1 The Chairman. The hearing will please come to order.

2 Mr. Bundy, would you please stand and take the oath.

3 Do you swear that the testimony you will give in this 4 hearing will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but 5 the truth, so help you God?

6 Mr. Bundy. I do.

7 The Chairman. Mr. Schwarz.

8 TESTIMONY OF McGEORGE BUNDY

9 Mr. Schwarz. Would you state your full name and address 10 for the record, please?

11 Mr. Bundy. My name is McGeorge Bundy. I live in New 12 York. My home address is 1040 Fifth Avenue.

13 Mr. Schwarz. And you are currently the Chairman or the 14 President of the Ford Foundation?

15 Mr. Bundy. The President of the Ford Foundation.

16 Mr. Schwarz. In the Kennedy Administration what position 17 did you hold?

18 Mr. Bundy. I was Special Assistant for National Secur-19 ity Affairs.

20 Mr. Schwarz. And you held that all the way through the 21 Kennedy Administration and for how many years in the Johnson 22 Administration?

23 Mr. Bundy. I held that office from the beginning of the 24 Kennedy Administration to the end of February 1966.

25 Mr. Schwarz. Prior to commencing work with the Kennedy

1 Administration, had you had anything to do with the Central 2 Intelligence Agency?

3 Mr. Bundy. I had a brother who worked for many years in 4 the Central Intelligence Agency. I occasionally talked with 5 members of the Agency during the forties and the fifties, both 6 about substantive questions of what one thought about the 7 conditions in the Soviet Union, and occasionally also about 8 efforts that they were then making to recruit talented 9 graduates of colleges.

10 Mr. Schwarz. You mentioned your brother. To put some-11 thing of a different kind in the record than we have gotten 12 recently, would you recount the position taken by Allan Dulles 13 in connection with the problem that your brother had in the 14 1950's.

15 Mr. Bundy. Well, my brother came under attack from 16 Senator Joseph McCarthy. And the ground was, as I recall 17 it, in general that he had been a friend and supporter of 18 Alger Hiss and was therefore not to be trusted in a place 19 as sensitive as the Central Intelligence Agency.

20 Allan Dulles -- and my impression is that this was 21 quite characteristic of him -- took an extremely firm stand 22 on this matter, and stood by his estimate that my brother was 23 in fact in no sense a security risk, rather, to the con-24 trary. And the defense was successful, and my brother 25 continued in the Central Intelligence Agency until the Kennedy

1 Administration came in, at which time he moved over to the 2 Defense Department.

3 Mr. Schwarz. We have indicated to you that we are going 4 to discuss the countries of Cuba, the Dominican Republic and 5 Vietnam, although not much on Vietnam. And the majority and 6 minority staff have shown you some documents of that period, 7 some 15 years ago. Before I get to those three countries, 8 I would like to ask you some questions about a subject 9 called Executive Action. Have you ever heard of the subject 10 called Executive Action?

11 Mr. Bundy. Yes, I have.

12 Mr. Schwarz. When did you first hear of it?

13 Mr. Bundy. Well, as I have told your staff, that is a real 14 difficulty for me, because I cannot pinpoint the time at 15 which I heard of it. My impression was that it was some time 16 in the early months of 1961.

17 Mr. Schwarz. And do you have a recollection as to the 18 context in which you heard about it, the person from whom you 19 heard about it, and will you provide to the Committee your 20 full recollection of the subject of Executive Action in the 21 early 1961?

22 Mr. Bundy. Would it help if I try to describe in a 23 general way what I now understand of this matter, the 24 part which is recollection and the part which is clarified 25 by discussions with the staff and what I now think about it?

1 Mr. Schwarz. Would you distinguish, though, the part 2 that is recollection and the part that is based upon other 3 matters?

4 Mr. Bundy. That is exactly what I would like to do.

5 The part that is recollection is very vague. And I
6 would say that I have no recollection of more than one conver-7 sation on this subject. And the impression that sticks in 8 my mind is that I was told about it in a general way. And 9 it was described to me as an effort to study through the 10 possibilities by which one might act against an individual 11 in a context other than that of espionage and counter-espionage, 12 a context more political.

13 Mr. Schwarz. When you say "act against an individual", 14 act in what fashion?

15 Mr. Bundy. Act in a variety of fashions, as I recollect 16 it, but up to and including killing the individual.

17 The two things that I think are clear in my recollection 18 about that -- three -- one, that it was a concept presented 19 or described to me -- I was in effect being briefed on it.

20 Two, that it was entirely an untargetted -- that it 21 was in no sense a plan to do anything to anyone.

22 And third, and I think quite important, that it was 23 not an operation which had any specific target.

24 Mr. Schwarz. You said you were in effect briefed on it.
25 By whom?

1 Mr. Bundy. That is what I don't know. I cannot 2 recollect who it was. And I think it inappropriate to guess 3 when I have no recollection.

4 Mr. Schwarz. What time? I don't mean what time of day, 5 but what time?

6 Mr. Bundy. As I say, sometime I think in the early 7 months of 1961. And searching memory is an uncertain busi-8 ness, but it sticks in my mind that I heard about it in the 9 rooms of the Executive Office Building. And that 10 would place it in time, because I moved from the Executive 11 Office Building to the West Basement of the White House sometime 12 after the Bay of Pigs, perhaps in May.

13 Mr. Schwarz. So based on that fact you place it in 14 time sometime prior to the Bay of Pigs and sometime after-- 15 Mr. Bundy. After my arrival in Washington.

16 Mr. Schwarz. And when did you arrive in Washington?

17 Mr. Bundy. About the 10th of January. I would place 18 it more closely, because I think it was after I was in the 19 Office of the Special Assistant, which, of course, was occupied 20 until the 20th of January by others.

21 Mr. Schwarz. So you place it after the 20th of January, 22 but before the Bay of Pigs, which was April 14 or 17?

23 Mr. Bundy. That is right.

24 Mr. Schwarz. Did it come up in a context where you 25 urged that such a capacity be created?

1 Mr. Bundy. No.

2 Mr. Schwarz. What context did it come up in?

3 Mr. Bundy. It came up in a context in which it was being 4 described to me by someone else. And that is really about 5 as far as I can take it with precision.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Was it described to you by someone else 7 as a capacity in being?

8 Mr. Bundy. As a capacity -- and this is not something 9 I want to be too certain about, Mr. Schwarz, but my recollec-10 tion would be that it was a capacity coming into being.

11 Mr. Schwarz. Now, receiving that information, did you 12 take any steps to discourage or dissuade the person, whoever 13 it was, who was describing to you the capacity coming 14 into being?

15 Mr. Bundy. What I recollect is that I was satisfied with 16 the description I received on two points.

17 First, that this was not an operational activity, and 18 would not become such without two conditions: first, that 19 there be a desire or a request or a guidance that there 20 should be planning against some specific individual; and 21 second, that there should be a decision to move against an 22 individual.

23 Being satisfied that these two things were not happen-24 ing -- and I am now giving you a reconstruction rather than 25 a precise recollection -- I am confident that what I did was

1 to place this notion in the category of hypotheticals, of 2 things with no current urgency to them, and in that sense 3 not a question that cried for attention in the sense that 4 so many others did. If I may make a straightforward compari-5 son, we were, I think, even before the inauguration, but 6 certainly very quickly thereafter, very heavily engaged in 7 a real question of choice, which was the question of choices 8 around what would you do with the Cuban brigade which led 9 eventually to the Bay of Pigs. And that occupied a very 10 large amount of time and attention, as did the crisis in Berlin 11 and the crisis in Laos.

12 In the same period there were briefings on contingency 13 plans for the uses of nuclear weapons, other weapons, and a 14 whole swarm of, sort of, and here were reports that came 15 naturally to the Special Assistant's office, which was also 16 being reorganized.

17 So, I think that what I did was simply to put this one 18 aside. I cannot claim to have thought about it seriously, 19 because it was in the flow of business that would come to the 20 Special Assistant's office.

21 Mr. Schwarz. I want to see if we can be more precise 22 on dates to check on what other evidence we have. We have 23 other evidence that discussions of this matter were going 24 on in the Central Intelligence Agency on the 25th and 26th 25 of January 1961.

1 Now, are you able to testify with respect to the likeli-
2 hood of the conversation you have recounted taking place
3 prior to the 25th or the 26th of January 1961.

4 Mr. Bundy. I would rate it very, very unlikely.
5 This is a matter I have thought about since you did mention 6 those dates to me. And I would say that the chance that 7 within the first four days after being sworn in I would have 8 been drawn to consider this question is, from my side, as 9 near zero as I can put it. I had been teaching international 10 relations over a period of ten years. I was deeply interested 11 in many of the immediate problems, most notably the problem of 12 the crisis in Berlin and the concomitant question of relations 13 with the Soviet Union. And I was preoccupied with all of 14 the things that happened when you moved to Washington from 15 helping the Secretary to buy a house, and working out a 16 staff, and I was under instruction from the President to 17 reorganize the White House National Security staff. This 18 subject was far out of my mind, and I would not have brought 19 it up. I doubt that anyone would have brought it to 20 me in those early days.

21 The Chairman. May I interrupt for a moment.

22 As I understand your testimony, Mr. Bundy, you were 23 briefed on the concept of Executive capability sometime early 24 in 1961, and you can't remember now who it was who briefed you.

25 Do you recall whether or not you instructed anyone at

TOP SECRET

1 the CIA to develop such a capability?

2 Mr. Bundy. I am sure I gave no instruction. But it is 3 only fair to add that I do not recall that I offered any 4 impediment after I was briefed.

5 The Chairman. But your best recollection is that some-6 body told you that such a capability was being developed?

7 Mr. Bundy. I don't want to be too firm on that, but that 8 would be my best recollection.

9 The Chairman. We received testimony from Mr. Bissell.
10 Are you acquainted with Mr. Bissell?

11 Mr. Bundy. Yes, sir. I have known him a long time, and 12 he has been a great friend of mine.

13 The Chairman. Mr. Schwarz, - since you are very familiar 14 with the record, are you going to take Mr. Bundy through the 15 record of Mr. Bissell's testimony?

16 Mr. Schwarz. Mr. Bissell testified --

17 The Chairman. And we have the transcript. If it would 18 be helpful for Mr. Bundy to look directly at the transcript.
19 I think he should have it.

20 Mr. Schwarz. Mr. Bissell's testimony was, first, that 21 in the first instance he said he did not recall any specific 22 conversation. Then, however, he said, after having reviewed 23 certain notes by Mr. Harvey, he concluded that if Mr. Harvey's 24 note indicated, as they did, that he, Bissell, told Harvey 25 in 1961 that he had been twice urged by the White House to set

1 up an Executive Action capability, then he had no reason to 2 doubt that testimony. And then he went on through a series 3 of comments to end up saying that he would have been given 4 that urging by either Rostow or Bundy, more likely Rostow.

5 First, let's focus on Rostow. Was Rostow involved in 6 the briefing?

7 Mr. Bundy. No -- now, that I can't tell you out of my 8 recollection, but only out of my knowledge of the way the 9 office was organized. The first things we did, Walt Rostow 10 and I, was to work out an informal but nevertheless reasonably 11 clear-cut division of labor. And the whole business of 12 what I thought of as special group business, namely, matters 13 that related to covert action, and would, if they came for 14 division, come through the special group, fell on my side 15 of that division. I don't recall that Mr. Rostow was ever 16 involved in any matter of this sort.

17 The Chairman. It is fair to say that this was Mr. Rostow's 18 testimony.

19 Mr. Schwarz. Mr. Bissel is, as you say, a friend of 20 yours of long standing, and still is a friend of yours?

21 Mr. Bundy. Yes, he is.

22 Mr. Schwarz. We have his testimony which, while it did 23 have gradations within it, ended up saying that 24 he believed either you or Mr. Rostow urged him to set up the 25 Executive Action capability. And you have testified that the

12

1 fact is that you were given a briefing, and you didn't urge it, 2 but on the other hand you didn't say it should stop.

3 How can you explain, if you can, the testimony of your 4 friend Mr. Bissell, and the contrast between that and 5 your testimony?

6 Mr. Bundy. Well, as I understand Mr. Bissell's testi-
7 mony -- and I should add, so that there will be no misunder-
8 standing, that I have not only the advantage of discussions with 9 you, but I have talked with him about it -- as I understand 10 that testimony from that conversation, he was trying to ex-11 plain a situation in which he had no reason to question an Agency 12 history to the effect that he first gave instructions on this 13 matter in February 1961. And in that context -- and he had 14 no reason to question the report that he had received 15 White House encouragement -- it is in that context that his 16 speculations about Mr. Rostow and about me seem to fall.

17 I would be surprised, if his memory were refreshed
18 with respect to the dates of January which you have des-19 cribed to me, if he were to believe that any initiative in 20 this enterprise would come in the first instance from the 21 Kennedy Administration.

22 The Chairman. Mr. Bundy, our transcript of the 23 Bissell testimony makes it clear that Mr. Bissell himself 24 does not dispute the documented record. He said in effect, 25 if Harvey says that I told him that I had been twice instructed

1 by the White House to develop an Executive capability, I 2 have no basis on which to dispute that record.

3 Then when we asked him, very well, who in the White
4 House told you, and when were you told, he replied, it 5 must have been early in 1960, and I don't recall who told me, 6 but it must have been either Rostow or Bundy.

7 He then recounts that he had numerous conversations 8 with both of you during the period, and concludes that the 9 instruction must have come either from you or from Mr. Rostow.

10 Now, Mr. Rostow tells us he never gave such an instruc-11 tion, and in fact has no memory of every having discussed 12 such an instruction.

13 Mr. Bundy. He would have in fact have had no authority 14 to give such an instruction.

15 The Chairman. That is right.

16 And he pointed that out.

17 Mr. Bundy. And in fact I wouldn't have the authority 18 to give any such instruction, and I would have been only 19 the channel to give such instruction.

20 Senator Baker. Who would have had the authority?

21 Mr. Bundy. If the authority were required outside the 22 AGENCY it would have to have been the President himself.

23 The Chairman. What I would like to ask you --

24 Mr. Bundy. Could I continue with Senator Baker's 25 question for one second.

1 My own impression as to this matter -- and I have already 2 testified to the fact that I am relying on a recollection of 3 a meeting of which there is no record -- is that had I been 4 briefed on this essentially hypothetical internal, undirected
5 character, it did not appear to me to be a matter that required 6 further authority outside the CIA. That may or may not have 7 been right, but that is the quick judgment I appear to have 8 reached. Because I certainly did not raise the question with 9 others.

10 Senator Baker. Do you recall that, Mr. Bundy, or is that 11 your surmise?

12 Mr. Bundy. That is my reconstruction more than my -- 13 I know I did not raise it, I did not press the question, and 14 I did not feel, therefore, that it was a question that needed 15 further analysis, and it did not, so far as I know, get 16 further consideration in the White House. My own recollection 17 is that I didn't hear the words again in any serious con-18 text that I can recall until this year.

19 The Chairman. And you cannot recall who it was who 20 briefed you?

21 Mr. Bundy. I really cannot.

22 Mr. Schwarz. Can you narrow the field?

23 Mr. Bundy. I can narrow the field. It would have to have 24 been a senior officer at the Agency, or someone with previous 25 understanding in the White House. I have no reason to suppose

1 that it was the latter, but I cannot exclude that.

2 The Chairman. Might it have been Bissell himself?

3 Mr. Bundy. It surely might have been.

4 The Chairman. Based upon your best recollection of that 5 briefing, you have already testified that you interpose no 6 objection?

7 Mr. Bundy. I am pretty sure I satisfied myself as to 8 the character of the enterprise. But I did not interpose an 9 objection.

10 The Chairman. Do you recall, then, having reported the 11 briefing to the President?

12 Mr. Bundy. No, I don't.

13 The Chairman. Did it strike you -- before I ask that 14 question, based upon your best recollection of the briefing, 15 were you told that this was a new capability that was being 16 developed, or were you told simply that the Agency possessed 17 such a capability?

