Subject: Boilerplate letter

As you know, I will be out tomorrow and on Monday. In case you hoped to get the boilerplate letters out before Tuesday, I wanted to update you on the status of our correspondence with Customs, IRS, and Postal Inspection. IRS On 5/20/94, Bill sent letter to Donald Squires, Esq., Office of Chief Counsel, Disclosure Litigation, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20535. On 7/14/94, Stephen N. Bryant, Asst. Director, Office of Information Resources Management, Dept. of the Treasury, Washington, D.C. 20220, responded. He included a survey (completed by Squires) indicating that IRS has 52 documents, totalling 203 pages, of assassination records. The inclusive date of the records is 1960-1991. The records consist of paper, textual documents, and tax records concerning the estate of a deceased individual. The documents are located in the IRS National Office and are in good condition. Customs On 5/23/94, Bill sent a letter to the U.S. Customs Service. On 7/14/94, Stephen N. Bryant, Asst. Director, Office of Information Resources Management, Dept. of the Treasury, Washington, D.C. 20220, responded on behalf of the Customs Service. (Same letter as IRS above.) Mr. Bryant indicated that his office had surveyed the bureaus within the Dept. of the Treasury and that IRS is the only division which has assassination records. He invited Bill to call Irving Wilson of his office at (202) 622-1575. Postal Inspection The ARRB has not yet contacted the Postal Inspectors. I have reviewed the HSCA correspondence with IRS, Customs, and Postal Inspection, but I am not sure how you will want to use the limited and rather specific information from those files in this general letter asking the agencies about their compliance with the ARCA.
