The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

Reference Mexico City airtel 11/4/74.

The contents of this letter are relevant to referenced airtel setting out background concerning the possible reasons for subject's deportation. However, this is reported separately because classified confidential and not to be reported for dissemination.

[redacted] was requested to furnish any information they might have concerning subject's presence in Mexico and deportation. On 10/1/74 [redacted] advised that he had furnished some information which he believed originated with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) [redacted]

He believed this was done some weeks before subject was detained and deported. He did not recall exact circumstances but thought perhaps [redacted] who was coordinating with DEA at the time, might have asked him to do this. [redacted] advised that after subject was detained, [redacted] called them to notify them of the detention and that subject was going to be deported.

In subsequent contact, [redacted] said that this action was taken because subject was illegally in Mexico and that the action was based on any activities of a criminal nature which might be considered in violation of Mexican law. At one point [redacted] explained it by saying simply that the subject's papers were not in order.

On 10/2/74 [redacted] delivered a blind memorandum classified confidential dated 10/2/74 captioned "Information on Sam Giancana" as follows:

- 5-Bureau
- (1-Foreign Liaison)
- (2-Chicago) (92-349)
- 1-Mexico City

"On 23 May 1974 we asked [redacted] for information that they might have on Sam GIANCANA. [redacted]

(C) [redacted] it was believed that they might have some information on GIANCANA. We never received a reply to this request. In July 1974, however, our contact [redacted] told us that the Government of Mexico (GOM) was expelling GIANCANA from the country, to the United States, within 24 hours. (S) (C) [redacted]

"In meetings held with our contact on 23 August, 28 September, and 1 October 1974, we brought up the subject of GIANCANA. The contract said that the local immigration authorities had been seeking GIANCANA because he was in the country illegally. They finally located him in July, arrested him on the spot, and deported him the following day. The expulsion was not carried out on the basis of any specific information supplied by the US Embassy, nor were there any indications that he was engaged in any criminal activity here. Rather it was an internal GOM decision to expel an unwanted alien who was living illegally in Mexico. (S) (C) (u)

It is noted that this blind memorandum does not appear to document the previous information from [redacted] and is somewhat contradictory. (S) (C)

In further explanation 10/2/74 [redacted] said he now believes [redacted] had asked him merely to determine if [redacted] had any information on the subject since [redacted] believed subject may have been designated [redacted] as a [redacted] target." (C) (C) (C)

(C) He stated he did not believe that he had indicated in any manner to [redacted] that the embassy thought subject was involved in narcotics activities in Mexico. He did mention the possibility that because of emphasis being placed on narcotics by both governments, high Mexican officials might have reached the decision that subject should be expelled because of his widely publicized connections with the "MAFIA."