18 Mr. Bundy. I would put it that the Agency was working on 19 such a capability, but without any great sense of precision.

20 The Chairman. Were you given the impression at 21 that briefing that the Agency was seeking your authority or 22 the authority of the White House?

23 Mr. Bundy. I think they were testing my reaction, as 24 I now look back on it. But I do not recall that they were 25 seeking authority. If it had come to me as a matter of White

1 House authority, I know from the context -- my own concept
2 of my job what I would have done.

3 The Chairman. What would you have done?

4 Mr. Bundy. I would have had to take the matter to the 5 President, because I had no independent authority.

6 The Chairman. And you have testified that you did not 7 take the matter to the President?

8 Mr. Bundy. As far as I can recall, Mr. Chairman.

9 The Chairman. Well, this is a subject dealing, as it 10 does, with the development of a capability to kill that would 11 have been of the character that if you had been asked for 12 authority you would have discussed with the President?

13 Mr. Bundy. That is right.

14 The Chairman. And furthermore, is it not a subject of 15 a character that you would be very likely to recall?

16 Mr. Bundy. If I had been asked for authority I would 17 recall it. If I were the initiating or deciding agent, I 18 would recall that I had had that role.

19 You speak of the seriousness of it. It deals with a 20 capability to kill. One of the sobering facts about coming 21 into the government from outside into a sensitive position 22 like that one is the number of things on which you are briefed 23 which deal with the capability to kill. Contingency plans 24 for protecting West Berlin, contingency plans for the use of 25 nuclear weapons -- shelf plans, a shade more remote, perhaps,

1 for the use of different kinds of gases -- an operational plan 2 for the invasion of Cuba -- these were uncertainties as to 3 whether there would have to be military landings in Laos. In 4 the context of 1961 -- and I am not in any sense trying to un-5 derstate the seriousness of the context of 1975-- this was a 6 hypothetical kind of a thing with two strong locks between 7 it and any decision. And I simply didn't pay it the attention
8 then that we are paying to it now. We are right to pay 9 that attention now.

10 The Chairman. I understand that very well. And this 11 Committee is endeavoring in every way it can to place this 12 whole issue within the context of the time. Nevertheless, we 13 are faced with a very real dilemma. We know that at the very 14 time you were being briefed the Agency was not only interested 15 in developing a capability, but was in fact engaged in a 16 series of attempts to assassinate Castro, and had been in-17 volved in other murder plots and murder attempts against the 18 leaders of certain foreign governments.

19 The question we are endeavoring to answer is whether 20 the Agency had been authorized by the policy makers of the 21 government to engage in this activity, or whether it was 22 operating fast and loose on a wild gambit of its own in an 23 area of extreme sensitivity that could have the most serious 24 repercussions upon the government of the U.S. and its 25 reputation in the world.

5 The Chairman. -- a man whose credibility as a witness 6 would seem to have to be respected -- that he was at least 7 engaged in developing such a capability on direct instructions 8 from the White House.

9 But when we pressed him for specifics, his testimony 10 becomes very vague. He can't remember just who it was who 11 told him, he can't dispute the record, which says that in effect 12 he so advised Mr. Harvey when he engaged Mr. Harvey to develop 13 the capability. And everyone else of high authority in 14 the Administration that we have questioned so far testifies 15 that it was not the policy of the Administration to engage in 16 assassination, and no such attempts were ever authorized, 17 and indeed, with the exception of one occasion in the Special 18 Group, the subject never even surfaced for discussion.

19 And when it did, if it did, it was quickly shot down.

20 Nevertheless, the CIA was in fact embarked upon such 21 attempts during the period under review.

22 Now, we are led to conclude either that we are not 23 being told the truth concerning the policy of the Administration, 24 which is very hard for me to accept, given the reputation of 25 the witnesses that have come before us, for integrity and

1 truthfulness, or that the CIA was running wild, and acting on 2 its own initiative, engaging in murder plots, murder attempts, 3 and not informing, let alone securing the authority from,
4 those in government who held the responsibility, which in a way 5 is even more frightening.

6 Now, you tell us that you remember being briefed. You
7 don't remember advising the President. It didn't seem too 8 important at the time. Did you ever follow up on whether such 9 a capability had in fact been perfected by the agency?

10 Mr. Bundy. I don't recall pursuing the matter at all, 11 Mr. Chairman, any more than I would have pursued any other

13 either from below or above.

14 If I may go back and comment on one aspect of your, 15 I think, important and impressive description of 16 the difficulty the Committee faces, I am sure that if in the 17 early months of 1961 I had known what I now know, in part from 18 the newspapers and in part from discussions with your staff, 19 about what was really in train, I would have had a very 20 different approach.

21 Senator Mondale. Mr. Chairman.

1 that the question of assassination occurred. And, Mr. Rusk 2 said, did you think anyone would bring that up at a town
3 meeting? And by that I gather he meant that these meetings 4 had large attendance from all different groups and principles 5 and staff assistants and so on, and as a result, if there 6 were matters of exceeding delicacy, that was not the forum 7 at which such matters would be discussed.

8 Would you comment on that?

9 Mr. Bundy. Yes. My impression would be that the 10 Secretary was probably referring to the much discussed meeting 11 of August 10, 1962.

12 Senator Mondale. Right.

13 Mr. Bundy. That was a large meeting, 16 or 18 people.
14 And the comment seems to be pertinent to that meeting. The 15 Special Group as such, the one which I would have had in 16 mind, for example, in early 1961, was set up under a national 17 security regulation of some sort whose number was 54/12.

18 Senator Mondale. That was the Special Group.

19 Mr. Bundy. That was the Special Group. And the Special 20 Group in and of itself was quite a small group.

21 Senator Mondale. But people would volunteer to attend --

22 Mr. Bundy. No.

23 Senator Mondale. They would not?

24 Mr. Bundy. No. The meeting of August 10 is a very 25 special meeting in a variety of respects. That included --

21 It was therefore in a sense much more than an ordinary 22 MONGOOSE meeting, let alone a Special Group meeting. And 23 while I quite agree with the Secretary that that meeting as 24 a planning session for anything as horrendous as assassina-25 tion is implausible in the extreme. Quite serious covert

1 actions were discussed in the Special Group. And as your 2 Committee pursues its studies of covert action it will find 3 that that group is the nodal point for policy decisions, good 4 or bad, well or badly handled. And that was quite a small 5 group.

6 Senator Mondale. The reason I ask that is that it seems 7 to me that the Chairman's question pursues the two alternatives, 8 either what we now know to have occurred was ordered at the 9 highest level, or at a very high level, such as the Special 10 Group Augmented, or they operated on their own, in which case 11 they were out of control and irresponsible, or there was some 12 extra communications system that went around the formal struc-13 ture that we have been examining, and would account for the some-14 of authority that these operators testified to when they 15 were with us.

16 Now, their testimony was not very specific. They said, 17 we thought we had authority, and we think we heard from 18 somebody, and so on.

19 What are the changes, based upon your experience, that 20 there was such extra official communications and order passing

21 Senator Baker. Before Mr. Bundy answers, I might say 22 to Senator Mondale that I am struck by the first paragraph 23 of the Inspector General's report, which we don't have here 24 now, I don't believe, but as I remember it, it says, it is 25 difficult to reconstruct history of assassination plots, because

1 of the high sensitivity of the subject matter, no written 2 records were kept, and it was not discussed at open meetings.
3 That is generally what was said. And it seems to me that is 4 implying, then, that as a matter of policy there was no 5 formalization of this sort of communication.

6 I am sorry to interrupt.

7 Senator Mondale. Yes.

8 And in that August 10 meeting two or three principals 9 testified that it did come up. And in fact it is not reflected 10 in the notes.

11 Mr. Bundy. Perhaps the best way for me to begin at least 12 with an answer to your question is to describe my 13 own sense -- my own understanding of the way in which covert 14 operations of all types were brought forward. And this was 15 perhaps the most important and the most constantly reiterated 16 fact of the process that I was exposed to when I began to 17 consider this whole range of subjects on coming to Washington.
18 And whether it was with Mr. Gordon Gray, my predecessor, or 19 with Allen Dulles, or with incoming and outgoing friends in 20 the Department of State, or with Mr. Bissell, or with anyone 21 else concerned with these matters, what I learned then and 22 what I applied throughout my time there to the best of my 23 ability was that all covert operations, whether intelligence 24 operations, clandestine political activity, and clandestine 25 propaganda activity, and clandestine subversion, or sabotage,

24

1 which did occur in the case of Cuba, all of them took their 2 authority from and came for their authority to the 54/12
3 group.

4 And when there was a question in such a meeting as to 5 whether the matter required further judgment, it was the 6 responsibility of the Chairman of that group to make sure that 7 that was checked out.

8 The papers will usually say, higher authority, et cetera, 9 et cetera, and the President's name will often not appear -- 10 any more than the precise character of the operation is likely 11 to appear in the minutes for the reasons that Senator Baker 12 has spoken of.

13 But I never knew of any operation of this kind of any 14 sort, with one exception, which is quite different, which did 15 not have that channel. The exception is the Bay of Pigs, 16 which was so big, so complicated, and overflowed in so many 17 directions, and in which the President himself was involved in 18 so many ways, as he fully recognized and explained at the time, 19 that it did not go through this Committee process, it went 20 through a quite Presidential process, and everybody involved 21 knew that.

22 But with that one exception, I would have told you up 23 until the beginning of this current public discussion, that 24 was the way it went, and that nothing went outside it, and 25 that the Agency and the Defense Intelligence Agencies, with

1 and he said he found it incredible to believe that they 2 would have gone around the Special Group Augmented with such.

3 Mr. Bundy. General Taylor, of course -- and this is an 4 important point -- was appointed to this responsibility after 5 the Bay of Pigs, after a review of the failures that led to 6 the Bay of Pigs, and after a conclusion had been reached that 7 it would strengthen the White House to have a man with a parti-8 cular responsibility for the oversight of intelligence opera-9 tions. He was called military representative to the President, 10 but in the announcement of his appointment -- I happened to 11 look it up the other day -- President Kennedy made it clear that 12 he would be his representative for intelligence matters.
13 And he did in fact take over the chairmanship during the time 14 that he was military representative of all of the Special 15 Groups, 54/12, the Special Group Counterinsurgency, and the 16 Special Group Augmented, MONGOOSE. And when he said -- 17 if he has testified that his expectation would have been 18 that nothing was going to go around him, he is saying exactly 19 what I thought through the same period.

20 Senator Baker. Mr. Chairman, in that respect --

21 The Chairman. Before I forget the question, let 22 me ask, since you were at the August 10 meeting, and since 23 we have received testimony buttressed by certain documentary 24 evidence that the subject of assassination of Castro did 25 come up at that meeting, do you have any recollection of

2 Mr. Bundy. I don't recollect the meeting. And I 3 don't recollect the subject ever coming up in a meeting of 4 that size, or indeed in any -- I don't have any recollection 5 of it coming up, although I do have a general recollection of 6 there being times at which this possibility was heard of. I 7 wouldn't want to testify that I never heard anyone say, 8 there is somebody thinking about this, because that would be 9 different from my vague recollection.

10 But I have no recollection of that meeting, and there-11 fore none of any specific statement made by anyone in it.

12 The Chairman. Senator Baker?

13 Senator Baker. In that connection, before I go to the 14 question I had in mind, is it fair to say, Mr. Bundy, that 15 all, or virtually all, of your testimony this morning, about 16 MONGOOSE, about the August 10 meeting, and about the general 17 situation, is from reconstructed memory rather than first 18 impression memory?

19 Mr. Bundy. I didn't want to go that far, Senator Baker.
20 My knowledge, my sense of what 54/12 and Special Group 21 Augmented were, and where they stood in the line of authority, 22 is very clear, and is not reconstructed. I spent five 23 years -- except for the time when General Taylor was there, 24 I was the chairman of these things.

25 Senator Baker. Let's take a piece at a time, then.

3 Mr. Bundy. I must say that if I had known that was its 4 name I would have looked harder, Senator Baker.

5 Senator Baker. It is a fairly picturesque name -- as 6 to Executive Action Capability, or ZRRIFLE, do you have a 7 separate recollection?

8 Mr. Bundy. I have a recollection of what I think of 9 is one, I don't want to say there wasn't more, but of 10 one discussion of the matter. And I know I was informed of 11 it in some fashion at the time.

12 Senator Baker. Do you remember by whom?

13 Mr. Bundy. That is my difficulty, as I said earlier, 14 I don't know.

15 Senator Baker. The reason I ask is, from the other 16 documentation I have, which consists primarily of the 17 Inspector General of the CIA's report, and maybe other 18 material that I can't think of at the moment, it is clear 19 and unmistakeable that they think of RZRIFLE or Executive Ac-20 tion Capability as a White House initiative, or a White House 21 request of considerable insistence from the White House that 22 they get on with the job.

23 Mr. Bundy. That is totally inconsistent with my un-24 reconstructed recollection.

25 Senator Baker. Let me track that carefully.

8 himself in is terribly important in that respect.

9 I believe that you said you had no information or no

14 Why don't you get ahold of these people who are dealing with 15 this and see if they can't do better, and pass the word

17 Senator Baker. Do I understand that to mean that he never 4 Mr. Bundy. No question.

5 Senator Baker. I notice in the staff interpretation 6 under the column "Issues and Questions" that they alleged

8 Mr. Bundy. That is really a logical inference. The 9 President would not himself have written a long memorandum of 10 instructions of this kind. It is possible that General

9 MONGOOSE was intended to be?

10 Mr. Bundy. Well, MONGOOSE in a general way was the 11 whole set of things to be concerned with mostly, but not only, 12 covert activities against the Communist regime in Cuba.

13 Senator Baker. The chronology also quotes the memo as 14 saying, one, we will use our available assets to go ahead 15 with the discussed project in order to help Cuba overthrow 16 the Communist regime.

17 Can you elaborate on that?

18 Mr. Bundy. Not without documentary assistance beyond 19 what I have just said. It was to be a fairly wide ranging 20 program. I believe that what that really sort of implies 21 to me is that all departments are to cooperate, that the 22 Committee is to review possibilities, proposals, to seek 23 them out, and that the thing is to be coordinated by the 24 Committee, whose chairman will be -- this summary doesn't

1 General Taylor, and it does say that General Lansdale
2 was to be the Chief of Operations.

3 The Chairman. I have some questions at this point, please.

4 Item 4 of this memorandum reads: "The NSC 54/12 Group 5 will be kept closely informed of activities, and will be 6 available for advice and recommendation".

7 Does this suggest to you that the regular channel was 8 supposed to operate with respect to MONGOOSE, that is to say, 9 a central role was to be played by the Special Group in 10 connection with its activities?

11 Mr. Bundy. It is a puzzling sentence to me as I read 12 it now. And I can't give you a precise answer on that. I 13 think the general answer has to be that the 54/12 Group continued 14 through this period. General Taylor was the chairman of 15 both. The overlapping of membership was extensive. And 16 I think you would get a more precise answer as to the exact 17 relation from General Taylor than I am in a position to give 18 you.

19 The Chairman. I have a very clear memory of General 20 Taylor's testimony. And his testimony was that the Special 21 Group Augmented was the group that had charge of operation 22 MONGOOSE. It was further his testimony that all plans, all 23 operations, were to be brought to the Special Group Aug-24 mented for its approval. And the approval of that Group 25 was necessary before any such plans were actually implemented.

1 Mr. Bundy. I would certainly be clear on that, Mr.
2 Chairman. I thought you were asking whether there was a
3 further requirement that it go from the Special Group
4 Augmented to the Special Group. And I have no precise view 5 on that.

6 The Chairman. I see.

7 Now, when you refer to the NSC 54/12 Group --

8 Mr. Bundy. That is what I think of as the Special Group.

9 The Chairman. That is what you think of as the Special 10 Group.

11 I asked the question because the language is a little 12 fuzzy.

13 Mr. Bundy. It is.

14 The Chairman. This language might suggest that there is 15 an independent line of authority, and that the Special Group 16 Augmented or the Special Group was simply to be kept informed, 17 and its advice and recommendations would be taken under advise-18 ment.

