THE FRENCH STRIKE BACK -- Exhibit of anti-communist posters

The posters that are hurting French Communists more acutely than any other single factor will go on public exhibition, for the first time in the United States, in the lounge of the ANTA PLAYHOUSE, 245 West 52nd St. (between Broadway & 8th Avenue) Manhattan, next Thursday, June 5th, 1952, at 4 p.m.

The Exhibit is sponsored by the American Committee for Paix et Liberte, a sub-committee of the Council Against Communist Aggression (Philadelphia).

Fifty anti-communist posters, drawn by leading French artists will be shown around the two ANTA lobby-lounges, including the French retort to Picasso's communist "Peace Dove" poster. The counter-poster is a dove, bright red, drawn in the shape of a tank, a gun-turret for a head and an olive branch dangling from the cannon-mouth. The anti-communist title to this poster is "La Columbe Qui Fait Boum!" (The Dove that Goes Boom!)

Another grim poster is a take-off on a travel poster-showing people "basking" behind bars--captioned "Vacation in the Soviet Union--Land of the Free!"....

Some of the original Communist posters, soaked off the walls in the dead of night by the "Committe de Paix et Liberte" minute-men in France, will also be displayed.

Materials for the poster exhibit, which runs for two weeks from June 5th to June 18th, were supplied by the French "Committe de Paix et Liberte", whose chairman is Jean-Paul David.

ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND INFORMATION: (see press releases)-

After six years of violent and unrestrained Communist propaganda in the press, on the walls and on the billboards of France, a young French parliamentarian named Jean-Paul David conceived the idea of hitting back with the Communists' own weapons. Poster and pamphlet counter-attacks featuring Communism's very words or themes (deliberately used as bait to attract the attention of the Communists themselves) are given some twist of ridicule that throws them right back in their Party's teeth.

FACT SHEET - French Political Poster Exhibition

WHO SUPPORTS PAIX ET LIBERTE?: Patriotic French citizens, who give their time and talents as well as money to this campaign against the communists. Artists, writers, researchers, and secretaries help to prepare the material for those who take the risky jobs of pasting up the posters, and the hand-bill distributions. Printing costs are kept to the lowest minimum, paper is the cheapest made--but the message to the people of France is very clear.

PAIX ET LIBERTE ALSO DISTRIBUTES: Handbills, throw-aways, stickers, seals for letters, labels, cartoons, and a weekly bulletin. Jean-Paul David says: "There is no better way to fight communist propaganda, than to use its very means." P&L makes large use of:

- (a) Posters--to deflate a favorite communist propaganda theme (i.e. Dove of Peace)
  - --to inform (i.e. figures showing purchasing power of Soviet and French)
  - --to launch a constructive theme (A United Europe is a Peaceful Europe)

(Also, to make use of the poster for specific aims when the occasion arises: elections, the sudden departure of Maurice THOREZ for Soviet Russia, etc.)

- (b) Pamphlets along the same lines as the posters, but relying more heavily on text.
- (c) Cartoons and labels--designed to be stuck on "enemy" posters and change their very meaning (i.e. "This Is A Lie! signed, Joseph Stalin!")
- (d)—The Weekly Bulletin--"Defend the Truth!", publishes texts taken from Communist sources, revealing the numerous contradictions of the Party and exposing lies.
- (e) Weekly Radio Broadcast ---
- (f) Other means: books, postcards, picture pamphlets, etc.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF JEAN PAUL DAVID: A husky, hu-year old French parliamentarian, David today is recognized as one of the foremost authorities on Communist propaganda methods. He is Mayor of Mantes and deputy from Seine-et-Oise to the French National Assembly. David is founder and Secretary-General of Paix et Liberte, the organization dedicated to combat communist propaganda in France.

His family runs a milk-products plant at Vire, producing butter, cheese and yogurt.

RESULTS OBTAINED TO DATE: These vigorous counter-attacks through posters, handbills and the weekly radic broadcasts are taking their toll in the communist ranks.

Circulation of French communist newspapers has been halved since their postwar peak in 1949; the number of weekly publications has been reduced by nearly two-thirds. Linumanite, with a circulation of 600,000 in 1945, dropped to 200,000 in 1951.

The puster idea--and other skillful counter-propaganda devices utilized by P&L--has spread to neighboring countries in Western Europe, to the obvicus discomfiture of the communists. The counter-campaign today rages in Belgium, Holland, Germany and Italy. Some posters are designed to serve an international appeal--for example, those urging "A UNITED EUROPE IS A FREE EUROPE".

A group of patriotic Americans in association with the Council Against Communist Aggression is sponsoring an exhibit of anti-Communist posters and literature by a French group, "Paix et Liberte". This group of private French citizens, headed by Jean-Paul David, is combatting USSR French Communist activities, particularly in the public opinion area.

We believe "Paix et Liberte" activity is the most effective anti-Communist citizens effort conducted anywhere. They have put up thousands of posters throughout France each day, and distribute over 400,000 pieces of literature every month. Similar committees have been set up in Italy, Holland, Germany and Belgium, all dedicated to fighting Communists on their own propaganda grounds.

In our judgment, this exhibit shows the existence of a vigorous and productive French compaign against communist propaganda and should consequently be of interest to all Americans who recognize the global threat of Soviet Russia. The variety of techniques displayed in these posters will doubtless be of interest to all the members of your organization.

The exhibition will be held at the Anta Theatre, 245 West 52nd Street, from June 3 through June 13, from 4 to 7 PM every day. We would ( like to have you attend the opening ceremonies and perhaps your organization's sponsorship for a special day. If this can be arranged, details can be settled later.

In view of the very few days remaining before the opening, we would sincerely appreciate your reply within one week.

Very truly yours,

In the eyes of many people, I am an American Fascist This label does not horrify me. I am not ashamed of it.

In my political activities, I have come to know intimately most of the important personalities active in the national and international Fascist movements. These people have been my friends and they are no less so today.

Why tell my story?

My associates, friends and at on one hand to put me "out of prneys have advised against it. action," while on the other hand, torneys have advised against it. They say it will only mean more trouble for me, more attacks from the pressure groups, more adverse publicity. But I am used to this.

I feel compelled to write because I have discovered very clearly that there is a plan by the Communists to infiltrate and control the Nationalist groups of the extreme Right Wing.

The facts which I have uncovered in two years of investigation concerning the Communist conspiracy are alarming, but there is still time for my friends on the Right to heed this warning and to expel from their ranks those persons advocating a direct or indirect policy of collaboration with the Soviets.

Why do I write for Exposé? The answer is a simple one. his newspaper has attacked my political activities, hence it cannot be said that it is at all sympathetic to my views. Yet, Ex-posé seems to follow nobody's line. Its editors have agreed to permit me to tell my story in my own words, subject only to the laws of libel and documentation. I have furnished documentation to the editors whenever asked to do so.

Particularly since June of 1952, when I registered with the Department of Justice as the U.S. agent of the Socialist Reich Party of West Germany and representative of the German Nationalist, anti-Communist periodical "Die Andere Seite," I have been the subject of continuing investigations and studies.

Some of these investigations have been conducted by officialdom of Washington and Bonn.

But the majority of them have been pursued by certain pressure groups, who are in my opinion, themselves unregistered agents of a comic-opera mid-eastern foreign state, Israel. These pressure groups, through their agents whom I shall identify, employed every unethical and illegal means

I shall not consume space with political theory or justification of my course of action. I shall instead concern myself with people and events. These are the com-ponents of history. My history began early.

lure a young American Yale graduate, of "respectable" American background and with reasonable success in business, into public identification with the Mazis and the here-unpopular cause of German Nationalism? This is the question most often put to me, and the one most diffi-

l am proud of the Nordic blood in my veins, and my descent from Field Marshal Keith, Scottish nobleman who emigrated to the Prussia of Frederick the Great to zerve the King as field officer and companion. Many of the Keith family were professional soldiers. Ingrained in me was an appreciation of history, a feeling for the Prussian Spirit, a pride of race, and an inherent love for Germany, the country in which I was not born.

Raised in Maplewood, New Jersey by devoted, thoroughly American, parents in moderate circumstances, I reached my adolescence at the zenith of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich.

The vigorous manner in which Germany had thrown off the shackels of Versailles thrilled me, and my admiration for the dynamic program of practical Socialism in Hitler's Germany was deep.

Nearby, in New York City and Irvington, N. J. were the militant activities of the German-American Bund. I could not resist the temptation. The leadership was not the best, but the spirit was there, and I liked it.

My personal political indoctrination had by chance occurred at distinguished hands. Even as a teen-aged boy, I maintained a correspondence with Kaiser Wilhelm II whom I admired and became a friend of Carol II of Hohenzollern, King of Romania, and of Prince August Wilhelm of Prussia, Brigadier General in Hitler's SA and the German Hohenzollern most dedicated to National Socialism. Through "Auwi," an approach was made to Hitler's adjutant, and a signed photograph of Adolf Hitler was forthcoming which adorned my lesk at home until U.S. entry nto World War II made this inppropriate.

King Carol remained my friend in exile, to the interest of Miltary Intelligence, until his untimely death last year.

<sup>1</sup> Prince August remained my friend through, and in spite of the war, until his death in 1949 as a result of imprisonment by the Allies for "denazification."

During my college years, and to some degree during my overseas military service, I had opportunities to study politics first hand. I educated myself by participating in various movements from extreme Right (I fought the mass sedition trial) to moder ate Left.

My dedication to the principles of practical National Socialism was only strengthened by my observations of other systems.

By 1945, the Third Reich was defeated and the flag of Asia flew over Berlin. And at Nuremberg, the defeated military leaders of the Axis were pilloried by a monstrous "trial" without precedent in international law.

l watched honorable soldiers become "war criminals."

As early as 1945, I began a campaign against the "war crimes" trial.

"War criminal" is an illicit phrase for the simple reason that, there exists no legal definition of this term in any authoritative treatise.

It is legally impossible for an American or Russian soldier, or a soldier of any of the American vassal-states in Europe or Asia to commit a "war crime."

• Any crime which could be committed by an American soldier is set forth in the Code of Military Justice, and it is cognizable by an American military court. Any conduct not precisely described in this Code as criminal cannot be charged to a, soldier as a crime.

The soldier knows these crimes in advance, and he knows the nature of the tribunal to which he will be responsible.

The substantive and adjective law by which he will be tried is codified and he has the right to qualified counsel of his own nation and of his own choosing. Before he can be charged with an offense, his conduct must be such as is described as an offense in the Code, the court must have jurisdiction of the subject matter, and jurisdiction of his person.

In the case of the "war crimes" terror in Gormany, there was no logical system in existence which defined any such "crimes."

The accused were not tried under German law, nor under American law, nor according to he terms of the Geneva Converion regulating trial of walprisoners. They were supposedly tried undyr "International Law" but as every school-boy knows, Internitional Law has no penal provisions whatsoever, and never has had, and never could have, since it has always rested on comity and never on force or authority. Nations, and not individuals, groups or classes, are the sole and unique subject matter of International Law.

Never before 1945 did anyone allege, and, up to now, no scholar of recognized authority has yet alleged, that one nation has the legal right to review the internal policy of another nation and the legal right to massacre the leadership of another nation.

The "war crimes" trials were simply a series of mock trials, not the first in history, but the most prolonged, the most scientifically cruel, the most cold-bloodedly vicious, the most vilely dishonorable. In my opinion they were instigated largely by the Communists and by world Jewry, each for their own purposes.

for their own purposes. My personal investigations into the "war crimes" proceedings, and my intervention into, and study of specific cases, turned up shocking data.

It would be easy to recite the details from the mass of injustices in the gruesome killings, from the beginning with arrest by Colonel Straight's police through the "trial" by his appointees where Colonel Straight's prosecutors opposed the defense counsel appointed by Colonel Straight, to the "review" by Colonel Straight's appointees and the final signing of the execution order by Colonel Straight himself, thus blinging to a triumphant "demoi catic" conclusion, a foul process that had been under his strict sillitary command from the be

The accused were tortured to obtain their pre-trial confessions.

A man was hanged for a crime when there was no evidence before the court that the crime had ever been committed, no corpus delicti shown.

Judge Leroy A. Van Roden of Pennsylvania found, in his official investigation, that it had been routine pre-trial practice for American officers, in the torturecells at the Schwaebisch-Hall prison, to kick all interrogees in their private parts.

Gentlemanly professional military officers, like Admirals Doenitz and Raeder, Field Marshals Kesselring, Mannstein, Falkenhorst, List, Model, Keitel, Jodl, etc., and blameless administrators like Goering, Hess, Van Ribbentrop, Baron von Neurath, Speer, Funk, etc., were tried on gen-eralized, "catch-all" charges, specifying their very ranks and positions of authority as "crimes."

