MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : John H. Waller
Inspector General
SUBJECT : Mr. George de Mohrenshildt
REFERENCE : Mr. de Mohrenshildt's letter to you, dated 5 September 1976

Action Required:

1. None. This memorandum is for your information. We have also attached at A a suggested draft reply to Mr. de Mohrenshildt's letter.

Action Taken:

2. We have reviewed DDO and IG files on Mr. de Mohrenshildt. In addition, at our request, the CI Staff has run Agency traces on him and has been in touch with the FBI as well.

Findings:

3. There is voluminous material on Mr. de Mohrenshildt in CIA files, most of it dating from the post-Kennedy assassination period when he testified before the Warren Commission on his acquaintance with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald. (A copy of the de Mohrenshildts' testimony is attached at B.)

4. The bulk of the material in our files consists of FBI reports, the most recent of which is dated 1967. The FBI has informed CIA that it has no traces on Mr. de Mohrenshildt beyond that date; our files contain all of its previous material on him.

E2, IMPDET
CL BY 055636

5. Mr. Helms' 3 June 1964 memorandum for the Warren Commission on the de Mohrenshildts is attached at C. It describes the Agency's interest in obtaining reports from Mr. de Mohrenshildt in 1957 as a result of his sojourn in Yugoslavia that year. Contact Division (now Domestic Collection Division - DCD) had its resident agent in Dallas, Mr. J. Walton Moore, contact Mr. de Mohrenshildt at that time. The history of Mr. Moore's relationship with Mr. de Mohrenshildt from 1957 to 1961 is also attached at C. As a routine matter, Mr. Moore requested traces on Mr. de Mohrenshildt. The trace results (attached at D) contained sufficient derogatory information to preclude further extensive contact with the de Mohrenshildts. (An OS summary on Mr. de Mohrenshildt prepared in response to the current request is also attached at D.)

6. Our files show that a mail cover was placed on letters addressed to Mr. de Mohrenshildt c/o the U.S. Embassy in Haiti from about 1964 to 1966. (This was probably not uncovered at the time of the external investigations.) This included opening and photographing the contents of some letters by the CIA Station there. The results of this operation were shared with the FBI.

7. Mr. de Mohrenshildt came to the attention of this office during the Rockefeller Commission investigations. We were asked to respond to a memorandum submitted to the Commission by Mr. Paul Hoch entitled "CIA Activities and the Warren Commission Investigation." Mr. Hoch called for an identification of Mr. J. Walton Moore's employment affiliation and asked what Mr. Moore knew about Oswald and what he may have told Mr. de Mohrenshildt about him. Our reply to the Rockefeller Commission is attached at E.

8. The most recent information we have on Mr. de Mohrenshildt comes from Mr. J. Walton Moore who was contacted in May and July 1976 by writers connected with the Reader's Digest, and with the Dial Press and the Dell Publishing Company. Both writers questioned Mr. Moore about Oswald and Mr. de Mohrenshildt. Mr. Moore's reports on these contacts are attached at F.

Conclusions:

9. Mr. de Mohrenshildt appears to have lead an adventurous and colorful life as a petroleum engineer and businessman. He is both well and poorly connected, and some of his associations in the past have raised serious questions. Certainly his relationship with the Oswalds has caused him considerable trouble and may have caused this Agency and the FBI to spend more time and energy on him in the past than was necessary.

10. Both the FBI and this Agency, however, had dropped their interests in Mr. de Mohrenchildt's activities by the mid-to-late 1960's. We speculate that any attention he is now receiving could either be from local authorities in Dallas or from media representatives on the trail of a warmed over story concerning the assassination of President Kennedy. We offer no proof of this conjecture beyond Mr. Moore's reports attached at F. What we can say is that we have found no indication that either CIA or the FBI has taken any active interest in Mr. de Mohrenchildt in recent years.

Dear George:

Please forgive the delay in my reply to your September 5th letter. It took time to explore thoroughly the matters you raised.

Let me say first that I know it must have been difficult for you to seek my help in the situation outlined in your letter. I believe I can appreciate your state of mind in view of your daughter's tragic death a few years ago and the current poor state of your wife's health. I was extremely sorry to hear of these circumstances.

In your situation, I can well imagine how the attentions you described in your letter affect both you and your wife. However, my staff has been unable to find any indication of interest in your activities on the part of Federal authorities in recent years. The flurry of interest that attended your testimony before the Warren Commission has long since subsided. I can only speculate that you may have become "newsworthy" again in view of the renewed interest in the Kennedy assassination and, thus, may be attracting the attention of people in the media.

I hope this letter has been of some comfort to you, George, although I realize I am unable to answer your question completely. Thank you for your good wishes on my new job. As you can imagine, I'm finding it interesting and challenging.

