Subject: Thanks

I would like to thank everybody who helped in various ways during the students' visit this week: Kevin, Brian, and Dave for the projects they gave me; Dave and Kevin for answering questions from the students when I could not; Bob and Kevin for agreeing to discuss the activity of their respective teams; David for taking the time to come out and talk to the students on several occasions (as well as helping fix some computer problems); Joe for carrying the load for the military team by working on stuff I had agreed to do (I owe you for that Arnold letter!); and above all, Doug, for giving a lecture that captured their imaginations and really interested them (and all while being fact-based and without drawing conclusions!). Thanks, everybody. They had another great experience with us.