Many were murdered at the order of the Soviet-Morgenthau iribunal, others were herded into lungeon torture-chambers and entenced to a living death.

As an American, I was incensed by the "war crimes" murder.

As an American with a love for Germany, I was moved to action against this barbarism, even while on active military duty. As I wrote to Secretary of State Dean Acheson in a letter often quoted in subsequent attacks against me, American soldiers may in the future expect to be used as America used other soldiers, and the same is true of American political leaders.

The "war crimes" and "denazification" trials will be boomerangs. The German leaders and heroes were not slain in haste and anger by irresponsible elements-they were deliberately humiliated, insulted, caluminated, and tortured before the world for more than a year, while honorable men everywhere in the West, powerless to stop the satanic proceeding, averted their heads.

The final stupid touch of ineffective malice, that of distributing the ashes of Hermann Goering and the other slain heroes over the landscape by airplane was supposed to prevent a cult of the memory of these heroes. But as I wrote to Dean Acheson, "the name of Hermann Goering will loom larger before the eyes of posterity than the name of Dean Acheson, and monuments will be aised to him, but not to his persecutors."

In Germany, meanwhile, the Socialist Reich Party, lead by my friends, Major General Otto Ernst Remer, Dr. Fritz Dorls and Dr. Gerhard Krueger, was growing il strength. The SRP had polled 357,000 votes in a Lower Saxony election in May of 1951, thereafter capturing 7% of the total vote in the City of Bremen, all vote in the City of Bremen, all in war and under Allied Military Occupation.

From all reports obtainable, the SRP was ever increasing in strength amongst the younger Germans. With its gains in parliamentary strength, the SRP came under the heavy guns of the Bonn regime, spurred on by the Truman-Acheson - Baruch State Department crowd and the usual horde of Zionist pressure groups which have worked ceaselessly since 1933 to prevent a realistic U. S. policy towards Germany.

One by one, the SRP leadership was subjected to legal and economic persecution — meetings were "banned," publications were "banned," officials and speakers were arrested for "speaking without permits"—all the usual maneuvers accompanying a full-scale assault upon freedom of speech and assembly.

The SRP leadership stood up against this persecution in fine manner, but the odds were formidable.

The SRP needed every bit of help which could be mustered. Above all, it needed to get the details of its plight into the press. The Adenauer press was closed to them.

Here I was able to assist, and I did so with all the energy in me. I concentrated on the Remer case. Major General Otto Ernst Remer, a professional soldier with a brilliant record, is best remembered as the officer in charge of the (Continued on Page 7)

Thereafter, Remer, promoted to Colonel by Hitler, served with distinction on the Russian front, where he was wounded in action nine times by the Communists. He was promoted in action to the rank of Major General.

As head of the postwar SRP, Remer and his family were subjected to every manner of persecution. In 1951, he had been sentenced to 4 months in prison for "libelling" West German cabinet officers (i.e. to criticize is to "libel" in Adenauer's Germany), and was thereafter banned from public speaking in various parts of Germany. In 1952 he was reindicted and re-sentenced on another "libel" charge.

I was in touch with the Remer group, and assembled all available data on their plight. By early Spring 1952, I had set up the "Committee for the Freedom of Major General Remer" which, in a widely reprinted press release called upon the people of Germany in the name of Justice to terminate the prosecution of General Remer and other members of the SRP: and other minority proups including General Ulrich yon Bothmer, Count Wolf von Westarp, Wolfgang Hedler, Dri Franz Richter.

Maj. Gen. Otto Ernst Remer: Leader of the SRP with which Thompson was involved.

This press release attacked the lecision of a Braunschweig court which, in sentencing General Remer to an additional jail sen-tence for "slandering" various ience for "slandering" various persons who took part in the Bomb Plot against Hitler, ruled that the Third Reich was "illegal." Circulated, as it was, by an American group, the press statement gained much notice, here and abroad.

Meanwhile, I came to know many of the local personalities active in German-American and Right Wing affairs. The principal figures of my early ac-quaintance included Edward A. Fleckenstein, Frederick C. F. Weiss, Dr. A. O. Tittman and James H. Madole.

Ed Fleckenstein is a young, courageous New Jersey attorney, who is president of the Voters Alliance of Americans of German Ancestry.

In 1950, Fleckenstein participated in a trail-blazing "Dismantling Suit" against Dean Acheson, seeking damages for various German industries dismantled at the hands of the American Government.

Active in various German-American societies such as the Steuben and the Pastorious. Fleckenstein was able to accomplish a great deal at a time when it was difficult to say anything favorable about Germany in public. During 1950, Fleckenstein organized a number of Yorkville meetings.

In this project, he was assisted by Frederick C. F. Weiss, German-American publisher, philosopher and author of a number of effective books bearing on the fight for the preservation of Western Civilization. Other personalities locally active in this work included Dr. A. O. Tittman, man cities by Allied bombers in Party," a small group with an unfortunately out-and-out anti-Semitic program, operating in New York City.

I reached an agreement with Fleckenstein.

He would adopt my Committee for the Freedom of Major General Remer as an official Committee of the Voters Alliance, personally assuming the post of General Counsel. In exchange I would assist in every way possible in connection with a mass rally to be held on May 4th, 1952 at the Yorkville Casino-"The American-German Friendship Rally."

I worked feverishly with Fleckenstein and a Voters Alliance staff in preparation for the rally. There was little sleep those nights. Commencing about April 14th, the New York Post and the Daily Compass, leftwing metropolitan newspapers, commenced a full-scale press attack upon the rally, headlining "McCarthy Heirs of Bund to Rally in York, ville;"

Senator McCarthy was indeed World War II, Professor Austin to be a featured speaker at this Senator McCarthy was to be the featured speaker at the American-German Friendship Rally.

The approach to him was made by Baron W. F. Blomberg, Boston socialite, friend of European royalty and distant relative of Field Marshal Von Blomberg, Hitler's Minister of War.

The McCarthy commitment had been firm enough to cause the printing and distribution of circulars advertising his appearance at the rally.

This was a strategic error. As I explained in installment one, the local left-wing papers) immediately leaped in to attack the Senator.

McCarthy had been promised $600 for his appearance.

As the newspaper publicity mounted, Senator Joe decided to take a powder.

Fortunately, his withdrawal was not by way of denouncing us. Through his secretary, Mrs Driscoll, he let it be known that he'd "decided not to appear" because of "a conflict in engagements." He "felt more bound" to attend a rally of young Republicans in Racine, Wisconsin, on that date.

I admire much about McCarthy, particularly his stand on war crimes. I would have admired him more if he'd kept his promise to speak that evening for German-American friendship.

As it was, the meeting was a crowning success, even without Senator McCarthy. This, despite pickets, unfavorable publicity, and pressure brought to bear on the owner of the hall. It was Edward Fleckenstein's most important accomplishment.

In addition to Fleckenstein, the speakers included Henry C. Furstenwalde, former U.S. Embassy official in Berlin; Professor Austin J. App of LaSalle College, specialist on the "war crimes" trials and officer of the active Federation of American Citizens of German Descent; Dr. Ludwig A. Fritsch, Lutheran minister, author of Crime of Our Age and other books in support of the struggle to preserve Christianity and the White Race; and Father Emmanuel J. Reichenberger, distinguished Catholic expert on the East German expellee problem.

I was floor manager. I had a good opportunity to observe the crowd. This was the first time since World War II that such an audience had been assembled.

But a meeting is a meeting, and after one, too many who attend them then go about their usual business and pay little heed to the cause until the next meeting.

I had work to do. My Committee For International Justice and my Committee for the Freedom of Major General Remer were making progress. I ground out publicity releases, saw that then were distributed thru the proper thannels. An organization was slowly forming about me. In Germany, the situation had grown worse. There were daily assaults against the liberties of the leadership of the Socialist Reich Party.

The Bonn regime instituted a ban against the SRP'S splendid paper, Deutsche Opposition. This was the newspaper edited by my friend, Dr. Gerhard Kruger, to give the party a chance to express its views and advance its constitutional program.

There were petty persecutions against all persons active in the SRP. Left without any opportulity to speak inside Germany, the SRP leadership asked me to as nume the post of U.S. Agent, pubIc relations counsel and legit side. This I did. Having been duly appointed by Br. Dorls, the SRP President, T registered with the Department of Justice as the agent of the Socialist Reich Party, as well as the agent of Die Andere Seite, a rightist, anti-Communist publication edited by Dr. Rudolf Aschenauer. At that time it was managed by Dr. Heinrich Malz, legal expert, humanitarian and former Aide to the Gestapo's Kaltenbrunner, and a gentleman in whom I had great confidence.

This secondary registration was done only to be able to contribute literary material to this publication, and to distribute sample issues within the U.S. in an effort to obtain new subscribers.

Later, the Jews and the Bonn crowd tried to use the fact of my double 'registration as a weapon against Die Andere Seite, declaring it thereby an "SRP Organ," which it was not. In this matter the Berlin Courier, influential German newspaper, spearheaded the attack. I fought this smear vigorously, and Bonn was unable to effectively silence Die Andere Seite.

As SRP agent, and acting as President of the American Voters Union, a subsidiary of the Voters Alliance, I journeyed to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in early summer 1952.

I drove out with Ed Fleckenstein and others, and we stayed in Chicago with Arthur Koegel, hard-working editor of the Chicago German-language Buergerzeitung. Mr. and Mrs. Koegel were! fine, understanding hosts and gracefully permitted us to pur-sue wierd hours. Our week at Chicago was a turmoil of work in behalf of the Taft candidacy, participating in countless demonatrations, meeting and conferring with local nationalist leaders, and ndeavoring to promote friendhip for Germany amongst the assembled delegates.

While there we met-Senators Dirksen and McCarthy, former Congressman Hamilton Fish and columnist Westbrook Pegler. All were very cordial and made a good impression on us.

We distributed some effective leaflets of our own. Some of them were so effective that one of our men was hunted by police within the convention hall for purposes of ejection. The cause—a circular, published under my name as President of the American Union, bearing the slogan "Fumigate the Ike Roaches."

This was seized upon by the commie-line Daily Compass as evidence of "anti-Semitism." This newspaper also had something to say about the activities of "foreign agents" at the Republican National Convention.

Actually, I had duly informed the Department of Justice of my presence at Chicago, and notified them that I was there not as the SRP Agent, but as President of one American political group, and as a member of Fleckenstein's Voters Alliance Staff.

While in Chicago, we also had chance to confer with numerous German-American leaders, including Leonard Enders of the Abendpost. Arthur Koegel was able to introduce Viereck at a meeting of the Germania Club, which was most successful.

I returned from Chicago to find myself in the midst of a publicity campaign against me on an international scale. The worst was yet to come, but the press activity had started. Time magazine had run a bit about me, my protest against the treatment of Admiral Doenitz and the other Spandau prisoners. I was able to work in a plug for Remer also. The Time publicity started quite a fuss. Hundreds of letters poured in.

Now the fun was beginning.

Agents for the professional Jewish "defense groups" were on my trail within a few days after the first nationwide publicity.

One such pressure group nitiated two wire taps on my elephones, one at my office on East 52 Street and the other at my home. I'd anticipated that possibility I provided the wire taps with lots of interesting conversations. Most of them were phonies, spoken to y i eld misleading information about vast "worldwide conspiracies" and "thousands of dollars."

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr. leftwing newspaperman, later said in his newsletter that he'd heard some of these recordings. This was an interesting admission of his role as "accessory after the fact" in a violation of the Federal Communications Act.

Ilk like Vanderbilt were never hard to handle. After he'd attacked me as a "Nazi" in several newsletters; I mailed him a photostat of a most friendly letter he'd written to Viereck a few years earlier. Vanderbilt's attacks immediately stopped.

To the little hamlet of Chatham, N.J. one sunny day in July 1952 came an ugly, neurotic little man who tried to exude charm and smiles. This was Guenther. Reinhardt.

I doubt if he has ever fooled anybody. He had "agent" written all over his face. A telephone call or two brought me the information that he was currently working for a group called the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, a snakepit for Communists, blackmailers, prostitutes and double agents.

Reinhardt was a farmer FBIinformer but likes to pose as an ex-agent. A short acquaintance with him convinced me that this man was no more than a poor slob who would sell his services to the highest bidder.

