas City Kansan newspaper. She advised that FRED C. KOCH was the speaker at a luncheon meeting on July 28, 1960 and that he commented to the effect that 20 "bombs" in the United States are under the control of Russia, that the head man in the Pentagon is a Russian spy and that the Russians have infiltrated every phase of American life. b6 b7C

It appears very likely that further cartoons will be distributed by captioned organization and that further post cards will be available. In view of his strong pro-Bureau attitude and excellent reputation, UACB, Mr. KOCH will be discreetly contacted on or after August 23, 1960 for information concerning enclosure #1 described above, and for copies of any other post cards and cartoon mats which relate to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

As both a concerned American and an interested student on the communist conspiracy, I have written to the House Committee on Un-American Activities to obtain information. Just this week I wrote the committee and requested the pamphlet which was produced under your direction; "Communist Target- - Youth", by name.

I am concerned about all phases of the communist drive to conquer the world, but more so about the happenings right here in America. What so many people think is a bunch of nonsense and can't happen here (my own minister included) is already occurring and has. Two examples are the San Francisco and Newport student riots. With the afore mentioned pamphlet, I hope to dispell the false securities established by those complacent people I've met, especially with such timely evidence on the recent riots.

I'm sure I can more capably eulogize your pamphlet after I read it. But as I have not received my requested copy, I shall, for the time being, contain my praise in my appreciation for your timeliness in this effort. The light is on for those who will open their eyes and see the truth, even while the rumblings of thet communist inspired outbursts have not yet dissipated. I feel, too, that the education for American salvation from communism is advanced another step whenever accurate information of this sort is made available.

I do not expect you to answer my letter in this case, not that I would refuse the obligation. I only realize that you will undoubtedly receive many letters on this situation aside from being very busy anyway. Many of the letters you will receive will be from John Birch Society members like myself.

The John Birch Society would not be mentioned here, as that name is not flaunted in almost any instance, were it not for the general feeling (of the group) that your department know of the type of material we think necessary to combat communism. Needless to say, "Communist Target -- Youth" can and will be used as a literary "fixed bayonet".

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Thank you so very much for your years of service to your country. I only wish that we could learn even more of Communistic attempts to subvert out government before it is too late. I have just finished reading your report to the HUAC dealing with Communist Target--Youth. I have made every attempt to place a copy of it into the hands of as many teenagers as I can find. Why do these God-hating animals want to destroy the free Christian world? But since it is quite obvious, even to this housewife that they do, we must do everything possible within the law to stop them. Please keep us informed. In our local chapter of the John Birch Society, we have obtained a copy of the recent film on the San Francisco Riots. We will show this to everyone! We won't let them smear you and your organization in our area, and know that others throughout the country will join in the fight against them. Again may I thank you for my children's sake,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

In the past several months I have become quite aware of the advances made by communism in this country & I am alarmed at the way people react to this danger. Especially there "do nothing altitude.

My husband & I have joined the John Birch Society & feel that this is a start. Robert Welch of Mass. organized it and with a board of distinguished members, runs it. Our objective is to send letters to our congressmen & men in the government to combat the Communist mail on legislative matters etc. Another thing we do is read all we can (that is approved by the Society) to get ourselves informed and try to wake up other people.

I am very much interested in your opinion of this organization and would be grateful if you have any other suggestions on what we can do.

The John Birch Society is against the Connelley Amendment, Foreign Aid to our enemys (which is almost everyone). We also appreciate the good work you do.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As an ex-naval officer and a loyal citizen, the continued growth of communism in our country is of great concern to me and my family. It is with this thought in mind that we attended a meeting the other evening at the request of a personal friend, who is also an ex-naval doctor. The meeting was conducted by a member of the John Birch Society, address Belmont 78, Massachusetts.

They apparently primarily concern themselves by keeping abreast of current communist activities, Especially proposals which might influence our legislation. It would appear that this may be one way a responsible citizen can help in combatting communist inroads. I would appreciate your comments regarding the John Birch Society and if they are exactly what they appear to be on the surface.

Dear Sir:

I have just read your report entitled "Communist Target-Youth" published by the House Un-American Activities Committee. It certainly should be an eye-opener to anyone who reads it. Congratulations for the excellent job.

I have also read "Masters of Deceit". Many thanks for writing this book. This is what really opened my eyes as to what is happening in our country. I hope that it does the same for millions more.

The United States is indeed fortunate in having a man of your stature in the position you are in at this extremely critical period in our history.

Sincerely yours,

[redacted]

P.S. I also wish to advise you that I am a member of the John Birch Society.
Also, I do not expect a reply. I merely wished to commend you for the good work that you are doing.

The riot films are being viewed here continually by small groups, and tomorrow night it will be shown at our downtown Music Hall to a city-wide audience, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Most people are eager to get the non-press behind the scenes truth about several important matters. I believe your anti-communist efforts will ha ve a very wide support from the general public if they can get at more of the unadulterated truth.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

The Cinema Educational Guild, whose Director is Myron C. Fagan, is allegedly an anticommunist group which has been responsible for the distribution of anticommunist, anti-Negro and anti-Semitic pamphlets. Fagan in the past has attempted to use the Director's name in furtherance of his programs and it has been necessary on several occasions to contact him and request that he refrain from mentioning the FBI in any way. (62-87267)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent advises she has been approached to join the John Birch Society and would appreciate any information concerning it. She states that material distributed by the Society is most startling and, if true, the average citizens should attempt to take action. She indicates that one of its tracts entitled "Red Stars - No. 3," published by the Cinema Educational Guild, names various Hollywood personalities as being affiliated with communism. She states that she was formerly employed with the FBI.

Dear Sir:

In recent weeks, I have been approached to join an organization called the "John Birch Society." This group is alleged to be a patriotic organization dedicated to combating communism in our society.

I would appreciate any information pertaining to this society, particularly its founders, and any knowledge you can make available to me regarding its actions in the past. To wit, is it in reality a patriotic group or does it have subversive elements.

The literature distributed by the members of the group is most startling, and if true, we, the average citizens, should become alarmed and attempt to take action. The integrity of your bureau has never been questioned, and it is for this reason that I direct this letter to you. If you are unable to supply me with information, but know of some source which may, I would appreciate your advising me.

In one of their tracts entitled RED STARS - No. 3, published by the Cinema Educational Guild, Inc., P. O. Box 46205, Hollywood, a long list of names of Hollywood personalities is given with the allegation that they are all active communists and fellow-travelers, and the statement that this record is documented in the files of the House Un-American Activities Committee. To whom would I direct an inquiry as to the facts in this matter?

I was formerly employed by the bureau in Washington Bureau Headquarters, and had at that time and still retain the highest regard for your organization. My employment was listed Mildred Ethel Jones, social security number 466-24-6352. Your reply will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Attached is a letter from Congressman Bow referring a newspaper article regarding the John Birch Society in Wisconsin which was referred to Congressman Bow by Mr. George Deuble of Canton, Ohio. Bufiles contain no record regarding Mr. Deuble.

Congressman Bow is a member of the Appropriations Committee and a good friend of the Bureau. It is felt that he should be confidentially informed regarding the John Birch Society. The John Birch Society was founded by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr. a wealthy candy manufacturer, in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958. The organization is allegedly anticommunist and has branches over most of the country.

Welch has been extremely critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. He has in the past gone so far as to even call the President a communist. It is not known to what extent Mr. Welch is able to control his followers; however, it is known that he has a great deal to do with the Society's publications, the construction of their "reading list" and he is the author of the books, "The Politician" and the "Blue Book," which he has widely distributed to his followers. He has endeavored to give the members of the various branches his personal touch by preparing tapes which are played back to the members at their meetings. These tapes have reached 2 1/2 hours in length.

~~We are actively investigating this Society, and~~ We have alerted the field to forward any information on their activities to the Bureau. This is being done because Welch has indicated that his group may attempt to take on the appearance of a front organization in an effort to attract true subversives.

Group Branding Ike as Red Has 10 Wisconsin Chapters

John Birch Society Numbers 150 to 200 Members; Growth Disturbs Officials

By ALEX P. DONNER
Of The Journal Staff

Ten chapters of the John Birch society, founded by a man who believes that President Eisenhower is a dedicated Communist, have formed in Wisconsin in the last year.

The ostensible purpose of the society is to fight communism and influence American politics. Its members include such leading citizens as William J. Grede, Milwaukee industrialist.

Four branches have been formed in Milwaukee and one each in Wauwatosa, Green Bay, De Pere, Oshkosh, Appleton and Eagle River.

Retired Manufacturer

Mrs. John Rueber, 3014 S. Delaware av., the wife of a medical technician, is the Milwaukee area "co-ordinator." Richard Johnson, Green Bay, an accountant, is in charge of upstate activities.

The founder of the society is a wealthy, retired candy manufacturer, who lives in Belmont, Mass. He is Robert H. W. Welch, jr., 61, a persuasive speaker, conservative and the author of "The Politician."

"The Politician" is a manuscript of 302 pages which has been privately reproduced in book form by the photo-offset process. Leaders of the society have received copies from Welch with the admonition that the contents are "strictly confidential and for your eyes only."

The book tries to prove that Mr. Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscientious agent of the Communist party.

It claims that Mr. Eisenhower's brother, Milton, is the president's superior in the party and that a dozen other highly placed government men are either outright Communists or tools of the party.

Claims Presidents "Used"

Former President Roosevelt, the book says, was unknowingly used by the party. Ex-President Truman was knowingly used, it continues. As for President Eisenhower, page 268 reads:

"In my own opinion, the Communists have one of their own actually in the presidency. For this third man, Eisenhower, there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason."

Welch, Johnson and Mrs. Rueber deny that the book is used at meetings. Group leaders like Johnson and Mrs. Rueber have copies, however.

Neither Johnson nor Mrs. Rueber would disavow the contents of "The Politician." Mrs. Rueber said she had not reached a conclusion, adding: "I am not obligated to explain my personal conclusion, if I have reached one, to anybody."

Curious About Book

She wanted to know where The Milwaukee Journal had obtained a copy since the book was not supposed to be seen by "ordinary" society members or outsiders.

"Someone," she said, "broke a confidence."

Johnson said he shared the bulk of Welch's views, but shied away from hanging a Communist label on the president.

He said at first that he "had no idea" if Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist.

"I only know that if he is not, he might as well be," he said. "It is a moot question. The results of his administration are the same."

Later he added: "I don't think Eisenhower is bright enough to be permitted to be one of the party."

Welch's goal is a million members. He declined to say how many members were in the

Milwaukee Has Four John Birch Groups

society nationally or in what states chapters had been organized. He said organization was going "nicely in Wisconsin," adding that Wisconsin was a "good, conservative state."

Asked if he still held the views expressed in "The Politician," he said he would not comment.

On his letterhead inviting selected persons to join, Welch lists two other Wisconsin industrialists, besides Grede, as members of the society's national council.

They are E. P. Hamilton, Two Rivers, president of the Hamilton Manufacturing Co., maker of washing machines, dryers and office and drafting equipment, and Cola B. Parker, Neenah, former chairman of the board of Kimberly-Clark Corp., paper manufacturer. Both were out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Membership Confirmed

Grede confirmed that he was a council member. He said he didn't think Mr. Eisenhower was a Communist and said he had no comment about the book.

Welch describes the society in the "Blue Book," which he also wrote and which is distributed more widely among members than "The Politician."

"The men who join the John Birch society . . . are going to be doing so primarily because they believe in me and what I am doing and are willing to accept my leadership anyway," he wrote.

"We are going to use that loyalty, like every other resource, to the fullest possible advantage that we can. Whenever and wherever, either through infiltration by the enemy or honest differences of opinion, that loyalty ceases to be sufficient to keep some fragment in line, we are not going to be in the position of having the society's work weakened by raging debates.

Opposes Factions

"We are not going to have factions developing on the two-sides-to-every question theme. Those members who cease to feel the necessary degree of loyalty can either resign or will be put out."

In the same book, Welch outlines his philosophy.

"Democracy, of course, in government or organization, as the Greeks and Romans found out, and as I believe . . . democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud."

The society is named after John Birch, an American army captain and fundamentalist Baptist minister, who allegedly was murdered by Chinese Communists 10 days after V-J day. The society was founded by Welch on Dec. 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, with the support of a small group of businessmen.

Started in 1959

In Milwaukee the society began late in 1959 after Welch gave a privately attended talk here.

Mrs. Rueber's reason for organizing the first branch, she said, was:

"I couldn't sit back and wait for someone else to do it. Communism had been winning for some time."

She wrote to Welch saying that she was interested, and received instructions on how to organize and other necessary material. She knows Welch personally.

"I consider him a fine man," she said.

Mrs. Rueber said two chapters were on the east side, two on the south side and a fifth in Wauwatosa. Meetings usually were in private homes. She declined to say where meetings were held or when the next one will be. She said the press could not attend.

Under the Welch program, each chapter gets a monthly "John Birch Bulletin," which Welch edits. This usually gives the "assignment" for the month and lists suggested reading matter. Frequently there are suggestions for a letter writing campaign to congressmen on legislation.

Dues are $24 a year for men and $12 for women.

Although only high leaders know membership figures, the society is growing fast, according to law enforcement sources. Wisconsin has between 150 and 200 members, according to Johnson and Mrs. Rueber. They were enrolled in less than a year. This factor, plus the high level of influence and intelligence of members, disturbs law enforcement officials.

Movies Are Utilized

Welch writes skillfully and uses movies effectively of himself speaking in making his points.

He was born in Chowan county, North Carolina. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina; attended the United States Naval academy for two years and, finally, Harvard law school. He was in charge of sales and advertising of the firm that bears his name. He was vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee and, in 1950, a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Because of the John Birch Society I have just had the opportunity of reading your report on "Communist Target - Youth," and wish to congratulate you on presenting the facts so effectively.

I wish every individual in this country could read your report and perhaps that might help shock many out of their complacency.

Very truly,

The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958 at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

Members of the Society were instructed in their monthly publication to write the Director these letters of congratulations. ~~The Bureau is now investigating this organization.~~

Dear Sir:

I have recently read your report of the riots in San Francisco against the House Un-American Activities Committee and wanted to write you and thank you for this report. It is material such as this that will wake some people up as to what is happening here in our own country.

I also had the opportunity last evening to see the film put out by the House Un-American Actitivies Committee about these riots. In fact, my husband and I are members of the John Birch Society and our group has purchased this film and intend to show it in all the schools in our county and at as many clubs as we can.

One thing that puzzles me no end is why there has been no investigation of communism in religion. You know when the Air Force Manual printed the facts about communist infiltration in religion last winter, there was quite an uproar and the letters that came into Congress calling for an investigation was very heavy. Yet nothing came of it. In the the instance of the infiltration in our youth, you wrote the above mentioned report. Why didn't you write a report about communist infiltration in religion. It is certainly a danger there also. Perhaps if someone such as yourself would come out with a report, some of our ministers might wake up. (My own, for instance.)

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Your report in the July 18, 1960, HUAC pamphlet was terrific!

A group of my husbands friends bought the film "Operation Abolition" and within 3 days after receiving the film had shown it to approximately 500 people and after showing the film read exerpts from the pamphlet. It's doing a jam-up job of awakening many who hate to admit the Communist' have accomplished so much in this country.

We did our best here in Houston to expose James Roosevelt when he spoke Aug. 17th Shamrock Hotel - there were several wonderful men who had Roosevelt Hanged in Effigy --- there were appropriate signs to carry the point through!

Please don't bother to answer - just wanted you to know that all members of the John Birch Society say God bless J. Edgar Hoover and our FBI.

Sincerely,

Mrs. [redacted]

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Knwoing that you are about the busiest person in the U.S.A., I do not expect a reply and merely hope that you will have time to glance at this letter.

Just a few lines to compliment you and extend my hearty congratulations on your splendid REPORTS: "Communist Target-Youth" and "Expose of Soviet Espionage May 1960."

In behalf of our Local Chapter #34 of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY, I purchased the 16 mm Sound Film "Operation Abolition" which we plan to show extensively over Palm Beach County.

After seeing the film for the first time, I cannot help but wonder why such characters as Douglas Wachter, his father Saul, Archie Brown, Merle Brodsky (who looks like Victor Borge in the film), Frank Wilkinson, Juanita Wheeler, and the other bums, were not given stiff jail sentences for Inciting to Riot, Impeding Justice, Disorderly Counduct etc., I know that most of these people have already been in jail and it would be nothing new to them.

b7C

I further realize that the present Warren Supreme Court has been a great hinderance to the Department of Justice and a great comfort to the communists. We certainly lack sufficient legislation to even attempt to control these public enemies. If you ever come to Palm Beach from February to June, I would enjoy taking you out on KENHYRD for a try at a Sailfish, which is really relaxing.

Most sincerely

Dear Vice President Nixon:

Re: Connally Amendment — Loyalty Oath — SUPREME COURT

In regard to my letter of June 6, 1960, I am chagrined to have been fooled by Senator Johnson. I should have been cognizant of his voting record before making such a rash statement with regard to him. I have since learned his voting record is one point below Senator Kennedy's, which is very low. Also that he used his position as leader of the South to blackmail his way onto the ticket for Vice President (See signed AP article, publisher John S. Knight, of Knight Newspapers. Knight's statement is in regard to Johnson and the Vice Presidency, only.)

CONNALLY RESERVATION

The material you enclosed was helpful and interesting. However, I am not a politician and will not attempt to answer as such. I am concerned with the lack of leadership in our country. Leadership which would conserve and protect our country, not give it away inchmeal. I know you and I do not agree concerning the Connally Amendment, but surely you know that this sneak abandonment of the Connolly Reservation was instigated, in my opinion, by one or more persons in the State Department. "This whole back-door abandonment of the CONNALLY RESERVATION has been rushed through the Senate without debate and even without printed records for the Senators themselves." (Guardians Of Our American Heritage, July 1960, Vol. IX, No. 69). The vote on the protocol, the executive N of the Annex V, on compulsory settlement of disputes with regard to "The Law of the Sea" is still to be brought before the Senators. YOU SHOULD BE TAKING THE LEAD to inform the Senate the abandonment of the Connolly Reservation will mean the World Court could tell us, in effect, to vacate our Naval Base in Cuba; it could order the United States out of Panama; it could decide to whom the mineral deposits along our coast belong; it could control anything connected with the seas, including the territorial seas and contiguous zones. There cannot be a World Court in the true sense, until there is a common judicial denominator.

OPINION REGARDING

LOYALTY OATH

It seems to me the need of the Loyalty Oath has been very definitely proven by the events which occured in San Francisco. The RIOTS against the HCUA which were inspired and incited by communists, prefessors (300), and some students, AND IN WHICH MANY STUDENTS PARTICIPATED, were occurances which many Americans said could never happen here, BUT THEY HAVE HAPPENED. NO ONE CAN DENY IT. One of the participants was Evelyn Einstein, granddaughter of the late Albert Einstein. She was arrested the Friday of the rioting, and charged with disturbing the peace, rioting, and resisting arrest; she is a student at the University of California, and her father, Hans A. Einstein, is a California engineering professor. Was he one of the PROFESSORS inciting the students to riot? (Information regarding Einsteins, Los Angeles Times 5/16/60, Part I, p. 12). Linus Pauling is reported to have stepped out of the line of march to say to a reporter that he was there to lend his support to abolishment of the HCUA. It is believable since this same Linus Pauling, Professor at California Institute of Technology refused to tell the California Senate Investigating Committee on Education whether or not he was a Communist. Louis Budenz, former Communist and editor of The Daily Worker, testified under oath he was "officially advised" that Dr. Pauling "was a member of the Communist Party under discipline." He is still teaching at Caltech and says he believes Communists should be allowed to teach in our schools. (Information on Linus Pauling from FACTS IN EDUCATION, Inc., Vol. VIII, No. 3, May-June, 1960, p. 7). Now this OATH is a good and necessary provision (no need for me to repeat the OATH, as I am sure you know it) and it's only fault is the communists FEAR it because they can be convicted of perjury for making false statements, knowingly, while under oath. As for the cry the Oath is an invasion of intellectual freedom, that is ridiculous. That is part of the communist's TACTICS — tell people their freedom is being invaded and the so called "intellectuals" immediately take up the hue and cry. ALL OF THE STUDENTS ARE NOT ASKED TO TAKE THE LOYALTY OATH, ONLY THOSE WHO DESIRE TO AVAIL THEMSELVES OF A SPECIAL PRIVILEGE PAID FOR BY THE AMERICAN TAXPAYERS. It seems to me it should be a privilege to swear allegiance to the United States of America and state one does not believe in or support any method for the overthrow of the Government of the United States. Are you going to turn our colleges over to the communists (21 prominent institutions, including Harvard, Yale, Princeton, the University of Chicago, Amherst College, the University of California, etc., have refused to participate in the student aid program because of the Oath). WHY? Participants are not asked to swear anything except allegiance to the U. S.; no one's belief is questioned, unless one is a member of an organization "which seeks to overthrow the government of the United States by illegal means." Perhaps the members of the House of Representatives will be more stalwart and keep the Amendments and Oaths that help protect our country.

62-104401-374

ENCLOSURE

DOCUMENTED Re CENSORING

SUPREME COURT

Another important consideration would be censoring the Supreme Court. In my opinion, beginning with, and since Roosevelt's time most decisions by the judges have been made in favor of communists or socializing our country. When our Supreme Court approves teaching adultery, our country is not a "worn out and limping horse", (from your "Economic Growth Through Freedom") but a country being led and pushed along an ever more rapidly descending path to immorality, socialism, and oblivion. The path chosen for us by the Communists. This Supreme Court decision says it is proper and legal to teach adultery, the breaking of the marriage vows, because "It is an idea" and comes under the head of "Free Speech". The Court had previously ruled that it is legal to teach or advocate the overthrow of our Government because that also is just an "idea" and comes under the head of "Free Speech". (Information from Guardians of Our American Heritage, January 1960, Vol. IX, No. 63). Frank Wilkinson, cited for contempt of Congress, found guilty of contempt and sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment has appealed the conviction and the appeal is presently pending before the Supreme Court of the United States. (Read Communist Target - Youth, report by J. Edgar Hoover, published by the HCUA). If the Nine Justices follow their previous pattern they will hold him not guilty. When Earl Warren, the Chief Justice left Sacramento, he sealed all records from his office and ordered them to remain sealed for ten years after September, 1953. Such was the fear engendered by the man during his decade in the office as Governor of California, no one has dared countermand that order or to question its legality. (Human Events, Vol. XV, No. 1, January 6, 1958). Was there information as terrible and condemning to hide as that which the State Department of the United States has lent every effort to conceal from the public concerning Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration, and even Truman's? There are so many more subjects, but it would take a volume to list them all. However, be suspicious of every bill and study it carefully, and do NOT vote for party but for country. (If and when you have any time, read Skousen's THE NAKED COMMUNIST; Jordan's FROM MAJOR JORDAN'S DIARIES; McCarthy's AMERICA'S RETREAT FROM VICTORY; Barron's INSIDE THE STATE DEPARTMENT; Gordon's NINE MEN AGAINST AMERICA, as a starter.)

Dear Sir:

I have been supplied some information in the form of printed booklets on an organization known as The John Birch Society, Inc. I have browsed through this literature ~~and find that it appears~~ to be of good character and well meaning, in that it proposes all out support of our Constitution and the form of government that was originally conceived by the people that framed our Constitution.

I want to help preserve our Constitutional form of government and free enterprise, and do not want to be duped by the Communists into supporting their cause. Please give me the opinion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on The John Birch Society, Inc., of Belmont 78, Massachusetts.

The Department by memorandum 8-30-60 forwarded a Photostat of a newspaper article in "The Milwaukee Journal" on 7-31-60 concerning the formation of ten chapters of the John Birch Society in Wisconsin. Department advised that their records contained no reports on the John Birch Society or Mr. Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., its founder, and requested an investigation of captioned organization for possible designation pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

John Birch Society is an organization founded by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. Welch is an officer and director of the James O. Welch Company, candy manufacturers, Cambridge, Massachusetts, and is editor and director of the publication "American Opinion" which he irregularly publishes and of which have in the past contained anticommunist articles. Welch has written a manuscript entitled "The Politician," which is a vicious attack on the political life and beliefs of President Eisenhower. Welch has not published the manuscript but has a limited number of copies which he has distributed or "loaned" to friends. The Bureau is in possession of a copy of it. Neither Welch nor his publication has been the subject of Bureau investigation. The field was alerted by SAC Letters 59-13 and 60-5 dated 3-10-59 and 1-26-60, respectively, concerning the activities of Welch and the John Birch Society and was requested to advise the Bureau of any efforts by subversive elements to take over or use this Society or its chapters. To date no information has been received concerning any subversive elements in the Society.

The Attorney General and the White House were advised by memoranda 3-6-59, 9-11-59 and 9-16-59 captioned "Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., Information Concerning" regarding the activities of Welch and the John Birch Society.

Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent; however, her husband, Mr. [redacted] directed a similar letter to the Bureau dated 8-7-60 in which he praised the Director and the Bureau for their work against communism and indicated that he and his wife are members of the John Birch Society which organization had requested all of its members to write to the Bureau concerning the Director's report on the San Francisco riots.

The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization organized in December, 1958, in Indianapolis.

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. "How to Beat Communism."
2. "Communism: The Bitter Enemy of Religion."
3. "God and Country or Communism?"
4. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."
5. "The Communists Are After Our Minds."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

For some time now, it has been my intention to write to and commend you on the outstanding work that you and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been so dedicatedly performing all these years. Many ordinary citizens, just like myself, feel that we owe you so much, for your devotion to duty and your integrity are an inspiration and the kind of wholesome example, that we would like to see our younger generation follow.

I recently had occasion to see the film of the obviously Communist inspired student riots against a duly constituted committee of our United States government, in San Francisco, and as much as many of us had read about the riots, it was absolutely shocking to see the amount of havoc, confusion and defiance of constitutional law and order that the Communists create, manipulate and exploit, and this was just a glimpse of the evil Communist operation at work. What is even more shocking is the fact that most of our nation are still unaware of these events, or are appallingly indifferent to this awesome challenge of Godless materialism.

It is with these thoughts in mind that I consider it a personal, civic responsibility to bring this film, and your excellent report on these riots, to the attention of everyone that I possibly can, - particularly parents, school-teachers and the young people. (We started off with our own youngsters).

It was your highly informative book, - so aptly entitled - "Masters of Deceit" that first made me aware of the advance and objectives of the Communist International Conspiracy - and I read your book about two years ago Mr. Hoover. Since that time I have devoted all possible spare time to studying the words and advice (including yours) of the qualified on this subject, and am determined to offer whatever humble contribution of service that I can, to protect and preserve our beloved United States, our American Constitution, our children and future posterity.

God Bless you Mr. Hoover, and please accept the deep appreciation and best of good wishes from our family.

Sincerely and Respectfully,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

A friend of mine has asked me to join the John Birch Society which is violently anti-communist. Their literature and aims seem to be worthy but today with so many commie front organizations one has to wonder somewhat. Since you and your splendid organization have more information than the average citizen can ever hope to assemble, I am asking you for your opinion on this organization. I love my country very much and want to do all that I possibly can to defeat the Red menace. The leader and founder, Mr. Robert Welch advocates beating the Reds at their own game by setting up small chapters throughout the country, setting up fronts, and flooding the congress with letters on the important issues of the day. To me it seems very worthwhile, but you must have more background than I, so I'm asking your advice.

I have, within the past few months become intensely interested in current events and U.S. politics in particular and am reading as much as possible to make up for the prior years that I was so lacking in this field. September 4, 1960.

My dear Mr. Hoover;

I have just finished reading your report "Communist Target-Youth" and viewing the film, made available to many, by the Tues. Morning Study Group. I was very pleased to have had the opportunity to have several of my un-imformed friends see how the communists are using our youth, and how so many of the past tragic events have been inspired and carried out by our godless united nations, (UNESCO).

Men, of your dedicated efforts, that will help us gain our Republic back., by bringing the American people the true facts, are so limited, therefore let me thank you for never giving up and the work of the FBI and House Committee on Un-American Activities, will soon awaken the people. The only way we are going to fight this conspiracy is by being informed and we need every documented article to help us.

I am a member of the John Birch Society, which has as its founder, Mr. Robert Welch, I believe we are fast becoming the most effective citizen-patroit group. Our purpose is "Less Government, more Responsiblity" and to become effective we need to expose this threat, by fighting them with facts.

Mr. Hoover, there are many Americans who highly respect you and your staff for your tireless fight to "SAVE, AMERICA". May God be with you,

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) [redacted]

WHY STAY IN THE U. N. ?

A Millstone 'Round Our Necks

(Reprinted from THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR)

Two weeks ago we quoted the Wall Street Journal as saying that the United States is "no longer master of its own foreign policy." Developments this last week make that even more obvious.

At his press conference President Eisenhower was asked if the United States planned any economic aid or border protective actions in the Middle East. He replied, "These things should be done in the United Nations. And we are prepared to go along with any decision of that kind."

What he is saying is simply that he has committed the people of the United States, the economic and military power of the United States, in advance, to do whatever the United Nations tells us to do. He doesn't even know what the U.N. might do. Yet so slavishly devoted to the idea that the United Nations comes before everything else is he, that he is willing to submit America's freedom of action, America's policies and plans to United Nations direction.

So, we are no longer "masters of our own foreign policy."

Other nations, large and small, are telling the United States how it should act, when it should act, how much it should spend and whether or not it must suffer war or privation. The American people have nothing to say about how their power is being used. The Congress is brushed aside or stands aside while the fortunes of our people, the future of our institutions, and liberty we prize above all else are placed into the hands of nations that neither know nor care about the interests of the United States.

For years our government under both parties has operated under the delusion that the United Nations can solve the world's problems in the face of failure after failure and war after war. We have put ourselves at the service of the United Nations and every time come out the loser. We have suffered humiliation, our first military defeat, continued loss of power and prestige to the Soviet Union. It was the United Nations that kept us from winning the Korean war and freeing North Korea. It was the United Nations that stalled us and stopped us from saving north Viet Nam from Communist China. It was the United Nations that haggled and hesitated and fumbled while Russian troops battered down the free people of Hungary in merciless slaughter. And now it is the United Nations that is going to decide what the United States should do in the Middle East!

This is the slow but sure way to national suicide. No other nation is so dumbly subservient to the U.N., weak or strong. The French roughly told the U.N. to stay out of its affairs in Algeria. The British ignored any U.N. attempt to interfere in Cyprus. The Soviet Union has told the U.N. time after time to keep its nose out of Hungary or Poland or any other place where Soviet interests are involved. Even little Israel has told the U.N. to stop monkeying around with its borders and the Arab refugee problem, and the U.N. stopped monkeying.

But not the United States — the great and powerful and rich United States. When the U.N. speaks we listen and follow. When we see American interests threatened we go hat in hand to the U.N. for approval or disapproval. We pay a third of its costs and fight and finance its wars, we subsidize its boondoggles and failures. Yet we humbly do what we are told when this international body without any head waves its hand.

What is the matter with the United States government anyway? Cannot our leaders decide for themselves what is best for the American people and just go do it? Have our leaders not the brains, the experience and the courage to run our own foreign policy show in the service of America?

Apparently not. For now we are told that our government is studying a regional development plan for the Middle East run by the United Nations! It was proposed by U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

If we want America's job done, we ought to do it ourselves. The best way to secure the liberties of our people and the security of our country is to depend upon ourselves. Why can't we do as we have always done successfully—keep strong, keep free from binding commitments to other nations, and decide every policy on what is best for America, first, last and always.

We can only do this successfully if we get out of the United Nations. But if we do, and if we run our own show in our own way, not only the United States but the whole world will be better for it.

Gentlemen:

I have been approached by an organization called The John Birch Society. The organizer for the society was a very persuasive young man and presented himself and his society as patriot citizens banded together to fight the onslaught of Communism in this country and in the world at large. At first glance, the organization seems to be what it claims, and last night I signed my name to an application for membership and paid a months dues.

Today several of my friends have joined me in a feeling that such an organization as this could be a real good front for another subversive activity. This is especially so since the organization is run from the top with no pretense at any democratic processes.

We would appreciate your appraisal of this organization as a vehicle for services of patriotic American citizens.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have just viewed a showing of the HCUA film, Operation Abolition, which the John Birch Society Chapters in Knoxville have purchased. The John Birch groups, as you no doubt are aware, are dedicated to anti-communist activities. This film and the pamphlets Communist Target - Youth we hope to use to alert civic groups to "what has happened here". This letter is to thank you for making it available.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As citizens of the United States who are tremendously disturbed by the advance of communism in our midst, and as members of The John Birch Society, we are writing to congratulate you on the excellence of your report which consituted the bulk of the House Un-American Activities Committee pamphlet entitled Communist Target - Youth. We have been instrumental in distributing over a hundred of these pamphlets in this area and know of others who have done the same thing.

HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

We are part of a group who have bought the HUAC movie showing the student riots in San Francisco for showing to the many organizatbns here who have already expressed an interest in seeing it. There is also a second copy of it here which will be shown frequently.

b6
b7C

We have also beenimpressed by your Analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party USA as reprinted from the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, March 1960, and have distributed the few copies we had. If your office could tell us how we can get more of these we will appreciate it.

You and your staff have our very sincere thanks for the work you are doing. We only regret that you are hampered by laws and the Supreme Court in bringing your findings to public attention.

While we are directing this letter to your personal attention please realize that we do not want you to take your valuable time for a personal reply. We will appreciate it if your staff will send us your pamphlet "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality" and any thing else which will help up to jolt some of our deadhead acquaintances into an awareness.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am one of many Americans who, of late, have become greatly concerned about the future of our great and Wonderful country.

It seems to me that the communists are making great gains all around the world and it seems to me that this country by its liberal philosophies is doing a lot to help them.

I feel the communists are all around us, in our own country & want to do something to help awaken our American people.

My question is this--several of our friends are becoming members of the John Birch Society--have you heard of this group and what is your personal opinion of this group. Would you recommend that I join? I am a good American and want to do the right thing. This group sounds very American but as you well know there are so very many organizations in this country and I want your personal approval before I join.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Congratulation, first of all, on your recent article "Communist Target - Youth" telling about the riots in San Francisco. Also, belated congratulations on your fine book "Masters of Deceit".

After reading my friend's copy of the book, I finally was able to find a book store where I could purchase a copy and am loaning it, along with the article, to as many people as possible.

As a concerned, Christian, patriotic American, I want to do everything expected to fight Communism, and therefore, have joined the John Birch Society.

Please keep on printing as much as you possibly can and try to get your articles to the clergymen. Our pastors quote you very often in their sermons. Communism is indeed Anti-God, plus as many other evils, but some people just don't want to hear about it from

Dear Sir:

I recently wrote to the Hon. Francis E. Walter requesting several Government publications regarding un-American activities and was delighted to receive the report you gave to the House Committee on Un-American Activities entitled "Communist Target - Youth". If only more patriotic Americans would be able to obtain a copy of this publication and others like it, they would be better informed on the rapidly spreading communist disease and what can be done to stop it. I also purchased your book "Masters of Deceit" and found it very interesting and awakening. I intend to purchase additional copies of the book for "give-aways" to friends and relatives. Please keep up the good work, for without consecrated patriots like yourself in responsible positions in our government, this wonderful country of ours would soon evaporate before our very eyes.

Since I have become a member of The John Birch Society, my eyes have been opened and my American spirit has been revitalized to a point where I am becoming active and conscious of what is taking place in our United States as well as all around us. The "Society" thinks a lot of you and your work and so should every American citizen who is interested in leaving for their children a world fit to live in.

You needn't reply to this letter for I know how busy you are; - it was written to show our appreciation for your efforts in light of the many discouragements which you may face at times.

Very truly yours

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. Information concerning this individual and his organization is contained in SAC Letter 60-5. (62-104401)

The "American Mercury" is owned by Russell Maguire, who is allegedly anticommunist and has the reputation of being particularly anti-Semitic. The publication was the subject of a Registration Act investigation in 1958 based upon indications of an exchange of funds between Maguire and the Ambassador of the Dominican Republic. This allegation was not established and the case was closed in October, 1958. (94-3-4-1)

Bufiles reveal that "Human Events" is a newsletter published in Washington, D. C., which generally is critical of the Soviet Union and communism. "Human Events" has not been the subject of an investigation by the Bureau. (105-8697)

Sir:

I have recently been exposed to some literature and conversation regarding the John Birch Society, whose headquarters are in Belmont, Massachusetts, and since an organization of this nature would probably be a matter of interest to your bureau I am requesting information regarding it.

I feel that a dedicated anti-communist organization, other than those functioning under governmental control, could be of great assistance in ridding ourselves of the internal communistic menace and, on the surface, the John Birch Society appears to be an organization of that type. However you, better than anyone, know that when some surfaces are scratched many ugly things are uncovered.

As any private citizen my opinions can only be based on information obtained through conventional news media, periodicals, verbal exchanges, etc. and in a matter of such importance I do not believe these are adequate to enable me to decide whether or not to join this society. Therefore, if it is consistent with your policy, I would like the following information:

(a) To your knowledge is any person connected with the society, or the periodical "American Opinion", of questionable loyalty?

(b) Any opinion you may have or any information you may have as to the merits or otherwise of this society.

Yours very truly,

Reference is made to Milwaukee letter to Bureau, dated August 3, 1960, captioned JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY, Milwaukee, Wis. - IS-MISC. This letter enclosed an article from the "Milwaukee Journal" of July 31, 1960, which alleged the existence of 10 chapters of this Society in Wisconsin, one of them located in Appleton. It also identified COLA B. PARKER, former Chairman of the Board of the Kimberly Clark Corp., of Neenah, Wis., and former President of the National Association of Manufacturers, as a member of the Society's National Council. Cola G. Parker

A review of the Appleton "Post-Crescent" newspaper for July and August, 1960 by SA [redacted] on August 30, 1960, reflected only the following articles concerning this orgainzation from which it is noted no Appleton Chapter of this organization could be identified as active.

Birch Society Right-Wing, Not Dangerous, Says Leader

News Article Called It Group 'Branding Ike Red,' 200 Members

The John Birch society is a "mildly right-wing organization about as harmful as a ladies' aid society," commented one of its leaders in response to an article calling it a "group branding Ike as red." The society's members are free to believe or disbelieve that President Eisenhower is a communist, the leader added.

Richard N. Johnson, 907 Park street, Green Bay, furnished the description after an article on the society appeared in the Sunday Milwaukee Journal. The article states that 10 John Birch society chapters existed in the state with a membership of 150 to 200. The society was founded by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., Massachusetts.

Cola B. Parker

Cola B. Parker, Neenah, former Kimberly-Clark corporation board chairman, was among Wisconsin members of the society listed by the Journal.

Parker said today that he knew of no members or chapters in the Fox Cities area, that the membership rolls are kept at national headquarters near Boston. Parker said that he was not active in the operation of the society, but was a member of the national council in an advisory capacity. The council meets every three months at national headquarters. The council's function is unclear. Parker belongs, he said, "to see what I can do to combat communism."

"I have known Welch for 15 years or more, he has been a guest at my home, and he is a dedicated anti-communist. As far as I'm concerned, that's the purpose of the society. Anyone who knows me knows I'm anti-communist," Parker said.

On Eisenhower

As far as President Eisenhower being labeled a red or communist, Parker declined to comment directly. "The communist party has a lot of tools among those who don't understand what they're doing, but whether Eisenhower is one of these, I don't know. Some things have been going on that I don't agree with in respect to the Eisenhower administration. I don't like to see communists making hay in other parts of the world," the industrialist said.

Asked if communist victories around the world were Eisenhower's fault, Parker declined to comment.

conservative political bent admit having heard of the group. Apparently a meeting of the Wisconsin Association of Manufacturers about a year ago heard from Welch in an appeal for conservative action groups.

Johnson, a public service corporation office worker, was among the most enthusiastic supporters of the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy and was part of a small Green Bay area effort for the third-party ticket of T. Coleman Andrews in the 1956 presidential election.

Johnson said the Journal's description of the society was unfair because it left the impression the group was secret and that part of its creed was that President Eisenhower is a communist. This conclusion is contained in a document circulated among some society members, but it is up to individuals to make up their own minds, he said.

Johnson has made up his mind. He believes Eisenhower may not be a communist, but that his administration has had the same result anyway.

"Infested With Reds"

"The results of the Eisenhower administration have been completely red. It is infested with reds. That is my conclusion and should be the conclusion of any people who can read," he said.

Johnson said a telephone conversation was not sufficient to build the record against Eisenhower, but that he could list Eisenhower's conduct of World war II and his "go groveling before them at summit conferences" as examples of helping communism.

The society has about 17 or 18 members in a chapter in Green Bay-DePere, several members in Appleton and a chapter in Oshkosh, he said. When membership in one chapter reaches 20, Johnson said, a new chapter is formed.

Society Not Secret

Johnson ridiculed the idea that the society was a secret organization, although he withheld the names of Appleton leaders because "some conservatives are too timid to stand and be counted at times like this." He said the press was welcome to attend the next Green Bay - DePere chapter meeting Aug. 9.

"It is silly to say we are some sort of secret society. We are about as harmful as a ladies' aid society. We are anxious to have the public learn of our activities," he said.

The publicity over the group shows that it is having effect in fighting communism and "we are happy to see that we are being put on the same level by the communists as Joe McCarthy," Johnson said.

Johnson said the monthly meetings study books and films and organize letter writing campaigns to congress or to newspapers on behalf of conservative writers. A recent project, while not a direct act of society, was sending telegrams to delegates to the Republican convention to plug Sen. Barry Goldwater, he said.

Charges in Book

Welch, a 61-year-old retired Belmont, Mass., manufacturer, has written a privately circulated book which charges that President Eisenhower is a communist, his brother, Milton, is his superior in the party and the president is guilty of treason. The book is called "The Politician." Welch was a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Massachusetts in 1950.

The society apparently started about 1959 in Wisconsin and was founded nationally in 1958. It is named after a fundamentalist Baptist minister who was a missionary in China, joined the Flying Tigers as an intelligence agent and is said to have been murdered by Chinese communists 10 days after the war ended in the Pacific, a biography by Welch indicates.

Society dues are $24 annually for men, $12 for women.

18 John Birch Members Meet

Rockefeller Bound to Socialism; Kennedy a Stooge, Group Is Told

BY JAMES BARTELT
Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — The dedicated band of political beatniks who are the Green Bay-De Pere chapter of the John Birch society met Tuesday night, paying little attention to the disclosure that their national leader thinks President Eisenhower is a communist and a traitor.

The 18 members met at the home of Robert Wolf for their first gathering since the writings of Robert Welch about Eisenhower were reported in midwest newspapers. Welch, 61, a wealthy retired manufacturer and former Massachusetts Republican politician, is the founder and self-declared national leader of the John Birch society.

Welch's comments about Eisenhower were included in a privately-circulated document which was not an official society publication, Wolf explained. A monthly bulletin published by Welch for society chapters includes "suggestions" which members can follow if they agree with them but nobody takes orders, Wolf said.

Monolithic Body

In the latest bulletin Welch wrote that four-fifths of the members did not know about the Eisenhower writings and that half of the one-fifth who did probably did not agree with him. Welch said he disagreed with the late Sen. Robert Taft on 30 per cent of issues but that this did not mean that Taft was not his leader.

The society's 182 - page "Blue Book" says that the society is to be "a monolithic body," that democratic forms when fighting communism lend themselves to infiltration, and that the society "will operate under completely authoritative control at all levels." An application for membership states it must be understood that a member can be kicked out at any time without the reason being stated.

"And democracy, of course, in government and organization, as the Greeks and Romans both found out . . . is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud," the book says.

Three Reporters There

Three reporters accepted the invitation to attend the Tuesday night meeting, and society publications were pressed upon them.

Only person present, a young Republican officer in the McCarthy days, asked that identification not be made. She said that she did not want to get an employer, a Catholic agency, involved. Only two others could be recognized as having been involved in partisan politics, both casual Republicans.

The group got organized, Wolf explained, when most of its members completed a 10-part course as members of the Cardinal Mindzenty study group and heard about the John Birch society. The society believes in action through letter writing, promoting conservative literature, and forming action groups for a specific political objective.

One of the main purposes, said Richard Johnson, Green Bay, a Fox Valley organizer for the society, is to get mail to Washington — on issues. Groups for which communists pull strings can "get 54,000 letters to the hill at a given moment," he said.

One project was to protest Eisenhower's going to the ill-fated summit conference.

Johnson said suggestions in the past monthly bulletin which were accomplished included writing delegates to the national GOP convention to plug Sen. Barry Goldwater for president or vice president, inquiring about conservative books at public libraries and sending printed questionnaires to congressional candidates.

The latest bulletin urged action on recruiting membership and more attention to a boycott of products from communist countries. Johnson said this was a pet project of his.

Boycott Yule Trimmings

"The crowning blow, which most people don't realize, is that most Christmas tree ornaments come from Czechoslovakia," he warned.

The meeting opened with the showing of colored slides with a tape-recorded explanation prepared by Dr. George Benson, of Harding college, Arkansas, on the spread of communist domination, even to Cuba, as predicted in 1919 by Lenin.

Fidel Castro was portrayed as the George Washington of Cuba by the government, press, TV networks and even the religious publications, Our Sunday Visitor and the Christian Herald, the tape said.

Communists in the government and press can defeat any legislation they choose, the presentation warned. America must be mobilized and warned against the technique of fright which soon will have influential leaders suggesting we should surrender to Russia, it said.

Nixon an Opportunist

"The Blue Book" says Vice President Richard Nixon is an opportunist who took part in the defeat of Taft at the 1952 Republican convention. If Taft ~~had been~~ nominated, communists would have been driven from government and "McCarthy would be alive today," the book says.

But while Nixon has no beliefs, he is better than Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who is "definitely committed to trying to make the United States a part of a 1-world socialist government," the book says. Sen. John Kennedy is dismissed as a "stooge" of Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers.

One society periodical is a "scoreboard" showing how communist each nation of the world is. The United States, it reports, is from 30 to 50 per cent communist now.

Assembly Candidate

Democrat Lashes Birch Society, Parker for Views on Democracy

Oshkosh — A right-wing organization, its founder who resides in Massachusetts, and a Winnebago county member who is not a political candidate were criticized at the Thursday night meeting of county Democrats here.

Three Democratic candidates for the state assembly expounded views on the coming election.

Robert E. Nordlander, Menasha, Third district candidate, lashed at the John Birch society, which he labeled "neo - fascist," and at its prominent Winnebago county member, Cola G. Parker, former board chairman of Kimberly-Clark corporation and former president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

William Manske, Oshkosh, First district assembly candidate, defended the Democratic party as not being "spenders," contending that each biennium's state budget has increased 20 or more per cent whether Republicans or Democrats were running the state government.

Came From GOP Event

Herman Brandt, Omro, Second district candidate, who came to the meeting directly from the Republican corn roast at Winneconne, said the "Republican party has outlived its usefulness, but this election they are giving a last big 'heave-ho' to a dying organization."

In hitting at the John Birch society (so named for a minister reportedly slain by the Chinese communists in 1949) Nordlander quoted Robert Welch, Jr., society founder, who wrote: "Democracy is a merely deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery and a perennial fraud." The statement appears in a privately published book circulated to society members by Welch, who also is a former vice chairman of the Massachusetts Republican party.

Nordlander questioned Welch's debunking of democracy and pointed to Parker (who is not a political candidate) as "one who has respect for the knowledge and energy of Welch." The speaker criticized Parker's defending his membership in the John Birch society.

"Fearful Breed"

Nordlander said: "It seems ironic that some people who have achieved a certain measure of success in the world of industry and commerce are so fearful of communism that they will accept any alternative that is available.

"Usually the alternative accepted by the fearful breed of man as represented by Mr. Parker is a species of fascism. These men seem to forget that a dictatorship of the right is as undesirable as a dictatorship of the left."

Parker is away from the Fox Cities area until the end of September and could not be reached for comment.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just witnessed the film, "Operation Abolition", showing the Communist riots in San Francisco as they broke up the House Un-American Activities Committee hearings.

I understand you have contributed to a pamphlet put out by that committee entitled "Communist Target - Youth". There is a need for this information in our land today. I am ordering several copies through my congressman for distribution to churches, schools, civic clubs, etc. Our government can track down and expose Communist, but I can see it is the job of us, the American people, to avail ourselves of this information and circulate same.

May I thank you as the father of five children, for "standing in the gap" as the world is on fire with international communism.

How I wish there were more voices like yours to "cry in the wilderness" and awaken our people.

I have grounded my children in the Word of God, and they know the Living Word, "The Lord Jesus Christ", and His saving grace. Therefore, they are prepared to die for our freedoms and be face to face with the Lord rather than live under Communist tyranny.

Respectively you

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Would you possibily take time from your busy schedule to answer a few questions of considerable controversy among myself and friends?

As Christians who would welcome the privilege to work for the cause of freedom to overcome communism:

1. What local and national organizations can we trust?

2. Fred C. Schwarz, M. D., Sydney, Australia, President of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade — can we trust him?

3. John Birch Society - can we trust this?

Perhaps the above questions sound absurd, but they are being discussed. I have been told that some societies are communists fronts, etc. etc. I freely admit to being most gullible. Neither can I consider myself well read in this field. Have ordered your book "Masters of Deceit" and trust that it will enlighten my questions considerably.

I am anxious to work for freedom and would greatly appreciate your help in my decision of where and how to begin.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter dated September 15, 1960, has been received.

Although I would like very much to answer your inquiries, I wish to advise that the function of this Bureau as strictly a fact-gathering agency does not extend to furnishing evaluations or drawing conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization. Please do not infer, however, in this connection either that we do or that we do not have information in our files of the specific type you desire. Enclosed are publications available for general distribution by the FBI which may be of interest to you.

If you desire lists of groups and periodicals which have been cited as being subversive by various state and Federal agencies, it is suggested that you submit requests to the Subversive Organizations Section, Internal Security Division, U. S. Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., and to the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Corner of North Capitol and H Streets, Northwest, Washington 25, D. C. From the latter can be purchased, for thirty-five cents, a copy of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the Un-American Activities Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am requesting information about any organizations in our country that are clean and organized to fight communism.

The day has arrived that full blooded Americans should wake up and begin fighting before it is too late.

One in particular that I am interested in is the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY. It seems to be well organized and in the right direction.

Your comments and information will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Mr. Hoover

I have just finished reading your excellent book "Masters of Deceit". I learned a great deal but felt you should have stressed how much serious trouble is being caused daily by high up communists within our government. Certainly it should be criminal not to get the known subversives in the government out.

You say our present ills here at home could be cured by more morality, faith and patriotism --- it is pretty hard to grow stronger with a bad ulcer in your middle, which is the equivalent of our present communist infiltration. It is getting so Americans shouldn't believe a lot of what they read, hear, or see in the movies or on TV as so much is slanted. It is hard to grow stronger and healthier under these circumstances!

Since your book showed clearly that when the Communist Party went underground during the years of 51 to 55 it lost power rapidly and moved backwards, why isn't it underground now? Could you give any suggestions as to how the public could best go about accomplishing that---I think many more people would be behind a movement like that now than perhaps a couple of years ago. In a couple more years, at this rate, it may be too late.

Would publishing a paperback book with names of the subversives in the United States help? I'm sure that is illegal now but couldn't it be made legal?

I would appreciate any suggestions you could make as to where to start or even suggestions as to who to contact for ideas on how to help. I am joining the John Birch Society movement later this month and I'm sure everyone there will want to help any way they can.

Yours very truly

Dear Sir:

This letter is an expression of gratitude for your efforts on behalf of a free and moral mankind.

Just recently the pamphlet "Communist Target - Youth" was brought to my attention* and I found it extremely well presented. I shall make every effort to see that a large number of young people reads it. Within the last few months I have become awakened to the Communist conspiracy and its menace to our country and have been immeasureably helped in my studies by this and other writings of yours, such as "Masters of Deceit."

Perhaps it will be of some value to you to know that my husband and I hold you, your Department and your activities in the highest regard and can always be called upon for whatever support and assistance we are capable of giving.

I have ordered a copy of the House Un-American Activities Committee's pamphlet entitled COMMUNIST TARGET -- YOUTH. I understand it contains an excellent report by you on the San Francisco riots. Our country needs more men like you!

I felt the need to do my part in this great fight we have against the communist threat, so I joined the John Birch Society. I therefore speak for my chapter and myself when I say -- Keep up the good work and with God's help we can defeat world domination by the communists.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent states he has read some material from the John Birch Society written by Robert Welch. He expresses concern in regard to the communist menace and requests any information available concerning the John Birch Society and Robert Welch. Correspondent states "May God Bless you and your good work in these very trying times."

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. (62-104401)

Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent or his wife.

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. "Communist Target - Youth."
2. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."
3. Reprint from "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," March, 1960, with analysis of the 17th National Convention, Communist Party, USA.
4. "God and Country or Communism?"
5. "Communist Party, USA," reprinted from "Ave Maria," April, 1960.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

We have been reading some material from "The John Birch Society" written by Robert Welch. Mr. Welch makes some shocking statements about Communism and what has been going on and what will happen here in our United States. If what we read is true the people of this country better wake and do it fast unless they want to be Communist dominated.

We have no real doubts of Mr. Welch good intent but we would like to know more about "The John Birch Society" and Mr. Welch including his qualifications and perhaps where he gets his information.

b6
b7C

Surely you know of him and this society. Can you send us any information regarding them?

Like many other Americans we too have been plodding along our merry way until we read his material. Now we want to get in the fight even if we do no more than to enlighten some of our friends and neighbors to the plight our country is in.

May God Bless you and your good work in these very trying times.

Sincerely yours,

Mr & Mrs [redacted]

Dear Mr. Hoover;

I have just finished reading the booklet "Communist Target - Youth".I find it informative, concise,and to the point.My only regrets in regard to this publication is that I am afraid that not enough people will have an opportunity to read the booklet and get TRUE facts in regard to what is a real threat to our American way of life. Congratulations to you on a job well done,and, may God enlighten our people before it is too late to hurl back the Communist threat to our country.

I realize that you are a busy man and I do not want or expect you to take time out to acknowledge this note.Just wanted to let you know that a few people are aware of some of the work that you are doing and it is certainly appreciated by right thinking people.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir:

I have become concerned recently over the communism threat to our country and have been looking for some active way to help correct this situation. In the process I have become acquainted with an organization known as the John Birch Society whose home office is in Massachusetts.

b6

Although I agree with their methods and outward appearance, I have become increasingly suspicious of all organizations and their "hidden motives". I would like to join their movement if I know the leaders themselves are not using this organization for ulterior motives.

It appears to me you are the only one we as citizens can turn to for safe advice and assurance regarding individual's and organization's loyalty and intentions to the United States.

Please advise if, to your knowledge and opinion, this group is honestly endeavoring to fight communism as it appears to be doing.

Compromise with injustice is the lowest form of tyranny.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 5/29/94 BY

ITS AIMS

Our Mental Health program is principally financed from the three-billion dollar budget of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (DHEW). What are the purposes of the Mental Health program and its champions? "By their works you shall know them." The aims are to turn America Freudian and to gain extraordinary control over the American people via moral disarmament.

Our own tax money is used by DHEW to tell us that religious inhibitions must be shed when they disturb the personality, that those who see a threat from internal subversion are often "paranoid," that children subconsciously hate their parents, that most feelings of guilt must be driven off as the result of unworthy external conditioning, etc., etc. The entire Freudian ethic constitutes a religion, or an anti-religion, and it might be properly suggested that the present DHEW Mental Health adventure is in violation of separation of Church and State.

Certainly, everyone regards mental soundness as a blessing. But, it does not follow that everyone must regard Freud as a hero or must consider justified the granting of absolute power to the Freudians.

ITS METHODS

"Ring the bell for Mental Health." The drive is on to have us all hoist our ids high on the flagstaff of One Worldism for the champions of bureaucratic, internationalistic centralism to cure us of religion and patriotism. Benevolent reticence on our part presents a challenge to the Mental Health people. So, they turn to school children.

Children are less likely to take exception to the importunities of the Freudians and are more apt to accept without challenge their doctrine of moral weakness. Questionnaires and pamphlets pour into our schools, therefore. The questionnaires have their inquiries phrased in such a way as to suggest certain attitudes and conclusions to the students. The pamphlets are elementary courses in Freudian psychology.

When we attack the school questionnaires, we are NOT fighting valid I.Q. or Aptitude Tests. Rather we are opposing so-called Psychological Testing in the schools. These psychological research surveys, with their probing inquiries, are very similar to those used on children by the Reds in North Korea and China. It is time to inform every student that he should not answer any questionnaires including references to religion, home life, sex attitudes, political exposure, and the like. It is time to inform every parent that unauthorized psychological tests are illegal. Experimental probes into the minds and souls of our children are dangerous; especially so when we consider the moral policies of those who formulate the questions and accumulate the information. When young people fill out these tests, they expose themselves to Freudian inferences and they supply all the information necessary to an enemy planning to brainwash a generation.

An example of the Mental Health pamphlets designed to "help" our young people is "How to Live With Parents" by Gladys Gardner Jenkins and Joy Neuman. It is one of many published and distributed by Science Research Associates, Chicago. This pamphlet tells students that they must not feel guilty over the urge to rebel against parental authority: "Revolt against parental ties and authority is a very natural thing for young people, and a healthy sign that they are beginning to mature."

After reading all the solutions given to young rebels — "understand the problem," "talk things over," "adjust to the situation" — we can only wonder what happened to the best solution of all, "Honor thy father and thy mother."

"How to Tell Your Children About Sex" by James L. Hymes of the California Society for Mental Hygiene has been distributed to parents at P.T.A. meetings. This gem of Mental Health advises that pre-school (ages 2 to 5) children be given complete descriptions of the procreative act. And it concludes, "You may worry that, once children know, they will want to play out intercourse. Some experimentation may go on ... some trying out is a very human characteristic." God's Commandments have some answers to this, too, but we hesitate to quote least they take us all away for shock treatments.

The great subversion of American morals is being intensified. Children are the victims, we are the financiers, and Mental Health is the front organization.

ITS HISTORY

Hon. Usher L. Burdick of North Dakota spoke in the House of Representatives on June 13, 1957. He quoted a speech of the late head of the Russian Secret Police, Lavrenti P. Beria. Speaking at Lenin University to a class of "American," Communist psychiatrists, Beria advised: "You must labor until we have dominion over the minds and bodies of every important person in your nation. You must achieve such disrepute for the state of insanity and such authority over its pronouncement that not one statesman so labeled could again be given credence by his people. You must work until suicide arising from mental imbalance is common and calls forth no general investigation or remark."

Thus, Mental Health did its part when Povl Bang-Jensen was found dead on November 26, 1959, in a Long Island park. Two New York psychiatrists volunteered the information the next day that Bang-Jensen was depressed and showed suicidal tendencies. In 1957, Bang-Jensen had written in a memorandum, "...(the Reds) might have decided that it is necessary to risk having me disappear out the window, or similarly, in 'a fit of depression' ...under no circumstances would I ever commit suicide." Notwithstanding the assurances of Povl Bang-Jensen, the psychiatrists succeeded in having their theory popularly accepted.

A more obvious example of the workings of the enemy through Mental Health is found in the story of Robert A. Winston, Captain, U.S.N.R., who wrote a book, The Pentagon Case, under the pen-name of "Colonel Victor J. Fox." While employed as a Special Assistant on the staff of former Under Secretary of the Navy Thomas A. Gates, Winston came upon clear evidence of collusion with known Communists by senior U.S. officers on active duty. He submitted a report on his findings. Winston was fired and contradicted, but not until an Assistant to Mr. Gates had tried to hide him under a Mental Health blanket.

The Assistant Secretary called Winston into his office and told him solicitously: "You've been under a great strain lately, and we want to help you. The Navy's Surgeon General, Admiral Hagan, is waiting outside in my car. He'll personally go with you to Bethesda Naval Hospital where you will receive the finest medical treatment they can provide." The offer was turned down, of course. The Surgeon General had never even seen Capt. Winston. Yet, he called on the Captain's brother and diagnosed the psychiatric condition. It was an attempt to have Robert Winston's brother sign commitment papers; the attempt failed. This whole affair was aired before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. (The Subcommittee counsel had cautioned Winston: "Don't go near Bethesda Naval Hospital under any circumstances. If you do, they will 'railroad' you.")

During the TV hearings in which the late Sen. McCarthy opposed the Pentagon and Sherman (Goldfine) Adams, the fighting Senator tried to visit Gen. Lawton of Fort Monmouth who was a patient at Bethesda. He was told that the General was under a mental strain and could not be seen. Sen. McCarthy himself later died at the Naval Hospital. It was an untimely death, as was that of Sec't. of Defense James Forrestal, in the same institution.

The history written by the Mental Health crowd has been one of subversion of truth, disregard for human rights, and repeated association with Communist causes.

OUR CONCLUSIONS

We do not say that government has no right to be concerned with the mental welfare of its people. We do say that the U.S. government has no right to allow DHEW to apply tax money for fostering of a philosophy that represents nothing in our traditional way of life.

We do not say that parents should run our schools. We do say that schools should TEACH and avoid the temptation to psychoanalyze students individually or collectively.

We do not say that all psychiatrists are subversives. We do say that those doctors dedicated to curing the mentally ill should hasten to disavow the Left-wing policies and ulterior motives so obviously pursued by many of their state and national organizations.

We do not say that Povl Bang-Jensen committed suicide. We do say that he was murdered.

We do not say that present Sec't. of Defense Gates is a Red agent. We do say that various past actions on his part require lucid, honest explanations if he wishes to command the public's respect and trust once again.

We do not say that Bethesda Naval Hospital is crawling with subversives. We do say that it is a sensative spot and a fine-tooth investigative comb would be a wholesome thing. (Only lice fear a fine-tooth comb).

We do not say the present Mental Health program has a few defects. We do say the whole program is riddled with dangerous faults serving the purposes of world communism.

OUR PROGRAM

Mental Health fund-drives have great popular support. Repeat the truth about what it is. Disenchant the public.

Attend P.T.A. meetings and suggest that a copy of all non-curricular tests given students be made available for the parents to review. If the motion is not carried, organize a group of parents, enlighten them, and make the proposal a fighting goal. (25¢ a copy: "Christian Guidance vs. Secularism," a critical analysis of psychological methods currently used in schools. Addressed to Catholics, but of universal interest and value. Order from The Wanderer, 128 E. Tenth St., St. Paul 1, Minn.)

Hon. Edgar Hiestand, California Republican, has introduced a bill which calls for Congressional investigation of Mental Health programs. Write to him at the House Office Building, Washington, D.C., in support of this bill, H. Con. Res. 145.

Read and pass along these books: Brainwashing by Edward Hunter and The Freudian Ethic by Richard LaPiere.

FOOTNOTES

Deputy Commissioner of Mental Hygiene in New York State is Hyman Forstenzer, who was identified as a Communist Party member in a June, 1956 report of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security.

Last year, a New York teen-aged drug addict died of hepatitis and the M.D.'s theorized that the condition was introduced into the body by a hypodermic needle. Sen. McCarthy died of hepatitis and he had received many injections at Bethesda. This is admittedly far-fetched, but no more so than the Liberal's conclusion that, since hepatitis may be caused by alcoholism, the Senator drank himself to death.

We might turn waggish with Liberal defenders of Mental Health programs and tell them they see mentally disturbed children under every bed and imagine that our government has card-carrying schizophrenics in high places. "We like the Mental Health people but we can't approve of their methods." No, that will not do for a motto; we don't even like the Mental Health people.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

An organization has recently come to my attention which calls itself "The John Birch Society".

I would like to know if you are familiar with this organization, and if so, for how long have you known it. I am particularly interested in finding out if the aims and activities of this organization are compatible with the welfare of the United States.

Thank you for any information you can give me.

In answer to my inquiries about subversion and subversive organizations, you referred me to "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" which could be ordered from the Superintendent of Documents. My check has been returned with a statement indicating that this pamphlet is permanently out of stock.

Is there any way a citizen can be informed of subversive organizations and individuals? It is impossible to fight an enemy which can't be identified.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

I have received your letter of September 27, 1960, and appreciate the concern which prompted your communication.

Although I would like to be of service to you, it is not possible for me to comment on the affirmative statement regarding communist influence set forth in your letter since I am not aware of the full context of the speaker's remarks. Certainly, it is true that the world-wide communist movement is zealous in its desire to increase its influence in our affairs and seeks every opportunity to further its ambitions. Its lack of success in the United States is directly attributable to the effectiveness of our internal security programs and determined opposition of our patriotic organizations and churches as well as the steadfast loyalty of American citizens in all walks of life.

In view of your interest, I am enclosing some material concerning the general subject of communism which you may like to read.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Today, I had the privilege of viewing a film showing the riots of Last May at the HCUA hearings in San Francisco.

The man who presented the films made a statement that seemed to shock many of the people at this gathering.

He stated that the communist influence in the United States now amounts to from 40 to 60 per cent. He gleaned this information from a booklet "American Opinion" edited by Robert Welch. 710 100.

Sir:

I wish to thank you for your dedication to our country and its citizens.

I have recently obtained copies of your report, "Communist Target-Youth", and I consider it a superb report. I have seen the film "Operation Abolition" and your report supplements the shocking evidence clearly visible in the film.

Our P.T.A. is going to show the film in January and I hope to have enough copies of your report by then to circulate to all of its members. Despite the continuous efforts being made to discredit you and the F.B.I. I am confident most people will be more deeply aroused by the action in the film after reading your report on it.

As a member of the John Birch Society I am at your service. If you have any advice or task for us please feel free to contact us.

