0-1: Please respond to that portion of para 3 pertaining to Jack Whitten and Winston Scott. Also, please respond to para 4. Anne Goodpasture was assigned to WH (Western Hemisphere not White House) historical branch from 1968 to 1971 to write a history of the Mexico Station. Please coordinate your research and response with Jack Pfeiffer, Chief, Historical Branch. Normal practice calls for dispersal of source documents so there may be no "soft file" but Jack should know. However, the history itself cites documents and there is a source index for each history. The source index would permit a reconstruction of a soft file but before considering such action we should get an estimate of the length of time and number of manhours this would require. If the history and source index can be released to the Committee, we might be able to get them to specify the documents they need rather than pulling them all.
