Re Milwaukee airtel to Bureau 8/12/64.
Chicago airtel to Milwaukee 8/12/64,
both captioned as above.

To clarify for Chicago the situation relative to JASPER GALLO, it should be noted that he was alleged to be in Springfield, Illinois rather than Rockford. Informant learned of his visit from TONY MACK (erroneously written in reairtel as TONY MAG) whose true name informant believed to be TONY MACCALUCCI.

Chicago's attention is directed to Milwaukee airtel to Bureau dated 5/27/64, copies of which were designated for Chicago file 92-1173 in which MI 623-C-TE referred to TONY MACK as a member of La Cosa Nostra who was known personally to the informant.

On 8/26/64 MI 623-C-TE viewed photo (furnished by Chicago) of ANTHONY DE MONTE and immediately recognized him as TONY MACK. It is noted that the reverse side of the photo lists aliases as ANTHONY or ANTONE MACALUSO. When this was called to CI's attention, he said he had always thought the name was MACCALUCCI, but he assumes the slight difference in pronunciation was his own error. At any rate, it was from conversation with TONY MACK and JOE ZITTO at Rockford on 8/8/64 that informant learned of GALLO's visit to the United States. Informant said on 8/26/64 that he had heard no more about GALLO, but undoubtedly will the next time he can get to Rockford. If any of this information on GALLO's visit is set out in details of a report, the fact informant is from Milwaukee, that he learned of the above in Rockford or that he learned same through TONY MACK and JOE ZITTO, should be omitted and confined to the administrative pages for the informant's security.

On 8/26/64 MI 623-C-TE advised that on the night of 8/23/64 GUS GIAVINGO of Chicago was in Milwaukee and was in contact with FRANK BALISTRIERI, boss of the Milwaukee outfit. They were seen together at Fazio's on 5th Street and were with JOHN AIELLO, JERRY DI MAGGIO and several other Milwaukeeans. Informant said he did not know GIAVINGO's purpose but would try to find out. He said that GIAVINGO was very close to TONY MACK, previously mentioned, and was a member of La Cosa Nostra in Chicago. He said he was about 50 years of age, 6 feet tall, 200 pounds or more with dark hair which was graying.

On mention of the name JERRY DI MAGGIO informant stated that this was a member of the Milwaukee family of La Cosa Nostra whom he had previously overlooked. He said that DI MAGGIO worked as a bartender for FRANK BALISTRIERI and was trusted by BALISTRIERI. DI MAGGIO is also the nephew of CARLO DI MAGGIO, a member of the Milwaukee family of long standing. A new case is being opened on DI MAGGIO.

Re Milwaukee teletype 8/10/64, no copies of which were sent to WFO.

For the information of Washington Field, MI 623-C-TE advised 8/10/64 that JASPER GALLO, who resides in Italy, flew to New York City about April 1, 1964 and was supposedly contacting leaders of La Cosa Nostra for the purpose of obtaining financial assistance for members in Italy who are incarcerated. Approximately 300 members reported in custody, principally around Palermo, Italy.

GALLO described as 70 years of age, 5'8", gray hair, released from Leavenworth Penitentiary about 25 years ago on completion of sentence for bootlegging. GALLO was a former boss of the Rockford family, Rockford, Illinois.

The following additional information is being supplied the Chicago Field Division:

MI 623-C-TE on 8/10/64 reported that two representatives of the Chicago family from the north side gang attended the wedding of the son of PHIL PRIOLA at Rockford, Illinois on 8/8/64. They are: TONY MACCALUCCI (phonetic), aka, TONY MAG, and GUST GIAVINGO (phonetic).