Very truly yours,

George Bush

<sup>o</sup>CIA info on De Mohrenschildts summarized and sent to Warren Commission

MEMORANDUM FOR : Mr. J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy

SUBJECT : George and Jeanne De MOHRENSCHILD

1. Reference is made to your memorandum of 31 March 1964 requesting any information on George and Jeanne De MOHRENSCHILD that is available in CIA files. Our review shows that the files contain reports received from other U.S. Government agencies, primarily the FBI, as well as some information developed by this Agency in 1957 and 1958. The review also produced references to information in the records of the Coordinator of Information and the Office of Strategic Services. According to the records of those agencies, George De MOHRENSCHILD had been considered for employment in 1942, but was not hired because he was alleged to be a Nazi espionage agent. No information developed by CIA (or its predecessors) before the assassination of President Kennedy had established any link between the De MOHRENSCHILDs and Lee Harvey OSWALD or his family.

2. CIA's initial interest in George De MOHRENSCHILD developed as a result of his sojourn in Yugoslavia in 1957 on behalf of the International Cooperation Agency (ICA). In that connection CIA headquarters sent a routine advisory to Mr. Dallas representative who called on the De MOHRENSCHILDs in the early part of December 1957. In the course of several meetings the CIA representative obtained foreign intelligence which was promptly disseminated to other federal agencies in ten separate reports. The Dallas representative continued informal, occasional contact with the De MCHRENSCHILDTS until the autumn of 1961. He has not seen them since that time, although he received a Christmas card from them during the holiday period following the assassination.

3. On the 23rd or 24th of November 1963, after the assassination, our representative in Dallas received a telephone call from one of his contacts who told him that several members of his firm had attended a social or a discussion group in January 1963 and that Lee Harvey OSWALD had also been there. Our representative immediately arranged for the FBI to contact the executive. It was later ascertained from the FBI, and from one of our own sources, that George De MCHRENSCHILD was present at the meeting and had introduced OSWALD to the group.

4. At CIA Headquarters the association between the De MCHRENSCHILDTS and the OSWALDS was noted for the first time in December 1963 when it was reported from Haiti that the De MCHRENSCHILDTS had appeared at the Embassy and volunteered information about their relationship with the OSWALDS. At about the same time the details of their association began to appear in reports made by other U.S. Government agencies engaged in investigating the assassination.

5. During the contact with George De MCHRENSCHILD late in 1957 and early 1958, his background was investigated. Inquiries produced a considerable amount of information about him and his activities, including allegations that during World War II he had engaged in espionage activities on behalf of the Nazis; that he was a member of the Communist Party; and that after the war he was sympathetic toward Communism and the U.S.S.R. The investigation was extended to Belgium where George De MCHRENSCHILD claimed to have lived from 1939 until 1946. His educational background and his work as a journalist were confirmed there. One record of arrest came to light: on 4 November 1931 he was sentenced by the Tribunal Correctionnel at Anwerp to eight days in prison on charges of resisting a police officer and to eight days imprisonment or a fine of 150 francs on charges of drunkenness and use of a false name. Sentence was suspended pending completion of a three-year probationary period.

6. Throughout his adult life, George De MOHRENSCHILD has used variations of his basic name, including such variants as Jerry de MOHRENSCHILD; Jerry von MOHRENSCHILD; George von MOHRENSCHILD; and George Sergius de MOHRENSCHILD. In like manner he also seems to have varied his former ethnic origin from Russian, to Polish, Swedish, Danish, and German. There appear to be two versions of his mother's maiden name: Alexandra LATOSKEY and Alexandra ZAPOLSKI.

7. FBI Special Agent, James F. MORRISSET, came to CIA on 16 March 1964 and reviewed this Agency's files on the De MOHRENSCHILDs.

TR
8. On 17 March 1964 the FBI furnished to this Agency a report dated 28 February 1964. The report provides details about one Yuri (George) De MOHRENSCHILD's contact with Fedor Aleksandrovich GARANIN, who was a Soviet diplomat in Washington, D.C. in 1946. In that report Yuri (George) De MOHRENSCHILD was described as a petroleum engineer who had worked in the Texas oil fields and in Venezuela. Concerning GARANIN, our records show that he has been a member of the Soviet State Security Service probably since the mid-1940's. He served in Cuba in 1943; after World War II he also served in the U.S., Hungary, and Finland. According to our records, the information about GARANIN and his association with the Soviet State Security Service has also been known to the FBI. (201-340678)

9. You may also wish to make inquiries at the Office of Naval Intelligence; the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, Department of the Army; the Department of State; and the Civil Service Commission because these departments also have information about George De MOHRENSCHILD.

