Bill Burr, the Germany/Europe/Cold War analyst at the National Security Archive will be sending you by courier on Wednesday the information we discussed. As you've probably already seen on your email, I've notified senior staff where I can be reached. I've also left instructions on how to handle any additional public comments on the fedreg notice that will likely come in (copies to me, you, Tom, Val for reading room). I'll be calling in for messages. Also, do you want me to go on the Boston trip? (I wasn't sure it was in the budget, but given the topics to be addressed that may have changed). I'll talk to Miriam over the next few days about this. Perhaps we can chat about it before you leave for Germany. I thought the board meetings went well -- thanks for your kind words about the privacy briefing book and my testimony today. Hope they were helpful. You asked about March 16-- Kevin/Jeremy have scheduled three interviews that day, which is perhaps why it stuck in your mind, so you may want to touch base with them. And finally, have a good trip to Berlin!
