within the scope and pace of the CIA program already approved and under way. Within these parameters, I would appreciate the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on the following specific questions:

a. Would it be desirable to prearrange DOD air or surface support for the protection of CIA raiding craft of U. S. registry in the event such craft are subjected to hot pursuit in international waters by Cuban aircraft or surface vessels?

b. Is such prearranged support desirable for CIA controlled raiding craft  (C)
