ENCLOSURES

TO BUREAU

Original and copy of letterhead memorandum characterizing the informants used in this report.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The following information except where otherwise noted was furnished by NK 2319-C* on the dates indicated:

On 1/30/64 the informant advised that EUGENE CATENA, a Caporegima in Cosa Nostra, in the New Jersey area, planned to meet with POLIDORI upon POLIDORI's release from the N.J. State Prison at Trenton, N.J., sometime in January, 1964. CATENA planned to give POLIDORI a $1,000 coming out present

According to the informant, POLIDORI is doing, at this time, about $25,000 in numbers play per week.

On 3/31/64 informant stated that POLIDORI is having difficulty in locating the late SAL PACI's shylock accounts and has obtained to date only $100 in payments. He is apparently having some difficulty in locating PACI's records concerning his accounts.

On 6/1/64 informant advised that POLIDORI had given up attempting to collect on SAL PACI's shylock accounts because he had only collected $400 from them. POLIDORI told the informant that the accounts either refused to believe that he was PACI's partner, or told him that they had finished paying their debts before PACI died.

POLIDORI told the informant that he was attempting to start a dress and coat manufacturing business to give himself some legitimate source of income.

The informant added that POLIDORI told him that GENE CATENA was his Caporegima in Cosa Nostra and that he, POLIDORI, was one of CATENA's most loyal soldiers.

On 6/1/64, the informant continued that POLIDORI had met with THOMAS EBOLI, supra, and told him of his desire to meet with LOUIS MANNA and discuss their going into partnership in the numbers business. EBOLI gave his permission for this.

On 6/11/64, the informant stated that SALVATORE LO PROTO was angry at POLIDORI and had stated publicly that he would slap him around when he saw him. LO PROTO was advised by EBOLI shortly after this that he should refrain from so doing because EBOLI would consider it a slap in his own face.

Informant added that LOUIS MANNA and his partner, JIMMY SNAPP, both of whom belong to EBOLI, now have fifty per cent of POLIDORI's numbers business.