With deep respect,

Mrs. [redacted]

Remylet to Bureau, 2/2/60, captioned "ROBERT H. WELCH, JR., INFORMATION CONCERNING (INTERNAL SECURITY)."

On 9/9/60 [redacted] Wheeling, W.Va., whose identity should be concealed, advised SA WARNER G. MAUPIN that a week or so before that a Mr. [redacted] at Hoge-Davis Drug Store, Main St., Wheeling, W.Va., inquired about a room in the City-County Bldg, at Wheeling, for a meeting of the John Birch Society, and extended an invitation to him to attend; that he named a group of people who were supposed to be nationally known who were members of the Society, the only one of which he could recall was ADOLPH MENJOU; that Mr. [redacted] said it was an anti-Communist organization to acquaint the American people with the peril facing them; that he said he had also invited Judge MC KEE of the Ohio County Intermediate Court to attend as well as a couple of Wheeling City Councilmen; and that he referred Mr. [redacted] to Judge MC KEE for use of his court room for the meeting which was to be held some time the following week.

b6

On 9/15/60 Mr. [redacted] advised that the meeting was held in the Intermediate Court Room on 9/14/60, but he did not attend.

On 9/15/60 Mrs. [redacted] Wheeling, W.Va., who is a prominent clubwoman in the city and who has previously contacted this office on several occasions to furnish nonspecific information, advised SA MAUPIN that she had attended a meeting of the JOHN BIRCH Society in the Intermediate Court Room in the Wheeling City-County Bldg, on 9/14/60, which was not public and attended by invitation to about 100 people of some prominence in clubs, PTAs, and other city groups. She said the meeting was ostensibly anti-Communist and Mr. [redacted] was the Chairman and introduced a DOUG HEINSON of Seviersville, Tennessee, as the main speaker. She also advised that Mrs. DOROTHY FRANKSTEN, Wheeling, National President of the Minute Women of America, seemed to be one of the promoters of the Society. She said THOMAS SWEENEY, prominent insurance man of Wheeling and unsuccessful candidate for the U. S. Senate, was another person present. She said she joined the Society as did several others and received some literature. She said she had joined the Society in good faith with the understanding that it was not un-American in any way and was actually anti-Communist.

The Wheeling City Directory lists a [redacted], Wheeling, as [redacted] of the Hoge-Davis Drug Co., Wheeling. It is noted [redacted] was formerly an admitted follower of WILLIAM DUDLEY REILLEY and was subject of investigation by this Bureau in 1941.

On 9/19/60 [redacted] former NA from Wellsburg, W.Va., and presently in charge of [redacted] at Wheeling Steel Corp's plant at Yorksville, Ohio, telephonically contacted the Wheeling, W.Va. RA and made an inquiry concerning "The John Birch Society." He stated that invitations were sent out to residents in this area to attend a meeting of this organization in the City-County Building, Wheeling, on 9/14/60. He said that he was one of approximately 100 persons who attended this meeting. He said that many of the more prominent residents of this area attended the meeting, including Judge MC KEE.

[redacted] said that the meeting was presided over by a young man whose identity he did not learn. He said that the Communist Party and its functions were discussed and the purpose of the meeting was to form a local chapter of the society to combat Communism and its underground activities. He said that applications were furnished those in attendance. He asked if he should execute an application in order that he might follow the activities of this organization and he was told that this was up to him, that this Bureau could not advise him one way or the other.

On 9/26/60 Mrs. [redacted] advised that she had received a membership card showing that she was a member of Chapter 20 of the John Birch Society and that the Chapter leader was [redacted] Wellsburg, W.Va. She said she was told that she would be notified of the next meeting. She said she would advise this office of any further developments in connection with her membership in this Society.

The above is submitted for information. No investigation is being conducted by this office.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just finished reading a reprint of your article "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality". I am rereading your book "Masters of Deceit".

As a member of the John Birch Society, headed by Mr. Robert Welch of Belmont, Massachusetts, I have lately become more aware of the internal as well as the external threat facing our nation.

I recently received this phamplet in the mail from Congressman James B. Utt. I know we have an extremely serious situation but I do not believe we can go "hog wild" about it or adopt the methods of our Communist "peace lovers". If it is not prohibited could you let me know about the Cinema Educational Guild and the people listed on this sheet? I have very little doubts about such people as Stanley Kramer and Frank Sinatra but are the others merely misguided dupes or could it be worse?

Very truly yours,

NOTE: Correspondent not identifiable in Bufiles. The John Birch Society is an allegedly anti-communist group having chapters throughout the country. Its Head, Robert Welch, has bitterly denounced President Eisenhower, and our field offices have been alerted to watching its activities.

Frequent inquiries are received concerning Moral Re-Armament, and nothing subversive concerning it appears in our files. Usually we state in response to such inquiries that we have not investigated the group, but in view of Mrs. [redacted] request also concerning the John Birch Society, above reply is being forwarded.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am as much of an anti-communist as there is around this country, but we find we are being bombarded on all sides by anti-communist literature.

Since you are and have been doing such a wonderful job for our country, I feel you are the one to turn to for a true answer on just what is the situation in regard to these societies. Are they really anti-communist or are they communist Fronts.

The ones in question are

1) The John Birch Society
Belmont, Mass.

2) Ideology and Co-Existence
Moral Re-Armament
640 Fifth Ave. N. Y. C.

Would appreciate any information you can give me on these two organizations.

Are they worthwhile and effective in combating communism or are they actually communist Front?

Thank you and May God bless you in your good work.

The first thing we were asked to do was to write you a letter congratulating you for the excellent job you did in writing the article "Communist Target - Youth". That - I was happy to do - also to write to our Congressman, Sam Stevens, asking for copies of the article, etc.

The information we have received from the John Birch Society and the letters we've been asked to write have all seemed the sort of thing I've been wanting to hear and do.

Now however I'm completely appalled to receive the latest bulletin from the J.B.S. in which Robert Welch states —

Sir:

I was recently approached by a doctor in our city to attend a meeting of a group of individuals in the doctor's home. The group called themselves a chapter of the John Birch Society. From what I have been able to find out about this John Birch Society, they are staunch Conservatives, who are dedicated to preventing further centralization of the Federal Government and combating the threats of communism and preserving our American heritage--freedom.

Unlike too many Americans, I am greatly concerned with the Communist threat to our national security and am anxious to do whatever I can to fight this movement. After reading your book, Masters of Deceit, I have a better understanding of the problems we face and direct your attention to your discussion on page 241 of Communist-front organizations and how they may be detected.

Until I was approached by this doctor, I had not heard of the John Birch Society and its founder, Robert H. W. Welch, Jr. After attending a meeting and reading some of their literature, I wanted to know more about this organization before joining this group. I made a personal visit to our local F. B. I. office to inquire about the people who are backing the society and their loyalty to our country. The agents were very considerate but not very helpful. They said that they had heard of such a movement starting here but knew nothing about it. Mr. Hoover, they didn't even have a list of un-American organizations in their office. I did find a loyalty oath form dated 1956 at the Naval Reserve. It is my understanding that the John Birch Society has only been in operation for a little over two years.

In the past few years I have been increasingly alarmed at the growth and infilitration of Communan in this country. I have recently learned of an oranization dedicated to the removal of this threat called The "JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY". and would appreaciate any information you could possibly send me.

Basically I would like to know if is a legitimate - worthwhile organization and if so how can I, as a worried American, Join?
Also I would like to know specifically what this organization has for its goal and how it plans to meet these ends.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

In response to your request of October 10, 1960, it is a pleasure to enclose a copy of "Expose of Soviet Espionage," together with other reprints on the subject of communism which you may find of interest.

With reference to your other inquiry, I must inform you that the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government, and as such, does not make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I can tell you, however, that this Bureau has not investigated the organization about which you inquired. Therefore, I am unable to help you and hope you will not infer in this connection either that we do or that we do not have information in our files relating to the group you named.

Thank you sincerely for your kind message concerning the work being done by the FBI.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Walter Winchel, on his T.V. program Sunday night October 9 th, mentioned a pamphlet that could be obtained from your office for the asking. As best I can remember it was entitled, "Soviet Espionage 1960." If I have the correct title I would appreciate one of them.

Secondly, I have recently been invited to attend a meeting of the John Birch Society. Do you have any information on this organization that would help me to decide whether or not to get very involved.

I would also like to express my appreciation to you and your organization for the work it has done for as many years as I can remember.

Dear Sir:

I was invited last evening to see a movie and hear a talk by the representative in Houston of the John Birch Society. On the surface, it seemed to be an organization which was wholly dedicated to fighting communism in every way possible from the standpoint of Democratic process.

It seemed on the surface to be a worthy organization to join and follow; however, so many unworthy organizations are masked on the surface with good intentions. Several of my neighbors attended this meeting last evening and were interested in the talk in the movie given by a Mr. Robert Welch of Indianapolis.

Before I join this organization, I would like to know from the F. B. I. of whether this Society has been investigated, whether it is a worthy cause and truly anti-communistic.

Will you please send me any information concerning any investigation of this Society as to whether it is a communist front using adroit methods of a membership drive.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

We have just joined the John Birch Society and are very impressed.

In trying to get new members, tho, we are constantly asked "Are you sure Mr. Welch and his associates have been investigated and approved by the F.B.I. This may be communism in it's most insidious form."

So I am writing to ask if they have been investigated. And we will appreciate any information you may have.

Mr. Hoover, I would like to thank you from the bottom of my heart for all you are, and for all you have done, through the F.B.I., for America.

We have talked to a lot of people. And when you say "well, who would you trust." Everyone has said "I trust Mr. Hoover and I trust the F.B.I." And we feel the same way.

Mr. Welch has suggested that we write Mr. Nixon to appoint you Atty. General, if he is elected. Do you want us to do this? Will you be needed there more?

the American people are so anxious to do what is right. But they are confused. If we can trust Mr. Welch & the John Birch Society, this, I think, will help. But people want to be sure.

thank you for reading this. I hope you will have time to answer.

Dear Sir:

I am writing for information regarding The John Birch Society, founded by Mr. Robert Welch in December, 1958.

Recently I had the opportunity to attend a meeting of this Society as a guest of the local chapter. After listening to the lecture, viewing the film that was narrated by Mr. Welsh, and studying the literature, it seems apparent that this organization is more than just a discussion group aimed at informing the public of the communist conspiracy, but rather one whose goal is to take definite steps in making their opinions, regarding the constitution and the communist influence in our government, heard in Washington.

For years I have been deeply concerned about communism in America and have always wanted to take a more active part rather than just being well informed and discussing the problem with others. The John Birch Society may give me this opportunity. However, inasmuch as many communist fronts are in existance throughout the United States, I would not want to be a member of any American organization unless I can be sure of its respectability. The John Birch Society does speak out strongly against some past great Americans, calling them "sleepers", which may well be correct if the organization is as well informed and sincere as it advocates.

I would appreciate it greatly if you would give your opinion of this organization and state whether or not it is one of which an American can be proud to be a member.

May I say that I enjoyed your book "Masters of Deceit" and have encouraged all my friends to give it their immediate attention.

Dear Mrs. [redacted]

Your letter of October 11, 1960, has been received, and the interest which prompted you to write is indeed appreciated. I want to thank you for your kind comments about the work being done by this Bureau.

While I would like to be of assistance with regard to your inquiries, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency and is not authorized to make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. Our files are maintained as confidential due to regulations of the Department of Justice. I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relative to the individuals or organizations you mentioned.

With respect to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, its aims and responsibilities and those of the FBI are the same--the protection of the internal security of this Nation. While the methods whereby this goal may be accomplished differ, I feel the work the Committee has performed, and is performing, serves as a guide for sincere groups in this country who are carrying on a militant campaign of exposure of communist activities. For information regarding the Committee's procedures, I suggest you write to it directly at 225 Old House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C.

In view of your concern over the menace of communism, I am enclosing some material which you may want to read.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

May I heartily commend you for your recently published report entitled Communist Target--Youth. Americans need such factual information to awaken them, in time, from the deadly sleep of complacency in the midst of which the Communists are rapidly engulfing our country.

Since I am intensely interested in fighting Communism on every possible front, I have tried to join those organizations which seem most militantly anti-Communist and pro-American. For several years I have been a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and I have recently joined the John Birch Society. Do you recommend these organizations as effective instruments in the fight against Communism?

I have recently learned from an individual who attended the National Civil Defense School, held in Battle Creek, Michigan, that the John Birch Society does not appear on the OCDM list of approved organizations. Is there justifiable reason for this omission? If not, would you please recommend that The John Birch Society be listed with the OCDM?

I have become increasingly concerned about the recent attacks on the House Un-American Activities Committee, made by the National Council of Churches and the National Federation of Reform Jewish Temples. My own minister, a Methodist clergyman, recently astounded me with the opinion that the House Un-American Activities Committee is un-American and should therefore be abolished. He implied that the individuals who have been cited by the Committee as members of Communist fronts are falsely accused, in many cases--that no real proof of their Communist leanings had been offered. In fact, he declared that the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church had learned, after investigating the tactics of the House Un-American Activities Committee, that John Doe could get his neighbor's name placed in the files of the Committee merely by writing a letter to the effect that the individual was a Communist or a Communist sympathizer. Is there any truth in such a statement? Are any of the current attacks upon the Committee justifiable? Does the F.B.I. heartily endorse the activities and procedures of the Committee? What is the procedure by which the Committee determines the Communist learnings of an individual? I should greatly appreciate an answer to these questions at your earliest convenience.

Since our church is now involved in a controversy over Communist infiltration of religion (our minister says there are no Communists in the Methodist Church to his knowledge and resents any implication of infiltration) I would appreciate any factual information on this subject which you can supply. In addition, and in the same connection, please supply information on the character and activities of the following men:

1. Dr. Carl McIntire, pastor of the Bible Presbyterian Church, Collingswood, New Jersey, and radio speaker on the Twentieth Century Reformation Hour

2. Dr. Billy James Hargis, founder of Christian Crusade, Tulsa, Oklahoma

3. Dan Smoot, editor of The Dan Smoot Report, P. O. Box 9611, Lakewood Station, Dallas 14, Texas

4. Dr. Fred Schwarz, Executive Director of Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, Box 890, Long Beach 1, California

5. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, President of the National Council of Churches

Is there sufficient evidence to support the charges made against the National Council of Churches in the controversial Air Force manual?

Again, may I commend you for your untiring efforts to protect America from internal decay due to crime and subversion. I wholeheartedly offer you my vote of confidence, together with prayers for continued success in your present office.

We have enjoyed very friendly and cordial relations with Congressman Rivers. The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. SAC Letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished the Bureau. It has not been investigated by the Bureau.

ReMilet to Bureau 8/3/60 captioned "JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY, Milwaukee, Wis., IS-MISCELLANEOUS."

Relet enclosed an article from Milwaukee Journal, a Milwaukee newspaper, 7/31/60, which alleged the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY had a branch in Oshkosh, Wis.

Back issues of Oshkosh Daily Northwestern newspaper of Oshkosh, 9/26/60, for a three month period and subsequent examination of issues of that paper through 10/20/60, by SA [redacted] failed to reflect any activity of an Oshkosh chapter have been reported. It was noted the 8/1/60 issue carried an article referring to above Milwaukee Journal article and also quoted COLA PARKER, Neenah, Wis., former president of National Association of Manufacturers and former Board Chairman of Kimberly-Clark Corp., as having "confirmed today" that he is a member of the advisory council of the Society. He is also quoted as saying, "The purpose of the society, he added, is to combat Communism; to say to Mr. KRUSCHEV he is wrong when he says he's going to buy us." No reference was made in this article to the Oshkosh chapter.

[redacted]

On 8/23/60 [redacted] of the Oshkosh Public Museum, telephonically contacted the Milwaukee Office and advised SA GEORGE V. HUEBSCH that among members of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY are [redacted] Oshkosh. [redacted] Oshkosh, and [redacted] The 1958 Oshkosh City Directory lists [redacted] as [redacted] at Badger Lumber Co., Oshkosh, [redacted] of above address as [redacted] at Ben B. I am greatly concerned with the threat of Communism in my country. As a family we feel we must arm ourselves by being informed.

We have heard the tape on "Brainwashing", a House Un American & seen the film on "The San Francisco Riots." I want my twelve year old son to recognize Communism in any form it may be presented to him.

They (the Communists) are surrounding us geographically & so many Americans seem complacent. If you can send us a list of organizations known to be subversive to you, also the report on the last Communist Convention in this country; we would be grateful.

My husband has heard of the John Birch Society, but we've been unable to get any facts.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter of October 21, 1960, has been received, and I certainly appreciate your kind comments about the work of this Bureau.

While I would like to be of assistance with regard to your inquiry, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and is not authorized to make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I can advise you, however, that the organization you mentioned has not been the subject of an investigation by this Bureau, but this should not be construed as a clearance or nonclearance by the FBI.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have been invited to join The John Birch Society and in this day of communist front organizations and facist organizations, I want to be absolutely sure that an anti-communist organization is exactly that and not some other equally anti-American organization.

Would you please send me whatever information you have or your own opinion of this organization.

I have long admired your fight against crime and for the American way of life and would highly respect and appreciate any opinions you might divulge on this society.

I am interested in actively participating in a non-political organization stressing conservative political and anti-communist actions. Would you please advise me if the "John Birch Society" (305 Concord Avenue, Belmont, Massachusetts) meets those qualifications. Have you any reason to suspect communist infiltration or subversion of that organization, or any pro-communist intentions of its founder, Mr. Robert Welch?

Further, do you know of any reason why patriotic American citizens should hesitate to join such a society? Can you suggest a better way for individuals to combat the Communist menace that threatens our country?

May I also take this opportunity, Mr. Hoover, to express my sincere appreciation of the splendid and courageous work that you have done for our nation.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have taken this opportunity to write you because I feel if any one person in the United States is qualified to comment on Communism in the U.S. you most certainly are without equal.

My wife and I have recently joined a Cardinal Mindszenty study group to become better informed on the Communist threat to us. We are frankly scared, appalled, and outraged by the facts we are discovering about Communism. We both feel this study group is only the 'Door-opener' to taking a more active part in the fight against Communism. Our problem is that being young, Catholic, patriotic, Democrats, we want to direct our energies into the most effective channels.

The 'John Birch' Society here in Milwaukee is praised by a few as an effective Anti-Communist organization and lampooned by many; including the Milwaukee Journal, as being a crack-pot group of 'far right radicals'. What Sir, is your opinion of the John Birch Society? Do you consider it an effective or ineffective means of combatting communists?

We are parents of four young sons and feel very strongly about doing all that we possibly can to insure the future freedom of our boys.

We sincerely hope you will be able to advise us.

Yours very truly,

REC. 35

On 10/10/60 [redacted] Dallas, Texas, advised that two acquaintances of hers, whose names she declined to mention, are associated with the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY. She reported this group was supposedly anti-Communist and from what she knows of the organization they are "against everything." She stated the group did not offer any constructive ideas and criticized the government. She said the group claimed that the Americans for Democratic Action was run by Communists. Mrs. [redacted] said that one of the unnamed acquaintances had subscribed to a newspaper known as "Human Events" which Mrs. [redacted] described as a publication which criticizes everything but offers no remedies for the things in our government it opposes. By way of background information concerning the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY in Dallas, Mrs. [redacted] Dallas, Texas, has advised she attended an organizational meeting of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY which was held at [redacted] Dallas, on 6/28/60. As a result, Mrs. [redacted] was placed on the mailing list and was mailed a pamphlet entitled "American Opinion" which was critical of the government in various ways, including the farm policy. She remembered that one of the topics was entitled "How Christian is Christian Herter," and criticized HERTER's policies as Secretary of State. The society espoused Senator BARRY GOLDWATER of Arizona for President, and claimed to be an anti-Communist organization, she said. Mrs. [redacted] stated that TOM HILL is the co-ordinator of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY in Dallas, and shows motion pictures and runs tape recordings for the various groups comprising the society. The Dallas area is broken into small groups which she compared with church circles, with HILL being the overall co-ordinator of the society in the Dallas area. At the meeting Mrs. [redacted] attended, the co-ordinator stated the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY has 5,000 members in the U. S., and has a goal of 1,000,000 members. HILL stated that only 1,000,000 members would be effective because that was about the number of persons who could understand the motives of Communism. She stated that they have a seminar which lasts for two days at which time they run tape recordings lasting from 16 to 18 hours and a movie is shown for about three hours.

Regarding the organization of the society, HILL stated that ROBERT WELCH is the chairman and that he had appointed a Board of Directors for the society. According to Mrs. [redacted] the Board of Directors in turn have appointed co-ordinators throughout the U. S. which are paid and co-ordinate the various local groups throughout the country. She believed the society to be autocratic in that HILL stated the directors could not be removed and were all appointed by WELCH, the head of the society. She made available a dues schedule which reflected that a life membership in the organization is $1,000; regular membership for men $24, and for women $12. The membership dues for men and women may be paid at $2.00 per month for men and $1.00 for women per month to the local chapter leader.

Dear Sir:

I know that you and your staff are very busy, but I would appreciate it if you could give me some help. From what little I know about the subject we must all do what we can to stop the alarming spread of Communism or it will be too late for us or our children.

b6
b7C

Over the last two months I have seen a film "Communism on The Map" put out by Harding College of Searcy, Arkansas. The film was provided by "The John Birch Society". The film and the society have now come under considerable attack from several sources, such as the faculty at our municipal university and the Air Force Reserve unit of which I am a member had come up in the discussion a sharp challenge from some of its members.

To me the film was excellent showing the history of the spread of Communism. Also from what I know about "The John Birch Society", they are making an effort in the right direction. I am not a joiner by any means, but I have joined this organization.

Would you say I have placed my allegiance in a wrong place or is this the usual attack that can be expected when any opposition is given to Communism? I have found no other organized effort against Communism in which a member of the public can participate. Many people see the danger and do not wish to sit and twiddle their thumbs while the communists take us over.

Your help would be appreciated.

Dear Sir,

I would like information regarding "The John Birch Society, Belmont 78, Mass.

Several weeks ago I was invited to a meeting at my brother John's house, along with twenty or so other people. We were told we would receive information on how to fight Communism on the home front. Most of us attending are connected with some kind of business or trade in town in which we come in contact with people every day.

The meeting consisted of several reels of film being shown by a Mr. Thomas N. Hill, a paid worker for Mr. Welch, head of the John Birch Society.

All we saw and heard was Mr. Welch speaking to us on Marxism, Leninism, etc. and other aspects of communism.

During changes of reels I questioned many statements and inuendos made in the films. None of them were answered to my satisfaction by Mr. Hill.

Here are a few examples:
Mr. Welch claimed that Mr. Truman and Jack Kennedy supported communism in Algeria. When I asked how, I was told they had supported free elections in Algeria just as we are fighting for the world over. Mr. Welch had already stated in the film that they were a small minority in the country so I could not see why he was afraid of free open elections. He suggested that the "Commies" are working in great numbers in the pentagon and all other high military areas. The state dep't. and foreign service is overrun with "Commies." When I asked later for facts, I received none.

The film connected anything using the word social with eventual Communism.

It all smacked of Communism by association.

I was finally told that I was not supposed to question or comment on anything in the film. This I was to find later was a requisite of this society.

The things that I heard in the last two films aroused my curiosity and anger and prompted me to write to your organization for further information.

Mr. Welsh suggested that we work for the removal of the United Nations from our shores and suggested we withdraw. That we cut back and eventually do away with our Missile program. That we do away with foriegn aid. All this was what Mr. "K." was advocating in the U. N. at that very time and it disturbed me.

We were then asked to join the society and become dues paying members. They amounted to twenty-four dollars per year.

We would receive our material for meetings directly from the headquarters each month. They would be read but could not be questioned or discussed at the meeting. You follow them implicitly or resign. We were told that our next two leaders had already been chosen in case of Mr. Welsh's death. That is when I had to leave.

I sincerely hope I am 100% wrong about this way of fighting Communism. Giving up rights of discussion and questioning directives is not fair in any society. The similarity between what they are fighting and their own program came too closely related for me. That is why I finally decided to clear my mind and ask your help.

On 11/5/60, Mr. ROBERT WELCH, 8 Hamlin Lane, Wilmington, Mass. telephonically advised that on that date his wife received a phone call from Western Union advising that Western Union had a telegram addressed merely to ROBERT WELCH, Melrose, Mass. The Western Union employee, unable to locate anybody of that name presently living in Melrose, learned that Mr. and Mrs. WELCH of Wilmington, Mass. had formerly resided in Melrose.

The telegram read as follows:

It appears that the "JBS" in telegram may refer to "The John Birch Society" organized by ROBERT H. WELCH, JR. of Belmont, Mass. in December, 1958, and that possibly the telegram was meant for this individual.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent, a minister, requests information concerning the John Birch Society and the National Council of Churches. He specifically asked if the John Birch Society is sanctioned by the FBI and about the extent of communist infiltration into the National Council of Churches. He also asked if the Director can recommend specific books on the subject of communism.

For a number of years allegations have been made by a number of people, including some clergymen, to the effect that the National Council of the Churches of Christ (NCCC) has been infiltrated by communists. Although we have never conducted investigation of the NCCC as such, we have kept abreast of the efforts of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA), to infiltrate this organization through our over-all investigations of the CPUSA and communist efforts to infiltrate mass-type organizations. It does not appear from the information we have developed that the CPUSA is dictating the policies of the NCCC today. (100-50869)

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches throughout the country. (62-104401)

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have recently come in contact with members of the John Birch Society which purports to be organized for the purpose of fighting communist infiltration in the United States.

Some of the claims and accusations which they make are alarming to say the least.

I am seeking, in so far as it is possible, to try to find out whether they are honestly presenting evidence which has been uncovered by agents of the United States Government or whether they are themselves a front organization for some other purpose (such as anti-United Nations, or anti-integration.)

I would greatly appreciate any information which you could send me regarding the John Birch Society - i.e. does it have the sanction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation?

I would also appreciate any information which you could send me regarding the extent of communist infiltration into American Churches and the National Council of Churches.

In reading through your article in the October 24th issue of "Christianity Today" you urged the formation of discussion groups to acquaint church people with the dangers of communism. Could you recommend any specific books or pamphlets which might be used for such discussion groups? The type of thing which I am specifically seeking is source material which is as free as possible from extraneous motivations - for example a recent anti-communist speaker in this area took the position that the Revised Standard Versinn of the Bible is communist infiltrated - the speaker was a Baptist minister who personall objects to the RSV translation in Isaiah where the word young woman is used rather than "virgin" as it reads in the King James Version.
Knowing that he was fighting a personal theological battle over the translations left doubt as to the validity of his original premise.

I know how difficult it is for any author to seperate his own personal convictions from his thinking , that is,how difficult it is to truly approach a subject from a totally objective point of view. Are there any books which deal with the menace of communism which are straight-forwardly objective in their approach? I would greatly apprec knowing of any which you would recommend.

Re SAC letter 60-5, which contained information concerning the above society. Reference also is made to Bureau letter directed to Mr. [redacted] Post Office Box [redacted] Eugene, Oregon, dated 8/22/60, a copy of which was forwarded to Portland, enclosing a letter from [redacted] to the Director, in which he commended the Director for his work against communism. In his letter [redacted] had said that he was a member of The John Birch Society.

Recent inquiries of the Portland Division indicate that a chapter of this society may be active in the vicinity of Florence, Oregon, a small community on the Oregon coast. The most recent inquiry was one on 10/7/60, from [redacted] American Legion, Portland, who advised that his organization was in receipt of a letter from Mrs. [redacted] in which she said that The John Birch Society recently had been holding meetings in Florence and had requested the use of the American Legion building for the meetings. [redacted] said that inquiries had been made concerning the organization, as to its goals and motives.

The above is being submitted for the information of the Bureau. No other data is available concerning the activities of this society in the Florence vicinity. There also has been no information received which would indicate that any subversive element has any interest in this group.

No further investigation or inquiry is being conducted by the Portland Division.

Re Milwaukee letter to the Bureau, 8/3/60, and Milwaukee airtel to the Bureau, 9/9/60.

This is to advise the Bureau that the only information since relet which has come to Milwaukee's attention about the captioned organization consists of material published by the "Milwaukee Journal" in two articles. The two articles are as follows:

1. "Founder Denies View is Shared," 8/3/60, which reported a Journal interview with ROBERT WELCH of Belmont, Massachusetts, the founder of the John Birch Society. WELCH was reported as saying that his belief President EISENHOWER was a Communist was not a tenet of his Society; that the "Milwaukee Journal" story of 7/31/60 about WELCH, the John Birch Society and the Society's growth in Wisconsin was fallacious because it attributed WELCH's personal beliefs about Mr. EISENHOWER to the Society and that there was no evidence the Society had ten chapters in Wisconsin.

2. "Birch Society is Urged to Take Over PTA's," 9/25/60, which reported that WELCH's September Bulletin to John Birch members told them to join and "take over" local chapters of the Parent-Teachers' Association, to "straighten out" PTA thinking and gain control to "exert a wider influence." The article added that the bulletin was a guide, not an exposition of regulations; that Mrs. [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisc. area [redacted] for the Society, refused to discuss the matter; that Mrs. [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisc. active in the Society, referred questions to her lawyer husband, who himself declined to say whether he was a Society member and claimed not to have seen the bulletin.....The news article quoted WELCH as asking

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent inquires whether "The Southern American" is subversive. She states if this is a subject the Director is not at liberty to discuss, perhaps he would ask Mr. [redacted] of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, to look at the publication and if he has any information on it, to send such information to the correspondent. Correspondent states that the publication was sent through the organization "Western Minute Men, USA." Correspondent states that if the publication is not subversive, to please return it to her. She enclosed a copy of "The Southern American" pointing out it mentions the Director in a manner which she finds distasteful. The item she refers to states, "It's strange that Mr. Hoover always persecutes patriots trying to save our country, but never sees any of the criminals who work around the clock to destroy us all; maybe, even Mr. JEH."

Bufiles disclose that by letter of 8-29-60 correspondent indicated she is a member of an anticommunist organization. Her letter made kind remarks concerning the Bureau. It enclosed a rambling letter she sent to Vice President Nixon setting forth her opinion as to why we should maintain the loyalty oath. A cordial acknowledgment was sent to her with material on the subject of communism.

"The Southern American" is published under the auspices of the National Patrick Henry Organization, Inc. This organization has been the subject of a Bureau investigation and Atlanta was office of origin. The investigation was closed in 1956 in view of lack of activity of this organization. It had been organized during the Fall of 1946 as a society to fight communism; however, since its founding, its activities indicate that its anticommunist attitude is merely one phase of its hate tactics in that many pamphlets are anti-Jewish, anti-Masonic and anti-Negro. Bufiles contain no pertinent information concerning "Western Minute Men, USA."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed you will find a publication which was handed to me to read. I checked this in "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" which was revised and published as of January 2, 1957, but could not find it listed. One particular reason for my inquiring into this publication is the fact it mentions Mr. Hoover in a manner which I find distasteful. This paragraph is outlined in green, by me.

Would you, if possible, let me know the standing of "The Southern American" -- is it subversive? I understand this was sent out through the organization "Western Minute Men, USA"

If all is as it should be, would you please return the publication to me.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I read about your report on July 18, 1960 released in the pamphlet, "Communist Target - Youth." I have sent for some to use in a senior government class at the Dowagiac, Mich. high school.

It gives one a quivering ache when your children say, "Mr. Clark says socialism means progress for the mass of people. Conservatives are interested mostly in their own property dollars" - etc. He cleverly says to make up their own minds but surely glorifies the left side.

Our girl awakened her class with an oral book report on your, "Masters of Deceit."

I am grateful for your contribution. It should mean so much to America.

I hope better solutions to keep local control of schools will be forthcoming. Our Mich. Superintendent of Public Instruction is now appointed, not elected. He and the State Board of Education over-rule County Board decisions on property transfers, weakening primary districts, also against legislation defeat of K-12 Bill.

I am a member of the John Birch Society and expect no reply to my letter.

Gentlemen:

I have recently received literature from the John Birch Society, whose office is in Belmont, Massachusetts, the founder of which is Mr. Robert Welch.

I am informed that this organization promotes the formation of John Birch Society Chapters throughout the country, the purpose of which is to meet periodically and discuss matters of interest to the nation and to take action considered in the best interests of the country and particularly in opposition to the growth of communism.

I am considering joining a chapter of the society or organizing a new chapter but before doing so I would like to know that the organization and its purposes have been cleared by your office and found to be truly American in nature and not a communist front organization.

I will appreciate anything you can give me to guide me in my decision to participate in the work of the John Birch Society.

[redacted] allegedly told [redacted] that he did not have time to engage in this activity whereupon [redacted] gave [redacted] name and suggested that [redacted] contact [redacted] and ask [redacted] to set up the committee and serve as State Chairman.