Reinhardt's antics were highly amusing at times. In one instance Reinhardt claimed to know General Von Falkenhausen, German Military Governor of Belgium, who'd been convicted of spurious "war crimes." A note from Von Falkenhausen assured me that the (Continued on Page 6) prominent U.S. isolationists, pro-Fascists and members of Afis d plomatic staffs during the 1931s. of Information. Just at this time, Viereck had become the primary target of the ADL and other pro-Communist and Jewish pressure groups. Griffith made a number of proposals along public relations lines to Viereck, who replied that is these proposals might be of interest to the German Embassy. Thereafter, the Griffith-Viereck connection was broken off by Viereck, who became suspicious of Griffith's activities upon learning that Griffith had independently approached the German Consul General in New York, as well as Dr. Schmitz of the German Library of-Information, in an effort to ingratiate himself and worm his way into these circles.

Some years later Griffith served as a U.S. Government key with less in a trial of Viereck for d purported violation of the Foringn Agents Registration Act.

This farcical trial was basel pon "information" gathered by he ADL and similar groups by Griffith and other agents. The function of Griffith in the trial, as Viereck attests, was to fabri-cate, as he did, statements by Viereck that the German Government had given him "unlimited funds," that he "directed German propaganda in the U.S.," etc., all of which were either vastly distorted or outright lies. Viereck's court-appointed attorneys, declined, despite Viereck's demand, to question Griffith on cross-examintion as to his connections with the ADL, Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, and similar organizations.

This question was not asked, and the Griffith testimony was instrumental in bringing about the final conviction of Viereck, the first conviction having been reversed by the Supreme Court of the U.S. because of the "foul blows" of the prosecutor, William P. Maloney.

Sandy Griffith's purported association with the Newark, N.J. Star-Ledger was also a hoax. The first "newspaper story" about me by "Scheffer" was submitted to me in advance for suggestions and found to contain a lot of pro-commie stuff with which I refused to go along.

Sandy altered it to please, and it was finally published in the Star-Ledger. and of vital importance to the SRP for reprint purposes. Sandy did not think that. I would notice that the by-line of the story, and a subsequent story, was "Richard Shafer." The name was close, but not close enough.

I checked with the Star-Lid-ger. "Alfred Scheffer" was unknown, but Richard Shafer, whom I later met in person, was a longtime, legitimate reporter of the Star-Ledger. He did not know "Scheffer," nor did he know the author of the story. It had been given him by the editor for publication under Shafer's by-line in the exact form written by Sandy Griffith. This arrangement later back-fired on another technicality when a verbatim insert from an attack upon me in the ADL Bulletin crept into a "Scheffer"/ Shafer story.

I was not supposed to notice these things.

When, during 1953, I appeared as a guest speaker at a meeting of "Facts Forum" in Larchmont, N.Y., then under the leadership of my friend, Mr. West Hooker, a thorough gentleman with an open mind on world problems, "Al Scheffer" was mysteriously in the audience, this time with the blonde in smoked glasses.

"Al Scheffer" this time introduced the blonde to Hooker and myself as "Mrs. Scheffer," forgetting that I had already once met the other "Mrs. Scheffer."

Hooker and I worked out a little game with Sandy, catching him in every kind of misstatement, conflicting stories, and in particular catching him at the old ADL agent's game of running down every nationalist to every other nationalist. Sandy was also responsible for providing data to Neil Vanderbilt, used in attacks upon my friends and myself.

On other occasions, Sandy Griffith, who liked the role of a sort of "campaign manager" to me, urged me into provocative anti-Semitism, but I would not take the bait, even when accompanied by a few respectable bankrotes. I knew the ADL game, and I wouldn't play. Gradually, Sandy Griffith aught on. He disappeared from by life in the fall of 1953, and from behind the scenes participated in the ADL's smear campaign, which ultimately backfired. He also attempted cultivation of Ed Fleckenstein and Frederick Weiss, but these gentlemen compared notes with me, and knew "Scheffer" for just what he was.

Sandy was not through.

Late in 1953 he departed-for Europe on a top-level mission, the infiltration of all nationalist and Rightist groups in England and Germany. Financially, both the ADL and the notorious "Wiener Library" in London backed Griffith to the hilt.

There is some evidence that he penetrated fairly high in European "Rightist circles, but he was stopped in time by my identification of "Alfred Scheffer" as Sanford Griffith. Until recently, Griffith has been in Europe in contact with nationalist groups. But each and every one of these groups is well aware of his true identity, and his assignment. To be forewarned is to be forearmed, and I would bet that Sandy is peddling to his employers every manner of bogus information.

The details of Sanford Griffith's financial operations are not easy to obtain. A private investigator worked some time on this. Sandy maintains an expensive suite of offices at 8 West 40th Street. When he is out of town, these offices are locked, and the telephone, Longacre 5-2997 rings unanswered. The name on the door is "Research Survey, Inc." but the occupant is Sandy Griffith, who also receives mail there in the name of "Alfred Scheffer." A visit to the County Clerk of New York in connection with an investigation of "Research Survey, Inc." showed that this corporation was formed on May 16. 1951.

Purpose "A" of this organization, as stated in its charter, is "To conduct research or surveys in various fields, to report, write on, to sell, publish or otherwise utilize the results of such repearch or surveys."

(4) To maintain and operate a bureau for the purpose of collecting and supplying information and data upon public opinion with respect to any subject whatsoever, without limitation, whether for social, business or other purposes."

According to a report from the Dean of Colgate University, Hamilton, New York, Sanford Griffith was a participant in the Sixth Annual Conference on American Foreign Policy which was held there from July 11-15, 1954. The program showed that Griffith was one of the five panel members of a round table which had as its topic, "Western Europe."

The program listed Griffith as President of Market Analysts, Inc. The facts concerning the Colgate appearance of Griffith also were cited in an article published in the N. Y. Journal American by columnist Westbrook Pegler on August 12th in which Pegler cited some of Griffith's proleftist associations dating back into the 1930's and his involvement in a scheme to smear the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey as a "friend of the Hitler Government."

According to the Pegler column, Griffith was aided in this scheme by one Francis Henson, described as "one of the violent revolutionary Communist group led by Jay Lovestone."

The summer and fall seasons were hectic ones for me. The press attacks continued, and I was on the go all day and well into the night, with the press to meel, pupple to see, and SRP work to be done. In Germany, the "democratiq" Adenauer government managed a legal "ban" of the SRP, putting it completely out of action. The "ban" was appealed to the Supreme Court at Karlsruhe, but this was a rubber-stamp operation and before the "ban" could be legally instituted, the SRP dissolved itself, a manuever which was timely and in which I concurred.

It left me, however, in a unique position, still registered with the U.S. Government as agent of a dissolved political party. This was necessary until official notice of the SRP dissolution was received by me for filing with the Department of Justice, and until I had opportunity to complete the press protests of the illegal "banning" of the SRP by Adenauer.

In the interim, I was apparently the sole surviving officer of the SRP, and this unique situation was seized upon by the Washington Post (called the "Washington Daily Worker" by Senator Mc-Carthy) and by the American Jewish Committee which in a:5page international press release cited me as "evidence" that the SRP had really gone underground and had not dissolved as it had stated.

This press release was widely reprinted in the New York Times, Herald Tribune, Post, etc., and unleashed a new series of press attacks against me, this time more, villent.

For the first time I felt a sense of genuine physical danger. (Continued Next Month)

PART THREE

Synopsis: In previous installments, Mr. Thompson has said that he is a Nationalist, that the label "Fascist" does not horrify him and that he is not ashamed of it. He described his background and education, his entry into what some people call a "Fascist network," his registration as a foreign agent and his bouts with groups who opposed him.

Expose' has permitted Mr. Thompson full freedom of expression including unpleasant references to a minority group in order to present a true picture of the heart and mind of a native Fascist.

Last month, Thompson revealed that a new series of "violent press attacks" had been "unleashed." He concluded by saying: ' For the first time I felt a sense of genuine physical dan-

My fears were soon to be confirmed.

The radio and television attack upon me was spearheaded by one "Barry Gray" who was often used as a "spokesman" for the Anti-Defamation League.

At the time he was a news commentator for the Dumont Television Network and Radio Station WMCA. The network dropped him. He is still with the radio station and writes a column for simple people in the New York Post.

my statement and Gray pounced upòn it.

In a tear-jerking account about unidentified "people" who had "lost relatives" in Hitler's supposed ovens, Gray stated over the radio that he would like to see me "cremated" and that he would like to "rub Thompson's face" in the "ashes of Buchenwald and Dachau," or words to this effect. This was overt provocation.

Posing as a great liberal, Gray had often boasted that his microphone was "open to everyone." I sought an opportunity to set the record straight.

By telephone to his manager, I advised Barry that I would be on hand in his audience on October 17th.

Gray was then broadcasting from a night club on East 46th Street in New York.; On a raised platform, Gray commentatored in typical "disk jockey" fashion. From the bar, I could see and hear Gray discussing me over the radio.

I drafted a note to Gray, stating that I was in the bar and wondered if he were man enough to meet me at his microphone. The message was dispatched Legal proceedings against the SRP and its leaders were initiated everywhere on vague, unsupportable points of law. This had a profound economic effect. The SRP officials were continually under arrest or in court, thus unable to conduct their political cr commercial activities. And, in these "proceedings", the SEP defendants were forced to pay the court costs, adding to the unbearable economic burden upon them.

General Remer fared worst of all, since he took most of the public abuse. Continually sentenced to short terms on trumped up charges, the legal costs mounted to over $15,000 in a short time:

In another instance Reinhardt gave someone a list of prominent "friends" in Europe to visit when that person journeyed across the Atlantic. But not one of the people had ever known or even heard of Reinhardt.

He was indeed, the circus clown version of an agent.

Others were more skillful.

If you dial Chelsea 2-1887 in Manhattan and ask for "Alfred Scheffer" the man who answers the phone will be Sanford Griffith, notorious middleman agent for the Anti-Defamation League. Sandy appeared on the scene in the pose of a newspaperman. He said he was from the Newark, N. J. Star-Ledger and wanted to write a story about me which I could use for reprint purposes.

The cause needed the publicity, and so this was agreeable to me. I'd been having great difficulty in getting mention of any kind in the daily newspapers.

The ADL's Sandy Griffith made it all possible. I was his guest at the most expensive clubs and restaurants. When I needed money to pay for the designing and printing of literature, Sandy contributed.

l didn't question this goose that was laying the golden eggs. He assured me that he was a "friendly journalist" and sought the details of my operation.

I gave him a completely inaccurate picture. Apparently it was a fascinating enough one to warrant further funds from the ADL.

When my activities were quiet, Sandy would give me a pep talk and some ideas to get them moving again. For a time even I was puzzled. While I had anticipated that ADL agents would appear as investigators, I was not yet aware that the agents also act as provocateurs and instigators and are often the most depend able source of funds: As "Alfred Scheffer," Griffith shares a 3rd floor walk-up apart, ment at 192 West 10th Street will one Lillian Scheffer who, when the occasion demands, purports to be the wife of "Alfred Scheffer." However, there is no Alfred Scheffer, and Lillian is one of the two women who work with Griffitb.

Lillian is an agent in her own right, having before World War II infiltrated a patriotic group run by Mrs. Catharine Baldwin. The second woman, a good-looking peroxide blonde with a penchant for smoked glasses, has an estate on Long Island, also used by Griffith, and this woman was operating in Europe with Sandy in early 1954.

Sandy Griffith's background is a fascinating one. He claimed on several occasions to have once been associated with the Newhouse Chain of newspapers. However, "Alfred Scheffer" was as unknown to them as "Sanford Griffith."

Sandy, however, has been a longtime member of the Overseas Press Club, and has used this club to further his ADL work which has in turn, provided an excellent living for him. Using the title of "Major Sanford Griffith," and employing the Overseas Press Club as a "cover," Sandy endeaors to cultivate the friendship if

Most of the legal proceedings against him failed, but the time and money required to wage an effective defense imposed a staggering burden.

Dr. Dorls fared little better. Formerly protected to some degree by his immunity as a member of the Bundestag (parliament), this immunity disappeared with the banning of the SRP, and 4 orders for his arrest had been issued at the time Dr. Dorls curity secrets of Western Eufound it necessary to continue his struggles elsewhere.

The remaining wrath concentrated on Krueger, long after the liquidation of the SRP. Under constant Bonn observation, his commercial activities were hampered in every way possible, extending even to the intimidation of his customers in his book bus hess. In a "legal proceeding," Bon-tried to saddle Krueger with responsibility for SRP debts, but this failed, even in Bonn's stacked courts, because of an aggressive counter suit.

Bonn's persecution was not confined to the leadership of the SRP but to individual members as well. A popular local SRP committeeman, Dr. Matthaei, was forbidden to appear at any political gatherings, and his pension, for longtime public service, was revoked.

Former SRP members were tried in a group in Ostwestfalen, for simply meeting to form a his case. new Nationalist group at Dortmund.

