FNN began promoting TEA parties. It is obvious that FOX is the GOP network. They have hired many Republicans since the election. I didn't think that political parties were allowed to operate television stations. This network need to be investigated for their special connections to the GOP. The Network president is former GOP chairman, they have Rove (Bushes brain), Mike Huckabee (form GOP presidential candiddate and evolution deny'r), Margaret Hoover (Depression Presidents grand daughter). I don't that that News Corp deserves to have an FCC license. They are definitely 'Unfair and Unbalanced'

This concerns an interview with Ann Coulter the week of Jan. 05, 2009 on the Huckabee News Program. Both Coulter and Huckabee were using the phrases "pro-sodomy" and "pro-gay" as if they were interchangeable and evil. I believe in free speech, but not in derogatory and defamatory language on a public so-called 'news' network. This is not the first time FOX has permitted this type of indecent behavior and language, and these are certainly not the only people at the network who are guilty of this offense. This is only the latest in an ongoing series of attacks against minorities by a network which obviously believes that spreading misinformation and lies is acceptable news etiquette. Their performance as a news network does not meet my standard as a public service. It is more a forum for deception and right-wing bias. Again, free speech is one thing, but defamatory and hateful inuendo are another, and they are not acceptable.
