OPERATION IN CUBA

PURPOSE

CONSIDERATIONS

APRIL (cont.)

- b. "Voice" of Cuban movement goes on the air.

Establishes vital psychological assurance to people that a movement exists to overthrow the regime.

Preferably, the "voice" should be from mobile transmitter inside Cuba. Broadcasts can be brief ones at first: identifying music, slogan, and short news. News to include reports on "resistance" acts, taking credit for all sabotage. As daily broadcasts are established, "criminals against people" should be named and promised swift justice, two names per broadcast. If operational judgment dictates, transmitter can be aboard submarine for early broadcasts, as a strictly temporary measure. It is vital to take risks by having it inside Cuba; a second transmitter and crew should be moved in if the first is lost.

MAY

- c. Re-supply agent operations as necessary.

Deliver supplies to satisfy needs developed by agent operations, if valid.

The agents will have to prove to local partisans that outside support is a reality. Thus, as arms, ammunition, and equipment, etc., are needed to equip resistance groups, we must be able to respond effectively to these needs. Maritime and, as feasible, air re-supply will be used. This capability will have to expand as resistance is developed.

JULY (cont.)

- k. Expand infiltration points along coasts.

To obtain maximum security for stepped-up infiltration.

Original "rat-lines" need to be expanded into a functioning "underground railway" to pass more infiltrates into interior. Means of quick alerts to danger, delaying defenses, multiple routes, coastal watchers and receivers need to be organized and activated.

- l. Low-key resistance sabotage, as a continuing and expanding program.

To demonstrate public disaffection with the regime and give examples which will prompt similar actions by many others. To build attitude and morale of the Cuban people to become activists for their cause against the Communist dictators.

Actions under resistance team guidance can include:

- "Runs" on State food and clothing stores and ransack where possible (prompting similar acts by those who want to get enough to eat and wear).
- Sugar in gas tanks of public buses and local official cars and trucks.
- Ice-picking tires.
- Removing receivers from telephones.
- Harassing telephone calls to officials.
- Throwing stones with threatening notes into homes of officials.
- Disrupting rail switches and sand in gear boxes of trains.
- Swiping spark plugs and distributors from vehicles.
- Housewives complaints on shortages of food, medicine, doctors, etc.
- Public contempt campaign against Cubans in regime's puppet organizations, including effigy burning.

- w. Attack on the cadre of the regime, including key leaders.

To express popular anger against the regime's tyranny and to give harsh reality to the listing of "criminals against the people."

This should be a "special target" operations. CIA defector operations are vital here. Gangster elements might provide the best recruitment potential for actions against police-G2 officials. Bloc technicians should be added to the list of targets. [CW agents should be fully considered.] [A]

- x. Operations liberating political prisoners held by regime, if possible.

To liberate prisoners for impact upon popular support of guerrillas and general resistance program.

This requires a physical survey to obtain precise information on feasibility of bribing guards, breaking way open to release prisoners, encourage prisoners to have hope that tyranny of regime will be overthrown, etc. From these hard facts, decisions can be made on which prison or prisons should be targets for liberation actions. Bold operations are called for; the psychological impact will be very high.

- y. Start blocking assistance from the Communist Bloc.

To shut off Bloc assistance to the island of Cuba by all possible means from the inside.

While appealing to the free people of the world to help shut off Communist shipments of arms being used to kill the Cuban people, the resistance must act on its own inside Cuba - striking against ships delivering Bloc supplies, denying harbors by mining, sabotaging transport aircraft, destroying Bloc supplies in warehouses, and acting against Bloc technicians.

C. ECONOMIC SUPPORT PLAN

ACTIVITY

1. Persuade OAS, NATO and countries friendly to freedom to desist from trading with the Communist dictatorship in Havana.
2. Stop trans-shipment of U. S. items to Cuba, especially via Mexico and Canada.
3. A "positive list" for Latin America subject to licensing procedures for other parts of the Free World.
4. [A] Harassment of shipping destined for or arriving from Cuba.
5. Obtain cooperation of National Foreign Trade Council in delaying or refusing charters to vessels calling at Cuban ports, by mid-March.
6. [A] Introduce counterfeit currency into Cuba, if feasible.
7. Obtain by mid-March the cooperation of U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers to influence U. S. firms having subsidiaries abroad to adhere to the spirit of U. S. economic boycott of Cuban regime.

PURPOSE

To build anti-regime feelings among Cuban people, by economic squeeze.

To reduce supply of items and parts critical to the Cuban regime's economic program.

To reduce supply of special interest items.

To delay and reduce supplies Cuban regime needs in economy.

To reduce supplies the Cuban regime must have to keep economy going.

To disrupt Cuban economy.

To harass Cuban economy.

CONSIDERATIONS

The regime may be weakened as the Cuban dollar market is depleted through loss of credit line. Requires full cooperation of allies and friends. (State responsibility with CIA and Commerce.)

Target is Cuban sugar economy, power petroleum, communications, transport. (State responsibility with CIA, Commerce, Justice.)

(Responsibility of State with Commerce and CIA participating.)

Union leadership can help in this. Security or administrative reasons can be used for actions if a reason is required. (Responsibility of CIA with State, Commerce, Defense, Justice, Labor and Treasury participating.)

(Responsibility of State, with Commerce and CIA participating.)

(Responsibility of CIA with Treasury and Justice participating.)

(Responsibility of State, with Commerce and CIA participating.)

1. Create atmosphere of a "crusade" for human liberty"
2. Ready broadcast means for "Voice" of inside Cuban movement, to commence broadcasting in April.
3. In March, commence visits of prominent U.S. and Latin American personalities to Cuban refugee camps in Florida.
4. Publicity for selected defectors from Castro team.

PURPOSE

To set the deeply-moving tone and motivating force for the liberation of Cuba.

To ensure maximum effectiveness of broadcasts.

To demonstrate concern for plight of refugees, particularly parentless children.

To demonstrate Cuban regime's failure to live up to promises of original 26th of July movement.

CONSIDERATIONS

All media. This means maximum use of spiritual appeal (such as the prayer for Cuba by Bishop Boja Masvidal who has a genuine Cuban revolutionary background), recapturing the ideal of Marti by taking use of his memory away from the Communists (even to issue of commemorative U. S. stamp), and popularizing songs by commercial recordings. (USIA and CIA responsibility.)

These broadcasts entail considerable work and effort to mount. They have to pay-off every second while on the air. They need identifying music (by guerrilla instruments such as guitar or harmonica), identifying slogan, and a format worth risk to the listener inside Cuba. [If operationally required, initial broadcasts can be taped and transmitted by submarine. As soon as feasible, portable transmitter(s) must be established inside Cuba. (CIA responsibility, with support by Defense and USIA as required.)

Mrs. Kennedy would be especially effective in visiting children refugees. (One camp near Miami has about 1,000 children who came out without their parents.) Her impact upon Latin Americans on the recent Presidential visit to Venezuela and Colombia suggests this. (USIA responsibility.)

Feature stories, documentaries, etc. (USIA responsibility, with help of CIA, Justice, and State.)
