Subject: Research Assignment on Sources and Methods

Body: Thank you for your message. The one issue that concerns me is your reference to "cases" involving HTLINGUAL etc. If there are legal cases (i.e. lawsuits), I am interested in knowing about them, but I assume that the most important information will not derive from lawsuits. Make sure that you are pursuing other leads--particularly congressional testimony and academic writings.To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Eric Scheinkopf/ARRB Date: 03/08/95 05:15:07 PMSubject: Research Assignment on Sources and MethodsChris, Laura, Joan and I began our research today and we have some promising leads. We are looking into information on cases regarding HTLINGUAL, CIA stations and cryptology. Other promising leads will be in journal articles that, for example, mention the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and the relevant Congressional investigations and laws. There is also material published by the Defense Intelligence College that discusses sources and methods. It is anticipated that our work will take us at least through the end of this week.
