MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: AMPAID-4 - His Connection with the Committee of the Revolutionary Council of Cuba (CRC) - Preparation of the Rural ~~and Urban~~ Police Projects for the Future Cuban Police Forces.

1. In order to clarify AMPAID-4's position and connection with the Committee of the Revolutionary Council of Cuba (CRC), this is to inform that according to AMPAID-4 he is a member of the Public Order Committee, which is a unit within the Military Committee of the CRC. A Mr. Rolando ~~NOVOA~~ Salcines is the President of the Public Order Committee. All CRC matters concerning Police or Public Order are handled by the Public Order Committee.
2. Following a meeting held on 21 February 1962, NOVOA and AMPAID-4 were appointed by the Military Committee to prepare an organizational plan for the future ^{RURAL} ~~Urban~~ Police Force in Cuba. This task was completed and the completed plan was submitted to the Military Committee, who in turn submitted the completed plan to the CRC (Dr. Miro Cardona). According to AMPAID-4, Dr. Miro Cardona took ^{it} the proposed plan to Washington about three months ago and delivered ^{it} to some unidentified U.S. authorities in Washington. (AMPAID-4 does not know who the recipient was, but he believes that it may have been the Department of State). AMPAID-4 further states that he is knowledgeable of the fact that the ^{RURAL} ~~Urban~~ Police Project was returned to the CRC with some minor changes and suggestions and that the project was deemed acceptable.