19 Mr. Bundy. I think myself, Mr. Chairman, that 20 we don't have a very serious problem here, because I would 21 agree with General Taylor's recollection that the Special 22 Group Augmented was the Cuba group.

23 Now, the Special Group is simply the same people less 24 two or three. And the only real operational value of this 25 paragraph is that perhaps the staff officer who serviced the

Mr. Smothers. Mr. Rusk?

Mr. Bundy. Yes.

Mr. Smothers. Mr. McCone?

Mr. Bundy. Yes.

Mr. Smothers. Are there others?

Mr. Bundy. I am sure there are. Mr. Rostow. Mr.

Goodwin. There may well be others, Mr. Schlesinger and Mr.

Dungam -- who has very little to do with it, but I talked to them because of my own absence of recollection about the Dominican Republic.

Mr. Smothers. Let me just raise a few questions regarding those discussions, and perhaps it will be somewhat helpful to us in trying to piece this together.

Has any documentary evidence passed between you and the persons previously mentioned regarding the subject matter of these hearings?

Mr. Bundy. Not that I know of.

Mr. Smothers. Did Mr. McCone provide you any documentary evidence?

Mr. Bundy. No.

Mr. Smother. Did you receive any documentary evidence from any source other than the staff?

Mr. Bundy. No -- I beg your pardon. When I testified before the Rockefeller Commission I asked through that Commission whether I could look at NCS files particularly in 1 order to clarify my recollection of the 6th of August 1962.

2 And I was allowed to look at the NSAM files. And my memory was 3 refreshed by NSAM-1, which I believe the committee has.

4 Mr. Smothers. Have you made a similar request to 5 persons now within the Agency or on the White House staff?

6 Mr. Bundy. No.

7 Mr. Smothers. Could we go back into your conversation
8 with Mr. Bissell? Could you describe for the Committee, please, 9 your reaction when Mr. Bissell indicated to you that he had 10 in testimony before this Committee told the Committee that 11 either you or Mr. Rostow had asked him to establish an Execu-12 tive Action Capability?

13 Mr. Bundy. He didn't report it that way to me. He 14 reported it to me that the testimony that had been given by 15 others placed this event in February 1961. Testimony by 16 others indicated that he had said to them that he had been 17 encouraged to do this by the White House, and that in casting 18 around as to who might have encouraged, he had given the 19 names of Rostow and Bundy. I think this is roughly what 20 he said to me.

21 The Chairman. That was the character of his testimony?

22 Mr. Bundy. I told him that I thought he must 23 be wrong about Rostow, because that wasn't the way it worked, 24 and that my own recollection was not that we had encouraged 25 him, but that I had at some stage been informed about it.

1 We then went on to a discussion of what it was. And 2 we agreed that whatever else it was, it was not an operation 3 plan, and it was not targeted against anyone.

4 Mr. Smothers. What was his reaction to your comment
5 that he had been informed as opposed to initiating?

6 Mr. Bundy. I don't recall that we had a very extended 7 discussion on it. I don't recall his reaction, and I don't 8 recall exactly how I put the point.

9 The Chairman. Let me just ask at that point, the way you 10 have characterized Bissell's testimony corresponds with my 11 memory of it. It is hard for me, however, to understand 12 how Mr. Bissell -- why Mr. Bissell would have directed Mr.
13 Harvey to develop such a capability, and apparently represented, 14 if the documents are to be believed, to Mr. Harvey that he had 15 been twice instructed to do this by the White House, if he 16 had not in fact received such authority.

17 Do you think that Mr. Bissell would have undertaken 18 on his own initiative to develop such a capability and 19 simply represented to his subordinate that he was doing so on 20 instructions from the White House?

21 Mr. Bundy. I think there is a prior question, Mr.
22 Chairman, which is the credibility of the witness from whom he 23 is taking this recollection.

24 The Chairman. That is fair.

25 Though Mr. Bissell himself did not seem disposed --

3 The Chairman. Did Mr. Bissell at any time during the 4 period under question, or at any later time, ever inform 5 you of CIA activities or involvement in assassination attempts 6 against any foreign leader?

7 Mr. Bundy. No.

8 The Chairman. Doesn't it strike you as strange, since 9 Mr. Bissell was aware of such attempts, that he would not 10 have told him?

11 Mr. Bundy. Well, I don't want, for reasons that I 12 have already explained, to speculate as to why he did or did 13 not. I was operating, working on the assumption that I 14 would know that kind of thing if it existed.

15 The Chairman. Senator Mathias?

16 Senator Mathias. Mr. Chairman, I don't want to leave 17 the record, or Mr. Bundy's mind, or in the alternative, my 18 mind, in a state of confusion as to what exactly Mr. Bissell's 19 recollection was.

20 Now, he was depending somewhat on Mr. Harvey's recollec-21 tion and notes in the first instance. But as I recall, he 22 was very clear as a matter of independent recollection that 23 he had been horsed along a couple of times by the White House
24 on proceeding with the development of the Executive Action 25 Capability. And that was a matter of independent recollection,

5 The Chairman. I think we must carefully review the 6 record on that score.

7 Senator Baker. It may be necessary to ask him to come 8 back for that purpose.

9 May I ask a question there?

10 Mr. Bundy, do you have any recollection of any specific 11 covert plans that would involve poisons, hypdermic syringes, 12 or other potentially lethal devices in conjunction with acti-13 vities against Cuba?

14 Mr. Bundy. I have no recollection of any specific plan.
15 I do have a very vague, essentially refreshed recollection 16 that I heard the word poison at some point in connection with 17 a possibility of action in Cuba. But that is as far as I 18 have been able to take it in my own memory.

19 Senator Baker. Can you remember who may have men-20 tioned it to you and what the purposes of the poison may have 21 been?

22 Mr. Bundy. Nothing at all about it in detail.

23 Senator Baker. A poison pen?

24 Mr. Bundy. No, some kind of poison about which -- one 25 thing that does stick in my mind is that it seems totally 6 Mr. Bundy. No, I have no such recollection.

7 Senator Baker. Do you remember anything about a hypodermic 8 syringe to carry poisons in a ballpoint pen?

9 Mr. Bundy. That is the sort of thing that I was asked 10 the other day, and I said I remember it, and then it seems to 11 me about ten seconds later was that what I was remembering was 12 murder mysteries and nothing related to Cuba. I have no 13 recollection of connecting anything like that to Cuba.

14 Senator Baker. I have another question, but I will 15 wait, if you have something else.

16 The Chairman. Go ahead, sir.

17 Senator Baker. Do you feel that you have a good insight 18 into the relationship between the President and his brother 19 Robert Kennedy in this respect, that is, having to do with 20 Cuba operations, and Robert Kennedy and Richard Helms?

21 Mr. Bundy. I have a pretty good picture of the relation-22 ship between President Kennedy and Robert Kennedy on Cuba, 23 and on many other things. It is a recollection which grows 24 stronger as the administration goes on, because I got to 25 know them better, and, of course, they got to know me better,

1 and the relationship tends to become closer, my relation with 2 both of them. I had known the President for many, many 3 years, and the Attorney General much more briefly.

4 I do not have any clear picture of the relationship
5 between the Attorney General and Mr. Helms. My curbstome 6 judgment would have been that it was not close.

7 Senator Baker. Based on your insight, did the Presi-
8 dent delegate to Robert Kennedy substantial aspects of Cuba 9 policy during the period we are speaking of?

10 Mr. Bundy. I wouldn't put it that way, Senator 11 Baker. He certainly counted on the Attorney General to be 12 a kind of gingerman on a great many subjects, of which Cuba 13 and counterinsurgency were the two that came more closely with-14 in my area of interest.

15 Senator Baker. Counterinsurgency meaning what?

16 Mr. Bundy. Counterinsurgency meaning all those efforts 17 like the Green Berets and organizing to be able to assist 18 countries threatened by Communist subversion internally.

19 Senator Baker. Are you speaking of counterinsurgency 20 as it led to Cuba, or as a general capability?

21 Mr. Bundy. There was a separate committee, the Special 22 Committee on CI, counterinsurgency. And the Attorney General
23 was an active member of that. And I used to see him playing 24 this very important role of poking and prodding, and why can't

2 Senator Baker. Who was on that committee?

3 Mr. Bundy. I am sorry, I can't decide from recollection.
4 General Taylor was again the Chairman, but the membership was 5 different.

6 Senator Baker. Do you have minutes or records of that 7 group?

8 Mr. Schwarz. No.

9 Senator Baker. Mr. Chairman, I would like to request 10 that with Mr. Bundy's assistance after this hearing that we identify 11 as much as we can what that group is, and make a formal 12 request for documentation.

13 Mr. Aaron. We have reviewed some of that material at 14 the John F. Kennedy Library. It is essentially in fact the 15 group that reviewed paramilitary operations and potential 16 insurgency situations in a number of countries. There was an 17 insurgency list. It did not seem to relate to the subject 18 we are speaking of here. So we did not request the documents.
19 But we could have gotten them.

20 Senator Baker. Will you do that, please?

21 Is that agreeable, Mr. Chairman?

22 The Chairman. What is your request?

23 Senator Baker. I would like documentation or any records 24 relating to the counterinsurgency group during the period in

Would that be satisfactory?

Senator Baker. That is fine. I just want to know if there is any worthwhile documentation.

The Chairman. Yes. Because it may be entirely ancillary to this issue.

Senator Baker. Let me ask Mr. Bundy this. Would that group have been important toward American policy during this period?

Mr. Bundy. The CI Group?

Senator Baker. Yes.

Mr. Bundy. I would think only most marginally, Senator Baker, simply because the existence of other groups, the Special Group Augmented or the MONGOOSE Group, was so clearly dominant and was the Central Committee for that subject.

Senator Baker. The gingerbread man concept?

Mr. Bundy. The gingerman concept.

Senator Baker. The gingerman concept. There is a difference.

1 along to produce a result?

2 Mr. Bundy. In a general way that is right. But the 3 form it took in the areas in which I was concerned was in one 4 sense quite informal. I know of no instance where the Attorney
5 General tried to replace the normal channel -- let's stay away
6 for the moment from the covert question and the Cuban ques-
7 tion, which I know you will want to talk about more precisely -- 8 but if he felt, as he often did, that American policy in 9 Africa, for example, was insufficiently sensitive to the aspir-10 ations of black people in Africa, he wouldn't fire off a kick, he 11 would come in and say, why can't you people do something about 12 the State Department on news and stuff.

13 Senator Baker. There is some evidence -- we had direct 14 testimony that Mr. Helms, who was DDP at the time in ques-15 tion, rather than DCI, clearly thought that the authority of 16 the Agency was to overthrow the Castro regime by any means, in-17 cluding assassination.

18 And when pressed on the source of that authority he de-19 signed to say that anyone specifically told him that, but 20 that he talked to Robert Kennedy frequently about it. Would 21 this be in the gingerman concept you are speaking of?

22 Mr. Bundy. Now we are right at the specific point I 23 would like to make. But everything I knew about Bobby Kennedy 24 when he was goading and spurring people on is that he never 25 took away from the existing channel of authority its authority

1 or responsibility.

2 Senator Baker. Would what I describe be consistent 3 with what you describe?

4 Mr. Bundy. Not if it is interpreted as meaning that he 5 was providing a separate channel of authority.

6 Senator Baker. What I meant was just what it was, and 7 that is, Helms described for us meeting with Kennedy apparently 8 to stimulate the Agency's activities to produce the overthrow 9 of the Castro regime, and that he met regularly with Kennedy 10 in this respect.

11 Mr. Bundy. I don't know how often they met or what was 12 said, I know nothing about that. I would have said, just in 13 passing, that the Attorney General's relationship to the Direc-
14 tor of Central Intelligence was much closer and more impor-
15 tant than his relationship to Mr. Helms.

16 Senator Baker. I am correct, am I, that Helms at the 17 time was DDP and not DCI?

18 Mr. Schwarz. That is right.

19 Senator Baker. Do you have any idea why he would have 20 met regularly with the DDP rather than the DCI?

21 Mr. Bundy. I have no idea that he did. I know that he 22 met often and intimately and easily with the Director of 23 Central Intelligence, who was a close personal friend of his.

24 Senator Baker. You are speaking of Mr. McCone?

1 The Chairman. I think that since the point is impor-
2 tant, that when the Committee Staff complete its review of the 3 evidence it ought to be reminded to look closely at that Helms 4 testimony and identify exactly what words Helms might have 5 used to describe his relationship with Robert Kennedy.

6 Senator Baker. And the time involved and what position
7 Helms occupied at the time.

8 The Chairman. I have another question.

9 Mr. Bundy, we also have it from Mr. Bissell that at one 10 time he called in an officer, a subordinate, O'Donnell, -- 11 that at one time Mr. Bissell called in a subordinate whose 12 name was Mr. O'Donnell, and asked Mr. O'Donnell if he would 13 be willing to undertake the assassination of Mr. Lumumba.

14 Mr. O'Connell testifies that he said he would not be 15 willing to undertake the assassination of Mr. Lumumba, because 16 he had moral compunctions against killing.

17 Mr. O'Donnell further testifies that he was then or 18 thereafter dispatched to the Congo, where he was informed that 19 some poison had been made available -- had come to the CIA 20 headquarters in the Congo.

21 Mr. Bundy. I am sorry, I missed that last.

23 arrived at the CIA headquarters in the Congo.

5 Senator Church. It was in the fall of 1960. It was 6 not during the Kennedy Administration, it preceded the Kennedy
7 Administration. But I asked you the question, because it 8 strikes me as being a very disturbing piece of testimony, that 9 any man so positioned, in the CIA could not identify higher 10 authority for such an action, and would under oath say that it 11 might have been on his own initiative.

12 Mr. Bundy. I can't add to your comment on that, Mr.

14 The Chairman. Very well.

15 Senator Morgan. Let me ask him a question or two, Mr.

18 Senator Morgan. Mr. Bundy, you recall very vividly

14 you assumed your duties, throughout the Cuban crisis, and all 15 the MONGOOSE operations, that you might have talked to him two 16 or three times about it?

17 Mr. Bundy. No.

18 Could I separate and try and clarify my answer?

19 Senator Morgan. Yes.

20 Mr. Bundy. I talked to the President, I suppose, many, 21 many times in the context of the events that led up to and 22 followed the Bay of Pigs. I talked to him dozens of times, 23 maybe even hundreds of times, in the context of the events that 24 led up to and followed the Cuban missile crisis. Those are the told me what it said.

Mr. Smothers. With regard to your conversation with Mr. McCone, when did this occur, approximately?

Mr. Bundy. That occurred earlier on.

Mr. Smothers. Before the Rockefeller Commission inquiry?

Mr. Bundy. I don't know exactly when it was. But it was within the context of the Rockefeller Commission inquiry and not this inquiry.

Mr. Smothers. Are you talking about more than one conversation?

Mr. Bundy. No, I think I talked to him on the phone and then I had a meeting with him.

Mr. Smothers. In either the phone conversation or the meeting did you discuss Mr. McCone's 1967 report?

Mr. Bundy. He told me that he had heard of it. I don't think he had then seen it.

Mr. Smothers. You don't think he had then seen it?

Mr. Bundy. He had then seen it as of 1975. He obviously saw it in 1967.

Mr. Smothers. Can you give us a feeling for the approximate time when this conversation occurred?

Mr. Bundy. I could probably work it out from my own calendar, but I don't have it in my head.

Mr. Smothers. But at this time he had not seen the report?

1 Mr. Bundy. He had not seen the report in 1975. But 2 since it is a report that -- as I understand it, it is a 3 report that he made in 1967, and he had seen it then.

4 Mr. Smothers. Did he indicate to you that he was 5 making an effort to get that report?

6 Mr. Bundy. I think he told me that he had been in touch 7 with the Agency and would be seeing the report, but I don't 8 really recall.

