WFO in view of their interest in this matter.

Local dissimulation has been made to ONI, OSI, INTC, and INS.

Sources utilized are: SJ T-1 is JOSE ERNESTO MUZAURIETA (protected by request), President of American International Life Insurance Company, 1259 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico, who hires several Haitians in his business and still maintains business contacts in Haiti. SJ T-2 is GEORGES LACOMBE, (protected by request), a Haitian, residing at 1953 Borinquen Avenue, Barrio Obrero, Santurce, P. R., and employed as a salesman by American International Life Insurance Company, although a pharmacist by trade. LACOMBE in possession of INS permanent resident card #A12 451 227, which showed he entered the United States at Miami, Florida on 10/21/62 on a O-1 visa. He was born 1/1/31. He resided in Cuba from 1959 to 1962 when he came to the United States.

Member of The Fuerzas Unificadas de Liberacion Haitiana

LACOMBE stated that there are many Haitians residing in Cuba and that during his residence there he and many other Haitians tried to interest the Cuban Government in helping to overthrow the DUVALIER Government in Haiti, but their efforts were to no avail. He stated that as it became increasingly evident that FIDEL CASTRO of Cuba was Communist he attempted to leave Cuba and finally succeeded in October, 1962.

LACOMBE stated the FUL has no funds with which to operate and has no membership other than in Puerto Rico. He stated that PAUL VERNIA, a Haitian residing in the Dominican Republic, is not a member of the FUL but is interested in the overthrow of President DUVALIER of Haiti; therefore, willing to lend his support to any group furthering this cause.

During the interview with LACOMBE it appeared he is an opportunist and that the FUL is a "paper organization". As he pointed out, the number of Haitians in Puerto Rico limits any Haitian group attempting to establish itself in Puerto Rico. During a previous interview with JOSE ERNESTO MUZAURIETA, (SJ T-1), he stated that he had originally hired LACOMBE as a supervisor but as a result of his poor work he reduced him to the position of salesman and LACOMBE has hardly made enough money to support himself.

The attached LHM is being classified "CONFIDENTIAL" since unauthorized disclosure of this information might tend to identify informants of continuing value and jeopardize their future effectiveness.

On September 17, 1963, SJ T-1, a Cuban exile residing in Puerto Rico, who is in a position to know certain aspects of Cuban and Haitian activity in Puerto Rico, advised he had learned that the JURE had held a celebration on September 15, 1963, at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico, commemorating the first anniversary of the JURE. At this celebration the JURE announced the signing of a pact for mutual help with the Fuerzas Unificadas de Liberacion Haitiana (Unified Forces for the Liberation of Haiti) (FUL). The purpose of the signing of this pact was for one or the other group to lend its assistance when Cuba or Haiti is liberated from their respective governments.

The September 17, 1963, issue of "El Mundo", a daily San Juan, Puerto Rico, Spanish language newspaper, carried an article entitled "Cuban Group signs Pact with Haitians". This article indicated in part that the first anniversary of JURE had been celebrated on September 15, 1963 at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. At this celebration, EMILIO GUEDE, chief of propaganda for JURE, announced the signing of a pact of mutual help between the FUL and JURE in order that when one or the other, Cuba or Haiti, is free from dictatorship, the other would help in the fight for liberation. Mr. GUEDE told "El Mundo" that the pact had been signed about one month ago by MANUEL RAY and Dr. ROLANDO AGRAMONTE, secretary of exterior relations, both of JURE, and PAUL VERNA and GEORGES LACOMBE of the FUL. It was indicated that VERNA was from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and LACOMBE from San Juan, Puerto Rico and that both are Haitians.

"Two groups, a coalition of leftist and conservative Haitians led by former President Daniel Fignole and former Sen. Luis de Jole, and a conservative organization led by Pierre Rigaud, have not joined the unity movement."

On September 20, 1963, SJ T-2, a Haitian national residing in Puerto Rico, who is in a position to know certain aspects of Haitian activity in Puerto Rico, advised as follows:

On September 15, 1963, the JURE held its first annual celebration at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico, on September 15, 1963. At this meeting it was announced that a pact of mutual assistance had been recently signed between the JURE and FUL. This pact, entitled "To Public Opinion of the Free World", consists of denunciations of the current Cuban and Haitian dictatorships, branding them as Communist. The last paragraph of this pact indicates that the JURE and FUL agree that should one or the other, Cuban or Haitian, governments fall, the other will consider the fight for the other's independence as an "extension" of their fight for liberation and lend all help possible to bring about the overthrow of the existing dictatorship.

SJ T-2 advised that the only Haitian group known to be presently operating in Puerto Rico is the FUL which was organized on August 12, 1963. The membership of this organization at present consists of three persons, namely GEORGES LACOMBE, FREDRIC BESSON, and RAYMOND CHAMPANA, all Haitians residing in Puerto Rico. BESSON and CHAMPANA have not been active in the FUL nor have they indicated any desire to do so.

At this meeting it was announced that a pact of mutual assistance had been recently signed between the JURE and FUL. This pact, entitled "To Public Opinion of the Free World", consists of denunciations of the current Cuban and Haitian dictatorships, branding them as Communist. The last paragraph of this pact indicates that the JURE and FUL agree that should one or the other, Cuban or Haitian, governments fall, the other will consider the fight for the other's independence as an "extension" of their fight for liberation and lend all help possible to bring about the overthrow of the existing dictatorship.

SJ T-2 advised that the only Haitian group known to be presently operating in Puerto Rico is the FUL which was organized on August 12, 1963. The membership of this organization at present consists of three persons, namely GEORGES LACOMBE, FREDRIC BESSON, and RAYMOND CHAMPANA, all Haitians residing in Puerto Rico. BESSON and CHAMPANA have not been active in the FUL nor have they indicated any desire to do so.

On September 17, 1963 JOSE ERNESTO MUZAURIETA (protect by request), President of American International Life Insurance Company, 1259 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico, advised he had learned through an employee, GEORGES LACOMBE, a Haitian exile, that at the annual celebration of the founding of the JURE held at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico, on September 15, 1963 the JURE announced the signing of a pact for mutual help with the United Front for Haitian Liberation. The purpose for the signing of this pact was for one or the other group to lend its assistance when Cuba or Haiti is liberated from their respective governments.
