Notes for the Record (I)

Subject: Meeting with ARRB Staff 4 August, 1995

Attendees: Jeremy Gunn
Mary McAuliffe
BoB Skwirot
Barry Harrelson

1. First part of meeting focused on action by the ARRB at the 2/3 August meeting. Gunn emphasize that the feedback he was giving me was unofficial and preliminary; that the staff had not complete its review of board actions. Action by the ARRB was taken on approximately 39 documents; a mix of "release in fulls", "release with redactions" and "tabled". These actions included:

A. LIENVOY released when context did not indicate [redacted] activities (at least 8 documents); I was given an advance list. References to LIENVOY in liaison context and the words [redacted] and [redacted] were postponed to the year 2017. Gunn stressed that the ARRB discussed each LIENVOY individually -- no blanket release or denial

[note: 7 of the 8 document were ones that HRG and DO reviewers had concluded did not indicated [redacted]]

B. True names -- replaced with alias/pseudo when known subject to re-review in December; one exception where the name was illegible.

C. LI-9 protected for 10 years; however would like more information re current risk. Gunn said the Board was having a problem with LI-9 due to amount of information in public domain (Newman's book). They appeared to accept the need not to release new information on LI-9 or his relationship with the CIA at this time, but there is a debate re postponing information that has been released in other documents. Gunn suggested a statement from LI-9 would be useful evidence.

D. They also ask for additional information re continuing to protect LITAMIL-7 and LIRING-3

2. The remaining "Mexico City" documents will be on the agenda for the ARRB meeting schuedule for 27/28 August. They plan to complete the Chrono and Lopez Report at that meeting.