9 Mr. Smothers. To go into your conversation with Mr.
10 Rostow, would you indicate to the Committee, please, the 11 substance of that conversation?

12 Mr. Bundy. Yes. I called him after my conversation 13 with Mr. Bissell, because it seemed to me that he ought to 14 be informed, and the two of them ought to talke with each 15 other about that testimony.

16 Mr. Smothers. At the time you called him it was your 17 impression that Mr. Bissell had not talked with Mr. Rostow?

18 Mr. Bundy. But was planning to.

19 Mr. Smothers. And this was after Mr. Bissell's testi-

21 Mr. Bundy. That if right.

22 Mr. Smothers. Did you and Mr. Rostow discuss the fact 23 that both you and Mr. Rostow had been named as potential 24 sources for the Exective Action authorization?

4 Mr. Smothers. Can we go to your conversation with Mr.
5 Goodwin. Did you call him or did he call you?

6 Mr. Bundy. I called him.

7 Mr. Smothers. And the nature of that conversation?

8 Mr. Bundy. That conversation was about the Dominican 9 Republic, because of my complete failure of recollection as 10 to who or what the White House line of action, responsibility 11 and concern was with respect to the Dominican Republic in 12 1961. And I called him, and I called Dungan, and I called 13 Schlesinger, because they were the the who had been very 14 much involved in things like the Alliance for Progress, and 15 new appointments to embassies in Latin America, and Latin 16 American Policy generally, except for the Bay of Pigs. And 17 I wanted to see if they had recollections about events in 18 that spring that were more extensive than mine. I didn't learn 19 very much, but that was the purpose of the call.

20 Mr. Smothers. And it it your testimony that your first 21 exposure to the documentary evidence beyond these recollections 22 was when either the Rockefeller Commission staff or this 23 staff showed you documents pertaining to this inquiry.

16 Mr. Bundy. I never have testified on -- this is not a 17 serious matter, because there is no secret about it. But I 18 have always taken the position that White House decisions 19 are for the White House to discuss, and I prefer to hold to 20 that position now.

The Chairman. What is the question?

Mr. Smothers. The question is who in the White House provided Mr. Bundy with documents relevant to this investigation. And I believe his position is that he would prefer not to disclose that matter, or that that is a matter for the Committee's determination.

Mr. Bundy. Let me explain, Mr. Chairman, because you were out of the room, that I have always taken the position that decisions of the White House are for the White House to discuss. I always asked permission to see documentation and permission was given. I looked at the document, but I would rather not discuss it, because I think it is for the White House to discuss it.

The Chairman. What is the document?

Mr. Bundy. I just described it, it is National Security Action Memorandum No. 1, we showed us the National Security Action file, which I believe your staff has.

Mr. Schwarz. We have it here.

Mr. Smothers. My question was, who had the request been made to, and showed him the document?

Mr. Bundy. My point is that I have tried historically not to discuss this kind of question when it is something that concerns the White House, but to leave it to the White House to discuss it, and I would prefer to hold to that position.

2 Mr. Smothers. This quite frankly, Mr. Bundy, this 3 related to an ancillary matter that is of concern to the 5 You mentioned conversations with Mr. Schlesinger. Again,

7 Mr. Bundy. The most recent one, he called me. And I

9 precise. I must say I don't know that I understand the line 10 of questioning. These are very important matters, and 11 people closely involved in them should be trying to get a 12 clear sense of what each other remembers after this many 13 years, it seems to me this would be entirely natural.

14 Mr. Smothers. I don't question the fact that it is 15 natural, Mr. Bundy. I think one of the difficult things 16 for this Committee to do is to separate out, if you will, 17 the independent recollections from the documentary evidence 18 we have shown you, and from conversations with others --

19 Mr. Bundy. You are quite right. And I have tried

11 Mr. Bundy. Well, so was mine. And I have no such 12 recollection.

13 Mr. Smothers. I am speaking now of the recollection of 14 others, if you will.

15 Mr. Bundy. I can't really recite on that, because I 16 haven't made the kind of comparison document by document 17 and conversation by conversation that would allow me to make 18 a clearcut and comprehensive answer. But I don't have any

1 know it is not intentional, but I think we use the term, the

5 if we use, "individuals likely associated with the Mafia," 6 or something like that -- it is a little technical.

7 Mr. Schwarz. Let me restate the question to make sure

Mr. Schwarz. Mr. Bundy, based upon your having had an opportunity prior to the testimony, and now again if you seek to do so, to refresh your recollection, will you recount for the Committee what happened in the summer of 1964 in connection with this matter?

Mr. Bundy. Well, it is a relatively small matter in the context of what you are discussing, but what happened in the summer of 1964 was that it came to our attention that there were relations between Cuban refugees in Cuba and people apparently associated with the Mafia. And this did not seem to be a good idea. And this was in a period in which sentiment had been steadily growing for some time against activities by Cuban refugees that were wholly outside the control and not really in the interest of the U.S., and that they should be associated with a criminal group.

And so when the matter came to the Special Group, the decision was made to refer it to the Department of Justice as a matter of internal American law enforcement. That was done.

And the Department said that it was going after the matter, which it then did, and reported back.

The reports don't give any conclusive picture of what really was going on, but they do show that the Bureau went to a number of people asking around about these matters, and as far as I know, it then faded away.

8 Mr. Bundy. There is nothing in my recollection and 9 nothing in the document that seems to me to imply assassin-10 ation.

16 Mr. Bundy. That is right.

17 Mr. Schwarz. Now, prior to discussing upon the MONGOOSE 18 program, did you consider a lot of other options?

19 Mr. Bundy. I think we were -- and this is a hard 20 question, but I think what we were doing was working toward 21 an organization that would be able to take charge of the 22 complicated, varied inter-departmental kinds of things involved
23 in Cuba. We have been concentrating this morning on covert 24 actions, but there were also propaganda problems, economic

1 of others that did not all fall within one jurisdiction.
2 Anytime you get that kind of problem you have an organization 3 problem. And the solution of 1961, which took sometime to 4 work out, as the passage of time suggests, was the creation
5 of a Special Committee under the Chairmanship of General 6 Taylor and with General Lansdale as its operating officer.

7 Mr. Schwarz. Now, in the course of the review that did 8 take place prior to the establishment of that Special Committee 9 which then got called the MONGOOSE program, was one of the 10 matters which was considered the assassination of Mr. Castro?

11 Mr. Bundy. As I have already said, I can not tell you 12 that this question never came up. But I recall no sustained 13 discussion of that matter in that period.

14 Mr. Schwarz. Whether you recall a sustained discussion

18 subject was mentioned from time to time by different individ-19 uals, never to me that I can recall by the President. But

1 Mr.Schwarz. Mr. Bundy, to summarize -- before I ask
2 you the question -- in NSAM No. 100 you sent to the Secretary
3 of State the following note: "In conformation of oral 4 instructions conveyed to Assistant Secretary of State 5 Woodward, a plan is desired to the indicated contingency in 6 Cuba". Do you have an independent recollection of what that 7 indicated contingency was?

8 Mr. Bundy. Before seeing this document?

9 Mr. Schwarz. Before seeing the documents.

10 Mr. Bundy. No.

11 Mr. Schwarz. Having looked at not only Exhibit 3, but 12 Exhibit 3A and 3B, do you agree that the contingency referred 13 to in 3A and the contingency referred to in 3B are related 14 to NSAM No. 100?

15 Mr. Bundy. Yes, I do.

16 Mr. Schwarz. Now, the contingency referred to in 3B, 17 which is the earlier of the two following documents, is 18 said by Mr. Parrott to be a plan against the contingency that 19 Castro would in some way or other be removed from the Cuban 20 scent. And I am going to come to some of the other parts 21 of that document with respect to the President's interest or 22 not.

23 And the contingency in 3A, which is the minutes of the 24 Special Group, as characterized as follows: "Mr. Parrott also 25 told the Group that two other exercises are in progress in

1 connection with Cuba, the preparation of a contingency plan 2 in connection with the possible removal of Castro from the 3 Cuban scene, and an updating of the overall plan for 4 covert operations".

5 Now, after having reviewed those documents, and in the 6 light of your testimony that it is possible that the 7 consideration of the possibility of assassination which you 8 say did occur at some point, occurred in the fall of 1961, 9 do you agree that at that time the contingency under consider-10 ation here was the possibility of the assassination of Castro?

11 Mr. Bundy. No, I would put it another way. The contin-
12 gency here is, what would we do if Castro were no longer 13 there. So that the question of how Castro ceased to be 14 there is left out of this set of papers. Clearly one of 15 the possibilities would be assassination, but only one of 16 them. What we are talking about here, as I read the docu-
17 ments, is a plan against the contingency that I am not reading 18 from the Parrott memorandum, against the contingency that 19 Castro would in some way or other be removed from the Cuban 20 scene. NSAM 100, whose language is indirect, nonetheless 21 indicates, to me at least, rereading it, that the President 22 wanted to know what was likely to happen if Castro were no
23 longer there. He was, in other words, trying to get a picture 24 of whether that would really change things, and if so, in 25 what way.

1 Mr. Schwarz. Just one detail that Mr. Smothers suggested 2 to me. Is NSAM 100 what the White House showed you, or is 3 it another document?

4 Mr. Bundy. No, 181. But let me be precise. I asked
5 to see the documents relating to -- from the National Security
6 files relating to August 1962. And they gave me the NSAM 7 file identified as the significant memorandum, NSAM 181.

8 Mr. Schwarz. Now, the contingency to be examined, 9 therefore, was what would happen -- would it help the U.S., 10 that is the question, if Castro were to disappear?

11 Mr. Bundy. What would it be like if Castro were to 12 disappear? The question is open ended.

13 Mr. Schwarz. What was the conclusion?

14 Mr. Bundy. I don't remember. My unaided sense of the 15 matter is that intelligent political analysis would have 16 suggested in 1961 or at any time later that the removal of a 17 single individual in a revolution complex and general as this 18 would have quite unpredictable and not necessarily helpful 19 effects.

20 Mr. Schwarz. You said that while you were clear the 21 assassination was not in fact authorized, you believe that 22 at some point it was examined, is that a fair characterization.

23 Mr. Bundy. That isn't the word I used. Talk about.

24 Mr. Schwarz. Talk about. And this exercise constitutes 25 an analysis of what Cuba/the U.S. would be like if Castro were 1 removed.

2 Mr. Bundy. It constitutes a request for such an analysis.

3 Mr. Schwarz. Was the analysis made?

4 Mr. Bundy. I don't have any recollection.

5 Mr. Schwarz. If one were exploring the possibility of 6 assassination, I take it this kind of analysis is the sort 7 of analysis one would wish to make if one was not simply 8 ruling assassination out as a matter of principle in the first 9 instance.

10 Mr. Bundy. Let me put it another way. If people were 11 suggesting this to you, and you were curious about whether 12 it was worth exploring, one way of getting more light on it 13 without going any further with that notion itself would be 14 to ask political people, not intelligence people, what they 15 thought would happen if Castro were not there any longer.

16 You will notice that this National Security Action
17 Memorandum is not addressed to the Central Intelligence 18 Agency, less still to the covert part of the Agency, but 19 rather to the Secretary of State. And specifically clearly 20 the action of certain is Assistant Secretary Woodward.

21 Mr. Schwarz. Now, document 3B indicates -- and you 22 have had an opportunity to review this one before, I think --

23 Mr. Bundy. Which one are we now talking about?

24 Mr. Schwarz. 3B, Mr. Parrott's memo.

25 Mr. Bundy. Yes. I have a clearer copy now than I had

TOP SECRET

1 yesterday, for which I am grateful.

2 Mr. Schwarz. It indicates that there was a Presidential 3 interest in the matter. And then General Taylor told Mr.
4 Parrott that he preferred that the State Department, or Mr.
5 Woodward in the State Department, not be told about the 6 Presidential interest in the matter. First, was there a 7 Presidential interest in the matter? You have no reason to 8 doubt that there was, I take it.

9 Mr. Bundy. I am sorry, I was reading a note, and I 10 didn't hear the last part of the question.

11 Mr. Schwarz. I asked really two questions, the first 12 of which is a direct question, was there a Presidential 13 interest in the matter?

14 Mr. Bundy. There was a Presidential -- there was no 15 doubt in my mind that when I write in a National Security 16 Action Memorandum a plan as desired, that the desire is not 17 mine.

18 Mr. Schwarz. And the desire is in fact the Presidents?

19 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

20 Mr. Schwarz. Now, have you any other recollection of 21 calling your attention to the fall of 1969?

22 Mr. Bundy. Could I go back and comment on your earlier 23 question.

24 You correctly pointed out that there was concern to 25 keep the President's name out of this process of request,

1 although you correctly point out that the President was the 2 one who wanted to know.. My impression here is that whatever 3 concern we have, General Taylor or I, in the frame of this 4 language, it was precisely to insulate the President from 5 any false inference that what he was asking about was 6 assassination. It is easy to confuse the question. What 7 are things going to be like after Castro, with the other 8 question, and we were trying to focus attention on the 9 information he obviously wanted, which is, what would happen 10 if we did do this sort of thing, and not get one into the 11 frame of mind of thinking that he was considering doing it.
12 That is the distinction, I think.

13 Mr. Schwarz. Do you have any further recollection of 14 discussion of this matter in this fall of 1961? And by this 15 matter I mean either the broader inquiry into what it would 16 be like if Castro disappeared, or a scenario arising of the 17 specific subject of assassination.

18 Mr. Bundy. No, I don't.

19 Mr. Schwarz. Had you ever heard before I asked you 20 about the last night about a conversation, an alledged conver-21 sation, between the President and the Journalist Theodore 22 Schwartz, and or Mr. Goodwin in this timeframe?

23 Mr. Bundy? I saw that in the newspapers.

3 Mr. Bundy. No. But I will say this -- and it is a random
4 observation -- if I were planning an action of great sensitivity 5 I wouldn't discuss it with any journalist, I don't think.

6 Mr. Schwarz. The record from Mr. Schwartz is that the 8 brought it up in a conversation with Mr. Schwartz, saying 9 that he was being encouraged to order assassination.

10 Now, you have said that you do recall that the subject

15 Mr. Schwarz. But that one of the points in which it 16 might have been discussed was the fall of 1961.

17 Mr. Bundy. Certainly.

1 Mr. Bundy. Going back to your earlier question, I 2 have a message through the courtesy of the Committee from the 3 White House that there is no objection to answering the 4 question as to how the White House came to show me the NSC file.
5 When I learned of some of the interests of the Rockefeller
6 Commission, it seemed to me that it would be useful if I
7 could refresh my recollection. I telephoned Dr. Kissinger, 8 who it seemed to me would be the right person both in his 9 capacity as Special Assistant and the capacity as Secretary 10 of State, and he called me back to say that General Scocroft 11 would show me the documents I needed, and he did not.

12 Mr. Smothers. Just one question.

13 This file contained what, now, other than the NSAM?

14 Mr. Bundy. The only file that I had time to go through 15 that I can recollect was the NSAM file, which is a relatively 16 short one.

17 Mr. Smothers. For which time period?

18 Mr. Bundy. For the period surrounding August 1962.

19 Mr. Smothers. It was given to us as an existing file, 20 or matters that had been pulled, or organized --

21 Mr. Bundy. No, they gave me the whole file, they were 22 all documents that I have been involved with, it was nothing 23 new to me. But the ones I was looking for were the ones 24 relating to this subject.

25 Mr. Smothers. Were these only your documents?

Mr. Bundy. They wouldn't be all signed by me, not every NSMA was signed by me. But they would all be documents for which I had responsibility.

Mr. Smothers. And the timeframe was --

Mr. Bundy. Sufficiently before and after to give me a picture of the political context of August 1962 in relation to Cuba.

Mr. Smothers. And do you recall when you saw this file?

Mr. Bundy. Well, as I say, it was in the context of my appearance before the Rockefeller Commission. And that would be early this year. I don't have the dates, and I don't want to make a mistake on it.