Mr. [redacted] stated that he had never met [redacted] prior to his first contact with him in August 1960, and that he does not know how [redacted] obtained his name.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] told him that the purpose of this committee was to seek out subversive persons and activities in the State of S. C. and forward any information obtained to an organization in Washington, D. C. Mr. [redacted] stated that he cannot recall the name of this organization, but stated that he recalled that [redacted] stated that the organization was of the type that conducted investigations relative to industrial hiring. [redacted] explained to him that he should contact reputable persons in various cities throughout the state and solicit their aid in this committee work. He stated that [redacted] suggested that these persons would have to attend all types of meetings in their respective cities, political, church and social and report any suspicious activities or personages to him, [redacted], who in turn would forward the information to the main office in Washington, D. C.

[redacted] advised [redacted] that he should be very security conscious and that he should keep the identity of his contacts unknown to one another. This committee work was to be done on a voluntary basis and participants would receive no remuneration.

[redacted] furnished [redacted] with the enclosed thermofax organizational chart and the four pages of what appears to be a formal bulletin issued by an "Anti-Subversive" group in Florida. These latter bulletins indicate a mailing address of the organization as "FNB, P. O. Box 1542, Winter Park, Florida."

[redacted] stated that he had no intention of conducting any activity along these lines and had forgotten about the incident until October 19, 1960, when he received through the mail the copy of the booklet, "American Opinion." He stated that the return address on the envelope read: "[redacted] Greenville, S. C."

This booklet is published by Editor ROBERT WELCH, Belmont 78, Massachusetts.

The enclosed issue of "American Opinion" purports to be "A panoramic survey of the degree of Communist influence in each of 107 countries."

[redacted] stated that upon receipt of this booklet, he recalled his contact with [redacted] and decided to furnish the FBI with this literature and information for whatever value it might have. He stated that he does not intend to have anything to do with this organization, and has not had any contact with [redacted] since the initial contact.

The four thermofax pages of what appear to be a news bulletin of a Florida "Anti-Subversive" group, refer to organizational operations; the possibility of groups renting tape recordings of "Schwartz' Christian-Anti-Communist Crusade," a series which records talks by Dr. SCHWARTZ, RICHARD ARENS and HERBERT PHILBRICK." Bulletin also refers to plans having been made to start a "Florida Red File," in which members are urged to report information on individuals or organizations on 3x5 cards, making two copies of such a card, "(one for the FBI)."

The bulletins also refer to JEROME DAVIS and [redacted] of Clearwater, Florida, who visited the Soviet Union and had a three-hour visit in the Kremlin with Deputy Premier A. I. MIKOYAN.

This literature appears to be the house organ of a "Super Patriot" type of organization.

The above information and enclosures are being furnished the Bureau for information in the event similar information has been received from other sources.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Recently there has been brought to my attention The John Birch Society, organized about 1959 by one Robert Welch. It professes to fight communism. Your book Masters of Deceit is an eye--opener and has answered some of my questions, but what I should now like to know is how an average citizen like me goes about determining the veracity and reliability of such organizations. We, as a nation, certainly need to unite and actively fight communism, but how does one know when one is really doing the job and when one is being duped into helping the communists?

Our local F.B.I. and Attorney General's office can give me no information concerning this society. Can you?

Very sincerely yours,

/s/ [redacted]

Dear Mr Hoover,

First of all, I wish to thank you for your nice letter and the two addresses. They were excellent. Now I know patriotism isn't dead.

May we have 20 copies of the address before the American Legion Convention on October 18th 1960? I am giving the copy you sent to a youth leader who is concerned with the way they are being "brain-washed."

We also would like 20 copies of your letter to all law enforcement officers, and anything you can send us on "Sit-In" strikes Student Riots, juvenile delinquency and other areas of life that could be improved if we had the information.

Any material you send us will be put in good hands throughout this area.

Thank you.

MR. MOHR:

SAC Brown, Pittsburgh, called and talked to Kemper. He said that one [redacted] Pennsylvania, had called the Pittsburgh Office, stated that he had been in a local flower shop this morning and that one [redacted] (no record Pittsburgh files) was circulating a petition urging that the Director be removed as head of the FBI and made Attorney General of the United States.

[redacted] said that he thought that the petition, which was being directed to President-Elect Kennedy, was being circulated by the Burke Society.

This ~~is undoubtedly~~ COULD BE the John Birch Society, headed by Robert Welch, wealthy candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts. This group is subject of Paragraph F of SAC Letter 59-13. In January, 1959, Welch met with a group of leading industrialists in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, lecturing on communism and presented his plan to establish ostensibly communist front groups which, in reality, would be anticommunist groups. Above SAC Letter alerted the field of these plans and instructed the field to promptly advise the Bureau of any information concerning Welch's activities in this regard. Welch wrote a book entitled "The Politician" which came to the Bureau's attention in March, 1959. Only a limited number of copies printed which he has distributed to friends and certain individuals who he believes would be interested in its contents. This book attacks the reputation of the President of the United States, particularly Chapter 9 which is a violent attack upon President Eisenhower.

SUBJECT: LETTER FROM CONGRESSMAN JACK WESTLAND DATED NOVEMBER 2, 1960, REGARDING JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

Attached is a letter from Congressman Westland dated November 2, 1960, which enclosed a copy of a letter from Mrs. [redacted] Bow, Washington who inquired about the John Birch Foundation. Based on limited information furnished, Bufiles contain no information identifiable with Mrs. [redacted]

We have enjoyed extremely cordial relations with Congressman Westland, and it is believed that he should be confidentially informed regarding the John Birch Society. The John Birch Society was founded by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., a wealthy candy manufacturer in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958. The organization is allegedly anticommunist and has branches in many parts of the country.

Welch has been extremely critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. He has, in the past, gone so far as to even call the President a communist. It is not known to what extent Mr. Welch is able to control his followers; however, it is known that he has a great deal to do with the Society's publications, the construction of their "reading list," and he is the author of the books, "The Politician" and the "Blue Book," which he has widely distributed to his followers. He has endeavored to give the members of the various branches his personal touch by preparing tapes which are played back to the members at their meetings. These tapes have reached 2 1/2 hours in length.

We are not actively investigating this Society, but we have alerted the field to forward any information on their activities to the Bureau. This was done because Welch has indicated that his group may attempt to take on the appearance of a front organization in an effort to attract true subversives.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Here in Wichita there is a group of men who belong to the John Birch Society (with which I am sure you must be familiar.)

I personally feel that they are doing a fine job of informing the public about the danger of the Communist menace. The one and only newspaper here, "The Wichita Eagle and Beacon", has allowed them to be smeared by certain other Wichita citizens who have called them many things; the most commonly used term, in regard to them has been "fascistic".

Upon reading your book, "Masters of Deceit" it occured to me that perhaps I could turn to you for information about this John Birch Society. If you have any such information that would enable me to clear them of these charges and aid them in furthering their work against the Communists, I would appreciate your sending it to me.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Recently as president of our local PTA unit, it was requested of me to provide time at one of our PTA meetings for a discussion of anti-communist material to be made available by the John Birch Society.

b6

Certainly all of the members of our community desire to fight the inroads of Communism, and we are anxious to cooperate. But in our local paper not too long ago, there was an article about this society which indicated that they felt that President Eisenhower was a Communist, and this gives me sufficient cause to question the validity of this organization.

Do you have any information about this organization or can you refer me to where I can get further details?

It appears that the society was begun in 1958 in Indianapolis by a Bostonian by the name of Robert Welch.

Your assistance would be appreciated.

Dear Mrs. Boe:

Your letter dated November 5, 1960, has been received, and your interest in writing to me is indeed appreciated.

I can well understand your desire to obtain accurate information concerning various individuals and organizations, and I regret that I am unable to be of assistance to you in such matters. The FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, cannot furnish clearances, evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. I trust you will understand my position in this regard and will not infer that our files do or do not contain information pertinent to your inquiry.

In view of your interest in the menace of communism to this country, however, I am enclosing some literature available for general distribution by the FBI which you may like to read.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent, in a lengthy letter, furnishes her observations concerning the John Birch Society and states that she has begun to wonder if this organization is correct in its accusations and methods and inquires if it is an organization that is in disfavor with the FBI. She also states that she is asking for the Bureau's help and inquires in what way can a sincere and concerned individual be of most help in fighting communism.

Bufiles contain no identifiable information concerning the correspondent.

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been investigated by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches throughout the country. (62-104401)

Correspondent's inquiry as to how an individual can help in fighting communism is believed well answered in the literature which is being furnished to the correspondent.

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. "Communist Target - Youth."
2. "What you can do to Fight Communism and Preserve America."
3. "America - Freedom's Champion."
4. "How to Beat Communism."
5. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I'm confused.

And because I feel sure my confusion is a state of mind shared by many other sincere, concerned, thoughtful Americans, I am asking you for the answers to several questions--which I hope will enable me to clarify my thoughts. Your department is the only source of factual information on which I can depend--and I hope my faith in your evident sense of responsibility to the individuals of this nation is productive.

Within recent months my concern about the inroads of Communism, which now seem to crosshatch every activity in these United States, has changed from one of passive deploration to active anti-Communist evangelism; on a stricly individual, non-affiliated, basis.

However, I know that no matter how many individuals become aware of the seriousness of the situation--this intellectual conviction without implementing action--is not going to remove any Communists from influential positions anywhere.

So, accepting the personal responsibility to defend one's patriotic convictions with the same dedicated aggressiveness that the Communists show, one begins to look for ways to implement this decision. And one becomes aware that eventually, to be effective, this must become political action.

Recently, the John K. Birch Society represenatives presented the program of their organization in this area. Frankly I had gone to their first presentation hoping to find an organization through which I could more effectively expend my energies in combating Communism, but my first reaction to their information and theories was that this was way too far at the other end of the pendulum swing. On the basis that it is unfair to form an opinion without information, however, I did take all of their literature--including the Blue Book--and read it carefully. While it was comparable to a teetotaler taking a double shot of straight Scotch--it did make me wonder if they were right in their accusations and methods.

In mentioning this organization to the president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers (I am also a member of the state Board of Managers of this group, and held a similar position in Kansas before we moved to Oregon), I discovered that at the recent Board of Managers meeting of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, a warning to beware of this group had been issued. I wrote to the National P.T.A. office and asked for the source of their information about the John K. Birch Society, and was sent copies of Jack Mabley's column in the Chicago Daily News for July 25, 26, 30, and September 13.

In these columns, Mr. Mabley denounces "a 302-page, black paperbound book" written by Robert Welch (founder of the Society), titled, "The Politician." Mr. Mabley states that this book "accuses President Eisenhower of treason"... "flatly calls him a Communist, and for 302 pages attempts to document the charge." He further calls the book, "fantastic" and "incredible." In another column he quotes Welch as having written in the September Bulletin (which goes to all members of the Society): "Join you local PTA at the beginning of this school year, get your conservative friends to do likewise, and go to work to take it over." These columns are headed, "BARES SECRETS OF RED-HATERS," "STRANGE THREAT TO DEMOCRACY,"JOHN BIRCH OUT AFTER PTAs."

I have written for copies of both this September Bulletin and the 302-page book so that I can interpret Mr. Welch's statements, particularly concerning the PTAs, for myself; I have questioned everyone I know who has heard of this Birch Society--including a man who ran an R & I check on Robert Welch and said he found nothing suspicious. Now I am asking you: is this an organization that is in disfavor as far as your knowledge is concerned? I know it is in disfavor with socialistically inclined liberals. But I certainly would not want to champion an organization--or allign my thinking with it--if it were actually undermining the very tenets I am so stubbornly defending.

There are further reasons for my confusion.

Just three days ago our local paper printed a lengthy article based on your report, evidently just released, about the Communist exploitation and manipulation of youth and student groups throughout the world; in the same issue was a full page announcement of the pamphlet, "Ideology and Co-Existence," printed by the Moral Re-Armament group, which we would be receiving in the mail--followed two days later by my receipt of it.

All of these articles impress any thinking adult with the urgency for action. Because PTA has as its sole concern, so stated in its Objects, the welfare of children and youth, it should be vitally concerned in combating Communism; yet if I stand up at our next Board meeting November 15th and tell our state congress that perhaps they should investigate the charges against the John K. Birch Society before they dogmatically condemn it, I will undoubtedly be thought to be antagonistic to the National PTA, if not worse.*

When Mr. Welch speaks out, even though even in Jack Mabley's words he is "an acknowledged, sincere and rabid anti-Communist," the press writes headlines like those quoted above--which imply that it is something disgraceful, even treasonous, to be against Communism! It almost makes one give credence to Mr. Welch's statement that the press is controlled by Communists.

Another example. In this morning's Oregonian, it is reported that four arrests have been made, on "political-criminal libel" indictments, of persons who are alleged to have issued handbills attacking Monroe Sweetland, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, as being connected with various Socialist and Communist front organizations--which he denies. In reporting these arrests, the Oregonian states, "two of the seven"(indicted) ...are Louise Gronnert, long identified in Oregon as an anti-Communist leader and Claude G. Pike, religious leader who has campaigned against Communism over station KGON."

*--notwithstanding the statement in the Moral Re-Armament pamphlet that one dictate of the Communist party strategy for the U.S. is to put Communists "into neighborhood associations (Parent-Teacher Associations, etc.)".

JOHN R. BOE, M. D.
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON
~~SUITE 315 WING BUILDING~~
GRANTS PASS, OREGON PHONE GR 6-7747

The dilemma I am trying to outline is this: one of the avowed techniques of Communist brainwashing is to make every man an island within himself--to make him distrust everyone; yet if a person accepts everyone's actions without question and at face value, in good faith, I am sure that person is guilty of not recognizing some Communists--since they are so diabolically clever at presenting a very good face value! Then if one does speak out, and questions the motives and convictions of specific individuals, he is running the risk of being indicted for libel, or at best being considered a fanatic by those who say that "we mustn't allow our fear of Communism to cause us to listen to people who, in fighting Communism, will do more damage to our ideals and our 'democracy' and our wonderful American feeling of 'brotherhood' than would the Communists themselves." *

To further add to my confusion--in a way that, if it weren't so serious, would be hilarious!--I am also the President of the League of Women Voters of Grants Pass, an organization which I am told is infiltrated by Communists at the national level.

So I am asking for help. In what way can a sincere and concerned individual be of most help in fighting Communism? How can he be most effective?

Being a devout Episcopalian, I have even discussed the religious aspects of this dilemma with our parish priest. Being the wife of a professional man in a small town, I am concerned with being effective and morally honest without being damaging to my family's welfare. But also, being the 40 year old mother of two teen-aged daughters, I am soberly and vigilantly concerned over the future of this country.

I do sincerely hope you will look upon this lengthy outpouring as being an expression of the baffling confusion that exists in the minds of so many people today, and that you will be able to give some direction to our willing--but baffled--intent.

Most earnestly,

Mrs. John R. Boe

Mrs. John R. Boe
1144 N. E. Beacon Drive

*--and then one wonders if these people, who in a sense actually promote Communism by making the task of the anti-Communist more difficult, say such things with studied intent or through misguided ignorance.

Dear sir,

Recently I have become interested in the John Birch Society. I am wondering if you could give me any information pertaining to the reliability of this group. It is my intention to give as much support and recruiting as I possibly can to some such organization, therefore, I would like to be certain of the intentions and loyalties of any group before joining.

I have read The Blue Book, which seems to have a very positive program, and is of greatest interest to me, but perhaps you know of another organization which is doing more to combat Communism and the increasing Socialism in America. If so, I would appreciate, very much, any information you might give me.

Thank you very much for any comments you might have on any portion of this book, or other information.

Our thanks also for the personal fight you and your organization are making on the Communist menace in our country. Please let us know how we can best help to keep the F.B.I. an effective force.

RE: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This short letter of inquiry--from the stand point of personal interest--is very important.

A group of local citizens have begun to organize chapters of the "John Birch Society" here. Some of my friends have been asked to join, and I have been solicited to join. I have written to the Catholic Freedom Foundation for informtn--They recommend that chapters be established in local areas--there chapters are designed to do "anti-subversive" work.

When Sen. Goldwater visited Amarillo, some of those that are interested ask him if he knew of the Society. I am told he did know of it and approves of it.

Lately, I have heard some adverse opinions of this society--That is--in a manner that would make one actually resent the organization--doubt its motives & distrust its members. Will you--or one of your personnel--let me hear from you regarding this organization? Or, if you are not in a position to, or cannot let me know, will you tell me where I might get information on its members (those who are organizing the society)

If it can do what I am told it is designed to do, I am for it 100%--but I need (as do some of my friends) some place to seek needed information before we get into some thing we might regret. If you need more information from here, let me know what it would be, other wise, may I hear from you before their meeting early in December. I should like to be in a position to make a decision at that time.

Very Sincerly yours

Dear Miss [redacted]

Your letter of November 12, 1960, has been received.

While I would like to be of service to you in connection with the organization about which you inquired, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and as such does not furnish evaluations or comments regarding the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. I can advise you, however, that the organization you mentioned has not been the subject of an investigation by this Bureau but this should not be construed as clearance or nonclearance by the FBI.

In view of your concern about communism, I am enclosing some material which may be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: Bufiles contain no information identifiable with correspondent. She enclosed with her letter a slip of paper which appeared to be the masthead of "The Independent American," listing Kent Courtney as publisher and Phoebe Courtney as editor. Bufiles contain no identifiable data of a subversive or derogatory nature concerning Kent Courtney or Phoebe Courtney. He is connected with "The Independent American," formerly known as "Free Men Speak." The publication is allegedly dedicated to the defeat of socialist and communist influences and to promote the cause of individuals and organizations which believe that a political party based on constitutional states rights is the answer to socialism. Neither Courtney nor his publication has been investigated by the Bureau.

The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches in various parts of the country. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

Gentlemen; [redacted] New Orleans 18,

Last week I caught what I considered an extremely informative and intelligent radio speech by the Publisher of the INDEPENDENT AMERICAN who solicited listeners to write him for more information. This I did.

I had a most cordial letter from Mr. Kent Courtney, Publisher, acquainting me with the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY which he informed me was a 'national network of tightly knit organized citizen study groups who take political action.' The address of this organization was not given me in his letter but I have requested same.

He also added - 'if you are interested in joining an anti-communist study group I will send you the name of their national organizer.' which I also requested.

As an American Citizen I am interested in promoting the best interests of my country; but I want to make absolutely sure that all the above are dedicated to the same principles and not cover-ups for insidious groups.

Your advise in this matter will be greatly appreciated. Naturally any information I have herewith given you is confidential and I request that my name be kept out of any investigations you may make in checking all the above.

I await your reply.

Dear Sir,

There fell into my hands, from separate sources on almost the same day, the Blue Book of the John Birch Spciety, Belmont 78, Mass (also their June bulletin) and a reprint of an interview by staff members of the Committee on Un-American Activities with Dr F C Schwarz of Australia on May 29, 1957.

The latter impresses me greatly but seems too long and too technical for general use. Has any brief synopsis pf this been issued and circulated?

The Blue Book mentioned has many good points but there are some things I cannot go along with; especially criticisms of Dulles, Herter, Esisenhpwer, Nixon and all of Foreign Aid, also the dictatpr attitude of Robert Welch. Can you give me fuller details of this movement?

I am a Friends Minister, retired, a pacifist (pax - facere) but most definitely not a passivist as some Quakers have become. I am against aetheist communism with all my heart.

I am grateful for what you are doing: I have your book "Master of Deceit".7

Gratefulky yours,

Dear Sir:

During the past few weeks we have had several people approach us in this area about the possibility of becoming members of and supporting the program of an organization called The John Birch Society. This organization purports to be primarily concerned with combating the spread of Communism in our country and abroad through the use of an organization of cells for instruction political meetings. I have read some of their literature and have talked with a number of people who are presently supporting their program, but the results have been inconclusive. It appears from this cursory examination that this organization has some radical elements and in some areas is very extreme. However, I felt that it would be appropriate to solicit your advice regarding this organization and ask you to provide me with whatever date you might have concerning the history of The John Birch Society and the background of the people primarily concerned with its operation. I would also appreciate an indication of the feeling of the people in your organization as to whether this society is beneficial to our country and if it is one to which a person who is interested in the security of our nation should become connected.

One of the things which has disturbed me among the things which I have heard from the people now supporting the John Birch Society, is their criticism of the League of Women voters. It is their contention that the League of Women voters is too liberal and is primarily an organization whose objectives are the furtherance of the principles of the more liberal elements of the Democratic party. This accusation is to be expected from the true conservatives in our part of the country since, by far, the large marjority of the people are members of the Democratic party and are prone to support the ideals and the platforms which some of the rest of us feel are too liberal. However, I have seen no reason to feel that these people are too radical in their approach and I do not know what reputation this organization enjoys on a national basis. Therefore, I would appreciate your opinion on the same matters as requested concerning The John Birch Society regarding the objectives and the people involved.

NOTE: No record Bufiles identifiable with correspondent. The John Birch Society, founded by Robert Welch of Belmont, Massachusetts, is purported to be an anticommunist organization. We have not investigated the group. "American Opinion" formerly "One Man's Opinion" is published irregularly by Welch. It is a magazine consisting of reviews of current topics by various authors and comments by Welch. Many articles are anticommunist.

J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation

My Dear Mr. Hoover:

For the past three years I have been reading, regularly, a magazine called American Opinion. This magazine began as One Man's Opinion, published by Robert Welch of Belmont, Massachusetts. It then became American Opinion, published by the same man only he had a board of advisors, etc.

I have great faith in this man and his writings. I also have great faith in some of his reporters: William Schlamm, J. B. Mathews, Revilo P. Oliver.

My wife thinks Robert Welch is a Communist or has Communist leanings. I think he is trying to wake up America to the facts of world affairs.

b6

I would appreciate it if you would inform me as to whether or not American Opinion is a Communist-inspired magazine or if it really is the anti-Communist magazine it claims to be.

Enclosed you will find a self-addressed, stamped envelope in which I would appreciate your promptest reply:

Thanking you very much for your cooperation in this matter, I remain

Very truly yours,

Dear Major [redacted]

Your letter dated November 14, 1960, has been received.

I am glad to know of your desire to combat the growing menace of communism, and enclosed are publications available for distribution by the FBI which offer citizens suggestions as to how they can defend our democratic way of life against the subversive forces facing us today. I am unable as a matter of policy to recommend to you any additional specific publication, and you will, no doubt, appreciate my position.

With reference to your other inquiry, I wish to advise that the FBI has not investigated the group you named, and I cannot be of help. I hope, however, you will not infer in this connection that this constitutes a clearance or nonclearance of the organization in question.

NOTE: Correspondent is not identifiable in Bufiles. The John Birch Society' is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has, in the past, also attacked President Eisenhower and his Administration in his writings.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am an Air Force Officer, and while on a recent leave in my home town of Columbus, Ohio, I was invited by a friend to attend a meeting sponsored by an anti-communist organization in that city. The meeting consisted of a filmed presentation of a speech given by a Mr. Robert Welch, representing an organization called the John Birch Society. The picture this man painted of the success and extent of the Communist conspiracy in our country was truly startling. Especially shocking to me were the veiled and indirect accusations of treason regarding prominent individuals whom I have always thought of as outstanding and loyal Americans.

I decided that if what this man had to say was true, then I was duty-bound as a loyal citizen to do everything in my power to help fight this menace, especially through organized and concerted action such as that offered by his organization. Although I did not doubt the sincerity of this man I was not fully convinced that the success of communist subversion could be as great as he claimed without more people being aware of it and doing something about it. Therefore, I felt that my first obligation was to educate myself in every way possible on this subject.

I am writing you this letter, sir, in the hope that you might furnish me with a list of books, pamphlets and sources of information from which I might gain a first-hand knowledge of communist activities. I hesitated to take up your valuable time in this manner, but I was encouraged to do so in the belief that you may have such information readily available for distribution as a result of similar requests from other people. Most of all I felt that this matter is important enough to justify going directly to you in order that I may be sure of getting started in the right direction.

I am not wholly ignorant of the aims and methods of Communism, and in this regard I am especially familiar with your book, "Masters of Deceit". What I am seeking is first-hand information and evidence of the extent and success of Communism as claimed by Mr. Welch. I am thinking especially of such evidence as would be available through the government printing office (sworn testimony before the Un-American Activities Committee, etc.)

Dear Sir;

My husband and I have been invited to join an organization called the John Birch Society, whose stated purpose is to promote Americanism and conservatism.

This organization encourages its members to read conservative books, such as Senator Barry Goldwaters' book; protest certian movies, such as "Inheret the Wind"; and to write our congressmen on various affairs, such as the promoting of J. Edgar Hoover to Attorny General, among other things. They are also showing a film entitled "Communism on the Map".

b6
b7C

Outwardly, these activities seem harmless enough to the American way of life, but we feel that because so many subversive organizations seem innocent enough at first, that we should contact the F.B.I. before becoming involved.

We would appreciate your comment before joining.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Although I am sure the bureau must be unusually pressed after the election I must make this request. Most certainly the answer can be at your convenience as I am in no hurry. I do request you answer personally if at all feasible to do so.

Like many loyal Americans I am contemplating active member participation in the John Birch Society whose aims are to win the battle against the communists. They seem a bit radical in their action, yet I cannot see how they can be otherwise to actually win the battle. I have recently completed some major responsibilities and if I join this group I'll give it all my heart and energy plus my intelligence. Members are free to act as they wish and need not follow their "recommended" action 100%. Please advise me as to the F.B.I.'s feelings about this group; whether or not, in your judgement, they are a loyal american - anti-communist group that can aid our country and preserve what we have so dearly paid for - our freedom. I am a World War II, marine corps veteran and have held a successfully more senior executive position since graduating from Ohio University in 1950. Importantly, I am in a position to be a very good help in the John Birch effort should I elect to do so. Your answer will be extremely important to me and many of my friends both in the Society and those contemplating entrance to the group. Thank you for your advise and God bless you and the entire bureau for at least four more years.

On 11/2/60, Mrs. [redacted], Dallas, Texas, advised that the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY has three paid coordinators in Dallas, Texas, at the present time with TOMHILL being one of these coordinators. It was Mrs. [redacted] belief that the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY currently has 20 chapters in Dallas. A letter from this organization to Mrs. [redacted] dated 10/10/60 gives the following documentation of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY. The letter quoted from the "Chicago Daily News" in an article entitled "Bares Secret of Red-Haters," by JOHN MABLEY, 7/25/60, page three:

b7C

"The John Birch Society is an organization of ultra-conservatives, banded together to fight communism in America.

"It is not a secret society in the normal sense of the word, but it tries to avoid publicity. Until this moment, it has been successful.

"The head--and absolute head--of the John Birch Society is Robert Welch, of Boston. The society has members in every state and active chapters in half of the states. There are ten chapters in the Chicago area.

"The goal is a million active members.

"With its announced program of fighting communism, the society has attracted thousands of well-meaning, conscientious men and women throughout the country.

"Here is an exact quote from the book: 'While I too think that Milton Eisenhower is a Communist, and has been for 30 years, this opinion is based largely on general circumstances of his conduct. But my firm belief that Dwight Eisenhower is a dedicated, conscious agent of the Communist conspiracy is based on an accumulation of detailed evidence so extensive that it seems to me to put this conviction beyond any reasonable doubt.'

"He says also of the President '... there is only one possible word to describe his purposes and actions. That word is treason.'

"The immediate reaction on confronting this writing is to dismiss it as the work of a crackpot. However, the circumstances of Welch's position and influence dictate further examination...'

"We further quote from the Chicago Daily News, 'Strange Threat To Democracy', by John Mabley, July 2[illegible], 1960, page 1.

"Robert Welch, the leader of thousands of conservative Americans in the John Birch Society, not only believes that President Eisenhower is a Communist, but takes a dim view of democracy.

"'Democracy is merely a deceptive phrase, a weapon of demagoguery, and a perennial fraud', he told founders of the John Birch League in 1958. He has continued to maintain this in a book given to new members.

"Wealthy conservatives support Welch. He lists as members of the advisory 'Council' Cola G. Parker, Ernest G. Swigert, and William J. Grede, all past presidents of the National Association of Manufacturers, Clarence Manion of the Manion Forum, the late James Simpson Jr., former Illinois Republican congressman, and a number of other well-known conservatives.

"Welch is a persuasive speaker. Many responsible people are attracted to the John Birch Society by the lofty aims expressed by Welch and 'coordinators' who lead local groups.

"However, members are never told about a book written by Welch. It is called The Politician...

"Welch writes that Roosevelt was used by the Communists. He also says that Truman was used by them, but with his knowledge and acquiescence because they 'made him president'. In the third stage of Communist conspiracy, writes Welch, 'the Communists have one of their own actually in the Presidency'..."

"It was founded December 9, 1958, in Indianapolis, and named for John Birch, a captain in the U. S. army, allegedly murdered in cold blood by Chinese Communists ten days after VJ-Day.

"Welch gave up his career as a candy company executive to lead the society.

"He was educated for four years at the University of North Carolina, two years at the United States Naval Academy and two years at Harvard law school. He was a director of the National Association of Manufacturers for seven years.

"The society has the backing of wealthy, conservative businessmen. Three former presidents of the National Association of Manufacturers are listed by Welch as members of the 'Council' of the society.

"I have seen the appeal of the society in its own suburban community of 18,000. There are four active units in the village. At a meeting two weeks ago tonight, more than 200 persons turned out.

"The organization is monolithic, or, to use another word which Welch himself introduced, dictorial. He is the absolute and unquestioned head, the 'hard-boiled, dictorial and dynamic boss' need to run such an organization. The quotes are his.

"The above facts relate closely in the following. I have obtained a copy of a book by Welch intended for distribution only to the leaders of the society.

"It is a 302 page black paperbound book, reproduced by the photo off-set process, with looseleaf binders. The title is The Politician. The book accuses President Eisenhower of treason.

"It flatly calls him a Communist, and for 302 pages attempts to document the charge.

"It accuses most of his aides--John Foster Dulles and his brother Allen, Chief Justice Earl Warren, former Defense Secretary Neil McElroy and dozens of others, of being a part of the Communist conspiracy to take over this nation.

NOTE: In view of correspondent's common name no information regarding him could be located in Bufiles based on the limited information furnished. It is noted that he identified himself as local Chapter leader of the John Birch Society. The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958, in Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches in various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. SAC Letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs that any information regarding its activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

MR. J. EDGAR HOOVER, DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEAR SIR:

I READ WITH INTEREST, AN ARTICLE IN "CHRISTIAN ECONOMICS" RELATIVE TO YOUR REPORT TO THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE ENTITLED "EXPOSE OF SOVIET ESPIONAGE, MAY, 1960. I WOULD LIKE TO OBTAIN A COPY OF THIS REPORT AND HOPE THAT YOU CAN SPARE THE TIME TO SEND ONE TO ME.

AS A CITIZEN, I READ EVERYTHING I CAN GET MY HANDS ON REGARDING THE COMMUNIST MENANCE. I DO NOT FEEL, HOWEVER, THAT TO BE INFORMED IS ENOUGH. WE MUST AS CITIZENS TAKE SOME ACTION TO COUNTERACT THE COMMUNIST SUBVERSION OF OUR WAY OF LIFE. I DO THE USUAL THINGS EXPECTED OF ANY GOOD CITIZEN. I WRITE MY CONGRESSMAN, MY SENATORS; I WORKED DURING THE ELECTIONS; I REPRODUCE AND DISTRIBUTE LITERATURE REGARDING THE COMMUNIST MENACE; I HAVE ARRANGED SHOWINGS OF THE FILM "OPERATION ABOLITION", ETC. IT STILL DOES NOT SEEM THAT I AM DOING ENOUGH. I AM FRUSTRATED AND APPALLED AT THE APATHY OF THE AVERAGE CITIZEN. FORTUNATELY, WE RE-ELECTED THE GREATEST CONGRESSMAN ON CAPITAL HILL, JAMES B. UTT OF THE 28TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, BUT HE CAN NOT DO THE JOB ALONE.

I HAVE JOINED AN ORGANIZATION CALLED THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY HEADED BY ROBERT WELCH WITH HEADQUARTERS IN BELMONT, MASSACHUSETTS. AS A MATTER OF FACT, I AM THE LOCAL CHAPTER LEADER OF THIS ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO THE BASIC PRINCIPLES OF SOUND AMERICANISM. I WOULD LIKE YOUR COMMENTS ON THE EFFECTIVENESS OF ORGANIZATIONS LIKE THIS AND PARTICULARLY YOUR EVALUATION OF THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING ELSE THAT WE AS CITIZENS CAN DO TO PRESERVE OUR GREAT HERITAGE I WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR ADVICE AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON THESE MATTERS.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter of November 17, 1960, with enclosures, has been received, and your interest in writing is indeed appreciated.

With regard to your inquiry, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and as such does not make evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I can advise you, however, that the organization you mentioned has not been the subject of an investigation by the FBI, but this should not be construed as a clearance or nonclearance by the FBI.