Dr. Rudolf Aschenauer, courageous Editor of "Die Andere Seite" and distinguished defense attorney at the Nurenberg Trials, was a member of this group, buf jection by the court. It has now been conclusively, established that the "banning" of the SRP, The Free Corps Germany, the ridiculous action against Dr. Naumann, and the more recent indictment of journalist Wolfgang Sarg were the work of Dr. Otto John, the head of Adenauer's "FBI" who recently was the first of several Bonn "Government" members to desert to the Soviets with the serope. I am in possession of a highly "restricted" German document which establishes this fact.

The Nationalist Information Service, headed by Sarg, is a strongly anti-Communist group which has, for years, been posing the Communist leanings of Dr. John and other Adenauer favorites.

Wolfgang Sarg, an old friend of mine, has been indicted, as head of Natinform, for leading an allegedly "secret" organization against the "principles" of the West German constitution.

The lengthy, vague indictment of Sarg also includes charges of "anti-Semitism," "conspiracy" to undermine the Bonn Regime, etc. I am informed that much.

I have volunteered to appear as a defense witness in the forthcoming trial of Sarg since I possess factual knowledge vital to

An early Bonn snooper was George Krauss, an official of the Consulate of the West German Government in New York City.

Using an old trick, Krauss sent a typewritten postcard to my friend Frederick C. F. Weiss of LeBlanc Publishers asking for "samples of political literature." Weiss turned it over to me, with a batch of similar requests.

This one stood out because of its simplicity, and it would have received routine treatment except that by chance, the return address — "Mr. George Krauss, 745 - 5th Avenue, New York" rang a bell. This was the address of the Bonn Consulate!

d decided to make a personal visit. Armed with the postcard, I descended upon a confused and astonished Dr. Krauss in his offices at the Consulate.

Sending for "advisors" and shuffling dossiers on his desk, Krauss did not recover from his red-faced embarrassment, and he preferred not to discuss pointed matters concerning the Bonn failures to press for release of the "war criminals" before consideration of the General Treaty and EDC, and the illegal suppression of the SRP within West Germany.

I had only an hour to spare for verbal fencing, and I left with the knowledge that Bonn was keepping close tabs on a list of persons, including myself.

Mr. Krauss of 745 Fifth Avenual Sandy on the Scene

The anti-Defamation League agent, Sanford Griffith, alias Alfred Scheffer, alias Al Jones, maintains close connections with the officials of the Bonn Regime here and in West Germany.

He meets them socially and he feeds them information.

Sandy makes no bones about this, and has discussed it in the presence of witnesses.

With me, of course, he pretended that he was "using" his Bonn connections to furnish information helpful to the SRP and Fascism in general. Some of Sandy's operations in this sphere came to light in the Kesselring (pse.)

Field Marshal Albert Kesseling, a great soldier, was the op German commander in Italy during World War II. Chancellor Hitler held Kesselring to be one of his "loyal commanders," so that Kesselring held his command through the re-shuffling after the Bomb Plot against Hitler engineered by dissident, traitorous General Staff members in collaboration with British Intelligence.

Upon the capitulation of Germany in 1945, Kesselring was arrested as a "war criminal" on vague charges and held in Werl Prison in Germany.

As early as 1947, efforts were begun by my friends in "Unic<sup>1</sup>. Movement" in England to work for the release of Field Marshil Kesselring and Mannstein, both held under British jurisdiction. I, too, worked on these cases.

My "Committee for International Justice" was active in the Kesselring case, and I tried desperately to make personal contact. Finally I discovered a way to get a communication to Kesselring while he was a patient in a private hospital in Bochum, Germany.

Contact was established, and under date of August 2nd, 1952, I received a letter from Kessel ing, "kited" out of Bochum hanking and warmly endorsing thy Committee for International Justice. Within a few months, Field Marshall Kesselring won his release. I tried to renew my contact, which should have then been a simple matter, but I did not hear further from Kesselring. Then I found out why.

Sandy Griffith came to me with a report that Bonn had dispatched an official to the New York - Washington area whose primary mission was to try to discredit my activities with the U. S. press, urging them not to publicize my work. This official was Baron von Lilienfeld, a man of "Bomb Plot" stamp, and rep ported by Griffith to be attached to the West German Foreign Office.

Lilienfeld had approached various members of the press, two of whom reported it back to me, stating that Kesselring had repudiated the Committee for International Justice and myself. It is not difficult to imagine the pressures brought to bear upon Kesselring!

In the background was the international agent, Sandy Griffith, who had conferred with Lilienfeld in New York.

thereafter, Sandy had frequent contact with friends or

Dr. Otto John, and was in West Eerlin close to the date of the Jhn desertion to the Soviets. Another playmate of Sandy's is Dr. Walter P. Schuck, a Jewish Journalist representing a West German newspaper at the United Nations. After a contact Arranged by Griffith, then using is "Scheffer" alias, Schuck made several efforts to cultivale me, and then suddenly ceased. He turned his fire upon Weiss, Ibring him to an apartment in Greenwich Village where a recording of the conversation, which later turned up in professional Jewish files, was made.

The present activities of ADLmiddleman-agent Sandy Griffith are amusing. The September 1954 Bulletin of the leftist "New School For Social Research," 66 West 12th St., N.Y.C., lists Sandy as a faculty member, arranging roundtable series called а "World Report." The biographical sketch in the Bulletin lists Sandy as "PhB., Chicago. Lecturer on politics and economics. President, Market Research An alysts. European corresponden, N. Y. Herald Tribune; Wall Striget Journal; Dow, Jones pullications; vice-president, Over seas Press Club. Author, articles."

A spokesman for the personnel department of the New York Herald Tribune, however, had "never heard" of Sandy. The Wall Street Journal reported Sandy as employed during the 1920s., but not since. The Overseas Press Club denies that Griffith is its vice-president, and states that he is "just a memalthough he was on the her." Board "last year." On the Board of Trustees of the New School are such left-of-center personalities as Max Ascoli, Editor and Publisher of The Reporter Magazine which did a hatchet-job on me in its April 13, 1954 issue; Marshall Field, backer of the defunct commie-line newspaper "PM." and Telford Taylor, Mc Carthy-baiter deluxe.

This organization was founded by James H. Madole, formerly of Beacon, New York.

Madole himself, is an honest, dedicated, although fanatic, anti-Semite and Nationalist. His mother, a spirited woman with great courage, shares his views and aids him in his work.

Slowly, Madole built a small organization around h i m s e l f with the aid of parts of the pre World War II, "Christian Front" mailing list.

It is distasteful for me to attack, in any way, any National ist. I do not doubt Madole's personal bona fides in the least. I do not condemn his anti-Semitism, as such. In fact, I would be first to defend his right to express such views. There is much truth in his basic premise. But in view of the facts, I am com pelled, out of loyalty to othe Nationalists, to dissent from the naive manifestations of Madole's program.

The NRP could have been important force in American Nationalism. Instead. Madole permitted his organization to be infiltrated by every manner of anti-Nationalist agents and, during 1953 and 1954, materially damaged the security of many European Nationalists. It is my hope that as this story unfolds. Madole will clean house, regroup, and salvage something from the spoils which the Anti-Nazi League has made of the NRP. To this end, I wish him the best of luck.

Truhill and Sheldon During the Fall of 1953, and agent of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League moved directly into the leadership of the NRP. This man used the name of Mana Truhill, alias Emmanuel Trujillo.

Truhill's apartment on Audubon Avenue, Bronx, New Yonk, became the New York headquar-ters of the NRP. This was done with Madole's approval since he considered Truhill a "good worker," and was pleased with the money that Truhill was able to produce for party purposes, never questioning the source of thig mopey. Slowly, Madole entrusted Truhill with mailing lists, parti records and correspondence. Lut Mana Truhill was neither Nationalist, nor an anti-Senite, nor a bona fide NRP men ber. Truhill was a Communis and a paid employee of the Nor Sectarian Anti-Nazi League. He had attended the Jefferson School of Social Science, and was a member of one of the Communist cells in that school, commonly recognized as the training school for the American Communist Party.

Truhill's infiltration of the NRP took place, in part, under the supervision of a Jefferson School instructor.

One, of Truhill's associates. in this enterprise was Irene Duval, alias Ruth Ross.

Both were in direct contact with "Professor" James H. Sheldon, Director of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League. Secreted in his apartment, Truhill kept daily written reports of NRP activities, copies of those which he submitted to his employer, "Professor" Sheldon of ANL.

Sheldon's press mouthpiece is a garbage bag called "The Amer-ican Hebrew." Whenever he writes in this leftist publication, "Formerly he lists himself as Professor at Boston University." Although James H. Sheldon was briefly associated with Bos ton University during the 1930's, om a part-time basis, President Hirold C. Case of Boston University told me that Sheldon was niver a "regular, full-time member of the teaching staff," and that he "did not have tenure nor voting membership on that fac-ulty." President Case also assured me that at no time did voice in Sheldon ever have a policy or planning, and that "The administration of Boston Uni ersity was not aware of this nan's claim that he had been a professor at Boston University." Sheldon is the main pin of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, the plaything of one Isadore Lipschutz, rich refugee diamond merchant. Samuel Untermeyer, once an officer of this swindle, resigned in protest at the methods employed by the ANL.

Newspaper columnist Westbrook Pegler has often exposed the illegal activities of the Anti-Nazi League in connection with the frame-up of "The Colum-bians," a Nationalist group in Georgia.

"Professor" Sheldon had ful kiowledge of Truhill's Commu nist background and assignmen; when he placed him on the payroll of the Anti-Nazi League.

The financial arrangement was interesting.

Truhill was paid $25 a week for personal expenses, and $20 a week towards the current expenses of the National Renaissance Party. In addition to this, Truhill was collecting periodic sums for "special projects."

In the month of May 1954, Sheldon paid Truhill between $200 and $300 for a proposed trip through the Southern United States. The purpose of this journey was to make contacts with all Southern Nationalist or ganizations and to obtain all post sible data on their activities. The trip never took place, because Truhill was arrested for illegal possession of firearms, and held in jail long enough for the FBI to search his apartment. The search of Truhill's apartment disclosed a quantity of Communist literature and obscene pictures.

The Communist literature and obscene pictures were removed from Truhill's apartment at Sheldon's order, while Truhill wai in jail, by another agent of the Anti-Nazi League who way part $10 and promised additional funds by Sheldon.

Through its two agents, the anti - Defamation League also leaked funds to the National Renaissance Party.

Truhill, known as "Manny" to Sheldon, was able to secure "special favors" from Sheldon, who liked to take care of his "boys." On one occasion Sheldon gave Truhill $15, in addition to another $70, for the purchase of a pair of boots, dear to Manny's heart.

"Professor" Sheldon also removed to his own apartment a number of illegal edged weapons being carried by Truhill and his gang until publicity pointed out this violation.

Ot the side, Truhill had a business enterprise of his own. He sold and distributed slugs usable in telephones and stamp vending machines. Evidence of this illegal activity was submitted to the District Attorney by a New York lawyer, but no action was taken by Goldstein's Office. Supporting evidence, including-sample slugs, is in the hands of Exposé.

The payments of funds by Sheldon to Truhill were made at Sheldon's office, at 65 West 46 Street. "Manny" took great care not to be seen entering or leaving "The Professor's" office.

"Payday" was at least twice a weck, although Truhill was at liperty to obtain funds more frequently, if he needed them.

One of the chief activities of Truhill, under Sheldon's direction, was to write letters, in the name of the NRP, to Nationalists throughout the world, seeking to establish working connections' and soliciting written opinions on dangerous and controversial subjects. These letters were, in turn, sold to Sheldon.

In this way, the NRP was used to betray and jeopardize a number of active anti-Communists in Hurope.

pnother instruction to Trubill by Sheldon was to blame all extremist activity on Frederick C. F. Weiss of Le Blanc Publications, a Nationalist, authof, and active anti-Communist. Believing in the policy of supporting all Nationalists insofar as possible, Weiss had been taken in by the NRP, and smeared by Sheldon.

The Anti-Nazi League was one of the agencies responsible for the circulation of an insidious rumor that Weiss had accepted a large sum from Communist sources for the publication of his Nationalist literature. Such false rumors were started against Weiss by Truhill, at Sheldon's direction, and these rumors did some damage to an honest and self-sacrificing American Nationalist. But the damage done in Europe to individual National ists was even more tragic.

The Truhill-Sheldon circus has now been exposed, but some of the damage remains. Nationalits must be on guard against other Truhills.

Thus I became aware from first-hand experience that anti-Semitism in the United States is, to no small degree, directed and financed by such groups as the Anti-Defamation League and the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League.

I have given Exposé copies of sworn affidavits in which it is reported that both of these groups made cash payments (always cash) to a so-called double-agent in order to obtain information about each other!