Mr. Smothers. I am not trying to pin the date down. It would be helpful if you remember. But we can ask.

Mr. Schwarz.

Mr. Schwarz. I want to make sure that we have what we have done so far accurately summarized, and that you agree with it.

Can I use discussion of an assassination, will you accept that?

Mr. Bundy. It implies more seriousness and more sustained argument than I recollect.

9 Mr. Bundy. What I recollect about the fall of 1961 is 1 Mr. Bundy. And that is the MONGOOSE programs.

2 Mr. Schwarz. In connection with the MONGOOSE program, 3 you had some dialogue about the Attorney General which was 4 quite extensive. Let me ask you one additional question on 5 that subject. What was the relationship personally and pro-
6 fessionally between the Attorney General and General Maxwell 7 Taylor?

8 Mr. Bundy. It was very close. I think that they first 9 met in a hardworking sense when they were -- I think they 10 were both members of the committee to look into what happened 11 after the Bay of Pigs, or if the Attorney General was not 12 a member he was certainly closely interested.

13 Mr. Schwarz. He was a member.

14 Mr. Bundy. And I am sure the Attorney General was 15 one of the people strongly favoring the appointment of General 16 Taylor as the President's military advisor. They were both 17 active and ardent tennis players, they liked each other, and 18 they visited back and forth. One of the Kennedy children 19 is named for General Taylor, I think. There was a relation of 20 real trust and confidence between them. And the measure of 21 its strength is that I think it easily survived later very 22 sharp differences over Vietnam.

23 Mr. Schwarz. Now recognizing that, what I am asking for 24 you is a matter of opinion and not a fact, given your under-25 standing of that relationship, will you give us your opinion

5 Mr. Bundy. It certainly is my understanding.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Would Robert Kennedy in your opinion, 7 in the fact of Maxwell Taylor's Chairmanship of the Special 8 Group Augmented, have developed a back-channel relationship 9 with someone else for the purpose of assassinating Fidel 10 Castro?

11 Mr. Bundy. No.

12 Mr. Schwarz. Now, in connection with MONGOOSE, you were 13 a member of the Special Group Augmented, were you?

14 Mr. Bundy. I was. I wasn't its most faithful attender, 15 but I was a member.

16 Mr. Schwarz. To the extent that you did attend, would 17 you describe the nature of the meetings, what kind of items 18 were brought before you, what was the process for decision 19 making?

20 Mr. Bundy. It is very difficult to do that without 21 documentary reconstruction. But in the broadest sense, I 22 think I can do it. The kinds of things would be Cuban exiles, 23 training them, how united are they, whose the leader, and 24 what kind of operations against the island are we able to

1 the last two or three days -- I saw a sabotage program which

4 frequent problem. I don't recall that we worried so much 5 about getting the agents in, but there seems always to be 6 a great problem about getting them out. And that sort of 7 thing that I mentioned, propaganda, there was the one island
8 enterprise -- was Florida doing much good, and how much 9 does it cost and things of that sort.

10 Mr. Schwarz. At any MONGOOSE meeting did Mr. Harvey 11 state that he had taken steps to assassinate Fidel Castro?

12 Mr. Bundy. I never heard anything from Mr. Harvey in 13 any context in any meeting at any time on that subject.

14 Mr. Schwarz. And it was clear that the President was 15 the person basically in control, perhaps not of the details, 16 but of the general program; is that right?

17 Mr. Bundy. The President had worked it. The day to 18 day operations where in the hands of different departments 19 for different categories of programs. The coordinator was 20 General Lansdale, and the Chairman of the Committee was General

22 Mr. Schwarz. Would you turn to Lansdale Tab 38, please?

1 Mr. Schwarz. Do you have that in front of you, Mr.

3 Mr. Bundy. Yes, I have.

4 Mr. Schwarz. This reflects a number of options or 5 study that the President called for in the light of the 6 evidence of new block activities in Cuba. Was that evidence 7 connected with the missiles?

8 Mr. Bundy. Well, there was quite a buildup reported 9 in the press and in the intelligence initially of Soviet 10 military personnel, of Soviet surface-to-air missiles. And 11 the crucial question was, what for and what is coming. And 12 the Director of Central Intelligence -- who was proved in 13 the end to be right -- was almost alone in his belief that 14 this was going to lead to a nuclear capability in Cuba that 15 could hit the U.S. And he raised these questions in the 16 month of August in a number of different ways. And the 17 National Security meeting from which this memorandum emerged 18 reviewed those problems, and as the memorandum itself shows, 19 the heavy emphasis of the President's concern and of the 20 Group's concern on the likelihood that developed and what 21 should be done about it, or in preparation for it, in August.

22 Mr. Schwarz. The memorandum has quite a range of matters

1 of Turkey, two, on the hard side, Items 7 and 8 , which 2 are military possibilities of invasion or some other military 3 possibilities in connection with Cuba. Now, is that a 4 typical exercise that that White House, the President and 5 yourself would go through to look at a number of options...
6 ranging from the soft to the very tough?

7 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

8 Let me say in passing that there was nothing soft about 9 the problem of getting the Jupiter missiles out of Cuba.

10 Mr. Schwarz. Conciliatory, would that be the word?

11 Mr. Bundy. It problem of actually getting them out 12 which we came to in the following year was one which 13 demanded great diplomatic energy and finesse on the part of 14 the State and Defense Departments. But you are right. A 15 wide range of issues charactically would be discussed. And 16 the President had a habit of trying to look at problems from 17 many angles.

18 Mr. Schwarz. Were you fully in touch with the President 19 in connection with what became the missile crisis.

20 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

21 Mr. Schwarz. Was there any discussion of assassinating 22 Fidel Castro during that period?

23 Mr. Bundy. None.

24 Mr. Schwarz. Was there agreement reached that as part 25 of the solution to the missile crisis that related to U.S.

1 action vis-a-vis Cuba. There was a so-called no invasion 2 pledge. There was an undertaking on our side that if the 3 offensive capabilities -- and there was an argument on what 4 those were -- were removed, we on our side would undertake -- 5 I don't want to present this language as if it is deeply 6 mathematically precise -- but there was an undertaking on our 7 side that there would not be an assassination of Cuba.

8 The Chairman. Was that ever published?

9 Mr. Bundy. Yes. If my language is inconsistent with 10 what was published, then what was published should take 11 precedence, because I am only trying to report that.

12 Mr. Schwarz. Did this agreement exclude the sabotage 13 of Cuban facilities?

14 Mr. Bundy. Not in my view or in anyone's view in the 15 U.S. Government. Just to give you an example of things it 16 did not exclude, it did not exclude continued surveillance, 17 which is not perfectly normal in relations between friendly 18 states, that you overfly and check out what they are doing.
19 But surveillance was an explicit and public part of the 20 necessary concern for U.S. satisfaction with the resolution 21 of the Cuban missile crisis.

22 Mr. Schwarz. Recognizing again that this is calling for 23 an opinion, during the course of the missile crisis did

25 either the President or the Attorney General that in your

1 Mr. Bundy. Well, yes. There are a great many things that 2 enter into my judgment about whether the President or the 3 Attorney General would ever have done that, and I would like 4 to say, Mr. Chairman, that the most important point I want to 5 make, just from where I stand personally is that I find the 6 notion that they separately, privately encouraged, ordered, 7 arranged efforts at assassination totally inconsistent with 8 what I knew of both of them. And as an example, I would cite -- 9 and only one among very many -- the role played by the Attorney 10 General in the Missile Crisis, because it was he who, most 11 emphatically, argued against a so-called surgical air strike 12 or any other action that would bring death upon many, in favor 13 of the more careful approach which was eventually adopted by 14 the President in the form of a quarantine or a blockade.

15 The Chairman. Well, Mr. Bundy, let me put what may be 16 the same question a little different way.

17 You came to know both the President and the Attorney 18 General rather intimately in the period of your long associa-19 tion with them, did you not?

20 Mr. Bundy. Yes, Mr. Chairman.

21 The Chairman. Based upon that acquaintanceship, do you 22 believe, under any of the circumstances that occurred during 23 that whole period, either one of them would have authorized 24 the assassination of Fidel Castro?

25 Mr. Bundy. I most emphatically do not.

1 Let me make a more general point that comes at it from 2 another way.

3 If you have heard testimony that there was pressure to do 4 something about Cuba, there was. There was an effort, both from 5 the President in his style and from the Attorney General in his 6 style to keep the government active in looking for ways to 7 weaken the Cuban regime. There was. But if you, as I under-8 stand it, and not even those who pressed the matter most closely 9 as having essentially been inspired by the White House can tell 10 you that anyone ever said to them, go and kill anyone.

11 Let me say one other thing about these two men, and that is 12 that there was something that they really wanted done, they did 13 not leave people in doubt, so that on the one hand, I would 14 say about their character, their purposes and their nature and 15 the way they confronted international affairs that I find it 16 incredible that they would have ordered or authorized explicitly 17 or implicitly an assassination of Castro. I also feel that if, 18 contrary to everything that I know about their character, they 19 had had such a decision and such a purpose, people would not 20 have been in any doubt about it.

21 The Chairman. Then have you any way to explain to the 22 Committee, or any explanation to give to the Committee, as to 23 why Mr. Helms would testify that he was under, or that he had 24 no doubts, that the Agency was fully authorized to proceed to 25 not only develop schemes, but to engage in active attempts to 1 assassinate Castro?

2 Mr. Bundy. I have no explanation of that.

3 Senator Mondale. Part of our attempt to solve this riddle 4 of what would appear to be a record at the highest level, which 5 is at least not directly an order of an assassination plot or 6 attempt, and square it with the fact that attempts were made, is 7 to seek to understand the personalities and motivations and 8 methods of operation of people further down the chain of 9 command.

10 We have heard quite a few evaluations of Mr. Harvey as 11 a free-wheeling, James Bond kind of operator, and it has been 12 suggested through some disquiet and apprehension at higher 13 levels about the nature of his conduct. And I would -- I don't 14 know. I am beginning to have doubts about Mr. Helms whom I 15 have always admired. There is, for example, a memorandum that 16 is in the record to Mr. Rusk in response to a memo which the 17 Secretary wrote Mr. Helms following an article appearing in 18 some Cuban newspaper charging that the Mafia had been hired and 19 used by the CIA to assassinate Castro, in which Helms specifi-20 cally and categorically denies flat out that any such relation-21 ship existed when in fact it did and when in fact Mr. Helms was 22 part of it.

23 Now, how do we sort this out? Is Mr. Helms someone who 24 might have, on his own, gone beyond the authority conferred 25 upon him by persons higher up?

1 Mr. Bundy. Well, if you had asked me that question a 2 year ago, Senator, I would have said in my experience with him 3 he was not such an officer, but I have no way of dealing with 4 the kind of thing you have just described.

5 Senator Mondale. It shatters me because I have always 6 respected him. Because we know that these assassination attempts 7 occurred. We know that Mr. Helms was a part of it. We have 8 testimony that Mr. Helms and Mr. Harvey met and agreed not to 9 tell Mr. McCone what they were doing. And then we have a 10 document here -- well, that was Cubella -- and then we have a 11 memo from Helms to Rusk which, in Minnesota language looks 12 like a lie. Now, I just don't know. Maybe there are other 13 explanations.

14 The Chairman. The memo to Rusk had to do with Cubella 15 rather than the Mafia.

16 Senator Mondale. Is that it? It was not the Mafia?

17 Mr. Schwarz. It was Cubella, except if you just substitute 18 Cubella for the word Mafia.

19 The Chairman. What you said otherwise is correct.

20 Senator Mondale. But he was involved personally with 21 Cubella, wasn't he? And he knew that, and this memo said no.

22 Is there a plausible explanation?

23 Mr. Madigan. Helms has one.

24 Senator Baker. Helms' position is that he did not lie, 25 that he did not have anything to do with the Cubella incident,

1 is that right?

2 Mr. Madigan. I think Helms claimed that Cubella is in 3 the strict context of the memos, operating on his own.

4 The Chairman. Well, I believe rather than speculate, we 5 had better look back carefully, and that ought to be another 6 subject for Mr. Helms when he returns.

7 Senator Mondale. Well, then I will stand corrected.

8 Senator Hart of Michigan. Would you yield?

9 I want to make the same record note that I suspend the 10 comment I made about that document yesterday. I thought it was 11 a flat-out lie.

12 Senator Mondale. I did too. I withdraw that, and I think 13 it would be good if the staff would write us a little memo.

14 Senator Baker. Fritz might like to know that yesterday I 15 asked Counsel if they, as a combined staff operation, would 16 prepare for us, and I believe they agreed to do this, prepare 17 for us two briefs, one citing the testimony and the exhibit 18 evidence, that would support an inference that the authority 19 was Presidential; and another brief, citing the record and the 20 exhibit evidence citing the inference that it was not. There 21 is an abundance of both, to be frank with you. So that we 22 can lay them down side by side and make our own separate 23 judgment.

24 Do I understand the staff is going to do it?

1 The Chairman. We seem to have a developing problem for 2 reasons unexplained with the Justice Department. I have 3 already mentioned one aspect of that problem, in connection with 4 the failure of the Department to supply most of the material 5 that we have requested, though that request was put to the 6 Department two months ago, and it has been decided already by 7 the Committee that Mr. Levy and Mr. Kelley should be brought 8 before the Committee in the hopes that these delays can be 9 overcome.

10 The first question before the Committee is when that can 11 be done. It is suggested that the Attorney General has Tuesday 12 morning available. If it is all right with the Committee, I 13 would like to schedule his appearance, together with that of 14 Mr. Kelley, for Tuesday morning.

15 Senator Baker. Mr. Chairman, I don't mean to intrude my 16 personal convenience into this consideration unduly, but if 17 the Attorney General could do it at Tuesday noon, say, it would 18 help me. I have a commitment in Tennessee Monday night. If 19 I catch the Tuesday morning plane I can't get here until 11:50.

20 If that's not possible, I will cancel Monday.

21 The Chairman. This is procedural in character, so it is 22 not altogether important that every member be present. I think 23 that from the standpoint of this Committee schedule, Tuesday 24 morning, the Attorney General and Mr. Kelley would be good, 25 would it not?

Mr. Miller. Yes.
Senator Baker. Well, why don't you leave it Tuesday morning.
The Chairman. We are only informed that he has Tuesday morning available.
Mr. Gitenstein.. I spoke to Doug Marvin, one of his Executive Assistants, and he said Tuesday was a possibility, Wednesday is a problem because he has a Cabinet meeting and he wasn't sure about Tuesday and he was going to get back to us in the next hour or two.
The Chairman. Well, let's see if we can't set it up Tuesday.
Senator Baker. If you can set it up Tuesday afternoon and nobody objects, that would be better for me.
The Chairman. Well, if we can, we'll set it up Tuesday afternoon.
Senator Mathias. What is that for?
The Chairman. That is for Levy and Kelley to appear for the purpose of telling us why they can't, or why it has taken two months and we still are waiting for the documents, most of the documents we requested.
Senator Mathias. Well, I won't be here, but that's no reason.

1 Senator Mathias. Don't worry about it.

2 The Chairman. All right.

3 The second thing I would like to bring up in this connec-4 tion is that I was informed yesterday by the staff that the 5 FBI has undoubtedly received instructions that none of its 6 agents are to be interrogated or interviewed by the staff of 7 this Committee. I would like someone who knows the details and 8 can be very specific to tell the Committee the exact status of 9 that situation, how we have been informed and if we can rely on 10 that information as being authoritative.

11 Mr. Elliff. Yesterday morning at 9:00 o'clock or shortly 12 thereafter, I received a phone call from the FBI's liaison with 13 this Committee with respect to a series of interviews that had 14 been arranged with the Bureau some relating to the Huston Plan, 15 some relating to Martin Luther King matters. I was informed that 16 I had to address this request to the Justice Department in order 17 to secure approval for these staff interviews.