I am enclosing some material regarding communism which you may like to read.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

The Houston office of the FBI, upon my recent request for information concerning the John Birch Society, recommended that I contact the Attorney General's Office in Washington, D. C. Enclosed is a copy of the reply I received and of the list included.

b6

My purpose in seeking this information was to assure myself that the leadership of this organization is sufficient to effectively fight communist activity in our country, and naturally to assure my own personal protection.

This letter from the Justice Department is inconclusive, and does not answer my question. I am most anxious to be of service to my country, and am appealing to you to advise me as to the proper steps I should take to secure this information.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

In response to your letter of September 27, 1960 this is to advise that, in furnishing information from its files, if any is available, this Department is limited by law to servicing the executive departments and agencies of the Federal government in the exercise of official functions. Moreover, while this Department is authorized to designate organizations pursuant to Executive Order No. 10450, relating to the Federal employee security program, it has no authority to clear organizations.

There is enclosed, however, a consolidated list dated November 1, 1955 of all the organizations designated by this Department pursuant to Executive Order No. 10450, the only authority under which it may characterize organizations. Membership in, or affiliation with a designated organization, is one factor to be considered by the departments and agencies of the Federal government in connection with the employment or retention in employment of individuals in Federal service.

Sincerely,

J. WALTER YEAGLEY

I am writing to ask your opinion concerning the activities of the John Birch Society of Belmont, Massachusetts, and of its founder Mr. Robert Welsh.

This organization seems to me to be a step in the right direction in the fight against Communism in the world today. However, before I give my support, I would like to have your opinion of this organization and its founder, to be sure that the efforts of the organization are definitely directed toward anti-Communism.

Your advice and counsel in this matter will be sincerely appreciated.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

It is certainly most disturbing to see how our country is constantly retreating in the face of the encroachment of communism. I have read with real interest your "Masters of Deceit" and other articles and pamphlets which you have written, all to alert our people to the real nature of this international conspiracy.

I would like to ask if it is true as I read in one pamphlet recently, not written by you, that there are at least thirty communist espionage rings operating in this country today against the only two or three that have been partially exposed? And, is it true that not only has all really effective exposure of these espionage rings been stopped but scores of known communist sympathizers have been restored by Supreme Court rulings to their former jobs within our Federal Government? Is it also true that seventy-five vital links in the most secret communications of our government itself including those of the Pentagon to Air Force Bases in New York, Maine, England, Canada, and Newfoundland are all available to the members of the American Communication Association which was kicked out of the CIO in 1950 as being too Communists? I believe that these statements were made in the Blue Book of the John Birth Society. Be assured that our prayers are with you in the terrific work that you are doing.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watching its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch, has, in the past, also attacked President Eisenhower and his Administration in his writings.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Director, Federal Bureau of

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

My wife, [redacted] and I would like to inquire about the John Birch Society.

We attended a meeting of local people here in [redacted] on November 25 the purpose of which was to watch and listen to a Mr. Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., founder of this Society.

In this movie, Mr. Welch covered the background, purposes and future of the John Birch Society. To [redacted] and I his purpose seems to be very clear, i.e. to stop the evergrowing menace of Communism and to stamp it out. We feel that we would like to join this Society; however, we do not feel that such a step should be taken without thorough investigation. b6 b7C

Another couple with whom we attended this meeting agreed that we should do a bit of checking before joining this group. We decided that the best way to accomplish this would be to direct an inquiry to you.

Of course we realize that the decision to join this group is ours, however if you would advise us as to the opinion that your Department holds of this organization we would most certainly appreciate it.

Very truly yours,

[redacted]

[redacted] was personally contacted 12/2/60, at his residence at [redacted] Woodland Hills, Calif., by SAS [redacted] and GILBERT G. BENJAMIN. His letter of 11/15/60, to the Director was orally acknowledged and the Director's appreciation for Mr. [redacted] kind comments re him and "Masters of Deceit" was expressed.

The general investigative jurisdiction of the FBI was courteously explained to Mr. [redacted] after which it was tactfully explained to him that since the files of the FBI are confidential, it is not possible to furnish any comment on the character or integrity of any of the individuals, organizations, or publications listed in his letter. It was made specifically clear to Mr. [redacted] that the FBI has conducted no investigation concerning him.

Mr. [redacted] advised he is employed as a [redacted] Wyle Laboratories, 128 Maryland, El Segundo, Calif., and assumed that perhaps the FBI had investigated him relative to his employment. He advised he understood the position of the FBI and deeply appreciated the Agents calling upon him. He reiterated his high regard for the Director.

Mr. [redacted] advised he has been very out-spoken against communism. He stated he was quite concerned about the fact that "Masters of Deceit" has been occupying the lower shelves in local book stands and libraries and the manner in which Congressman-elect JAMES C. CORMAN had virtually repudiated the statements in that book during his campaign in a public debate sponsored by Town Hall at Sherman Oaks, Calif., exact date unrecalled. He advised the John Birch Society and the American Legion have been going around and placing copies of "Masters of Deceit" on the shelves in places of easy accessibility and where they will receive maximum attention. He advised Congressman-elect CORMAN had indicated there is no communist threat from within the U. S. but that the threat is from the Armies of Russia and Red China. He advised CORMAN had stated something like, thank God for EARL WARREN and the Supreme Court.

b7C

Mr. [redacted] indicated a familiarity with the John Birch Society and advised that friends of his in that society had told him they had heard CORMAN remark to the effect that the Director didn't know what he was talking about concerning the internal threat of communism in the United States. At this point Agents immediately refuted CORMAN's above scurrilous remarks regarding the Director and informed Mr. [redacted] that the Director's statements are entirely factual, that CORMAN was entirely wrong and that CORMAN obviously was the one who did not know what he was talking about to which Mr. [redacted] stated he was thoroughly in agreement.

The interview was terminated under very pleasant conditions and Mr. CORMAN concluded that he had always had the highest regards for the Director and the FBI.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent requests information concerning the John Birch Society and "American Friends of Vietnam." She also requests a list of publications that are considered to be anticommunist. Correspondent enclosed a poem which she stated had been recited at a public school during a Thanksgiving Day program. She wonders if the poem is communistic. The poem concerns the early settlement of the United States and is written from the viewpoint of the American Indian. Bufiles contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

Bufiles reveal that "American Friends of Vietnam" has not been investigated by the Bureau. Available information reveals that over 17 Senators, over 60 Representatives and numerous other prominent Americans are affiliated with the organization. (62-102858)

The John Birch Society and its founder, Robert Welch, have not been the subjects of an investigation by the Bureau. Welch and his organization have been very critical of President Eisenhower and his administration. (62-104401)

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent:

1. Reprint from "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," March, 1960, with "An Analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA."
2. "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality."
3. "America - Freedom's Champion."

Would you please tell me where I can get information concerning THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY ? My husband and I are interested in joining this group in an effort in our small way to fight Communism. However, we would like to be certain that we are fighting and not aiding the communistic cause. The local F. B. If you could send me some list of publication that are considered anticommunistic I would greatly appreciate it. In fact, any information you could give us would be a tremendous help in guiding us. We, and many of our friends, are deeply concerned and willing to do anything within our power to actively fight Communism,,if we could just have some reassurance that what we would do would be the correct thing.

Could you please tell me whether The American Friends of Vietnam is considered a questionable organization?

I am enclosing a poem that was recited at the Thanksgiving Program in a public school here. Is this the type of propaganda that is being used by Communist in the educational system? I realize that the facts are basically true yet, I am wondering if this type of presentation of American history won't in a twelve year educationl program leave our children with a complete lack of patriotism and pride for the founding fathers of our democracy.

I don't know who this Indian is A bow within his hand
But he is standing by a tree
And watching white men land

They may be gods
They maybe men
They certainly look glum
He wonders who on earth they are
And why on earth they've come

He knows his streams are full of fish
His forest full of deer
And his tribe is a mighty tribe
That all the others fear

But when the French and Spanish come.
The English and the Dutch
They tell him they're the mighty tribe
And no one else is much

They'll shoot his deer
And net his fish
And clear away his wood
And frequently remark to him
They do it for his good

Then he will fight
And he will scalp
And he will burn and slay
And break the treaties he has made but children, so will they

We wont go into all of that
For its another story
And some is good
And some is bad
B ut all of it is gory

But just remember this day
About our ancestors so dear
They didn't find an empty land
The Indian was here

I'm appealling to you for certain information I feel only you are qualified to give.

The Communist threat has recently been emphasized and, as a Mother of four, I feel compelled to do what I can to fight it.

Would you advise my joining the "John Birch Society"? Can I know this is not a subversive group?

Could you also tell me - is all of the "Wedermeyer Report" true? I read the book because of rumors that circulated during W. W. II -

The book confirmed those rumors, but my husband (an ex A. F. pilot) feels the book is not true, and questions my patriotism for believing it.

Your reply will be anxiously awaited, and any suggestions you make (anything that I, or other housewives can do to help our country) will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I've been told that from an official standpoint you're not allowed to endorse any organization - Does the same thing apply to you on an unofficial basis?

To come straight to the point - I recently attended a meeting here in Richmond which was held to enlighten the public on the seriousness of the Communist situation and to enlist members in The John Birch Society. I found both the speeches and film strip to be most impressive and alarming - as calculated. However, the name Robert Welch, as well as the members of the policy-making council were unknown to me prior to this meeting. It is neither my intention on decine to join any group unless I am unquestionably sure of the motives and standing of such a group as being truly American - in the full sense of the word.

My next problem was where I could get that unquestionable assurance. That part didn't take long to decide - of course, Mr. Hoover, who else?!

Thank you for taking time to read this. Your reply will be appreciated and your advice relied upon -

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I've been told that from an official standpoint you're not allowed to endorse any organization - Does the same thing apply to you on an unofficial basis?

To come straight to the point — I recently attended a meeting here in Richmond which was held to enlighten the public on the seriousness of the Communist situation and to enlist members in the John Birch Society - I found both the speeches and film strips to be most impressive and alarming — as calculated. However, the name Robert Welch, as well as the members of the policy-making council were unknown to me prior to this meeting. It is neither my intention or desire to join any group unless I am unquestionably sure of the motives and standing of such a group as being truly American - in the full sense of the word.

DATE: 12-8-60

SUBJECT: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
INFORMATION CONCERNING
(INTERNAL SECURITY)

The Director inquired whether we are investigating the John Birch Society (JBS) and requested a memorandum concerning this Society.

We have never investigated the JBS nor its founder Robert H. Welch, Jr.

BACKGROUND CONCERNING THE SOCIETY

The JBS was organized in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December 1958, by Robert H. Welch, Jr., a candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts. Welch has summarized the long-range activities of the Society as "less government, more responsibility and a better world." Chapters of this Society have come into existence in various parts of the country as part of Welch's anticommunist campaign. Welch states that the Society was named after John Birch, a young Christian missionary from a farm near Macon, Georgia, who was in China when the United States entered World War II; who joined General Chennault's force as a volunteer, organized Chennault's intelligence, rose to the rank of captain in the United States Army, and served with unsurpassable bravery and brilliance throughout the war; and who, while in uniform ten days after V-J Day and on a peaceful and official mission for our Government, was brutally murdered in cold blood by the Chinese communists.

BACKGROUND AND ACTIVITY OF WELCH

Bufiles disclose Welch resides at 43 Fletcher Road, Belmont, Massachusetts, and his office address as 810 Main Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he is an officer and director of the James O. Welch Company, candy manufacturer. He is editor and director of the publication "American Opinion," which is published on an irregular basis and which contains many anticommunist articles. Welch has forwarded copies of the publication to the Bureau in the past. Bufiles do not contain any derogatory information of a subversive nature concerning Welch. In January, 1959, we received information that Welch was initiating an anticommunist campaign and was conducting a drive throughout the country to obtain funds to be used for this activity. One of his desires was to establish ostensible communist front groups, which in reality would be anticommunist groups, thereby causing disruption to the Communist Party. In February, 1959, we received information indicating that Welch, a Republican, had authored a book entitled "The Politician," which book Welch did not have published but had a limited number of copies printed which he sent to friends and individuals who he believed would be interested in its contents. We received a copy of the book and reviewed it. The review disclosed that it was mainly a vicious attack on the political life and beliefs of President Eisenhower. In this book Welch by innuendo alluded to President Eisenhower as being procommunist. We disseminated pertinent portions of the book at that time to the White House and the Attorney General. Another example of Welch's attitude toward Government officials is found in his brochure on the JBS wherein he stated "You have probably never heard of John Birch, simply because the communists in Washington planned it that way."

Welch could be considered being pro-Bureau as the July-August, 1958, issue of "American Opinion," page 24, listed "Masters of Deceit" as recommended reading material and information was received in August, 1960, that the latest monthly bulletin of the JBS requested all members to write the Director expressing their congratulations on his report as contained in the House Committee on Un-American Activities booklet "Communist Target - Youth."

BUREAU ACTION:

Due to the controversial nature of Welch and the JBS, together with Welch's plan to set up ostensible communist front groups, we alerted the field to Welch's background, his plan, and background information concerning the JBS by SAC Letters 59-13 (F) dated March 10, 1959, and/or 60-5 (C) dated January 26, 1960. The field was instructed that no investigation of the Society should be conducted but that the Bureau was particularly interested in any efforts by subversive elements to take over or use the Society or its chapters. The field was instructed to keep the Bureau advised of all pertinent information regarding this matter.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

Since the formation of the JBS, we have received and continue to receive numerous inquiries from citizens inquiring whether or not the Director approves of the Society. We have in most instances in the past answered these inquiries by stating that the Director was precluded from furnishing the desired information since "the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the FBI do not extend to furnishing evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization." This reply was given since it was felt that a statement indicating we had not investigated the JBS would be considered as an endorsement or clearance of the organization by the FBI.

However, in the future, in order to be consistent, we will reply to such inquiries concerning the JBS that "the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the FBI do not extend to furnishing evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. However, I can advise you that the John Birch Society has not been investigated by this Bureau, but this should not be construed as a clearance or nonclearance of this organization by the FBI."

RECOMMENDATION:

If approved, we will answer citizen inquiries in line with the above observation.

We have recently seen the films "Communism on the Map" & "Operation Abolition," & thought them very enlightening. We want to join & Anti-Communist organization & have been trying to get all possible information on the John Birch Society. We feel like we need direction as do many of our friends.

We have seen letters from such people as Senator Goldwater, whom we admire, praising Rob't. Welch, the founder of the John Birch Society, but he did not commit himself in the letter on the Society itself. Naturally, we don't want to join any such organization until we find out if it is really on the right track.

We would appreciate very much any information you might be able to send along on the Birch Society, so we can decide if this is the way to fight communism.

What I would like to have from you is a letter stating that the menace is real and that they are using college students and young people as pawns and dupes, along the lines of some of your statements in the talk you made on 10-3-60 to the International Assn. of Chiefs of Police,or remarks you made on 9-26-60 in which you expressed concern over the Communistic influence and aims on college c ampuses.

We want to use such a letter along with the clipping, such as I am sending you,along with our showing of the film " Operation Abolition" and if possible we want to show this film to the same group of students at Vanderbilt that is mentioned in the clipping.

You certainly have my sincere thanks for the splendid job that you and your department are doing and your book "Masters of Deceit" is excellent and my copy is being passed around to many people. Many thanks for any help you can give me along the above lines.

Panel Debates Role Of Subversion Investigations

By LAMAR ALEXANDER

A Vanderbilt University political science professor and two Nashville attorneys told Rep. J. Carlton Loser Sunday night that American civil liberties are being infringed upon by policies of the Federal government which are designed to eliminate subversion.

Loser, VU Prof. Robert J. Harris and Nashville attorneys Cecil D. Branstetter and Harry H. Chitwood spoke as a panel sponsored by the university Protestant community on the subject of "Subversion and Constitutional Freedom."

Dr. Harris, while emphasizing that national security and the maintenance of individual freedom are equally important, denounced the House UnAmerican Activities Committee as "comic strip detectives searching out subversives where they don't exist."

He said he would have to answer affirmatively the question whether the present policies of the Federal government attempting to eliminate subversion jeopardize Constitutional liberty.

"Both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations," he contended, "have smashed many reputations while finding out very few subversives."

Harris criticized the committee for not enabling the accused to confront his accuser.

Rep. Loser, on the other hand, totally disagreed with the professor about the effectiveness of the UnAmerican Activities Committee. "The committee," argued Loser, "performs the useful function in ferreting out Communism and preparing Americans for today's world situation."

The representative pointed out that the present subversive statute of the government had been approved during the past 10 or 12 years by the Supreme Court and the subject should not be open to debate. He deemed the statute essential to the internal security of the United States.

Attorney Branstetter agreed with Prof. Harris that there is "... great danger from certain Senate and Congressional committees investigating subversion."

He stated that any country has a "right and duty to protect itself from within and without" but contended that "when you begin tampering with someone else's freedom of speech and press today, you will lose yours tomorrow."

Branstetter continued, "The first ten amendments (Bill of Rights) were passed to protect us from our own congressmen."

Chitwood, who described himself as "dedicated to the Constitution as it was written," criticized all three major branches of the Federal government for "going overboard by yielding to the clamor of public appeal."

Recent decisions of the Supreme Court drew special criticism from Chitwood for their variance from the practice of rendering decisions entirely based on the principle of stare decisis or common law.

Dear Sir,

You are an alarmist, and that's good concerning some things like the god-less communism, But, and you know this better than I perhaps, that this is still GOD'S world and that the power of prayer and a good Christ - like example, plus good, sound positive deeds based on the philosophy of Truth and happiness still provide the best tools for offsetting this rush of communism, which is built upon fear & hatred. Sometime soon, a small leak will appear in the dam of communism & when it does, it will get larger & larger until the disease of communism will be drowned out.

I'm not suggesting any form of complacency whatsoever, but simply this:.....A love of ones neighbor makes it appear to me that a good, strong policy of human relations is badly needed in order to not only propagate the fight against communism but to propagate good christian actions along with this fight. Being an alarmist as I said before is good, but it becomes all too easy to slip from the intellectual to the emotional in constructing your views sometimes. Fear is alright when it springs from faith & respect, but fear can also become a real destroyer when gone rampant.

You are not being cast in this light by me, but these is an urgent appeal for continued strong measures based on love, and the human relations approach to our fight & those we're fighting.
I know it can't always be done when dealing with gangster type people like Kruschev, but enough can be done in other circles where we would penetrate rather than build barriers of resentment by our fearful approach.

a love of ones neighbor makes it appear to me that a good, strong policy of human relations is badly needed in order to not only propagate the fight against communism but to propagate good Christian actions along with this fight. Being an alarmist as I said before is good, but it becomes all too easy to slip from the intellectual to the emotional in constructing your views sometimes. Fear is alright when it springs from faith & respect, but fear can also become a real destroyer when gone rampant.

You are not being cast in this light by me, but there is an urgent appeal for continued strong measures based on love, and the human relations approach to our fight & those we're fighting. I know it can't

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Realizing that many demands are made on your time, I hesitate to intrude with a personal problem, but do not know just where else to find the answer.

I have been invited to join a group known as " The John Birch Society " which is starting a new chapter in Medway and Millis (the adjoining town). I have been told that this is a local, Boston-area, non-political discussion group. However, the opinion has also been expressed that it is a fairly-widespread, rradically Right-wing pressure organization.

Since my husband is a "Q" cleared employee of an AEC prime contractor, and we lived in Los Alamos for five years, I am anxious to obtain more specific information about this Society, if it is available. If it is "slanted", we would be most reluctant to see it promoted locally.

Gentlemen:

I have recently been requested to join the John Birch Society. The Society was originally sponsored by a Mr. Welch, a former North Carolina industrialist who now resides in Massachusetts. The official publication of the Society is the magazine American Opinion.

It seems to me that the aims and desires of the Society are in keeping with what I believe, however, I am reluctant to give it my full support until I am assured by a reputable source that it is all that it claims to be.

If it is possible for you to release this information could you please tell me whether or not the Society, its founder, its official publication, or its Board of Directors has in anyway been involved in activities against the best interest of the United States.

Very truly yours,

Correspondent requested information concerning Fred C. Koch, author of a pamphlet entitled "A Business Man Looks At Communism." Correspondent believes it is a convincing piece of literature but wonders if it is a communist pamphlet.

Bureau files contain no identifiable information concerning the correspondent or the above pamphlet and no derogatory information concerning Koch. Koch is a wealthy industrialist in Wichita, Kansas, and has allegedly contributed considerable money and support to Robert Welch and his John Birch Society, an alleged anti-communist group. 62-104401-106

We have had some limited, cordial correspondence with Koch, most recently in January, 1960.

The following pieces of literature were sent to the correspondent:

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In only knowing of a great man such as yourself I'm more than humbled when it comes to the point of correspondence with an individual such as your stature.

I would appreciate your information in-so-far-as Communism in These United States is concerned, as could possibly pertain to a Mr. Fred C. Koch, who is the author of a pamphlet which was loaned to me by a friend down the hall in the building where I work. The name of the pamphlet is "A Business Man Looks At Communism", Edited as a first Edition in 1960, by I believe "Brooks Mail" publishing company with an address of P.O. Box 1633, Wichita, Kansas.

This book strikes me as a very convincing piece of literature but I'm at a loss when it comes to whether I believe this man as he states it or is it just a communist pamphlet put out to disrupt the steady flow of intllectual peoples or is this just an American Mans Red Blooded Attempt to drive home the fact that Communism is a dreaded enemy of us all.

I would appreciate an answer from you as to the aforementioned:

Thanking you in advance,

Yours very truly,

J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
9th and Pennsylvania Ave. N.W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Maurice W. Corcoran, and ex-FBI agent and now head of the Wichita Crime Commission has recommended that I write to you and inquire concerning the John Birch Society.

A group of our friends here in Wichita have started a local chapter and have invited us to join. Since we are as anxious to fight Communism as they are, we attended one of their meetings. However, my husband and I have wondered since, if there would be chance for infiltration there and we might become victims of the very thing which we are fighting.

My husband has been an Aviation Safety Agent with the Federal Aviation Administration for 17 years. We have lived here in Wichita for 10 years and my husband was recently transferred to the FAA Standardization Center in Oklahoma City, as an instructor.

Our friends want us to start a John Birch Society there, but we do not want to do so, if it would mar my husband's record in any way. He has always been a civil servant loyal to our government and remained free of any organization which might become subversive. Now, as we see the danger of Communism increasing, we would like to do anything we can to keep our nation strong and free.

Mr. Corcoran suggested that I explain all of this to you, just as I have told it to him. He felt that you would be able to give me the right answer.

Incidentally, a man named Dwight Cooke spoke to a group of women here in Wichita, recently. He is supposedly a news analyst and commentator and was brought here thru a lecture circuit out of New York City. His speech alarmed many of us because he advocated co-existence, a massive education program and in his own words "Chaing's government is one of the worst dictatorships the world has ever known." His subject was, "You and the World." He also tried to tell one woman who argued with him afterwards that Alger Hiss was not a Communist. Do you have any information on him?

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

Like many another person in the United States, I have recently become concerned with Socialism, Communism, and the consequences of certain economical decisions in this country.

Therefore it was inevitable that eventually I would become aware of "The John Birch Society" and "American Opinion" magazine of Belmont, Massachusetts and "The Dan Smoot Report" of Dallas, Texas. The information presented by these sources causes me some concern in that it differs substantially when compared to material that I am used to reading in the newspapers and magazines; at the same time, it appeals to me. I am somewhat confused and know of no direction to turn except to you.

You may not be able to tell me if all they say is absolutely true or if the Birch Society methods of achieving their objective are justified. However, I would like to know if this organization and Dan Smoot are pure-in-heart, so to speak. Or do they have any connection whatsoever with the movement they purport to be fighting--Communism?

Any help you can give me with this problem will be greatly appreciated. Also I would appreciate any suggestions as to reading material along this line which I could obtain. I have already read your book, "Masters of Deceit."

It is noted that the Whaley Home referred to by [redacted] is the Whaley Memorial Foundation, [redacted] the Donald M. Whaley Home, 1201 North Grand Traverse, Flint, Michigan.

Captain [redacted] Flint, Michigan, Police Department, a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Flint, Michigan, also advised SA [redacted] of the above information and further stated that the Whaley Memorial operates on funds bequeathed to that Foundation from the estate of DONALD WHALEY, deceased, a former member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The vestry of this church acts as Board of Directors of the Whaley Foundation.

On July 11, 1960, Mrs. [redacted] aka. [redacted] which name she uses as a pen name, telephonically advised SA [redacted] that she is employed as a [redacted] in the restricted area of the AC Spark Plug, Flint, Michigan. She became interested in the problem of the Communist threat to the United States after listening to HERBERT PHILBRICK in a talk he gave at Mt. Morris, Michigan, in June, 1960. She stated she later became interested in the John Birch Society and the Cardinal Mindzenti Society in Flint and has attended their meetings. She stated that one [redacted] at AC and a member of the John Birch Society, and other persons like [redacted] intended to do something about the Fifth Amendment Communists infiltration into the Flint area schools; however, nothing specific was furnished as to what they intended to do. Mrs. [redacted] voluntarily stated that she would keep SA [redacted] advised of the John Birch Society and the Cardinal Mindzenti Society.

On November 10, 1960, [redacted] a personal acquaintance of SA [redacted] advised that he heard a talk given by [redacted] on November 10, 1960, at the St. Agnes Roman Catholic Church, Flint, before a group of women of the Alter Society and a few male guests, including the two priests stationed at St. Agnes. In his talk, [redacted] stated that he was born in what is now East Germany and had been a Russian prisoner of war during World War II. He came to the United States in about 1952, however, still had close relatives in East Germany. He talked of the horrors of Communism in his homeland and stated that after becoming a United States citizen, he was convinced he should alert the people in the United States to the dangers of Communism. Although he talked in generalization, [redacted] stated he summed up his talk by stating that a Communist, [redacted], was teaching school in a Genesee County School; that [redacted] was teaching at the Whaley Home in Flint, and noted that this home cares for problem children, and the facilities of this home are used by the Red Feather in Flint. He stated that through efforts of the Cardinal Mindzenti Society, [redacted] was temporarily relieved of his assignments in the "Big Brother" program in Flint. He also stated that [redacted] a known Communist, is working for the University of Michigan in Flint, and that two Communists who hold or held prominent positions in the Communist Party, [redacted] and her husband, had recently left Flint. He further described the Unitarian Church in Flint as a haven for Communists and liberals.

On November 15, 1960, Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] from the Red Feather Agency in Flint appeared at the Flint, Michigan, Resident Agency and furnished substantially the same information as revealed in Mrs. [redacted] letter. They were seeking advice from the FBI as to what course of action they might take. They were advised that the FBI could not furnish any advice in the matter and that any decision in this regard would have to be of their own volition. They stated they appreciated the FBI's position, however, that they would probably temporarily stop referring children to the Whaley Home. They stated they had discussed the problem with Mr. [redacted], mentioned above. They stated that according to [redacted] he had no complaints with [redacted] quality of work at the Whaley Home and did not intend to suspend him at this time. They stated that at least two large contributors to the Red Feather stated that [redacted] should be fired.

They also stated that [redacted] had told them that the organization [redacted] the necessary pressure or influence to get [redacted] out of the Whaley Home. She indicated that [redacted] was the first of many this group intends to expose as Fifth Amendment Communists.

b6
b7D

On November 15, 1960, Captain [redacted] mentioned above, stated that he for one was cutting down on his financial pledge to the church as long as the church continues to tolerate [redacted] employment at the Whaley Home. He stated that he knows that other individuals who are also members of this church have done likewise, but that this happens to be a very wealthy church and that this lack of funds will probably not influence the activities or actions of the vestry of this church concerning the operation of the Whaley Home.

On November 16, 1960, Mr. [redacted] General Motors Corporation (GMC), Flint, Michigan, a person who has frequently furnished reliable information to the Bureau in the past, voluntarily advised SA [redacted] that he understood [redacted] mentioned above, was representing himself as a GM executive when giving his talks before various organizations and groups in Flint. He stated that [redacted] actually is [redacted] at the AC Spark Plug Division, GMC, and that he had had a long talk with [redacted] wherein he exacted the promise from [redacted] that he would discontinue from referring to himself as a GM executive. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had also informed him of the above-mentioned employment of [redacted] and [redacted].

As a result of the statement in referenced newspaper article to the effect that [redacted] latest trouble started when an FBI Agent came to see [redacted] and the inference of a recent contact of [redacted] by the FBI, [redacted] was personally contacted on November 28, 1960, by SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] in order to clarify his statement. [redacted] stated that in discussing the matter with the newspapers, he had not intended to give the impression of a recent contact by the FBI that his only contact by the FBI concerning [redacted] was in the fall of 1958, at which time the Agent wanted to review the personnel file on the Subject and [redacted] furnished him all pertinent information from this file. [redacted] stated that he believed that sometime during this contact he learned that [redacted] had been a witness before the HCUA in Flint in 1954, however, he was not certain of this nor could he recall the identity of the Agent to whom he talked. He stated that [redacted] was not presently employed at the Whaley Home at the time of the contact having left to go back to school and/or other employment. He stated the most recent association with [redacted] began in the spring of 1959 when [redacted] again applied for work at the Whaley Home with his Master's Degree, and [redacted] assumed that [redacted] "must be all right" inasmuch as he had previously told him he was going to school on a scholarship, the funds for which were furnished by the United States Government. He felt that if there was anything derogatory concerning [redacted] the government would undoubtedly take this scholarship away from him. [redacted] stated that shortly after [redacted] re-employment at the Whaley Home, he started to receive inquiries, first from the [redacted] from the St. Paul's Episcopal Church as to what type of employee [redacted] was and later by telegrams, Photostats of HCUA Hearings, and 1954 copies of "The Flint Journal" newspaper articles pointing out that [redacted] was a Fifth Amendment Communist. [redacted] stated that he told [redacted] and still feels that [redacted] should not be released as long as he continues to do the fine job that he is doing at the Whaley Home. [redacted] stated that he has further received calls from [redacted] whom he knew to be a former FBI Informant and who had testified for the United States Government and from representatives of the American Legion, The American Committee for Americans, and others criticizing him for his action. He stated that from all the calls and letters he had received, it was obvious to him that [redacted] testimony before the HCUA was public knowledge, and he therefore saw nothing wrong in telling the reporter that the FBI had inquired of him concerning the Subject. He acknowledged he had been requested to keep the visit confidential.

b6
b7D

[redacted] stated that apparently "The Flint Journal" and "The Detroit Free Press" had received letters indicating that [redacted] was at the Whaley Home and that these letters had prompted the inquiry and subsequent article in "The Detroit Free Press."

It is noted that to date nothing has appeared in "The Flint Journal" concerning [redacted]

For the information of the Bureau, records of the Detroit Office fail to reflect any information concerning the Cardinal Mindzenti Society referred to above.

Detroit File 100-27934, JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY, reflects that [redacted] was identified in Detroit letter to the Bureau dated April 13, 1960, Page 2, as being a member of the Flint Chapter of the John Birch Society.

Detroit files reflect that one [redacted] Flint, Michigan, signed a CP Nominating Petition in 1940 in order to place the CP on the ballot in the November, 1940, elections.

Copies of this communication are being submitted for the files on [redacted] who was deleted from the Security Index by Bureau letter to Detroit dated August 12, 1959, and who is now on the Revised Communist Index of the Detroit Office inasmuch as similar action may be taken by the above-mentioned groups concerning [redacted] at a later date.

It is to be noted records of the Detroit Office reflect Subject to be currently teaching third grade students at the Hamady School, Westwood Heights, Flint, Michigan, as of September 19, 1960. It is noted [redacted] file is presently in a closed status and has not been reviewed under the current Reserve Index Program.

Regarding [redacted], mentioned above, Detroit files reflect she is currently on the Security Index of this Office and a pending report of SA [redacted] was submitted November 8, 1960. A separate recommendation as to further handling of her case will be submitted to the Bureau, however, it is not contemplated that any interview of [redacted] will be requested in the near future in view of the above-mentioned situation in Flint.

b7D

It is further recommended that [redacted] be recontacted by two mature, experienced security Agents and impressed with the necessity to be circumspect in all her activities so as not to bring embarrassment to herself as a former Government witness and/or the FBI. Unless advised to the contrary, this will be done and the Bureau will be appropriately advised.

The authority of the FBI is limited by statutory regulation to the collection of facts and evidence in matters within our jurisdiction and does not extend to making recommendations or evaluations based on information in our files. The FBI is not a policy-making agency and its responsibilities do not infringe on those of the judicial branch of our Government. This relationship between investigator and judge is, of course, entirely proper and is another safeguard of the rights secured to every individual by the Constitution.

Dear Mr. Hoover;

Last May 18 I wrote you asking for information and your opinion (which is respected) of the John Birch Society. I recieved from you a short note stating that it was against the policy of the F.B.I. to make such a statement.

I found this reply very unsatisfactory in several respects. And somewhat disappointing. The other night I got to thinking about this and decided to voice my opinion.

