MARCY: This guy is freezing all your jobs?
PORCARO: Yeah, the dirty (obs). And the guys I have made in my time. I made..... for Recorder, I put HODGE for Auditor, MARCY: He's gonna make it this month I see.
PORCARO: Yeah.

Now, look what's happening. I lost my clout, I'm out now, but I said don't try to pressure me just because I'm out now. The world changes, what's true today may not be true tomorrow. After all, MOONEY knows what's going on and he has a way of catching up to these guys. I was always friendly to JOHN and tried to do everything I could. This GIROLAMI, he'd rather see JOHN go to jail than do him a favor. But if he won't do what they tell him, watch out.

MARCY: I think you're right.

PORCARO: I'm positive. And that (obs) has got everybody on the payroll. His brother-in-law came from out of town and never worked a precinct. He's on for $14,000 a year. But look, try to straighten this out for me, I don't care how much I get, just so I get it every two weeks. 500 a month. You work it out with him, will you?

MARCY: OK, JOE.

It is noted that TONY/GIROLAMI referred to above is the Democratic Ward Committeeman of the 28th Ward, being the counterpart of PORCARO in this respect. The above conversation brings into focus information furnished by GIROLAMI, who is identical to CG 6498-PC. He has advised the Agent handling him that due to the influence of the FBI over him in recent years he has attempted to slowly but surely cut the ties of the hoodlums and their associates, such as D'ARCO and MARCY, with him. He advised that he is concerned with his actions in this regard due to the fact that he lives "among them" in a predominantly Italian neighborhood on the West Side of Chicago and must leave his wife and child alone frequently at night. He stated that he has received no direct threats but has been approached by MARCY who implied that he and his friends are not happy with GIROLAMI. GIROLAMI has cited several instances where he has been in recent contact with hoodlums, such as GIANCANA and HUMPHREYS, and has refused to do their bidding. One of these recent instances was in November, 1962, when he refused to support PORCARO for the vacancy which existed when he left the Aldermanship of the 28th Ward and became Clerk of the Probate Court. The reference to GIROLAMI's brother-in-law from out of town is a reference to the brother of GIROLAMI's wife, JACK KUBIAK, who is originally from Niles, Michigan, whom GIROLAMI recently placed on the payroll of the Illinois Toll Road Commission.

MARCY then telephonically contacted SID KORSHAK and informed him that he would see him in KORSHAK's office.

MARCY then contacted Sergeant PAUL QUINN, Secretary of Police Commissioner ORLANDO W. WILSON, and attempted to place a school crossing guard on the South Side of Chicago. QUINN apparently informed MARCY that he should contact MATT DANAHER, Administrative Aid of Mayor DALEY, which MARCY then did. DANAHER advised that he would instruct the Mayor's Office to comply with MARCY's wishes and MARCY then recontacted Sergeant QUINN to so advise him.

MARCY then carried on the following conversation with Alderman BENJAMIN LEWIS, Negro Alderman from the 24th Ward of Chicago:

MARCY: Hi, Alderman. What did you do with that guy's wife. Your (obs) right, he's got the arm going for him. Let me tell you something. You might want the arm going for you sometime and it'll be there for you too. Yeah. OK. All right. OK. Yeah, but you don't do that to good friends, Alderman. You know what I mean. That's right, that's right, that's right. Listen, you're my friend, I don't want to argue with you. All right.

MARCY then asked FRED ROTI to obtain the private number of FRANK CHESROW which he dialed after receiving it. He talked to CHESROW as follows:

MARCY: FRANK, PAT MARCY. Give me about five minutes. CE 6-4434. Call me there, go out and call me.
