FYI, re Tom's query.To: Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc: From: Sheryl Walter/ARRBDate: 03/15/95 09:58:00 AMSubject: Re: John Judge Question on CorrespondenceUnless it's withholdable under a FOIA exemption, copies of public correspondence are available to the public. He should file a FOIA request if he wants copies. Or, we can put some such materials in the reading room. As some of this correspondence is sent to us under a request for confidentiality, we probably should opt for the former. Do you know what in particular he is looking for? And, I'm assuming he knows this all will be in the public domain after we are done. Let's talk when you have a minute.