My objection to your stated policy is this: If a citizen cannot get the facts and an opinion of a group that is actively engaged in trying to shape american opinion and government policy from an agency of the government that is directly concerned with the security of the nation, how is he to be protected, and where is he to get this vital information ?

Had I asked about a known communist front, would I have recieved the same reply ?

May I state here that I did some checking on my own, through such people as Goldwater, Justice Phelps and Dr. Robert Morris, and after learning the names of the americans on the council, and decided that this was a very sound libertarian group, and could be effective. I joined the Birch Society and am a chapter leader.

I shall be awaiting your reply to this inquiry, since I am very much interested in your thinking of this matter of policy. I know this is a very small thing to complain to you about, but I'm going to anyway.

We are trying to establish chapters of The John Birch Society here in Lafayette & West Lafayette. Unfortunately, so many of the good people are so poorly informed that they think we're subversive. Anyway, Mrs. [redacted] [redacted] Lafayette, Indiana) [redacted] is telling everyone that The John Birch Society supports the Un-American Activities Committee & that she [redacted] was talking to an F.B.I. man who told her that, "the Un-American Activities Committee doesn't do any good, since it hasn't discovered anything the F.B.I. didn't already know." This kind of talk going on across all all the bridge tables & all the womens meetings (she belongs to all of them) doesn't help anyone a bit & may hurt a great deal. A letter from you to her, stating in no uncertain terms that the F.B.I. is behind, not against the HUAC will be greatly appreciated by me & others of us, who are currently waging a campaign (its tougher than I thought) at Purdue University on this very subject. Thank you very much for anything you can do.

My dear Mr. Hoover,

I am enclosing herewith a clipping from our local paper which gives me much concern in the seeming naive attitude of the State Department in estimating the purpose and means employed by the Soviet Union and Communist block in its aid to underdeveloped nations.

An increase of 46 % in ten months of 1960 over 12 months in 1959, with the corresponding increase in "technicians" is not an increase to be brushed off.

Do the conclusions expressed in this Associated Press release agree with your knowledge of Communist techniques for world conquest, or do they represent intentionally slanted (a kind word!) reports designed to lull the American people to sleep?

May I have a report please, on the John Birch Society which has recently come to my attention?

Communist Bloc Extends Over Billion Dollars in Aid To Needy Nations in 1960

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 (AP)—The Communist Bloc stepped up its aid to underdeveloped nations in 1960 to more than a billion dollars. But U. S. officials are less concerned by these Red efforts than they were two years ago.

State Department figures show the Communist Bloc extended $1,349,000,000 to 20 nations during the first 10 months of this year. For all of 1958—when U S. diplomats expressed alarm at the Red aid drive—the total was 978 million. This dropped to 922 million in 1959.

$4.6 Billion

Over-all, the figures indicate the Russian-Red Chinese group has doled out almost $4.6 billion between 1954 and Oct. 31 this year. Since 1958, only three nations have been added to the list—left-leaning Cuba, Ghana and Guinea.

Officials keeping an eye on Soviet Bloc efforts do not try minimize their importance, but they concede that some dark predictions made two years ago proved to be exaggerated.

There were somber hints in 1958 that Soviet technicians were being sent to recipient countries as camouflaged agents whose main aim was to spread the Communist gospel.

Today officials said the State Department is satisfied this is not true.

They described the Soviet experts—and there are hundreds of them in every country receiving bloc aid—as mostly technicians.

Friendly Atmosphere

U. S. diplomats here now believe that, rather than using its aid program for infiltration the communist bloc trying to create an atmosphere of friendliness, to demonstrate the high level of its industry.

Eighteen nations which received $3,223,000,000 in Communist Bloc aid from 1955 through 1959 got $5,720,000,000 from the United States in the same period. But the United States began giving aid to these countries in 1948 and since then the total has reached $10,020,000,000.

INTERNAL SECURITY

Re SAC Letter 60-5 dated 1/26/60 and Little Rock airtel 10/24/60.

On 12/15/60 [redacted] Little Rock, Arkansas, volunteered the following information to SA [redacted]: ATTENDED MEETING-SUBJECT ORGANIZATION ARK.

In the early part of November 1960 he was invited to attend a meeting at the home of [redacted] Little Rock. When he attended he learned that it was a meeting of The John Birch Society. He stated others he recalls being in attendance were [redacted] and [redacted] who have extensive farm holdings at Scott, Arkansas, [redacted] employed at Spaulding Sporting Goods Store, Little Rock, [redacted] of Brandon Furniture Store, and [redacted] (phonetic), and a couple of young doctors and their wives. He advised that there were approximately 20-25 persons in attendance on this occasion. It appeared to him that some man, name not recalled, from Dallas, Texas, was more or less in charge of this meeting.

During the course of this meeting, slides identified as prepared by [redacted] EMPLOYED Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas, and taped narration were shown. These slides were factual portrayals of newspaper, magazine and similar type publication headlines and photographs.

During the course of this meeting the thought was conveyed that purpose of this society was to create an active interest and participation on the part of responsible, reputable and reliable persons in loyalty and patriotism to the United States. The theme of the meeting was to the effect that outside forces, particularly Communism, were making great inroads into the United States tending to bring about a downfall of the United States. He remembered a phrase often used that because of the actions and accomplishments of outside forces, the "bastion of liberty and democracy would fall like a ripe plum into the hands of the Communists." He interpreted this to have reference to the United States falling.

During the course of discussions at this meeting the idea was stressed that outside forces were successful to a great degree in the United States because of the apathy and lackadaisical attitude of the citizens of the United States in that many of the responsible citizens are seeking personal gain from the benefits of living in the United States and most reluctant to make any kind of sacrifice for the benefit of the United States. He cited an illustration of this was the indifference of many responsible and allegedly reputable young men of the country who resisted efforts to induct them or to serve in the armed forces of the United States during the Korean conflict.

Several other topics were discussed such as the fact that only communication maintained between the United States and England is by means of trans-Atlantic cable laid and maintained by an electrical workers' union and the fact that many labor unions of this country are Communist infiltrated and in some cases possibly dominated was mentioned.

Another fact mentioned was that WALTER REUTHER, the labor organizer, had sometime in the past spent one year in Moscow.

Magazines such as Look, Time, and Newsweek were criticized for improper and erroneous reporting. U. S. News and World Report was mentioned as a popular publication tending to report accurately. b6 b7C

A quantity of literature and a book which he described as being a fairly thick volume with a blue cover was available for purchase by persons in attendance and these items were of a nominal cost. There was no pressure or encouragement to get those in attendance to purchase these and it was merely stated these were available if anybody cared to purchase same. [redacted] stated he did buy the blue-covered book but he cannot recall the title appearing on it and he could not relate information concerning the contents. [redacted] stated he was not solicited to join this society and did not join.

He related that in his opinion all of the persons in attendance known to him are in the younger age group of the early 30's and are fairly prominent, reputable, responsible, and reliable persons.

No specific questions were asked of him concerning this organization in view of instructions in referenced SAC Letter stating that no investigation should be conducted. [redacted] was told the FBI appreciates receipt of information from citizens concerning any organization or group in the United States for information purposes and for the purpose of enabling the FBI to discharge its responsibilities. It was made clear to Mr. [redacted] that the FBI is not conducting any type investigation concerning The John Birch Society. b6 b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated he was prompted to discuss this matter with the FBI because of the fact he became somewhat aroused, concerned, and had not heard much concerning this organization from any other source. He commented that he is interested in this organization to the extent that he directed a letter to the Attorney General of the United States seeking information. His letter was answered, however, the information furnished was non-specific and in effect said nothing to satisfy his curiosity.

He advised he understands that some of the other persons in attendance have corresponded with Senators and Representatives from the State of Arkansas concerning this organization and the replies they received were non-specific and furnished actually no information to satisfy their curiosity. [redacted] related that if any additional information comes to his attention concerning this society which he feels might be of interest or value to the FBI, he will furnish same.

He volunteered to loan the blue book which he purchased to the FBI but his offer was declined.

No further action is being taken concerning this matter in accordance with instructions contained in referenced SAC Letter.

Dear Sir;

Until recently I did not know that I "personally" was in the fight against Communism. I was a "bystander".

Since "bystanding" and "fence-sitting" are impossible, I am requesting reports on the John Birch Society as to how they stand and what they are doing and also one on the Henry George School of Social Science. Further, as I am a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, I would like to know how they stand in this fight against comunism and as to Communist Leadership and activity.

I was employed for a while at the Hanford Atomic Energy Plant so I believe you have my record on file. If in any way I can be of service to my Country in this fight, please advise as I would consider it an honor and a privilge.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter of December 14, 1960, has been received, and your generous remarks are sincerely appreciated. Although I would like to be of service, we do not have available for distribution any information pertaining to firearms registration as this is a matter of local responsibility.

May I point out that this Bureau does not maintain or publish a list such as you mentioned in your communication. It is suggested that you contact the Subversive Organizations Section, Internal Security Division, United States Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., from which you can obtain a list of the organizations cited by the Attorney General of the United States. You may be able to locate in your public library a copy of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives.

Enclosed is some material dealing with the general subject of communism, some of which contains suggestions as to what we Americans can do. If additional copies of any of this literature are desired, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Houston Crime Commission and District Attorney-elect Frank Briscoe, favor a firearms registration act for Houston. I am violently opposed to such legislation for obvious reasons. If your office has any information on the Communist Partys forcing of this issue in other states I would very much like to have it. I believe that this information would put a stop to this movement in Houston. The John Birch Society, of which I am a member, and other orginizations are fighting this movement now. If I have this information I think I can get the Houston Junior Chamber of Commerce interested also.

Also, I am interested in any information you may have on the communist infiltration of the movie and television industries including the performers and personalities of these industries. The communist propaganda through these two media have really gotten out of hand - - for example: Inherit The Wind, On The Beach and The Sacco-Vanzetti Case. What can be done to stop this communist propaganda?

If you have a list of the current communist front orginizations I would also like a copy of them.

Mr. Hoover, I want to congratulate you on the excellent job you are doing. If we had more dedicated men like you and fewer politicians this country would be much better off.

Thanking you in advance for this information, I am

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

Do you have any information which you can divulge on the John Birch Society founded December 9, 1958 by Robert Welch? The address of the Society is Belmont 78, Mass. It claims to be an organization strictly for fighting Communism. A chapter of the Joh n Birch Society has been started at Plentywood, Montana. I would like to become active in it if one can accept the Society for what it says it is, but would like some assurance if possible that it is on the up and up.

On a separate sheet I'm enclosing the list of council members working with Welch for this John Birch Society. The paper he puts out monthly is called "American Opinion."

If you could give me any added information on this organization I would appreciate it very much, as would about 25 others whom have been attending the meetings and are interested in working actively in it if it can be given a clean bill of health.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Several months ago we became acquainted with The John Birch Society. We were very impressed with the Blue Book of the Society and wish to become active against Communism through its membership. However, Mr. Welch strongly recommends The Dan Smoot Report and we would like to know more about Mr. Smoot and his background as an FBI agent.

As dentists we are strong proponents of fluoridation of water supplies which do not have natural fluorine. Consequently we were more than amazed when someone told us that Communists were for fluoridation while anti-communists were against it. To prove his point the man brought us the September 28, 1959 Dan Smoot Report "Facts on Fluoridation" as well as articles from The American Mercury Magazine.

Mr. Smoot's "facts" are such a distortion of the truth, use of quotes out of context and lack of understanding of the scientific language he attempts to use that the result is yellow journalism of the worst order. His authoritative source is an Ad Hoc Committee of which we have never heard and he never mentions the American Dental Association which has spent over 30 years meticulously assembling research data concerning efficacy and safety of fluoridation. If this in an example of Mr. Smoot's reporting we surely do not want his Reports in our reception rooms.

The articles in American Mercury are too spurious and vituperative to mention. The statements concerning the American Dental Association are complete falsehoods and the language used (i.e. "their ruthless methods of pressure and terrorization") would lead one to believe they were discussing the Gestapo rather than our fine dental society. Can this be anti Communist literature?

Please let us know your evaluation of The John Birch Society, the Dan Smoot Report, American Mercury Magazine, Human Events, and the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: [redacted]

MIAMI 36, FLORIDA

By letter of 12-19-60 the correspondent asked for evaluations on the John Birch Society, the Dan Smoot Report, American Mercury Magazine, Human Events and the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. b6 b7C

Bufiles contain no derogatory information and no previous correspondence with [redacted] There is no record of [redacted] While we normally indicate in our replies concerning the John Birch Society that we have not investigated it, it is not felt appropriate in this instance as we have conducted investigations and do have derogatory information concerning some of the other organizations or publications mentioned by the correspondent. As no specific question was asked concerning the fluoridation of water, the reply we normally give in these instances has been omitted.

The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. This organization was founded by Robert Welch in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has, in the past, also attacked President Eisenhower and his administration in his writing.

Bureau material has been made available to Dr. Schwarz, W. P. Strube and others affiliated with Dr. Schwarz' Christian Anti-Communist Crusade. W. C. Sullivan memo to Belmont dated 9-22-60 indicates that when a SA of the Bureau spoke before the Dallas Freedom Forum, Dallas, Texas, on 9-19 and 20, 1960, (which sponsored a school on communism at that time directed by Dr. Schwarz) the SA commented that Schwarz made several pitches for articles in a book which he has written on communism and his publications were prominently displayed. In view of Schwarz' opportunistic activities in promoting his own writings, careful consideration should be shown in the future in furnishing speakers in view of the possibility that he might attempt to capitalize on the Bureau's reputation.

RE: [redacted]

The "American Mercury" is owned by Russell Maguire who is allegedly anticommunist and has the reputation of being bitterly anti-Semitic. The publication was the subject of a Registration Act investigation in 1958 based upon indications of an exchange of funds between Maguire and the Ambassador of the Dominican Republic. This allegation was not established and the case was closed in October, 1958. b6 b7C

Bufiles indicate "Human Events" is a newsletter published in D. C. critical of the Soviet Union. Not investigated by Bureau, and [redacted] is on the Special Correspondents' List.

Dan Smoot EOD 3-23-42 and resigned 6-15-51. Shortly before Smoot's resignation, he was censured, placed on probation and transferred due to several unfounded charges against his SAC. His attitude before and after resignation was extremely antagonistic, and he was not recommended for reinstatement. He is the author of the "Dan Smoot Report," a weekly publication which deals with highly controversial topics. Numerous inquiries have been received regarding Smoot's activities since his separation. By SAC letter dated 3-24-59, it is noted that inquiries as to his former employment in this Bureau should be handled in a most circumspect manner and should be answered by merely giving the dates of his employment and no additional comment should be made.

RECOMMENDATION:

The attached letter be sent explaining our policy in not furnishing evaluations and setting out the dates of employment of former SA Smoot.

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record identifiable with Mrs. [redacted] Bufiles show [redacted] who was in 1950 a Criminal Investigator for the Alcohol Tax Unit in New York. An Agent of the New York Office attended a Holy Name Society function addressed by [redacted] on 10-9-50. During his remarks [redacted] referred several times to the FBI and specifically stated, "We call them office cowboys." The SAC in New York made strong objection to the District Supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit who in turn strongly reprimanded [redacted] in the SAC's presence. There is no additional derogatory information regarding [redacted] in Bufiles.

The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has bitterly attacked the Eisenhower Administration in the past in connection with his writings.

December 18, 1960

Dear [redacted]

You may seemed surprised to hear from me but we are in need of some information and you are the only person I know who could begin to give us the answers. At least part of them anyway.

Since leaving Los Angeles and comming to Scottsdale, Arizona all of our friends both here and in Los Angeles have been urging us to join the John Birch Society. From L. A we get distressing letters on the subject, pro of course, and from here, the pressure is on. Now briefly I will quote from one of the letters--1. that the Russians will be in controle here by 1970. 2. that from within a short space of time all pregnant women and children under 2 will be killed as well as those unable to care for themselves. I could go on and on but that alone is enough to curl your stomach. Now the questions that we have are,--Why isn't the public informed of this so that all can help do what is necessary to prevent this? The people affiliated with the John Birch Society say that they have the approval of J. Edgar Hoover, Barry Goldwater etc. Now if Mr. Hoover is aware of what the Commies are trying to do why is it known. The Society says that the men who lecture at their meetings are F. B. I men and are well informed. We saw one film they showed on the Student rioting in San Francisco. Both [redacted] and I are well aware of the communist threat, but before we join any thing we would like to know more about it and I think you can understand our reason. We felt you might be able and kind enough to help us along that line. If all this is true then what can we do? is this the group to join, if they aren't what then?

I hope you will pardon the poor construction of this letter and I hope too that you don't think me "off my head". If you can find out these things for me I would appreciate it very much. We don't want to be suckered in to anything. Sorry if this puts you on the spot.

I hope that this finds you and yours well and preparing for the Holidays. A very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

With love

Dear Sir:

A pepresentative of the John Birch Society has met with a group in our community, with a desire to establish a Chapter here and we would like to have official confirmation on the authenticity of the aims presented.

b6
b7C

We have been told that the purpose of this group is to form an organized resistance to communism in the United States.

Since there are so many communist fromt organizations, we hesitate to support any group until we know they truly represent the purposes in which we believe.

Another meeting has been called for January 11 and we would appreciate an immediate reply so that we may know what action we should take.

Also, a question that is being asked right now is, why is a Communist National Youth Organization permitted to be formed? This question has been raised as the result of a newspaper article in which you state a conference is being held this month for this purpose.

As a loyal citizen of theUnited States I am most concerned about the menace of the communist movement in the U. S.A.

I have been approached by a friend to join the anti-communist society known as "The John Birch Society".

What I would like to know is if this is a legitimate organization dedicated to doing what it says it is doing. In other words, the devil can quote scripture to his purpose; have these people been forthright.

I am a Captain in the United States Marine Corps Reserve and do not wish to join an organization only to find out all is not what it appears to be.

Gentlemen,

I am becoming increasingly alarmed about the growth and activities of the Communist party but I seem to be surrounded by a group of "Liberals" and self-styled intellectuals who profess to see no menace from the Commies, and who ridicule and denounce the House Un-American Activities Committee and other counter-subversive organizations.

b6

I want very much to combat this dangerous type of thinking and I'd like to have a little official ammunition at my disposal. Do you have any phamplets telling of the Communist threat? Also, it seems to me that someone once published a letter telling how one may identify a Communist, as distinguished from a more fuzzy-minded egghead, by their reactions to key issues, defenses etc. If you have such a letter, may I have a copy of that too.

One last item. I am strongly considering becomming a member of an organization I have heard about called the John Birch Society, which I understand is trying to fight the Commies on their own organizational level-that is with local cells or chapters activated on signal to bombard State and Federal legislative bodies with telegrams supporting or opposing proposed new legislature. This sounds like a very good idea to me, yet having heard of other seemingly worthwhile groups that became infiltrated by the Commies, I hesitate joining anything without checking with your office first. Do you have any negative information about this movement? Would you recommend that it be supported?

Dear Miss [redacted]

Your letter dated January 4, 1961, which was also signed by Mrs. [redacted], has been received, and in view of your interest, I am enclosing publications available for general distribution by the FBI on the subject of communism. [redacted]

Although I would like to be of service, the FBI is strictly a fact-gathering agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. The FBI has not investigated the group you mentioned; however, this should not be construed as being either a clearance or nonclearance of the organization in question.

To secure a list of groups which have been cited by the Attorney General as coming within the scope of Executive Order 10450, your request should be submitted to the Subversive Organizations Section, Internal Security Division, United States Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C. The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives has also prepared and released a booklet entitled "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," in which are listed groups and periodicals which have been cited by various state and Federal agencies. The Government Printing Office advises that it is now out of print, but you may be able to secure a copy of it through your local public libraries.

The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has bitterly attacked the Eisenhower Administration in the past in connection with his writings.

Re: John Birch Society

Dear Sir:

We consider ourselves patriotic American citizens who are willing to support a legitimate anti-Communist group. We have been urged to join the John Birch Society, but before we do, we would like to know more about it. The following are some questions about the Society:

1. Does the John Birch Society have any "hidden" political or religious links?

2. Where do they get the information they provide, and how reliable is it?

3. How is it possible to check on the authenticity of the information they provide?

4. We have read that some organizations which profess to be anti-Communist are actually promoting Communism in some way. Might this be true of the John Birch Societyt?

5. The June, 1960, Bulletin of the John Birch Society urges the discontinuance of all "foreign aid," except for strictly military assistance to our unquestionably anti-Communist allies. #2 of their reasons states: "It was 'sold' to the American people, as a means of fighting Communism, by the Communists themselves, with the support of their sympathizers, dupes, and a lot of misguided idealists who swallowed the Communist line." Is this true?

We have heard that some supposedly anti-Communist books actually get across some Communist propaganda. Where does one find a reliable listing of Communist and anti-Communist books?

We would very much appreciate all the information you could give us concerning the John Birch Society.

Respectfully yours,

[redacted]

NOTE: "American Opinion" is the publication of Robert Welch and his organization, The John Birch Society. This group is allegedly anticommunist and has chapters throughout the country. Welch has bitterly attacked the Eisenhower Administration in the past in his writings, and all field offices have been alerted to watch the activities of his organization.

Although we have not conducted an investigation of the National Council of Churches, as such, we have kept abreast of the efforts of the CPUSA to infiltrate this group through our over-all investigations of the CPUSA and communist efforts to infiltrate mass-type organizations. (100-50869). Bureau material has been made available to Dr. Fred C. Schwarz, W. P. Strube and others affiliated with Dr. Schwarz' Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. W. C. Sullivan memo to Belmont dated 9-22-60 indicates that when a SA of the Bureau spoke before the Dallas Freedom Forum, Dallas, Texas, on 9-19 and 20, 60, (which sponsored a school on communism at that time directed by Dr. Schwarz) the SA commented that Schwarz made several "pitches" for articles in a book which he has written on communism and his publications were prominently displayed. In view of Schwarz's opportunistic activities in promoting his own writings, careful consideration should be shown in the future in furnishing speakers in view of the possibility that he might attempt to capitalize on the Bureau's reputation.

In view of all inquiries made by correspondent, above reply is believed best to serve the Bureau's interests.

Dear Sir:

Please advise if the editor Robert Welch, or any of his advisory committee in the book "American Opinion" under the title "A World Gone Crazy", Volume III, Number 7, July, August and September 1960, are connected with a Communist group. This group poses as Anti-Communist group working to arouse American opinion against the danger of Communism in this country.

Please advise if Rev. Blake past President, National Council of Churches is a Communist or has any connection with Communist organization that would be detrimental to our churches.

Also advise if Dr. Fred C. Schwarz, Editor, Christian Anti-Communist Crusade, Texas Branch Office, P.O. Box 6422, Houston 6, Texas is a Communist or connected with organization that would be detrimental to our churches or society.

We are concerned about joining this movement against Communism, but before we commit ourselves or take any active part we want to be sure there is no Communist or Communist influence in this organization promoting this movement.

I am enclosing the cover to this book for your reference. Thank you, I will appreciate a reply at your earliest convenience.

A WORLD GONE CRAZY

A panoramic survey of the degree of Communist influence in each of 107 countries

September 6, 1960

Dear Reader:

We offer no apology for the lateness of this magazine, nor for the combining of numbers which the project made necessary. Instead we shall rely in good conscience on the final product to justify both. For this undertaking has required research, correspondence, analysis, and plain hard work far beyond the normal quota for turning out any ordinary monthly magazine. And we earnestly believe that this issue of American Opinion will prove to be the most important publication in the whole field of anti-Communist literature since Seeds Of Treason.

Your editor can make that last statement with much better grace because he neither wrote any of these articles nor did any appreciable amount of "editing" of their contents. This survey of the present level of Communist influence in every country in the world was compiled by real experts. Before you are half through reading it you will see why we gave these hundred pages of history the title: A World Gone Crazy. If this doesn't awaken and alarm your complacent neighbors, nothing ever will. Not at least before they, and we, are being strung up from lamp posts by the Communist police.

We hope you can wake 'em up.

Sincerely,

Robert Welch.

GARRETT, GARET
THE PEOPLE'S POTTAGE

Three of the most penetrating political monographs of recent times (THE REVOLUTION WAS, EX AMERICA, RISE OF EMPIRE), by a relentless critic of the alien ideologies exemplified in modern American political and cultural life, are here collected into one volume, with a foreword by the author. A book every American should have.

174 pages, 8vo $3.00

". . . told with frightening clarity . . . a book which every American will want to read . . ."—Ashley Holden, "Spokesman-Review," Spokane, Washington.

NOCK, ALBERT J.
OUR ENEMY, THE STATE

A reprint of one of the really great books exposing the dangers of Statism, by a master of English prose. Originally issued in 1935 by Morrow, it is republished with an introduction by Frank Chodorov.

209 pages, 12mo $3.50

". . . a literary masterpiece, certain to be read and enjoyed for many years to come . . ." — Edwin McDowell, Executive Director, Committee for Public Affairs, New York City.

RAND, AYN
ANTHEM

A gripping and imaginative story, by the author of THE FOUNTAINHEAD, which contrasts a completely collectivized society with the real meaning of the principles of individualism. One of the most moving and beautiful prose poems ever written.

A reprint of the famous 1946 edition issued by The Pamphleteers. Library edition, clothbound.

105 pages, large 12mo $3.00

". . . TENDER AND TERRIFIC . . . the greatest novel I have ever read — and I have covered the literary waterfront in seven languages . . ." — Dr. Ruth Alexander, Canaan, N. Y.

SPENCER, HERBERT
THE MAN VERSUS THE STATE

The celebrated political thinker and philosopher redefines the true meaning of liberalism. Edited by Albert Jay Nock.

213 pages, large 12mo $3.50

". . . It is both refreshing and illuminating to read a book such as Herbert Spencer has written. Although the essays contained in this book were originally written over one hundred years ago their meaningfulness has increased over the years . . ." —R. R. Irving in "The American Statesman," Salt Lake City.

What, if anything, do you know about The John Birch Society?

The aims seem to be in keeping with the desired "American Way of Life," but even organizations that sincerely try to do good unintentionally let "the enemy" in. It could easily be turned into a Communist Front organization. I certainly hope not ---

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The John Birch Society in Bremerton has recently purchased the movie "Operation Abolition", and I have been designated to show it before local youth, parent and church groups. Some difficulty has been experienced in attempting to verify the authenticity of the film and the statements made in it. In your report "Communist Target - Youth" released in July, 1960 was very valuable information that could be used to fight these liberal-socialists. Is there any possibility of obtaining about 200 copies of your report to pass out to local leaders and presidents of organizations. I would also appreciate it very much if I could be placed on your mailing list for all future reports and publications concerning Communism and its activities. I need help from someplace, but it is real difficult to find authentic documentation that people will believe and respect.

Dear Mr. Hoover, John Birch Society, Inc,

Having recently become alarmed at the growth of Communism not only in other countries but in our own country as well, I discovered and have joined the John Birch Society.

If this society truthfully and faithfully supports the ideals and aims to which it claims, I would like to devote my time, energy and finances toward its growth and activities and urge my relatives, friends and acquaintances to do likewise. But since they occasionally point a finger accusingly at people and organizations usually thought of as defenders of freedom and democracy, I have reached a point where I must know whether the John Birch Society is what it claims to be.

Since the membership is doubling in size once every four months it seems to me that people should know from a reliable source whether or not it is worthy of the support of all good American citizens. I am hoping you can answer this question for me.

I am enclosing their Bulletin for December in which many of their views are set forth. I hope it is not asking too much of you to have someone on your staff advise me in this matter.

Foreword

"Greater than the tread of mighty armies is an idea whose hour has come."
Author Unknown

There is considerable history connected with the above quotation, and many writers have expressed some part or some version of the same thought. We are concerned, however, not with the authorship of this exact form of the brilliant generalization, but with the way its applicability to The John Birch Society becomes more visible every month. And we derive both understanding and encouragement from watching the principle inexorably at work in our favor.

On December 9 The John Birch Society will be two years old. We are still quite small, and very young. But already, more because of our obvious potential for the future than anything we have done so far, we have made a recognized impact on the American scene. And during the past few months it has become clear that our growth is not to be stopped, nor its rate retarded, by vicious attacks from the Left, extensive smears from the Right, or the complacent ignorance of the Center. For the foundation of our effort is truly an idea whose hour has come.

We want less government and still less government everywhere, down to the irreducible minimum necessary for a civilized society. For expanding government is inevitably an enemy of freedom and an obstacle to progress. We want more individual responsibility allowed and accepted, for man was not created to be just a numbered robot in a collectivised state. We want a return to, and increasing respect for, those moral and humanitarian principles, clearly defined by all of our several religious faiths, that offer the one and only base on which to make this a better world.

In an age that was not polluted everywhere by the poison of Communism, our efforts and objectives would be -- and will be -- almost entirely positive. But the satanic conspiracy, which now threatens to enslave all mankind, works unceasingly -- as a means of establishing and maintaining its cruel tyranny -- to increase the quantity and power of government, to reduce and then abolish individual responsibility (except to government), and entirely to obliterate both morality and even religion itself. It is from a practical necessity, therefore, that we must oppose and help to overthrow those evil forces that will otherwise destroy, and are now destroying, even such civilization as man has laboriously acquired.

We cannot do our part towards building a better world without eliminating the foul virus that is making a diseased monstrosity of the world we already have. To do that we must recognize the nature of the virus; we must identify and oppose and excise it wherever possible; and we must overcome the evil forces that utilize and spread it.

For the virus of Communism is conspiratorially implanted and nourished wherever it appears. There are many good Americans who do not realize this fact, or who simply refuse to face it; who insist on regarding communism as a "natural" disease to which we have fortuitously fallen prey; who consider our battle to be an ideological one, and our enemy a philosophy of life. At this stage of the struggle they are all but wasting their time; and they even may, despite the best of intentions, be helping the enemy by giving him the very consideration, and building up the very prestige, which he needs. It is not a mistake which The John Birch Society can afford to make. Our aims are too farreaching and too important; and our very devotion to them will not permit such comfortable and easy blindness. We are, and must be, realists on our side, as much as the Communists are on theirs. Trying to cure communism, without destroying the (Communist disease-spreaders,) while it has now become one of the great intellectual pastimes of our age, is an expensive exercise in dismal futility.

Being realists, in The John Birch Society we are determined, not just to oppose communism, but to fight the Communists. This is the one thing they cannot allow (as the career of Joseph McCarthy clearly showed). This is why they already hate us so viciously, and why they and their sympathizers and allies and dupes will use every conceivable means to discredit and destroy us. But they will not succeed because ours is an idea -- of organization, of purpose, and of consecration -- whose hour has come.

With Statistics

But the fact that the time was ripe for The John Birch Society and its ideals guarantees us only opportunity, not success. And the fact that, among all of the opponents of communism, we have chosen the one hard road that cuts right through to the sources of the poison, means that ours is no bandwagon for the weak or the comfortable. We have no place or time for the halfhearted -- in work or in sacrifice. Our body must grow, in size and strength and effectiveness, until it is a match for the Communists. And that is a Herculean task, on which we have just begun.

At this two-year birthday we should like very much to give out specific facts and figures about our size and growth. We know our members would love it. And we doubt if, at this stage, it could do us any harm. But we are convinced that the sound experience which keeps so many other groups from ever revealing their numerical strength has even more force with regard to ourselves, and that we should set no embarrassing precedents for the future.

We'll discuss our rate of growth quite frankly at this point, nevertheless. And there is tremendous encouragement and inspiration for us all in the vigor of our expansion to date. For it is continuing growth, not current size, that is important, and to which so much of our zeal must be dedicated during the months and even years immediately ahead.

So far we have been doubling in size approximately once every four months. There have been one or two periods, such as the early part of 1960, when our numbers increased one hundred percent in three months. But the next similar doubling required five months. And we ourselves are surprised to discover how regular the four-months average has been, for multiplying our size by two, during the whole two years -- despite various factors that certainly seemed to be brakes on our progress at the time they appeared. Those factors have ranged from our own extreme preoccupation with the Committee Against Summit Entanglements, through smear campaigns against us of assorted sizes and intensities, to the preoccupation of our members and "prospects" with the recent election. And yet, as we look back on them now, their effect seems to have been swallowed up in the general trend.

The fact that our rate of expansion must be represented, not by a parabola, but by an exponential equation, is significant.* For it shows that, with the forces which brought us into existence once set in motion and continuously at work, our growth itself is the primary factor in determining the rate of further growth; and that we are constantly benefitting from and building on what we have already achieved, as a base for further expansion. Which may be a longwinded way of saying that our new members themselves rapidly become by far our best salesmen for more new members, but which nevertheless supplies positive corroboration of that important fact.

Getting down to earth again, our growth experience to date not only means that we are doubling our size three times within each year -- or each twelve-months period, wherever taken. But it emphasizes the fact that, if we could maintain any such fabulous rate, we would have eight times as many members at our third birthday as we have now, and more than eight times that many by the end of 1962.