These diversions were amusing. But I had a mission and there were decisions to malta-Some of these were forced decisions and they were not happy ones.

SEARCHED. INDEXED. SERIALIZED FILED NOV 1 5 1954 FBI - NEW YORK

Synopsis: In previous installments Mr. Thompson has said that he is a Nationalist, and has described his entry into the Nationalist (Fascist) network. He detailed his experience as a registered foreign agent for neo-Nazis and his battles with groups who opposed him and their agents.

Now he concludes:

My work for the Socialist Reich Party of West Germany completed and registration with the Department of Justice as a foreign agent duly terminated, the early months of 1953 found me busily engaged in the formation of a new, cultural group.

The "American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture" was intended to be: (1) an advisory group to the American People on preservation of our traditions against the inroads of internationalist, "One-World", alien cultures and influences: (2) a political action group on questions of United States domestic and foreign affairs; and (3) a group to safeguard the civil liberties of all Americans, regardless of their politics.

Careful months of work went into the formation of an aggressive committee from the ranks of American Nationalists, of Left, Right and Center, with a highcalibre European advisory staff. It was heart-breaking work endeavoring to secure the active cooperation of Nationalists who, in so many cases, were more opposed to their Nationalist.contemporaries than to the common enemies. I, finally brought together a representative group, taking care t( secure letters of acceptance.

The Honorary Chairman was Dr. A. O. Tittmann, former diplomat, author and outspoken opponent of the "war crimes" terror. The Board of Directors included James H. Madole, director of the National Renaissance Party; Kurt Mertig, patriotic author; John H. Monk, editor and publisher of the effective publication, Grass Roots; Peter L. Xavier, author of the popular Rise America; J. E. Marquardt, radio commentator; and businessmen E. R. Barron and Frederick Polzin.

The West Coast Staff was headed by James R. White, editor of the Los Angeles publication Reason, and included Frank Moore, David Pressey, Robert J. Kneen and Britton McFetridge.

The Mid-Western Staff, heided by Russ Roberts of the Nationalist Information Service, included publisher Court Asher and organizer Raymond Burke.

The Southern Staff, headed by John W. Mitchell, student organider, included William Spear and Millard Grubbs, editor of The American Eagle.

The editorial advisor was Guy Stephens, editor of The Individualist.

Eustace C. Mullins, economist and author of the book, Mullins on the Federal Reserve System, was to be Treasurer.

The American advisory staff included Frederick C. F. Weiss, brilliant philosopher, political analyst and director of Le Blanc Publishers; B. F. Ebeling, Arkansas' engineer; and many others.

The honorary advisory staff on World Affairs included Dr. Gerhard Krueger, Ginman National-ist and former SRP secretarygeneral; Wolfgang Sarg, German journalist and director of NATINFORM, Germany; A. Raven Thomson, official of the British "Union Movement" and editor of its excellent publication, Union; Hon. Oswald Pirow, former member of the South African Parliament; Erwin Schoenborn, publisher of "Arbeitgemeinschaft Nation Europa"; Swiss publisher Erwin Vollenweider; Jak Endres of Barcelona, Spain; plus many other personalities of importance whose names, for various reasons, I shall not cite here. There was a Youth Section and a Wom en's Group, with affiliated sec puses.

Perhaps the most important 'name" of all, King Carol II of Romania, my longtime personal friend, consented to lend information and advise on Balkan Affairs.

I completed the group, serving as National Director.

It was, all considered, an impressive group. The Jewish pressure groups, suspecting that the Committee might be somewhat 'anti - Semitic", immediately sprung into action. The Jewish War Veterans called for an "investigation" of the Committee, and a horde of new agents descended. These so-called Jewish "defense groups" do not leave un-harrassed any individuals or groups which challenge, in any way, their vested interests.

But the same old agents were still on the scene also. The notorious B'nai B'rith middleman-agent, Sanford Griffith, alias "Alfred L. Scheffer", alias "Al Jones", Hovered about me, still in his pose as Newark Star-Ledger "journal-int", giving unsolicited adv ce. prying for organizational information and making contributions. "Sandy" Griffith went into his act again, placing another article, for reprint purposes, in his Newark Star-Ledger outlet, which apparently hastened to do the bidding of the Anti-Defamation League.

But this time the wires got crossed. Included in the published article was a verbatim quotation from an an old "A.D.L. Bulletin' about me.

"Sandy" was plainly embarrassed, but I minimized the matter for I was not then ready to deal with "Al Scheffer" until I knew his entire operation.

Despite Griffith's many aliases and the out-and-out frauds which tions on numerous college cam-the was busily perpetrating in Nationalist circles, here and in Europe, I did not then know that on Feb. 18, 1938, the New York Supreme Court-had issued a decree restraining Griffith from "making any false pretenses, misrepresentations, statements or promises . . ." and from "any fraudulent acts". The circumstances surrounding this decree against ADL agent Griffith were published by columnist Westbrook Pegler in the N.Y. Journal-American on September 19, 1954.

This-man Griffith, then using the title "Major Griffith," was the key witness employed by Roosevelt's Justice Department to insure the World War II "conviction" of George Sylvester Viereck, for a rigged "violation" of the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Viereck's "defense attorneys", appointed by the Roosevelt court, declined (despite Viereck's demand) to ask Griffith, on cross-. eximination, about his employment by the ADL and ANL. The Justice Department knew the detais of Griffith's employment by these Jewish pressure groups, and they also knew of the N. Y. Suprome Court decree against Griffith for fraud. The Viereck conviction, thus brought about by perjury and fraud, with the complicity of the Justice Departmer, could not have stood if the background of Griffith had been revealed in court.

This same Griffith is now a faculty member at the "New School for Social Research" in NYC and was a lecturer at Colgate University this summer.

Always ready to give anti-Semitism a boost on behalf of the ADL. Griffith gave cash sums to the notorious Mana Truhill, paid agent of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, for data from the files of the National Renaissance Party, including some correspondence of a number of European Nationalists. Truhili, at the time, was planted within the NRP by "Professor" Sheldon of the Anti-Nazi League, and was busy collecting money from all sides for the promotion of the most en treme, vulgar and provocative forms of anti-Semitism.

I am glad to hear that, in recent weeks, James H. Madole, honest, self-sacrificing NRP leader has taken firm steps to rid his organization of the cockroaches of the ADL and ANL. From now on, he is going to be better informed on the identity of these schemers, and should be able to re-group and carry on with more effectiveness.

The American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture had, by Spring of 1953, become the major target of all the Jewish pressure groups. But this time, they tried a different approach and tried to create dissention amongst members of the Committee, employing atterpted blickmail, miscellaneous flake scires, and outright ecoromic pressure. The operations of the Jewish pressure groups were quite successful, for the American is renerally not as devoted to his ideals as the European, nor is he as apt to fight as hard for them, particularly in the face of unpleasant pressures.

I understood when some committee members withdrew because of fear for their employment, but I was fighting mad when ADL and ANL agents succeeded in driving personal wedges between Committee members. The Committee, because of its size and dispersion, was helpless against this type of infiltration. I lacked the time to travel over the USA trying to smooth out quarrels between members, but I did all that I could.

While the possibility of my running for Congress in New York City's 18th Congressional District was being public zed, I fell victim to a trick in front of Carnegie Hall on the occasion of the Gieseking concert.

German concert pianist Walter Gjeseking had, since World War II been a pet target of pressure groups which branded him a "Nazi" (which he never was) because he had refused to denounce his country.

His musical genius speaks for itself, and has nothing to do with politics in any case.

His 1953 appearance at Carnegie Hall became a major concentration of the wolfpack which announced plans for picketing the concert. I was determined that any such picketing would meet some challenge, even if only from the American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture.

When I arrived at Carriegie Hill with a group of friends on the evening of the concert, the picketing by the "Jewish War

Sarg: Bonn indicted him.

Veterans" and various Zionist groups was already underway.

With the connivance of the police, the pickets were blocking the sidewalk and hurling invective at patrons attempting to enter the hall. At the corner, a sound truck blared forth, advertising Robert F. Wagner, Jr. (now Mayor of New York) as a speaker, and vilifying Gieseking!)

I began to remonstrate with police officers in an effort to at least gain a clear entrance for the patrons, but my demands fell upon deaf ears.

I was promptly identified, and I heard my name whispered through the swarm of angry Zionists, which had quickly gathered about my little group. News photographers maneuvered for position as the leader of the demonstration approached me and threw a German naval flag at my feet. "Is this your flag?", he screamed in broken English. My blood boiled, and I reactid explosively. The flash bulbs popped, and

The flash bulbs popped; and the photographers had their pictury. It required a police esjort to get us safely into the hall, where the Gieseking concert was a magnificent success.

Agent John Roy Carlson: Arab garb and the latest name Yusef Nadir.

A few days later, Barry Gray used the action photograph on two successive TV shows, with a heavy attack on the Committee, inplicating several persons, such as Viereck, who were not members of the Committee. This public damaging of innocent persons caused me growing concern.

Meanwhile, on other fronts, the pressure groups, deeply fearful of the national character which the Committee had taken, launched an all-out attack upon the Committee. Most of it centered upon myself, my personal friends, and my closest associates.

I was so hemmed in by every manner of agent that I could hardly move without observation. Privacy was non-existent.

The persecution of social acquaintances, merely for meeting and talking with me, took unbelieveable forms and revealed some interesting activities of miscellaneous agents.

At Queens College, a young American Nationalist, Donald A. Swan, was "suspended" from school on a number of abstrd, fabricated charges, including "anti-Semitism", "anti-Catholic" and "anti-Negro" activity. High on the list of "charges" was having met and talked with me.

Dean Margaret V. Kiely, a Catholic active in Jewish groups, told Swan's mother that she had been told by "authorities" that I was a "subversive". Kiely has made similar statements to others and admits to having heard "recordings" of my telephone conversations.

The actual reason for the "suspension" of Swan was his pro-MCarthy, anti-Zionist activity, conducted largely off-campus.

The "charges" against Swan bormeranged at a time when vari(Continued from Page 4) ons Queens College faculty membrs were under investigation by a Congressional Committee locking into Communist activities. Swan was re-instated and subsequently completed his studies. Passport seizure has become a major political weapon of the U.S. State Department, and the victims are any American citizens who dare to speak their mind on political subjects in foreign countries, when their individual opinions happen to differ with those of the State Department.

The companion weapon to passport seizure is the denial of passports to controversial American citizens. These weapons have been applied against the Right as well as against the Left.

In 1952, Ernest F. Elmhurst, American Nationalist and author of The World Hoax visited Germany.

While there, he delivered a speech which Bonn authorities considered to be "anti-British" and "anti-Democratic."

Upon his return to the U. S., Elmhurst was pestered by two snoopers named Pritchard and George Thomas. Thereafter, a man who identified himself as H. W. Ramsay, agent of the State Department, called upon Elmhurst and asked to take up his passport "for investigatich" because the State Department had information that "another man" was traveling under Elhhurt's name, and a check would have to be made. Elmhurst was given a "receipt" for the passport, but the passport has never been returned, and Rose Shipley of the Passport Division in Washington later wrote Elmhurst that his passport had been "revoked" because of "anti-American lectures."

A similar case was that of Voter's Alliance President Fleckerstein who, while visiting Germiny in 1953, spoke out against U S. policy towards Germany. A frightened Adenauer causid his arrest without charges, jailing by Bonn police, the illegal seizure of his passport by U. S. authorities, and his forcible diportation by order of U. S. High Commissioner Conant.

Officials of both the Non-Sedtarian Anti-Nazi League and the Anti-Defamation League have claimed close association and exchange of information with the Justice Department. In some cases there is evidence that certain individuals have been on the payroll of "the authorities", the ADL and the ANL at the same time, collecting money from all, and selling the "secrets" of all to various fourth and fifth parties. This is quite amusing, and certainly accounts for much of the baloney which ends up in various files, private and governmental.

The phony "Professor" Jarles H. Sheldon of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League has bragged to witnesses of his "connections" with the Department of Justice and stated that all his activities are "officially known." Assistant Attorney General of the United States Andretta, however, on September 20, 1954, put the lie to the "Professor's" claims, issuing a written denial for publication.

Sheldon likes to dicker with official agencies and does so through "plants". In the Department of Immigration is a character named Nathan Rock whose "memoranda" have an interesting circulation.

Also interesting reading is the N: W. City police file on the strange death of Sheldon's negro secretary in Harlem last year? Police list this as an "open case". Another operator in these circles is a strange, obsessed young num named Arthur Stabile, head of a group called Catholic (ampaigners For Christ the King. At the instigation of "Professor" Sheldon of the ANL, Stabile took a "special interest" in "neo-Nazi" activities of Yorkville.