1. I have known George de Mohrenshildt and his wife since 1957. My latest actual contact with them was in the fall of 1961, although I received a Christmas card from them during Christmas of 1953. The card mailed from Port-au-Prince and a copy of my acknowledgement is attached.

2. After our late President's assassination, either on the 23d or 24th of November 1963, I received a telephone call from Dr. Paul Reichertz, Director of the Socony Mobil Research Laboratory at Duncanville, Texas. Dr. Reichertz advised that members of his staff had attended some kind of social or discussion group in January 1963 at which Lee Harvey Oswald was present. No mention was made at this time of George de Mohrenshildt. I told Dr. Reichertz he should report this information to the local office of the FBI and he replied that he knew no one in the Dallas office of the FBI and asked if I would pass the information along for him. I called the FBI and they said they would send somebody out to talk to Dr. Reichertz. I made no effort to follow up on the matter with Paul Reichertz since I felt it was none of my business but during a visit with Maryann Duggan, <sup>SSX-F</sup> Librarian at Socony Mobil Research Lab and a good contact of mine for many years, she advised that she had heard that de Mohrenshildt had befriended Oswald after his arrival in Dallas and had introduced him to a study group on the USSR. CIT - USA acc - librarian

3. My initial contact with de Mohrenshildt was the result of a source lead from headquarters, dated 22 Nov 57, advising that George de Mohrenshildt had recently returned to Dallas after spending approximately a year in Yugoslavia on a job for the ICA. I called on de Mohrenshildt in early December 1957 and submitted a name check, dated 6 Dec 57. At that time, de Mohrenshildt gave me a copy of standard personal history form 57, which gives considerable biographic data, which I am enclosing.

At this time I saw and met Mrs. Jan de Mohrenschildt, a white Russian emigree from Shanghai. I saw the de Mohrenschildt's several times in 1953 and 1959. In late 1959 or early 1960, Mr. and Mrs. de Mohrenschildt went on an 18 month hiking trip through Mexico and Central America. An account of this trip, as taken from the 18 Oct 61 issue of the Dallas Times Herald, is enclosed.

4. In the way of a personal assessment, I would say that the de Mohrenschildt's are an interesting and unusual couple. This is, I believe, the second marriage for both of them. Mrs. de Mohrenschildt, who has been a successful dress designer, has a grown, married daughter, who is quite a fine artist. George de Mohrenschildt has several children by his first wife (reportedly a very wealthy woman now living in the Middle East). One of his children died of cystic fibrosis and George de Mohrenschildt has always been very active in the yearly cystic fibrosis fund raising campaign.

5. George de Mohrenschildt makes a good appearance. He is about six feet tall and weighs around 190 pounds. For a man his age, approximately 53, he keeps himself in good condition and is a bit of a physical fitness nut. He is a moderate drinker and when I last saw him, smoked a pipe. I would describe his personality as friendly and outgoing although I have heard him referred to as conceited. He reputedly has an eye for the ladies and I understand his interest does not go unreciprocated. He leads a somewhat unconventional life, plays tennis at 5 o'clock in the morning, he is rather outspoken, has a keen interest in international affairs and in social justice. By local conservative standards, he would be considered a liberal. His outlook on life is continental.

6. De Mohrenschildt is fairly well known in petroleum circles in Dallas. I only know of one good friend of his. This is (Col.) Lawrence Crlov (Retired) who is in the oil leasing business. The colonel and I both play handball. He mentioned the last time I saw him that de Mohrenschildt wanted him to come to Haiti to help him run a plantation and organize a company there. I believe that the de Mohrenschildt's left for Haiti in about February of 1963 but I am very vague on this point. If there is any additional information I can furnish, please let me know.

Subject was investigated by Federal Agencies in 1941, 1942, 1945, 1947, and 1957. The investigation reports as well as the files of other Federal Agencies reflect the following:

Between 1940 and 1942 Subject was considered to be pro-German and suspected of being a German propagandist and an espionage agent.

Several informants stated that Subject was in sympathy with the Communist form of government in Russia but knew of no un-American activities on the part of Subject. One informant advised in 1947 that Subject had definite Communistic tendencies.

Investigations failed to produce any legal competent evidence or witnesses to substantiate the reports that Subject had been pro-Communist or pro-Nazi.

Majority of informants consider Subject to be eccentric, irresponsible, conceited, an adventurer fond of exaggeration, and overly aggressive.

Subject has been known to associate with persons of questionable loyalty, reputation, and moral character.

Subject, when interviewed, admitted that he tends to exaggerate and advised that he thought the Communist form of government of Soviet Russia was the better form of government on the European continent, and that he had a great admiration for the Communistic form of government, but that that did not prevent him from having a stronger feeling of loyalty to the government of the United States.

