Subject: Research Assignment on Sources and Methods

Body: Chris, Laura, Joan and I began our research today and we have some promising leads. We are looking into information on cases regarding HTLINGUAL, CIA stations and cryptology. Other promising leads will be in journal articles that, for example, mention the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and the relevant Congressional investigations and laws. There is also material published by the Defense Intelligence College that discusses sources and methods. It is anticipated that our work will take us at least through the end of this week.