His professed interest was to convert all to the Roman Catholic line, but actually he was busily giving information to the "Professor", who entertained Stabile in his apartment.

Snooping for the Jesuits is a seedy little man named Joseph Lettl who describes himself as a former high official of Allied Military Government in Austria. Actually he was an intelligence agent who was fired by the United States for giving top secret Government information to foreign Catholic priests.

It is noteworthy that when the Catholic Church is in a majority in any country, it openly participates in politics and tries to run the state. When in a minority, it pretends to oppose "involvemint" of its functionaries in politics, and confines itself to cloak and dagger snooping, associating itself with some of the most discredited and disreputable elements of society.

After a long, losing battle to hold an organization together, I issued, on August 25, 1953, a press statement dissolving the American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture, publicly disassociating myself from the local personalities with whom I had been identified, withdrawing from active politics and backing the late Vito Marcantonio for Congress in the 18th District.

I took this action only after months of careful consideration and consultation with attorneys and friends in Europe.

There was no other course open to me.

The over-riding consideration was that I would not publicly link my foreign friends with an American group too infiltrated to function. Moreover, after a few months of total inactivity, I was able to resume more important journalistic work without the disadvantages of glaring headlines, "investigations" and hordes of agents.

During 1954, this has paid a tremendous dividend. As early as 1952, a character who called himself "Yusef Nadir" and who described himself as an American graduate student of Arab ancestry, wrote me letters from within Germany trying to ferret out my European "contacts."

Carol of Romania: The late King's inscription is to Thompson.

In particular, he sought out links to the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem. He didn't get them. Insteâd, as I handled all such letters, I referred "Nadir", knowing nothing about him, to a selected list of European Nationalists, with the suggestion that they proceed with caution and find out what "Nadir" was up to.

"Yusef Nadir" was thus unmasked as the notorious "John Roy Carlson", born Avedia Arthur Derounian, investigator for the disreputable "Friends of Democracy."

Derounian, using the alias "George Pagnanelli", had infiltrated patriotic American organizations just prior to World War II. He "disappeared" and then turried up again as "John Roy Carlson," author of the outrage ous smear book called "Under Covir," and its sequel, "The Plotters." "Carlson", termed by Westbroak Pegler as a "notorious faktr and liar" and an "irresponsible adventurer in scandalous publicity", was promptly sued for liber by outraged American patriots. Judge John P. Barnes, in the course of such a libel suit, said that "Carlson" was "unworthy of belief on oath and would write anything for a dollar."

From 1947 to 1950, "Carlson" travelled to Europe and the Middle East, infiltrating Nationalist groups in "preparation" for his book "Cairo to Damascus", which appeared in 1951.

In 1952, he was back in Europe snooping, this time in the pose of "Yusef Nadir," Arabian leather goods and jewelry merchant.

While in Germany, he used the following "cover addresses" c/o Scholl, Mannheimerstr. 21/III, Frankfurt / M, Germany; c / o Girndt, Kortestr. 28, Beřlin SW 29, Germany; and c/o Saupe, D a r m st a e dterlandstr. 13 • H, Frankfurt/M, Germany. He described the Saupe address as his "permanent" one.

"Carlson" returned to the US in September 1954, with a considerable file of misinformation acquired during his snooping of the last several years. "Nadir" lists his American "cover address" as: c/o Ghasn, 269-82nd Street, Brooklyn, New York.

This is a two-family house in a good section of Brooklyn, but Ghasn merely operates a "mail drop" and "message center" for Darounian-Carlson-Nadir.

An article in the ADL Bulletin once described me as "one of the mist important German propagandists" and the "operator" of (Continued on Page 6) an international information "transmission" belt:

They wrote this as part of their cappaign to frighten weally Jet's into "contributions" to APL coffers. Nationalism is not, and cannot be, an international entity or a "conspiracy". It stands firmly opposed to internationalist, "one world" concepts, but, aside from this, there is little cohesion among Nationalists, and National aims often conflict.

Nationalist political parties and organizations exist not only in the United States and Germany, but in England, South Africa, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Sweden, The Middle East, and parts of Africa.

Even behind the Iron Curtain, and just in front of it, we see evidence of resurgent nationalism within a framework of practical socialism. Almost without exception, nationalists are persons of rare courage who have sacrificed greatly to promote ideals in which they fully believe and to which they have dedicated their lives.

Of particular importance are the German Nationalists who continue to fight on, despite the terror of the Bonn Regime and the pressures of the U.S. Government and international Jewry.

Many Germans fought on after the collapse of the Third Reich in 1945. Of these Germans, a iarge number, because of their former associations, found that they could work most effectively from outside Germany. ments enabled them to continue to voice their views.

Two German language publications, Der Weg in Argentina and Die Eiche in South Affica, promote the traditional culture of Western Europe by keeping a ive the German Spirit and drawing attention to the "war crimes" terror and the political persecution of minority groups.

1 have the honor to serve as the accredited correspondent for Dcr Wey in the U.S.A. and at the U.N.

Even within Germany a few Nationalist publications manage to survive, such as Die Nation (Munich); Die Anklage (Bavaria); Die Deutsche Gemeinschaft (Munich); Der Widerhall (Munich); Da./ Ziel (Hannover); Nation Europa (Coburg); National Zeitung (Munich); Das Ganze Deutschland (Detmold); Suedweest Beobachter (Stuttjart); Pressedienst Realpolitik, SHamburg); Kurt Vorunckel Verhug (Heidelberg); Die Andere Seite (Munich); Welt ohne Krieg (Wuerzburg).

Individual journalists in West Germany are singled out by Bonn for attack if they dare to write the truth.

A case in point is that of Wolfgang Sarg, director of a press service called Natinform Germany, who has been indicted by Bonn for "undermining" the West German Constitution.

The indictment is so vague that it defies defense, and the Court has refused to summon witnisses for the defense on the lydicrous grounds that, because they have been business associates of Sarg, they would not tell the truth because of "personal committment."

This is nothing more than an attempt by Bonn to destroy the freedom of a dissenting press by staging a mock trial.

In German affairs, I know that my friend Colonel Hans Ulrich Rudel will play a future role of importance. Rudel, top German avition ace of World War II and author of the thrilling war diary. Stika Pilot, has a keen insight inti world affairs and political problems.

Dr. Werner Naumann is under the new threat of indictment by Bonn after failure of another such attempt to silence his effective voice during 1953. Former associate of Dr. Goebbels, Dr. Naumann is a vigorous political force within Germany, and it is quite possible that he will ultimately rally around him the old strength of the Socialist Reich Party, and the new strength of the Deutsches.

Bonn will continue to scream "Nazi" at every Nationalist, as it will continue to suppress their civil liberties, subject them to economic and "legal" persecution, and ban their publications and external forms as they become discernible.

) | But Bonn cannot kill the spirit of these men and the terror (vill tot last forever.

' The Adenauer Regime will ultimately meet the fate of the Weimar Regime. Both History and time are in favor of the Nationalists. We can afford to wait. Of particular interest to Americans is the revival of the Mosily Movement in England. Union Movement is a resuscitation of Sir (Iswald Mosley's pre-war Fascist party, British Union, which was supressed in 1940 owing to its opposition to the war with Germany.

It claimed, and quite rightly, that World War II could only lead to the domination of Europe by Soviet Russia.

The leading officials and members of the pre-war organization were detained for years in prisons and concentration camps during the war.

Immediately after the war, Mosley wrote a book—The Alternative—outlining a new policy which differed in many respects from pre-war Fascism, especially in its abandonment of "the more narrow concepts of nationalism."

Meanwhile. members of the pre-war movement had formed small organizations of their own which combined under Mosley's leadership in February 1948 to form "Union Movement."

Mosiey's post-war policy claims to transcend both Faseism and Democracy and to be better adapted to the changed conditions of the post-war world. It is based upon the concept of a "Union of Europe."

In Britain, Mosley's main appeal is to the workers through a form of Syndicalism, granting them co-partnership in industry to offset the Marxist Socialism of the British Labor Party which has lead to a top-heavy bureaucracy.

Union Movement has considerable support in the working class area of East London, and other industrial centers of England Union Movement's top organi-

The officials of Union Movement are honest, hard working organizers, and the movement is steadily gaining supporters, in the United States due to its keen political insight,

What then is the "Weltans-chauung" (world - outlook) of those who share my beliefs?

The rapidly progressing men-ace of Jewish World Bolshevism, which now threatens to enable their class war from within to (the struggle of the yellow and black races, including white Asiatics, under Kremlin leadership, against the White Race) from without, can bring an end to the Western world as we know it. Niither of these two revolutions will reject the aid of the other And so, with this roundup, the simply because it despises the other.

The Prague Trials of the eleven Jewish leaders in 1953 and similar actions in other satellite comtrils confirmed to the world the

In Russia itself, the Jews have no voice and they have exercised no appreciable influence since Trotsky's exile.

The Russian Jew, having experienced no contemporary gheti life, has lost his metaphysics Masses are lacking in the requimore rapidly than his co-believis in the Western host-countries, and has become absorbed by "Russian 'Imperialism."

In the USSR, the Jews have no right of assembly as such. There is only one synagogue in Moscow. When the Jew is taken to Finance-Liberalism, to any away from his church, his Soul weakening of the State, and to is taken away, and his meta- the desecrating misuse of the physics his feeling as a member State for private economic inter of a world community, his "na-tion-feeling" — is diminished whatever fundamental life-force tion-reeling — is minimisted whatever fundamental me-fords. Hence, today, Jewish publications sill exist in Western Peoples-such as "Commentary", and "The that instinct for power and pos New Leader" complain that the sessions, for possessions as pow Soviet system has "become as great a horror as Fascism."

This has evoked many changes. American "public opinion", molded by the press, has changed from bling antl-German and pro-Russian to anti-German and anti-Russian.

After the deliverance of more than 14 of the world's population to Russian domination by the Roosevelt - Truman - Eisenhower ang, it is late indeed for the Vestern World to seek but and rush the actual power force, within the West, which brought about this unprecedented largesse.

To seek out and crush this force requires both leadership and the willingness to at last recognize and label this destructive internal power.

Leadership is woefully lacking in the Western camp. And the site Spirit to develop and empiwer the needed leadership. Such a spirit must emerge if the Western World is to survive, and it must emerge before the events of history pass us by.

This Spirit must be opposed er, for honor, for order, for tradition, for inheritance, feculdity and family.

When, through the medium of such a Committee as the Anterican Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture, we try to educate our Masses, in this Hour of Decision, that the Western Nations are now committed to a "Common Destiny", not a mere "unity of common ground", we are savagely attacked.

When we point out that our great Western Culture, born in the great spiritual upheavals in Western Europe and welded spiritually in a thousand years of existence into one unit, has to die if Western Europe is overrun by the hordes from the Asiatic Steppes, we are more fiercely attacked.

When we tell our Masses that it is now a question of Destiny for all of the Western Family to find leadership of the highest iffectiveness, we are smeared as "Nazis".

When we try to bring our apprehensions to the American politicians, they are more concerned with whether we are registered as "foreign agents"; and when, in speech and writings we expose our "Big Brains" in Washington —those "professional thinkers" —for subordinating immediate action to the spinning of a web of abstractions, bound up in myths like justice, virtue, liberty, equality, etc., we are smeared as "Un-American."

When we tell the politicians that the Jews will never permit us to throw the Red Hordes behind the Pripet Marshes – betause this would automatically estore to Germany her Eastern provinces—we are smeared as "anti-Semites." When we tell them that Soviet Russia has today become the most leadly enemy of the Jews as a nation, we are smeared as "proltussian."

When we warn that already Western Europe begins to regard an eventual Russian occupation as a lesser evil because it could be more quickly thrown off, we are branded as "Commu-Nazis."

When we warn that the aim of the 'Jewish world movement is a protracted stalemate between East and West (as in Korea) becaule a decisive military victory of ether East or West would, in the last result, be adverse to their hegemony, we are branded as "militarists."

When we laugh at the United Nations as a medium for settling any serious conflict or resolving any world issues, we are considered "isolationists."

But, despite all labels and persecutions, our struggle goes on. WE must insure that our "leaders" muster the courage to employ bur natural power as a formative power to make history in terms of Western ideals. We must sweep the slate clean and prepare to meet our Destisyor perish in the struggle.

Agent unmasked: This photo of ADL-middleman Sanford Griffith, was taken by an unidentified photographer in the faculty lounge of New School for Social Research. "Sandy" had been called to the telephone from a banquet, and at this instant was being told by the caller that leaflets exposing him were being distributed in the auditorium below. Seconds later he leaped at the photographer to snatch the camera from his hands, and fell. He then pursued him down the stairs and out into the street, falling flat on his face in front of the building, getting up and continuing the chase for four city blocks.