Frankly, I don't think it can be done. The two limiting factors, as is obvious and as we have explained before, are getting the money for such rapid expansion, and building organization solidly enough to be sure of what we are doing. And no matter how much you members sacrifice to help us, and no matter how hard we all work here to make the best possible use of your support, I don't think the tangible results can come quite that fast. Also, I think that the steepness of the exponential curve

*For the few who may be interested, the equation is $y = A\ 8^x$, where y is the total of our membership, A is a constant, and x is the age of the Society, expressed in years or fractions thereof. And the formula which we hope to maintain, as explained further along, would be $y = A\ 4^x$, where A remains the same.

is bound to slow down somewhat as we get much larger.

But I do think that for the next year, and perhaps two, it is possible and practicable for us to double our size every six months, or twice a year. And even a projection of figures on that basis should supply energizing encouragement to us all.

The task is to convert that projection into reality. But all of our warnings and exhortations, from both the Blue Book and earlier bulletins, not only remain in force; they need repeating here. We want alarmed, informed, patriotic citizens who are determined to do their part to stop the Communists and to destroy the Communist conspiracy. But this alone is not enough. Even fervent anti-Communism should at no time be considered adequate qualification for membership in The John Birch Society. We wish to have associated with us in this mighty undertaking only men and women of good character, humane conscience, and religious ideals.

The John Birch Society through its membership, by both precept and example, must help to restore morality and integrity and worthy purpose to the world in which we live. The Society must not only cause Catholics, Protestants, Jews, or Moslems who join it to wish to become better examplars of their religious faiths, but their very membership in the Society must itself be a constantly ennobling experience. We wish every member to share with us the happiness and the inspiration of working for an epic cause; of being part of a great historic movement for noble aims of tremendous and lasting importance. The members we recruit should not only have courage, and understanding, and a deep sense of personal responsibility to God and their fellow men for all that they do or leave undone; they should be firmly determined, so far as they are able, to restore a God-given "upward reach" to the heart and mind, to the actions and the thoughts, of contemporary man. It is because we demand so much and aim so high that we have "an idea whose hour has come."

Agenda For The Month

(1) Recruit new members. (But read all of the above first.)

(2) Read at least one book from our approved list.

(3) Obtain subscriptions to your magazine, AMERICAN OPINION, and orders for individual copies of the magazine or reprints of its articles.

For yourself, if you are not already a subscriber, and do not feel that you can afford the five dollars per year on top of your dues, please ask your Chapter Leader to send in your name and address for one of the gift subscriptions. We have such subscriptions, paid for by friends of ours for just this purpose, available to any member of The John Birch Society on request.

We keep on informing our newer members and reminding our older ones of this offer for the most important reason. It is that so often the explanation for many of our requests in these bulletins becomes so much more clear and convincing if you have read the articles, which serve as background for those requests, in AMERICAN OPINION.

Quite a number of our members, for instance, wrote our Research Department asking for the supporting reasons for the critical protests of Herter's actions, which we repeatedly urged. But if they had read Pages 14-26 in the June issue of the magazine, which were devoted entirely to a survey and analysis of Christian Herter's actual record, we do not think that five percent of those who wrote us would have felt any need to do so. Or if those of our members who think that we fail to appreciate Henry Cabot Lodge had read Pages 17-23 of the February AMERICAN OPINION, they would have found adequate evidence that we "appreciate" him only too well. As to Dag Hammarskjoeld, the whole of our May issue, given over to Julius Epstein's review of the Bang-Jensen case from the official documents, reveals that slippery and despicable character in his true colors.

We cannot always give you, in these bulletins, adequate documentation and explanation for the actions we request. Sometimes, as in connection with the flying of the Panamanian Flag at the Canal -- where we did know exactly what we were talking about and were doing, despite some implications reaching some of our members to the contrary -- we could not do so without asking you to read at least one whole book (Harding's The Untold Story Of Panama; Devin-Adair, $6.00), and a great deal of other material. But frequently we have already laid the groundwork for such requests, and for a proper understanding of them, in the pages of your magazine.

So read it. A distinguished conservative member of the British Parliament recently wrote that in twenty-five years of studying Communist penetration he had never seen anything as good as our 1960 Scoreboard Issue. A leading French conservative weekly, Nation Francaise, has just used over half a page (newspaper size) to quote from and report glowingly on the same number. Our most regular contributor since the magazine started, William Schlamm, has been the most widely read author and most widely heard lecturer in West Germany for the past eighteen months. And American Opinion is now rapidly winning recognition, both at home and abroad, as a leading authority on international affairs and on all aspects of the Cold War. Read it yourself and do your part to increase its readership by others.

(4) During December most of your Congressmen and Senators will be home. They are entitled to some peace and relaxation and freedom from official worries during the holiday season, the same as anybody else. So avoid either harassing them, or even appearing to do so. But most of them will still be glad to hear from and talk with their constituents on all suitable occasions, nevertheless. So take advantage of the opportunity by calling them on the telephone, or visiting them personally, or forming small groups or delegations to do so, in order to make your views respectfully but emphatically known. Our legislators, more than any other members of our national government, are still guided to a considerable extent by grassroots sentiment -- if that sentiment is strong enough and obvious enough. Among the matters on which you should make your sentiment both strong and clear are the following.

A. We want no repeal of the Connally Amendment, either direct or by subterfuge. If any further evidence had ever been needed of the folly of putting ourselves completely at the mercy of the World Court, such evidence was conclusively supplied on November 16, when Philip Jessup was elected a member of that Court.

B. We want a strengthening, rather than abolition or any weakening, of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The movie of the San Francisco riots is alone sufficient to show how important a victory it would be for the Communists to destroy this Committee, and how important is our need to maintain it. If your Congressman or Senator has never seen that film, try to arrange for him to do so. (Prints are available promptly, at $100.00 each, from Washington Video Productions, 1637 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington 7, D.C.) Also, some of our Coordinators have such prints, as we have bought as many as we could afford for that purpose.

C. We want every Congressman and Senator fully to realize that Fidel Castro, who has been a devoted agent of the Kremlin ever since his school days, is a vicious, dangerous, and declared enemy of the United States; to act accordingly in connection with all pertinent matters that come before Congress; and to use their influence and power to see that our State Department and other administrative agencies stop helping Castro while pretending to oppose him. (An excellent new book on Castro is Nathaniel Weyl's Red Star Over Cuba; Devin-Adair, $4.50.) We especially want no more of the steady undermining of anti-Communist morale throughout all of Latin America, by our government, which has taken place under Christian Herter's regime in the State Department.

In this connection, and in support of our outspoken criticism of Herter and our analyses of what has really been happening, we reprint below, with permission of the author, a letter to our present Secretary of State from a distinguished Lieutenant General (Retired), who is one of Florida's most influential citizens.

October 5, 1960

Mr. Christian Herter
Secretary of State
State Department Office Bldg.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

On September 6, 1960 I addressed a letter to you concerning the Cuban situation and its relationship to the security of the United States of America. This letter was delivered through the office of Senator George Smathers of Florida and he requested that the letter be brought to your personal attention. At this writing you have not even taken the trouble to acknowledge receipt of the letter.

In my letter to you, I charged that the State Department was guilty of treason in handing the Cuban government over to the International Communist Conspiracy, thereby endangering the security of the United States of America.

What kind of people are you who now run our State Department? You sit quietly and let an American citizen charge your department with treason and are not the least bit disturbed about it. To me this means that you either admit that traitors are in your department or that the word TREASON has ceased to mean anything to you. Either conclusion is fatal to our country.

The loss of Cuba to Russia is a catastrophe and can mean our defeat in this great struggle.

The responsibility for this condition now rests entirely upon your shoulders, Mr. Herter, and the people of this country will not forget or forgive what you have done to them and how you have allowed our country to reach this dangerous position.

Yours truly,

(Signature)

Sumter L. Lowry

D. We want no further steps towards surrender of our absolute rights in perpetuity over the Panama Canal, "to the entire exclusion of the exercise by the Republic of Panama of any such sovereign rights, power or authority," as established by Article III of the Hay-Bunau-Varilla Treaty -- which still governs the situation and by which treaty the Republic of Panama was given birth. And we want no further motions toward "internationalization" of the Canal, under any guise.

E. We do not want any welfare state at home. Mr. Kennedy has received no mandate for establishing any more of a welfare state than we already have. If he has even been elected at all -- which as yet is by no means certain -- it is clear that at least one-half of the people of the United States did not want him as President and are opposed to the kind of administration foreshadowed by his past record and his campaign. This is a very important point to emphasize to every member of both Houses of Congress. We want no "bi-partisan honeymoon" at the beginning of this regime, during which the extreme "liberals" would have everything their own way and do further irreparable damage -- as Franklin Roosevelt did -- to our whole americanist system of government.

F. We do not want our Senators abdicating their rights and duties with regard to confirming Presidential appointments. The appointments to be handed down by the incoming administration are likely to be worse, if possible, than those during the later years under Eisenhower. And it is time for all conscientious Senators, of both parties, to stop letting themselves be browbeaten into accepting any appointment practically by default.

G. There are still a lot of very good Congressmen and Senators who will go to Washington in January. They may not agree with us on everything -- which is hardly surprising or desirable, since we never agree with one another on everything. Far from it indeed. But these men, scores of them in both parties, are good Americanists, with regard to both domestic issues and foreign affairs. They deserve praise, support, and encouragement. And while they are at home during the Christmas season is a good time to give them all three.

(5) Continue to buy, and use on your envelopes, our stickers concerning a republic against a democracy, of which a sample will be found on the envelope of this bulletin. Our price originally quoted was $1.00 for 25 sheets of 33 stickers each; that is, for 825 stickers. In the actual printing we found it far better to use larger sheets, each containing 80 stickers. Our price has been revised, therefore, to $1.00 for 12 sheets of 80 stickers each, or 960 stickers for the dollar. Up to now the stickers are actually costing us more than that, but we wanted to keep the price as low as we could, and we believe our cost will be all right as we get into considerably larger quantities.

Also, we hope that the use of these slogans will become very widespread indeed. In answer to a number of inquiries we had hoped to have a four-page insert to go with this bulletin giving a brief review of some of the vital differences between a republic and a democracy. We find now that to do so would put this bulletin over the line, for an additional four cents postage, which would be an unwise extravagance. So the short article will appear in the January AMERICAN OPINION, and reprints will then also be available. In the meantime most of our members are already aware that those differences are so important as amply to justify the very extensive campaign, which we hope will be spearheaded by the use of these stickers, to make millions of Americans more conscious that ours is -- or was -- a republic!

(6) A four-cent stamp has recently been issued in honor of Senator Robert A. Taft, bearing his picture and name. One of our good members has suggested, and we agree, that it offers us an excellent opportunity to impress on Washington just how much respect for Taft and his principles is still vigorously alive in this country. Use this stamp on your mail, ask for it at your local postoffice, request that they stock it and keep on insisting if necessary, and do everything you can to make it one of the most widely used issues in many years. The world in which we are living today is one in which power is built up out of prestige, pressures, and persistence. And it is well worth the cumulative effort to all of us, to show the "liberals" how powerful still remain the memory and ideals of Robert A. Taft.

(7) In our last bulletin we asked our members to oppose, in every practicable way they could, the use of UNICEF greeting cards. We referred you, for supporting arguments, to Hubert Kregeloh's article, Don't Send Me A UNICEF Greeting Card!, in the November AMERICAN OPINION. We repeat that request and reference here because December is the month when most of these cards are used.

While we believe the National Guardian denies, or would deny, being an official Communist Party paper, it will certainly do for the comrades until something more official comes along. (It's editor is Cedric Belfrage!) And this weekly runs a Guardian Buying Service for the faithful. The four-page Holiday Shopping Guide of this "Service," in the October 31 issue, offered many interesting items. There are "precision" wrist watches, imported directly from the USSR. There is a "popular handwoven cap" from Yugoslavia. There are two books glorifying the Communist side of the Spanish Civil War. There are "peasant dolls" and "little city dolls" straight from Poland. And there is a "complete line" of portable typewriters from East Germany. About one-third of the whole first page of this shopper's guide, however, is given over to "The Famous UNICEF Greeting Cards," their pictures, and their prices. We just thought you might like to know the most logical place to buy UNICEF greeting cards, in case you find them irresistible and disregard our advice!

(8) In our October bulletin we suggested that our members join, and become active in, their local Parent Teachers Associations. And we further urged that they consciously strive to move up the ladder and exert influence in the state and national PTA organizations. We have received considerable criticism on that item, from informed sources, on the ground that the second part of our suggestion simply could not be carried out by any conservative parent. It seems that the "liberals" and leftists running the PTA from the top have set up such a brilliant system of self-perpetuation, partly by requiring officers to be chosen from committee chairmen, who have first been appointed by the officers, that there is no practicable way of shaking this leftwing grip over the whole machine. And any Americanist who tried to break into this tight and purposeful hierarchy would simply be butting his or her head against a stone wall. Our critics say, therefore, that our suggestion was unrealistic.

We readily admit we did not know that the situation in the upper reaches of the PTA was quite so bad, or that the baleful influence of the leftwingers in the National Education Association had been quite so thoroughly established over the PTA as well. (And we'll bet that ninety percent of the good American mothers and fathers in the local PTA's don't know it either.) And it may be, as several of our critics tell us, that the only realistic course for Americanist parents to take is to join, or help to start, local School-and-Home Clubs or other parallel organizations to do what the PTA was originally founded, and is still supposed, to do. We shall return to this question in a later bulletin, after considerable more study of the whole situation.

In the meantime, the problem of deteriorating education for our children is getting worse, because so much of the deterioration is "planned that way." Not, except in rare instances, by the teachers, or even local school administrators (whose worst crime is simply to "go along" with the pressures and policies prepared from above), but by the influences in the NEA, our Teachers' Colleges, and elsewhere; influences that are determined to see the whole American public leveled into uniform mass mediocrity -- and to use public education as one powerful means of accomplishing that objective. It is a problem which members of our Society simply cannot ignore.

For the time being, therefore, we still recommend that -- regardless of any chance of affecting national or state policies of the PTA -- our members become active in their local Parent Teacher Associations wherever that offers the best chance of bringing americanist as against collectivist influence to bear on the curricula, teaching methods, and policies of your local schools. Where there is no such chance, we urge you to form or help others to form your own local group of parents -- under whatever name -- to serve the same purpose. And in either case we also urge you to become acquainted with the teachers and administrators of your local schools, study the textbooks being used, visit meetings of your school committee, and otherwise take a lot of direct personal interest in the kind of job which your agents, whom you are paying to teach your children, are actually doing.

During the three years that this writer was a member of our local School Committee, in a residential town of thirty thousand inhabitants, the monthly meetings of our committee were invariably attended (unofficially and as self-invited guests) by three representatives of the League of Women Voters. They were always quiet, friendly, considerate -- and welcome. They were as charming ladies, and personally as well regarded, as could be found in our town. But they were also about as "liberal" as could be found in our town as well. And they and their organization were taking a very strong and direct interest in what happened in our schools, and in which way the schools were headed. But never once in my three-year term did any members of any conservative group, or any individual conservative, attend a meeting of our committee. There are plenty of people in our town interested in seeing the best of American traditional values preserved, in our schools as elsewhere -- but not that interested. Heavens, no. Bridge or a movie is so much more fun.

But American parents and nobody else have the ultimate responsibility for the education of their children, no matter what agents or agencies they hire to do the job for them, and no matter how hard the "liberals" and "progressives" try to shift that responsibility to ever-more centralized government. The fact that "Johnny can't read," and even worse problems, are due almost entirely to the gradual abandonment of that responsibility -- under insidious cajolery from the "Left" -- to the agencies of government. One of the major functions of The John Birch Society, over the next several years, is to help mightily in restoring americanist principles and purposes to our American schools. This can be accomplished only by the cumulative effect of an infinite number of small and conscientious labors on the part of our members. And it is time we got started on that task with a will.

(9) The movie on which we were to report this time was Spartacus. It is based on a novel by Howard Fast (!); the screenplay is by Dalton Trumbo (!); it was directed by Stanley Kubrick; the "executive" producer (and hero) is Kirk Douglas; and it is billed as the most expensive picture ever made. The Communist influences in its production background are boldly undisguised. We have enough material and reports on the "whole show" for a tight condensation to fill several pages of this bulletin.

But the actual Communist propaganda in the film itself has been kept low and well camouflaged. And we simply do not have room to give you the thorough analysis on which we think protests to local theatre owners and managers should be based. While we have been delighted, therefore, to see other patriotic groups call critical attention to this spectacle, we suggest that our members "hold their fire" until a more propitious occasion, when we can supply them more effective ammunition.

(10) Please write letters to the following.

(a) Mr. Jess Gorkin, Editor, Parade Magazine, 285 Madison Avenue, New York 17, New York. Tell him that we want no part of the direct telephone line between the White House and the Kremlin, proposed in his issue of October 30. And since Senator Kennedy went on record as favoring the proposal, mail copies of your letter to him, addressed simply to President-elect John F. Kennedy, Washington, D. C. The copies will never be read, but they will be noted and counted. Many of the letters to Parade will be read, however, and the whole protest is worth while. Goodness knows Washington is ideologically close enough to Moscow now, without making the White House a branch office of the Kremlin, or vice versa.

(b) Hon. Syngman Rhee, 2033 Makiki Street, Honolulu 14, Hawaii. Tell him not to answer the letters, but we just want him to know what a great man we all still think he is. We believe he will get a huge amount of well-deserved pleasure and encouragement from a flood of such goodwill messages.

General Comments

In every bulletin we try to give a small word of praise or encouragement to some other toiler in the same vineyard as ourselves. This month we are making that gesture of approbation to Verne Kaub and his American Council of Christian Laymen, by enclosing one of his recent flyers. And if this additional circulation of the flyer helps to make more audiences and prospective audiences aware of Dr. Max Lerner's "qualifications" as a lecturer, we can count that as a bonus for our effort.

Also, we call attention to the Political Action Conference being put on in Washington, January 6 and 7, by Human Events. The two-day program will be studded with powerful Americanist speakers, including Barry Goldwater, Strom Thurmond, Congressman Ed Hiestand, Fulton Lewis, Jr., and many others like them. We suggest that you get the details directly from Human Events, 410 First Street, S. E., and plan to attend if you can.

There has been considerable pressure in various parts of the country to have our Chapter Leaders supply the names and addresses of their members -- usually to somebody of unquestionable patriotism and for visibly laudable purposes. Let us again warn both our Chapter Leaders and Coordinators that the names of our members are not to be given to anybody, for any purpose. We once turned down -- and lost for good -- an application for Life Membership in our Home Chapter, with a check for a thousand dollars, because it carried a condition that we tell the applicant who his fellow members were in his locality. And he was a well-known long-time fighter against the Communist menace, about whose worthy purposes there could be no slightest doubt. Our guarantee to our members that their names and addresses will not be divulged simply means what it says.

The White Book For 1960, about 300 pages, cost five dollars prepaid, containing all twelve bulletins for the year (including this one), will be coming from the printer, ready to mail, in about a week to ten days. It is the only practicable way we know for our newer members to learn all of the bad things we have done and all of the good things we have tried to do during 1960.

We are very proud of all of our Coordinators. They are a dedicated and hardworking group. But we are going to break a precedent here -- or set one -- by mentioning particularly Brigadier General William L. "Jerry" Lee, USAF (Ret.) (written up a few years ago by the Saturday Evening Post as one of the "toughest" and ablest generals in our Air Force), who has recently become a full-time Coordinator for us (at his own expense and without pay) in the area surrounding Amarillo, Texas. What we need now is about a hundred more Jerry Lees, but we are proud to have even one.

Because this is the last bulletin of the year, let us repeat here our frequent warning: Do not carry out any of our requests which are disapproved by your own conscience. This is "a monolithic body," and we'll use our authority on the negative side, if it becomes absolutely necessary, to prevent anybody doing any damage to the Society from within -- so far as we are sufficiently forewarned and able. But on the positive side we do not want anybody, ever, to do anything for The John Birch Society which he or she does not earnestly want to do. We simply hope that you will have confidence in our integrity and purposes, and will fervently wish to carry out all or most of our requests.

And to each and every member, everywhere, we send our thanks, our kindest regards, and our very best wishes for a Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

Robert Welch

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter was received on January 10, 1961, and I am glad to know that you have found the material sent you of interest and assistance.

Although I would like to be of service, the function of this Bureau as strictly a fact-gathering agency of the Federal Government does not extend to furnishing evaluations or drawing conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I can inform you that we have not investigated the John Birch Society, but this should not be construed as being either a clearance or nonclearance of the group in question.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: The John Birch Society is an allegedly anticommunist group with branches throughout the United States. Its head, Robert Welch, has criticized the Eisenhower administration in the past in his writings, and our field offices have been alerted to watch the activities of his group. Correspondent has received publications on the subject of communism in the past, and a most commendatory note to the Director was received from him in August, 1960, at which time he stated that he was a member of the John Birch Society. Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a high school junior who has held a great deal of admiration and respect for you and your organization ever since I really understood what the meaning of the immense and complex problem confronting our once great nation really is. I have written you several times previously on diverse topics, and have always been satisfied with your prompt, concise replies. I sent for several copies of your pamphlet "Communist Target--Youth" and was impressed with the efficiency with which you process the countless letters you must be receiving all the time.

Now I would like to get down to the real reason I am writing this letter: I would like your true and honest appraisal of the organization known as "The John Birch Society." I would, of course, appreciate as comprehensive and objective a reply as possible. Thank you for your patience.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

According to all sorts of surveys, the American woman is a pretty powerful person. She spends all the money, makes all the decisions, raises the children --is really a power to be reckoned with when it comes to designing cars, homes, merchandise of any kind. How does it happen then --that these powerful women --and there are millions -- billions of us --are not doing something about Communism? How come lots of us are not doing anything --except putting in time in organizations that are not getting anything worthwhile done? How many millions of us are not in ANY organization --rather than be in these time-killing, get-nothing-done clubs?

Mr. Hoover, there are millions of women in America today that have time and talent to fight for America --if we just knew where to begin. I am sure there are women like I, who want to do more than just worry --or wish they could help. We aren't in any unions, we don't see many people in a day's time, we feel we are not moving fast enough just by teaching our children. We can't afford to be passive any longer when the Communists are moving so swiftly. We are the women who hate fighting --but are willing to fight for our country. Won't you please tell us how to fight?

b7C

I know there is Moral Rearmament, the Christophers --all of them teaching the same things --really. The Golden Rule --not "Who's right --but What's right" --everyone doing his own little bit to make this a better place to live in. This hasn't really been working well enough --or fast enough to keep up with the Communists --so what is the answer? How can we fight them? How can the women fight fire with fire? That is what it takes.

REC- 82 62-104401-577

The Ladies Home Journal magazine has a slogan --"Never underestimate the power of women" --and I wish you would give this a lot of thought and come up with an answer so the women of American can get busy and organize against Communism. I don't think the surface has even been scratched.

10 JAN 18 1961

I have been to one meeting of The John Birch Society --and I am anxious to know if this is a good organization --or just another one where they sit around and scare people but never give them any concrete thing to do. I never heard of it before I moved to Stamford from Miami, so I am wondering about it. I guess any organization fighting communism is a better thing than no organization, but I would like to have a part in exposing Communism for what it is --and I don't know where to begin. Maybe the American women are pictured more concerned with having wall to wall carpet --or pastel appliances, but I prefer to think that most of us are yearning to do something to help you in your fight against our enemy. Mr. Hoover --we thank you for what you have done for America --and wish you would help us find our way to help too.

Sincerely yours,

Being somewhat concerned with the trend of American policies, and the seemingly compromises we have so often made to the communist regime, I have tried to find some way of combating the present trend toward socialism and ultimate destruction of American ideals.

I have been told that the "John Birch Society" is a growing society dedicated to fighting the communist. I believe this society is headed by a Mr. Robert Welsh of Belmont, Massachusetts.

I would appreciate your official opinion of this society and of Mr. Welsh, so that I may be guided in the right direction and not be duped in a column of "Red", as has happened to so many other good citizens of our country.

I, as a citizen, appreciate the tremendous job you have done for our country for so many years. May God be with you.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

First of all, I'd like to tell you how much I have enjoyed reading your series on the Communist Threat, which have appeared this week in our Dallas News.

Only this week, I attended a meeting wherein the "John Burk Society" was presented to us and listened to a film recording of a Mr. Welch, who appears to be the head of this organization. It was a three-hour long film, wherein he attempted to set forth the purposes of his organization and posed as one who thinks he knows all the answers to the threat of communism.

What I want to know before I join this organization or any other, supposedly to fight the threat of communism, is it on "our" side? In other words it could be communistic through and through and I want to be sure before I become a member.

He said the headquarters were in Belmont, Massachusetts; that if you joined the Society, you took orders from head down, although you could resign any time you wished; that they wanted members through "persuasion" and not pressure; that they preferred small groups but dedicated groups; they appear to hate communism but at the same time, several points were made that did not jibe with true Americanism.

For instance, they are against the United Nations...think our Newspapers are withholding the truth.....will not tolerate arguments at meetings..... saw nothing good that our Government has done within the past few years and refuse to say how many members they have or who they are. This does not sound "American" to me. I pondered and pondered after attending this meeting and since I believe in you as the champion of our country's freedom and liberties, I decided to write you and ask about this Society. I do not know where else to turn.

REC- 82

There was one other thing that I did not like....it seemed ~~to me~~ they are endeavoring to crease "distrust" of almost everybody and every nation. They bore down on the theme that it is senseless and needless to pursue preparedness in this country. On the whole, there was something about it all that made me, at least, uneasy and that is why I am worrying you with this question.

JAN 19 1961

I realize you are a very busy man, but I love my Country and want to do everything for it possible, not against it through ignorance or stupidity. Assuring you that I shall appreciate hearing from you, and with all good wishes for your continued success at the head of our Bureau in the U. S., I am

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record of correspondent. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. This organization was founded by Robert Welch in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has, in the past, also attacked President Eisenhower and his administration in his writing.

The Christian Anti-Communism Crusade is headed by Dr. Fred Schwarz. W. C. Sullivan to Belmont memo dated 9-22-60 indicates that when a Special Agent of the Bureau spoke before the Dallas Freedom Forum in Dallas, Texas, on September 19 and 20, 1960, which was sponsoring a school on communism, directed by Dr. Schwarz, the Special Agent commented that Schwarz made several pitches for articles in a book which he had written on communism, and his publications were prominently displayed. As it appeared that he was trying to capitalize on the Bureau's reputation, it was indicated that our dealings with him and his organization should become most circumspect.

Correspondent's enclosure was a stamped, self-addressed envelope which is being utilized in reply.

JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

Dear Sirs;-

Being interested in the Anti-Communist Movement in my neighbourhood I find that the John Burch Society is making a good effort to building groups and giving out literature, published by the Un American Activities Committee, and publications such as American Opinion, and "What Can I Do?" by Christian Anti-Communist Crusade, P. O. Box 6422, Houston, Texas, Etc.,

Mr. Robert Welch spoke before about 200 people from the Presbyterian Church 2 months ago and had a big response.

Several of my business and Profession friends in Costa Mesa and Newport Beach are interested in Anti-Communist Movement but would like to know about the reliability if the John Burch Society along with Mr. Robert Welch. Coming from you it will be a great influence in the movement against these "Masters of Deceit", by your Director, J. Edgar Hoover.

Thank you for your appraisal of the John Burch Society and Mr. Robert Welch.

Enclosed please find envelope,

Dear Mrs. Hoover:

As a teacher of [redacted] I am presently concerned about correct information in regard to a "John Birch Society". I understand that it is anti-communist, but I have been receiving such conflicting statements pertinent to the Society. I believe that it is of vital importance for teachers to have correct information in regard to theories and tactics of Communism as well as of organizations opposing them. To be certain of getting correct information we decided to get it directly from you. So just what is the purpose and status of the John Birch Society? Then too what about the film "Operation Abolition"? Would you recommend it for showing in our American Government classes? The City School Superintendent of Wichita banned the film from the Public School System. However various Protestant Churches and Catholic Youth Organizations have shown the film.

JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

Dear Mrs. Hoover:

As a teacher of [redacted] I am presently concerned about correct information in regard to a "John Birch Society". I understand that it is anti-communist, but I have been receiving such conflicting statements pertinent to the Society. I believe that it is of vital importance for teachers to have correct information in regard to theories and tactics of Communism as well as of organizations opposing them. To be certain of getting correct information we decided to get it directly from you. So just what is the purpose and status of the John Birch Society? Then too what about the film "Operation Abolition"? Would you recommend it for showing in our American Government classes? The City School Superintendent of Wichita banned the film from the Public School System. However various Protestant Churches and Catholic Youth Organizations have shown the film.

We are encouraging our students to read "Masters of Deceit" and the periodical "The Truth" (published by the Political Science Club of Marquette University High School.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We are strong Republicans, and right wing, conservative, and are very interested in anti-communist work. We are contemplating joining the John Birch Society which has just recently been formed here. We have heard so many pros and cons about it that I finally decided to write to you concerning this Society. People wonder why there are no well known names among the members-is there any reason?

As busy as you are, I was reluctant to take up your time with this letter, but I surely would appreciate your answer for it would be my answer to a lot of talk that I hear.

We live in a very strong Farmers Union hot bed. We have been sleeping too long, and have finally come to the realization of where our country is headed. We had Herb Philbrick here this fall, and the Democrats called his meeting a Republican rally.

I will appreciate your answer.

Yours truly,

Mrs [redacted]

NOTE: The Bureau has not investigated the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade or Dr. Frederick Charles Schwarz, its Executive Director. Schwarz is an Australian physician who has been touring the country lecturing on communism. He uses these lectures for promoting sale of a book he has written on communism. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has, in the past, also attacked President Eisenhower and his Administration in his writings. Since correspondent requests information relative to two organizations, the above reply is deemed advisable. Correspondent is not identifiable in Bufiles.

Dear Bob:

I am sure you had a happy Christmas. We certainly did, but I must say you do crowd too much into those past two weeks.

I hope you can help me find out something about the "John Birch" Society if you don't already know. It is an organization, we are told, to fight communism. I am a poor one to join anything and certainly not something I know little of. One friend, also interested, called the local F.B.I. They were not allowed to endorse any organization but did say they know nothing against it. Things seem in a pretty bad muddle right now and may be getting worse, and if there is a way to combat communism through an organization by joining and giving money it would seem an urgent thing to me.

b6
b7C

I went to one meeting where they showed a rather impressive movie on being encircled by communism in South America, Cuba, Mexico, etc. The people at the meeting were mostly young, intelligent, and worried. I knew most of them. I wont go on for I know so little about it. If you have ways of getting literature on the subject or can find out if it is worth while please let me know.

Much love to you and [redacted] Maybe you two are coming South this cold weather - if so, wish you would stop by to see us.

ENCLOSURE

62-104401-587

By LLOYD PARKER

Dr. Bill James Hargis is greatly concerned over what he calls the continuing drift of the country to socialism and communism.

"I am convinced that communism is winning World War III without firing a single shot or losing a single soldier, and the apathy and lethargy of God's people are responsible," Dr. Hargis said.

Tonight, Dr. Hargis, founder and director of Christian Crusade, America's largest anti-Communist organization, will have more to say about "the international conspiracy that is encircling the U.S."

He will speak on the Communist menace at 7:45 p.m. in the New Theater Nashville, 21st and Belcourt Avenues, under the sponsorship of the eight local chapters of the John Birch Society.

The John Birch Society chapters, organized here early last year, have a membership of 200 which has as its slogan "Less government and more responsibility." Local chapters meet monthly to study and to take action on local projects in the fight against communism.

Dr. Hargis, who stirred up a national controversy on Communist infiltration into American churches some months ago when two of his pamphlets were quoted in an Air Force Manual, is an ordained minister in the Disciples of Christ Church. He gave up the ministry in 1950 to direct his anti-communist activities.

Interviewed Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Anderson, 2220 Woodmont Blvd., where Dr. Hargis is staying during his visit here, the Texas-born minister said he is convinced communism would not be a threat in this country if people were better informed.

"Our biggest crisis in the New Year," Dr. Hargis said "is our ignorance of what communism is and how it works. It feeds on the weakness of man."

This ignorance, he said, has been responsible for more than 1,000,000 Americans to have either joined or supported Communist movements in the U.S. through 20,000 "front" organizations since 1933.

"The Communists raise $120,000,000 a year in the U.S. and not one cent comes from Russia," Dr. Hargis added.

"If the average American citizen doubts that his beloved country is in danger, let him look about him. Let him look at what is happening in his own church denomination, his labor union, his school system, his place of entertainment, the books he reads, the movies and television shows he enjoys, the 1960 complexion of the Congress and the rulings past and present of the U.S. Supreme Court."

Dr. Hargis is also concerned over the U.S. foreign aid program.

