ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

NY 3461-C advised Special Agent J. L. MARTIN on July 18, 1963, that PETEY TRICARDO was not presently hanging out in Brooklyn, because of the debt owed by TRICARDO of $4800 to the informant. Informant stated further that after TRICARDO became indebted to him, he, TRICARDO, borrowed money from another individual which was vouched for by CARMINE PERSICO. It was the informant's opinion that the LARRY referred to as being connected with the TRICARDO gambling operation on President Street in Brooklyn is possibly LARRY ~~CERRILO~~. Informant advised that CERRILO is close to PERSICO. NY

The informant advised that he would be alert for any information on the whereabouts of TRICARDO and would make this information available at once to Special Agent MARTIN if TRICARDO is located.

On July 23, 1963, Potential Criminal Informant WILFRED ROBERTS was contacted by Special Agent RUSSEL F. SULLIVAN and advised that there was little talk among Teamsters regarding the GLOCKNER shooting. The informant stated that the feeling among the men is that TONY PRO (TONY ~~PROVENZANO~~) was in back of the shooting; however, there is nothing concrete to verify these feelings. NY

Informant further advised that cases like the GLOCKNER shooting would be kept quiet and only known by the persons directly responsible, or possibly very close associates of theirs in the criminal field.

On July 22, 1963, PCI THOMAS CLARK was contacted by SA RUSSEL F. SULLIVAN. He advised that he had not heard from "HAPPY" REYNOLDS for the meeting which was to take place on 7/18/63. CLARK advised that RAY WEAN and RICHIE BARRETT are very "jumpy" and believe they are being followed most of the time. As a result of their nervous condition, especially WEAN's, they have cancelled any activities, and WEAN advised he does not intend to do anything until the heat is off.

Informant gave additional knowledge about alleged hi-jacking activity in the New York City area.

On July 23, 1963, PCI CLARK contacted SA SULLIVAN. He advised that RICHIE BARRETT told him that their attorney in NJ wanted to see him (CLARK) and BARRETT at 1:00 p.m., 7/25/63. CLARK advised that the reason was not known by BARRETT. The informant stated he was nervous over the matter, as it was normal for the attorney to get in touch with him (CLARK), and he has never received a message in this manner. The informant brought up the point that if BARRETT suggests a visit to the union headquarters, it could be possible that the union is suspicious of the fact that CLARK is cooperating with the authorities. CLARK was assured that the union would have no way of knowing this, and CLARK should be alert for all information available if he visits the union office.
