Subject: Projects for June 1

Today, while Bob and I are at State, could you please evaluate for degree of review difficulty the remaining Mexico City documents (anything not in the five piles on the far table), adding these to the five piles already there These progress from easiest, at the far left, to the most difficult at the far right. You can add additional piles if you want, indicating further shades in degree of difficulty. We'll go over these all in detail tomorrow. Also, could you please work on a form on which we can make recommendations, per redaction and per document, for the Board. It might be best to plan at the outset to use one form for each document. We can always combine our recommendations into one master list at a later date, should we wish.
