| 1. This report is forwarded as an interim reply to paragraph three of Reference A concerning utilization of State facilities for the AMBUD medical cases requiring continued treatment. For Headquarters information, two of the three remaining cases are now being handled by local institutions and similar arrangements for the third are being investigated. 2. Following the death of [redacted] which was reported by References B and C, and the termination of all payments for Rolando POZO Greer as reported in Reference D, the remaining active medical cases consist of the following three Brigade 2506 individuals and one [redacted] case: a. [redacted] (201-290405): Subject is an Epileptic being treated as an out-patient by the Dade County Department of Public Health Anti-convulsive Clinic at no cost to JMWAVE. The doctors foresee no improvement and intend to continue attempts to control the seizures by medication. JMWAVE continues to provide Subject with a monthly payment of $225.00. b. [redacted] (201-284434): Subject is a mental case whose arrest in June 1964 for attempted murder resulted in a Dade County court commitment to South Florida State Hospital where he improved sufficiently for release in November 1964 to Jackson Memorial Hospital (a Dade County facility which handles welfare cases) for out-patient care which continues to be provided at no cost to JMWAVE except minor cost for drugs which totaled $35.00 | | | | |

In 1966. Subject receives a monthly payment of $250.00 from JMWAVE.

c. ⁰⁴ [redacted] ²³ (201-299101):

Subject is a serious mental case and the individual who continues to be treated by a private psychiatrist, Dr. Miguel A. Mora. The cost of treatment by Dr. Mora is paid by JMWAVE and at $25.00 per office visit the monthly expense averages $225.00. There have been no recent charges for drugs. Subject receives a monthly payment of $225.00 from JMWAVE and has successfully resisted previous efforts to disassociate him from Dr. Mora.

d. ⁶⁴ [redacted] (No record of 201):

Subject is a ⁶⁴ [redacted] case who suffers from advanced glaucoma and is nearly blind. He continues to receive periodic out-patient care at Jackson Memorial Hospital for which JMWAVE pays the cost of treatment and drugs. Subsequent to the last surgery on 13 September 1965 for removal of cataracts, there have been ten charges for treatment and/or drugs which total $95.00. Of this amount $62.00 was for seven items in 1966.

3. JMWAVE recommendations for disposition of the ⁶ [redacted] case will be forwarded following completion of the investigation of possibilities for treatment by State facilities as suggested in Reference A.
