Re: Freedom of Information Act Request (OIG Tracking Numbers 17-018)

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated December 27, 2016, in which you requested a list of all investigations closed by our Agency during calendar year 2016.

Upon review of the responsive material we are releasing, I determined you are entitled to portions of the requested material under the FOIA. The bases for any redacted or withheld information are Exemptions 3, 6, 7(C), 7(D) and 7(E) of the FOIA.

Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6), requires withholding of information that, if released, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Similarly, Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(7)(C), requires withholding of records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, where disclosure could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Additionally, information withheld pursuant to Exemption 3(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(3)(A), is specifically exempted from disclosure by a statute that requires that the information be withheld from public disclosure, specifically, the qui tam provisions of 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729 and 3730. Exemption 7(D) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(7)(D), was applied because release of that information could have reasonably been expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority of any private institution which furnish information on a confidential basis. Finally, Exemption 7(E) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(7)(E), permits the withholding of information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which "would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law."

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirement of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. §552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirement of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not exist.

You have the right to file an administrative appeal within 120 days of the date of this letter. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. The appeal must be in writing, include the GSA OIG FOIA Case Number (17-018), and contain a statement of reasons for the appeal. In addition, please enclose copies of the initial request and responsive document. The envelope and letter should be clearly marked as a "Freedom of Information Act Appeal" and addressed as follows:

Freedom of Information Act Officer
Office of the Inspector General, General Services Administration
1800 F Street, NW, Room 5332
Washington, D.C. 20405

If you would like to discuss our response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you can contact our FOIA Public Liaison Kenneth Sharrett for assistance at:

Office of the Inspector General, General Services Administration
1800 F Street, NW, Room 5332
Washington, D.C. 20405