18 I then called our liaison in the Justice Department, 19 Special Counsel William O'Conner, and he told me I might as 20 well submit these requests in writing, because the Justice
21 Department would take at least ten days to give us an answer 22 on these requests and he didn't know what the answer was going 23 to be.

24 I then explored with him what some of the reasons might be 25 for this delay and what the problems seemed to be, and the

1 explanation that he gave me verbally was that the fact that 2 the Committee had notified the Department in its letter of 3 June 27th that certain cases that we were investigating were 4 abuse cases meant that any interviews that would be conducted 5 in connection with those matters would be considered by the 6 Department to be demand interviews, and therefore this brought 7 into play the provisions of the Federal Regulations which 8 require the Attorney General's approval.

9 Then the question as to whether the Attorney General would 10 approve or not involved two issues. First was that since we 11 had indicated the likelihood of an abuse in a particular area 12 that the Department itself would have to consider whether it 13 should institute a criminal investigation of that matter, and 14 then, if so, whether our interview would interfere with that 15 ongoing criminal investigation.

16 And second, that the Department considered that any inter-17 views undertaken by the Committee in such cases might inadver-18 tently immunize the subject of the interview, and he referred 19 generally to some cases and we have attempted to do legal 20 research on those cases and find this to be a very shaky position 21 but they have good lawyers over there and if they want to come 22 up with a sophisticated argument, we expect that they could be 23 able to do that.

24 The Chairman. Lawyers can make an argument over anything.
25 Mr. Elliff. That's so. And so the final conclusion is

1 that he did anticipate that subpoenas would be required 2 in every instance and this position is very difficult for us to 3 accept because interviews, the low-key interview in the non-4 pressure situation is an opportunity to elicit information that 5 is not matched by the formal subpoena situation, and to be 6 able to proceed initially by interview and then confirm, under 7 oath, via subpoena, is just absolutely essential for an effective 8 investigation. So this is where we stand on this issue.

9 We later received a letter pertaining to an earlier
10 request for interviews relating to FBI COINTELPRO disruptive 11 activities where we had asked for certain interviews, and this 12 letter did not go into specifics, but merely stated that there 13 were problems that would have to be resolved, that the charac-14 terization of an area of the Committee inquiry as abuse might 15 significantly alter arrangements of access to witnesses who 16 are present employees of the Department.

17 The Chairman. In other words, the thrust of all of this 18 is that the more serious the nature of the inquiry, the more 19 difficult it will be to obtain the information, that if we are 20 concerned about a possible illegality or abuse, then the 21 Department will make it as difficult as possible for us to 22 secure the information.

23 Mr. Elliff. I might add that it seems to be in the nature 24 of the documents also, the more serious the allegation, the more 25 resistance there is to providing us --

1 They have given us a good many documents. They've

3 They've given us plenty of documentation on less controversial 4 matters.

5 The Chairman. I think it is ironic that the resistance we 6 get from the Justice Department is so much more substantial than 7 the resistance we have gotten from the CIA.

8 Senator Baker. That's not necessarily so. I agree with 9 you the resistance is unfortunate and inappropriate, but I 10 can think of a request for documentation from the CIA that is 11 now more than a month old and they haven't had the good grace 12 to tell us no. They have told us nothing.

13 The Chairman. But on the whole we've gotten a greater 14 measure of cooperation from the CIA.

15 Senator Schweiker. I wonder, does either counsel know, 16 Mr. Chairman, whether the Attorney General or the FBI Director 17 initially confirmed whether they made any commitments to 18 Congress about supplying documents or materials to the 19 Committee?

20 Mr. Miller. Senator Mathias can tell you, and Senator 21 Hart.

22 Senator Schweiker. Might there be a statement in their 23 testimony in confirmation, in agreeing to furnish Congress with 24 materials of this nature?

4 the Department of Justice at the moment is taking about as hard 5 a line as any kind that I know of in the last fifteen years.
6 Its whole kind of attitude --

7 Senator Tower. I just wonder if we shouldn't take this up 8 with them.

9 The Chairman. I think we should, but I think we should 10 also, in advance of that, in view of the kinds of signals we 11 are now getting from the Justice Department, indicate that we 12 believe that these objections that they are raising, or questions 13 that they are raising, are a serious impediment procedurally 14 to our Committee and that we have every intention of interviewing 15 such agents as may be necessary, and that if necessary, we will 16 subpoena them.

17 Mr. Elliff. Our feeling is it is preferable not to 18 proceed by subpoena, but we do have a subpoena for one FBI 19 agent which we brought with us today which we would like to 20 proceed with.

21 The Chairman. Can you give us the facts of that case?

22 Mr. Epstein. This is an agent who is presently in Atlanta, 23 Georgia, and the information we've received from other witnesses 24 was that in 1964, I believe, he visited a newspaper editor in 25 Atlanta, closed the door, put his hat on the desk, and said he

5 and our interest in interviewing this agent obviously relates 6 to the circumstances surrounding that visit to a newspaperman, 7 who directed him to do that, what the purpose of that visit 8 was, whether there was any documentation --

9 Senator Baker. Who was the newspaper man?

10 Mr. Epstein. His name was Eugene Patterson and he was 11 with the Atlanta Constitution at that time. He's now with a 12 newspaper in Florida.

13 The Chairman. Do you believe the subpoena now to be 14 necessary because of what you have been told by the Justice 15 Department?

16 Mr. Elliff. We have other agents which we would like to 17 proceed with at the interview level, so we would like to proceed 18 at both levels to get their reaction to both types of requests.
19 What is their reaction to a subpoena going to be, what is 20 their reaction to a renewed request to interview going to be?

21 So we crystallize each issue.

22 Senator Tower. I still think it might be good for us to

1 There is this troublesome dictum in U.S. vs. Nixon about 2 what might be nondiscoverable, all of which seems to bear on 3 sort of foreign policy matters.

4 Am I correct -- I think we're going to hear a lot about 5 that -- but am I correct in reading that decision that it

9 some of this dictum, the FBI has no such defense, unless we're 10 really trodding on those same grounds.

11 Mr. Epstein. Of course, there is another issue in the 12 Bureau materials, because we're on the issue of investigative 13 files, which has never been really litigated, and that 14 is the propriety of Executive Privilege when it comes to that.

15 I might add that the importance of the issue of going 16 to subpoena on these really raises that, because if we go to 17 subpoena on documents, then that is going to be worthless unless 18 we know in advance that we are going to win in court in a short 19 period of time, including whether we have jurisdiction to be 20 there.

21 Senator Mondale. In other words, you are saying they are 22 going to raise the Executive Privilege defense, but that was 23 the Nixon defense.

24 Mr. Epstein. I think that they would love for us to be in 25 the position of having to issue a subpoena for documents,

1 because then it would be a year.

2 Mr. Schwarz. The problem is the Ervin Committee was found 3 not to have jurisdiction to issue the subpoena.

4 The Chairman. Well, we know we're going to do the next 5 step on that.

6 Now, may I raise one other point --

7 Senator Baker. That's not quite true. The Ervin Committee 8 wasn't found to have no jurisdiction or standing to seek the 9 documents or to issue subpoenas, but they failed to carry the 10 burden of proving that it was required under the mandate of 11 their inquiry.

12 Now, I have another matter, Frank.

13 The Chairman. We have two or three matters. Can I 14 recognize Senator Mondale first, because he had asked it.

15 Senator Mondale. A few days ago, when the White House 16 people were here, they showed us a document which we have in 17 our files which disclosed that President Nixon in 1970 had 18 ordered the delivery of three machine guns to some people in 19 Chile and had done so with instructions that that order should 20 go directly to some subordinate officials in CIA and should be 21 done without advising the official channels. And it is thought 22 that they were directed against a General Schneider, who was 23 a top official in the Chilean government opposed to a coup.
24 He was a Constitutionalist.

25 Schneider was killed, and there was a machine gun in the 1 possession of those who did so.

2 Now what I would like is, while we finish this cycle on 3 assassinations, that we include among our studies of alleged 4 assassinations this matter and we request the documentation, of 5 all appropriate documents, under the category of assassination.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Senator, when that document came to our 7 attention, we questioned a person who expands upon the allega-8 tions contained in the documents. I wrote a letter to the 9 White House and the CIA. We wanted forthwith to receive 10 copies of all such documents relating to the passage of weapons.
11 We have had no response from the CIA.

12 Mr. Hills, we met with in the White House a week ago 13 Tuesday or Wednesday, and I said we must have the documents and 14 he said you cannot have them until you have the briefing on 15 Chila, because we refuse to accept this as an assassination 16 plan.

17 The Chairman. May I make this suggestion, Senator 18 Mondale?

19 First of all, I believe that it is absolutely imperative 20 that the Committee complete its investigation on the issue of 21 the assassination of foreign government leaders before the 22 recess and issue its report. That puts us under great pressure, 23 but if we don't do it, I am going to ask the Committee to stay 24 on the job. I would like very much to go to China, that is my 25 first opportunity in forty years to go to China, and I have

1 such a trip laid on, but I am going to set it aside and ask 2 the Committee to continue its work right into the recess until 3 this is done. Otherwise, we are in a hopeless situation.

4 Senator Schweiker. I think, Mr. Chairman, if we don't 5 finish it by then, we never will.

6 The Chairman. We never will.

7 I think we should look into this assassination, it is an 8 assassination. I think it's part of our responsibility to 9 look into it. But it is not an assassination, whatever the 10 CIA input may have been, it is not an assassination of a head 11 of state, and so therefore I don't want it to further delay 12 the completion of this phase of our inquiry.

13 Now with that in mind, I am in full accord with what 14 Senator Mondale says.

15 Senator Schweiker. Could we put it to another phase and 16 not in this phase?

17 The Chairman. Yes, we are going to have a phase on Chile, 18 anyway. It would fit into the Chilean case.

19 Senator Mondale. It is significant because if we accept 20 their interpretation that it is not assassination, then we 21 avoid an understanding that we had that these documents, all 22 supposed to be available, then we get into a discovery problem.

23 In other words, I know what we're getting at, and I would 24 guess that we should proceed as rapidly as possible, but we 25 shouldn't hold up the cycle of --

1 Senator Schweiker. Well Fritz, there is another question
2 along the same lines, and that is why I don't want to see it 3 cloud this issue, and that is the Glomar Explorer, stopped by 4 the NLRB proceeding was shown to have stopped in Chile just 5 about a week or so before Allende was killed, just by coincidence 6 for mechanical repairs. I would like to find out that one, 7 too.

8 But this is a whole new thing. This puts us into the 9 Chile thing. Because I'm just as interested as you are. I 10 don't see that it hurts anything to put it in a Phase II 11 proposition with Chile.

12 The Chairman. And Fritz, we can say that the Committee 13 regards it in the category of assassination, but we can differ-14 entiate it from the initial report, which does deal with 15 foreign leaders.

16 Senator Hart of Michigan. Mr. Chairman, before you go to 17 a new subject -- and I am uneasy raising this -- but your 18 reply reminds me, you say that we are going to conclude assassina-19 tions and issue our report before we go on recess. I think that 20 disposes too readily of the problem that is going to confront 21 us in a very few weeks, and that is having heard all of this, 22 now what do we do? I don't think we have decided yet how we 23 are going to present, once we open the doors, we've got to know 24 how we are going to handle it. I don't think we ought to lock 25 ourselves in at the moment to a written report, as we leave town.

1 the first of August.

2 Senator Baker. I agree with you 100 percent.

3 The Chairman. This Committee has got to get its business
4 done and I know the purpose of the delay downtown is to make it 5 as difficult as possible for us to cope with our work. We will 6 be engulfed completely if we cannot deal with this phase of 7 our work in the time that we have given it and put it over until 8 the fall. What I'm suggesting is not just simply the report of 9 the Committee. We are going to complete our witnesses, and 10 we have time to issue such a report.

11 I am also suggesting the recommendations the Committee will 12 make with respect to this issue. We have to put this behind 13 us. It is just folly not to do it, because we must get on with 14 the other phases of the report and there is no reason we cannot 15 do it. If we can't do it by the end of this month, then we're 16 not going to be any more advantaged or any better advantaged 17 to then go out on our recess and come back and take it up anew 18 in the fall. It is a very clear-cut issue.

19 Senator Hart of Michigan. But what is not clear-cut to 20 me is how we report to our peers.

21 The Chairman. We will take that up.

22 Senator Schweiker. We discussed that at one meeting. We 23 had a little informal meeting. Maybe you missed that, Phil.

24 The Chairman. There is nothing that could be gained by 25 putting it off or deferring it or postponing it. It is very 1 clear that we are working at a highly intensified pace in 2 order to get the necessary evidence, and then there is no reason 3 why we can't address ourselves to this question.

4 Senator Hart of Michigan. The only reason that I raise 5 that is that I am as anxious to conclude this chapter, but this 6 Committee, as a Committee, then must decide the ultimate 7 question: do you have open hearings? Do you go to a closed 8 Senate?

9 The Chairman. That will be a top item of consideration for 10 the Committee. I have only deferred this discussion thinking 11 that we had best get all of the evidence first. That is all.
12 Then we will take it up at an appropriate time and discuss it.

13 Senator Baker. Mr. Chairman, do I understand the situation 14 to be then it is your hope that we will finish our Executive 15 Session testimony before the August recess, but not a report 16 to the Senate?

17 The Chairman. No, that is not my position. My position is 18 that we should complete the testimony and make our report and 19 recommendation on this issue.

20 Senator Baker. But without prejudice to a future determina-21 tion of whether we have public hearings?

22 The Chairman. Oh, yes, that's always open to us. But I -- 23 let me make it -- let's not have any misunderstanding there.

24 It is always open to this Committee to decide whether 25 public hearings on this or any other issue should be arranged in

1 the fall. Obviously, we cannot have them until fall.

2 My personal position is against public hearings on the 3 issue of assassination. But what I am proposing is that the 4 Committee make its report, and I think that is a question the 5 Committee will have to take up and decide, and I think the 6 appropriate way to disclose these facts, and I personally believe 7 they must be disclosed, is through a report of the Committee
8 that is made public, and I think that report should be made 9 before the recess.

10 Senator Baker. I don't think we can do that.

11 Senator Tower. Mr. Chairman, physically we have got three 12 weeks. Whether we can hear all of these witnesses and sit down 13 and prepare the report and have the Committee agree on the 14 report, report it to the Senate and have the Senate act on it 15 in three weeks is questionable in my mind. I, like you, want 16 to do it, but I wonder if we can do a workmanlike job and do 17 it in that time.

18 The Chairman. Well, let me say this, that the very request 19 that Senator Baker has made, and I hope we don't get into a too 20 prolonged discussion on this issue because we cannot decide 21 it right now, but the very report that Senator Baker has asked 22 for is now in the process of preparation. That report gives, 23 by necessity, as much of the meat, the briefs that Senator 24 Baker has asked for, as much of the report, laying out the 25 factual, the evidence that the Committee has seen. And I think

1 this can be done. I know that we have to work very hard to do 2 it, but I know that our position will be much worse in every 3 way if we fail to do it.

4 Now without trying to decide that now, let us proceed.

5 Senator Schweiker. May I make one comment on that, Mr.
6 Chairman?

7 I have had vacillating feelings on public hearings, and I
8 think what I have come down on is this. I think we should go 9 ahead and issue a preliminary report without public hearings.
10 I think we should put the matter of public hearings in abeyance
11 until we get into the Chile thing and some of the other areas 12 of so-called assassinations that may not be Presidential 13 assassinations per se and leave the Committee option that we 14 may well want to elect to go into what happened in Chile 15 publicly and bring up that assassination if that is what we 16 determined.

17 I have trouble determining at this point in time whether 18 we should have public hearings, and I think we ought to keep 19 that option open as we go along.

20 The Chairman. I have no argument with the Senator on that 21 score.

22 Senator Schweiker. I know. As I say, it reconciles with 23 your views and it protects the rights of those who say they 24 want public hearings.

