Subject: Proposed ARRB "Speakers Bureau"
As a follow-up or "spin-off" of the Board's desire to approach some of the historical and archivists organizations, do you think it is worthwhile to also attempt to go beyond these groups and do outreach to other groups that have guest speakers? I am thinking of organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, and other professional groups. In addition, do you think Board members would want to speak on college and university campuses, if opportunities existed?
