During the time he was in NYC, from approximately 9/22/60, to 10/24/60, [JOAQUIN SANCHEZ, Clerk, Cuban Consulate, NYC,] an acquaintance of [DE LA PAZ] for approximately the past year, endeavored to contact him telephonically at his place of employment, the [Latina Shipping Co.] on 4 or 5 occasions. On the last occasion [SANCHEZ] was successful and expressed indignation that [DE LA PAZ] had not returned his calls. [DE LA PAZ] said he informed [SANCHEZ] that he had not returned his calls since he, [DE LA PAZ], has been labeled a counter-revolutionary and did not think it proper for him to be talking with [SANCHEZ] whereupon [SANCHEZ] terminated the conversation. That night, [ANTONIO SOSA, Consul, Cuban Consulate, NYC,] telephonically contacted [DE LA PAZ]. [DE LA PAZ] said he was an acquaintance of [SOSA] during the time [DE LA PAZ] was employed at the Cuban Consulate and when he received the call from [SOSA] he was harsh in his conversation with [SOSA] and [SOSA] wanted an explanation as to why [DE LA PAZ] was so harsh. [DE LA PAZ] said he told [SOSA] that he did not trust [SOSA]. Thereafter [SOSA] inquired about Miami PSI [HEROINA GONZALEZ MELO] with whom [DE LA PAZ] has resided in commonlaw in the past and after [DE LA PAZ] told [SOSA] [SOSA] was doing okay so far as he knew, [SOSA] hung up. [DE LA PAZ] said the above persons plus [MARINA MORALES] and [LUIS GARCIA] mentioned in the enclosure, were the only Cuban Consulate employees he talked with while in NYC.

It is noted that PSI [MELO] advised on 11/7/60, that [MANUEL GUILLOT] told her on 11/5/60, that [DE LA PAZ] had called the Cuban Consulate, NYC, 3 times and had talked with [NILDA NUNEZ, ANTONIO SOSA and PEDRO VEGAS,] all employees of the Cuban Consulate. According to PSI [MELO], [DE LA PAZ] told her after his arrival in Miami on 10/26/60, that [ANTONIO SOSA] had given him $20 and [CELIA GIRONA,] also an employee of the Cuban Consulate, NYC, had given him $5.

PSI [MELO] advised on 11/7/60, that [DE LA PAZ] after his arrival in Miami, left in her residence a rifle with case, rifle number [5MKIROF(F)--5/45M2288,] which [DE LA PAZ] said was a hunting rifle. (S) [DE LA PAZ] when interviewed on 11/8/60, advised mentioned rifle was a rifle he purchased approximately 2 years ago and had left in the residence of an acquaintance, (S) [OCTAVIO LAREDO] in NYC; however, (S) [LAREDO] was afraid to have the rifle around his son, and (S) [DE LA PAZ] brought it to Miami with him. (S)

(S) PSI [MELO] made available a personal letter in the Spanish language dated (11/1/60) to her, which (S) [DE LA PAZ] had left at her residence, shortly after his arrival in Miami. (S) An English translation of the letter reads as follows:

(S) ["November 1, 1960"]

"My dearest (S) [CUQUI:]

"You will not understand what this separation means, maybe you will not understand the reasons for it, but maybe some day you will understand "something," maybe even everything, connected with this short letter.

"I want you always to remember that I am giving up everything that is good, and the happiness I had with you. With God's help, we will be together again and never be separated again.

(S) ["CUQUI," it will be hard for you, I realize that, and even harder for me, since, as I said before, I gave up everything that is good, especially you.

"You know what this letter means. God will forgive me, and I hope you, too, will forgive me.

"From one who loved you, who loves you now, and who will always love you.

/s/ [PEPE"] (S)

(S) PSI (S) MELO also made available a note on a piece of (S) paper with no addressee which (S) she found in a suitcase left (S) at her residence by (S) DE LA PAZ. It was in the Spanish language. (S) An English translation reads as follows: "I am going to Cuba to die or to win, not for personal gain, but to keep the torch of liberty forever lighted." (S)

(S) DE LA PAZ was questioned as to whether he has participated in any practices in training camps or has intentions of going to Cuba. He mentioned the pistol practice referred to in the enclosure, but stated he has been in no training camps and knows of none which exist in Florida. When questioned concerning the note made available by PSI (S) MELO indicating he was (S) going to Cuba, (S) DE LA PAZ was unable to furnish a valid explanation for the note but stated it was a foolish thing to do and that the note had no significance but was part of his plans of breaking off his relationship with (S) MELO. (S)

In view of the fact there is a discrepancy in information furnished by (S) DE LA PAZ concerning his contacts with (S) employees of the Cuban Consulate, NYC, and that information (S) furnished by (S) MANUEL GUILLOT to PSI (S) MELO plus the fact (S) DE LA PAZ has admitted being a member of the MIRR, a counter-revolutionary group, no further contact will be made with him and the 134 file in the Miami Office is being closed.