25 The Chairman. I have no argument with that.

1 Senator Baker has another matter.

2 Senator Baker. It won't take but a brief moment.

3 I think I owe the Committee on a report on the statement 4 that I made to the Press a few moments ago. I did not intend 5 to make a statement, but that it becomes impossible to avoid 6 when you step outside in these circumstances.

7 The Chairman. It is a good thing for you that Senator 8 Morgan is not present.

9 Senator Baker. As some of you may know, the news last 10 night and again this morning carried a story to the effect that 11 a Colonel, a retired Colonel in the Air Force by the name of 12 Fletcher Prowdy, has alleged by Alexander Butterfield was an 13 associate or an employee or a plant of something of the sort of 14 the CIA when he was at the White House.

15 I was asked if I had any comment on that. I was asked if 16 I was surprised by that, and my reply was I had heard that 17 story before. I had never commented on it because I had no 18 proof of it. And it's really so. As you know, in this town 19 if you don't have confirmation of it you get into deep 20 trouble.

21 Second, that I think it is worthy of looking into, and I 22 said I thought the Prowdy statement added a new dimension to 23 the rumors and I thought that it did warrant further investiga-24 tion, that I would recommend that to this Committee at the 25 appropriate time.

1 The Chairman. That is fine, and I have also said that I

5 pursuing it and getting further information.

6 Senator Schweiker?

7 Senator Schweiker. I have a brief matter I would like to 8 seek the Committee's advice on.

9 Could we go off the record a minute?

10 The Chairman. Yes.

11 (Discussion off the record.)

12 Senator Hart of Colorado. I'm sorry, Mr. Chairman, I have 13 an item of business also.

14 When I was in Europe last week and pursuant to the 15 direction of the Chairman and staff I tried to contact our 16 friend QJWIN to try to wrap up that link of the chain with, I 17 must say, the complete cooperation of the CIA and Mr. Colby, 18 who in fact sent a person over there to help uncover this 19 individual. We know who he is and where he is.

20 The CIA American contact talked to him, largely for the 21 reason that he feels extreme loyalty still to the Agency and to 22 one or two particular people that he worked with and through.
23 He opted not to meet with me or anybody else. The feeling is, 24 both on my part and Mr. Colby's, that if we got his contact in 25 that chain to get in touch with him directly that he would talk

1 to us, and I leave it to the Committee whether this is 2 important enough for us to pursue and it would probably involve 3 a couple of people going back over.

4 Senator Baker. What is your recommendation?

5 Senator Hart of Colorado. My own feeling, based almost 6 purely on the principle that no stone should be left unturned 7 is that we should do it.

8 There are some unanswered questions. He was here in the 9 states in '63, he was not confined to one operation and we 10 don't know what he was doing.

11 Senator Baker. Mr. Chairman, I would recommend that we 12 commission Senator Hart to do that for us.

13 Senator Hart of Colorado. It would take the cooperation 14 of one of the witnesses we've had here before to do it.

15 The Chairman. What is your recommendation, Senator 16 Hart, I'm sorry?

17 Senator Hart of Colorado. That we should do it, that we 18 should get the cooperation of Mr. O'Donnell.

19 The Chairman. That we should do what?

20 Senator Baker. Interview QJWIN in Europe.

21 Senator Mathias. Which means somebody has to do it and 22 take O'Donnell with him.

23 Senator Baker. Take Mathias and Hart.

24 The Chairman. It is a very sensitive matter, if his

1 Senator Schweiker. What would you hope to get out of 2 it, Gary?

3 Senator Hart of Colorado. What his orders were, what his 4 scope of authority was, what he was doing over and above -- well, 5 what he was doing in the Congo, what he was doing over and 6 above his Congo operations, why he was in Florida in 1963.

7 The Chairman. Well, Gary, when you told me this, you 8 told me that this man had said to the CIA go between who was 9 trying to arrange this interview that first of all he preferred 10 not to be questioned, and secondly, if he were questioned, he 11 would lie.

12 Senator Hart of Colorado. That was on the basis of the 13 appointment we were trying to arrange then, and that was purely 14 because of his loyalties to the Agency. The case was not 15 presented well to him. What I am saying is if we took back his 16 contact for whom he feels loyalty and the fellow should talk, 17 I think the feeling of the person who had made the original 18 contact is that he would talk.

19 It was not presented to him in the way that the Agency 20 wanted him to do it.

21 The Chairman. How valuable do you think this information 22 is to the Committee? I'll tell you my concern. My concern is 23 the one thing I have feared more than anything else, in this 24 investigation is that we take some action that allows them to 25 say that we have blown the cover of some valuable agent abroad,

1 and this is what they feared all along, and the whole intelli-2 gence apparatus would be gravely weakened and the men in the 3 field would be jeopardized by investigation of this kind.

4 We take that chance with this kind of -- and what do we 5 learn from it? Is it worth that chance?

6 Senator Hart of Colorado. Well, that question could be 7 asked of any witness that we have in here. Number two, the CIA, 8 Mr. Colby and the Chief of Station in [REDACTED] have no doubts 9 that this can be carried out without any security breach what-10 soever. Now that's the CIA. He has not worked for them in 11 ten years.

12 The Chairman. And the CIA would be the first to jump 13 upon the breach and say, we told you so.

14 Senator Hart of Colorado. Well, I leave it to the 15 Committee. I can't tell you what we're going to find out, it 16 may be zero.

17 Senator Mathias. The Station Chief does not raise that as 18 one of the dangers.

19 Senator Baker. Yes, they did.

20 Senator Hart of Colorado. Nor does Colby.

21 Mr. Wides. Mr. Chairman, excuse me. The paper that 22 suggests the possibility that Mr. Win might have been in the 17 I meant to say it, and I frankly forgot, just so my colleagues 18 know what I'm about and not that I'm doing it behind their 6 Mr. Schwarz will renew the questioning.

7 Mr. Schwarz. Mr. Bundy, I want to call your attention now
8 to 1963, the Missile Crisis is over. Was there another reassess-9 ment of Cuban policy in the winter and spring of '63?

10 Mr. Bundy. Yes, there was.

11 Mr. Schwarz. Again, did that reassessment of Cuban policy 12 involve a lot of reassessment of a lot of options?

13 Mr. Bundy. That is my refreshed recollection.

14 Mr. Schwarz. All right.

15 We've shown you a lot of documents, mostly by you in that 16 period, but some to you as well, and was one of the options the 17 consideration of the possibility that Mr. Castro might defect 18 or might be communicated to in a way that would bring him around 19 more closely to the United States?

20 Mr. Bundy. The question of opening communications with 21 Fidel Castro arises in 1963, I think at more than one time, 22 and without having my attention drawn to specific documents, I 23 wouldn't be able to spell that out very much.

1 Mr. Schwarz. Now, have you had a chance to read them

3 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

4 Mr. Schwarz. In summary, Mr. Bundy, is it a fair charac-
5 terization of these papers that you were, and the Standing 6 Group was, examining the question of what the situation would 7 be if Castro were to die?

8 Mr. Bundy. That is one of the things we were examining, 9 certainly.

10 Mr. Schwarz. That was a gamut of matters I tried to 11 pose at the beginning of this line of questioning?

12 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

13 Mr. Schwarz. That was one of the things you were consider-14 ing?

15 Mr. Bundy. Right.

16 Mr. Schwarz. This was a period of time, as the fall of 17 1961 may also have been, when people asked about or talked 18 about assassinations as a means of causing Mr. Castro's death.

19 Mr. Bundy. I am not aware of much conversation on that 20 subject in the spring of '63, so I would have to take your 21 word on that.

22 Mr. Schwarz. I am asking you, I have no word on that.

23 Mr. Bundy. No, I don't think there was much discussion in 24 the spring of '63 on that subject.

25 Mr. Schwarz. Well, let's see if we can agree on some 1 things first.

2 Can we further agree that the ultimate conclusion was that 3 Castro's death would not be desirable for the United States?

4 Mr. Bundy. The recommendation, or the assessment, which 5 comes back from the Office of National Estimates, makes it 6 clear that the odds would be that, upon Castro's death, his 7 brother Raul or some other figure in the regime would, with 8 Soviet backing and help take over control.

9 Then it goes on to say that there might be divisions and 10 splits, but that it was unlikely that anti-Communist forces 11 would be able to take over without extensive U.S. help and 12 probably U.S. military intervention.

13 Mr. Schwarz. All right.

14 Now, I would like to avoid having to go through every 15 single document.

16 Mr. Bundy. So would I.

17 Mr. Schwarz. And see if I could get you to agree with 18 this statement. You do agree that you were looking at a 19 situation that would exist as if Castro were killed?

20 Mr. Bundy. That is one of the things we were looking at.

21 Mr. Schwarz. And in connection with that, was his being 22 killed by assassination one of the ways which you understood 23 he might be killed?

24 Mr. Bundy. I don't have any recollection of that point, 25 of it being on our minds.

1 Mr. Schwarz. All right.

2 Then why were you looking at the question of his being 3 killed? Was there something known?

4 Mr. Bundy. I really don't have any independent of it.
5 My sense of events in 1963 is that the internal pressure from 6 within the Administration to "do something about Cuba" was 7 very much lower. There was, however, external pressure. There 8 was political pressure in the United States, critics of the 9 Administration were making speeches about how not enough was 10 being done and we must get rid of the Castro regime, and as I 11 think I may have said earlier, and I would like to say now, 12 I think that one reason for getting an estimate of this kind 13 was to get it on record from the point of view of those who 14 did not think we should be fussing with questions of assassina-15 tion or anything like it, that it was not a sound policy, 16 leaving aside its moral meaning and wider political meaning 17 from the point of view of the narrow objectives we had in Cuba.

18 Mr. Schwarz. Who was taking the position that assassina-19 tion could be --

20 Mr. Bundy. I have no recollection on that.

21 Mr. Schwarz. But someone was?

1 conversation or position that triggered this particular 2 inquiry.

3 The Chairman. Well, isn't it perfectly plausible that 4 this inquiry sought to examine what the situation would be in 5 the event of Castro's death by whatever means it might occur?

6 Does it necessarily follow that because the Administration 7 was making such a plausible inquiry against such a contingency 8 that might arise at any time that therefore it was within the 9 mind of the Administration to kill Castro? I don't see the 10 connection.

11 Mr. Bundy. Well, you make my point, Mr. Chairman. That's 12 just my point.

13 Mr. Schwarz. Now in connection with that, would you look 14 at your own Agenda for the April 19th meeting, 6-G?

15 Under item 1 -- you distinguish between item 1 and item 16 2. Item 1 is the possible use of contingencies for the 17 achievement of wider political objectives; and item 2 is programs 18 that might be initiated by the United States government.

19 I call your attention to the fact that the reference to 20 the possible death of Castro is one of the items under item 21 1 and not under item 2.

22 Mr. Bundy. That is correct.

23 Mr. Schwarz. And do you regard that as relevant to the 24 exchange you had with the Chairman just now?

1 point, that you have a number of possible things that might 2 happen, that you would then have something to do something 3 about, or to act in the light of. The other are the things 4 that you might do without waiting for some contingency to 5 arise.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Now the only remaining question I have on 7 this group of documents is, how was it that the subject of the 8 death of Castro -- do you investigate the possibilities of the 9 death of foreign leaders as a regular matter?

10 Mr. Bundy. Well, the question, "After Stalin, What?" was 11 the staple of discussions in the 1940's, everywhere, academies 12 and I would assume inside the United States government; the 13 question after DeGaulle was a question about Western European 14 policy for a great many years. And one could pick smaller 15 figures, more and less controversial, and have the same kind of 16 question coming up, in a situation in which a particular 17 individual is as dominant a figure in a set of events which 18 it had the two, quite contrasting but heavy consequences of the 19 Bay of Pigs and the Missile Crisis, it doesn't seem to me to 20 be an irrational question to ask, without any relation as to 21 whether the United States itself would have any active advisory 22 role or any role whatever in having that event come to pass.

23 Mr. Schwarz. All right.

5 Mr. Kelley. Yes.

6 Let me show Mr. Bundy the documents.

7 Mr. Schwarz. Well, first, will you tell us where the 8 documents are, because I couldn't find them under the heading 9 you gave us.

10 Mr. Kelley. Yes.

11 In Bundy Book 2, there is at Tab A the memorandum dated 12 July 25th, 1963 from Mr. George Denney to Mr. Crimmins, 13 entitled "Cuba, Possible Courses of Action."

14 At Tab B of Bundy Book 2 is a memorandum dated September 15 20th, 1963, from Gordon Chase to Mr. Bundy, and this memorandum 16 summarizes the Denney memorandum of July 25th.

17 Mr. Bundy, did you review these documents with members of 18 the staff earlier this week?

19 Mr. Bundy. Yes, I did.

20 Mr. Kelley. Do you have any independent recollection of 21 these documents?

22 Mr. Bundy. Well, as I read a document of this kind, which 23 comes to me from a member of my own staff, I am very often 24 reminded and I am in this case, that this is a document which 25 I did review and that it reflects his arguments as I then heard

1 them.

2 Mr. Kelley. Who was Mr. Gordon Chase?

3 Mr. Bundy. Well, he was an assistant of mine at the time
4 with special responsibilities for Cuban affairs, and perhaps 5 more widely in Latin America. He was at that time a foreign 6 service officer seconded to the White House.

7 Mr. Kelley. Did he have any responsibility for covert 8 actions?

9 Mr. Bundy. No.

10 Mr. Kelley. Did he provide staff assistance to you with 11 respect to the Special Group or the Special Group (Augmented)?

12 Mr. Bundy. Well, he may have done in some exceptional 13 case when I needed his opinion on a matter, but in ordinary 14 cases he would not have been party to Special Group work.

15 Mr. Kelley. What kind of things did he do with the 16 special responsibility for Cuba? What did that involve?

17 Mr. Bundy. He would be keeping in touch with the Cuban 18 Task Force, which by this time was in the Department of State, 19 the MONGOOSE operation having been disbanded. He would have 20 been responsible for keeping me alert to matters that were 21 proceeding in that Task Force that might have an implication for 22 the White House.

23 Mr. Kelley. Who was the head of the Cuban Task Force?

24 Mr. Bundy. Well I don't want to get this wrong, but I

1 Mr. Kelley. Mr. Crimmins was in the State Department and 2 he was a foreign service officer?

3 Mr. Bundy. That is right.

4 Mr. Kelley. The Cuban Task Force, what was that?

5 Mr. Bundy. Well, it was the successor to the MONGOOSE 6 group, but much less oriented toward secret operations than 7 MONGOOSE, and the review of secret operations then came back
8 under the complete control of the Special Group, by now, I 9 think, called the 303 Committee, which was a lineal successor 10 of 5412.

11 Mr. Kelley. I call your attention now to Mr. Denney's

1 Denney's memorandum.

2 Mr. Bundy. Let me suggest that you focus on Mr. Chase's 3 memorandum with respect to my recollection and responsibility, 4 that is clearly the operative document.

5 Mr. Kelley. With respect to Mr. Chase's memorandum, in 6 his summary of the rationale of proposals, he states, as second, 7 "the present importance of Castro as a nationalist symbol makes 8 him the obvious operational target; assassination is excluded 9 to avoid Castro's martyrdom."

10 Do you have any recollection of why he would exclude 11 assassination? Does that imply to you, or do you recollect, 12 whether Castro's assassination was being considered and here 13 is a staff paper excluding it, because someone asked them to 14 consider it?

15 Mr. Bundy. No, I think it's a simple statement of what 16 I would regard as a rationale assessment of the situation by 17 whoever the original author was, and certainly by the staff 18 man with respect to a subject that emerges directly from the 19 notion that he is an operational target, whatever that means 20 and goes on to say, but we don't mean assassination, because 21 it would make him a martyr, what other reasons against that 22 there may be. It doesn't seem to me that you can read the 23 statement that assassination is excluded as an inference that 24 somebody else is including it.

