arrested and put to a lie detector test. But the CIA slipped him a pill that so disoriented him as to throw off the test and the matter petered out.

Also since the Bay of Pigs: Cubans were recruited in Miami to fight in the Congo. They were recruited to plant bombs at Expo 67 and on the U.S.- Mexican borders. (The objective was to punish Canada and Mexico for playing footsie with Fidel by discouraging tourism.) CIA agent [redacted] [redacted] was killed in a small plane crash while trying to smuggle $1 million in gems into the U.S.; the CIA hushed it up.

A Cuban explained how the Cubans got into Watergate: "They were used to us. When Bay of Pigs operatives like Hunt moved over to Watergate they sent for their old Cubanos. They work a little like a Mafia," he continued. "When they want to issue an anti-Communist contract or what looks like an anti-Communist contract, they contact us. We're reliable, intelligent, professional. And we're learning to keep our mouths shut. We're learning to live with this. And we fear the Company. We know the Company. The Company can drop a word and change your life. You don't get a job or a loan for your business, or you're in trouble
