giving a number of lectures and preparing for a trip to the Soviet Union. LAWSON had wanted to go to the Soviet Union some months prior thereto but was financially unable to do so at the time. His request to do so had been transmitted by the CP, USA, to the CP of the Soviet Union. However, the Soviet Union had turned down the possibility of inviting LAWSON to the country as a guest for the reason that another writer had already been invited to attend a writers' conference scheduled to be held in the Soviet Union. (S)(u)

LA T-16 (5/10/61)

LAWSON was in New York City prior to departing on his current European trip and was expected to sail from Montreal for Europe about the middle of May. While in New York, LAWSON visited the National Headquarters of the CP. (S)(u)

LA T-17 (5/4/61)

The travel plans of JOHN HOWARD LAWSON and his wife included departure from Montreal on May 17, 1961, from where they would go directly to Poland. After a stopover in Warsaw for a few days, they expected to proceed to Moscow in early June. They expected to include an extended stay in Europe where LAWSON is anxious to lecture and write, partly to cover expenses but also to meet with students and teachers at various educational institutions. Sometime during the trip, they expected to visit Czechoslovakia and Germany. (S)(c)