CIA CONNECTION:

DE MOHRENSCHILD was security disapproved for OSS employment on 18 July 1942 because he was suspected of being a Nazi agent. On 13 August 1958 derogatory information was furnished the Contact Office who was interested in interrogating him as an alien contact. His second wife, Phyllis whom he married on 11 July 1948 and divorced 29 December 1949, was employed as a receptionist by a covert project (NCFE) from 1950 to 12 January 1951 when her employment was terminated. (Reason not given.)

Subject's brother, Dimitri S. VON MOHRENSCHILD, was approved on 11 April 1950 for exploitation as a contact for foreign intelligence purposes on a limited basis; not to receive classified information above confidential.

OS INDICES RESULTS:

continent; that he had a great admiration for the Communist form of government but that this admiration did not prevent him from having a stronger feeling of loyalty to the government of the United States.

A New York Times item for 12 December 1966 mentioned that George DE MOHRENSCHILD has been acquainted with Jacqueline KENNEDY's father, John BOUVIER, and mother, Mrs. Hugh AUCHINCLOSS, since Mrs. KENNEDY was a girl. The DE MOHRENSCHILD's were quoted as saying they were perhaps the only persons in the world to have known the families of both President KENNEDY and OSWALD.

Was J. Walton Moore connected with CIA? Was he connected with the Oswald case?

Answer:

Mr. J. Walton Moore was employed by CIA in the Contact Division office in Dallas during the early 1960's. His only contact with the Oswald case prior to the assassination is recorded in his 1 May 1964 memorandum to the Acting Chief, Contact Division, attached at Tab 8 (a typed version of the document is also attached because of the poor legibility of the original). He may have been involved in the Agency's effort to support the Warren Commission during the Commission's investigations. Mr. Moore has stated that he was never asked by Mr. de Mohrenchildt for advice concerning Oswald. We find no indication that there was ever any contact between Oswald and Mr. Moore.

1. On the evening of 13 July 1976, at about 2100, Mr. Richard Russell of the Dial Press and the Dell Publishing Company, came by my house. He advised that he was working on a book on the Kennedy assassination and that he understood I was a friend of George deMohrenshildt. He wanted to know if I had ever met Lee Harvey Oswald or if deMohrenshildt had ever suggested that I should see Oswald. I told him no on both counts and advised that I have not seen or talked with George deMohrenshildt since the fall of 1961.

2. Mr. Russell attempted to draw me into discussion of the Kennedy assassination which I avoided and wanted to know if I could give him the name of the chief of the CIA office in Mexico City in 1963. I told him I could not, and he said he could probably get the name from Mr. David Phillips. I do not foresee any adverse publicity as a result of Mr. Russell's visit but felt that it should be made a matter of record.

1. On 19 May 1976, Pam Butler, a research writer for Reader's Digest, called on the listed line. She identified herself as being with the Reader's Digest and said she was doing research for a book being written by Harry Epstein on the Kennedy assassination. She asked if I had ever talked to or met Lee Harvey Oswald. I told her I had not. She then asked if I had talked to George deMohrenshildt about Lee Harvey Oswald. After I told her that I would not discuss the matter, she said that she understood from deMohrenshildt that I had talked to him after he had returned from a trip to Yugoslavia. I neither confirmed nor denied this, and I told her again I would not discuss the subject.

2. I do not know if Ms. Butler actually talked to deMohrenshildt or not since the information she had could have been acquired from the Warren Commission Report.

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

I do know this man DeMohrenschildt.

I first men him in the early 40's. He was an uncle to my Andover roommate.

Later he surfaced in Dallas- (50's maybe)

He got involved in some controversial dealings in Haiti.

Then he surfaced when Oswald shot to prominence. He knew Oswald before the assassination of Pres. Kennedy.

I don't recall his role in all this.

At one time he had /or spent plenty of money.

I have not heard from him for many years until the attached letter came in.

I was going to forward this to DCE Security — but since it's a "Dear George" letter and from Texas, I thought I should run it through you on the off chance that it is an acquaintance of the Director.

Dear George Dallas Sept. 5th

You will excuse this hand-written letter. Maybe you will be able to bring a solution into the hopeless situation I find myself in.

My wife and I find ourselves surrounded by some vigilantes; our phone bugged and we are being followed everywhere. Either FBI is involved in this or they do not want to accept my complaint. We are driven to insanity by this situation.

I have been behaving like a damn fool ever since my daughter Nedra died four and three years ago. I

Fried to write, stupidly unsuccessfully about Lee H.
Swald and must have given to a lot of people - I don't know. But to punish all elderly man like myself see my highly nervous and sick life is really too much.
Could you do something to remove this net around us? This will be my last request for help and I will not annoy you any more.
Good luck in your important job.

Thank you so much.
Sincerely,
