Subject: LAPD/RFK file
FYI. After all my whining, it turns out I hadcome across the RIF for the file you discovered today. Since it described the document as both "unclassified" and "security classified", I put it on a list of documents to be pulled at Archives II earlier this week. It wasn't on the cart that came out of the stacks, though I never got an opportunity to ask Steve about it. Now I know. At least I hadn't missed it in my database search.
