Reference Miami letter to Bureau 8/5/66.

For completion of the Bureau and Miami files in this matter concerning MANUEL RAY RIVERO and his reported trip to Madrid, Spain, during June, 1966, (S) CIA Temporary Station Chief HARRY MAHONEY, who was in San Juan during the Caribbean Games in June, 1966, had furnished the following information:

During the Games, RAY had traveled from San Juan to Madrid, Spain, to meet with RAFAEL BONGO, a Cuban exile residing there whose brother JORGE was a member of the Cuban Delegation to the Games. CIA verified this travel of RAY. Upon his return MAHONEY contacted RAY and requested that any definite plans that RAY had be made known to representatives of the United States Government whenever they reached the formulated stage. MAHONEY confidentially advised that CIA would have an operational interest in RAY only if his plans became definite.
