Subject: Investigator position candidates
1) I am still in search of the elusive notebook of SF-171's which David wanted me to review for investigator candidates. In the meantime Valerie mentioned there are a number of applications for analyst positions in the file room. In general do you think it would be worthwhile for me to review those applications for potential investigator candidates?2) I have contacted several investigator candidates for interviews. I would appreciate it if you could sit in for a few moments on several of the interviews. Are there any dates in the coming month on which you are not available?Thanks....
