BANGUI FOR GOVERNOR WILLIAMS

RMR

Reference: EMBTEL 2683 to Department.

Since I read and gave no official cognizance of Adoula speech (procured by CAS) I called on Khiary who surely drafted it.

Said I heard Adoula was going to make declaration and recalled Khiary's concern that Adoula might turn to Egypt and Ghana (EMBTEL 2665).

Khiary got out text of speech and we chewed over pertinent paragraphs. Khiary defended them strenuously. I said I was afraid of their effect on supporters of Adoula in US, regretted the tone of fait accompli, and said new line seemed to mark a turning from UN concept toward bilateralism. Khiary minimized all this, said Adoula had to say this much to still his more radical colleagues, denied any fait accompli. We discussed entire US, UN, Congo interactions at length and with energy. I left hoping Khiary would at least change tenses from past to future and mode to conditional. Khiary still adamant.

I also said consultations now going in NY between Department, Gardiner and UNNY and US seeking for means to render its aid
