MEMORANDUM TO: The Ambassador
FROM :
SUBJECT : Personal Mail

1. As you are aware, some personal mail for you continues to go to our Headquarters. In the interest of security, they are setting up procedures for handling such mail.

2. Any personal mail addressed to you will be referred to the Office of Security for examination by X-ray. In the event anything in an envelope appears suspicious, that envelope will be opened and its contents checked. The envelope will then be resealed in the Office of Security and forwarded to the Iran Branch Chief for pouching to me for personal delivery to you.

3. This procedure is designed to screen out anything that might constitute a risk to those handling mail addressed to you. We trust you will agree with this arrangement.
