Subject: My annual leave; Tom Samoluk and other office matters

I will be leaving for Eastern Europe tomorrow and will not be back until next Wednesday afternoon. (I will be on my annual leave.) Because I will be taking depositions at the Archives next Thursday and Friday, today is effectively my last full-time day in the office until Monday, September 15. If there are any pending matters that you need to have resolved by me before next Thursday, please see me as soon as possible today. If anything comes up in the next few days that will need my immediate attention, please give it to Cathy so that she can send it to me on Wednesday afternoon. I will try calling in for messages from Warsaw on Tuesday. I am going to Europe in conjunction with my work as a member of a panel working for the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE--formerly known as the "Helsinki process") and I will be meeting with the other panel members in Warsaw. (The rumors that I am going to Europe to see if I can find David anywhere are unfounded.) Tom Samoluk will be in the office on Monday through Thursday of next week. He and Tracy will be in charge until David returns (on Wednesday or Thursday).