Exposé readers are familiar with the activities of agent Griffith; will find other details about him in the concluding chapter of "I Am An American Fascist" in this issue.

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, furnished the following information in the Fall of 1943 concerning the subject's activities in connection with "France For Ever"

Early in 1941 the subject proposed to EUGENE HOUDRY, President of "France For Ever", that he could assist in the propaganda and membership promotion of "France For Ever". HOUDRY accepted the services of the subject when he learned that GRIFFITH had been connected with GHQ at Chaumont during the last war in G-2. GRIFFITH offered his services free if the organization would pay his expenses.

Market Analysts Incorporated immediately moved in its personnel consisting of and a secretary. GRIFFITH organized a banquet at a large hotel, and from the guest's present he named an American committee. This action lead to a lot of bickering because in some cases the people were not even asked, but were put on by GRIFFITH. GRIFFITH promoted a lobby in Congress for "France For Eyer", and several large promotional schemes. The activities of GRIFFITH were costing "France For Ever" from $600.00 to $800.00 per month.

In April of 1941 it was discovered that the men used by GRIFFITH for the so-called propaganda purposes, were in reality using the files of "France For Ever" and collecting information from newly arrived travelers from France and Europe and GRIFFITH, was giving or selling this information to other sources. The Executive Committee of "France For Ever" stopped their stenographers from writing GRIFFITH'S reports unless a copy was furnished to them. This led to a fight between GRIFFITH and the Committee, and all official connection between the two parties was ended in the Summer of 1941.

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, who has furnished information in the past concerning German matters, told SA in March of 1953 that released GRIFFITH due to lack of funds to pay his salary live years ago, at which time T-7 thought GRIFFITH went to work as a Private Investigator for the Anti-Defamation League. T-7 said he has not seen the subject since that time and has no knowledge of his current associations or activities.

On March 20, 1953, the writer observed on the Building Directory of 8 West 40 Street, New York City, that SANFORD GRIFFITH was listed as having an office in Room 1607. It is noted that there is not listing for Market Analysts Incorporated on the Building Directory. The only name on the door of Room 1607 was Business Evaluation Company.

On February 19, 1951, an informant, of unknown reliability, advised that RESSIE HOWARD was the President of the Philadelphia Eranch of the Women's University Club, 315 South 17th Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and that since Miss HUWARD had become President of this organization, it seemed to her that the persins who were brought before the group as speakers were either sympathetic to Communism or were "extreme liberals." T Tho informant further advised that on the occasion of Miss HOLAIDIS return from a trip to Europe, several of the members of the Momon's University Olub were discussing her trip with her when the phrase iron curtain countries" was introduced into the conversation. The informant advised that at that time Miss HCWARD became quits provoked and stated in substance that there is no iron curtain around fussia and the countries which areher neighbors; that the people there have all the freedoms; they live and act the same as people within the United States; they speak and criticize their governments without fear; and that if there is any "iron curtain," it is around the United States. Although a lead was set forth in New York report of April 7, 1953 to interview the file does not reflect that he was actually interviewed.

It does not appear that any consideration was ever given to interviewing for information they might personally possess, or for logical leads.

With respect to ______ it is noted that New York by letter dated June 9, 1953, advised the Bureau that ______ she was not being interviewed, insemuch as a person by the same name was reported to be possibly a Communist Party member, and to be psychoneurotic. Insemuch as _______ is one who allegedly possesses information directly pertinent to the original allegation in this case, it would appear that there would be nothing to lose, and much to gain, through an interview with her, provided the interview is intelligently conducted, and her personality and possible Communist Party background are kept in mind.

As noted, this investigation has been pending since March 12, 1953. The periods of the various reports submitted reflect that to date investigative effort has been expended on sixty-four days by the following offices, on the following dates:

Washington Field Office

3/4,5; 6/22; 7/13,24; 8/28/53

New York Office

Hiami Office

Philadelphia Office

b6

b7C

Bew Haven Office

7/10,15,17/53 3 days

Howark Office

8/24,25,26,28/53 4 days.

Although this investigation has been in progress considerable period of time and considerable agent time has been devoted to it, it would appear that the investigative effort has been to a degree not directly to the point of prove ing or disproving the original allegation. The trend has been to place mail covers, check tell records, an thereafter for this and auxiliary offices to determine the and identities of the subject's contacts. While it is realized that the Manual suggests the above as investigative technique. it is not intended that this course be pursued interminably. The Manual also suggests that investigation to show what the sucject's activities have been in these cases is generally a routine matter, and the usual investigative technique is employed. The usual and most direct investigative approach in this case would have been to interview subject's acquaintances information upon which the original complaint was based.

Since these persons are the indices should be checked concerning all of them, a letter submitted to the Bureau requesting authority to interview them, b6 and thereafter depending upon the results, the subject interviewed, in order that this case can be brought to a logical conclusion in the near future.

Explanations are requested from SA who has had this case assigned to him since August 20, 1953; Assistant Supervisor ASAC Marchessault; and the SAC, relative to the manner in which this case has been handled to date. Concerning the inspector's comment, it did not appear that any consideration was ever given to interviewing for information that they might personally persons or for logical lands in instant case. Consideration was given to possible interview of both ______ but since both, from the facts available, appeared to have either innocently or intentionally assisted the subject in acting as an agent of a foreign government, any contemplated interview of them, because of these facts and because of their occupation as ______ has been held in absymme to date. It was the intention of this office, at a logical time in the investigation, when sufficient information hed been developed which would make an interview of the subject imminent, to request Bursts permission to interview both _______ who, it must be borne in mind, are potential subjects themselves.

Likewise, the interview of although set set in the load, because of his position and association with the subject, has been held in abeyance until a time immediately prior to a proposed interview of the subject.

The facts available to this office conserving Miss were made available to the Bureau, who appear to have consurred in the recommendation of this office that she not be interviewed on the basis of these facts.

The investigation to date, with marticular reference to the sail covers and the nonitoring of the subject has reflected that the subject has received sail from the French Exbassy, French Generalates at New York or Eashington, and other official sgeneice of the French Gevernment in this country on ten occasions. In addition, as recently as July 13, 1953 the subject received the french Gevernment, is use felt that this investigation should be pursued for the purpose of developing sufficient evidence of the subject's activities to enable as intelligent interview of him and to present sufficient facts to the Department that the latter might be able to adequately decide whether or not the subject should be presented on a criminal violation of the FARA or requested to register under this Ast.

Acting Supervisor

the investigation has been pursued as outlined above, in accordance with prescribed

Bureau procedure, for the purpose of determining whether or not the subject was in fast acting as an unregistered agent of a foreign government. The faste developed by investigation to date indicate strongly that the subject, as recently as dely 1953, was so acting. On the basis of these facts, continued investigation along the lines pursued to date, smally, by stil cover and mentioning of the subject's bank account, would appear to be varianted so that cufficient infornation could be developed to enable a thereage and consinuive interview of the subject.

Revever, in view of the countries unde by the inspector, the suggested interviews will be referred to the Bursen for appropriate action.

ASAC A. J. Marchessenlt: The importer's suggestions will be followed.

SAG L. V. Beardmans The comments and by the impostor have been moted and appropriate action will be taken.

GRIFFITH moted he would depart from Idlewild Airport on March 10, 1952, via Air France to visit France and Germany (U.S. zone). He stated that he would be gone for three weeks and that his purpose was "tourism."

In a letter from the subject dated March 6, 1952, directed to the Department of Renewals, Bureau of Passport, 630 5th Avenue, New York City, subject wrote that in connection with his proposed trip, his purpose was "to visit as a tourist a few places I have known in Germany and in France."

On April 13, 1954, GRIFFITH submitted a passport application at New York City. He now listed both his mailing address and permanent address as 8 West 40th Street, New York City. He listed his parents as ROBERT MORRIS RADD and JOSEPHINE GRIFFITH, both deceased. He indicated he was last married in May, 1924, to KATE BENNETT, who was born in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1914. However, in a 1926 application, GRIFFITH stated his wife was born December 16, 1903. In his 1954 application, subject noted that his marriage was terminated in divorce in 1935. Subject stated his occupation was social researcher - economist. GRIFFITH proposed to depart from New York City on April 20, 1954, via plane to visit England, France and Germany. He intended to stay abroad for two months for the purpose of study and pleasure. His identifying witness was ANNE HULL who certified she has known GHIFFITH for 40 years. On the basis of this application, GRIFFITH was issued Passport #21718, New York series, on April 15, 1954.

Passport files do not ordinarily contain the actual dates of return to the United States by an individual nor do they contain the countries he actually visited. This information is contained only in the passport book itself, which, under current passport regulations, may be retained by the person to whom it is issued. A passport, unless limited to a one year period, is valid for two years from the date issued and may then be renewed for an additional two years making a total of four years from the date of issue before a new passport is required for further travel. It is valid for all countries except as instructed and may be used within its limitations whenever and wherever desired without further notification to the Passport Office or any other branch of the U. S. Government; further, applicants are not required to indicate their residence outside the United States on subsequent applications unless the period covered by such residence was in excess of 2 years.

At this time said he was contacted by SANFORD GRIFFITH of Market Analysts, Incorporated. GRIFFITH stated he had been retained by the French Government to conduct a survey to determine the effectiveness of "Facts versus Fiction". GRIFFITH subsequently furnished the results of this survey to the "American Committee for International Information".

GRIFFITH on several occasions when he needed surveys taken stated that these committees, referred to above, were wither anti-Nazi in character, supported President ROOSEVELT's foreign policy, called for aiding the allies such as England or France, or were in support of better government, said that GRIFFITH seemed to be in sympathy with the programs of most of these committees.

He said that GRIFFITH is very pro-Israel in his views, took the Isnaeli side in the Arab dispute, and is very concerned about the revival of Naziism in Germany. said that GRIFFITH spent a lot of time at the United Nations during the height of the Arab-Israeli dispute, but this could have been in connection with his employment with "News Day", a Long Island newspaper for which he was reporting at the time.

said that GRIFFITH is now a strong supporter of the French and Saar viewpoint on the Saar question. He said that France wants to make the Saar a protectorate which would be economically tied to France. The present Saar Government which was put in power by the French, favors this action. said that when representatives of the Saar Government or Saar newspapers come to the United States, GRIFFITH assists them with their travel accommodations and aranges press conferences and radio and television appearances for them.

GRIFFITH was doing at Bonn on this occasion. He said that GRIFFITH makes trips to Lurope about once or twice a year and he presumes they are on business.

He stated that in 1952 the "Council Against Communist Aggression", 1500 North Eroad Street, Fhiladelphia, Pennsylvania, of which , sponsored a showing of anti-Communist posters drawn by French artists. This showing was conducted by the "American Committee de Paix et Liberte". He said that these posters were provided by the "French Committee de Paix et Liberte", an independent be group of anti-Communist French citizens. This French group b7 transported the posters to this country.

seid he does not know whether this French committee was subsidized in any way by the French Government, but he knows that the French Government was in favor of the program due to its anti-Communist nature. He said that representatives of the French Government were present when the display opened at the ANTA Playhouse, 245 West 52nd Street, New York City.

He said that the expenses in connection with this showing were very small and the "Council Against Communist Aggression" only had to pay about $300. He said that GRIFFICH did some publicity work in connection with this exhibit, however, it did not amount to much and ______ does not know whether or not he was paid for his services.

GRIFFITH stated he was not employed by any foreign government at the time of the interview. He said that in 1941, he had done public relations work for the tritish Government and for "France Forover", an organization sponsored by the "Free French Government". He said that during 1952 and 1953, he had prepared a handbook on social and economic problems in the Saar. He said that this handbook reflected the French point of view on the Saar question. He said that although he had been retained by the Saar Government to prepare this handbook, he was paid by the French Government because in effect, the Saar is a protectorate of France, and France handles the diplomatic and fiscal affairs of the Saar. GRIFFITH stated he was paid approximately $10,000.00 by the French Government for preparing this handbook on the Saar. He said that this sum was received in a number of payments, the last of which was received during 1954.

GHIFFITH said that all contacts he has had with the French Government in the past few years have been in connection with the preparation of this handbook. He said that while he had visited the French Consulate in New York City on quite a few occasions, he had never had an office assigned to him in the Consulate.

He said that in his relations with the French Government, he had dealt primarily with RCGER SEVEOUX, First Consul in Charge of Public Relations, French Embassy, Washington, D. C. He said that SEYDOJX is an old friend of his and they attended the French School of Political Science together. He said that SEYDOJX was personally interested in his handbook on the SAAK.

