9 page(s) were reviewed and 7 page(s) are being released.

- Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].
- This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.
- We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.
- In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following website: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

┌ The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

┌ See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy

- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information ( A ) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, ( B ) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, ( C ) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, ( D ) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, ( E ) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or ( F ) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

ABE FORTAS: WALTER W. JENKINS
[redacted] JACK JOSEPH VALENTI

[redacted] Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), has advised that captioned individuals are of interest to CIA because of certain sensitive operations and he requested any information contained in Bureau files concerning them. [redacted] stated that [redacted] of the White House staff has given approval for the FBI to release to CIA any information which has been sent to the White House regarding these individuals.

A review of Bureau files revealed the following information:

ABE FORTAS

Fortas was investigated by the Bureau under the Hatch Act in 1942, at which time he was director of the Power Division, Department of the Interior, based on his name appearing as a member of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action. This organization was later cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Fortas was interviewed by Bureau Agents under oath in 1942 and denied membership in the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, but admitted former membership in the National Lawyers Guild, which was cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. While at Yale Law School, from which he graduated with honors in 1933, acquaintances considered him a liberal but not communist. He has served as defense counsel for individuals and organizations whose loyalty has been in question, including the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, both of which organizations have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Attached letterhead memorandum prepared for dissemination to CIA contains this information. (101-1605-14)

WALTER W. JENKINS

Walter W. Jenkins has been President Johnson's administrative assistant for several years and is presently special assistant to him. The Bureau has had cordial relations with Mr. Jenkins in the past.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
Re: Abe Fortas, Et Al.

The Bureau conducted an applicant-type investigation concerning Jenkins at the request of the Atomic Energy Commission in 1958. No derogatory information was developed during the course of this investigation. Attached letterhead memorandum prepared for dissemination to CIA contains pertinent information. (116-435550)

BILLY DON MOYERS

Billy Don Moyers, also known as William Moyers, is presently Deputy Director of the Peace Corps, but is slated to become an assistant to President Johnson in the near future. In 1961, at the request of the Peace Corps, the Bureau conducted an applicant-type investigation and no derogatory information concerning him was developed. Results of this investigation were furnished to the White House. Pertinent information is being furnished to CIA in attached letterhead memorandum. (161-676)

JACK JOSEPH VALENTI

B. 9/5/21 Houston, Texas *(This data furnished by Cogan in liaison -
don't know his source)*

The "Washington Daily News" on 12/10/63 reported Jack Joseph Valenti as being President Johnson's newest confidential aide. This article revealed him to be a Houston, Texas, advertising and public relations executive. He married President Johnson's former private secretary in June, 1962, with President Johnson giving the bride away. A criminal informant of the Houston Office, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in June, 1962, that he had heard that one Joseph Lucia was reported to have paid a large portion of the wedding expenses, including plane tickets to Las Vegas, Nevada. This information has not been corroborated by any other source. Joseph Lucia is a top hoodlum in the Houston Division and is presently under investigation relative to the criminal intelligence program. This information is being brought to your attention only and is not being furnished to CIA inasmuch as our source had no first-hand knowledge thereof. Attached letterhead memorandum states that the Bureau has not conducted an investigation concerning Valenti and our files contain no pertinent information. (62-9-19-331)

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) Inasmuch as these four individuals are at the White House, it is recommended that Mr. DeLoach obtain White House approval for the Bureau to disseminate attached letterhead memoranda to CIA.

Another individual* who has a knowledge of gambling and similar activity in the Houston, Texas, area, advised he has known Mr. Valenti for about ten years. He described Mr. Valenti as a very hard-working and dynamic person and a very effective public speaker. He stated he is aware that Mr. Valenti and [redacted] are close personal friends. He stated further he is aware that [redacted] is a bookmaker but that he has never believed that Mr. Valenti in any way gambles with [redacted]. He stated further he knows for a positive fact that [redacted] did not contribute money to Mr. Valenti's wedding or his wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. He said, to his knowledge, the friendship between [redacted] and Mr. Valenti is purely social, and Mr. Valenti is entirely worthy and capable of holding any important post with the Government.

Several individuals, who may have knowledge of Mr. Valenti, are unavailable for interview. When they are interviewed, you will be advised.

The investigation of Mr. Valenti covered inquiries as to his character, loyalty, general standing and ability, but no inquiries were made as to the sources of his income.

Sincerely yours,
