utilized as part of this gambling operation. Informant said that when this situation became known, the Village President telephonically contacted HODL, who was then the licensee, and advised him that he was aware of this operation and desired it to cease immediately. On the next day, according to the informant, the operation was closed. Shortly thereafter, the Village President, Mr. D. E. STEVENS, according to the informant, was taken by ROCCO POTENZO in the Village President's office at which time POTENZO offered the Village President $1,000.00 per month to continue in the bookmaking operation at the Airliner. The Village President refused the offer and the issue was closed. u

CG T-5 advised on February 28, 1961, that the Airliner Lounge was operated by HENRY HODL for ROCCO POTENZO, who in turn was described by the informant as Lieutenant of SAM GIANCANA. POTENZO was licensee for this establishment although he had no monetary interest in it. CG T-5 described the gambling operation at the Airliner as being operated on a "sneak" basis and was not a continuing permanent bookmaking operation. It was utilized primarily to handle bets which would normally have taken bets at the Riviera Lounge and these were being taken at the Airliner on an overflow basis. u

6540 North Milwaukee Avenue
Niles, Illinois

During the above described physical surveillance conducted by SAs HILL and INSERRA at the Guys and Dolls Lounge, it was noted that the Riviera Lounge opens at approximately 9:30 p.m. and is utilized, from observation, as a strip-tease parlor and place of procurement. ROCCO POTENZO was observed at that time both at the Guys and Dolls and at the Riviera Lounge. u