GRIFFITH said that in the course of conversation he had had with SEYDOUX, SEYDOUX had mentioned that he was intorested in Middle Eastern and Arab affairs. Consequently, GRIFFITH had furnished SEYDOUX carbon copies of reports on these matters, which he had previously prepared for Binai Birith. GRIFFITH stated that for some time, Binai Birith has been his principal client.

GRIFFITH stated that a few years ago, WITHE WILLIANS, an old newspaper friend of his, was working on a magazine publiched by the Egyptian Consulate, New York City, WILLIANS formished information to GRIFFITH relative to Egyptian affairs which he obtained in the course of his employment. GRIFFITH said he does not recall whether or not he paid WILLIANS for this information. He said that if he did pay WILLIANS, it was only a small sum. GRIFFITH said that he had never had any other source of information in the Egyptian Consulate, New York City.

GRIFFITH said that in about 1952-1953, a movie entitled, "This is the Saar" was prepared by the Saar Government. He said that this picture was objective and designed to stimulate interest in the Saar and promote tourist trade. Although this picture was not prepared for the purpose of publicizing the French point of view on the Saar question, it was not anti-French in any way. GRIFFITH said that he had nothing to do with the preparation of this motion picture.

He said that he arranged several television showings for this nicture, but does not recall the stations or dates. He said that he also used stills from the motion picture in his handbock on the Saar. GRIFFITH said he was not paid for arranging these television bookings and considered it part of his general assignment of preparing a handbook on the Saar.

SRIFFITH said that ANGELA BRAUN, a member of the saar Parliament, toured the United States on two occasions in 1953 and 1954. He said that she is an old friend of his, and that he entertained her and arranged public appearances for her.

GRIFFITH said that on another occasion, the editor of the most important paper in the Saar toured the United States and he assisted him in arranging this tour. GRIFFITH said that the name of this individual was SCHOLL-LATCOR.

GRIFFITH said that no received no compensation for services he rendered ANGLIA ELAUM and BUILDELARCUN and considered the services part of his assignment in connection with the preparation of the handbook on the Saar.

GRIFFITH stated he has been in frequent contact with the Bonn Government in Germany, relative to his handbook on the Saar and also in connection with his work for Binal Birith.

He said that Research Survey, Incorporated is a cover which he uses for all of his activities. He said that he has no employees and no one, except himself, works for Research Survey, Incorporated.

He said that an old friend of his family named ANNE HULL, 96 Grove Street, New York City, is authorized to sign checks for Research Survey, Incorporated. He said that she is not related to him in any way and has no connection with the business affairs of Research Survey, Incorporated. He said that he merely had her name placed on his checking account in order to facilitate the payment of bills when he is out of the country on his frequent trips.

GRIFFITH stated that his business address is 8 West 40th Street, New York City, and his residence is 176 Beach, 130th Street, Belle Harbor, Long Island, New York. GRIFFITH said he has no addresses other than those.

GRIFFITH stated that he has never used the alias "AL JONES". He said that he has used the name ALFRED SCHEFFER in connection with his work for Binai Birith. He said that he used this name with the permission of

March 14th, Monday evening, 6:00-9:20 P.M. activities in the office of the Committee To Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 B'way, were:

was asked to type four copies of a letter, from ACLU, to Mar. 10. He wrote that he had not set any time when he promised to review the case; that during the past ten years he had met many times with legal representatives; that he could not re-try the case. He said that ultimately he supposed he would recommend that the Board authorize a statement as to the position of ACLU, but he did not plan to do be this immediately; he did not think anyone should feel that ACLU was committed to make a statement or that innocence or guilt could be determined from such a statement. Mr_____ wrote that in a case of a clemency appeal, this was not a civil liberties case. He went on to say that only so much time and effort could be applied to any one case and countless hours and legal talent had gone into study of the _____ case todate. He did not think it his job to think up new legal tactics; that it was his opinion that there were many innocent people in jail and it was his job to get them out, and as quickly as possible; that one case in particular is that of _____. He said ACLU had set up motion in his behalf it he does not win his appeal against New Hampshire; that he was not expected to, and this would be known shortly.

A gray-haired gent came in for 30 pieces of each available piece of literature on the case. said he could not give him such quantities. He said his name was SANFORD GRIFFITH, a teacher at the New School and City College. He asked if he was_an_employee_of_the_Committee,_and replied that he was just a volunteer. He told the man to contact GRIFFITH also asked if when the Committee succeeded in freeing would it continue by using this case to reopen the one, and did not hesitate when he replied in the affirmative.

GRIFFITH. He described him as a prolitarian, who had 30 friends b7C interested in the case

This material was obtained from Mrs. Secretary to Congressionan DWYER on 11/21/60 by SA SETH F. EIKENBERRY and is got forth as folloys: "GRIFFITH, Sanford (alias SCHEFFER, Al, alias JONES, Al, alias MARTIN, John), Eorn at Eugeno, Orogon on February 17, 1893, the con of Robert Rabb and Josephine

Griffith; attended High School in Chicago, 1910; student at Dartmouth University; PhB Degree taken at University of Chicago, 1915; graduate of Ecole des Sciences Politique, Paris, 1917; married Katharine Boach Bennett on May 14, 1924 (she died December 27, 1934); children: Sanford Day,

"Poter and Erenda Griffith; commissioned Major of Infantry, U.S. Army in 1917; served with General Staff in France, later as liacon officer with 6th French Army and head of a sub-section of the staff of the 1st U.S. Army; member of Armistice Commission; lecturer on politics and economics; correspondent for N.Y. Herald in Rome, later Berlin, 1920-23; European representative and correspondent; Wall Street Journal and other Dew Jones publications, 1922-28; Dillon-Read & Co., 1928-30; engaged in underwriting brokerage & industrial research in New York, 1930-37; project director, marketing research, Miller-Franklin Co, 1938; president of Market Analysts, Inc., vice president, Morriman Emmister Co; wrote manual and instructed in various army camps; directed research project, U.S. Smaller War Plants Corporation during World War II.

"The above facts constitute statistics (with the exception of the aliases) published in 'Who's Who in America.' These are the facts which he is willing for people to know; Among the facts which he tries to hide are the following: clocely associated with Trotskyite communists during the 1920's; restrained by N.Y. Supreme Court in 1933 from 'making false pretenses and misrepresentations'; associated with the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, and the American Jowish Committee from about 1935 onwards; presently the Research Director of the A.D.L. and recently appointed by the New School For Social Research (an extremely left-wing), primarily jewish school) as the Director of the African Institute of that school.

"GRIFFITH'S OPERATIONS: In 1938, Griffith set up the corporation, Market Analysts, Inc, with the use of 'dummy stockholders' (so that real owners could be kept a secret). This business firm became a clearing center for the entire jewish apparatus in the U.S., and the center for anti-German activities; Griffith employed his own agents, kept his own files and operated in open violation of laws, employing such tactics as bribery, theft of documents, blackmail and fraud; the 'fruits' of his labors he would sell to one or more jewish agencies; during world war II, he became associated with an extremely pro-communist clique in the Department of Justice headed by one William P. Maloney, and thus Griffith wont also on the U.S. Government payroll and played a key roll in the trials of various German and Japanese agents; as early as 1933, he was endeavoring to infiltrate the German Consulate in New York.

З

"Since World War II, Griffith's job has been to spy upon American anti-communist and anti-jovish groups and individuals in the U.S., and to make periodic trips to Germany and Italy for the same purpose. The 'facts' obtained by Griffith, often admitted distortions and lies, have been used as the basis for several ADL books (including 'Cross Currents', on which profits of many hundreds of thousands of dollars were made. Griffith has played an open role in encouraging anti-semitic groups, oven giving them money to engage in 'crackpot' anti-semitism to that these groups could be used as 'targets' by jewish groups for fund-raising purposes.

"PERSONAL DATA. Griffith is married to an English Woman, considerably younger than himself, a blonde with a pronounced Eritish accent. Griffith spends several days per week in one of two apartments maintained by other persons in New York City and owns a home in Middletown, New York.

"FINANCIAL: Griffith's not worth is estimated at $50,000 to $75,000, including property owned. Hig yearly income, both from jewish agencies and from the New School For Social Research, is estimated at about $12,000 to $15,000. He is in a good financial position, but lives yery well, takes frequent vacations, etc.

"RACE: Anglo-Saxon, partly Welsh and partly middle-European. Although he has cortain jowish physical characteristics, it is my considered opinion that he has no jowish blood whatcoover, and cortainly no jowish race-feeling. It is doubted strongly that his present wife, is jowish either, but there is no definite information.

"HABITE-PERSCIALITY QUIRKE: does not smoke, drinks vory little. Talks a great deal and relishes 'gossip." Has a mooth, educated type of personality which is very disarming. It is simple for Griffith to 'charm' people and put them at their ease. He is an excellent conversationalist and speaks German, French and Italian well. His specialty is that of the agent proveatour and he is extremely clover at causing suspicion and disputes between people and at destroying organizations.

"SULMARY: Of his genuine likes and dislikes, little is known. No one knows the 'real' Griffith, probably not even himself. He is undoubtedly morally weak, hence "various thady' doals in the stock market and his willingness to stop at nothing to obtain material for his jewish employers; he will do anything for money, but it has to be highly paid; he is personable, shrewd and even appealing in his personality; but one must always remember that he is looking for comething and that he does not waste his time. He is on speaking terms with most of the 'American Nationalists' in the N.Y. area. Of these, most of then who care, know who and what he is. Sanford Griffith is the most clover, highly paid, unscrupilous jewish operator in the espionage field. The fact that he is non-jewish and motivated solely by considerations of personal gain, without ideals of any sort, makes him an extremely effective agent for his employers.

"During 1954, because of exposure of his activities in various articles, Griffith was heavily denaged with his employers. Where the ADL heretofore had denied any knowledge of Griffith, they were forced, during 1955, to acknowledge that he is functioning as their Research Director. Griffith presently maintains offices with the ADL at 515 Madicon Avenue, N.Y.C. He may be reached on the tolophone by calling the ADL."

Notes of GRIFFITH's speech word furnished by as follows:

"HIGHLIGHTS OF TALL GIVEN BY MR. SANFORD GRIFFITH BEFORE WEDNESDAY MORNING CLUB, CRANFORD, N.J., ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1960

"TOPIC: 'EUERGING AFRICAN PEOPLE AND OUR CONCERN FOR THEM. .

"Speaker is Director of African Institute of New School for Social Research. For 25 years has been visiting Africa. Today, there are flood of articles on Africa. In contrast to 350 Govt. civil servants there, Latin America has 3,000.

"Town of Wostport, Conn. Invited 100 African families (47 thus far accepted) to dinner and stay overnight which should be extraordinary experience for guests and hosts.

"AFRICA: oldest continent, 4 times size of U.S. with equal population. Revolutionary developments have been the radio and acroplane. Nost remote of villages may talk to one another, hear propaganda programs from anywhere. In the past, contact has been only with outside world i.e. the colonial powers. The scroplane has pulled Africa together.

"Geographically, roal barriers exist. An inaccessible continent, hunk of granito, barron rock, cliffs, weste, barron bush and swamp. 8 largo rivers are inaccessible from sea due to rapids. Traders dealt with coast people. not interior. Vast interior region unknown, population not actually known.

"There are 600/700 languages, barrier to communication. Missionarios found only 3 written, today 250 are in writing Colonials brought bonofits, one was common languages, French and English. No common African language. All are buny today trying to loarn nativo tonguos.

"Africa in suddenly very important to U.S. What we know about Africa has been from missionaries. Jungles, savages, Tarzan films is exotic unreal picture of African life. U.S. is concorned about not leaving a vaccuum for Russians to move into.

"Gonoral Probloms:

undovoloped countries with poverty, illitoracy and bad health. 9/10 can't read or write, with every conceivable allmont. Income $50. yearly average, primitive living, villages remote from one another. Their appetites for botter living have been aroused, villagers moving to towns to make monoy for past ton years has seen cities for first tico in Africa rosulting in slum conditions. Eociety of Europeans living in luxury contrasts with the extreme poverty of blacks. One African employed has to support numerous others, 5 million whites in Africa, resulting in tensions.

"Life for Women: Women are handicapped, childbirths constant. Increase in population tremendous. Cultures are Moslem in North Africa, and African. Moslem women have more freedom, upper and middle classes, lower class, purdah system. Africans want freedom but don't supply it to their women. Free world doesn't mean much to African.

"Storics of violonce were true but by troops in mutiny, practically none by civilians who are mainly peaceable. Congo violonce was reported in distorted unfair picture. Bolgiums, former residents, and missionaries are returning today.

"We can give what they need for humanitarian and selfinterest (political) purposes. Mass education needed, trade schools, Junior Colleges, middle lovel jobs.

"Summing up: Assistance through U.N. better than unilatoral
