Interview:

Ronnie J. Caire, operator of a public relation firm located at 107 Camp Street, "Cigali Building", New Orleans, Louisiana.

Subject states he was hired by Sergio Arcacha Smith to assist his organization in fund raising. Smith was alone; subject planned various fund raising activities, attended meetings, then saw his efforts in regard to their mutual objectives were not being met and terminated the association.

Subject further states that Smith left New Orleans suddenly (due to an amour).

Also states LHO was interviewed by him for approximately three minutes, when he came to his office looking for work, and that no application was completed or filled out by LHO, that his secretary (unknown at this time) reminded him of that, after the assassination and during the time that he was being interviewed by two of the "Garrison" investigators.

Subject stated he never went to Smith's office, knew Guy Banister when he was doing police work and
