Subject: New Orleans Facilities - Info From Kermit Hall

Kermit told me the following:He talked to his former student, Kim Hanger, who is on the Board of Trustees for the Louisiana State Museum, that the key person on getting the use of a facility is Claire Brown, Director of Public Relations, at (504) 568-6990. The main number is (504) 568-6968.The Louisiana State Museum has control over these facilities:Jackson HouseThis building is located behind the Cabildo. It is, according to Kim Hanger, regularly used for lectures, seats 200, is newly re-done, and is well-known, so people would know where it is.CabildoAccording to Kermit, Hanger said the Museum would probably not want our hearing in this building. There is a gallery in it which would mean that they wouldn't want a lot of people coming and going for our hearing.Old United States Mint BuildingThis building is also newly restored and is near the Esplanade. It is not quite as visible as the Jackson House, but it is reportedly very nice and known to people.Kermit suggested that a call to Claire Brown is the way to go. We can reference that we got her name through Kim Hanger, who is a former student of Kermit's, one of the Board members.
