P: MOE, I got another spot.....just like, last week, when they came into the joint..... we all ran down into the basement. This guy was there, that guy was there.

G: I DON'T WANT THAT JOINT TO BE A HANGOUT.

P: MOONEY, THERE WONT BE A HANGOUT THERE. I don't give a (obs). There wont be no hangout there.

G: The G is in and out of there all the time.

P: That night, just before you came in, these guys are sitting at tables, talking, yelling, bla, bla, bla. They hurt you, if the G can hear them. Then when you walk in, they shut up, and everybody is like a lamb. They don't respect nobody, except you. If these guys come in, you can't chase them out.

G: I don't want these guys hanging around there.

P: That one night you was there, I was there to see FRANK. I ate, and I left. The next night you came, I was working in the kitchen, they had a leak in there. I usually stay by the liquor store.

I went to see a joint ~~xxx~~ on Rand Road and Elmhurst Road, you know, where that Randhurst Shopping Center is? We can get that joint. A lot of traffic around there, big shopping centers. But MOE, if you sell those guys something, you go a week and you're out of business. That's the only thing. But let me open up until I get one of these spots going. Just for a week or ten days. That place, there are no cars around there. We leave some cars at the Franklin House, some cars at the O'Hare Inn. There wont be no cars around. It ain't like before. We got to watch everything. The night they pinched the big game out
