I am also interested in obtaining active enlisted personnel and civilian employees who live in our District. While I realize there are regulations guarding the locations of our service personnel it is critically important for me to find a way to communicate with them directly and anything you could do to facilitate this would be appreciated. For our programmers to convert this information to our system, we would need either 1600, or 6250 BPI magnetic tape coded in EBCDIC or ASCII characters in standard IBM format - labeled or unlabeled tapes if provided on tape. If provided on diskette or CD, a standard database format such as ASCII delimited, excel or any other database program readable in Microsoft's excel software would be fine. In addition, we would need a complete file layout and an index of the meaning of file codes to assist in conversion.

08-F-0321	Holley, Ronald	USAF (Retired)	11/26/2007	11/27/2007	During my 27 year military career with the U.S. Air Force - I was assigned to the American Embassy, Dublin, Ireland between 1973 - 1979. As a member of the Air Force Veterinary Services - our group was responsible for the inspection of carcass beef and other products of animal origin throughout the Republic of Ireland - for shipment to the U.S. Forces within Europe. At the American Embassy in 1976 - our office was questioned/interviewed by several military officers and GS-12 civilian personnel from the Defense Logistic Agency (DLA). This event took place based on a documented problem "within the U.S." (see below) - involving Army food inspectors who were found to be taking bribes offered by military contracted meat packers. Some time after our interviews (recorded on audio tape) with DLA personnel - we were told that the report coming out of Ireland made its way to a Congressional Committee - the investigation and report was supposedly titled "Seven Seas." A similar investigation was supposedly conducted within the United Kingdom - involving military meat inspectors stationed there. Request
