Anne has a right to be frustrated. Please address this issue right away. Diane Kelly's phone number is 616-5418. She is not necessarily the person to talk to. I suggested only as an experienced DOJ administrative officer (although I don't know precisely what her current title and function are). She is probably a good place to start. You could also ask Joan Kendrall or even someone from OPM. We need to determine where they get their credentials. In addition, please put some pressure on Nick. It has been too long, and it almost too late to introduce a logo, etc. If he can't get us a satisfactory design within the next week or so, we will have to think about an alternative. To: David Marwell/ARRB, Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc: From: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date: 05/09/95 08:26:06 AM Subject: Credentials/Business Cards I haven't mentioned this since I started but now that I'm out in the field (or more aptly, on the street) and especially in view of the upcoming travel I would like to be able to officially identify myself to those I meet and interview and from whom I seek a response. What would you like to do in this regard?
