LA 4350-C has departed Los Angeles for Las Vegas and is then going to Nassau and is not expected to return to Los Angeles until approximately 12/12/61. Informant will be interviewed as soon as possible thereafter and instructions in referenced airtel complied with.

Los Angeles <sup>is</sup> ~~is~~ affording this investigation constant attention and attempting to develop all facets of MATULA's activities in a logical manner. As many Agents as can be effectively used will be used as this investigation develops. Los Angeles is constantly alert to developing any information indicating Federal violations, including that of income tax. It is believed this investigation should be developed along with other pending investigations involving related associates and fields and Los Angeles is attempting to develop this investigation and these related investigations without jeopardizing results in related investigations currently under progress in Los Angeles Division.
