PURPOSE:

To advise that representatives of Intelligence Division this date reviewed 693-page CIA document containing information relating to joint ventures involving CIA and other members of intelligence community in sensitive matters, and a specific request has been made for CIA to furnish this Bureau with copies of all material contained therein believed to have a bearing on FBI activities.

DETAILS:

By memorandum 6/24/75 you were advised that arrangements had been effected whereby a CIA representative would on 6/25/75 bring to FBIHQ a copy of the 693-page document containing a series of memoranda and reports prepared by CIA citing instances wherein CIA may have engaged in activities outside the perimeter of its charter. As you have been advised, members of the Senate Select Committee (SSC) have had prior access to this document and it contains numerous references to FBI-CIA joint ventures, some of which are of an extremely sensitive nature. CIA Director William Colby authorized a review of this document and agreed to this Bureau obtaining a copy of material contained therein believed pertinent to this Bureau's operations.

On 6/25/75, [ ] Executive Secretary of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group, appeared at Bureau Headquarters with the 693-page document divided into three packages. These