"It has failed," he said. "We sent $3 billion to Yugoslavia and only the other day Marshall Tito denounced us. We should give foreign aid only in the form of loans, and then refuse to give it to our belligerent enemies or our thankless friends."

Dr. Hargis is a big man with a round face and dark eyes. He lectures throughout the country and is enroute to Greenville, S.C. where he will tape 13 television shows.

In several months, he plans to return to Nashville to lead an anti-Communist meeting, "Survival, U.S.A."

The Christian Crusade, he says, exists solely to expose Communism and to tell thousands by radio, television, pamphlets, books and literature, the TRUTH about the criminal organization of communism that is seeking to destroy the freedoms in America by "peaceful revolution."

A self-designated conservative, Dr. Hargis takes a stand against all forms of liberalism or socialism as being only steps leading the nation closer to communism.

Here are some of his views recently expressed in his book "Communist America . . . Must it Be?

"Chiang Kai-shek of Formosa is "pro-Christian, pro-democratic and pro-American."

"Our schools and churches have been infiltrated by socialists who spread liberal, "modernist" left-wing or Communistic philosophies."

"The American Negro, like the American people generally, is manipulated to suit the whim of the Communists.

"The United Nations is the greatest hoax ever perpetrated on the American public."

Dear Bob: Hendon

I have received your letter of January 13, with enclosures, and I, of course, welcome the opportunity to be of help to you.

We have received a large number of requests for information regarding the John Birch Society and in line with our general policy have declined to make any comment concerning it other than to indicate the FBI has conducted no investigation of the organization. For your confidential information this group was organized in 1958 by Robert H. Welch, Jr., an officer and director of the James O. Welch Company, manufacturers of candy. Welch has characterized the long-range goals of the Society as "less government, more responsibility and a better world." Chapters have been established throughout the country to conduct anticommunist activities.

was never published; however, a limited number of copies were sent to friends and individuals who he believed would be interested in its contents. A review of the copy we received revealed it was in the main a vicious attack on President Eisenhower. By innuendo Welch referred to President Eisenhower as procommunist. Another indication of Welch's outlook appears in his brochure concerning the Society wherein he states "You have probably never heard of John Birch, simply because the communists in Washington planned it that way." According to a recent column of George Sokolsky, Welch is currently proposing that steps be taken to impeach Chief Justice Earl Warren of the United States Supreme Court.

It was good to hear from you, and I hope this information will help you form an opinion of the John Birch Society.

Sincerely,

The "American Mercury" is owned by Russell Maguire who is allegedly anticommunist and has the reputation of being bitterly anti-Semitic. The publication was the subject of a Registration Act investigation in 1958 based upon indications of an exchange of funds between Maguire and the Ambassador of the Dominican Republic. This allegation was not established and the case was closed in October, 1958.

The John Birch Society was organized by Robert Welch in December, 1958, at Indianapolis, Indiana. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over various parts of the country. Welch has been quite critical of President Eisenhower and his Administration. SAC letter 60-5 calls this organization to the attention of the field and instructs them that any information on their activities should be furnished to the Bureau.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am an Electrical Engineer for the Bell Telephone Laboratories in Columbus, Ohio, and a worried citizen of the United States, over the imminent Communist threat from within our own country.

I have read a considerable amount of anti-Communist literature and if half of what I read is true, only a miracle can save us from the inevitable doom of falling into Communist control without even a shot being fired.

I may be considered a radical, but I believe that something must be done about the situation. I only wish I knew what I could be doing to help stamp out this growing menace to our society.

It may be that some of the things I have been reading are written by alarmists and I am worrying too much about nothing, but I want to know and I feel you are the only one I can turn to at this time.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

The "Communist" infiltration in our country has been of great concern to me for sometime. Until a few months ago, before I became a member of The John Birch Society, I felt that I was working a futile cause. I, personally, have no reason to doubt the sincerety of Mr. Bob Welch nor that of the Society. I and my family have had the pleasure of not only meeting Mr. Welch, but have had him in our home. We think he is doing a wonderful job.

N.C. mbs

It seems, however, that I find it extremely difficult to convince others of this tremendous threat to our way of life, and even more so to join an organization or "body", as Mr. Welch puts it, which seems to be doing through organized effort what so many are trying to do single handed.

Now-a-day, people want proof--proof of what I don't know. They certainly didn't ask for proof while we were being pushed into this conspiracy, and are certainly not asking for proof of bases for the Supreme Court dicisiions, but then, of course that is different, isn't it!

Any available information you may have regarding the John Birch Society would be greatly appreciated; any literature you may be able to send me which would be of help in this fight against communism would also be appreciated----particularly something for the youth of today. We have two teen-age sons who are as interested in this cause as Mr. Clark and I are.

Dear Mr. Welch,

Several weeks ago I wrote you a letter in which I tried to point out the overwhelming need to combat communism on the basis of love, still the strongest and most positive force in GOD'S world, and from the standpoint of a good Christ-like example that requires first a real knowledge of Christ, His life, His teachings etc, and then a knowledge of communism.... what it is, ... how it functions .... its aims etc. This is so vital because then good people are not going to destroy the principles which they are really fighting for. Isn't it true that many of us have confused communism with legitimate disapproval on controversial issues! Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, a sincere American patriot has said, "We must not therefore, indiscriminately label as Communists

Mr. Hoover also warned "We must continue effective opposition to communism, but we must also, and in that very process, deepen and enrich our own heritage of freedom — our mightest weapon in the struggle for the minds and loyalties of men everywhere."

The Communist way versus Christ's way started way back when Judas outlined his 3 point program regarding Christ and this 3 point program which opposes Christ remains today ------ Judas + Communism's 3 points are as you know, 1/ materialism 2/ co-existence peacefully and 3/ betrayal with a kiss.

Dear Mr.Hoover:

I am a conservative and anticommunist. I have been approached in regards to joining The John Burch Society. Naturally I want to be very careful no to be "duped" into joining a society that may not be all that it represents itself to be.

Would you be so kind as to inform me as to whether this society is a bonefied anticommunist organization.

I am also leary of joining any extremely radical organization, even tho it may be anticommunist. I would appreciate any information you may care to divulge in regard to The John Burch Society.

Sincerely,

I need your advice. Would I be doing a patriotic service for my country by starting a John Birch Society Chapter. Today in our Chicago Daily News an article by Jack Mabley states Mr Welsh of the John Birch Society made some strong acusations against Eisenhower and his cabinet. I dont want to get involved in a name-calling contest for there are so many important issues we as Americans must decide. REC-98

On this date Mr. KLINE WEATHERFORD, former SAC of the Chicago office, now associated with the Morton Salt Company, advised that the Morton Salt Company had been visited on January 4, 1961, by an individual named [redacted] who is the [redacted] for "American Opinion". The purpose of his visit, which he confirmed by letter dated January 17, 1961, was to interest the Morton Salt Company in purchasing pamphlets to send out to appropriate employees in their concern.

Mr. WEATHERFORD advised that there were three pamphlets: 1) a booklet entitled "Bang-Jensen-Tragedy", which cost $.50 a book for 1 to 99 copies, $.35 a book for 100 to 999 copies, and $.30 a book for over 1,000 copies; 2) a booklet entitled "The World Gone Crazy", which sells for $1.00; 3) a booklet entitled "Why People Become Communists", which cost $.20 for 1 to 99 copies, $.15 for 100 to 999 copies, and $.12 for over 1,000 copies.

Mr. WEATHERFORD stated he was merely advising of this for the Bureau's information and that as far as he could see his company was not going to subscribe to any of this material inasmuch as there was some question in his mind as to the accuracy of the figures cited in the pamphlet "The World Gone Crazy", and further it was his opinion that while it was anti-Communistic, he believed it went too far to the right. He stated that both he and his company, of course, would be interested in "fighting Communism" in any way, shape or form, but in his opinion this was not the medium through which it should be done.

The above is for the information of the Bureau.

RE: John Birch Society

J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I have become deeply concerned about the problem of the spread of Communism. Because of this concern I have been trying to do as much as I can to prevent a further spread of this doctrine and in fact try to help uproot the progress that Communism has already made in this country.

Recently I joined a group called, "The John Birch Society". My friends and I believe sincerely that this is a very patriotic, anit-communist group believing in 100% Americanism.

b6
b7C

I am a Captain in the Air Force Reserve and am a member of the N. D. Mob. Designation Det.#1 (SSVC) Bismarck, N. D. Because of my military affiliation, I feel that I should make doubly sure, before I get further involved, that the John Birch Society is indeed a Patriotic Organization working for the good of the United States.

Could you give me your opinion of the John Birch Society? If you cannot, could you refer someone, perhaps in the Justice Department, who could provide me with the patriotic status of the John Birch Society.

Thank you.

SAC Earl Brown, Richmond, called and referred to SAC letters we have sent out during the past year regarding the above society and the activities of Mr. Welch who is connected with it.

Brown said that yesterday and today his office had talked to a Mr. Bachman, who is a radio newscaster, and to T. Coleman Andrews, Jr., son of the former head of Internal Revenue. Both of them are interested in combating communism and Bachman has made several newscasts regarding communism which have elicited public response. These men indicated that a chapter of the John Birch Society is being considered in Richmond, and before they became connected with it they wanted to know whether there was any information available concerning it. They stated they were going to write to the Bureau for any available information.

Mr. Brown wanted to alert us to the fact that these letters might be coming in. According to Bachman, T. Coleman Andrews, Sr. was one of the original founders of the John Birch Society. Brown suggested that the Bureau might want to consider having him talk to these men and suggest to them that they carefully examine the literature of the society to make up their own minds whether it is a stable organization or whether it is inclined toward excessive zeal.

I told Brown that we would examine the letters when received and would keep his thought in mind at that time.

On 1/19/61, [redacted], Agent, 112th CIC Group, San Antonio, Texas, advised that he had ascertained that on the evening of 1/19/61, there would be a meeting of the John Birch Society at St. Peter's Church Cafetorium in Alamo Heights, San Antonio, Texas. A Mr. MANN from Odessa, Texas, was to speak at the program and this speech would outline the purpose and aims of the John Birch Society. A large group was expected. The present group of approximately 40 members would split into two groups. There are one or more groups already existing in San Antonio. b6 b7C

Capt. [redacted], Brooke General Hospital, Brooke Army Medical Center, is one of the leaders of the group and is organizing officers from Brooke Army Medical Center. [redacted] is a medical doctor. b6 b7C

According to RYAN, the aims of the group are to fight communism on the local level by educating the people and exposing the aims of communism; also by showing how communists and communism are threatening democracy. This group is against big government, against centralized government, and socialized government (one step from communism). This group is for states' rights and the power in the hands of the people. They want to impeach EARL WARREN, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. b6 b7C

On 1/20/61, the San Antonio Office received a copy of a report of [redacted], Detective Investigator of the San Antonio Police Department, who attended the meeting of the John Birch Society on 1/19/61, at St. Peter's Church, 120 Arcadia, Alamo Heights. This report reflected the following:

"On the nite of 1/19/61 we went to St. Peters Church 120 Arcadia in Alamo Heights, to attend a meeting of the John Birch Society. This Society purports to be Anti-Communist. This meeting was apparently set up with the assistance of a man that introduced himself to us as [redacted] [redacted] He told us later that he was a Doctor at Fort Sam Houston Texas. There was a woman that apparently was the friend of [redacted] and she was in charge of the Coffey making and generally helping out. The man that put the show on was C. O. "BUCK" MANN, from Odessa Texas.

b6

"The program got started with 5 films that were about 40 minutes duration. The first film was very good, it was a story of the founding and the history of the Allen-Bradley Co. of Milwaukee Wis. This was to show the American method of free enterprise. Then there was the next film of a very mediocre hit and miss resume of the communist party and where it started from. The total film shown was 5, and the ultimate aim of this meeting was a membership rally to get members for the John Birch Society. The last film was the history of the Society and what its aims were. All of these film were narrated by the founder of the Society, ROBERT WELCH, formerly of the Welch Candy Co.

"After avidly listening to the program as an abject listener, we could come to but one conclusion, and that was that the ultimate aim of this organization is the eventual causing of a revolution in this country and the overthrow of the present form of Govt. in the United States. ROBERT WELCH sets himself up as the undisputed leader of his so called patriots. He stated that Americanism and Americanists were for the birds and that he wanted his followers to be called patriots.

"This organization plays on the Anti-Communist theme that is so foremost in everyones mind today and therefore is a gimmick to recruit members in the society. Mr. MANN spoke to the group at the last of the program. He reitorated some of the same stuff that WELCH had spoken in the films. All of the facts that were brought out in the films were things that have actually happened and as far as we know are true. But this is a smoke screen for the real purpose of this group. MANN gave the group a run down of what would be expected of them if the joined the Society, and stated that in all their correspondence and letter writing and connections officially that the members would not refer to themselves as members of the John Birch Society and in no way bring the name of the Society into their conversations. He stated that they had a national cover name of CASE, (Committee Against Summit Entanglements). They have a cover name for the Society in Texas, called 'Mothers Clubs for Checking School Text Books' and they wanted their members to use this cover name. Their Slogan is 'Less Government, More Responsibility and a Better World.' The Society had several publications on sale at the meeting. One of these was what they called The Blue Book. This book was an exact reproduction in writing, of the speeches made on the films. All the book is almost word for word as WELCH spoke it in the film. Then they had several other pamphlets on sale. We purchased all of the material that they offered. The Blue book sells for $2 and the other sold for $1. Also we appropriated several of their membership applications and one of Mr. BUCK MANN's calling cards. This is about the extent of the meeting. It is primarilly in the beginning stage and this meeting was a membership rally. All that can be assumed from all of this is that Mr. WELCH and Co. are alarmists and are using the Anti-"Communist Gimmick for their work in gaining strength for the revolution that he wants to eventually bring about.The Blue Book gives the entire story much better and in more detail that I can give it here in a report."

In view of current Bureau instructions, the San Antonio Office is taking no further action in this matter, and no investigation is being conducted.

We have had other recent citizens' inquiries concerning the Great Decisions meetings affiliated with the Foreign Policy Association. This group, with headquarters in New York City, is well known to the Bureau, but we have not investigated it. Its purpose allegedly is to carry on research to aid an understanding of the foreign policies of the United States and to encourage local groups to discuss foreign policies. Vera Micheles Dean, born in Russia, is allegedly the leading policy-making official of FPA and is reportedly pro-Russian and an apologist for the Soviet Union. (100-371054 and 62-68549)

In view of the identity and background of Vera Micheles Dean with the latter Association, it is believed that the current reply to Mrs. [redacted] would best serve the Bureau's interest.

Dear Sirs:

Having joined a great decisions group last year and thoroughly enjoyed it, I looked forward to it again this year. To my dismay what I consider a study group on world affairs has been condemned and branded communistic by a group who calls themselves "The John Birch Society."

I immediately read the book "The Life of John Birch" by Robert H. Welch, Jr. This book mainly shows a very fine American whose life is being used by Mr. Welch for promoting his ideas against communism. Mr. Welch sounds a little like a crackpot. I admire his hate for communism but he's just that and nothing more.

I find now that he has written another book. I haven't been able to get it yet. From this book was born the "Society." Unfortunately many fairly intelligent upright citizens have been taken in by all this.

My purpose in writing to you is to get information if possible concerning both "The Great Decisions" and "The John Birch Society." To me the first seems quite innocent and trustworthy and the latter quite wicked.

The "Society" is throwing the name of the F. B. I. around as their proof of the redness of Great Decision.

The approximately 20 women (all housewives) in my group are all anxious to get some facts if possible before we pay any attention this smear campaign.

Sincerely,

I have been reading recently about "supposedly" American organizations, that actually are communistic.

How does a person know when they get into one of these organizations that they really are helping their country?

My husband and I have recently joined the "John Birch Society". We joined with the idea that we could be of some help in waking the people up as to what can happen here in the United States. So far, we are really sold on it and have encouraged several other couples to join. It does make people realize that it can and is happening here.

What I want to know is are we really being good Americans in an American organization? What is your opinion of the John Birch Society?

How does one get a list of subversive organizations?

Just thirty minutes ago, I got a call asking me to come to a Unit meeting of the League of Women Voters, saying they'd like me for a member. Just yesterday I was told that this was a subversive organization along with the YWCA & YMCA. The person telling me this couldn't back it up with the "why".

INFORMATION CONCERNING

THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

Re SAC Letter 60-5, dated 1/26/60.

Lawyer

Mr. MONTCLAIR SPEAR, former FBI Agent practicing law at the Jones Building, Seattle, Washington, advised by telephone on 1/26/61 that he was in possession of literature relative to the subject organization. He stated that some friends and associates of his who he did not identify are interested in having a meeting with him to interest him in the said organization.

Mr. SPEAR advised that he did not wish to identify himself with any organization which might be of a Facists or Communist character and that he is interested in doing what he can to fight the Communists.

Concerning the subject organization, Mr. SPEAR stated that it was his understanding that it was founded by Mr. ROBERT WELCH, a former Vice President of the National Association of Manufacturers. He related that the said Society gets its name from an American missionary named JOHN BIRCH, who allegedly was killed by the Red Chinese.

The idea of the Society, according to Mr. SPEAR, is to set up organized groups or chapters throughout the country for the purpose of bringing mass pressure on the Congress when legislation favorable to Communists is being considered by the Congress. This mass pressure will be felt by the Congress by an avalanche of letters to each Congressman being sent individually by each member of the Society opposing the legislation determined by the Society as being of aid or benefit to the Communists.

Mr. SPEAR stated that he could not and would not abdicate his right to determine for himself what legislation he should oppose or support, should he become a member of this organization.

Mr. SPEAR mentioned that the Society suggests that the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit" be read by each member, and he related that a reprint of the Director's speech, "Communist Target--Youth," be read by the members of the Society, and such reprint has been sent by the Society to its members.

Mr. SPEAR was advised that the FBI would be unable to comment upon the subject organization and the Mr. WELCH mentioned, and he indicated that he understood the situation and went on to say that if he develops further information on the subject Society, he will relay the same to this office.

INFORMATION CONCERNING
(INTERNAL SECURITY)

Reference is made to your telephone call to Assistant Director A. H. Belmont on January 19, 1961, and your airtel dated January 20, 1961, captioned "Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., Information Concerning, (Internal Security)."

There are enclosed two copies of a letter dated January 20, 1961, from T. Coleman Andrews, Jr.

For your information, the John Birch Society (JBS) has not been investigated by the Bureau. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization created in 1958 by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., a wealthy candy manufacturer in Belmont, Massachusetts, and has branches throughout the United States. Welch and his organization have been very critical of former President Eisenhower. The Bureau has no record of having made use of the files of the JBS, and we have received no indication that the Ninth Naval District considers the organization subversive.

You are instructed to personally contact Mr. Andrews and orally acknowledge receipt of his letter at the Bureau. He should be advised of the confidential nature of information in our files and that the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the FBI as an investigative agency do not extend to furnishing evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. He may be advised, however, that the FBI has never investigated the JBS or Robert H. W. Welch. It should be made clear to Mr. Andrews, however, that this statement should not be construed as a clearance or nonclearance of this organization and individual by the FBI. You should also explain to Mr. Andrews that the FBI does not make use of the files of the JBS. During this contact, you should attempt to discreetly determine from Mr. Andrews the source of his statement that the Ninth Naval District considers the JBS subversive because of "the element of deceit."

The results of this contact should be promptly submitted to the Bureau.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

Knowing your background and history as a dedicated and patriotic public servant I am writing to you in the hopes that you can enlighten me or at least reassure me.

As you will probably understand it is my opinion that the real threat to the survival of this country comes-not from the supply of hydrogen bombs which the Kremlin possesses, but rather with that incredible ability which it has to infiltrate and subvert the institutions of her enemies. I believe this threat to be so real, in fact, that I have decided that whatever I can do on an individual basis to resist and throw back the tide which is engulfing us, I will do with all my heart and soul.

There are many groups who have and are vehemently anti-communist. There are few, if any; however, which I can recall which has a positive program for meeting this menace which we face. One such group which has attracted my attention and, frankly, with which I am actively involved, is the John Birch Society. Undoubtedly you have read and know of the John Birch Society. In fact I am told that your organization has available to it and from time to time makes use of the files which the John Birch Society has.

REC-34 25 FEB 1 1961

I am disturbed, however, that the John Birch Society does not enjoy the reputation with all anti-communist groups which I think it deserves. I would be forever grateful to you if you would let me know whether or not your department has taken any position with respect to the work of the John Birch Society. That is, do you consider them as I understand the Ninth Naval District does, subversive because of "the element of deceit" in the writings of its founder and driving force, Robert Welch.

JAN 23 1961

I am perfectly aware that you and your associates cannot put into writing the reports and evidence which you possess relative to certain situations and, I; therefore, would be happy to do whatever is necessary to meet personally with a representative of your organization who can give me the information that I desire consistent with your established policies.

Whatever you can do in this regard to enlighten and inform me I shall be forever grateful to you. In the meantime, thank you kindly for your indulgence and please be assured of my warmest personal regards.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Your letter was received on January 23, 1961.

Although I would like to be of service, the FBI, being an investigative agency, does not make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I can inform you, however, that this Bureau has not investigated the group you named, but this should not be construed as being either a clearance or nonclearance of the organization in question.

In view of your interest, I am enclosing publications on the subject of communism available for general distribution by the FBI.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

NOTE: Correspondent is not identifiable in Bufiles. The John Birch Society is allegedly an anticommunist organization with branches over the various parts of the country. Our field offices have been alerted to watch its activities inasmuch as its head, Robert Welch, indicated at one time that he thought a group having the appearance of a front organization might be effective in attracting true subversives. Welch has bitterly attacked the Eisenhower Administration in the past in connection with his writings.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The John Birch Society has been very enthusiastically received here in Pampa, Texas. Therefore, I am interested in receiving information concerning this group.

b6

Do you have any complaints or any other information which would substantiate that this society is not completely within the law or that it is non-American in principle or that it is not set up for the financial gain of any individuals within the management of the organization?

An early reply to this inquiry will sincerely be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

INFORMATION CONCERNING
INTERNAL SECURITY

Re SAC Lets 59-13 and 60-5 instructing Bureau be promptly notified in event chapter of The John Birch Society organized within territory.

On late afternoon of 1/18/61 LON BACKMAN, News Reporter, Radio Station WRVA, Richmond, advised he has done several radio commentaries regarding Communism, as he is becoming extremely concerned concerning Communist menace. He has received unusually heavy response and requests to address various groups on subject of Communism as a result. He has read Masters of Deceit and has received some public source material by corresponding with Bureau. He stated that in doing research he has become acquainted with T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, JR., who is organizing two Richmond Chapters of The John Birch Society. According to BACKMAN, T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, SR. was one of the eleven men who, with WELCH, originally founded The John Birch Society in Massachusetts. The Society, which has published "The Blue Book", is now in the process of compiling "The Green Book." BACKMAN feels that The John Birch Society is one of the few groups in the country which is taking active positive steps to combat Communism, but before becoming identified with the Society, wanted information as to whether it is subversive. He also wanted any data which could be given him as to the Communism problem in Virginia, and in Richmond in particular. He was advised this information is confidential and has been directed to additional public source material.

INFORMATION CONCERNING
INTERNAL SECURITY

On afternoon of 1/19/61, T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, JR. appeared at office and stated he is interested in The John Birch Society and has heard that the group is considered subversive. Before proceeding further, he wanted information concerning it and was making the request, both in his capacity as a private citizen, and as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates representing Richmond. He stated he has been informed that a report emanating from the Ninth Naval District has characterized the Society as subversive on the basis of "deceitful claims." ANDREWS was advised that no data could be furnished him and indicated he was writing a letter to the Director to pose these questions.

Regarding BACKMAN, he is probably the most widely listened to radio news reporter in the City of Richmond. From conversation with him, he has attended the College of William and Mary and apparently graduated from the University of Washington in the State of Washington. Both he and ANDREWS are comparatively young, aged about middle thirties. ANDREWS is son of former U.S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Both appeared to be utterly sincere in their stated purpose of combating Communism, highly articulate, and if they persist in efforts to create this Society, will undoubtedly arouse a great deal of public interest in the subject. T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, SR. presently heads an insurance firm in the City of Richmond.

SUBJECT: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY
INFORMATION CONCERNING

By telephone call to Mr. Belmont, 1-19-61, and airtel, 1-20-61, SAC Earl Brown (Richmond) advised of a call he had received from T. Coleman Andrews, Jr., requesting information concerning the John Birch Society (JBS). Andrews indicated he was going to write to the Bureau. SAC Brown suggested the Bureau may want him to contact Andrews and suggest he may want to carefully examine the literature of the JBS and make up his own mind concerning it.

Andrews has sent a letter to the Bureau dated 1-20-61 in which he discusses his belief that communism is a threat to this country and has decided to do what he can to resist it. He has learned of the JBS and requested to be advised what position, if any, the FBI has taken concerning it. He states he has been told that the FBI from time to time makes use of the files of the JBS. He also states he understands that the Ninth Naval District considers the organization subversive because of "the element of deceit." Andrews stated he would be happy to meet with a Bureau representative who can give him the information he desires consistent with our established policies.

Bufiles contain no identifiable derogatory information concerning Andrews, and there is no indication we have had prior contacts with him. He is the son of T. Coleman Andrews, the former Commissioner of Internal Revenue, on whom we, likewise, have no derogatory information.

The JBS has not been investigated by the Bureau. It is allegedly an anticommunist organization created in 1958 by Robert H.W. Welch, a wealthy candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts, and has branches throughout the country. Welch and his organization have been very critical of former President Eisenhower. We have no record of having made use of the files of the JBS and have received no indication that the Ninth Naval District considers it subversive.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that SAC Brown be instructed to personally contact Andrews, orally acknowledge receipt of his letter at the Bureau, and advise him of the confidential nature of our files and that the Bureau cannot comment concerning the character or integrity of any organization. Andrews may be advised, however, that the Bureau has never investigated the JBS but this should not be construed as a clearance or nonclearance of the JBS by the FBI. SAC Brown should also be instructed to make it clear to Andrews that the FBI does not make use of the files of the JBS. SAC Brown should discreetly ascertain the basis for Andrews' statement that the Ninth Naval District considers the organization subversive. Attached is a suggested letter to SAC, Richmond.

Dear Sir: -

My husband is a Mason- the Downey Post #270 The American Legion presented the Masonic Lodge with a few of your books "Masters of Deceit.

I have before me pamphlets of "American Opinion" "Human Events," "The Dan Smoot Report" others from the John Birch Society - of which I have just become a member. I read them and then wonder how we can escape the threat, save our country and freedom. I ask my husband and son to read them too but Mr. says it is all in your book. It is said there are many clubs & societies to join that promise peace & freedom but turn out to be strong for communism.

We are so unhappy over the election returns of last Nov. I can hardly bear to hear the name Kennedy, I will not take time to watch any of the Jan 20 celebration.

What I want to know is what do you think of the John Birch Society and the other reports I mentioned? Mr. [redacted] says "what can we do," greater men than we, like yourself, know what is going on & will know what to do, but we can do nothing. Reading these articles learning what is known by many but not to the general public - I would like to know why these facts are not for publication - free press - for the general public to know, everyone does not know of these publications - nor want to buy them.

It seems like many facts of Kennedy's records should have been made public before election.

I do not like to hear that integration is inevitable also - admitting Red C him to the United Nations. How long will it be until our government is free of Red Rule?

Why could not the South worked together for State's Rights. If it is not legal for the Supreme Court to make a law - then why is it a Federal law to integrate and how can they do away with the State's constitution.

When I heard of the new monument to be built in memory of Franklin Roosevelt I could only think of what we must do without to help pay taxes & the money spent for such extravagances and why? If the people knew he was the one who helped build communism, strengthened it as it is today - he sold us out - he was a traitor so why do they try to immortalize him? Will it be a place for the communists to enjoy - our man - it makes me shudder. Few people will believe he started us on this road - but it is written by these men who know - why can't the people know the truth?

I thought is terrible for Mr. Truman to do as he did to Gen. Mac Arthur and I wish something could be done to make him apologize, not just words.

I have recently met two women who get these pamphlets too, and they go to meetings - one is Freedom Forum, they get me stirred up too - I wonder is it right to listen to any of it - could they be trying to get me into the wrong group or are they on the right side? My husband & son say maybe it is the communists who do the most talking, the loudest noise - so I should not talk & try to interest other people. I would like to have your opinion about the John Birch Society, and it is better that we let things take care of themselves.

I am so unhappy over the whole worlds situation, I feel like I'd lose my mind - so much to read - to know - to know the right thing to do.

Thank you for your kind attention - please help me. Sorry it is so lengthy.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Mr. David Lawrence recently wrote in his column about your concern over the infiltration of various church groups by the Communist Party. This is a matter of deep concern for me also. First of all as a Christian layman (Methodist) and second as a practicing American. I have done my best to find copies of the three articles you wrote for Christianity Today, however all of my minister friends have either not kept their copies or they have them loaned out. Can you tell me how to secure a copy of those articles?

b6

During the Korean War I was a member of the Counter Intelligence Corps and am still active in the army reserve with my basic branch being MI (CIC). My training in the Corps has given me an awareness of the dangers of communist infiltration and a waryness of any organization that claims to be anti-communist and 100% American yet is semi-secret and avoids the public spotlight. I have been approached by a person who claims to be a member of the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY which, according to his description, is just such an organization. I have never heard of the group before, which may be to my discredit, however if it does all that was outlined to me then it would appear to be a worthy organization. It was founded by Robert Welch who, among other things, is a candy manufacturer; I know nothing of Mr. Welch either. Inasmuch as I was asked to join the Society, I wondered if you had any information on this organization or its founder - any, that is, that you could send me?

RECEIVED JAN 25 1961

In closing I would like to say that your book Masters of Deceit should be required reading in every high school or college Civics and Government course. It is the most clear and concise (and readable I might add) work on this greatest threat to Democracy. God bless you and may you and your department have continued success in The Battle.

Your letter of January 18, 1961, with enclosure, has been received, and your kind remarks are deeply appreciated. It is reassuring to know that you are aware of the vital necessity of the American people acquiring a broad knowledge of the ultimate objectives of the communist menace in order that we might effectively resist its influence.

In response to your request for my views on outlawing the Communist Party in the United States, I am enclosing my statement of March 26, 1947, before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 17 of which sets forth my opinion on this subject. With respect to your other inquiries, on January 16, 1961, the Honorable Cecil R. King forwarded a letter he had received from you containing similar questions. Mr. King requested the assistance of the FBI in answering them and you undoubtedly have already received a copy of my reply to him, which was dated January 23, 1961, together with some material concerning the general subject of communism.

Mr. Hoover --

Have just finished reading your book "Masters of Deceit" -- tremendous! Very complete and informative! You have done a great service to the public in publishing it.

Heard Mr. Matt Cvetic speak at a meeting sponsored by the John Burch Society. What he had to say held the audience completely spellbound during the entire delivery. And it woke up a lot of our citizens to what is going on under our very apathetic noses - so utterly fantastic it's true!

My parents are foreign born (Greece). From a small girl, I remember my Mother constantly telling us what a wonderful country we live in - this great America. I am fiercely loyal and patriotic, so I'm sure I don't have to tell you how it makes my blood boil to see and read what is going on to undermine our Country. And what bothers me more is the apathy and disinterest of most of the young mothers I know. I have 2 small children and I assure you I don't want them subjected to slavery.

Isn't there some way whereby more of our public could be reached and informed so that mothers and fathers can take a stand against what is very obviously and inciduously taking place in our schools, let alone our government and Supreme Court. ? Can't you send out more of your men to speak on this subversive conspiracy at various club meetings and especially at public utility plants - gas, water, electricity, etc. - every single public and government employee should be exposed to this information and I can't think of a better informed and capable organization than the FBI.

I am wondering about joining the John Burch Society which sounds like the answer to what I am seeking in the way of fighting Communism in my (limited) way. But I want to be absolutely sure I am not getting into something I shouldn't. Do you recommend this organization? Please let me know.

Can you also tell me exactly what steps would have to be taken in order to make Communists punished by law for committing treason against our Country and outlawing the Communist Party. There is no doubt whatsoever in my mind that this is a plausible solution.

Does your office have information it can give out in regard to Steve Allen and his wife and their activities? They caused quite a furor here in Los Angeles the other day. They were presented on Paul Coate's show last night in order to defend themselves. They were very cautious not to say anything against our Country (and at the same time I noticed they did not say one word against Communism, either); however, it seemed to me they gave themselves away several times not only by their guilty, nervous approach but by their remarks. They tried so hard-in fact, too hard, - it was actually corny. However, I have to admit they were very, very clever and I'm sure after their program a lot of good people were more confused than they were before they heard it.

Of course, I may be wrong, but somehow I felt there were a few loopholes in their statements which didn't make sense to me.

For our country's sake, please keep up the wonderful work you are doing - the way things look, your organization is the only one I can trust & believe in - & that goes for a lot.

Sincerely,

Please answer about the John Burch Society in enclosed envelope.
