There is yet again a pungent odor coming from the refrigerator. If you are a regular user of the refrigerator, please go make sure that you have not left something in there that is rotting. I will be throwing EVERYTHING that is not labeled out today at 3:00. (By the way this is Tracy, not Jerrie). I don't use the kitchen or fridge often, so I'm not sure why it is that nobody else has noticed the problem or taken care of it! Thanks for your