25 Mr. Kelley. That's all.

4 Mr. Schwarz. Now at that period of time in the fall of 5 1963, were you aware that through the offices of Ambassador 6 Atwood, or Mr. Atwood, as he may have then been called, and 7 through the offices of a French journalist called Jean Daniel, 8 another effort was being made to establish contact with Mr.
9 Castro?

10 Mr. Bundy. I remember the Atwood effort, as I recollect 11 that he came to see me about it. I don't recollect specifically 12 Jean Daniel, although it strikes a chord as you mention it.

13 Mr. Schwarz. What the purpose, very briefly, of Mr.
14 Atwood's effort?

15 Mr. Bundy. Well, as I understood it, he had been approached 16 by someone he knew from Cuba and had been given to understand 17 that there was interest in, Castro had an interest in, opening 18 communication, and he was exploring with us whether he could be 19 encouraged to undertake such an explanation.

20 Mr. Schwarz. And did you encourage him?

9 that assassination devices had been requested by a Cuban for 10 the purpose of assassinating Mr. Castro, and that assassination 11 devices were offered to the Cuban in the fall of 1963?

14 opinion, as a matter of opinion, do you believe that at the 15 same time, at a possible rapprochement with Mr. Castro was being 16 pursued, the President would have authorized or permitted the 17 passage of assassination devices intended for their use on 18 Mr. Castro?

19 Mr. Bundy. Absolutely not.

1 Mr. Smothers. Mr. Bundy, I am going to read through this

3 a memorandum from Helms for the record on MONGOOSE.

4 Reading from this memorandum, Mr. Bundy, reading from 5 Paragraph 2: "The Attorney General" -- well, let me read the 6 entire paragraph.

7 "The Attorney General opened the meeting" -- we're talking 8 about a MONGOOSE meeting -- by expressing the general dissatis-9 faction of the President," -- "dissatisfaction of the President" 10 in quotes -- "with Operation MONGOOSE."

11 Mr. Bundy. What date are we at? The date?

12 Mr. Smothers. The date of the memorandum is 16 October 13 1962.

14 "He pointed out that the Operation had been underway for a 15 year, that the results were discouraging, that there had been 16 no acts of sabotage, and that even the one which had been 17 attempted had failed twice. He indicated that there had been 18 noticeable improvement during the year in the collection of 19 intelligence, but that other actions had failed to influence 20 significantly the course of events in Cuba. He spoke of the 1 appointment by the President a year ago.

2 "The Attorney General then stated that in view of this 3 lack of progress, he was going to give Operation MONGOOSE more 4 personal attention. In order to do this, he would hold a meeting
5 every morning at 0930 with the MONGOOSE operational representa-6 tives from the various agencies (Lansdale, Harvey, Hurwich, 7 Ryan and General Johnson)."

8 Now, the best of our information, Mr. Bundy, is that these 9 meetings were in fact held on a daily basis as indicated, and 10 that they did involve Lansdale and these members of the working 11 group noted.

12 Were you aware of such meetings?

13 Mr. Bundy. I have no independent recollection of them, but 14 that does not sound implausible to me at all.

15 Mr. Smothers. It doesn't sound implausible to me that the 16 Attorney General Lansdale and members of the working group to 17 develop MONGOOSE activities with him?

18 Mr. Bundy. To report to him how they were getting on, and 19 to see if he couldn't, by listening to those reports and keeping 20 a lively -- keeping his lively concern in their consciousness 21 move the thing more rapidly.

22 Mr. Smothers. This is your interpretation of giving more 23 personal attention to it?

24 Mr. Bundy. Exactly.

25 Mr. Smothers. You say you had no knowledge of these in

2 Mr. Bundy. I didn't say that. I said I had no independent 3 recollection of them.

4 Mr. Smothers. They did not come to your attention at that 5 point?

6 Mr. Bundy. I didn't say say that. I don't know that they 7 did, but I don't know that they didn't.

8 Mr. Smothers. But your recollection at this point is that 9 they did not come to your attention?

10 Mr. Bundy. That is not my recollection. I don't recall 11 that one way or the other.

12 Mr. Smothers. Okay.

13 Let me ask you then about your knowledge of the Lansdale 14 situation.

15 Do you know General Lansdale?

16 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

17 Mr. Smothers. Do you know his reputation for truth and 18 honesty?

19 Mr. Bundy. I don't think I have any -- his reputation for 20 truth and honesty, if you ask me the question as one asks it 21 about, you know, all kinds of people, I have no reason to 22 question it. I have doubts about some of the things I have 23 seen attributed to him in recent weeks.

24 Mr. Smothers. Well, let me put it this way. Would you 25 believe General Lansdale under oath?

1 Mr. Bundy. It would depend on what he said.

2 Mr. Smothers. It would depend upon what he said.

3 Is your experience that General Lansdale is trustworthy 4 only on a selective basis?

5 Mr. Bundy. You are asking me questions about matters 6 essentially in which his testimony, as I have seen it reported.

7 Mr. Smothers. No, I am not asking you about his testimony.
8 I am asking you if you would believe him under oath, based on 9 your knowledge.

10 Mr. Bundy. It would depend upon what he said, and if it 11 was a matter on which I had my own knowledge.

12 Mr. Smothers. Without regard to matters that General 13 Lansdale has testified to before this Committee, based on your 14 knowledge of him, your working relationship with him, your 15 knowledge of what other people know of General Lansdale, his 16 reputation in the community, if you will, would you believe him 17 under oath?

18 Mr. Bundy. I would currently have to say that I could not 19 give you a definite affirmative answer to that question.

20 Mr. Smothers. That's fine.

21 Now, let's go back to the period of General Lansdale's 22 appointment.

23 General Lansdale was appointed as the coordinator of the 24 Special Group, the Chief of Operations.

25 After General Taylor's efforts had been under effort for

1 some time, six months, seven months, General Taylor comes in,
2 I believe, in July after he completes his Bay of Pigs examina-
3 tion, General Lansdale is appointed by the President at the end 4 of November.

5 Do you have any present recollection of the circumstances 6 surrounding that appointment?

7 Mr. Bundy. None that goes beyond what I discussed earlier.

8 Mr. Smothers. To the best of your knowledge or recollection, 9 did the appointment of this Chief of Staff or Chief of Operations 10 reflect any lack of confidence in General Taylor on the part of 11 either the Attorney General or the President?

12 Mr. Bundy. No, the opposite. General Taylor had heavy 13 responsibilities in his general responsibility as military 14 representative of the President. He was made Chairman of the 15 Committee to keep oversight on this. It was inappropriate 16 entirely in terms of his rank and his other duties that he 17 should be the day to day action officer.

18 Mr. Smothers. Are you familiar with the degree of General 19 Taylor's involvement with the development of the Special 20 Group (Augmented) agendas? Was this done by General Taylor?
21 Was it really General Lansdale's responsibility?

22 Mr. Bundy. I don't have any knowledge of the details of 23 the operations of the staff. It was clear to me, and I think 24 to everyone else, that the man in charge of that operation, of 25 that Committee, was General Taylor.

1 Mr. Smothers. Okay.
2 Just one final series of questions.
3 If we might, Mr. Bundy, go back to our conversations 4 regarding your request to see documents prior to your testimony
5 before the Rockefeller Commission, when you talked to Mr.
6 Kissinger, precisely what did you request of him?

7 Mr. Bundy. I said to him -- and again I cannot be precise -- 8 and I thought that there were going to be questions with respect 9 to which it would be much easier for me to give helpful and more 10 accurate answers if I could have access to appropriate documents 11 since I have taken no documents of that character, no official 12 documents of that character, from the White House. And he said 13 he entirely agreed and he made the appropriate arrangements.

14 Mr. Smothers. Did you ask for a timeframe for these 15 documents?

16 Mr. Bundy. I don't recall that I did, but when I came to 17 look more closely at what I needed to see, as I told you 18 earlier, it related specifically to the period around August 19 1962.

20 Mr. Smothers. Did the White House make the selection of 21 documents for you?

22 Mr. Bundy. No. The White House handed me a file of 23 documents which covered the period.

24 Mr. Smothers. They handed you a file of documents covering 25 roughly the August 1962 period?

1 Mr. Bundy. That's right.

2 Mr. Smothers. Had you made a request for documents
3 covering this August '62 timeframe?

4 Mr. Bundy. I must have told him the rough period with 5 which I am concerned. Again, I don't understand the drift of 6 your question.

7 Mr. Smothers. Well, the drift of my question is, if indeed 8 you selected the August 1962 documents, why did you select 9 that?

10 Mr. Bundy. Because Counsel to the Rockefeller Commission 11 had directed my attention to the period.

12 Mr. Smothers. To August 1962?

13 Mr. Bundy. Yes.

14 Mr. Smothers. In the file that centered roughly on this 15 point in this timeframe, included NSA memo 181, was the file 16 put together by the White House pursuant to this guidance?

17 Mr. Bundy. The file that came into my hands, whether 18 they put it together or whether it was a file drawn off the 19 shelf, I can't tell you. You'll have to ask them.

20 Mr. Smothers. Did it appear to you to be an off-the-shelf 21 file?

22 Mr. Bundy. I don't know what it was.

23 The Chairman. What is the object of this series of 24 questions, Curtis?

25 Mr. Smothers. Well, I am trying to determine, Mr. Chairman,

3 The Chairman. Don't we have that now in the record?
4 It just seems to me like we're going over the same series of 5 questions.

6 Mr. Smothers. Well, since we don't know what was in the 7 file --

8 Mr. Bundy. Well, I thought I said the file was a file of 9 National Security Action memoranda, a file which you already 10 have here.

11 Mr. Smothers. Relating to August, 1962?

12 Mr. Bundy. Uh-huh.

13 Mr. Smothers. That's all I have, Mr. Chairman.

14 Mr. Schwarz. On the Trujillo matter --

15 Mr. Bundy. Sure.

16 Mr. Schwarz. You know Mr. Trujillo was killed. Did you 17 know or do you know that the persons who killed him had 18 obtained some weapons from the United States?

19 Mr. Bundy. I did not know, and do not now know, of my 20 own knowledge that that was the case.

21 I did know, or at least I believe I must have been on 22 notice because of documents again that you have shown me, that 23 weapons by a decision of the Special Group in early January 24 had been or were being passed to Dominican dissidents.

25 Mr. Schwarz. Were you involved in the sending of a telegram

1 to the Dominican Republic, either two or three days prior to the 2 actual assassination of Mr. Trujillo?

3 Mr. Bundy. I have no recollection of it, and when I saw 4 those telegrams in discussions with your staff, they stirred no 5 recollection on my part.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Is it fair to state that Mr. Richard Goodwin 7 is the best witness on those subjects from the White House for 8 that period of time?

9 Mr. Bundy. It appears that way to me, although that 10 appears more from the fact that important documents seem to 11 have been addressed to him than because of my own recollection 12 that he was interested in the matters and because of my phone 13 conversation with him, he showed a considerable familiarity 14 with events in the Dominican Republic, political events during 15 that spring.

16 Mr. Schwarz. Well, you got a memo from Mr. Bissell in 17 February, 17th February '61. It is Tab R of the Trujillo 18 Book 1 of 2, in which you were informed that the dissidents 19 had been told by the United States that it was prepared to 20 provide them with a limited supply of arms and equipment.

21 When you got such information, did it trigger in your mind 22 anything to the effect of, let's be concerned about how they're 23 going to use those weapons, or did you just accept the informa-24 tion and do nothing about it?

25 Mr. Bundy. It is clear that the information was sent to

1 me and it was clear, in that sense, that I had become responsi-
2 ble for knowing what was in the document, but I have to say that 3 as I reread it I have no recollection that I ever, in fact, did 4 read it at the time. Whether that was because of the flow, the 5 very heavy flow of other documents or because I passed it to 6 someone else or because I just simply didn't get to it, I cannot 7 tell you, but I have no recollection that I saw it.

8 Mr. Schwarz. You did make a request for a briefing paper?

9 Mr. Bundy. It must have been done, and it was either done 10 in my name or I did it.

11 Mr. Schwarz. So you're not capable -- you don't remember 12 it. Are you capable of making a comment on my question, which 13 was having received information that arms had been supplied --

14 Mr. Bundy. Having that information on my desk, anyway.

15 Mr. Schwarz. Okay.

16 In the light of hindsight, should persons in your position 17 when they receive such information inquire into the purpose for 18 which the arms are to be used?

19 Mr. Bundy. Yes, I would -- and my own guess on this, and 20 it's not much better than that, is that the decision which had 21 been taken only a week before the new Administration came in, 22 in the Special Group, was partly reviewed in some fashion, with 23 the Special Group as reconstituted after the change in 24 Administration. So I would have to say that I suppose I knew 25 that weapons were being introduced into the Dominican Republic

1 and I would have to add that I did not, or I have no recollection
2 and I think I would recollect it, if I had engaged in a careful 3 inquiry to find out just what, who, when where and so on did 4 not do that, and I think -- you ask in hindsight, I think it 5 would clearly be important to have that kind of understanding, 6 because as I understand the evidence that has now been developed, 7 there was a level of communication and connection with the 8 plotters in the Dominican Republic which exceeded what political 9 authority appears to have expected or believed was going on.

10 Mr. Schwarz. Would you agree with one further point, 11 that it is very difficult for the United States to control 12 events once it has made a decision to cooperate with dissident 13 elements, and in particular once it's made a decision to 14 cooperate with dissident elements by providing them with arms?

15 Mr. Bundy. I think that -- one thing, I don't want to 16 generalize here, but I think -- I would agree with the generali-17 zation, let me put it that way, if I could add that in the case 18 of the Dominican Republic, I think one has also to recognize 19 retrospectively that there was no way to have any communication 20 with dissidents that would not involve recognition that, if you 21 propose to be an effective dissident in that country under that 22 ruler, you would probably be contemplating fairly violent 23 action.

24 Mr. Schwarz. I have nothing further on Trujillo.

1 You were involved in the question of the possible coup in 2 Vietnam that actually took place?

3 Mr. Bundy: Yes.

4 Mr. Schwarz: And you were substantially involved in that 5 as a matter of personal --

6 Mr. Bundy: I was working closely with the President and 7 was probably the draftsman under his instruction of some of 8 the cables that went out.

9 Mr. Schwarz: Now, Diem was killed. It does not appear to 10 me from the record that the United States wanted him killed.
11 Is that fair?

12 Mr. Bundy: That is correct.

13 Mr. Schwarz: But the United States did want him deposed 14 if a coup could be successful? Is that correct?

15 Mr. Bundy: The United States really had two views. Right 16 up to the end, the United States hoped, hoped against hope, as 17 it became more and more difficult to communicate with Diem, 18 that he would see the, or come to share the kinds of argument, 19 that were made to him, primarily by Ambassador Lodge, and that 20 a change in his government and a lower, much lower, role for 21 his brother and sister-in-law would assist him in recapturing 22 public confidence. That was always the preferred solution.

23 As prospects for that became more and more dim, the United 24 States did come to take the view that there might be no alter-25 native to a coup, and it certainly had the view that if there

1 was going to be a coup, I believe the language somewhere in 2 one of the cables is that it was in the interests of the United 3 States that it should succeed.

4 Mr. Schwarz. Now, on the day of the coup, Ambassador
5 Lodge told Mr. Diem that he would provide help to get him out 6 of the country and do so by airplane, but he couldn't have the 7 plane for twenty-four hours. A, did you know of the twenty-four 8 hour point?

9 Mr. Bundy. I don't remember that we did.

10 Mr. Schwarz. B, don't you find it incomprehensible that 11 the United States was not able to supply an airplane for 12 twenty-four hours?

13 Mr. Bundy. I don't really know because it depends on 14 where the plane was going to go, what kind of plane. I don't 15 think I'm competent to answer that question.

16 What occurs to me is, there were lots of other ways of 17 offering asylum for a twenty-four hour period, and I don't 18 think I really find that a very significant point.

19 The Chairman. Any further questions?

20 If there are no further questions, I want to thank you 21 for your testimony, it has been long, a very long morning, and 22 it has been very helpful testimony. We appreciate it very

Thank you very much.
