Subject: Draft Letter Jack Requested for Supporters
As you know, Jack asked that I draft a letter for our supporters, primarily on the Hill. His idea was that the sending of the letter would coincide with the Board's vote to release some records. When we spoke, before the Board left town, Jack thought a vote to release was imminent. The letter is probably now a little further off than he anticipated at the time. I have attached a copy of my draft for your review. I will not send a copy to Jack until you say okay. I would like to get something to Jack this week, so he doesn't think I forgot about it.
Body: Thus, I anxiously await your thoughts. Thanks.
