SUBJECT: RAIKIN, Spas T.

RI document 12-7-10-575 is an intelligence report on an airfield in Bulgaria, source of which was Spas Todorov RAIKIN, Zdravko Kostadinov DAMYANOV and Stefan Petrov PELETEKOV, three Trudovaks who on 6 May 1951 deserted their unit and made their way to Plovdiv and then to Greece.

The reason for their desertion was to join an alleged illegal group working in the mountains south of Plovdiv. Unable to make contact with the group they wandered around the mountains obtaining provisions from relatives and friends. Unable to hold out any longer they entered Greece on 19 June 1951.

Through interrogation it was learned that Spas Todorov RAIKIN was born 26 October 1922 in Zelenikovo. He is single and has two brothers, Petur and Stoyu, who are farmers in Zelenikovo. His father, Todor Petkov RAIKIN, is living and is also a farmer. Subject finished the Theological Seminary in Plovdiv and the Theological Faculty in Sofia. He then taught for one year on the Sofia Faculty. On 5 April 1950 he was called up for military service and assigned to Bezmer airfield until 22 December 1950 when his unit was transferred to Balchik airfield.

Subject's desire to desert was to join in the fight against communism in the name of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church. When he found it would be impossible to do so inside Bulgaria, he decided to escape to Greece and join such a church group there, if such existed. If none existed, he desired to form such a militant illegal church group to fight communism inside Bulgaria.
