MEMORANDUM

To: Personal Files
From: Paul Wallach
Date: September 5, 1975
Re: CIA Mail Watch List

INVENTORIED

ON 3/21/77

BY BC

On Friday, August 29, 1975, Messrs. Wallach, Dick and Bushong travelled to Langley to review the Watch List and letters purloined during the New York mail intercept operation.

At Langley, we met with Ernie Tsikadanos and [redacted] -- who is now singularly assigned to the vault to handle FOIA requests -- stayed with us for the three hours we were there. He also -- with color -- briefed us as to the nature of the documents, the retrieval processes and history of the project.

We reviewed the personal files of an "analyst" that Jim Dick uncovered. We also reviewed the current Watch List, randomly sampled the persons whose mail was opened (approximately 80% of mail opened was to or from persons not on Watch List), and selectively reviewed certain months take. In this regard, Jim looked at the months immediately preceding the December 1971 memorandum covering elected or appointed official's mail.

Jim and Tom Dawson had previously reviewed the Watch Lists and taken down selected names. I copied down the list of names, etc., attached hereto.
