Subject: Additional Marcello Information

You will notice that I left you excerpts from two other books dealing with the BRILAB tapes. In the Davis book, he notes that oral arguments on the tapes played at the Marcello trial (not the ones on which the assassination was apparently mentioned) were scheduled for May 18, 1993. Jim Lesar was apparently the attorney on the case and I have a call into him to find out the status. In addition, Davis said that he made a motion asking the judge to release the 4 assassination-related tapes, which were under seal and not played at the trial, in light of the JFK Assassination Records Collection Act becoming law. I will also ask Lesar about that motion. I will let you know the results.
